C. Indictment for Forgery, Deed and Acknowledgment.

"And the said prosecuting attorney of said county, prosecuting as aforesaid, further gives the court now here to understand and be informed that heretofore, to-wit, on the 25th day of August, A. D. 1876, at the township in the county of Hillsdale aforesaid, one Eleanor Van Alstine died seised of certain real estate, situate in the township of Somerset aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, and known and described as the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-six, town five south, range one west, and that afterwards, heretofore, to-wit, on the 16th day of April, A. D. 1877, at the township of Somerset, in the county aforesaid, Charles Van Alstine, Charles A. Parker and Edwin C. Cleveland did falsely and feloniously make, forge and counterfeit a certain paper writing, being, or purporting to be, a deed or conveyance from the aforesaid Eleanor Van Alstine, to the said Charles Van Alstine, of the aforesaid described lands, situate in the township of Somerset, in said county, and did then and there falsely and feloniously make, forge and counterfeit on the back of the aforesaid deed or conveyance a certain other paper writing, being, or purporting to be, a certificate of acknowledgment of the execution by the said Eleanor Van Alstine of the aforesaid deed or conveyance from the aforesaid Eleanor Van Alstine to the said Charles Van Alstine, before the said Charles A. Parker, a notary public in and for the county of Lenawee, and state of Michigan, which said deed or conveyance was of a nature proper to be recorded according to the law; and the same, together with the said certificate of acknowledgment, afterwards, to-wit, on the 16th day of April, A. D. 1877, was duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Hillsdale and state of Michigan, in liber 72 of deeds, on page 611, with intent to defraud, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided," etc. People v. Van Alstine, 6 Cr. L. Mag. 715, 719.

D. Indictment for Forgery (Bank Check).

"City and county of New York, ss.:

The jurors of the people of the state of New York, in and for the body of the city and county of New York, upon their oath, present: That George B. Clements, late of the first ward of the city of New York, in the county of New York aforesaid, on the 3d day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, with force and arms, at the ward, city and county of New York, aforesaid, feloniously did falsely make, forge and counterfeit, and cause and procure to be falsely made, forged and counterfeited, and willingly aid and assist in the false making, forging and counterfeiting, a certain instrument and writing, commonly called a bank check, which said false, forged and counter-feited instrument and writing, is as follows, that is to say:

'No. 492.

Jersey City, Sept. 3, 1861.

THE BANK OF JERSEY CITY.

Pay to the order of Livermore, Clews & Mason, twenty-four hundred sixty-six dollars and ninety-three cents.

M. Barker & Son.

Certified by Sparks, Bank, J. C.

With intent to injure and defraud Charles F. Livermore, Henry Clews and Henry M. Mason, and divers other persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present: That the said George B. Clements, late of the ward, city and county aforesaid, afterward, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, with force and arms, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, feloniously and falsely did utter and publish as true, with intent to injure and defraud the said Charles F. Livermore, Henry Clews and Henry M. Mason, and divers other persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, a certain false, forged and counterfeited instrument in writing, commonly called a bank check, which said last mentioned false, forged and counterfeited instrument and writing is as follows, that is to say:

Jersey City, Sept. 3, 1861.

THE BANK OF JERSEY CITY.

Pay to the order of Livermore, Clews & Mason, twenty-four hundred sixty-six dollars ninety-three cents.

M. Barker & Son.

$2,466.93.'

The said George B. Clements, at the said time he so uttered and published the last mentioned false, forged and counterfeited instrument and writing as aforesaid, then and there well knowing the same to be false, forged and counterfeited, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity.

-----, district attorney."

Clements v. People, 5 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 337, 338.

Note. Reversed on error because proof showed only certificate on check to be forged.

E. Indictment for Forgery. Execution of Court.

That L. Y., late of, etc., falsely, unlawfully and wickedly devising, contriving and intending, one A. K., late of the same parish and county, yeoman, unjustly, maliciously and injuriously to aggrrieve, oppress and impoverish, on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, of his wicked mind, invention and imagination, unlawfully, knowingly, subtly and falsely, did forge and counterfeit a certain writing engrossed on parchment, in form and to the likeness and similitude of a writ of our lord the king, of fieri facias, to the tenor following, that is to say, George, etc. (here set out the forged writ with accuracy). And the jurors, etc., do further present that the said L. Y. of his wicked mind, invention and imagination, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, the said false, forged and counterfeit writing, falsely forged, purporting to be a writ of fieri facias, subtly, falsely, knowingly and deceitfully, did pronounce and publish, and then and there, to-wit, on the same, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, subtly, falsely, knowingly and deceitfully, as a true writ of our said lord the king, of fieri facias, did cause to be delivered to the then sheriff of Salop, for execution to be made thereof, and afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, did cause to be seized and taken, divers goods and chattels of the said A. K. by pretense of that writ, to the great damage and oppression of the said A. K. to the evil example, etc., and against the peace, etc. And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said L. Y. on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, of his wicked mind, intention, imagination, a certain false, forged and counterfeit writing, engrossed on parchment, falsely forged, in form and to the likeness and similitude of a writ of our said lord the king, of fieri facias, issuing out of the said court of our said lord the king, of common pleas, unlawfully, subtly, knowingly and deceitfully did pronounce and publish, as a true writ of our said lord the king, whose tenor follows, that is to say (set out the writ), he the said L. Y. then and there, to-wit, on the same, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, well knowing the same to be falsely forged and counterfeited, and the same, then and there, to-wit, on the same, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, unlawfully, subtly, knowingly and deceitfully did cause to be delivered to the then sheriff of Salop, for execution to be made thereof, and afterwards, to-wit, on the same, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, did cause to be seized and taken, divers goods and chattels of the said A. K. by virtue of that writ, to the great damage and oppression of the said A. K., to the evil example, etc., and against the peace, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 1045.

F. Indictment, Having in Possession Forged Bank Note.

“City and county of New York, ss.:

The jurors of the people of the state of New York, in and for the body of the city and county of New York, upon their oath, present: That William Smith, late of the first ward of the city of New York, in the county of New York aforesaid, and John Tomlinson, late of the same place, on the thirteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, with force and arms at the ward, city and county aforesaid, feloniously had in their possession a certain forged and counterfeited negotiable promissory note, for the payment of money, to-wit, the sum of five dollars, commonly called a bank note, purporting to have been issued by a certain corporation or company, called the Judson Bank, duly authorized for that purpose by the laws of the state of New York, a further description of which said last mentioned forged and counterfeited negotiable promissory note for the payment of money, is to the jurors aforesaid unknown, with intention to utter and pass the same as true, and to permit, cause and procure the same to be so uttered and passed, with the intent to injure and defraud one Charles Meyer, and divers other persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, he the said William Smith and John Tomlinson, then and there well knowing the said last mentioned forged and counterfeited promissory note, for the payment of money, to be forged and counterfeited as aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity.

Tomlinson v. People, 5 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 313.

G. Indictment, Having in Possession Fictitious Check, With Intent To Utter.

“And the grand jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further say and present that Chas. F. Allen, at the county of Jackson, state of Missouri, on the thirteenth day of August, 1892, unlawfully did have in his possession and custody a certain false, forged and counterfeit check purporting to be made by H. A. Faunce, a fictitious person, and purporting to be drawn on the Midland National Bank, a banking corporation duly organized according to the laws of the state of Missouri, which said false, forged and counterfeit check is of the tenor following:

‘Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 13, 1892.
Midland National Bank $28, No. 57.
Capital, $500,000.

Pay to Harry F. Allen, for wages $28.50-100.

Twenty-eight . . . 50-100 dollars.

(Signed) H. A. Faunce,’ with the felonious intent to utter, pass, sell and exchange the said false, forged and counterfeit check as true to Julius Stein and Sigmund Stein, parties doing business under the name and style of the National Clothing Company, with intent to defraud them, the said Julius Stein and Sigmund Stein, parties as aforesaid; he, the said Charles F. Allen, then and there well knowing the said check to be false, forged and counterfeit, against the peace and dignity of the state.” State v. Allen, 110 Mo. 548, 22 S. W. 792.

H. Indictment, Forgery of Grain Check.

“First count: In the name and by the authority of the state of Kansas, I, Jno. C. Sheridan, county attorney in and for the county of Miami, in the said state of Kansas, who prosecute for and on behalf of said state, in the district court of said district, sitting in and for the said county of Miami, and duly empowered to inform of offenses committed within said county of Miami, come now here and give the court to understand and be informed, that on or about the 24th day of January, 1884, at the county of Miami, in the state of Kansas, one S. W. Lee, with the intent then and there to defraud, feloniously and wilfully did falsely make, forge and counterfeit a certain instrument of writing, to-wit, a grain check for the payment of money, to-wit, the sum of thirty-five dollars and seventy-five cents ($35.75), the same purporting to be the act of another person, to-wit, of one M. Reed, which said false, forged and counterfeited grain check is of the purport, value and effect as in the following copy. thereof, to-wit:

‘Louisburg, Kan., January 24, 1883.
M. Reed: Pay L. Johnson, for corn, gross _____, tare _____, net _____, bu. _____, at _____, cts., $35.75.

M. Reed,
Per J. H. R., Weigher.’

by which said false, forged and counterfeited grain check a pecuniary demand and obligation was then and there purported to be created, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided.” State v. Lee, 32 Kan. 360, 4 Pac. 653.

I. Indictment, Forged Instrument Lost.

“The grand jury aforesaid, on their oaths aforesaid, do further charge and present that the said John T. Callahan, on April 23d, 1887, at said county and State aforesaid, did then and there unlawfully, feloniously and falsely forge and counterfeit a certain promissory note for the payment of money, by then and there unlawfully, feloniously and falsely forging, counterfeiting and signing the name of John M. Henry to said false, forged and counterfeited note as one of the makers thereof, which said note was dated April 23d, 1887, due in one year after date, payable to the order of Reed & Mackenbach, calling for two hundred dollars, with eight per cent. interest from maturity, and purporting to have been executed by J. T. Callahan, Samuel Hanlin and John M. Henry; that said note has been destroyed, or is in the possession of some one to the grand jury unknown; that the grand jury are unable to set out the same according to its tenor; with intent to defraud William H. Reed and Charles A. Mackenbach, of the firm of Reed & Mackenbach, contrary to the form of the statute, in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Indiana." State v. Callahan, 124 Ind. 361, 24 N. E. 732.

Note—Held sufficient where instrument has been lost.

I. Declarations.

- A. Declaration for False Warranty of Horse.

For that whereas the said plaintiff heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), at the special instance and request of the said defendant, bargained with the said defendant to buy of the said defendant a certain (horse), at and for a certain price or sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £———, and the said defendant by then and there falsely and fraudulently warranting the said (horse) to be (sound and quiet in harness), then and there sold the said (horse) to the said plaintiff for the said sum of £———, which was then and there paid by the plaintiff to the said defendant; whereas, in truth and in fact, the said (horse) was, at the time of the said warranty and sale thereof (unsound, unsteady, restive and ungovernable in harness, and hath from thence hitherto so remained and continued. And the said plaintiff in fact saith that the said defendant, by means of the premises, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, falsely and fraudulently deceived the said plaintiff on the sale of the said (horse) as aforesaid, and thereby the said (horse) afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, not only became of no use or value to the said plaintiff, but also then and there greatly kicked, hurt, injured and spoiled a certain other horse of the said plaintiff, of great value, to-wit, of the value of £——, and thereby also the said plaintiff was then and there put to great expense of his moneys, in the whole amounting to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £——, in and about the feeding and taking care of and selling and disposing of the said (horse), to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 679.

B. Declaration for False Warranty of Cable.

For that whereas the said plaintiffs, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), at the special instance and request of the said defendants, bargained with the said defendants to buy of them the said defendants a certain cable, at and for a certain price or sum of money, to-wit, the sum of, etc., of lawful money of Great Britain: and the said defendants then and there, by falsely and fraudulently warranting the said cable to be a new British-made cable, then and there sold the said cable to the said plaintiffs, for the said sum of £——, then and there paid by the said plaintiffs to the said defendants for the same; whereas in truth and in fact the said cable, at the time of the said warranty and sale, was not a new British-made cable, but was then and there a cable made of the materials of an old rotten unlaid Russian cable, and of half clean hemp, and other toppings, and hemp from which the staple part thereof had been taken away by the manufacturer, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided. And the said plaintiffs in fact say that the said defendants, by means of the premises, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, falsely and fraudulently deceived them the said plaintiffs on the sale of the said cable as aforesaid. By means whereof the said plaintiffs, confiding in the said warranty, used and employed the said first mentioned cable as a cable in and for a certain ship or vessel of the said plaintiffs called the Shakespeare; and afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., whilst the said ship or vessel was anchored by the said last mentioned cable, in a certain place called Yarmouth Roads, the said last mentioned cable, from its being so made as aforesaid, then and there broke, and the said ship or vessel was in imminent peril of being wrecked, and the lives of the crew thereof were greatly endangered, and also thereby the said plaintiffs were forced and obliged to, and necessarily did, lay out and expend a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £——, of like, lawful money, in and about purchasing and getting on board the said ship or vessel, a certain other cable for the said ship or vessel, in the place of the said first mentioned cable, and also thereby the said ship or vessel was greatly delayed in a certain voyage in which she was then engaged, and the said plaintiffs lost and were deprived of divers large profits and gain, which they otherwise would have made from the earnings of the said ship or vessel, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 682.

C. Declaration for Deceit in Selling Smaller Quantity of Coal Than Pretended.

For that whereas, before the committing of the grievance by the said defendant hereinafter next mentioned, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, bargained for and agreed to buy of the said defendant, and the said defendant then and there sold to the said plaintiff, a large quantity, to-wit (two chaldrons and a half of coals, wharf measure), at and for a certain price or sum of money, to-wit, at and after the rate or price of £—— of lawful money of Great Britain, for each and every chaldron thereof; and the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, fraudulently and deceitfully contriving and craftily and subtly intending to deceive and defraud the said plaintiff in this behalf, did fraudulently and deceitfully deliver to the said plaintiff a certain quantity of coals, as and for the said quantity of coals so bargained for and sold to the said plaintiff as aforesaid, whereas in truth and in fact the said coals so delivered to the said plaintiff by the said defendant as aforesaid, at the time of the delivery thereof as aforesaid, were deficient in the full quantity which they ought to have contained, and wanted of the said quantity which they ought to have contained, divers, to-wit, twenty bushels of coals, as the said defendant then and there well knew; and so the said plaintiff saith that the said defendant falsely and fraudulently deceived and defrauded the said plaintiff in the said sale, and thereby he the said plaintiff lost, and was deprived of all the benefit and advantage which he might and would otherwise have derived and acquired from the said sale, and hath been, and is, by means of the premises, otherwise greatly injured and damaged, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 685.

D. Declaration for Deceitfully Selling Land for Greater Quantity Than it Was.

For that whereas the said plaintiff, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), bargained with the said defendant to buy of him a certain piece or parcel of ground of the said defendant called, etc., situate and being in the parish of ———, in the county of ———, and the said defendant then and there, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, well knowing the said close to contain a much less quantity than (three acres) of land, to-wit, the quantity of (two acres and a half) of land only, by then and there, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, falsely and fraudulently warranting the said close to contain (three acres) of land, then and there, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), falsely, fraudulently and deceitfully, sold the said close to the said plaintiff, at and for a certain sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £———, of lawful money of Great Britain to be therefore paid by the said plaintiff to the said defendant, and which was then and there, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid, accordingly paid for the same; whereas in truth and in fact the said close, so as aforesaid sold by the said defendant to the said plaintiff did not contain (three acres) of land, but, on the contrary thereof, contained a much less quantity than (three acres) of land, to-wit, the quantity of (two acres and a half) only; by means of which premises the said defendant lost great gains and profits which he otherwise would have made and derived from the purchase of the said close, and was put to great charge and expense, to-wit, at, etc. (venue); and so the said plaintiff in fact saith that the said defendant, on, etc., aforesaid, falsely and fraudulently deceived him, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 687.

E. Declaration for Misrepresentation as To Quantity of Business.

For that whereas, before and at the time of the committing of the grievances by the said defendant, as hereinafter next mentioned, the said defendant was possessed of a certain public house, called and known by the sign of the ("Sun"), and carried on therein the trades and business of a publican and victualer, and dealer in wines and spirits, to-wit, at, etc. (venue). And the said defendant then and there represented to the said plaintiff that he was possessed of a certain lease, of and in the said premises, to-wit, for the term of ———, etc. (according to the fact); and the said defendant being desirous of selling and disposing of the said lease and the good-will of the said premises, and trades and business, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (day of misrepresentation, or about it), at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, wrongfully and injuriously contriving and intending to deceive, defraud and injure the said plaintiff in this behalf, then and there falsely, fraudulently and deceitfully represented and asserted to the said plaintiff that (let the misrepresentations here stated agree as nearly as possible with the misrepresentations made use of, and which in the case upon which this form was drawn were as follows: the said public house was then and there doing between seven and eight butts a month, and about £——— or £——— in spirits), whereupon, heretofore, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, the said plaintiff, confiding in the said representations and assertions of the said defendant, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, bargained with him to buy of him the said defendant's interest in the said unexpired lease of his said premises, and the said good-will, at and for a certain sum, to-wit, the sum of £———, and the household furniture, fixtures, utensils, and effects, then upon the said premises, at and for a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £———. And the said defendant, by then and there falsely, fraudulently and deceitfully pretending and representing to the said plaintiff that the said false, fraudulent and deceitful representation of the said defendant was true, then and there sold the said lease and premises and good-will to the said plaintiff, at and for the said sum of money, to-wit, the said sum of £——. And the said plaintiff, afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, paid the said defendant the said sum of money for the same; whereas in truth and in fact the said trades and businesses of the said public house had not been, nor were they before, or at the time of the making of the said false representation and assertion, between seven and eight butts a month, but had been and were much less, to-wit, one butt a month; and whereas, in truth and in fact, there had not been sold or disposed of at the said public house, to the amount of from £—— to £—— in spirits, but, on the contrary, much less spirits, that at the rate of from £—— to £—— a month had been sold and disposed of in and from the said public house, to-wit, to the amount of about £—— in spirits per month, as the said defendant, at the time of his making his said false and deceitful representation well knew; and the said plaintiff further saith that the said defendant, by means of the premises, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, falsely and fraudulently deceived the said plaintiff on the said sale, and thereby the said lease, trades and business have become, and are, of no use or value to the said plaintiff; and the said plaintiff hath sustained great trouble, expense and loss, to-wit, an expense and loss of £——, in and about the carrying on the said trades and businesses in the said house and premises, and endeavoring to dispose of the said lease, trades and businesses, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 688.

F. Declaration, Misrepresentation to Third Person Whereby Credit Was Obtained.

“That the firm of T. H. Hinchman & Sons (composed of the above named plaintiffs) are wholesale dealers in groceries, drugs, etc., in the city of Detroit, county of Wayne, and State of Michigan, and that they were thus engaged and have been since the 1st day of July, 1887, and that since said last mentioned date, in the course of trade, the said defendant, Ambrose A. Weeks, became indebted to the firm of T. H. Hinchman & Sons, composed of the parties above named, in the sum of $1,202.61 for goods, wares, and merchandise sold and delivered by plaintiffs to the said Ambrose A. Weeks, defendant herein; and that said indebtedness was created and credit given by plaintiffs to defendant upon the basis that the statements and representations of defendant as to his financial responsibility, more particularly hereinafter referred to, were true in substance and in fact.

“That the said firm of T. H. Hinchman & Sons is a member of Dun’s Commercial Agency, a company organized and existing for the purpose of collecting information as to the circumstances, standing, and pecuniary reliability of merchants and dealers throughout the country, and keeping accounts thereof, so that the subscribers of the agency, when applied to by customers to sell goods to them on credit, may, by resorting to the agency, or to the lists which it publishes, ascertain the standing and responsibility of the customers to whom its purpose is to extend credit.

“That on or about the 19th day of December, A. D. 1887, the said Ambrose A. Weeks, with intent to obtain a standing and credit, and to extend information therefor, stated and represented to said Dun’s Commercial Agency, its agents and servants, in substance, among other things, that he then had and owned a stock of goods, wares, and merchandise, and that he had made an inventory of such stock, which showed an amount of goods on hand amounting to $4,000 or thereabouts; that he then owned a house and lot, store and barn, at Grattan, in said county, for which he paid the sum of $3,550 or thereabouts; that he had that fall built an addition to his store building, and that it was filled with goods; that he then owed $1,500 on his residence, which was secured by a mortgage, which would mature a year from that fall, and that he had offered to pay up the mortgage, but the mortgagee would not take the money until it became due; that he also then owned 20 acres of land, worth $800 or thereabouts, which was free and clear from all incumbrances; that he had good accounts amounting to $400, and personal property worth $1,000, besides household goods, furniture, etc., which were valued at $2,500; that he then had notes and cash worth about $300; and that in July or August, 1886, his (the said Ambrose A. Weeks') wife gave him as a present a sum of $2,000, which she received from the estate of Thomas Byrne, with which he (the said Weeks) purchased a team of horses, which he used in his business, making his gross assets, in round numbers, upwards of $10,000; and that his total sales during the two years he had been in the trade amounted to $21,000; that his liabilities consisted of a mortgage on his said residence of $1,500, and about $1,000 for merchandise.

"Plaintiffs further aver that the substance of such information was reported by said Dun's Commercial Agency to the said plaintiffs; and that the said plaintiffs, in making and continuing the sale of the goods to the said Ambrose A. Weeks, after the making of such report, and especially during the time the goods for which the indebtedness in this action arose, relied upon the said statements so made to the said commercial agency, and believed the same to be true, and that such sales were made, and such credit granted and extended, upon the basis of such representations.

"Plaintiffs further aver that such representations were untrue in substance and in fact, and were known to be so by said defendant; and that afterwards, and on or about the 29th day of December, 1888, the said Ambrose A. Weeks made a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors. And they, the said plaintiffs, allege that in the fall of 1887, and at the time of making such reports and permitting them to be spread abroad for the purposes aforesaid, the said Ambrose A. Weeks was owing to merchandise creditors between $1,200 and $1,500, and was owing to his wife the sum of $2,700, and was largely indebted otherwise; and that he then had on hand a stock of only about $2,600; and that the said Ambrose A. Weeks was at such time insolvent, and unable to pay his debts in full; and that, by means of such false and fraudulent representations upon the part of the said defendant, they, the said plaintiffs, lost and were wholly deprived of their said goods, wares, and merchandise, and became and were, and ever since have been, unable to secure, collect, or enforce payment for the same, or any part thereof, and lost and became deprived of the value thereof; to the great damage of them, the said plaintiffs, to-wit, in the sum of $10,000. Therefore they bring suit." Hinchman v. Weeks, 85 Mich. 535, 48 N. W. 790.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint for Fraudulently Selling Tract of Land for More Than it Was.

I. That the plaintiff, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, bargained with the defendant to buy of him a piece of land of the said defendant, situate in (very briefly designate it), which said piece of land the defendant then, with intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff, falsely and fraudulently represented to him to contain _____ acres, when the defendant then well knew that it contained only _____ acres.

II. That the plaintiff, then confiding in the truth of said representations, and supposing said piece of land to contain the said quantity of _____ acres, agreed to pay for said land, and did then pay therefor to the said defendant the sum of _____ dollars.

III. That in truth the said piece of land did not contain _____ acres, but only _____ acres, whereby the said plaintiff has sustained damages, to the amount of _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 432.

B. Complaint for Fraudulently Delivering Smaller Quantity Than Agreed for.

I. That the plaintiff, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, bought of the defendant, and the defendant sold and agreed to deliver to the plaintiff (briefly designate the merchandise and price, e. g., thus, ten tons of coal, for the price of _____ dollars per ton).

II. That the defendant afterwards, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, intending to defraud the plaintiff, fraudulently and deceitfully delivered to him only (nine tons of coal) as and for the said quantity of (ten tons), so bargained for and sold, and pretending it so to be, though then well knowing that the (coal) so delivered did not contain the quantity bargained for and sold, but only (nine tons), to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 435.

Note.—This complaint should contain an allegation that plaintiff paid defendant for ten tons of coal. Elligood v. De Festetics, 8 N. Y. Supp. 851.

C. Complaint for Fraudulently Misrepresenting Value of Good-Will of Business Sold.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant being engaged in business as _____, and having offered to sell out the (stock, fixtures, and) good-will of his said business to the plaintiff, did, with intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff, falsely and fraudulently represent to him that the said business, as theretofore conducted by defendant, was a profitable business, and that the net profits thereof, realized by the defendant during the year ending the _____ day of _____, 18____, had exceeded the sum of _____ dollars (or otherwise, as the representations were).

II. That this plaintiff, relying on said representations, purchased of defendant the (stock, fixtures, and) good-will of defendant, and paid him therefor the sum of _____ dollars.

III. That in truth, and as defendant then well knew, said representations were false, and said business was not and never had been a profitable business, and the defendant had not realized any profits whatever from the same during the year ending the _____ day of _____, 18____ (or otherwise state specifically the particulars in which the representations were false).

IV. That by reason of the premises, this plaintiff was misled, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 433.

D. Complaint Against Seller of Chattels for Fraudulently Representing Them To Be His Property.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant having offered to sell to the plaintiff a certain horse did, with intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff, falsely and fraudulently represent to him that said horse was the property of defendant (or otherwise, as the representations were).

II. That the plaintiff, relying on said representations, purchased said horse of the defendant, and paid him therefor the sum of _____ dollars.

III. That, in truth, and as defendant then well knew, said representations were false, and said horse was not the property of the defendant, but was the property of one M. N. (or otherwise state specifically the particulars in which the representations were false).

IV. That thereafter, the said M. N. sued this plaintiff in the _____ court (or, before Q. R., a justice of the peace for the town of _____), to recover the value of said horse; and although this plaintiff (employed one O. P., a competent attorney of the supreme court of this state, to defend and) used due diligence in the defense of said suit, the said M. N. recovered a judgment against the plaintiff (duly given by said justice) for the sum of _____ dollars, which this plaintiff has since paid (or, which judgment still remains outstanding and in full force).

V. That by reason of the premises, this plaintiff has been misled, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 434.

E. Complaint for Fraudulently Misrepresenting Value of Stock in a Corporation Taken in Payment for Services.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant having offered to the plaintiff that he would assign and transfer to him _____ shares of the par value of _____ dollars each, of the capital stock of the M. N. company, a corporation, incorporated under the laws of _____, and doing business in _____, upon consideration that the plaintiff should render services (by himself and his servants) in _____ (state briefly the nature of the services agreed to be rendered) did, with intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff, falsely and fraudulently represent to him that said stock was of the market value of _____ dollars, and that defendant had paid all charges, calls, and assessments laid or to be laid upon said shares by said company or the trustees or directors thereof (or otherwise, as the false representations were).

II. That the plaintiff, relying upon said representations, then and there agreed with the defendant to render (by himself and his servants) all necessary services that should be required by the defendant in said, etc.), to the value, at the market prices for such services, of _____ dollars (or otherwise state fully the nature and the value of the services agreed to be rendered), and thereafter proceeded to, and did render (and cause to be rendered) said services (state facts showing how far the contract was performed by plaintiff).

III. That, in truth, and as defendant then well knew, the said stock was not then of the market value of _____ dollars; but, on the contrary, the said company was then insolvent, and the stock worthless and unsalable in the market; and the defendant had not paid all charges, calls, and assessments laid upon said shares; but, on the contrary, a special assessment of _____ per cent. on the par value of said shares had been theretofore duly imposed upon them by the directors of said company, which assessment had not been paid by defendant, but then remained (and still remains) a charge upon said shares (or otherwise state specifically the particulars in which the representations were false).

IV. That by reason of the premises, the plaintiff has been misled, to his damage, _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 435.

F. Complaint for Fraudulently Obtaining Goods on Credit.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant, with intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff by inducing the plaintiff to sell goods for him, falsely and fraudulently represented to the plaintiff that he was solvent, and worth _____ dollars over all his liabilities (or otherwise, as the representations were).

II. That the plaintiff, relying on said representations, was thereby induced to sell (and deliver) to him (briefly designate the goods), of the value of _____ dollars.

III. That the said representations were false in that (stating what respect), and were then known by the defendant to be so.

IV. That no part of the price thereof has been paid (and, if the goods were not delivered, and that the plaintiff in preparing and shipping the said goods, and in stopping them in transit, expended _____ dollars), to his damage _____ dollars. 2 Abb. Forms 431.

G. Complaint for Fraudulently Obtaining Credit for Another.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant, with intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff, falsely and fraudulently represented to him that one M. N. was in good credit and safe to be trusted, and worth the sum of _____ dollars over and above his debts and liabilities (or otherwise, as the fraudulent representations were).

II. That the plaintiff relying on said representations, sold and delivered (briefly designate the goods), of the value of _____, to said M. N. for a credit of _____ months; but although said term has expired, said M. N. has neglected and refused to pay for said goods.

III. That in truth, and as defendant then well knew, said M. N. was, at the time of such representations, insolvent, and not in good credit, nor safe to be trusted, nor worth anything over and above his debts and liabilities.

IV. That by means of said premises the plaintiff has wholly lost said goods, and the value thereof, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 431.

III. Defenses.

A. Answer, Denial of Falsity.

That the representations alleged to have been made by the defendant to the plaintiff were true. 2 Abb. Forms 116.

B. Answer, Denial of Scienter.

That he did not know at the time of making said representations that they were untrue. 2 Abb. Forms 116.

C. Answer, Denial of Fraud in Obtaining Deed.

That he did not obtain the said deed (or other instrument in question) from the plaintiff by fraud or misrepresentation. 2 Abb. Forms 162.

D. Plea, False Representations as to Existence of Patent.

"That heretofore, to-wit: on the 16th of June, 1851, at, etc., one G. W. Cottingham, and the said Peter German, the payee in the said bond, were partners, and jointly interested in the ownership of an alleged patent-right to a certain medicine, known and commonly called 'Newsom's Vegetable Tonic'; and said Cottingham, as such partner, then and there offered, and proposed to sell and convey unto him, 'the knowledge of making, vending and using, in any way, in the counties of Hot Springs, Pulaski and Saline, the said medicine, and to have all the proceeds arising from the same during the term of the patent,' and then and there the said Cottingham, falsely and fraudulently represented and stated, that said medicine had been and was regularly patented under the United States laws, and the exclusive use thereof secured thereunder; and that said parties were the sole owners of, and had the exclusive right to sell and dispose of the same, and the said defendant fully relying on the representations, so made by the said Cottingham, and having, within his reach, no other means of information in respect thereof, agreed to, and did purchase of, and from the said ——— (the name of the person is omitted; it is presumed the pleader must have intended Cottingham), the right of making, using and vending the said medicine in the said counties of Hot Springs, Pulaski, and Saline, and to receive the proceeds arising therefrom during the term of the patent, for the price and sum of eight hundred dollars, and then and there, to secure part of said price and consideration, and for no other cause or consideration whatever, he executed and delivered to the said Peter German, the said bond for $150, in said declaration mentioned; and the said defendant in fact says, that in truth, and in fact, said persons, or either of them, never had any exclusive right to the said medicine, or right to sell the same, and that the same never had been patented under the United States laws, to any person or persons whatsoever, and the whole pretended right to the said medicine, and the representations in respect thereof, were, and are, a mere and sheer fabrication to defraud defendant. And so the said defendant says that the said contract was a gross and naked fraud upon, and that said bond was given without consideration by, defendant, and is void, and he ought not to be charged or made liable thereon, and this he is ready to verify, etc." Brown v. Wright, 17 Ark. 9.

E. Rejoinder, Denial of Fraud in Obtaining Judgment.

And the said defendant, as to the said replication of the said plaintiff to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says, that the said plaintiff ought not by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, the said defendant, because he says, that the said judgment in the said (first) plea of him the said defendant first mentioned, was had and obtained for a true and just debt, really and truly owing to the said I. J., and not by the fraud or covin of him, the said defendant, or with intent to defraud the said plaintiff of his said debt, in manner and form as he, the said plaintiff, hath above in his said replication in that behalf alleged; (and the said defendant further says, that the said judgment in the said first plea of him, the said defendant, secondly mentioned, was, etc. [similar denial to each judgment]. And of this he, the said defendant, puts himself upon the country, etc.) 3 Chit. Pl. 1225; Burr. App. 390, §719.

I. Plea of Statute of Frauds on Guaranty (a).

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by S. G. R., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that by the statute entitled "Of fraudulent conveyances and contracts relative to goods, chattels and things in action." It is enacted that every special promise to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another person shall be void unless such agreement, or some note or memorandum thereof, expressing the consideration, be in writing, and subscribed by the party to be charged therewith. And the said defendant avers that the said plaintiffs have brought their said action for the default (or debt, or miscarriage), of H. M., and for no other purpose whatever, and that the supposed promise and undertaking aforesaid, of the said defendant in the said declaration specified, was not and is not in writing, nor was nor is any note or memorandum thereof made as required by the said statute; and this he is ready to verify. Wherefore, he prays judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc.

_____, attorney for deft.

Burr. App. 347, §636; Yates' Forms 297.

Plea of Statute of Frauds on Guaranty (b).

Because he saith that the several supposed promises and undertakings in the said (first and second) counts respectively mentioned, were special promises, and each of them was a special promise for the debt of another person, to-wit, the said A. P. and that no agreement in respect of, or relating to, the supposed causes of action in the (first and second) counts of the said declaration, or either of them, nor any memorandum, or note thereof, wherein the consideration or considerations for the said special promises, or either of them, was or were stated or shown, was or is in writing, or was or is signed by the said defendant, or by any other person by him thereunto lawfully authorized, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 909.

II. Under Codes.

A. Complaint, Allegation of Part Payment Where No Memorandum.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, it was mutually agreed between the plaintiff and the defendant that the defendant should sell and deliver to the plaintiff at _____, and on or before the _____ day of _____, 18____ (very briefly designate the thing), and that the plaintiff should pay to the defendant therefor at the rate of _____ dollars per _____, amounting to _____ dollars, payable as follows:

_____ dollars at the time of making said agreement, and the residue on the delivery of the _____ as aforesaid.

II. That the plaintiff thereupon paid to the defendant the sum of _____ dollars, in pursuance of the agreement. 1 Abb. Forms 373.

B. Answers.

1. Answer, Statute of Frauds; as to Leasing or Sale of Lands (a).

That neither the defendant, nor any person by him lawfully authorized, did ever make or sign any contract or agreement in writing for making or executing any lease to the said plaintiff of the same premises, or any of them, or any part thereof, or to any such effect as is alleged; or any memorandum or note in writing of any agreement whatsoever for or concerning the demising or leasing, or making or executing, any lease of the said premises, or any of them, or any part thereof, to the plaintiff. 2 Abb. Forms 42.

Answer, Statute of Frauds; as to Leasing or Sale of Lands (b).

That neither the said lease, though for a longer period than one year (or said contract for the sale of said lands), nor any note or memorandum thereof expressing the consideration, was ever in writing and subscribed by the said _____, by whom the lease (or sale) is alleged to have been made, or by any lawfully authorized agent of said _____ (nor was said agreement ever partly performed). 2 Abb. Forms 42.

2. Answer, Statute of Frauds; as to Agreement Not to Be Performed Within a Year.

That although the said agreement by its terms was not to be performed within one year from the making thereof, neither said agreement nor any note or memorandum thereof (expressing the consideration) was ever in writing and subscribed by the said _____, who is sought to be charged therewith, or by his lawful agent. 2 Abb. Forms 43.

3. Answer, Statute of Frauds; as to Special Promise to Answer for Default, etc., of Another.

I. That the supposed promise in the complaint alleged is a special promise to answer for the debt (or default, or miscarriage) of another person, to-wit, M. N., in said complaint mentioned.

II. That no note or memorandum of such contract (expressing any consideration) was made in writing, or subscribed by the party to be charged therewith, to-wit, this defendant (but, on the contrary, the same was wholly without consideration). 2 Abb. Forms 43.

4. Answer, Statute of Frauds; as to Agreement in Consideration of Marriage.

That although said alleged agreement (or promise, or undertaking) was made upon consideration of marriage, neither said agreement nor any note or memorandum thereof (expressing the consideration), was ever in writing, and subscribed by the said ———, who is sought to be charged therewith, or by his lawful agent. 2 Abb. Forms 43.

5. Answer, Statute of Frauds; as to Sale of Personal Property.

That although said alleged contract was for the sale of goods (or chattels, or things in action) for the price of fifty dollars or more, no note or memorandum thereof was ever made in writing, and subscribed by the said ———, sought to be charged thereby, or by his lawful agent; nor did the said (buyer) accept and receive any part of such goods (or any of the evidences of such things in action); nor did the said (buyer), at the time, pay any part of the purchase money. 2 Abb. Forms 43.

III. In Equity.

A. Plea of Statute of Frauds, to Bill for Specific Performance.

This defendant by protestation not confessing or acknowledging all or any of the matters and things in said complainant's bill mentioned to be true in such manner and form as the same are therein and thereby set forth and alleged, as to so much of the said bill as seeks to compel this defendant or any person or persons claiming under him to execute a lease in writing of the several lands and tenements in the said bill mentioned or of any of them or of any part thereof, pursuant to the pretended agreement in the bill mentioned, and as to any relief thereby prayed touching such lease and agreement, this defendant doth plead in bar, and for plea saith that by an act of parliament made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of his late majesty King Charles the second, entitled "An act for the prevention of frauds and perjuries;" it is amongst other things enacted that from and after the 24th day of June, 1677, no action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon any contract of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest in or concerning them, unless the agreement upon which such action shall be brought or some memorandum or note thereof shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or some other person thereunto lawfully authorized; as by the said act may appear; and this defendant avers that neither he, this defendant, nor any person by him lawfully authorized, did ever make or sign any contract or agreement in writing for making or executing any lease to the said complainant of the same premises or any of them, or of any part or parcel thereof, or to any such effect as by the said bill is suggested, or any memorandum or note in writing of any agreement whatsoever for or concerning the demising or leasing, or making or executing any lease of the said premises, or any of them, or any part or parcel thereof to the complainant. And therefore this defendant doth plead the said act of parliament and the matters aforesaid in bar to so much and such part of the said bill as seeks to compel this defendant or any person or persons claiming under him to execute a lease to the complainant of the several lands and tenements in the bill mentioned or any of them, or any part or parcel thereof, pursuant to the said pretended agreement, and as to any the relief thereby prayed touching such lease and agreement, and humbly prays the judgment of this honorable court whether he shall be compelled to make any further or other answer, etc. Van Heyth, Eq. Dr. 654.

That by a certain statute ———, made and passed in the ——— for the prevention of fraud and perjuries, and commonly called the statute of frauds, all contracts and agreements relating to lands, except as therein is excepted, are required to be reduced into writing, and signed by the party or parties to be bound thereby; and that the said agreement in the said bill mentioned, and therein alleged to have been made and entered into by this defendant and the said plaintiff, was not reduced into writing and executed pursuant to the said statute, and therefore this defendant insists that the same is void as against this defendant; and that he cannot be affected thereby, and this defendant claims the same benefit as if he had pleaded the same statute in this cause; and this defendant, for the reasons and under the circumstances aforesaid, is advised, and insists, that the said plaintiff is not entitled to any relief against this defendant touching the matters complained of in the said bill. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2144.

And this defendant sets forth, in answer to the several averments of contracts, agreements, promises, and trusts concerning the premises, with, to, or for the benefit of said plaintiff, in the said bill contained, and to so much of the said bill as sets forth any pretended contract, agreement, trust or confidence between the said plaintiff and defendant, or as seeks any relief or discovery of this defendant, of or concerning any pretended contract, agreement, trust or confidence between this defendant and the plaintiff touching the said lands mentioned in said bill or any part thereof, the statute of frauds, as enacted in the laws of the state (or commonwealth) of _____ by the _____ section of the _____ chapter, and the _____ section of the _____ chapter of the _____ statutes.

And this defendant says that neither he, nor any person by him lawfully authorized thereto, did ever make or sign any note or memorandum in writing [or (if so) any writing whatsoever], or of containing any such contract, promise or agreement, or grant, or declaration [or (if so) any contract, promise or agreement, or grant, or declaration whatsoever] with, to or for the benefit of the said plaintiff, touching the said lands, or creating any estate or interest therein, or creating or declaring any trust respecting the same, in or for the benefit of the said plaintiff; and this defendant insists upon the said statutes and claims the same benefit therefrom as if he had pleaded the same. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2145.

Answer, Claiming Benefit of Statute of Frauds (c).

I say that no agreement in writing for purchase of the said premises or any part thereof, nor any memorandum or note thereof in writing, has been made, entered into or signed by me or by any person thereunto by me lawfully authorized, and I claim the benefit of the statute passed in the twenty-ninth year of Charles the second for the prevention of frauds and perjuries, in the same manner as if I had pleaded or demurred to the plaintiff's bill. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2145.

I. Complaint, by Subsequent Creditor.

"And now comes plaintiff, and by leave of court files his amended petition, and states that, on the sixth day of June, A. D. 1889, he recovered a judgment against the defendant, James F. Murphy, in the circuit court of the city of St. Louis, for the sum of $701.92, and $17.10 for his costs; that execution was duly issued on said judgment, returnable to the October term, 1889, of said court, and was returned nulla bona, and after such return plaintiff paid all of the costs of suit and execution, to-wit, the sum of $25, and the total of said judgment and costs now remain due and unpaid.

"Plaintiff further states that, in the year 1881, plaintiff (said defendant) purchased and paid for the following described tract or parcel of land situated in city block number 1884, among others the following described piece or parcel of land situated in the city of St. Louis, state of Missouri, to-wit: A lot of ground located as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner junction of Easton and Sheridan avenues, and running thence one-half inch; thence westwardly at right angles with Sheridan avenue, one hundred and one feet and six inches to an alley; thence southwardly along said alley a distance of fifty-eight feet, two and one-half inches; thence eastwardly to a point; thence southwardly a distance of fifty-five feet to the northern line of Easton avenue; thence eastwardly along the north line of Easton avenue sixty-two feet, four and one-half inches, more or less, to the place of beginning.

"Said property is fully described in a deed of Sarah B. Curtis to James F. Murphy as trustee for his wife, Hannah Murphy, defendant herein, dated August 25, 1881, and recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the city of St. Louis in book 655, at page 521.

"Plaintiff further states that James F. Murphy paid for said property with his own money, and has, since the date of said purchase, placed improvements on the same at his own expense, and paid for the same with his own money, of the value of about $10,000.

"That all of said property, although the title to the same was placed in the name of his wife, Hannah Murphy, is owned and controlled by defendant, James F. Murphy, and he now has and enjoys the use and usufruct thereof, but the title to the same was placed in the name of himself as trustee of his wife, Hannah Murphy, for the purpose of secreting the same, and also for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defrauding his then and future creditors, and the same so remains for said purposes, and by the terms of said deed there is a contingent remainder in said James F. Murphy.

"Plaintiff further states that the said conveyance was made by the said James F. Murphy to the trustee for the use and benefit of his wife, Hannah Murphy, without any valuable consideration moving to him, but for the sole purpose of defeating his creditors then existing, and those who might subsequently become such, and especially this plaintiff, and such was the purpose and intention of the said James F. Murphy when he caused the improvements to be placed on said property, which was done when the said James F. Murphy was wholly insolvent.

"Plaintiff avers that said property is held by the said James F. Murphy as trustee for his wife, Hannah Murphy, to enable him to defraud the creditors of the latter, and prevent the collection of their just demands from him out of the same, while, in truth, the said property belongs to the said James F. Murphy, and in equity and good conscience should be subject to the payment of plaintiff's judgment.

"Plaintiff further states that the defendant, James F. Murphy, has no property held or owned by him in his own name, subject to execution, or where-with plaintiff's judgment can be satisfied.

"Plaintiff further states that the Mound City Building & Loan Association, defendant herein, has several deeds of trust, or mortgages, on said property, upon which there now remains due about the sum of $200, and which were placed on said property in 1884, 1886 and 1889.

"Plaintiff, therefore, prays that the amount due said Mound City Building & Loan Association be ascertained, and that the remainder of said property be subjected to the payment of plaintiff's said judgment and costs, and, if the same be not paid within a time to be limited by this court, that said property be sold by the sheriff of the city of St. Louis at public vendue, and out of the proceeds of said sale the debt of the Mound City Building & Loan Association be first paid, the homestead rights, if any, be ascertained and set apart to the party entitled thereto, and out of the said residue plaintiff's debt and demand be paid in full, together with the costs of this case, and the remainder to the parties entitled thereto, and for other and further relief." Loehr v. Murphy, 45 Mo. App. 519.

Note.—"With the exception of this single point of indefiniteness (date of debt), we are unable to see how it could be better drawn, unless to avoid some repetition." Opinion of Court.

II. Bill Requiring Grantee To Pay Over Balance of Purchase Price.

"State of West Virginia, Ohio county circuit court—January rules, 1868. To the Honorable E. H. Caldwell, judge of the said court, in chancery sitting:

"Your orator, Samuel Snodgrass, hereby complaining, here shows to the court that David Snodgrass, a non-resident of this State, was seized of a tract of land in the said Ohio county, containing two hundred and forty-eight acres, three roods and twenty-seven perches, lying on the waters of Short creek, in the said county, being the same tract of land conveyed by the said David Snodgrass to James L. Delaplain, dated the 8th day of June, 1867, and recorded in this county, to be more particularly referred to hereafter.

"That while owning the said tract of land, which was very saleable, the said David Snodgrass being indebted to your orator in the sum of $960.00, made his certain promissory note in writing, bearing date the day and year last aforesaid, by which promissory note the said David Snodgrass promised to pay to your orator or his order the said sum of $960.00, twelve months after the date thereof, with interest at the rate of six per cent., for value received, negotiable and payable at the First National Bank at Wheeling, West Virginia, and then and there delivered the said note to your orator, a copy of which is herewith exhibited and marked 'A,' the original of which is ready to be produced; that there is now due on the said note, including interest, about $1,060.00; that the said David Snodgrass had repeatedly promised the agent of your orator, Isaac Irwin, of Wheeling, to pay this debt, and especially when he should sell his said farm, and your orator was in hopes that he would so have done; but that the said David Snodgrass, on the 8th day of June, 1867, soon after your orator's note became due and payable, with intent to defraud your orator out of his said money so due and owing by the said note, conveyed the said tract of land for the expressed sum of $15,184.04 to James L. Delaplain, about the value of the same, which deed passed the legal forms of such conveyance, and was recorded, and fully described the said tract of land before referred to, a certified copy of which is here exhibited and made a part of this your orator's bill and marked 'B.'

"Your orator further shows, that on the same day, the 8th day of June, 1867, the said Delaplain and wife made a deed of trust of this same land to A. J. Wilson to secure the said David Snodgrass the sum of $8,790.43, with annual interest thereon after September 1, 1867, evidence by eight notes payable at the Merchants National Bank of West Virginia to the order of the said David Snodgrass, being for the balance of purchase money after appropriating part of the first payment and all of the second payment to the satisfaction of liens upon said land already. Said notes are dated on said day, and three of them are payable on the 1st day of September, 1868, with interest from September 1, 1867, and for the sum of $1,243.03 cash; the other five are for $1,012.24, each of the same date, interest payable annually on the 1st day of September, 1870; the trustee is to execute the deed upon the demand of any holder of any note after maturity, and which said deed of trust was duly recorded, and a copy is herewith exhibited and marked 'C,' and is here particularly referred to. Your orator believes and charges the fact to be, that the said land was so conveyed to the said Delaplain, who is a near relative of the said David Snodgrass, and was so received by the said Delaplain, with intent and for the purpose of defrauding the creditors of the said David Snodgrass, especially your orator; that the said Delaplain did not pay to the said David Snodgrass the said sum of $6,393.61, of which the said $8,790.43 is the pretended balance, nor did the said Delaplain pay the said Snodgrass any money whatever, but gave three notes mentioned in the said deed of trust, and paid nothing else for the said land.

"Your orator further shows, that the said Delaplain is indebted to the said David Snodgrass, if the transaction was an actual sale, in the said sum of $8,790.43, and a large unknown sum, for all of the chattel property of the said David Snodgrass which he received of him, which ought to be applied to the payment of your orator's debt. Your orator shows, that the said A. J. Wilson is the trustee for the said land and debt, and may secure the money therefor.

"All of which actings and doings are contrary to equity and conscience, and inasmuch as your orator is remediless by the rules of the common law, and is only relievable in this court as a court of equity, he therefore prays, that the said David Snodgrass, the said James L. Delaplain and A. J. Wilson be made parties defendant hereto, and that summons may issue against them. Your orator prays, that the said David Snodgrass be enjoined from receiving the money due on the said note or of transferring the same to the prejudice of your orator, and that the said Delaplain be enjoined from paying the same to the prejudice of your orator at this time; and upon the final hearing of this your orator's case, that the court order and decree, that the said sale so made of the said land be set aside for the fraud aforesaid, and be sold to satisfy your orator's said claim and his costs, or that the court order and decree, that the said James L. Delaplain, out of the money he so owes the said David Snodgrass, pay your orator's said claim, and such other and further relief as your orator's case may require, or as to the court shall seem proper and right. And your orator will ever pray, etc.

"Samuel Snodgrass,

"By Peck & Hubbard, Sol."

III. Decree, Conveyance in Contemplation of Insolvency Set Aside as Fraudulent.

This court doth declare, that the indenture dated, etc., in the pleadings mentioned, is fraudulent and void as against the creditors of the insolvent debtor in the pleadings named; And doth order that the defendant deliver up the said indenture to the plaintiffs to be cancelled; and the court doth order and decree, that it be referred to, etc., to take an account of the rents and profits of the estate comprised in the said indenture received by the defendant or by any other person, etc.; and that the said defendant, within one month after the date of the master's report of the result of such account, pay the balance, if any, that shall be found to be due from him to the plaintiffs C. and W., as assignees of the estate of the said insolvent debtor." Defendant to pay plaintiffs' costs of suit, "But, in case, on taking the said account, any balance shall appear to be due to the said defendant, it is ordered that the further consideration of this cause and of the subsequent costs, be adjourned, etc. 3 Dan. Forms 217.

II. Sham Pleading.

A. Affidavits.

1. Affidavit To Strike Out Sham Plea.

A. B., the plaintiff in the above entitled cause, being duly sworn, says that the plea of judgment recovered (or otherwise, specifying the plea), pleaded by the defendant in said cause, and a copy whereof is hereto annexed, is wholly false and without foundation; and that there never was (any such judgment recovered) as in said plea is alleged (negating the subject-matter of the plea in terms). Burr. App. 26, §50.

2. Affidavit To Falsity of Answer.

A. B., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the plaintiff in the above entitled action.

II. That he has read the answer of the defendant Y. Z. herein, and that the defense of payment therein set up is wholly and absolutely false; that the defendant has never paid, or in any way satisfied, the demand set up in the complaint, nor any part thereof; nor has he ever paid, by himself or his agents, to the plaintiff, or to any of his agents, any part of the sum alleged by the said answer to have been paid.

III. That the only person ever employed by deponent to ask or receive money from the defendant is one E. F., whose affidavit is hereto annexed; and that, to the best of deponent's knowledge and belief, no other person ever asked or received anything from the defendant for account of this deponent. 2 Abb. Forms 215.

3. Corroborative Affidavit To Falsity of Answer.

E. F., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is a clerk in the employment of the plaintiff, and attends to the collection of the debts due to the latter.

II. That he has frequently asked the defendant for payment of the amount demanded by the complaint in this action, and the defendant has always refused to pay the same, and never has paid any part thereof to deponent; nor, so far as deponent is informed and believes, to any other person. 2 Abb. Forms 215.

B. Notices of Motion.

1. Notice of Motion To Strike Out Sham Plea.

E. Indictment for Obtaining Money by Confidence Game.

State of Illinois, St. Clair county, ss.

Of the March term of the St. Clair circuit court, in the year of our Lord, 1868.

The grand jurors chosen, selected and sworn, in and for the county of St. Clair, state of Illinois, upon their oaths present, that Thomas Morton and James Stewart did, on the 18th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the county of St. Clair aforesaid, unlawfully and feloniously obtain from one Daniel Hughes thirty dollars of his money, by means and by use of the confidence game, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the people of the state of Illinois.

And the jurors aforesaid, in the name and by the authority aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, that Thomas Morton and James Stewart, on the day and year aforesaid, and in the county aforesaid, did unlawfully and feloniously obtain from Daniel Hughes one United States legal tender treasury note, for the payment of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars, one bank note for the payment of ten dollars and of the value of ten dollars, and two bank notes for the payment of five dollars each and of the value of five dollars each, the personal property then and there of the said Daniel Hughes, by means and by use then and there of the confidence game; contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the people of the state of Illinois.

J. B. Hay, state's attorney.

Morton v. People, 47 Ill. 468.

F. Indictment, Throwing Dice (for Turkeys).

"The jurors for the state, upon their oath, present: That Nick De Boy, late of the county of Wake, on the 25th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, with force and arms, at and in the county aforesaid, unlawfully and wilfully did play at a game of chance, namely a raffle, at which money, property and other things of value were bet, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State. And the jurors for the State, upon their oath, do further present: That Nick De Boy, late of the county of Wake, on the 25th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, with force and arms, at and in the county aforesaid, unlawfully and wilfully did bet at a game of chance, namely, a raffle at which game of chance money, property and other things of value were bet, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State." *State v. "2. Because if said Eugene Robinson was at all indebted to said Thomas Jeynes, or had any property, money, goods, chattels, credits, or effects of his in his hands or under his control at the time said writ of garnishment was issued, such indebtedness was of such a character, and he held and controlled said goods, chattels, credits, and effects in such a way and capacity, that they could not be garnished by said plaintiff, and said writ of garnishment therefor gave said court no jurisdiction over said indebtedness from said Robinson to said Jeynes, or over any of the property, moneys, goods, chattels, credits, or effects of said Jeynes in the hands or under the control of said Robinson, for the reasons following, viz:

"If, at the time said writ was issued, said Robinson was at all indebted to said Jeynes, or had in his hands or under his control any property, money, goods, chattels, credits, or effects belonging to said Jeynes, he was so indebted, and had in his hands and under his control said property and money, etc., as a member of the firm of Collins, Jeynes & Co., and said indebtedness was to said Jeynes, and said property, money, etc., belonged to him, as a member of said firm, and not in any other capacity; that said firm is composed of said Jeynes, Henry Collins, and said Robinson as general partners, and said plaintiff as a special partner; that there has been no dissolution of said firm, and no accounting, settlement, or adjustment of the matters and business of said firm between its members, or between said Robinson and said Jeynes, by which the amount coming to said Jeynes from said firm has been ascertained, or by which it has been determined that at the time said writ of garnishment was issued there was any particular sum, and if so how much, due from said Robinson to said Jeynes, or any particular sum of money or other property, and if so how much and what, in the hands or under the control of said Robinson belonging to said Jeynes; that there are still many important items of account unsettled and unadjusted between said Jeynes and the other remaining members of said firm, and they must be settled and adjusted before said Robinson can tell how much he was indebted to said Jeynes, or what property or money, credits or effects, of his he had in his hands at the time said writ of garnishment was issued." Farwell v. Chambers, 62 Mich. 316, 28 N. W. 859.

- II. Affidavit Claiming Exemption on Garnishment.

"State of Nebraska, Douglas county.

"L. H. Webster, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the defendant above named, that he is a bona fide resident of Douglas county, Nebraska, and has been for eighteen years last past; that he is a married man and the head of a family, with whom he resides in said Douglas county, and whom he supports; that the money sought to be garnished in this action, in the hands of the Union Pacific Ry. Co., was earned by him during the month of March, 1884, as a laborer; that prior to the service of the garnishment herein, to secure an indebtedness due to Charles Brandes, of Omaha, he assigned to said Brandes the money garnished in this action; that if the said money had not been assigned as aforesaid, it would have been exempt to him under the laws of this state, by reason of its being laborer's wages for less than sixty days, and he being the head of a family aforesaid. Affiant says that he only this day received notice of said garnishment, and was not aware that the court had made any order in respect to his earnings. Affiant further says that said plaintiff is well acquainted with this defendant, and well knows that the defendant is a resident of Douglas county, and that he is the head of a family, and that by reason thereof the said money is exempt to him under the laws of this state; but that the said plaintiff is taking this course for the purpose of maliciously prosecuting and annoying this defendant.

"Wherefore defendant asks that the garnishee herein may be discharged, and the order on the garnishee to pay said money into court be revoked and set aside." Union Pac. R. Co. v. Smersh, 22 Neb. 751, 36 N. W. 139.

III. Answer by Garnishee Claiming Exemption in Behalf of Defendant.

"Affiant further says if the said money had not been assigned as aforesaid but on the other hand was due and payable to said defendant, it would have been exempt to said defendant under the laws of this state; that said defendant is a married man and the head of a family, consisting of a wife and children, whom he supports and with whom he resides in Douglas county, and that the said money was earned by him as laborer's wages, all within sixty days immediately preceding the date of the answer aforesaid. Affiant says that said plaintiff and this court have had notice since the answer was filed herein that said money was exempt to said defendant, for the reason above set forth; but affiant believes that the said defendant up to this time has had no notice of the pending of said garnishment, and has had no opportunity to file his exemption.

"Wherefore garnishee asks to be discharged." Union Pac. R. Co. v. Smersh, 22 Neb. 751, 36 N. W. 139.

IV. Answer of Garnishee, Acceptance of Order To Pay to Third Party.

"John Lowery, being duly sworn," etc., "says, that he was not indebted to said Cornelius Woodall at the time of the levy of the attachment, nor at the time of making this his answer; that he will not be indebted to him by a contract now or then in existence; that he has not in his possession, or under his control, personal or real property, or things in action, belonging to said defendant. He further says, that he employed said Woodall to do some work at the light-house at Pascagoula, in the State of Mississippi, previous to the 7th October, 1854; that said Woodall, on said 7th October, 1854, drew an order on him for $163, in favor of one George Draper; that said order was presented to him by said Draper, on or about the 11th October, 1854, which said order he then verbally accepted, to be paid when the work was done on said light-house according to said contract with Woodall, and only for the amount which should be due to said Woodall according to said contract; that the sum due to said Woodall upon said contract is about $120 (said contract being now finished), which sum, by reason of his acceptance of said order in favor of Draper, of right belongs to said Draper." Easton v. Lowery, 29 Ala. 454.

Note.—Held garnishee not entitled to discharge under above answer; that plaintiff had right to contest claim of third party.

V. Replication to Answer of Garnishee.

"And now comes said plaintiff, who sues for the use of said Eva Brown herein, and says that the said Empire Car-Roofing Company hath not, either in its original or additional answers filed herein, truly discovered the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, moneys, choses in action, credits and effects of the St. Louis Galvanizing Company, and the value thereof, in its possession, custody or charge, or from it due and owing at the time of the service of the writ herein, or at any time after, or which thereafter shall become due to the said St. Louis Galvanizing Company; and this he prays may be inquired into pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided." Empire Car-Roofing Co. v. Macey, 115 Ill. 390, 397, 3 N. E. 417.

Note.—This general form was held sufficient under the Illinois statute, although it did not specifically deny the matters set up in the answer upon which the garnishee relied to defeat the action.

VI. Order Directing Garnishee To Pay Money Into Court.

"And now, on the 24th day of April, 1888, it appearing from the answer and amended answer of the Union National Bank, by J. W. Rodefer, its cashier, garnishee in the above entitled cause, that said bank had on the 15th day of March, 1888, personal property, to-wit, money in the sum of $228, and on the 17th day of April, 1888, being the date of said bank's first answer herein, the sum of $325 of the defendant's, George D. Edson, attorney, subject to attachment in its possession and under its control as a credit to George D. Edson, attorney: It is therefore ordered by this court that said bank forthwith pay into the clerk of this court, Frank E. Moores, out of the money under its control or in its possession at any time since the 15th day of March, 1888, belonging to or credited on its bank account books of George D. Edson, attorney, the sum of $325, and that said bank be thereupon discharged as garnishee herein, the said money to remain in the hands of the clerk, subject to the future order of the court.

"George W. Doane,

"Judge of District Court."

Union Nat. Bank v. Hickey, 34 Neb. 300, 51 N. W. 825.

VII. Judgment After Answer, Condemning Fund in Garnishee's Possession.

"This day came the said garnishee and filed his answer, acknowledging an indebtedness to the defendants in the original judgment, in the sum of eight hundred and fifty-four and twenty-one hundredth dollars; which answer, the plaintiff consents to receive. And it appearing that the plaintiff has obtained a judgment at the February Special term of this Court, for the sum of five thousand two hundred and ninety-one and ten-hundredth dollars, against the defendants viz: Ezekiel Nichols, Andrew Poor, Henry R. Hall, Thomas E. Clark and Otis T. Peters, besides his costs. It is therefore considered by the Court, that the said sum of eight hundred and fifty-four and twenty-one hundredth dollars, be condemned in the hands of the said garnishee, towards the payment of the said judgment; and that the plaintiff have execution therefor." Stubblefield v. Hagerty, 1 Ala. 39.

Note.—Reversed on record; sufficiency of judgment not questioned.

VIII. Judgment Condemning Fund, Service on Defendant by Publication.

"It appearing to the Court, that though the defendant was duly notified of the pendency of this suit by publication, he has not entered his appearance therein. And it appearing that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $143.75, with interest from 15th November, 1876, besides costs. And it appearing by the answer of the said garnishee Bond, that he is indebted to the said defendant in the sum of $94.35, and no cause having been shown to the contrary: it is considered by the Court, that said sum of $94.35 of the defendant's, so attached by the Marshal as aforesaid, be and the same is hereby condemned in the hands of said garnishees, towards the satisfaction of the plaintiff's above demand and costs; and that the plaintiff have execution thereof against the said garnishee, which said judgment was duly entered according to the rules of said court." Savin v. Bond, 57 Md. 228.

Note.—Held sufficient defense in action against garnishee by principal defendant on original debt.

IX. Order Setting Aside Judgment Against Garnishee.

"It now appearing that the summons of garnishment on the above judgment mentioned, had, for a valid consideration, been withdrawn by plaintiff's counsel, and that no answer was required thereto on the part of the said garnishee: It is hereby ordered, that the said judgment against Levy E. Byck, the said garnishee, be set aside and vacated, and that the sheriff dismiss his levy made in that behalf, and return the execution to the clerk of this Court, with the proper endorsement, at plaintiff's costs.

"In open court, June 3d, 1872.

(Signed) "William Schley,

"Judge Superior Court, Eastern Circuit."

Platen v. Byck, 50 Ga. 245.

Note.—Writs, summonses, or other process against garnishees are provided for in the statutes of the several states, which must be strictly followed to obtain jurisdiction. No general form can be set out which can be followed with safety. Ryan, C. J., in Steen v. Norton, 45 Wis. 612, says: "The statute makes the service of a summons on the garnishee the commencement of an action against him. But it is a most peculiar action, out of the ordinary course of judicial proceedings. It is an anomaly, a statutory invention sui generis with no affinity to any action known to the common law. It does not proceed on liability of the garnishee to the plaintiff or any privity between them. It intrudes between the debtor and the creditor, sets aside all considerations of forbearance or composition between them, and subjects the debtor to judgment, without action or consent of his creditor. In effect, it makes one the creditor of another without privity of contract, and it may well operate unjustly."

K. Plea of General Issue With Special Plea to Whole Declaration.

And the said C. D. (the general issue according to the form of the action [see forms supra], omitting the signature).

And for a further plea in this behalf, the said defendant, by leave of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that, etc. (here follows the special plea in form [see post]. If there be other pleas, preface each with the same commencement: "And for a further plea, etc.," as supra). Burr. App. 341, §623.

L. Plea of General Issue With Special Plea to Part.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong (or "force") and injury when, etc., and as to the said several supposed promises and undertakings in the said first (or other) count of the said declaration (or, if in covenant, "as to the said supposed breach of covenant first above assigned"; or, if in trespass, "as to the breaking and entering, etc.," specifying the particular trespasses charged); he the said defendant says that he did not undertake and promise in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him (giving the general issue according to the nature of the action [see forms supra]); and of this he puts himself upon the country. (And the said plaintiff doth the like, etc.).

And as to the said several supposed promises and undertakings (or otherwise, according to the action) in the said second and third (or other) counts of the said declaration mentioned, the said defendant says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that, etc. (here follows the special plea). Burr. App. 341, §624.

M. Notice of Set-Off With Plea of General Issue.

(At the foot of the general issue, immediately following the attorney's signature, subjoin the notice in the following form): Sir: Please to take notice that the said defendant, at the trial of the above cause, will insist upon and give in evidence, under the general issue above pleaded *, that (here give the substance of the notice, according to the facts; thus, in case of a notice of set-off, proceed as follows): The said plaintiff at the time of the commencement of the action aforesaid against the said defendant was, and still is, indebted unto him in the sum of (one thousand) dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, for divers goods, wares and merchandise, before that time sold and delivered by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, and at the special instance and request of the said plaintiff. And in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars of like lawful money, for the work and labor, care and diligence of the said defendant, by the said defendant, and his servants before that time done, performed and bestowed in and about the business of the said plaintiff, and for the said plaintiff, and at his like request. And in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars, of like lawful money, for money before that time lent and advanced by the said defendant, to the said plaintiff, and at the like request of the said plaintiff; and for other money by the said defendant, before that time paid, laid out and expended for the said plaintiff, and at the like request of the said plaintiff. And for other money by the said plaintiff, before that time had and received to and for the use of the said defendant. And also that the said plaintiff, before the commencement of this action, accounted, together with the said defendant, of and concerning the said demand of the said plaintiff against the said defendant, and also of and concerning divers other sums of money and accounts between the said plaintiff and the said defendant, and upon such accounting the said plaintiff was found to be in arrear and indebted to the said defendant, in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars, of like lawful money, which the said plaintiff undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said defendant, well and truly to pay unto the said defendant, when the said plaintiff should be thereunto afterwards requested. Which said several sums of money, or so much thereof as will be sufficient for that purpose, the said defendant will set-off against the demand of the said plaintiff, to be proved at the trial, and have the balance certified in his favor. Dated the day of _____, 1846.

Yours, etc.,

GRAND JURY.

I. Plea in Abatement, Full Jury Not Present, 536

II. Special Plea, Jurors Not Properly Selected, 537

III. Replication to Plea That Jurors Were Not Properly Selected, 537

IV. Plea in Abatement, Grand Juror Disqualified, 537

I. Plea in Abatement, Full Jury Not Present.

Charles Gavan Duffy, at the prosecution of the Queen. And now on this day, to-wit, on the 19th day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1846, comes the said Charles Gavan Duffy, by John Mitchell, his attorney, into the court here of our Lady the Queen, and protesting that he is not guilty of the supposed offenses in the said supposed indictment specified, or any of them, or any part thereof; for plea in abatement nevertheless saith, that he ought not to be compelled to answer the said supposed indictment, and that the same ought to be quashed, because he says, that the said supposed indictment was not publicly and in open court, by the jurors aforesaid, or in their presence, or in the presence of twelve of them, or of a number of them, sufficient according to law in that behalf, presented to the said court of our said Lady the Queen, as a true bill; but on the contrary thereof the same was heretofore, to-wit, on the 14th day of January, in the year of our Lord last aforesaid, presented in open court to the said court, as a true bill, by one of the jurors aforesaid only, to-wit, by John Croker, in the presence of a less number than eleven of the jurors aforesaid, to-wit, in the presence of five only of the jurors aforesaid, to-wit, at Dublin, in the county of the city of Dublin. And the said Charles Gavan Duffy further says, that the jurors aforesaid were not, nor were any of them severally or at all called over by his or their name or names in open court in the said court of our said Lady the Queen, by the proper officer in that behalf, or by any other person whatever, or at all, at or immediately before the time when the said supposed indictment was so presented as aforesaid to the said Court by the jurors aforesaid, to-wit, at Dublin, in the county of the city of Dublin aforesaid, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid; and this he

(the said Charles Gavan Duffy) is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment of the said indictment, and that the same may be quashed, and so forth. The Queen v. Duffy, 1 Cox C. C. 283.

Note.—Quashed for want of proper affidavit annexed.

II. Special Plea, Jurors Not Properly Selected.

“And the said Dominick Moran, in his own proper person, comes into court here, and, having heard the said indictment read, saith that this court ought not to take cognizance of the said supposed offense in said indictment set forth, because, protesting that he is not guilty of the same, nevertheless the said Dominick Moran saith that said indictment was found and returned at the present term of said court by persons acting as a grand jury, which said persons did not constitute a legal grand jury; that said persons were not legally drawn, selected, qualified, summoned, notified and returned into said court, and did not constitute a legal grand jury. And especially he saith that Daniel J. Goss, a person who acted and served as one of the grand jurors finding said indictment, was not duly and legally drawn, selected, summoned and notified to appear and serve as one of said grand jurors; that George A. Reynolds also acted and served as one of said grand jurors finding said indictment, but that he was not duly and legally drawn, summoned, notified and returned; that the venire on which he was supposed to have been drawn and selected, summoned, notified and returned, was not directed to any or either of the constables of any town or city in said county; and no authority was given therein or thereby to any person to draw, select, summon, notify or return said George A. Reynolds as one of said grand jurors; that the service of said George A. Reynolds and said Daniel J. Goss on said grand jury rendered said indictment, found as aforesaid, null and void, and the finding of said indictment illegal. And this the said Dominick Moran is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment if this court now here will or ought to take cognizance of said indictment.” Com. v. Moran, 130 Mass. 281.

III. Replication to Plea That Jurors Were Not Properly Selected.

“And hereupon Asa French, the District Attorney for the Southeastern District, who prosecutes for the Commonwealth in this behalf, says, that notwithstanding anything by the said Dominick Moran in pleading alleged, this court ought not to be precluded from taking cognizance of the indictment aforesaid, because he says that the grand jurors from the towns of Randolph and Hyde Park, viz: George A. Reynolds and Daniel J. Goss, as to whom specific objection is taken in said defendant’s plea, were duly and legally drawn, summoned, notified and returned as grand jurors, and presented themselves on the first day of the term of this court at the April term thereof in the present year, and were then duly sworn and empanelled, and that said grand jury was in all respects a legal grand jury. And this the said Asa French is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, and that the said Dominick Moran may answer to this said indictment.” Com. v. Moran, 130 Mass. 281.

IV. Plea in Abatement, Grand Juror Disqualified (a).

“That the territory of New Mexico ought not further to prosecute the said indictment against him, because he saith that Anastacio Sandoval, one of the grand jurors who found the said indictment, was not at the time of finding said indictment a citizen of the United States, but was at the time of finding said indictment a citizen of the republic of Mexico, etc. He prayed ‘judgment’ that he be discharged and dismissed from the premises in said indictment specified.” Carter v. Territory, 1 N. M. 317.

Plea in Abatement, Grand Juror Disqualified (b).

“And now on this day, that is to say, Monday, the 18th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1848, the said Charles Gavan Duffy, being led to the bar of the court here by the High Sheriff of the county of the city of Dublin, and having heard the said supposed indictment read, protesting that he is not guilty of the offences in the said supposed indictment specified, or any of them; for plea in abatement nevertheless saith that he ought not to be compelled to answer the said supposed indictment, and that the same ought to be quashed, because he saith that Walter Sweetman, one of the jurors aforesaid, by whom the said supposed indictment was found a true bill as aforesaid, was not, at the time of his being sworn on the grand inquest aforesaid, nor at the time of his finding the said supposed indictment a true bill, as aforesaid, an inhabitant of the county of the city of Dublin, or resident within the same, or a freeman of the city of Dublin, or seised of any estate of freehold in the said county of the city of Dublin, and this he the said Charles Gavan Duffy is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment of the said indictment, and that the same may be quashed, and so forth.

"And for a further plea in this behalf, the said Charles Gavan Duffy, protesting as he hath above testified, saith that he ought not to be compelled to answer the said supposed indictment, and that the same ought to be quashed; because he saith that Patrick Boylan, another of the jurors aforesaid by whom the said supposed bill of indictment was found a true bill, as aforesaid, was not, at the time of his being sworn on the grand inquest aforesaid, nor at the time of his finding the said supposed indictment a true bill, as aforesaid, an inhabitant of the county of the city of Dublin, or resident within the same, or a freeman of the city of Dublin, or a burgess of the said city, or seised, or possessed of, or entitled to any lands, tenements or hereditaments within the said county of the city, for any estate of freehold, or any less estate, or entitled to any property within the said county of the city, in respect of which he, the said Patrick Boylan, was liable to be rated to the relief of the poor, or for county, parish or municipal taxes, and this he the said Charles Gavan Duffy is ready to verify; whereupon he prays judgment of the said indictment, and that the same may be quashed, and so forth." Reg. v. Duffy, 4 Cox C. C. 172.

Note.—"But it is said that a juror cannot legally act as such, unless he be of the body of the county, and that Mr. Boylan cannot, consistently with this plea, be considered as of the body of the county. But I take it he may consistently, with anything in this plea be a merchant in this city; he may have a partner there, and though he may have a residence outside the city, he may spend his time in it." Demurrer sustained because of statute above suggested.

I. Declaration on Promise To Be Accountable for Goods Sold to Third Person.

For that whereas, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (day of guarantee or about it) at, etc. (venue) in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, would (here set out the terms of the guarantee as relates to the consideration for it. In the case upon which this form was framed it was thus) (sell and deliver to one E. F. on credit, all such goods as he the said E. F. should have occasion for and require of the said plaintiff in * the way of his trade and business of a hemp merchant) he the said defendant undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff (here set out the defendant's promise, which in the case upon which this form was drawn, was thus (to be accountable to the said plaintiff for whatsoever goods he the said plaintiff should sell and deliver to the said E. F. as aforesaid). And the said plaintiff avers, that he, confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said defendant, did afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid (here aver plaintiff's performance of the consideration, and which may be thus, mutatis mutandis) sell and deliver to the said E. F. on certain credit, then and there agreed upon between the said plaintiff and E. F. certain goods of great value, which he the said

E. F. then and there had occasion for and required of the said plaintiff, in the way of his trade and business, and at and for certain reasonable prices then and there agreed upon by and between the said plaintiff and the said E. F. (or, if no stipulated price, say "at and for certain reasonable sums of money, amounting, etc.") amounting in the whole to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____l., of lawful money of Great Britain, and that although the said credit and the time for payment of the price of the said goods, by the said E. F. to the said plaintiff, hath long since elapsed, yet the said E. F. hath not (although he was afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, requested by the said plaintiff so to do) as yet paid to him the said sum of _____l., or any part thereof, but hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused so to do, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, of all which said premises the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, there had notice; yet the said defendant not regarding his said promise and undertaking, but contriving and intending to deceive and defraud the said plaintiff in this behalf, hath not as yet accounted to the said plaintiff, or paid the said sum of money, or any part thereof, for the said goods, or any part thereof (although he the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, was requested by the said plaintiff so to do), and hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused, and still wholly neglects and refuses so to do, and the said sum of _____l., still remains wholly due and unpaid to the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid. (Add such special counts as may be necessary.) 2 Chit. Pl. 314a.

II. Plea of Statute of Frauds to Declaration on Guaranty.

Because he saith, that the several supposed promises and undertakings in the said (first and second) counts respectively mentioned, were special promises, and each of them was a special promise for the debt of another person, to-wit, the said A. P. and that no agreement in respect of, or relating to, the supposed causes of action in the (first and second) counts of the said declaration, or either of them, nor any memorandum, or note thereof, wherein the consideration or considerations for the said special promises, or either of them, was or were stated or shown, was or is in writing, or was or is signed by the said defendant, or by any other person by him thereunto lawfully authorized, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 909.

III. Complaints.

A. Complaint Against Principal and Guarantors in Contract for Work and Labor.

I. That heretofore certain articles of agreement were made and entered into between the plaintiff, of the first part, and the said defendant W. of the second part, under their respective hands and seals, and bearing date the _____ day of _____, 18____, of which a copy is hereto annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked Exhibit A.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, simultaneously with said agreement, and in consideration thereof, the said defendants X., Y., and Z. executed an agreement in writing, under their respective hands and seals, written at the foot of said agreement, of which a copy is hereto annexed as a part of this complaint and marked Exhibit B.

III. That the plaintiff afterwards duly performed all the conditions of the said contracts on his part, and that the same were fully completed on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and that on that day he was entitled to have and receive from the said defendant W., and the said defendants X., Y., and Z., upon the said contract, for the said work, a large sum of money, viz., the sum of _____ dollars.

IV. That the said defendants have wholly failed to perform the said contracts on their parts, and have wholly neglected and refused to pay the said sum of _____ dollars, and are now indebted to the plaintiff, upon the said contract, in the sum aforesaid, with interest from, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 293.

B. Complaint Against Guarantors for Payment of Rent.

I. That on or about the _____ day of _____, 18____, one M. N., by agreement in writing with this plaintiff, hired of the plaintiff (very briefly designate the premises, e. g., thus, the building No. _____, in the city of _____, at the yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable (quarterly) on the _____ days of, etc.

II. That the defendant, in consideration of the premises and of one dollar to him paid, and as security for the punctual payment of said rent, then and there subscribed and delivered to the plaintiff an agreement in writing, of which the following is a copy: (copy of guaranty; or say, an agreement in writing, and thereby agreed that if any default should be made therein, he would pay to the plaintiff such sum or sums of money as should be sufficient to make up such deficiency and fully satisfy the conditions of said agreement, without requiring any notice of non-payment, or proof of demand made).

III. That said M. N. has made default in the payment of the sum of _____ dollars, which was due for said rent on, etc.

IV. That before the commencement of this action (and on the _____ day of _____, 18____), the plaintiff (duly demanded of said M. N. payment thereof, and gave to the defendant due notice and proof of said demand and non-payment, and then and there) duly demanded payment from the defendant of said sum; but no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 291.

C. Complaint on Agreement To Be Answerable for Goods Sold to Third Persons.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, in consideration that the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, would sell to one M. N., on a credit of _____ months, such goods as said M. N. should desire to buy of this plaintiff (or other consideration), the defendant promised to be answerable to the plaintiff for the payment by said M. N. of the price of goods so sold on credit (if the amount of the guaranty was limited, add, to an amount not exceeding a total credit of _____ dollars at any one time, or otherwise as the limit may have been).

II. That this plaintiff afterwards, and on the faith of said guaranty, sold and delivered to said M. N. (designate briefly the goods sold), for the sum of _____ dollars, upon a credit of _____ months, which sum became due therefor from said M. N. to this plaintiff, on, etc.

III. That payment of the same was thereafter duly demanded from said M. N., but the same was not paid; of all which due notice was given to the defendant.

IV. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, payment of the same was duly demanded by the plaintiff from the defendant, but no part thereof has been paid (except the sum of, etc.) 1 Abb. Forms 294.

D. Complaint on Guaranty of Precedent Debt.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, one M. N., being then indebted to this plaintiff in the sum of _____ dollars, which sum was then (or, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, became) due and payable to the plaintiff, the defendant made and subscribed a memorandum in writing, of which the following is a copy: (copy of the guaranty), and delivered the same to the plaintiff (or, made and subscribed a memorandum in writing, expressing the consideration thereof; or, under seal, and thereby promised to the plaintiff to answer to him for said debt).

II. That the plaintiff duly performed all the conditions thereof on his part, and there is now due to him thereon from the defendant the sum of _____ dollars, with interest from, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 295.

E. Complaint Against Guarantor of Mortgage To Recover Deficiency.

I. That on or about the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendants entered into an agreement in writing with the plaintiff, under their hands and seals, of that date, in the words and figures following: (copy of agreement).

II. That the principal sum secured by the bond and mortgage referred to in the said agreement, became due and payable on, etc., and that on or about, etc., the plaintiff commenced an action in the supreme court for the county of _____ for the foreclosure of said mortgage, the principal sum thereof, with interest, not having been paid; and such proceedings were thereupon had, that on the _____ day of _____, 18____, a decree or judgment order in said action was made by the said court, for the foreclosure of the said mortgage and sale of the premises; and that if the proceeds of such sale should be insufficient to pay the amount reported due to the plaintiff, with interest and costs, the amount of such deficiency should be specified in the report of sale therein, and W., one of the defendants therein, should pay the same to the plaintiff.

III. That pursuant to said decree or judgment-order, the premises were duly sold on, etc., by the sheriff of, etc., for the price or sum of, etc. (and that the plaintiff became the purchaser thereof).

IV. That, upon said sale, there occurred a deficiency of, etc., as appears by the sheriff's report of said sale, duly filed in the office of the clerk of, etc., and that thereupon, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, a judgment was rendered in said court against W. in favor of the plaintiff, for the said sum of, etc., with interest from _____, 18____, of which no part has ever been paid.

V. That before the commencement of this action, he demanded of the defendants payment of the amount of such deficiency, and at the same time tendered to them an assignment of said judgment against W., duly executed by the plaintiff, but that the defendants refused to pay the same, and have ever since neglected and refused to pay the same, although the plaintiff has always been, and still is, ready and willing to deliver to said defendants an assignment of said judgment upon being paid the amount due thereon. 1 Abb. Forms 295.

IV. Answers.

A. Answer, Denial of Plaintiff's Performance.

That the plaintiff did not supply the goods (or render the services) to the said M. N. alleged in the complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 90.

B. Denial of Plaintiff's Performance, Departure from Guaranty.

That the defendant did not promise to be answerable generally to the plaintiff for the price of goods sold to the defendant, but only for goods to an amount not exceeding _____ dollars (or, to be sold on a credit not exceeding _____ months), which limit the plaintiff exceeded in his alleged sale. 2 Abb. Forms 90.

C. Answer, Denial of Notice.

That no notice of the furnishing said goods (or, rendering said services) to said M. N. was given to the defendant. 2 Abb. Forms 90.

D. Answer on Guaranty, Want of Privity.

"Fourth—The defendant, further answering, denies that the plaintiff sold and furnished said Lichtenberger goods and materials as alleged in said petition, and denies that said alleged sales were made to said Lichtenberger with the knowledge and consent of the plaintiff and at his request, and denies that the defendant requested the plaintiff to sell any goods whatever to said Lichtenberger, or ever in any manner whatever agreed to become liable for the same, and denies that there is due the plaintiff the sum of $881 from said Lichtenberger, or any part thereof.

"And the said defendant, further answering, denies that he is indebted to the plaintiff in any sum whatever." Crane Co. v. Specht, 39 Neb. 123, 57 N. W. 1015.

Note.—Defendant admitted guaranty to predecessor in business. Plaintiff was a re-organized corporation. Guaranty under former name.

SERVICE OF PROCESS AND PAPERS:

- Petition for Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem for an Infant After Publication of an Order To Appear.

I. Petition for Guardian Ad Litem of Infant Plaintiff Over Fourteen.

To the _____ court (or to Hon. _____, judge of the _____ court).

The petition of A. B., an infant, shows,

I. That your petitioner was of the age of _____ years on the _____ day of _____ last; and is the only minor child of C. B., deceased, and resides with his mother at _____, and that he has no general guardian appointed pursuant to law (or, otherwise show what guardianship the petitioner has).

II. State the cause of action briefly, for instance as follows: That said C. B. died on the _____ day of _____, seized in fee simple of certain premises (describing them briefly) which were leased by the said C. B. at the time of his death to one Y. Z. That said C. B. by his last will, devised said premises to your petitioner and his brother, D. B., in equal undivided moities. That said Y. Z. is now indebted to your petitioner and the said D. B. in the sum of one hundred dollars, rent of said premises accrued since the death of C. B. aforesaid. That your petitioner is desirous of commencing with said D. B. an action against Y. Z. for the recovery of said rent, and your petitioner is, as he is advised, a necessary party plaintiff to such action.

That M. N., the uncle of your petitioner, of _____, is worth, as your petitioner is informed and believes, at least the sum of five hundred dollars, over and above all just debts and liabilities, and is a competent and responsible person to become the guardian of your petitioner in such action.

Wherefore your petitioner asks that M. N., or some other competent person, may be appointed guardian ad litem of your petitioner to commence and carry on such action for your petitioner. 1 Abb. Forms 53.

Verification.

A. B., being duly sworn, says, that he has read (or, heard read) the foregoing petition, subscribed by him, and knows the contents thereof; and that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters therein stated on information and belief, and as to those matters he believes it to be true. 1 Abb. Forms 54.

Consent of Proposed Guardian.

I hereby consent to become the guardian of A. B., to bring the action above referred to. 1 Abb. Forms 54.

Note.—The preceding and following forms must be varied to conform to the statutes of the particular states.

II. Order Appointing Guardian Ad Litem for Infant Plaintiff.

(Name of the court.) In the matter of the petition of A. B., an infant, for the appointment of a guardian ad litem. At a special term, etc.

On reading and filing the annexed petition of A. B., for the appointment of _____ as his guardian ad litem, and the consent of said _____ (and it being made satisfactorily to appear to the court that said _____ is a competent and responsible person):*

Ordered, that _____ be and hereby is appointed guardian ad litem of A. B., infant above named, and authorized to prosecute for him as such guardian, the action mentioned in the annexed petition (in partition cases, add, on his executing to the people of this state, and duly acknowledging and filing, a bond in the penalty of _____ dollars [to be fixed by the court], and with _____ sureties [one or more, as the court may direct], to be approved by a justice of this court, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the trust committed to such guardian, and to render a just and true account of his guardianship, in all courts and places when thereunto required). 1 Abb. Forms 56.

III. Petition by General Guardian, or Relative, or Friend, for Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem for Infant Plaintiff Under Fourteen.

To the _____ court.

The petition of G. H., respectfully shows:

I. That your petitioner is the testamentary guardian of A. B., an infant under fourteen years of age, duly appointed by the will of C. B., his father (or, is the general guardian of A. B., an infant under the age of fourteen years, duly appointed such on the _____ day of _____, 18____, by the order of M. N., surrogate of the county of _____, or, is the father, or, other relative of A. B., an infant under the age of fourteen years).

II. That said A. B. was _____ years old on the _____ day of _____ last, and resides at _____, with the petitioner.

III. Set forth concisely the cause of action.

IV. That your petitioner is desirous of bringing an action to recover the amount due on the foregoing facts (or, to foreclose the said mortgage, or, stating other relief sought), on behalf of said A. B.

(If the petitioner seeks appointment of himself, add, that your petitioner is willing to become the guardian ad litem of said A. B., and that he is worth _____ dollars over and above all his debts and liabilities, and property exempt by law from execution; that he is the general guardian of the petitioner [or, of the infant above named, or, that he is an attorney and counsellor of this court]. That he is, fully competent to understand and protect the rights of the infant, and has no interest adverse to that of the infant, and is not connected in business with the attorney or counsel of the adverse party or any of them.)

Wherefore your petitioner asks that he may be appointed (or, that F. G., who resides at _____, in this state, and who is a competent and responsible person, and worth _____ dollars over all his debts and liabilities, and property exempt by law from execution, may be appointed) guardian ad litem of said A. B., to prosecute said action for him. 1 Abb. Forms 58.

IV. Notice of Application for Guardian Ad Litem by Relative or Friend.

(Name of court.) In the matter of the petition of C. D. for the appointment of a guardian ad litem for A. B., an infant.

To _____. Take notice that on the annexed petition (consent and affidavits) an application will be made to this court, at a special term thereof, to be held at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____ o'clock in the forenoon, for an order appointing E. F. guardian ad litem of A. B., infant above named, and authorizing him to prosecute the action referred to in said petition. 1 Abb. Forms 59.

V. Petition by Infant Defendant for the Appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem.

To honorable _____, one of the justices of the _____ court.

The petitioner Y. Z., one of the defendants above named, respectfully shows,

I. That an action has been commenced against your petitioner in this court by A. B. (here state object of the action).

II. That your petitioner is an infant of the age of _____ years on the _____ day of _____ last, and resides with his father at _____, and that _____ is his general guardian.

III. That twenty days have not elapsed since the service of the summons upon the petitioner (or, that no application for appointment of guardian ad litem to appear on behalf of your petitioner, in said action, has been made, to the best of your petitioner's knowledge and belief).

Wherefore your petitioner asks that G. H. may be appointed his guardian ad litem, to appear and defend said action on his behalf. 1 Abb. Forms 60.

VI. Order Appointing Guardian for Infant Defendant.

(As in II to the *.)

Ordered, that _____ be and hereby is appointed guardian ad litem for the petitioner, and authorized and directed to appear and defend on his behalf the action mentioned therein. 1 Abb. Forms 60.

VII. Petition for Guardian Ad Litem by Relative or Friend of Infant Defendant.

To the honorable ———. (Or, to the ——— court.)

The petition of C. D. shows:

I. That the above-entitled action has been commenced by service of summons upon Y. Z. (or, upon ———, one of the defendants above named). That the object of the action is (here state it concisely).

II. That the defendant Y. Z. is an infant, ——— years old on the ——— day of ——— last (and if he is over fourteen years, add, and has neglected to apply for the appointment of a guardian ad litem in this action). That he resides with the petitioner, who is his father, and that he has no general guardian (or, otherwise state what guardianship he has).

Wherefore your petition asks that a guardian ad litem be appointed to appear and defend said action, on behalf of the infant. 1 Abb. Forms 62.

VIII. Notice to Defendant or His Guardian, That Plaintiff Will Apply for Guardian Ad Litem.

To Y. Z., one of the defendants.

Take notice, that unless you procure the appointment of a guardian ad litem, to appear and defend this action on your behalf, within twenty days from the service of the summons herein upon you (or, unless the defendant Y. Z. procures the appointment of a guardian ad litem to appear and defend this action on his behalf within twenty days from the ——— day of ———, 18——, the date of the service of the summons herein upon him), an application will be made to this court at a special term thereof, to be held (or, to Hon. ———), on the ——— day of ———, 18——, at ——— o'clock in the forenoon for an order appointing some suitable and competent person guardian ad litem for you (or, for said defendant Y. Z.), and authorizing and directing him to appear and defend the above entitled action in your behalf (or, in behalf of said defendant Y. Z.), and for such other and further relief as may be just. 1 Abb. Forms 64.

IX. Order of Appointment on Defendant's Failure To Procure the Appointment After Notice.

On reading and filing the annexed notice, proof of service, and of no application on the part of the defendant for the appointment for guardian ad litem, and on motion of Q. R., counsel for the plaintiff, *Ordered, that ——— be and hereby is appointed guardian ad litem of the infant defendant Y. Z. in this action, and is authorized and directed to appear and defend the same on his behalf as such guardian. 1 Abb. Forms 67.

X. Petition for Guardian Ad Litem in Case of Publication.

A. B., of ———, plaintiff (or, attorney for the plaintiff) in this action, being duly sworn, says, that this action is now pending in this court, being brought for (the partition of real estate, situated in the county of ———), that the defendant Y. Z. is a necessary or proper party thereto, but is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and resides without the state, to-wit, at ——— (as the deponent is informed and verily believes, by W. Z., the brother of said infant, who resides at ———), (and that there is no regular communication by mail with such place) (or, resides without this state, but the place of his residence is not known to the defendant, and his residence cannot on due inquiry be ascertained by the petitioner, although he has diligently made such inquiry, stating how).

That this action was commenced by service of the summons upon ——— (or, by order for the service of summons upon said infant by publication, made by this court on the ——— day of ———, and the first publication of the same was made on the ——— day of ———).

That no appearance by or on behalf of said infant, and no application for an appointment of a guardian ad litem by him, or on his behalf, has been made, to the best of this deponent's knowledge and belief.

Wherefore, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 72.

Note.—In case of service by publication on an infant defendant the publication must be complete before the appointment of the guardian ad litem.

XI. Order Appointing Guardian Ad Litem in Case of Publication.

On reading and filing the affidavit of A. B., the plaintiff in the above-entitled cause, setting forth, among other things, that Y. Z., one of the above-named defendants, is a non-resident infant, and that no guardian has been appointed for him in this action; on motion of B. H., plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that J. L. F. of ———, counsellor-at-law, be appointed guardian ad litem of said infant defendant for the purposes of this action, unless the said defendant, or some one in his behalf, within twenty days after service of a copy of this order in the manner herein directed, procure a guardian ad litem to be appointed, and give notice thereof to the plaintiff's attorney.

It is further ordered, that this order be served on said infant, either by personal service on W. Z., the mother of said infant, with whom he resides, or by depositing a copy thereof in the post-office at ———, properly enclosed in an envelope, with postage prepaid and directed to said W. Z., at her place of residence; to-wit, the town of ———, etc. (or, specifying such other mode of service as the court shall direct); and that such guardian execute to the people of this state, and duly acknowledge and file a bond, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 73.

XII. In Equity.

A. Petition To Assign a Guardian Ad Litem by Infant Defendant.

(Title, etc.)

Showeth, That the plaintiff has filed his bill against your petitioner, who has appeared thereto (and is preparing to answer the same); that your petitioner is an infant under the age of twenty-one years.

That your petitioner is advised that ——— of ———, who is your petitioner's (state relationship), is a proper person to be appointed his guardian to defend this suit.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays, that the said ——— may be assigned his guardian, by whom he may (answer the plaintiff's bill and) defend this suit.

And, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2158.

B. Affidavit for Guardian Ad Litem to Infant Defendant.

(Title, etc.)

I, ———, of ———, solicitor for the above-named (infant) defendant, ———, make oath and say, that the said ——— is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and A. B. of ———, is the (state relationship) of the said infant, and has no interest in the matters in question in this cause adverse to the said ———; and the said A. B. is a proper person to be appointed a guardian of the said ———, by whom to defend this suit. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2178.

C. Petition for Appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem for Infant Defendant by Plaintiff.

(Title, etc.)

Showeth,

That the bill in this suit was filed against the defendant to foreclose a mortgage executed by the father of said defendant, who is now deceased, in his lifetime, to your petitioner, and praying for a sale of the mortgaged premises; and that the said defendant claims an interest in the said premises as heir at law of her father; and the said defendant C. D. resides in the town of ———, and is, as the petitioner is informed and believes, an infant under the age of twenty-one years, viz., of the age of fifteen years and upwards. And that on the ——— day of ——— process in this cause was duly served on the said C. D. requiring her to appear and answer the said bill, returnable on the ——— day of ———. And your petitioner further shows, that, although more than ——— days have elapsed since the day of appearance named in said process, no guardian ad litem has as yet been appointed for such infant, or applied for by her or by any person on her behalf, to the knowledge or belief of your petitioner.

Your petitioner, therefore, prays that A. H., the clerk of this court, may be appointed guardian ad litem of such infant defendant, to appear and defend this suit in her behalf. And, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2159.

D. Order, Guardian Assigned on Application of Infant or Non Compos.

Upon motion, etc., who alleged that the said defendant C. is an infant (or a person of unsound mind not so found by inquisition), and that (name and description of proposed guardian) is a fit and proper person to be appointed his guardian, and has no interest in this suit adverse to the said infant (or lunatic), as by an affidavit, etc., appears; and upon reading the said affidavit, this court doth order, that the said ——— be assigned the guardian of the said infant (or lunatic) C., by whom he may defend this suit. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2359; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 1250.

E. Guardian Assigned to Infant or Nec. Compos Defendant on Motion of Plaintiff.

On motion of the plaintiff's solicitor it is ordered that Mr. A. C. C., a counsellor of this court, be appointed guardian ad litem of Anna Thorndike alias Bayerl, an infant under the age of twenty-one years, one of the defendants to this suit. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2360.

In Chancery. Before the Chancellor. To the chancellor of the state of ———.

The petition of A. B., of, etc., an infant over the age of fourteen years, respectfully sheweth: That your petitioner is the daughter of C. B., late of, etc., deceased, and is of the age of about fifteen years. That as one of the devisees of her said father, now deceased, your petition is seized of and entitled to an estate in fee in and to a certain house and lot situate in the ——— ward of the city of ———, and known as lot No. ———, ——— street, the gross income of which is about $——— annually; also to a certain farm or lot of land situate in the town of ———, in the county of ———, consisting of about ——— acres, the gross annual income of which is about $———. That she is also entitled to the following personal estate, viz: a horse of the value of about $———, two cows of the value of about $——— each, a promissory note given by J. T. to her said father previous to his death, for the sum of $———, and interest from the ——— day of ———, which note became due and payable on the — day of — last, and that no part thereof has been paid.

And your petitioner further sheweth, that she has not, to her knowledge or belief, any other property, real or personal, nor any right or interest in any other property than that above specified. That on account of her tender age, and of her own inability to protect her rights and interests, she is desirous of having some suitable and proper person appointed by this court to take charge thereof.

Your petitioner therefore prays that P. M., of, etc., physician, who is her uncle, may be appointed the general guardian of her person and estate, upon his giving security for the faithful performance of his trust as such guardian, according to the statute, and in conformity with the rules and practice of this court.

And your petitioner, etc.

Dated, etc. A. B.

Consent of Guardian.

I hereby consent to be appointed the general guardian of the above petitioner; and I offer as my sureties W. N. and R. S., both of, etc.

Dated, etc. P. M.

2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 645.

Note.—Except so far as provided otherwise by statute, the appointment of guardians devolves on courts exercising equity jurisdiction in the United States, and where the power has been conferred on probate courts the equity courts have concurrent jurisdiction unless excluded by the statute.

B. Master's Report, on Petition for General Guardian.

In Chancery. Before the Chancellor.

In the matter of the petition of A. B., an infant. To the chancellor of the state of —.

In pursuance of the provisions of the — and — rules of this court, I, the subscriber, the master residing nearest to the residence of the said infant, do certify and report that the petition of the said infant in the above matter having been presented to me, to the end that the inquiries and examinations directed by the said — rule might be made, and having been attended by the said A. B. and her solicitor, I have proceeded to make such inquiries and examinations, having previously directed notice to be given to the mother of the said infant, with whom she resides, and to G. B., her uncle, to appear before me if they desired to be heard in relation to the said application; and having required the attendance of such witnesses before me as appeared to me to be necessary, to give testimony on the subject of such application.

And I further report, that from an inspection of the said infant, as well as from the affidavit of F. B., her mother, taken before me, I am satisfied the age of the said infant is about fifteen years; that I have examined her as to her nomination of a guardian, and that she voluntarily nominated P. M., of, etc., to be her general guardian; and that I am of opinion the said P. M. is a suitable and proper person to be appointed such guardian.

I further report, that the amount, nature, and value of the real and personal property of the said infant is correctly stated in the said petition; that the gross amount or value of the rents and profits of the said real estate is about $— annually, and that the aggregate amount of such rents and profits during her minority will be the sum of $—.

And I further report that such guardian has offered W. N. and R. S., both of, etc., as his sureties; and having taken from each of them an affidavit as to his sufficiency, and made inquiries relative thereto, I am satisfied that the sureties so offered are sufficient; and I certify that each of such sureties is worth the sum of $— over and above all his debts.

And I further report that the said guardian should be required to give security in the sum of $—.

All which, etc.

Dated, etc.

C. Order Appointing General Guardian.

At a court of chancery held for the state of —, at —, on the — day of —, 1843.

(Title.)

On reading and filing petition of A. B., an infant over the age of fourteen years, praying for the appointment of P. M. as the general guardian of her person and estate, upon his giving the requisite security, together with the consent of the said P. M. to be appointed such guardian, and the proposal by him of W. N. and R. S., of, etc., as his sureties, and on reading and filing the report of P. G. E., master in chancery, made in pursuance of the _____ and _____ rules of this court; and on motion of W. C. N., of counsel for said infant, ordered that the said P. M. be, and he is hereby appointed the general guardian of the person and estate of the said infant, upon his executing a bond to the said infant, with the said W. N. and R. S. as his sureties, in the penal sum of $_____ conditioned that the said P. M. shall faithfully perform his trust as such guardian, and file an inventory of the estate of said infant within six months after his appointment, and render the annual inventory or account of his guardianship required to be rendered and filed by the _____ rule of the said court of chancery, and shall observe and obey all the general rules of this court respecting general guardians, and such orders as shall be made by this court from time to time in relation to such trust; and that he shall render a just and true account of all moneys and property of the said infant, which shall come to his hands as such special guardian, and of the application thereof, and of his guardianship generally, before any court having jurisdiction, whenever he shall be thereunto lawfully required. And it is further ordered that the execution of said bond be acknowledged or proven, as required by statute, and approved of as to its form and manner of execution, by the said master, to be signified by his approval endorsed thereon, and filed in the office of the register (or clerk) of this court. 2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 647.

D. Bond of General Guardian.

Know all men by these present that we, P. M., of, etc., and W. N. and R. S., of, etc., are held and firmly bound unto A. B. in the sum of $_____, to be paid to the said A. B., her heirs, executors, administrators or assigns; for which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these present. Sealed with our seals, and dated the _____ day of _____, one thousand eight hundred and _____.

Whereas, by an order of the court of chancery of the state of _____, made on the _____ day of _____, the above bounden P. M. was appointed the general guardian of the person and estate of the above named A. B., an infant under the age of twenty-one years, upon his executing a bond to the said A. B., with the said W. N. and R. S., as his sureties, in the penalty and upon the condition therein mentioned. Now therefore the condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden P. M. shall faithfully perform his trust as such guardian, and shall file an inventory of the estate of the said infant within six months after his appointment, and render the annual inventory or account of his guardianship required to be rendered and filed by the _____ rule of the said court of chancery, and shall observe and obey all the general rules of said court respecting general guardians, and such orders as shall be made from time to time by the said court in relation to such trust; and if he shall render a just and true account of all moneys and property of the said infant which shall come to his hands as such special guardian, and of the application thereof, and of his guardianship generally, before any court having jurisdiction, whenever he shall be thereunto lawfully required—then this obligation to be void; otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

State of _____, _____ county, ss.:

On this _____ day of _____, before me, a justice of the peace in and for said county, came the above named P. M., W. N. and R. S., to me well known to be the persons described in, and who executed the above instrument, and severally acknowledged that they executed the same.

_____, justice of the peace.

Approval of Bond by Master.

I approve of the within bond, as to its form and manner of execution.

Dated, etc.

_____, mastery in chy.

C. Order on Interlocutory Account of Guardian.

"In the matter of Mary Hanifin, an heir at law of John Hanifin, deceased. Guardian's Report.

"Now, at this day, comes Charles R. Bennett, guardian of said Mary Hanifin, and makes report of his actions and doings in the premises; and it appears that said guardian was indebted to said ward, at the time of making his last report (December 18, 1866), in the sum of $723.88; and said guardian has paid since his last report, in taxes and cash, for said ward, up to April 1, 1876, the sum of $510; also, has paid out for said ward, in cash, from April 1, 1867, up to date, the sum of $85, making total paid out since last report the sum of $595, leaving a balance in the hands of said guardian, and due said ward, the sum of $128.88; and said Mary Hanifin, the aforesaid ward, being present in court, examines said report, and said guardian having been duly sworn that said report is true and correct, it is ordered by the court that said report be approved." Bennett v. Hanifin, 87 Ill. 31.

Note.—Held not final adjudication.

D. Decree on Final Account of Guardian.

"Peyton T. Graves, guardian, v. Anna Whitten, formerly Turner, and Charles H. Whitten, her husband.

"This 22d day of January, 1866, came the said Peyton T. Graves, guardian as aforesaid, and also came Philip H. Cook, esq., the guardian ad litem of the said Anna, appointed by this court; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the said Peyton T. Graves heretofore, to-wit, on the 23d day of December, 1865, filed his account, vouchers, and evidences, for a final settlement of his said guardianship; and the said account, vouchers, and evidences, having been examined by the said guardian ad litem, and he making no objection to the same; and it appearing that due notice of the time and place of this settlement was given, by putting up notice of the same more than three weeks before the 22d day of January, 1866, the time set for said settlement by former order of this court, on the court-house door, and at three other public places in this county, there being no newspaper published in this county; the court proceeds to hear the matters pertaining to this account, and to consider the evidences submitted relating thereto. Whereupon it is shown by sufficient proof, that the said guardian has received as assets of said ward's estate sixteen bales of cotton, valued at thirty-two hundred dollars, and other personal property to the value of twenty-five hundred and eighty dollars; which cotton and other personal property, it is shown by proof, has been turned over by said guardian to Charles H. Whitten, the husband of said Anna. It further appears, by sufficient proof, that the said guardian has received no money assets belonging to said ward. It further appears from an inspection of said account, and from the proof relating thereto, that the said guardian has expended for the necessary support and maintenance of his said ward, the sum of four thousand seven hundred and ninety-five 93-100 dollars in Confederate money; for which amount the court now allows him, from proof submitted, a credit of four hundred and seventy-nine 59-100 dollars. It also appears, that the said guardian expended the following amounts in the proper execution of his guardianship—to wit, to James Harrison, eighteen dollars; to Clements & Williamson, fifty dollars; court cost, twenty-four 90-100 dollars, and also six hundred dollars, which it is shown the said guardian has paid to his said ward, through the said Charles H. Whitten, her husband; all of which amounts are allowed by the court. The court allows the said guardian the amount of one hundred and thirty-five 34-100 dollars, as commissions for expenditures as above stated, and the further sum of one hundred and fifty-two dollars as commissions on the value of the personal property turned over to the husband of his ward. It appears from the above that the whole amount expended by the guardian for his ward, including commissions allowed, is fourteen hundred and sixty 33-100 dollars; which amount it is ordered and decreed, that the said guardian retain out of any assets in his hands, belonging to his said ward. And said account appearing to be full and correct, it is considered and decreed by the court, that said accounts be, and the same are hereby in all things, passed and allowed as above stated. It is further ordered, that said account be recorded, and that all vouchers, evidences, and settlements relating thereto, be filed in this court. It is further ordered, that said P. T. Graves be discharged from any further duty as guardian as aforesaid, it appearing that his said ward intermarried in the spring of 1865 with Charles H. Whitten, who is over the age of twenty-one years." Whitten v. Graves, 40 Ala. 578.

III. Foreign Guardian.

A. Petition for Leave To Transfer Fund to Non-Resident Guardian.

"To the Hon. James Keith, Judge of the circuit court of Fauquier county, Virginia:

"Your petitioner, John D. Conrad, a citizen of Jefferson county, West Virginia, shows to your Honor that he was appointed by the County Court of the said county guardian of Mary E., Laura E., Ada L., and Daniel P. Conrad, infant children of B. F. Conrad, who was your petitioner's brother.

"The said B. F. Conrad died in Fauquier county very poor, and your petitioner has been compelled to take charge and care of the children, as they were motherless also.

"Your petitioner further shows that the said children are entitled, under your Honor's decree, pronounced in the cause of Clendenning v. Hall, to the sum of $2,000—the homestead allotted to their father (subject to costs, etc.). Your petitioner also shows that he has qualified as guardian, and executed bond, with good security more than sufficient to cover the entire estate of the said infants. All of which facts will appear by duly authenticated records herewith filed.

"Notice has been given of the intention to apply to your Honor to transfer the said fund to your petitioner as guardian, at the April term, 1883, of your Honor's court, a copy of which, from the Warrenton Index, is herewith filed. The rights of no parties will be affected by the proposed transfer, as the children are without any kindred in Virginia able to assist them, and the fund will be necessary for their clothing, etc.

"All the requirements of the law having been conformed to, your petitioner asks leave to file his petition in the said cause, and prays your Honor to order the transfer of the fund to your petitioner forthwith, as he is here at expense.

"Respectfully submitted,

"John D. Conrad."

Clendenning v. Conrad, 91 Va. 410, 21 S. E. 818.

B. Order Directing Transfer of Fund to Non-Resident Guardian.

"In the matter of the petition of John D. Conrad, guardian of Mary E., Laura E., Ada L., and Daniel P. Conrad, infant children of B. F. Conrad, deceased.

"The said John D. Conrad, guardian as aforesaid, this day filed his petition, and this cause came on to be heard on said petition and the accompanying papers. And it appearing to the satisfaction of the court (by authentic documentary evidence, that the said John D. Conrad has qualified, in Jefferson county, in the State of West Virginia, as guardian of the said infants, and has given, in the court where he qualified, bond with surety sufficient to insure his accountability for the whole of the estate of his said wards, which now is or probably will come into his hands as guardian; and it further appearing to the court that neither the rights of said infants, nor of any other person, will be prejudiced by the transfer of the estate of said wards to the guardian; and it also appearing that notice of the application of the transfer of the said estate has been published as required by law for four weeks in the Warrenton Index, a newspaper published in the town of Warrenton, the court doth adjudge, order and decree that W. H. Payne, the attorney into whose hands the said fund was paid by order made in the cause of Clendenning v. Conrad, now pending in this court, do pay to the said John D. Conrad the said sum of $2,000 (subject to a credit of $28.27) allowed G. B. Gibson, and paid him by said Payne, and such costs and reasonable fees as may have been incurred. And the sum herein ordered to be paid to said Conrad shall be held and accounted for by him as guardian aforesaid." Clendenning v. Conrad, 91 Va. 410, 21 S. E. 818.

Note.—Petition to open up this matter because of interest of creditors in fund after youngest child came of age was sustained.

IV. Actions Against Guardian.

A. Complaint, Action To Compel Guardian To Pay Over Money Due on Final Account.

"The said plaintiff, Mary A. Lindsay, who is now of full age, complains of the said defendant, Francis Lindsay, for that the said defendant was duly appointed and qualified as the guardian of said plaintiff, by the Probate Court of said county, on or about the 31st day of October, A. D. 1854, and that, as such guardian, a large amount of money belonging to said plaintiff came into his possession, to-wit, the sum of $798.39. That on or about the 6th day of April, 1867, said defendant filed in the Probate Court of said Harrison county, Ohio, a paper purporting to be a final settlement of his accounts as guardian of said plaintiff as aforesaid; that at the date of filing said pretended account there was justly due from said defendant as such guardian to said plaintiff the sum of $741.14; that since the filing of said pretended account the said defendant has paid the said plaintiff at different times small sums of money, amounting in the aggregate to not more than $60.00, leaving a balance still due, after deducting said credits, from said defendant to said plaintiff, the sum of $681.14, no part of which has ever been paid, either before or since the filing of said pretended account, and the same now remains due and unpaid. Said defendant has at different times, at and since filing said pretended account, promised to pay said plaintiff said sum of money so remaining due to said plaintiff, but now wholly refuses to pay the same, or any part thereof. Wherefore said plaintiff prays a judgment against said defendant for said sum of $681.14, with interest thereon from the 6th day of April, 1867." Lindsay v. Lindsay, 28 Ohio St. 157.

B. Complaint Against Guardian for Ward's Board and Lodging.

"State of Indiana, Lawrence County, ss.: Lawrence Circuit Court, December term, 1890.

"Hamilton Clipp v. Sarah A. McNabb, guardian of H. Dale Browning, minor heir of Joseph W. Browning, deceased, and Hugh McNabb, her husband."

Plaintiff complains of said defendant, Sarah A. McNabb, and says that on the 12th day of February, 1879, said defendant became the guardian of the person and estate of H. Dale Browning, minor heir of Joseph W. Browning, deceased, and has continued in such capacity ever since; that as such guardian she has in her possession money of the estate of said ward amounting in all to the sum of three hundred dollars; that the said minor has no father, and that said defendant, and guardian, is his mother; that on the ——— day of October, 1888, said defendant, Sarah A. McNabb, as such guardian, agreed and contracted with the plaintiff to pay plaintiff for the board and lodging of said H. Dale Browning, the said ward of said guard-man, and contracted with the plaintiff for the plaintiff to board and lodge said H. Dale Browning, he being also her son; that in pursuance and by virtue of the terms, agreements and premises of said contract, this plaintiff did furnish board and lodging to said ward and minor, which were and are of the value of two hundred and twenty dollars, which is more fully set forth in the account hereto attached and made part of this complaint, and for identification is marked 'A;' that said amount is due and wholly unpaid. Plaintiff avers that said defendant, Sarah A. McNabb, is now the wife of Hugh McNabb, who is made a defendant herein. Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment against said defendant, Sarah A. McNabb, individually, and for all other proper relief." McNabb v. Clipp, 5 Ind. App. 204, 31 N. E. 858.

Note.—Held to state a cause of action against the guardian personally.

V. Sale of Lands of Minors.

A. Petition for Leave To Sell Real Estate for Support and Education of Infant.

"In the district court of the first judicial district of Nebraska, held in and for Gage county. To the Honorable the said District Court:

"The petition of Ellen E. Larimer, of the county of Scott, in the state of Iowa, shows:

"1. That she is the mother and duly appointed guardian of Henry Larimer, a minor child, born September 19, 1865, as shown by the papers hereto attached, marked exhibit 'A,' and that said child lives with your petitioner in the said county of Scott.

"2. That said Henry Larimer has no estate whatever, real or personal, except the following, to-wit: The S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34 in T. 5, R. 6, in Gage county, Nebraska, which said lands he owns in fee.

"3. That said lands are uncultivated and wholly unproductive and are now liable for a large amount of unpaid taxes for a long time due thereon.

"4. That the value of said lands does not exceed $1,000.

"5. That said Henry Larimer is wholly dependent upon your petitioner for his support and education.

"6. That your petitioner is unable by reason of her poverty to support and educate said Henry Larimer in a proper manner, and that it would be to the great benefit of said Henry Larimer if said lands should be sold and the proceeds of the sale thereof be applied towards his education and support. And your petitioner asks that a license to sell said lands may be granted to her in the manner provided by law.

Ellen E. Larimer.

"State of Iowa, County of Scott.

"Ellen E. Larimer, having been first duly sworn, says that she is the named petitioner; that she has read the said petition above written and knows that the contents thereof are true.

"Ellen E. Larimer."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

Note.—The foregoing and the following forms on the sale of lands of infants from adjudicated cases will be suggestive only in the preparation of similar forms under other statutes.

B. Petition for Leave To Mortgage Infant's Real Estate.

"Now comes Richard Hogeboom, guardian of the above named persons, and represents unto said court that said Richard H. Robertson is a minor under the age of twenty-one years, that said Elizabeth Robertson is also a minor under the age of eighteen and unmarried; that John Robertson is a minor under the age of twenty-one years, and that said Bertha Robertson is also a minor under the age of eighteen and unmarried; that the father and mother of said minor persons are dead; that on or about the 16th day of September, A. D. 1879, your petitioner was duly appointed guardian of the persons and property of said minors, and is still such guardian; that the only estate, real or personal, belonging to said minors consists of forty acres of land, or thereabouts, situated in Douglas county, and state of Nebraska, described as follows, to-wit: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 5, in township 15 north, of range 13 east of the 6th principal meridian; that there are no improvements or buildings on said land, but nearly the entire land is under cultivation and yields an annual income of about $100; that said minors have no other means of support, except as furnished by your petitioner, who is the grandfather of said minors; that there is a large sum against said land for taxes assessed thereon for several years, for which said land has been sold by the county treasurer of said Douglas county and which is subject to redemption; that the annual taxes of levy against said land is about the sum of $50; that the value of said land is about the sum of $1,600; that said minors have no other means with which to redeem said land from sale for said delinquent taxes, nor pay such annual taxes; that the whole amount required to satisfy said delinquent and other taxes is about the sum of $850. Your petitioner therefore asks the court to grant your petitioner a license to sell such land, or such portion thereof as may be sold separately without injury, to pay said delinquent and other taxes, and for the support and education of said children, or that said court make an order authorizing your petitioner to raise said money by a mortgage on said land, as shall to said court appear for the best interest of all persons interested in said land.

"Richard Hogeboom."

"I, Richard Hogeboom, depose and say I am the guardian named in the foregoing petition, and know all the facts set forth therein personally, and that the same are true.

Richard Hogeboom.

"Signed in my presence and sworn to before me this 30th day of June, A. D. 1883.

Wm. H. Ijams, Clerk."

Hogeboom v. Robertson, 41 Neb. 795, 60 N. W. 2.

C. Notice of Application To Sell Real Estate of Minor.

(Order below was published as notice.)

D. Order To Publish Notice of Application To Sell Minor's Property.

"In the district court of the first judicial district, held in and for Gage county, Nebraska. In the matter of the application of Ellen E. Larimer, guardian of Henry Larimer, a minor child, to sell the S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34, in T. 5 north, of R. 6 east, of the 6th principal meridian, in said Gage county, Nebraska, for the maintenance and education of said minor.

"It is now ordered that all persons next of kin of said ward, and all persons interested in the estate above described, appear before me at the court house in the city of Nebraska City, in the county of Otoe, Nebraska, on Friday, the 18th day of December, 1874, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to show cause why a license should not be granted to said guardian to sell said real estate for the purpose aforesaid. Ordered, that a copy of this order be published four consecutive weeks in the Beatrice Express, prior to the time fixed for said hearing.

"Dated November 5, A. D. 1874.

D. Gantt, Judge."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

E. Order Granting License To Sell Land of Minor.

"In the district court of the first judicial district in and for Gage county. In the matter of the application of Ellen E. Larimer, guardian of Henry Larimer, to sell real estate of said minor.

"And now this 18th day of December, 1875, this cause came on to be heard, at chambers, at the court house in Nebraska City, Otoe county, in pursuance of the order heretofore made in this cause on all persons interested in the said estate, to show cause, if any they had, why a license should not be granted to said guardian to sell said real estate for the maintenance and education of said minor; and it appearing to the Hon. D. Gantt, judge, presiding in said first judicial district, that publication of said order and notice to the next of kin of said minor, and all persons interested in said estate, was duly made in the manner and for the time prescribed by law, in the Beatrice Express, a newspaper printed and having a general circulation in the said county of Gage, and the said judge having heard and examined the proofs of the said guardian (no one appearing to resist said application), and being fully advised in the premises, doth find that the income of said minor is not sufficient to maintain and educate the said minor. It is therefore ordered that the said Ellen E. Larimer, as guardian aforesaid, be and is hereby licensed to sell the real estate of the said minor, in her said petition described, to-wit, the S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34, in T. 5 N., R. 6 east, in said county of Gage, for the maintenance and education of said minor. And it is further ordered that said guardian shall, before making such sale, take and file the oath required by law, and shall make due publication and give notice of said sale in the manner and for the time prescribed by law. The terms of said sale shall be cash; and the said guardian is required to make full return of all her proceedings herein to the next term of the district court of said county of Gage.

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

F. Petition, Action To Set Aside Sale of Real Estate, Insufficient Price, No Confirmation.

1. That since the filing of the report of the sale of the land herein-after described and set out, the said W. E. Salter has been regularly removed as the general guardian of the infant Iola Dickerson, and that your petitioner has been duly appointed her next friend in this proceeding.

2. That since the filing of the report in said proceeding, to-wit, on the 31st day of March, 1883, no confirmation of said report has been made by this court, no confirmation thereof asked by said guardian W. E. Salter, or the purchaser at such sale as named in the said report, to-wit, S. S. Willis.

3. That since the sale and filing of the report aforesaid, and without any confirmation thereof, the said W. E. Salter has executed a deed of conveyance, to-wit, on the day of said sale, March 31, 1883, to said purchaser S. S. Willis, who, on the 1st day of January, 1885, conveyed the same to one R. W. Bell, who has since died, leaving a last will and testament, to which said will W. R. and J. N. Bell were duly appointed executors, and having qualified as such and entered duly on the discharge of the duties thereof, and by virtue of the provisions of said will, the real estate of said R. W. Bell has become vested in the said executors.

4. That the guardian, W. E. Salter as aforesaid, put the purchaser, S. S. Willis, in the possession of said land, who, and those claiming under him, have held possession thereof by virtue of the deed aforementioned, and are now in the possession thereof.

5. That the land aforesaid is chiefly and almost mainly valuable for the timber growing and standing thereon, and that W. N. and J. R. Bell, their agents and employes, are cutting and removing the said timber rapidly from said land, and continue to threaten so to do, and your petitioner is advised and believes that the said Bells have been advised by their counsel, and propose, in pursuance to said advice, to cut and remove said timber in as short time as possible, for that the infant Iola Dickerson might give them trouble concerning their title and possession of the said land.

6. That at the time of the sale and report of said guardian, the value of said land was in excess of that reported by said guardian, and that, to the knowledge of this petitioner, and upon reliable information and belief, this petitioner avers that the value thereof was at such time at least the sum of three hundred dollars, and that the value thereof at this time, and the sum offered therefor for the timber standing thereon, is five hundred dollars.

Wherefore, he prays that the sale aforesaid be set aside, that the infant Iola Dickerson be restored to the possession of said land, and that a commissioner be appointed to sell said land and report his action to this court, and for such other and further relief as she may be entitled to. In re Dickerson, 111 N. C. 108, 15 S. E. 1025.

G. Order Setting Aside Sale of Land of Ward.

"It is ordered and adjudged by the court that the order of W. M. Watson, C. S. C., made February 10, 1892, be and the same is hereby set aside and a resale ordered of the said interest of Iola Dickerson, minor, in the lands described in the petition filed in this proceeding." In re Dickerson, 111 N. C. 108, 15 S. E. 1025.

H. Oath of Guardian on Sale of Lands of Minors.

"I, Ellen E. Larimer, being first duly sworn, make oath and say that I am the guardian above mentioned of the said minor, Henry Larimer; that in disposing of the following real estate, to-wit, the S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34, T. 5 N., of R. 6 east, of the principal meridian in Gage county, Nebraska, which said lands I am licensed to sell by the said district court, I will use my best endeavors to dispose of the same in such manner as will be most convenient for the advantage of the said Henry Larimer and all other persons interested therein.

"Ellen E. Larimer."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

I. Bond of Guardian on Sale of Land of Minor.

"Know all men by these presents, that we, Ellen E. Larimer, of the county of Scott, in the state of Iowa, James Gamble, of the same place, and Joseph Suiter, of the county of Gage, in the state of Nebraska, are held and firmly bound unto the Hon. Daniel Gantt, judge of the district court of the first judicial district of Nebraska, and to his successors in office in the penal sum of $1,000, current money of the United States; the payment of which sum to be well and truly made we and each of us bind ourselves, our executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

"The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said Ellen E. Larimer, guardian of Henry Larimer, shall as such guardian sell under a license from the said district court the following lands, to-wit, the S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34, T. 5 N., of R. 6 east, in said Gage county, in the manner prescribed by law for the sale of real estate by executors and administrators, and if the said Ellen E. Larimer shall account for and dispose of the proceeds of said sale in the manner provided by law, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force.

"Witness our hands and seals this 10th day of December, 1874.

"Ellen E. Larimer. (Seal.)

"James Gamble. (Seal.)

"Joseph Suiter. (Seal.)

"Subscribed and sworn to by Ellen E. Larimer and James Gamble before me, a notary public in and for Scott county, Iowa, this 10th day of December, A. D. 1874.

"John W. Buckman,

"Notary Public, Scott County, Iowa.

"The above bond and sureties therein approved.

D. Gantt, Judge."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

J. Notice of Sale of Minors' Lands by Guardian.

"By virtue of a license of the district court of the first judicial district of Nebraska, held in and for Gage county, to me granted, I, Ellen E. Larimer, guardian of Henry Larimer, a minor, will sell for cash at public auction on Saturday, the 25th day of September, A. D. 1875, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the south front door of the court house, in Beatrice, Gage county, Nebraska, the following real estate, situated in said Gage county, the land of said minor, to-wit, the southeast quarter of section 34, in T. 5 N., of R. 6 east.

Ellen E. Larimer,

"Guardian of Henry Larimer."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

K. Report of Sale of Lands by Guardian.

"Received the license hereto annexed, marked Exhibit 'A,' and, according to the command thereof, I did, on the 24th day of August, 1875, cause a notice (a copy of which is hereto annexed, marked Exhibit 'B'), to be published in the Beatrice Courier, a newspaper published in the county of Gage, Nebraska, and of general circulation therein, and continued the publication of the same for thirty-two days, and did post up copies of the said notice in five of the most public places in said Gage county, giving notice that I would, on the 25th day of September, 1875, at the south front door of the court house in said county, at 2 o'clock P. M. of said day, sell the said lands in said license mentioned, at public auction; and I did at said time and place sell said lands at public auction to Orren Stevens for the sum of \$430, he being the highest and best bidder therefor. That before the sale of said lands I did cause the same to be appraised in the manner required by law, which said appraisement is hereto annexed, marked Exhibit 'C,' and that the said sum of \$430 is more than two-thirds of the appraised value of said lands, to-wit, the S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34, in T. 5 N., of R. 6 east, Gage county. That I did also before making said sale make and file with the clerk of the district court of said county the oath required by law. All done in Gage county, Nebraska.

"Witness my hand this 27th day of September, A. D. 1875.

Ellen E. Larimer."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

L. Receipt for Purchase Money by Guardian.

"I, Ellen E. Larimer, above named, do hereby certify that I have received from Orren Stevens the sum of \$430, in full for purchase money of lands above mentioned, being the S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 34, T. 5 N., of R. 6 east, in said Gage county.

Ellen E. Larimer.

"In presence of

"James Gamble."

Larimer v. Wallace, 36 Neb. 444, 54 N. W. 835.

M. Confirmation of Sale of Lands by Guardian.

"In the district court of the first judicial district of Nebraska, held in and for Gage county. In the matter of the application of Ellen E. Larimer, guardian of Henry Larimer, to sell the lands of said minor. Confirmation of sale of lands.

"And now, on this third day of November, 1875, comes the said Ellen E. Larimer, by S. C. B. Dean, her attorney, and the court having fully examined the papers in this cause, and being fully advised in the premises, order that the sale of the lands by said Ellen E. Larimer, under the license for that purpose heretofore granted by said court, be confirmed, and is hereby ordered that a deed of said lands be made by said Ellen E. Larimer to Orren Stevens, the purchaser of said lands.

D. Gantt, judge."

I. Petitions.

A. Petition for Habeas Corpus.

To the honorable (the court or officer allowing the writ):

The petition of C. D. respectfully sheweth that he is now a prisoner confined in the custody of (state the officer's name), in (stating the place of confinement), for a supposed criminal offense, to-wit (here state the offense), and that such confinement is by virtue of a warrant, a copy of which is hereto annexed: And your petitioner further shows that to his best knowledge and belief he is not committed or detained by virtue of any process issued by any court of the United States, or any judge thereof, or by virtue of the final judgment or decree of any competent tribunal of civil or criminal jurisdiction, or by virtue of any execution issued upon such judgment or decree.

And your petitioner further states and shows that he is advised by his counsel, and verily believes, that his imprisonment is illegal in this, to-wit (here state in what the alleged illegality consists).

Wherefore your petitioner prays a writ of habeas corpus, to discharge him from custody (or to bring him up, in order to be bailed). Dated, etc. C. D. G. H., attorney.

(City and) county (of ———), ss.: C. D., the above named petitioner, being duly sworn, says that the said petition is true in substance and matter of fact. C. D.

Sworn, etc. Burr. App. 547, §1080.

B. Petition for Habeas Corpus, Prisoner Unable To Furnish Copy of Proceedings.

To the honorable (the court or officer allowing the writ):

The petition of C. D. respectfully showeth that he is now a prisoner confined in the custody of (state the officer's name), in (stating the place of confinement), for a supposed criminal offense, to-wit (state the offense). And your petitioner avers that, by reason of his being removed or concealed, before this application, a demand of a copy of the warrant or process by virtue of which he is informed he is confined, could not be made (or thus: And your petitioner avers that a demand of a copy of the warrant or process by virtue of which he is informed he is confined, has been made of the said [the officer], and the legal fees therefor tendered to him; and that such copy has been refused).

And your petitioner further shows that, to his best knowledge and belief, he is not committed, etc. (as in last form to the end). Burr. App. 548, §1080a.

C. Petition for Habeas Corpus Where Prisoner Is Ignorant of Cause.
To the honorable, etc. (as in last form).

The petition of C. D. respectfully sheweth that he is now restrained in his liberty by (naming the person restraining him), in (state the place where he is restrained), under pretense of (state what, or say: And your petitioner avers that he is utterly ignorant of the pretense under which he is so restrained, but has heard or understood that such pretense is as follows: stating it):

And your petitioner further shows, etc. (as in I, A, to the end). Burr. App. 548, §1080b.

D. Petition for Habeas Corpus To Obtain Custody of Infant (a).
To the supreme court of the state of New York:

The petition of A. B., of ———, respectfully shows:

I. That she is the wife of C. B., they having been married in the year ———, but that since ——— they have been living in a state of separation without being divorced.

II. That they have a minor child, a boy, named ———, aged ——— years (proceed and state the circumstances of the case, and particularly the ability of the petitioner to provide for her child, and the pecuniary condition of the father).

Wherefore your petitioner prays that a writ of habeas corpus to deliver said ——— from the custody of said C.

B., and for such other relief as may be just.

Petition for Habeas Corpus To Obtain Custody of Infant (b).

“Wesley Hofer complains and shows to the court that he is the legally appointed guardian of the person and estate of William Thomas Walker, a minor; that the said William Thomas is the son and only heir at law of John K. Walker and Dorcas Walker, both of whom are now dead; that said John K. and Dorcas died in La Rue county, Kentucky, the place of their residence, and that afterwards, by the proper Court of said county, letters of guardianship over the person and estate of said infant, were issued to plaintiff.

“The plaintiff further shows that soon after the death of the mother, who survived the father of said William Thomas, one Zachariah L. Warren, without the consent of the friends of William Thomas, caused him to be removed to the county of Lawrence, state of Indiana, where he now detains him under the pretext of a guardianship conferred by a Court in Indiana, and refuses to permit him to return to Kentucky with the plaintiff.

“Plaintiff further shows that he is the uncle as well as the legal guardian of said William Thomas.

“Plaintiff further shows that there is no estate belonging to said William Thomas in Indiana, while there is a respectable estate, which he inherits from his parents, in La Rue county, Kentucky; and that there, also, dwell the larger portion of his friends. In consideration of the premises, plaintiff prays that said Warren may be required to produce the body of said William Thomas before this court, and that the Court will direct that he be delivered to this plaintiff, to be taken to his home in Kentucky.

(Signed) “Wesley Hofer.”

The complaint is sworn to.

Warren v. Hofer, 13 Ind. 167.

Note.—Reversed for failure of proof of guardianship; no copy of letters filed.

E. Petition for Habeas Corpus by Third Person on Behalf of Prisoner.

To the supreme court of the state of New York (or to Hon. J. J., justice of the supreme court; or to the county judge of _____ county, or other magistrate mentioned in the statute):

The petition of C. D. respectfully shows that A. B. (or, if his name is unknown, describe him, and proceed as in preceding form, substituting the name or designation of the person confined in the place of the words, "your petitioner," whenever necessary). 2 Abb. Forms 725.

F. Petition Where It Is Feared That Person May Be Carried Out of the State, or Suffer Some Injury Before Writ Can Issue.

(Add to petition a statement of facts showing grounds of the apprehension, e. g., thus):

And your petitioner further shows that the said M. N., in whose custody the said A. B. is, has threatened to carry the said A. B. out of this state, and has told several persons, publicly, that such was his intention. That your petitioner had a conversation with said M. N. this morning, in which he informed your petitioner that he should leave immediately with said A. B. for the state of _____, and that neither your petitioner nor any other person had power to prevent him from doing so, and your petitioner fears that he (or said, naming prisoner) will be carried out of the state by said M. N. or will suffer some irreparable injury) before he can be relieved by proceeding by habeas corpus or certiorari.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that a warrant be issued to take your petitioner (or said prisoner), and to arrest said M. N., and forthwith to bring him (or them) before this court (or before you), to be dealt with according to law.

G. Petition for Habeas Corpus by One Committed by Legislative Body.

"To the honorable judges of the supreme court of the state of Kansas:

Your petitioner, L. C. Gunn, complains and respectfully represents that he is unlawfully restrained of his liberty by C. C. Clevenger; that the pretended cause of his arrest and restraint from liberty is as follows, to-wit: On or about the 13th day of February, 1893, certain members of the Kansas house of representatives assembled together, and pretended then and there to act as the regularly-constituted and organized house of representatives under and by virtue of the laws of the state of Kansas, and passed a resolution declaring your petitioner to be in contempt of said body, for not obeying a certain pretended subpoena to appear before the said body. Your petitioner further alleges, that under and by virtue of said resolution, one George L. Douglass, who then and there pretended to be acting as the speaker of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, did issue and cause to be issued, over his signature, a warrant directed to the said C. C. Clevenger, who was then and there acting as sergeant-at-arms of the said pretended organized or pretended house of representatives; that the said warrant was then and there duly certified by one Frank L. Brown, who was acting as clerk of the said pretended house of representatives. Your petitioner further says, that on or about the 15th day of February, 1893, the said C. C. Clevenger, under and by virtue of said pretended warrant issued by the said George L. Douglass as aforesaid, forcibly, and against the protest of your petitioner, apprehended your petitioner and took him into custody, in the city of Parsons, county of Labette, state of Kansas. Your petitioner further alleges, that the said C. C. Clevenger, acting under and by virtue of said pretended warrant, still holds your petitioner in custody, and in restraint of his liberty, a copy of which said warrant is hereto attached and marked 'Exhibit A,' and made a part of this petition. Your petitioner states that the said arrest is illegal in this, that the said George L. Douglass had no authority or power in law to issue said warrant; that the said George L. Douglass is not the speaker of the regularly-organized house of representatives of the state of Kansas, and that the said C. C. Clevenger has no right or authority to restrain your petitioner by reason of such pretended warrant issued as aforesaid. Wherefore, your petitioner asks that a writ of habeas corpus may be granted, and that he may be discharged from such unlawful imprisonment." In re Gunn, 50 Kan. 155, 32 Pac. 470, 948.

Note.—Prisoner remanded on facts of case.

V. Return To Habeas Corpus (a).

In obedience to the writ of habeas corpus hereto annexed, I do hereby certify and return to (the court or officer allowing the writ),* that before the coming of the said writ to me, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (state the commitment [annexing a copy of it], and all the facts). All which I certify, and have here the body of the said C. D., as by the said writ I am commanded.

The answer of (signature of the officer or person).

(If the person named in the writ be not in custody, the return varies after the *, thus): "that neither at the time of the allowance of the said writ, nor at any time since, was the said C. D. in my custody, nor restrained by me of his liberty, wherefore I cannot have his body before (the court or officer) as by the said writ I am commanded."

The answer of (the officer, etc.). Burr. App. 578, §1132.

Return to Habeas Corpus (b).

"C. C. Clevenger, sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, to whom the within writ is directed, returns the same and has now here before the court the body of L. C. Gunn, therein named, as thereby commanded. And I certify that the cause of the restraint and detention of the said L. C. Gunn is by virtue of a certain warrant issued by George L. Douglass, as speaker of the house of representatives, a true copy of which is attached to the petition herein in this case as 'Exhibit A,' and issued in the manner and under the circumstances set forth in the petition. But the respondent alleges that said detention is lawful, and in support hereof alleges that said warrant of arrest was issued and placed in the hands of respondent as sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, because of certain proceedings had by the committee on elections of said house of representatives, which had been regularly appointed by the speaker subsequent to the organization of said house; that said committee on elections was regularly investigating and considering certain contest cases then pending before it, wherein one D. M. Bender was contestant and John L. Humphrey was contestee, and claiming to be a member of said house of representatives; that in furtherance of the investigation of said committee in said case, and for the purpose of securing testimony therein, said house of representatives caused a subpoena to be issued commanding said L. C. Gunn to appear before it as a witness to testify in said contest case, which said subpoena was duly served on said L. C. Gunn on the 21st day of January, 1893, by delivering to him a copy thereof at the place of his residence, in Labette county, Kansas; that said witness refused and failed to obey the command of said subpoena, and did not appear as a witness, but refused so to do; that thereafter, on the 13th day of February, 1893, said committee on elections reported said facts with reference to the serving of the subpoena upon said witness, and his refusal to appear; that thereupon said proceedings were had in said house of representatives with reference thereto; that a resolution was duly adopted by said house of the 13th day of February, 1893, and it is set out in said warrant, and pursuant to said resolution said warrant was issued, and said L. C. Gunn placed under arrest, and is now held; that said respondent has not had time previous to the issuance of the writ in this case, subsequent to the arrest of said L. C. Gunn, to present him at the bar of the house of representatives, as in said warrant commanded. Said respondent further says, that at the time of the issuance of said warrant, and that at the time of the proceedings had previous thereto, concerning the matters out of which the issuance of said warrant grew, said George L. Douglass, who issued said warrant, was the legally-elected and qualified speaker of the house of representatives, and that Frank L. Brown was the legally-elected and qualified chief clerk of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, it theretofore having been duly organized as the house of representatives, and that at the time of the doing of all of the matters herein referred to there being a majority of all the members of said house of representatives present and participating in the proceedings of said house." In re Gunn, 50 Kan. 155, 32 Pac. 470, 948.

VI. Traverse of Return of Habeas Corpus (a).

(Title as in IV.) A. B., by this his answer to the return of M. N., sheriff of the county of ———, denies (or alleges), etc. (here set forth matter in answer to the return).

(Signature.)

(Unless the moving party is the attorney-general or district attorney, add verification.) 2 Abb. Forms 731.

Traverse to Return of Habeas Corpus (b).

"And now comes said L. C. Gunn, petitioner herein, and controverts the return made by said C. C. Clevenger to the writ of habeas corpus herein, in these particulars, to-wit: Said petitioner denies, first, that said George L. Douglass is or has been speaker of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas; second, that said Frank L. Brown is or has been chief clerk of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas; third, that said C. C. Clevenger is or has been sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas; fourth, that there is or has been at any time pending before the committee on elections of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas any contest proceeding or case between said D. M. Bender and said John L. Humphrey; fifth, that the house of representatives of the state of Kansas ever caused any subpoena to be issued commanding your petitioner to appear before said house or said committee to testify in any case or proceeding whatsoever; that any such subpoena was ever served upon your petitioner by any person or in any manner; or that your petitioner ever failed or refused to obey any subpoena issued by or under the direction of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas; sixth, that the committee on elections of the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, on the 13th day of February, 1893, or at any other time, made any report to said house that your petitioner had been served with a subpoena and had refused to appear, nor any other fact or statement whatever concerning the issuing or service upon the petitioner of any subpoena, nor concerning any refusal of his to obey any subpoena or to appear; seventh, that the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, on the 13th day of February, 1893, or at any other time, ever adopted any resolution adjudging said petitioner to be in contempt of said house for any cause or matter whatsoever, or authorizing or requiring the speaker of said house to issue his warrant to the sergeant-at-arms of said house, or to any other person, commanding the arrest of your petitioner to answer as for a contempt of said house in refusing to comply with any order of the committee on elections of said house, or in any other respect, or commanding his arrest for any cause or for any purpose whatsoever; eighth, said petitioner further denies generally each and every statement in said return save that he is restrained of his liberty by the said C. C. Clevenger; ninth, said petitioner further avers, that he is by said C. C. Clevenger restrained of his liberty in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, and is by said C. C.

Clevenger deprived of his liberty without due process of law." In re Gunn, 50 Kan. 155, 32 Pac. 470, 948.

VII. Discharge on Habeas Corpus (a).

By (the judge or officer who allowed the writ).

It appearing, on the return of the writ of habeas corpus allowed by me, that C. D. is illegally imprisoned (confined or restrained) by you, I therefore command you forthwith to discharge him from your custody.

Given under my hand and seal, at, etc., on the _____ day of _____, etc.

(Signature and seal of judge.)

G. H., attorney.

To (the officer or person having custody of the prisoner). Burr. App. 517, §1037.

Discharge on Habeas Corpus (b).

"In the Matter of the Application of William Conant for Release on Habeas Corpus.

"In this matter, the answer of the officer having been filed, from which it appears that he holds the said Conant by virtue of a commitment issued by W. E. Leonard, a justice of the peace for the city of Port Huron, dated the fourth day of February, 1884, whereby said Conant was committed to the State House of Correction and Reformatory at Ionia for six months from and including date, and from which it further appears that said Conant, after being received into said institution, escaped therefrom before the expiration of his said sentence, and is held by said officer for the purpose of being returned to said State House of Correction and Reformatory; and witnesses being now here sworn, and evidence heard, and that the docket and proceedings had by and before said justice of the peace, and the arguments of counsel having been heard, to-wit, A. R. Avery on behalf of petitioner, and P. H. Phillips, prosecuting attorney, on the part of the officer, and due consideration thereof had, it is found and determined that at the time of the issue of the said commitment the said William Conant was under the age of sixteen years, and could not be committed to said State House of Corrections and Reformatory. It is also found that the said justice, at the time of the trial of said Conant, did not determine or enter of record the age of said Conant. Therefore it is considered that the commitment of said Conant to said State House of Correction and Reformatory is invalid, and that his imprisonment therein is unlawful, and it is ordered and adjudged that said petitioner, William Conant, be, and is hereby, discharged from the custody of said Clark, and all others claiming on account of said commitment.

Herman W. Stevens, Circuit Judge."

People v. Conant, 59 Mich. 565, 26 N. W. 768.

Note.—Held that no writ of error in behalf of state lies to review habeas corpus proceedings.

VIII. Order Remanding Prisoner.

(Title as in IV.)

(Address to the sheriff or other officer having custody of the prisoner.)

It appearing on the return of the writ of habeas corpus (or certiorari) allowed by me (or by this court), that A. B. is legally detained in custody, by virtue of an execution issued upon a final judgment rendered in the supreme court (or other court) in favor of A. G., as plaintiff, against the said A. B., as defendant (or by virtue of a commitment for a contempt issued by the _____ court, in which commitment the said contempt is specially and plainly charged, the said court having authority to commit for the contempt, so charged, or otherwise, according to the statute).

Ordered that the said A. B. be, and he is hereby, remanded to his former imprisonment under the execution (or commitment aforesaid).

By order of the court, given under my hand and seal this _____ day of _____, 18—.

(Signature of clerk, or, if the proceeding be before a judge out of court, signature of judge.)

2 Abb. Forms 732.

IX. Order That the Prisoner Be Bailed.

(Title as in IV.)

(Address to sheriff or other officer having custody of the prisoner.)

It appearing on the return of the writ of habeas corpus (or certiorari) allowed by me (or by this court), that A. B. is detained in the custody of the sheriff of the county of _____, under a commitment in which the said A. B. is charged with the offense of (grand larceny); and that the said A. B. is entitled to bail:

It is therefore ordered that the said A. B. be held to bail for his appearance at the next court of _____, to be held in and for the county of _____, in the sum of _____ dollars.

And it is further ordered that upon such bail being entered into, in conformity to this order and the provisions of law, that the said A. B. be discharged.

By order of the court, given under my hand and seal this _____ day of _____, 18—.

(Signature of clerk, or if the proceeding be before a judge out of court, signature of judge.)

X. Bond on Habeas Corpus, to Sheriff for Transportation of Prisoner.

Know all men by these presents, that we (names and residences of obligors) are held and firmly bound unto S. R., sheriff of the county of (or other officer), in the sum of (double the amount of the sum for which the prisoner is detained, if he is detained for any specific sum of money; if not, then one thousand dollars), lawful money, etc., to be paid, etc. (penal part in the usual form).

The condition of this obligation is such that if the said (obligors) shall pay to the said S. T., sheriff as aforesaid (or otherwise), the charges of carrying back C. D., if he shall be remanded on a habeas corpus allowed by (the judge or officer, etc.), and if the said C. D. shall not escape by the way, either in going to or returning from (state the place to which he is to be taken), then, etc., otherwise, etc.

Sealed and delivered in presence of (witnesses). Burr. App. 511, §1029.

XI. Attachment for Not Returning Habeas Corpus.

By (the judge or officer who allowed the writ).

It appearing to me on oath that C. D., to whom a writ of habeas corpus was directed and delivered, commanding him to bring before me A. B., in the said writ named, has neglected (or refused) to obey the same according to the command thereof, by not producing the said A. B. before me, nor by making a return to such writ, within the time limited by law, and no sufficient excuse having been shown for such neglect (or refusal): Therefore the sheriff (or coroner, etc.) of the county of _____ is hereby commanded, in the name of the people of the state of New York, forthwith to apprehend the said C. D. and bring him immediately before me at, etc.

Given under my hand and seal at, etc., on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc.

(Signature and seal of judge.)

E. F., attorney.

Burr. App. 507, §1022.

XII. Commitment for Disobedience to Writ.

To the sheriff (or coroner) of the county of _____:

Whereas M. N. has been brought before me (or this court) on a warrant issued by me (or the court), stating that the said M. N. (etc., reciting its substance).

And whereas the said M. N. still refuses to obey the said writ of habeas corpus, by producing the body (or by certifying the day and cause of the imprisonment) of the said A. B., as therein required, and by not making a return (or a full and explicit return) to such writ of habeas corpus (or certiorari).

Now, therefore, you are authorized and commanded forthwith to convey the said M. N. to the jail of said county, and there commit him to close custody in such jail, without being allowed the liberties thereof, there to remain until he shall make return to the writ in such warrant mentioned (and also comply with the order this day made, if any, designating it).

By order of the court, given under my hand and seal this _____ day of _____, 18—.

(Signature of clerk, or, if the proceeding be before a judge out of court, signature of judge.)

2 Abb. Forms 734.

XIII. Further Precept To Bring Up Person Confined.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff (or coroner) of the county of _____:

Whereas a writ of habeas corpus has heretofore been issued by this court (or by me), directed to M. N., in which he was commanded to have the body of A. B., by him imprisoned and detained as it was said, together with the time and cause of such imprisonment, and which writ has been duly served upon the said M. N., and whereas the said M. N. has neglected (or refused) to produce the body of the said A. B., according to the command of said writ; and for which neglect (or refusal) an attachment has been issued against the said M. N.,

Now, therefore, you are commanded forthwith to bring the said A. B. before me, at my office, in the village of _____, in said county (or before this court, at the courthouse, in _____).

By order of the court, given under my hand and seal this _____ day of _____, 18—.

(Signature of clerk, or, if the proceeding be before a judge out of court, signature of judge.)

I. Indictment for Peddling Without State License.

“First day of October, A. D. 1895, and thence continually until the finding of this indictment, did engage in, carry on and conduct the business of hawker and peddler, and did during the times and on the days aforesaid, hawk and peddle at divers and sundry places in said county, sugar, rice, meat, butter, flour and lard, without first having obtained a State license so to do, contrary,” etc. Hall v. State, 39 Fla. 637, 23 So. 119.

II. Indictment for Peddling Without City License.

of said city, passed by the common council thereof on the 11th day of December, 1893, and amended August, 1894, by carrying on the business of hawking and peddling within the corporate limits of the city of South Bend, by carrying, exposing, offering and crying for sale articles of merchandise, to-wit: rattan rocking chairs, in the public streets and avenues of said city, without having a license for that purpose. That while so engaged, the defendant sold and delivered to one Emma Wright one rattan rocking chair for the sum of six dollars. That said articles of merchandise so sold were not newspapers, nor produce, nor provisions, and that said sales were not for future delivery of said chairs. That defendant is not a wholesale traveling merchant." City of South Bend v. Martin, 142 Ind. 31, 41 N. E. 315.

III. Indictment for Peddling, Without License.

"That W. C. Montgomery commorant at Farmington, within the county of Franklin at Farmington, on the fifteenth day of January, A. D. 1898, then and there without any authority, license or permission therefor, did go about from place to place in said town of Farmington, then and there carrying for sale and exposing for sale, goods, wares and merchandise other than such as he is by the statutes allowed to carry for sale and expose for sale without a license, to-wit: pictures and picture frames; the said W. C. Montgomery not being then and there exempt from obtaining a license to carry for sale and expose for sale, said goods, wares and merchandise, to-wit: pictures and picture frames; against the peace of the State, etc." State v. Montgomery, 92 Me. 433, 43 Atl. 13.

Note.—Specify which if both state and city license are required.

IV. Information, Peddling Without License.

"W. W. Wood, prosecuting within and for the county of Johnson, in the state of Missouri, informs the court that Thomas Downing, on the twenty-seventh day of August, 1885, at the said county of Johnson, did, then and there, unlawfully deal in the selling of goods, wares and merchandise, not being books, charts, maps, or stationery, by going from place to place, in a cart or carriage, with two horses, to sell the same, and did, then and there, while going from place to place to sell said goods, wares and merchandise, as aforesaid, unlawfully sell one harrow and seeder, without then and there having a license as a peddler, or any other legal authority, to sell the same, against the peace and dignity of the state.

W. E. Borthick makes oath and says that the facts stated in the foregoing information are true.

W. E. Borthick.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this fifth day of August, 1885.

W. K. Morrow, clerk."

State v. Downing, 22 Mo. App. 504.

V. Indictment Selling Drugs and Medical Appliances, Without License.

"The grand jury of the county of Monroe, in the name and by the authority of the state of Iowa, accuse W. M. Bair of the crime of violating the pharmacy law, committed as follows: The said defendant, W. M. Bair, on the first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-two, in Monroe county, being then and there an itinerant vendor of drugs, nostrums, ointments, appliances intended for the treatment of diseases and injuries, did unlawfully and wilfully, by printing, writing, and other methods, publicly profess to treat and cure diseases, injuries, and deformities, by drugs, nostrums, manipulations, and other expedients; the said defendant not having a license as such itinerant vendor, nor having paid therefor, as required by law, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Iowa." State v. Bair, 92 Iowa 28, 60 N. W. 486.

VI. Complaint in Action To Recover Penalty.

The city of Huntington complains of the said defendant Wilson Cneesbro, late of said city, and says, that the said defendant, on the 9th day of October, 1875, at the city and county aforesaid, did then and there violate section 4 of chapter 6 of an ordinance of said city, passed by the common council thereof on the 17th day of December, 1873, by unlawfully following the occupation of a peddler, with a wagon, in the city limits, without a license so to do, as provided in section 2 of said chapter 6; wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment (for) one hundred dollars as provided in section 4 of said chapter.

This complaint was duly signed by the city attorney and properly verified. City of Huntington v. Cheesbro, 57 Ind. 74.

Note.—Whether the ordinance may be set out as above, or whether it must be set out in full depends upon the state statutes.

I. Indictment for Nuisance Affecting Health.

"The jurors of the grand jury of the State of Iowa, within, etc., upon their oath do aver, find and present that M. T. Close, at and within said county, on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1869, being possessed of a certain mill-dam and mill, with their appurtenances, situate near and adjacent to a common highway and public road, and the dwelling houses of divers persons and citizens of Johnson county, did, at the time aforesaid, and on divers other days and times between that day and the finding of this indictment, unlawfully and injuriously cause and permit the waters of said mill-dam to overflow the adjacent lands as well of others as his own, by means whereof the water of said mill-dam or pond was rendered impure, corrupted and unwholesome, and the land overflowed as aforesaid by the means aforesaid, was rendered and kept marshy and filled with noxious weeds and putrid vegetation, and corrupted, impure and unwholesome water, whereby the air became corrupted and infected, to the injury and prejudice of others, contrary to the form of the statute," etc. State v. Close, 35 Iowa 570.

II. Information for Violating Quarantine.

"That in July, 1782, an order was made by the king in council, whereby it was ordered that, if any pilot or other person, should go on board any ship or vessel obliged to perform quarantine, such pilot or other person should perform quarantine in like manner as any person coming in such ship or vessel should be obliged to perform the same; that the order was published in the Gazette in the same month, and has ever since been in force; that the defendant, well knowing the premises, but having no regard to the laws and statutes of this realm, afterwards, on the 8th of June, 1788, etc., with force of arms went on board a certain ship called the 'Stephen,' which was obliged to perform quarantine, in order to conduct the same into the port of Bristol, and did not perform quarantine, in like manner as any person coming in the said ship or vessel was obliged to perform the same; but that the defendant on the 14th June, 1788, with force and arms, unlawfully quitted the said ship by going on board a certain other ship or vessel in a certain place within His Majesty's dominions, before the ship ('Stephen') had fully performed and been discharged from such quarantine; he the said defendant not being in any manner, or in any case, or by any license, directed or permitted by any order made by His Majesty in council so to do; in contempt, etc., to the evil example, etc., against the peace, etc., and also against the form of the statute, etc." King v. Harris, 4 T. R. 202, 100 Eng. Reprint 973.

III. Indictment for Obstructing Street With Bay Window.

"At Boston aforesaid, and within the judicial district of said court, with force and arms, in a certain building there situate, and bordering on West Brookline Street, the same being a public street of said city, did cause to be constructed a certain window, which said window did then and there project into said street, against the peace of said Commonwealth, the form of the statute of said Commonwealth and by-laws of said city, in such case made and provided." Com. v. Goodnow, 117 Mass. 114.

IV. Information for Obstructing Street With Lumber.

"State of Indiana v. John D. Mathis and Samuel Hege—In the Bartholomew common pleas: Jephtha D. New, prosecuting attorney, etc., informs the court that the defendants, on or about the 1st of September, 1862, owned a saw-mill on Jackson street, in the town of Columbus, Bartholomew county, Indiana, which obstructed and hindered, and ever since hath continued to obstruct and hinder, the free passage of a public street of known notoriety, to-wit: Jackson street aforesaid, in the town, county and State aforesaid, in front of said saw-mill, by piling lumber from said mill on said street in front of said mill, to the great annoyance and injury of the citizens of the town, county and state aforesaid," etc. State v. Mathis, 21 Ind. 277.

V. Indictment for Enclosing Part of Highway.

"Did unlawfully and injuriously put, place, lay and continue a large quantity of stones, in and upon a part of said highway, to-wit, upon a space thereof ten rods long and one rod wide, and the said stones, so placed as aforesaid, he the said Wm. King, from the said first day of August, until the finding of this bill, unlawfully and injuriously did keep, continue and maintain, in and upon said highway, whereby the same has been, during all the time aforesaid, and still is, greatly narrowed, obstructed and stopped up," etc., "against the peace," etc. Com. v. King, 13 Mete. (Mass.) 115.

Note.—Held sufficient under common law and insufficient under statute.

VI. Indictment for Refusing To Turn Out of Traveled Highway.

"Robert Allen of Mendon in the county of Worcester, and Hannah Arnold, wife of James Arnold of Wrentham in the county of Norfolk, met each other in the road in said Mendon, traveling with their respective wagons, and the said Robert Allen, while so meeting the said Hannah with said wagon on said road, did not drive his said wagon to the right of the middle of the traveled part of said road, so that the said wagon of the said Allen interfered with said James' wagon, in passing it, and by such interference broke said James' wagon in pieces, and other wrongs did, against the peace, and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided." Com. v. Allen, 11 Mete. (Mass.) 403.

Note.—Description of highway held sufficient for this particular offense.

VII. Indictment for Neglecting To Repair Street.

"That the road leading from Bellville, in Crockett county, to Alamo, in Crockett county, Tennessee, is a public road, and that the Mayor and Aldermen of said town of Bellville, comprised of Tac Wainwright and six others, late of said county, on the 1st of January, 1873, were overseers of that part of said road from the depot building of the Louisville and Memphis railroad, in said town of Bellville, through the street known as Front street, in said town, in the direction of Alamo and Gadsden road, to the end of the corporate limits of said town of Bellville, etc., and having hands assigned to keep the same in repair, but the said before named Mayor and Aldermen, not regarding their duty," etc. State v. Mayor, 7 Baxt. (Tenn.) 548.

VIII. Indictment for Failing To Repair Pursuant to Agreement.

"The grand jury of said county charge, that, before the finding of this indictment, Elza Blann erected a bridge across Bougehitto creek in said county, known as 'Ramer's bridge,' on the lower Linden road, by contract with the county commissioners, and obligated himself to keep the same in good repair for the term of five years, and knowingly suffered the same to remain out of repair, and unsafe for the passage of travelers and other persons, for more than ten days at a time, during the period stipulated for its safety by the terms of the contract, against the peace and dignity," etc. Blann v. State, 39 Ala. 353.

IX. Information for Interfering With Highway by Unlawful Working.

"Edward Mainey, did then and there unlawfully interfere with, obstruct and cause to be obstructed and interfered with, a certain highway; known as George street, between Broadway and Franklin streets, in the town of Cochran, in the county and State aforesaid, by then and there unlawfully entering upon, and being and remaining in and upon said George street, with horses, plows, picks and shovels, and by then and there unlawfully plowing, digging and removing the soil of said George street, between said Broadway and Franklin streets." State v. Mainey, 65 Ind. 404.

"State of Indiana, Cass county, ss.:

Blazius Meyer, being by me first duly sworn, according to law, upon his oath saith that he is a married man, the head of a family, and he resides with his family; that his said family are entirely dependent on his services for support; that he is a laborer, in the employment of the Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburgh Railroad Company; that his earnings, in said employment, are less than $50 per month and are necessary for the support of his family; that he has no other income, and his family consists of himself, wife and two children; and that said sum is exempt from execution, attachment and all other writs against him, and he claims it as such.

Chicago, etc. R. Co. v. Meyer, 117 Ind. 563, 19 N. E. 320.

Note.—The statutes on exemption vary greatly in their provisions. The following forms from adjudicated cases will be suggestive in preparing forms under similar statutes. Under the provisions of some statutes no action by the claimant is necessary as to specifically exempt property, the levying officer being simply treated as a trespasser.

II. Notice to Sheriff That Debtor Will Chose Exempt Property.

"To James A. Grady, Sheriff of Pasco county, State of Florida: I desire you to make an inventory of all of my personal property and am now ready to point out the whole of my personal property to you, so that you make an inventory, and to make oath that said inventory when taken contains a true and perfect list of all of my personal property, so that appraisers may be appointed to appraise the same at its cash value in order that I may select from such an inventory an amount of such property, according to such appraisal, not exceeding one thousand dollars, which I claim and desire to be exempt from forced sale under the laws of this state and especially from sale under executions in favor of Eckman and Vetsburg et al. against myself as advertised by you to take place on 6th day of January, A. D. 1890. John T. McMichael." McMichael v. Grady, 34 Fla. 219, 15 So. 765.

III. Answer to Affidavit Setting Up Exemption.

"Answer to Defendant O. N. Callender's Inventory and Affidavit of Exemption Filed Herein.

First—Comes now the plaintiff and for answer to defendant O. N. Callender's inventory and affidavit filed herein, claiming the property attached in this cause, denies that the $480 mentioned in said affidavit and inventory is exempt from execution.

Second—Plaintiff states that for a long time after the levy of attachment in this case, the defendant has possessed in fee-simple of five lots, in the town of Gandy, Logan county, Nebraska, and that upon said lots there was and still is standing three good buildings, one being a hotel building of the value of not less than $1,500, another being a brick business building of the value of not less than $600, and that the last being a frame barn or livery stable of the value of not less than $400. Plaintiff furthermore says, that for a long time after the levy of the attachment defendant O. N. Callender was possessed in fee simple of other real estate in Logan county, state of Nebraska, consisting of town lots in the town of Gandy, in said county and state, the exact description of which plaintiff is unable to give; that said last mentioned real estate is of the reasonable value of $500.

Third—That since the levy of said attachment said defendant O. N. Callender has been possessed of a large amount of personal property, consisting of horses, cattle, wagons, and harness, the exact number and description of which plaintiff is unable to give.

Fourth—That all of said personal property was of the reasonable value of $300, and has all been sold by the said defendant O. N. Callender since the issuance and levy of the attachment herein and the proceeds thereof applied to his own use.

Fifth—Plaintiff further says that since the issuance and levy of said attachment herein the defendant M. Callender, who is the wife of her co-defendant, O. N. Callender, has been possessed of a large amount of goods and chattels, consisting of such articles as are usually kept for sale in a country store, and that the value of said goods and chattels was not less than $600.

Sixth—That all of said goods and chattels have been sold and converted into money by the defendants herein, and said money appropriated to their own use, since the issuance and levy of the attachment herein.

Seventh—That the defendants, nor either of them, have applied the proceeds of any of said property so sold and disposed of to the payment of any part of their indebtedness to this plaintiff.

Eighth—That all of said property was sold and disposed of by said defendants for the purpose of placing themselves in a position so they could file an affidavit of exemption herein and thereby avoid and defeat the application of the money attached herein toward the payment of their indebtedness to this plaintiff." Kilpatrick-Koch Co. v. Callender, 34 Neb. 727, 52 N. W. 403.

IV. Report of Appraisers of Exempt Property.

"We, George Kreag and Jacob Stack, the appraisers selected to appraise the property in the foregoing schedule, have been duly sworn, and, having examined said property, have appraised the several items at the sum set opposite thereto, and we swear that the same is a full fair cash value of the same, to the best of our judgment.

(Signed) George Kreag, Jacob Stack.

Sworn to before me this 6th day of July, 1876.

Essex, to-wit. The jurors for our lord the king upon their oath present, that A. B., late of _____, in the parish of _____, in the county of _____, laborer, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on the _____ day of _____, in the _____ year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the Third, by the grace of God of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, with force and arms, at the parish of _____ aforesaid, in the county of _____, aforesaid, in and upon one E. F., in the peace of God and our said lord the king then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault,* and that, etc. (here state the means and manner of the killing, and the consequent death, according to the facts, and then conclude thus): And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said A. B. him the said E. F. in the manner and by the means (or in the manner and form) aforesaid (or in the conclusion of a second or subsequent count, last aforesaid), feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 750.

II. Shooting.A. Indictment for Murder, Shooting, Immediate Death.

And that the said C. D. a certain pistol of the value of five shillings then and there charged with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which said pistol he the said C. D. in his right hand then and there had and held, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did discharge and shoot off, to, against, and upon the said A. B.; and that the said C. D. with the leaden bullet aforesaid, out of the pistol aforesaid, then and there by the force of the gunpowder aforesaid, by the said C. D. discharged and shot off as aforesaid, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike, penetrate, and wound the said A. B. in and upon the right side of the belly of him the said A. B. near the right hip of him the said A. B., giving to him the said A. B. then and there with the leaden bullet aforesaid, so as aforesaid discharged and shot out of the pistol aforesaid, by force of the gunpowder aforesaid, by the said C. D., in and upon the right side of the belly of him the said A. B. near the said right hip of him the said A. B. one mortal wound of the depth of four inches, and of the breadth of half an inch, of which said mortal wound he the said A. B. then and there instantly died; and so, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 752.

B. Indictment for Shooting, With Principal in Second Degree and Accessory.

Middlesex, to-wit. (The assault was stated jointly by the principal in the first and second degree, as in I.) And the aforesaid R. C. with a certain gun called a pistol, of the value of five shillings, then and there charged with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which gun the said R. C. in his right hand then and there had and held in and upon the aforesaid J. T. then and there feloniously, voluntarily, and of his malice aforethought, did shoot off and discharge, and the aforesaid R. C. with the leaden bullet aforesaid, from the gun aforesaid, then and there sent out, the aforesaid J. T. in and upon the left part of the breast of him the said J. T. then and there feloniously struck, giving to the said J. T. then and there with the leaden bullet as aforesaid, near the left pap of him the said J. T. one mortal wound of the breadth of half an inch and depth of five inches, of which mortal wound the aforesaid J. T. at, etc., aforesaid, instantly died; and that J. I. feloniously, and of his aforethought malice, then and there was present, aiding, assisting, abetting, comforting, and maintaining the aforesaid R. C. to do and commit the felony and murder aforesaid, in form aforesaid; and so the aforesaid R. C. and J. C. I. the aforesaid J. T. at, etc., aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, voluntarily, and of their forethought malice, killed and murdered, against the peace, etc. And that one R. C. late of, etc., esquire, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being seduced by the instigation of the devil, before the felony and murder aforesaid, by the aforesaid R. C. and J. T. in manner and form aforesaid done and committed, that is to say, on, etc., aforesaid, the aforesaid R. C. at the aforesaid parish of St. Margaret, in Westminster aforesaid, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, to do and commit the felony and murder aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, maliciously, feloniously, voluntarily, and of his aforethought malice, did stir up, move, abet, counsel, and procure, against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 755.

C. Indictment for Murder, Shooting, Death Not Immediate.

And that he the said C. D. a certain pistol of the value of two shillings, then and there being charged with gunpowder and a leaden bullet, which pistol he the said C. D. in his right hand then and there had and held, at, against, and upon him the said A. B. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did discharge and shoot off; and that he the said C. D. with the leaden bullet aforesaid, by force of the gunpowder aforesaid, out of the said pistol by him the said C. D. so as aforesaid discharged and shot off, him the said A. B. in and upon the left side of the said A. B. a little under the lowest rib of the said A. B. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought did strike and wound, giving to the said A. B. then and there with the leaden bullet aforesaid, out of the said pistol so as aforesaid discharged and shot off, in and upon the said left side, a little under the lowest rib of the said A. B. one mortal wound of the breadth of one inch and depth of four inches, of which said mortal wound the said A. B. on and from the said, etc., until, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, did languish, and languishing did live, on which said, etc., about the hour of nine o'clock in the morning, he the said A. B., at, etc., aforesaid, of the mortal wound aforesaid, died. And so, etc. (as in I). 3 Chit. Cr. L. 753.

III. Beating.

A. Indictment for Murder, Beating With Fists and Kicking on Ground.

And that the said W. W. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike, beat, and kick the said E. D. with his hands and feet, in and upon the head, breast, back, belly, sides, and other parts of the body of him the said E. D., and did then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, cast and throw the said E. D. down, unto, and upon the ground, with great force and violence there, giving unto the said E. D. then and there, as well by the beating, striking, and kicking of him the said E. D. in manner and form aforesaid, as by the casting and throwing of him the said E. D. down as aforesaid, several mortal strokes, wounds, and bruises, in and upon the head, breast, back, belly, sides, and other parts of the body of him the said E. D., to-wit, one mortal wound on the left side of the belly of him the said E. D. of the length of five inches, and of the depth of six inches (state the other wounds in the same way), of which said mortal strokes, wounds, and bruises, he the said E. D. from the said, etc., until, etc., as well at the parish aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, as also at the parish of Saint C., in the town of Shrewsbury, in the said county of S., did languish, and languishing did live, on which said, etc., the said E. D., at, etc., aforesaid, in the town of Shrewsbury aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, of the several mortal strikes, wounds, and bruises aforesaid, died. And so, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 761.

B. Indictment, Beating and Stamp-ing on the Ground.

The jurors of the people of the state of New York, in and for the body of the county of Otsego, being then and there sworn and charged upon their oaths, present that James W. Cyphers, late of the town of Maryland, county of Otsego, and state of New York, laborer, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on the 27th day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, with force of arms, at the town of Maryland, in the county of Otsego aforesaid, in and upon one Patrick Callahan, in the peace of God, and of the said people of the state of New York, then and there being, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of malice aforethought, did make an assault; and that he the said James W. Cyphers then and there, with both his hands, the said Patrick Callahan, in and upon the head, neck and breast of him the said Patrick Callahan, feloniously and wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike and beat; and that the said James W. Cyphers then and there, with both his hands and feet, the said Patrick Callahan so, and upon the floor, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did knock, cast and throw; and the said Patrick Callahan so on the floor lying and being, he the said James W. Cyphers, with both his hands, knees and feet in and upon the head, neck, breast, stomach, back and sides of him the said Patrick Callahan, did then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, knock, cast and throw; and the said Patrick Callahan so on the floor lying and being, he the said James W. Cyphers, with both his hands, knees and feet, in and upon the head, neck, breast and stomach, back and sides of him the said Patrick Callahan, did then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, strike, beat, stamp, kick, press, and by the said striking, beating, stamping, kicking, pressing, giving to the said Patrick Callahan several mortal wounds and bruises in and upon the breast and stomach of the said Patrick Callahan, of which said several mortal wounds and bruises, he the said Patrick Callahan, from about 9 o'clock in the evening of the 27th day of January, 1864, until about nine o'clock in the morning of the 28th day of January, 1864, did languish, and languishing did live. On which said 28th day of January, 1864, the said Patrick Callahan, at the town of Maryland, in the county aforesaid, of the several mortal wounds and bruises aforesaid, died.

And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say that the said James W. Cyphers, on the day and year aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, the said Patrick Callahan feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought did kill and murder, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity.

(There were three other counts in the indictment.)

J. A. Lynes, district attorney.

People v. Cyphers, 5 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 666, 668.

IV. Beating With Instrument.

A. Indictment, Killing With Crowbar.

"The state of Maryland,

Carroll county, to-wit:

The grand jurors of the state of Maryland, for the body of Carroll county, do on their oaths present, that Joseph Davis, late of Carroll county aforesaid, yeoman, on the fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, with force and arms, at the county aforesaid, in and upon one Abraham L. Lynn, in the peace of God, and of the said state, then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault, and that the said Joseph Davis, with a certain crowbar, in and about three feet in length and one inch in diameter, which he the said Joseph Davis then and there had and held in both of his hands, the said Abraham L. Lynn, in and upon the back part of the head of him the said Abraham L. Lynn, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike, giving unto him the said Abraham L. Lynn, then and there, with the said iron crowbar, by the stroke aforesaid, in manner aforesaid, in and upon the back part of the head of him the said Abraham L. Lynn, one mortal wound, of the length of one and a half inches, and of the width of one and a quarter inches, and of the depth of one-eighth of an inch, of which said mortal wound he the said Abraham L. Lynn, on the said fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, at the county aforesaid, did languish, and languishing did live. On which same fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two aforesaid, at the county aforesaid, he the said Abraham L. Lynn, of the said mortal wound died.

And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say that the said Joseph Davis, him the said Abraham L. Lynn, in manner and form aforesaid, and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, contrary to the act of assembly in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the state." Davis v. State, 39 Md. 355.

B. Indictment, Killing With Clevis.

The grand jury of the county of Jackson aforesaid, in the name and by the authority of the state of Iowa, accuse Samuel P. Watkins, Calvin Nelson and John B. Bucklin, of the crime of murder, perpetrated and committed as follows:

1. The said Samuel P. Watkins, John B. Bucklin and Calvin Nelson, on the 23d day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the county aforesaid, in and upon one Samuel S. Cronk, in the peace then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought, did make an assault; and the said Samuel P. Watkins, Calvin Nelson and John B. Bucklin, with a certain piece of iron called a part of a clevis, of about the length of twelve inches, and the width of one inch, and with one oak stick of wood of the length of eighteen inches and of the thickness of two inches, which they then and there in their hands had, and him the said Samuel S. Cronk, then and there feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought, divers times did strike and beat, giving to him the said Samuel S. Cronk, by striking and beating him, as last aforesaid, with said piece of iron and said stick of wood, several mortal strokes, wounds and bruises in and upon the head of him the said Samuel S. Cronk, to-wit: One mortal wound on the forehead of him the said S. S. Cronk; one mortal wound on the back and side of the head of him the said Cronk; and one mortal wound extending from the side of the head to the back of the head of him the said Cronk, of which said mortal strokes, wounds and bruises he the said Cronk, afterward, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at and in the county of Jackson, died.

2. And the grand jury aforesaid, in the name and by the authority of the state of Iowa, do further find and present, that the said Samuel P. Watkins, Calvin Nelson and John B. Bucklin, on the 23d day of January, A. D. 1867, in the county of Jackson, in the state of Iowa, in and upon one Samuel S. Cronk, in the peace then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought, did make an assault; and with a part of an iron clevis, and with a stick of wood, and with a knife, did then and there strike, beat, bruise, cut and wound him the said Cronk, in and upon his head and other parts of his body, and by means aforesaid, the said Samuel P. Watkins, Calvin Nelson and John B. Bucklin, did then and there, him the said Samuel S. Cronk, kill and murder. And so the grand jury aforesaid do say that the said Samuel P. Watkins, Calvin Nelson and John B. Bucklin, him the said Samuel S. Cronk, in the manner and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought, did kill and murder, contrary to the laws of Iowa, in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Iowa. State v. Watkins, 27 Iowa 415.

V. Indictment for Murder, Striking, Drowning.

Admiralty of England, to-wit: The jurors, etc., that George Hindmarsh, late of, etc., mariner, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on, etc., with force and arms upon the high sea, within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England, to-wit, about the distance of one league from Annamaboe, on the coast of Africa, in and upon one S. B. C., then and there being on board of a certain sloop, called Eolus, and in the peace of God, and our said lord the king, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault. And that the said G. H. then and there, with force and arms, and with a certain large piece of wood of the value of one penny, which he the said G. H. then and there had and held, in the right hand of him the said G. H., him the said S. B. C. in and upon the head of him the said S. B. C. feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike and beat, giving him the said S. B. C. by such striking and beating, etc., divers mortal bruises and contusions, in and upon the head, etc., of which said mortal bruises and contusions, he the said S. B. C. did instantly die. And so, etc. (as in

I, to the *). And that the said G. H. then and there, etc., with force and arms, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did cast and throw the said S. B. C. from and out of the said sloop called the Eolus, into the high seas there, by means of which said casting and throwing of him of the said S. B. C. from and out of the said sloop called the Eolus, into the high seas, there, by means of which said casting and throwing of him the said S. B. C. from and out of the said sloop into the high seas aforesaid, he the said S. B. C. in and with the waters thereof, upon the high seas aforesaid, within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England aforesaid, then and there was suffocated and drowned, of which said suffocation and drowning, he the said S. B. C. did then and there instantly die. And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the aforesaid G. H., him the said S. B. C., upon the high sea aforesaid, in the ship aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the peace, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 759.

VI. Indictment for Murder Against Two, Which Gave Blow Unknown.

Middlesex (to-wit). The jurors for our sovereign lord the king, upon their oath, present that E. Q., late of, etc., in, etc., laborer, otherwise called E. Q., late of the same place, laborer, together with a certain other person to the jurors aforesaid as yet unknown, not having the fear of God before their eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on, etc., in the ninth year, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., in, etc., in and upon one G. H., in the peace of God, and our said lord the now king, then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of their malice aforethought, did make an assault, and that the said person, to the jurors aforesaid yet unknown, with a certain stick, of the value of one penny, which the said person, so to the jurors aforesaid as yet unknown, in his right hand, then and there had and held, the said G. H. in and upon the head of him the said G. H., on the right side thereof, near to the temple muscle, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike, giving to the said G. H. then and there with the stick aforesaid, by the stroke aforesaid, in manner aforesaid, in and upon the head of him the said G. H., in the right side thereof, near to the temple muscle, one mortal wound of the length of two inches, and of the depth of half an inch, of which said mortal wound the said G. H. on and from the said, etc., until and upon the day, etc., as well at, etc., aforesaid, as at the parish of, etc., in, etc., did languish, and languishing did live, and then and there, that is to say, on, etc., at, etc. (the place last named), he the said G. H. of the mortal wound aforesaid, died, and that the said E. Q. feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, was present, aiding, helping, abetting, comforting, assisting and maintaining the said person so to the jurors aforesaid yet unknown, in the felony and murder aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, to do and commit: And so the jurors, etc., do say that the said persons so to the jurors aforesaid as yet unknown, and the said E. Q., in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of their malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the peace, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 762, 763.

VII. Indictment for Murder, Stabbing (a).

And that the said P. H., with a certain drawn sword made of iron and steel, of the value of five shillings, which he the said P. H., in his right hand then and there had and held, him the said S. C. in and upon the left side of the belly of him the said S. C., then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike, thrust, stab, and penetrate, giving unto the said S. C. then and there, with the sword drawn as aforesaid, in and upon the left side of the belly of him the said S. C., one mortal wound of the breadth of one inch, and the depth of nine inches; of which said mortal wound he the said S. C., at, etc., aforesaid, from the said, etc., until, etc., did languish, and languishing did live, on which said, etc., the said S. C., at, etc., aforesaid, of the said mortal wound did die; and so, etc. (conclusion as in I). 3 Chit. Cr. L. 756.

Indictment for Murder, Stabbing (b).

That Moses Lowenberg, late of the first ward of the city of New York, in the county of New York, aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one Samuel Hoffman, in the peace of the people of the state then and there being, wilfully and feloniously, deliberately and premeditatedly, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault; and that the said Moses Lowenberg, with a certain knife, which he the said Moses Lowenberg, in his right hand then and there had, and held him the said Samuel Hoffman, in and upon the chest of him the said Samuel Hoffman, then and there wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did beat, strike, stab, cut and wound, giving unto the said Samuel Hoffman, then and there, with the knife aforesaid, in and upon the chest of him the said Samuel Hoffman, one mortal wound of the breadth of two inches, and of the depth of six inches, of which said mortal wound he the said Samuel Hoffman, on the day and year aforesaid, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, did die.

And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say that he the said Moses Lowenberg, him the said Samuel Hoffman, in the manner and form, and by the means aforesaid, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, on the day and the year aforesaid, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York, and their dignity. Lowenberg v. People, 5 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 414, 417.

VIII. Indictment for Murder, Strangling, With Help of Person Unknown.

Being in a certain coach with one E. F., and a certain man yet unknown, in and upon the said E. F., violently, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault, and that the said A. B., with the help and assistance of the said man unknown, with a pocket handkerchief with a coal in the same being put, of the value of two pence, about the neck of him the said E. F., then and there feloniously, voluntarily, and of his malice aforethought, did put, fasten and bind, and that the said A. B., with the help and assistance of the said man unknown, with the said handkerchief with the coal aforesaid in it, about the neck of the aforesaid E. F., then as aforesaid, put, fastened, and bound him the said E. F. then and there, with force and arms, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did choke and strangle, of which choking and strangling of the said E. F., he the said E. F. then and there instantly died. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 766.

IX. Indictment for Murder, Riding Over With Horse.

(Commencement as in I, to the *.) And that the said C. D., then and there riding upon a certain horse of the price of twenty pounds, the said horse in and upon the said A. B. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did ride and force, and him the said A. B., with the horse aforesaid, then and there by such riding and forcing did throw to the ground; by means whereof the said horse with his hinder feet him the said A. B. so thrown to and upon the ground as aforesaid, in and upon the hinder part of the head of him the said A. B., did then and there strike and kick, thereby then and there giving to him the said A. B. in and upon the said hinder part of the head of him the said A. B., one mortal fracture and contusion; of which said mortal fracture and contusion he the said A. B. then and there instantly died. And so, etc., as in I. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 765.

X. Indictment, Murder by Forcing Sick Person Into Street.

That W. J., late of, etc., not having, etc., but moved and seduced, etc., on, etc., at an unreasonable hour in the night, to-wit, about the hour of eleven in the night of the same day, with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, in and upon the said E. B., then and there being in the peace of God and of our said lord the king, and also then and there being in extreme sickness and weakness of body, occasioned by a fever, and then and there confined to her bed in the dwelling house of him the said W. J., there situate, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault, and that the said W. J., her the said E. B. from and out of the said bed, and also out of the said dwelling house, into the public and open street, there, did then and there violently, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, remove, force and drive, and there leave: he the said W. J. then and there well knowing the said E. B. to be then in extreme sickness and weakness of body, occasioned by the fever aforesaid, by means whereof she the said E. B., through cold and the inclemency of the weather, and for want of due care and other necessities requisite for a person in such sickness and weakness as aforesaid, then and there died; and so, etc., as in I. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 771.

XI. Poisoning.

A. Indictment for Murder by Poisoning (a).

That M. B., late of, etc., spinster, daughter of F. B., late of the same place, gentleman, deceased, not having the fear of God before her eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, and of her malice aforethought, contriving and intending him the said F. B., her late father in his lifetime to deprive of his life, and him feloniously to kill and murder, on, etc., and on divers other days and times between the said, etc., and, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, did knowingly, wilfully, feloniously, and of her malice aforethought, mix and mingle certain deadly poison, to-wit, white arsenic, in certain tea which had been at divers days and times during the time aforesaid prepared for the use of the said F. B. to be drank by him the said F. B., she the said M. B., then and there well knowing that the said tea with which she the said M. B. did so mix and mingle the said deadly poison as aforesaid, was then and there prepared for the use of the said F. B., with intent to be then and there administered to him for his drinking the same, and the said tea with which the said poison was so mixed as aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit, on the said, etc., and on the said other days and times, at, etc., aforesaid, was delivered to the said F. B. to be then and there drank by him, and the said F. B. (not knowing the said poison to have been mixed with his said tea) did afterwards, to-wit, on the said, etc., and on the said divers other days and times there drink and swallow down into his body several quantities of the said poison so mixed as aforesaid with the said tea. And that the said M. B. might more speedily kill and murder the said F. B., she the said M. B., on the said, etc., and on divers other days and times between the said, etc., and, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, did knowingly, wilfully, feloniously, and of her malice aforethought, mix and mingle certain deadly poison, to-wit, white arsenic, with certain water gruel which had been made and prepared for the use of the said F. B. to be drank by him the said F. B., she the said M. B. then and there well knowing that the said water gruel with which the said poison was so mixed as aforesaid was then and there prepared for the use of the said F. B., with intent to be then and there administered to him for his drinking of the same, and the said water gruel with which the said poison was so mixed as aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit, on the said, etc., and on the said other days and times last aforesaid, at, etc., was delivered to the said F. B. to be then and there drank by him, and the said F. B. (not knowing the said poison to have been mixed with the said water gruel) did afterwards, to-wit, on the said, etc., and on the day then next following, and on divers other days and times, afterwards, and before the said, etc., there take, drink and swallow down into his body several quantities of the said poison so mixed as aforesaid, with the said water gruel, and the said F. B., of the poison aforesaid, and by the operation thereof, became sick and greatly distempered in his body, of which said sickness and distemper of body occasioned by the said drinking, taking and swallowing down into the body of the said F. B. of the poison aforesaid so mixed and mingled in the said tea and water gruel as aforesaid, he the said F. B., from the said several days and times on which he had so taken, drank and swallowed down the same as aforesaid, until the said, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, did languish, and languishing did live, on which said, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, he the said F. B., of the poison aforesaid so taken, drank and swallowed down as aforesaid, and of the said sickness and distemper thereby occasioned did die. And so, etc., as in I. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 772.

That George C. Hersey, "on the third day of May, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixty, at Weymouth, in the county of Norfolk, in and upon one Betsy Frances Tirrell, in the peace of the said commonwealth then and there being, wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault, and to her the said Betsey Frances Tirrell did feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought then and there give and administer a certain large quantity, to-wit, ten grains in weight, of a certain deadly poison called strychnine, he the said George C. Hersey, then and there well knowing the same to be a deadly poison, with intent that the said Betsey Frances Tirrell should then and there take and swallow down the same into her body, and that the said Betsey Frances Tirrell, the said strychnine, so given and administered as aforesaid, did then and there take and swallow into her body, and by reason thereof became then and there mortally sick and distempered in her body, and of said mortal sickness and distemper did then and there languish, and languishing for the space of one-half hour did there live, and afterwards, on the day and year aforesaid, did there die of the mortal sickness and distemper then and there caused by the poison aforesaid, so as aforesaid by the said George C. Hersey, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought given and administered to her the said Betsey Frances Tirrell; and so the jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do say and present that the said George C. Hersey, her the said Betsey Frances Tirrell, in manner and form aforesaid, and by the means aforesaid, at Weymouth, in the county aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did kill, poison and murder, against the peace," etc. Com. v. Hersey, 2 Allen (Mass.) 173.

B. Indictment for Murder by Poisoning, Substituting for Medicine.

That J. D., late of, etc., not having, etc., but being moved and seduced, etc., feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, devising and intending T. B. to poison, kill and murder, on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, a certain quantity of arsenic, to-wit, two drachms of arsenic (being a deadly poison, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did put, infuse, mix and mingle in and together with water (he the said J. D. then and there well knowing the said arsenic to be a deadly poison); and that the said J. D. the said arsenic so as aforesaid put, infused in, mixed and mingled in and together with water, into a certain glass phial bottle of the value of one penny, did put and pour, and the said glass phial bottle with the said arsenic put, infused in, and mixed and mingled in and together with water as aforesaid contained therein, then and there, to-wit, on the same, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, in the lodging room of the said G. B., did put and place, in the place and stead of a certain medicine then lately before prescribed and made up for the said T. B., and to be taken by the said T. B., he the said J. D. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, intending that the said T. B. should drink and swallow down into his body the said arsenic, put, infused, mixed, and mingled in and together with water as aforesaid contained in the said glass phial bottle, by mistaking the same as and for the said medicine so prescribed and made up for the said T. B., and to be by him the said T. B. taken as aforesaid. And the jurors, etc., do further present that the said T. B., not knowing the said arsenic put, infused in, and mixed together with water as aforesaid, contained in the said glass phial bottle so put and placed by the said J. D. in the lodging room of the said T. B. in the place and stead of the said medicine then lately before prescribed and made up for the said T. B. and to be taken by him the said T. B. in manner aforesaid, to be a deadly poison, but believing the same to be true and real medicine then lately before prescribed and made up for and to be taken by him the said T. B., afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, the said arsenic so as aforesaid put, infused in, and mixed together with water by the said J. D. as aforesaid, contained in the said glass phial bottle, so put and placed by the said J. D. in the lodging room of him the said T. B. in the place and stead of the said medicine then lately before prescribed and made up for the said T. B., he the said T. B. did take, drink and swallow down into his body, by means of which said taking, drinking and swallowing down into the body of him the said T. B. of the said arsenic so as aforesaid put, infused in, and mixed together with water by the said J. D. as aforesaid, he the said T. B. then and there became sick and distempered in his body, of which said sickness and distemper of body, occasioned by the said taking, drinking and swallowing down into the body of him the said T. B. of the said arsenic so as aforesaid put, infused in, and mixed together with water by the said J. D. as aforesaid, he the said T. B., on the said, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, did die; and so, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 775.

C. Indictment for Murder by Sending Poison.

That G. L., late of, etc., not having, etc., but being moved and seduced, etc., and of his malice aforethought, contriving and intending the said A. B. with poison feloniously to kill and murder, on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, a great quantity of yellow arsenic, being a deadly poison, with a certain quantity of white wine, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did mix and mingle, he the said G. L. then and there well knowing the said yellow arsenic to be a deadly poison; and that the said G. L., afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, the poison aforesaid, so as aforesaid mixed and mingled with the white wine aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did send to her the said A. B. to take, drink, and swallow down; and that the said A. B., not knowing the poison aforesaid, in the white wine aforesaid, to have been mixed and mingled as aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, the said poison so as aforesaid mixed and mingled by the procurement and persuasion of the said G. L., did take, drink, and swallow down, and thereupon the said A. B., by the poison aforesaid so mixed and mingled as aforesaid, and so taken, drank, and swallowed down as aforesaid, became then and there sick and distempered in her body, and the said A. B. of the poison aforesaid, and of the sickness and distemper occasioned thereby from the said, etc., until, etc., at the parish aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, did languish, and languishing did live; on which said, etc., she the said A. B., at, etc., aforesaid, of the poison aforesaid and of the said sickness and distemper thereby occasioned as aforesaid, did die. And so, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 776.

XII. Indictment, Murder by Wrecking Train While Perpetrating Robbery.

"Did then and there wilfully and with malice aforethought kill and murder one Mike Hackett, by then and there displacing and interfering with a certain switch of the St. Louis, Arkansas & Texas Railway, and thereby wrecking and injuring a car and train of cars on said railway, and thereby mashing, wounding, and bruising the said Hackett, who was then and there on said train of cars; from which said mashing, wounding and bruising, inflicted in the manner and by the means aforesaid, the said Hackett did then and there instantly die; and that the said displacing and interfering with said switch, and the said wrecking and injuring of said car and train of cars, and the said killing and murder of said Hackett, were each and all committed by the said John A. Williams in the perpetration of robbery; in this, that the said Williams did then and there fraudulently take from the person and possession of one S. L. Neblett, who was then and there upon said train of cars, and by assault and violence upon the said Neblett, and by putting the said Neblett in fear of life and bodily injury, certain personal property, to-wit, . . . (here the various packages, containing money, jewelry, and other valuables, are specifically set out in the indictment), the property of him, the said Neblett, with the intent of him, the said John A. Williams, to appropriate the same to his own use; and in the perpetration of the said crime of robbery, and by the displacement of and interference with said switch, and the wrecking and injuring of said car and train of cars, all as aforesaid, the said John A. Williams did then and there kill and murder the said Mike Hackett as aforesaid, against the peace and dignity of the State." Williams v. State, 30 Tex. App. 354, 17 S. W. 408.

XIII. Information for Murder by Arson.

"That heretofore, to-wit, on the 25th day of December, 1873, at the county of Sedgwick and state of Kansas, Joseph W. McNutt and Arthur Winner, unlawfully, and of their malice aforethought, contriving and intending one W. W. Seiver, otherwise known as 'Texas,' otherwise known as 'Tex,' then and there being in a certain frame house situated upon lot No. 73 on Main street in the city of Wichita, in the county and state aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought, to burn, kill and murder, then and there, with force and arms, unlawfully, feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought, did set fire to and burn the said frame house, he the said W. W. Seiver then and there, before, at, and during the said burning, being in the said frame house, and they the said Joseph McNutt and Arthur Winner then and there, before, at, and during said setting fire and burning, well knowing him the said W. W. Seiver to be in said frame house, and that they, the said Joseph W. McNutt and Arthur Winner, by so setting fire to, and firing and burning the said frame house as aforesaid, then and there did unlawfully, wilfully, feloniously, deliberately, premeditatedly, and of their malice aforethought mortally burn the body of him the said W. W. Seiver, by means of which said mortally burning of the body of him the said W. W. Seiver, he the said W. W. Seiver then and there instantly died." State v. Winner, 17 Kan. 298.

XIV. Indictment, Criminal Negligence in Erecting Building.

"Heretofore and prior to the thirteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, each late of the city and county of New York aforesaid, did erect and construct and cause and procure to be erected and constructed, and did act and assist and were concerned in the erection and construction of a certain building within the said city and county, the same being designed and intended to be used and occupied upon its completion by human beings for dwelling purposes, the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, at the time of the erecting and constructing of the said building, having the entire care, charge and control and supervision of the same. And the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, so having the entire care, charge, control and supervision of the constructing and erecting of the said building, it thereupon became and was their duty, at the time of such erection and construction, and until the said building should be completed, to cause the walls thereof to be properly bonded and solidly put together, and to be built to a line, and be carried up plumb and straight with close joints; and to cause all joints in the said walls to be well filled with mortar of good quality; and to cause mortar of good quality to be used in the construction of the said walls, in order that the same should be properly and solidly put together; and to cause bricks, stones, iron work, planks, timbers, beams, boards and materials, of good quality and of sufficient strength, to be used in the construction of the said building; and to prevent from being used in such construction any bricks, stones, iron work, planks, timbers, beams, boards or other materials which were not of good quality and of sufficient strength; and to use and exercise every care and precaution in their power to render the said building and every part thereof safe and secure, as well during its construction as upon the completion of the same.

And the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, well knowing the premises, but being wholly unmindful and neglectful of their duty in that behalf, at the time of the erection and construction of the said building, and on divers days and times up to the said thirteenth day of April, in the (year) aforesaid, at the city and county aforesaid, did feloniously and wilfully neglect and omit to cause the walls of the said building to be properly bonded and solidly put together and to be built to a line and carried up plumb and straight with close joints; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously neglect and omit to cause the joints in the said walls to be well filled with mortar of good quality; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously neglect and omit to cause proper mortar to be used in the construction of the said walls; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously neglect and omit to cause bricks, stones, iron work, planks, timbers, beams, boards and materials of good quality and of sufficient strength to be used in the construction of the said building; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously neglect and omit to prevent from being used in such construction divers bricks, stones, iron work, planks, timbers, beams, boards and other materials which were not of good quality nor of sufficient strength; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously neglect and omit to use and exercise every care and precaution in their power to render the said building and every part thereof safe and secure during its construction and upon the completion thereof; and the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, on the days and times aforesaid, at the city and county aforesaid, did then and there wilfully and feloniously cause, suffer and permit the walls of the said building to be improperly bonded and loosely and flimsily put together; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously cause, suffer and permit mortar of a grossly poor and inferior quality, and mortar chiefly composed of loam to be used in the construction of the said walls; and did then and there wilfully and feloniously cause, suffer and permit divers bricks, stones, planks, beams, timbers, iron work and other materials of poor quality and insufficient strength to be used in the construction of the said building.

In consequence of which said most culpable negligence, acts and omissions on the part of them, the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, the said building afterward, to-wit, on the said thirteenth day of April, in the year aforesaid, did fall to the ground there. And the said Charles A. Buddensieck and Charles Franck, by the falling of the said building in manner aforesaid, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the city and county aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of one Louis Walters, in the peace of the people of the State of New York, then and there being in the said building before and at the time of the falling of the same, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault, and him, the said Louis Walters, down upon and against the bricks, stones, planks, timbers, beams, iron work and other component parts of the said building, did then and there, with great force and violence, wilfully and feloniously cast and throw, thereby giving unto him, the said Louis Walters, then and there, in and upon the head, neck, breast, belly, back, sides and other parts of the body of him, the said Louis Walters, divers mortal bruises and contusions, of which said mortal bruises and contusions he, the said Louis Walters, from the said thirteenth day of April, in the year aforesaid, until the fourteenth day of April, in the same year aforesaid, at the city and county aforesaid, did languish, and languishing did live, on which said fourteenth day of April, in the year aforesaid, the said Louis Walters, at the city and county aforesaid, of the said mortal bruises and contusions died." People v. Buddensieck, 103 N. Y. 487, 9 N. E. 41.

XV. Indictment for Murder, Means Unknown.

"And the grand jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further find and present that the said George Godas, on the eighth day of September, A. D. 1887, at the said county of Lewis and Clarke, with force and arms, in and upon one John Embody, in the peace of God and the Territory of Montana, then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his deliberately premeditated malice aforethought, did make an assault; and in some way and manner, and by some means, instruments, and weapons to the grand jurors unknown, he, the said George Godas, did then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his deliberately premeditated malice aforethought, inflict on and create in the said John Embody certain mortal injuries and a mortal sickness, a further description whereof is to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of which said mortal sickness and injuries, so to the jurors aforesaid unknown, the said John Embody then and there instantly died. And so the said George Godas did, in the manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his deliberately premeditated malice aforethought, kill and murder the said John Embody, against the peace and dignity of the Territory of Montana, and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided." Territory v. Godas, 8 Mont. 347, 21 Pac. 26.

Note.—This form would be stronger under the statute if there be an additional allegation that the assault was made with intent to kill, although the court in the above case held the indictment sufficient.

XVI. Indictment, Death Occurring in Another State.

State of North Carolina, Stokes county, ss. Superior court of law begun and held on the second Monday after the fourth Monday of September, A. D. 1842.

The jurors for the state, upon their oath present, that William B. Dunkley, late of the said county of Stokes, laborer, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on the thirteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, with force and arms in the county aforesaid, in and upon one Archibald McHone, in the peace of God and the state, then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault, and that the said William Dunkley, with a certain knife of the value of six pence, which he the said William Dunkley in his right hand then and there had and held, the said Archibald McHone in and upon the right hip, and the left side of the back near the backbone of him the said Archibald McHone, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike and thrust, giving to the said Archibald McHone, then and there with the knife aforesaid, in and upon the said right hip and the left side of the back near the backbone of the said Archibald McHone, several mortal wounds, each of the breadth of three inches and of the depth of six inches; of which said several mortal wounds the said Archibald McHone, from the said thirteenth day of August, in the year aforesaid, until the twenty-ninth day of the same month of August, in the year aforesaid, as well in the county aforesaid, as in the county of Patrick, in the state of Virginia, did languish, and languishing did live, on which said twenty-ninth day of August, in the year aforesaid, the said Archibald McHone, in the said county of Patrick, in the state of Virginia, of the said several mortal wounds died; and so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said William B. Dunkley the said Archibald McHone, in manner and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the peace and dignity of the state.

John F. Poindexter, Sol'r.

State v. Dunkley, 25 N. C. 116.

XVII. Assault With Intent To Murder.A. Attempt To Murder With Sword.

That A. B., late of, etc., on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, with a certain drawn sword, which he the said A. B. in his right hand then and there had and held, in and upon one S. W., in the peace of God * and our said lord the king, then and there being, did make an assault with an intent him the said S. W. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, to kill and murder, and other wrongs, etc.

B. Indictment, Attempt To Murder With Pistol.

“The grand jurors of the state of Indiana, in and for the county of Rush, good and lawful men, duly and legally empanelled, sworn and charged in the Rush circuit court, at the March term, 1877, to enquire in and for the body of said county, in the name and by the authority of the state of Indiana, upon their oath, present and charge that, on the 18th day of January, 1877, and in the county of Rush and state of Indiana, William A. Jones, in and upon one Orlando B. Scobey, did then and there unlawfully, feloniously, purposely and with premeditated malice, make an assault, and then and there, at and against, and in contact with, the said Orlando B. Scobey, did feloniously, purposely and with premeditated malice, shoot a certain pistol, then and there loaded with gunpowder and leaden balls, which he the said William A. Jones then and there in his hands had and held, with the intent then and there him the said Orlando B. Scobey, feloniously, purposely and with premeditated malice, to kill and murder.”
Jones v. State, 60 Ind. 241.

C. Indictment, Attempt To Murder With Dangerous Weapon, Injuries Inflicted.

Middlesex. The jurors for our lord the king, upon their oath, present that A. B., late of the parish of ———, in the county of Middlesex, yeoman, on the ——— day of ———, in the ——— year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the third, by the grace of God of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, with force and arms, at the parish aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, in and upon one J.

H., in the peace of God and our said lord the king, then and there being, did make an assault, and her the said C. D. then and there did beat, wound, and illtreat, and one brass candlestick at, towards, and against the said C. D. then and there did cast and throw with intention to strike, bruise, wound, and hurt the said C. D. with the said candlestick, and that the said A. B. then and there, with force and arms, with a certain chair, did strike the said C. D. divers terrible, grievous and dangerous blows upon the head, arms, sides, back, and other parts of the body of her the said C. D., and thereby grievously cut, bruised, and wounded the said C. D., in and upon her head, arms, sides, back, and other parts of her body, in so much that her life was greatly despaired of, with an intent, her the said C. D. then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, to kill and murder, and other wrongs, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 828.

D. Indictment, Intent To Kill, With Count for Intent To Maim.

The jurors of the people of the state of New York, in and for the body of the county aforesaid, to-wit:

Lawrence W. Bristol, etc., etc., good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, then and there sworn and charged to inquire for the said people for the body of the county aforesaid, upon their oaths present: That Daniel O’Leary, late of the village of Waterford, in the county of Saratoga aforesaid, on the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, with force and arms, at the village of Waterford, in the county of Saratoga aforesaid, in and upon one Margaret Collins, then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and her the said Margaret Collins, with a certain deadly weapon, commonly called a cleaver, which the said Daniel O’Leary in his right hand then and there had and held, feloniously did beat, strike, and cut and wound, with intent her the said Margaret Collins then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, and other wrongs to the said Margaret Collins, then and there did, to the great damage of the said Margaret Collins, against the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York, and their dignity.

And the jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said Daniel O'Leary, late of the town and village of Waterford, in the county of Saratoga, on the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, with force and arms, at the village and county aforesaid, in and upon Margaret Collins, then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and her the said Margaret Collins, with a certain deadly weapon commonly called a cleaver, which he the said Daniel O'Leary, in both his hands, then and there had and held, feloniously did beat, strike, and cut and wound, with intent her the said Margaret Collins then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, and other wrongs to the said Margaret Collins, then and there did, to the great damage of the said Margaret Collins, and against the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York, and their dignity.

And the jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said Daniel O'Leary, on the said twenty-second day of September, in the year last aforesaid, with force and arms, at the village and county aforesaid, in and upon the said Margaret Collins, then and there being, feloniously did make another assault, and her the said Margaret Collins, with a certain cleaver, which he the said Daniel O'Leary, in both of his hands then and there had and held the said cleaver, being a deadly weapon, feloniously did beat, strike, cut and wound, with intent her the said Margaret Collins then and there feloniously and wilfully to maim, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York, and their dignity.

O'Leary v. People, 4 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 187.

E. Indictment, Attempt To Kill Helpless Person by Exposure.

"State of Illinois, Wayne county, ss.

The grand jurors chosen, selected and sworn, in and for the county of Wayne, in the name and by the authority of the people of the state of Illinois, upon their oaths, present that Absalom Nixon, late of the county aforesaid, laborer, on the twenty-third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, with force and arms, at and in the county aforesaid, in and upon one Adam, a man of color, then and there being a deformed person, and by reason of his being such deformed person, being unable to walk or otherwise to move himself from place to place, and also then and there being deficient in voice, so as to be unable to call aloud, and in the peace of God, and of the people of the state of Illinois, then and there also being, unlawfully did make an assault, and then and there forced and threw the said Adam from a certain wagon, in which he the said Adam then and there was, to and upon the ground, the said ground then and there being frozen and very cold, and then and there did force and compel the said Adam (so being such deformed person as aforesaid, and also by reason of his being such deformed person, being unable to move himself from place to place as aforesaid, and also being deficient in voice, so as to be unable to call aloud as aforesaid), then and there to lie upon the ground, so being frozen and very cold as aforesaid, and then and there did abandon and leave him the said Adam lying on the ground as aforesaid, to the great pain and torture of the said Adam, and to the great damage and impoverishment of his health and strength of body, with intent him the said Adam, by the means aforesaid, then and there feloniously, wilfully and of his malice aforethought, to kill and murder, and other wrongs to him the said Adam then and there did, to the great damage of him the said Adam, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the people of the state of Illinois.

G. B. Shelleby, state's attorney."

A. Declaration by Husband and Wife for Work Done by Wife Before Marriage.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D. and M. his wife, defendants, etc.: For that whereas the said M. whilst she was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., was indebted, etc., for the work and labor, etc., before that time done, etc., for the said M. and at her special instance, etc., and being so indebted, she, the said M., in consideration thereof, afterwards, and whilst she, the said M., was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, undertook, etc.

And whereas also, afterwards, and whilst the said M. was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the like special instance, etc., had before that time done, etc., for the said M. she, the said M. undertook, etc., etc. (as in the quantum meruit count), and the said A. B. avers that he therefor reasonably deserved to have of the said M. whilst she was sole and unmarried, the further sum, etc., whereof the said M. afterwards, and whilst she was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., there had notice. (Add the money counts, and the account stated by the feme before marriage.) Yet the said M., whilst she was sole and unmarried, and the said C. D. and M. since their intermarriage, not regarding the said several premises and undertakings of the said M., have not, nor hath either of them as yet paid, etc. (although often requested so to do), but to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff the said M. whilst she was sole and unmarried, wholly refused, and the said C. D. and M. his wife, have ever since their intermarriage, hitherto wholly refused, and still refuse so to do; to the damage of the said plaintiff, etc. Burr. App. 564, §1099.

B. Declaration Against Husband and Wife for Work Done for Wife Before Marriage.

A. B. and E., his wife, plaintiffs in this suit, by E. F., their attorney, complain of C. D., defendant, etc. (in the usual form). For that whereas the said defendant whilst the said E. was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., was indebted to the said E. in the sum of two hundred dollars, for the work and labor of the said E. by her the said E. before that time done, etc., for the said defendant, and at his special instance, etc. (or, for divers goods, wares and merchandise, by the said E. before that time sold and delivered, to the said defendant, etc.), and being so indebted, he, the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, and whilst the said E. was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, undertook, etc., the said E. to pay her the sum of money when he, the said defendant, should be thereunto afterwards requested.

And whereas also, afterwards, and whilst the said E. was sole and unmarried, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, in consideration that the said E. at his like special instance, etc., had before that time done, etc., he, the said defendant, undertook, etc., the said E. to pay her so much money, etc., as she, etc. And the said A. B. and E. his wife, avers that the said E. whilst she was sole and unmarried, therefor reasonably deserved to have, etc., whereof, etc. (Add the money counts, and the accounts stated with the feme before marriage.) Yet the said defendant not regarding, etc., has not as yet paid the said sums of money, or any part thereof, to the said E. whilst she was sole and unmarried, or to the said A. B. and E. his wife, or either of them, since their intermarriage (although often requested so to do). But he to do this hath hitherto wholly refused, and still doth refuse to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said A. B. and E. his wife, to the damage of the said A. B. and E. his wife, of four hundred dollars, and therefore they bring their suit, etc. Burr. App. 564, §1098.

II. Complaints.A. Complaint Against Husband on Ante-Nuptial Debt of Wife.

I. That the defendant W. Z. is the wife of the defendant Y. Z.

II. That previous to the marriage of the defendants, while said W. Z. was sole and unmarried (here set forth the cause of action against her).

III. The plaintiff further shows, that previous to the marriage of the defendants, said W. Z. owned certain property, to-wit: (here describe the property of the wife which the husband has acquired).

IV. That before their marriage the defendants entered into an ante-nuptial agreement (here state effect of agreement as to transfer of property); and that the value of the separate property of said defendant W. Z. (wife), so acquired by the defendant Y. Z. (husband), was _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 143.

Note.—See statutes of particular state as to liability for ante-nuptial debts.

B. Complaint on Ante-Nuptial Debt Where Husband Has Acquired, After Marriage, Property of Wife.

(I, II and III, as in preceding form.)

IV. That since the marriage of the defendants, and before this action, the defendant W. Z. conveyed to the defendant Y. Z. (here state what was conveyed); and that the value of the separate property of the defendant (wife), so acquired by the defendant (husband), was _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 144.

C. Complaint Against a Married Woman on Her Contract.

I. That the defendant is the wife of one M. N.

II. That at the time of making the note hereinafter mentioned, the defendant was, and still is, seized in fee (or otherwise) in her own separate right of a farm in the town of _____, and county of _____, containing about _____ acres of land, of the value of _____ dollars.

III. (State cause of action; and either show that the transaction was in a separate business carried on by her within this state, or that the consideration was a direct benefit to the defendant's separate estate, or else add):

IV. That in consideration thereof, the defendant agreed to charge her said estate with the amount of the said _____.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That said note be a charge on said estate of defendant;

2. That said estate be applied to the payment of the sum of _____ dollars, with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18____.

3. That a receiver be appointed to take possession of the same, for that purpose. 1 Abb. Forms 150.

D. Concerning Separate Property.1. Complaint Alleging Marriage and Separate Estate of Plaintiff.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the plaintiff intermarried with one J. S., whose wife she now is.

III. That the consideration of the said note (or of the said transfer, or, indorsement of said note to the plaintiff) was the payment by this plaintiff to the maker (or indorser, or assignor) thereof, of the sum of _____, which said sum was (or the principal and interest of a certain sum which was), at and before the time of her marriage, owned by her (or which was acquired by her, by her trade or services); and thereafter was her sole and separate property, and * so continued until the time of such payment; and that said note thereupon became and ever since has been her sole and separate property.

(Or, III. That the consideration of the said note (or of the said transfer, or indorsement, of said note to the plaintiff) was the payment by the plaintiff to the maker (or indorser, or assignor), of the sum of _____ dollars, which said sum became (or was the principal and interest of a certain sum which became) after her said marriage her sole and separate property by inheritance (or gift, grant, devise, or bequest) from (a person other than her said husband, to-wit, one) M. N., and (continue as above, from the *).

Or, III. That the consideration of (etc., as above), which said sum was the proceeds of certain property, which was at and before (etc., as above), or which said sum was the proceeds of certain property which became after (etc., as above). 1 Abb. Forms 148.

2. Complaint Alleging Marriage and Separate Estate of Plaintiff in Action Other Than for Payment of Money.

II. (State marriage, as in preceding form.)

III. That the property hereinbefore mentioned was, at and before the time of her said marriage, owned by her, and ever since has been her sole and separate property.

(Or, III. That the property hereinbefore mentioned was after her said marriage bought by her with the proceeds of certain property, which was at and before the time of her said marriage owned by her; and that ever since the same has been (as above).)

(Or, III. That the property hereinbefore mentioned became, after her said marriage, her sole and separate property, by inheritance (or, gift, grant, devise, or bequest) from M. N., and that ever since the same has been (as above).)

(Or, III. That the property hereinbefore mentioned was after her said marriage acquired by her, by her trade or services entered into on her own and separate account, and ever since, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 150.)

3. Complaint Against Married Woman, Contract Expressed Intent To Charge Separate Estate.

(After alleging cause of action, add):

That the defendant is the wife of M. N., and at the time of making said indorsement she had and still has a separate estate, and intended to charge such separate estate by said indorsement.

Wherefore (demanding usual money judgment). 1 Abb. Forms 151.

4. Complaint Against Husband and Wife for Goods Sold for Her Separate Estate.

I. That between the _____ day of _____, 18—, and the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the plaintiff furnished to the defendant W. Z., who was then, and still is, the wife of the defendant Y. Z., materials used for the building of a house for her, upon, and for the benefit of, her own separate lands and premises, situated in the town of _____, in the county of _____.

II. That the said defendant (wife) in consideration that the plaintiff would furnish such materials as aforesaid, then and there promised the plaintiff that she would pay for the same _____ dollars (or, as much as they should be reasonably worth), out of her own separate property, and did appoint the same to be paid for out of her separate property.

III. That such (materials so furnished were reasonably worth the sum of _____ dollars, which) sum became due to the plaintiff from her on the _____ day of _____, 18—, but no part thereof has been paid (except the sum of, etc.)

IV. The plaintiff further shows, on information and belief, that the premises above mentioned and hereinafter more particularly described, were, at and before the _____ day of _____, 18— (which was the day of the marriage of defendants), since have been and now are, her sole and separate property; and the same are worth about _____ dollars, and are bounded and described as follows: (description of premises).

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment that the separate property aforesaid of the defendant (wife) be charged with the payment of the said sum of _____ dollars, with interest from _____, together with the costs of this action, and that the said property be applied to the payment of the same, and that a receiver be appointed to take possession of her said separate property, and dispose of it, or of so much thereof as shall be necessary to satisfy the same. 1 Abb. Forms 191.

E. Complaint on Ante-Nuptial Debt of Wife, Where Husband Has Acquired That Which Became Separate Property of Wife After Marriage.

(I and II as in II, A.)

III. That since the marriage of the defendants, certain property, to-wit (here describe her separate property), became the sole and separate property of the defendant (wife), by inheritance (or gift, grant, devise, or bequest) from (a person other than her said husband, to-wit: one) M. N.

IV. That thereafter and before this action, the defendant W. Z. conveyed to the defendant Y. Z. (here state what was conveyed); and that the value of the separate property of the defendant (wife), so acquired by the defendant (husband), was _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 144.

III. In Equity.

A. Bill Relating to Estate of Married Woman, To Enforce Payment Out of Separate Property for Land Conveyed to Separate Use.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors A. G. R., of the city and state of New York, that C. M. W., of B., in the county of S., and commonwealth of Massachusetts, married woman, wife of J. W. W., did, as your orator is informed and believes, on or about the ——— day of ———, A. D. 1855, purchase in her own name and in her own right, an estate of land and buildings, situated in the town of J., in the county of Q., and state of N. Y., of one I. H., then of said town of J.; which said estate consisted of several parcels or pieces of land, as will more fully appear by the deed thereof from said I. H. to the said C. M. W.; a certified copy whereof, from the registry where the same is recorded, your orator craves leave to produce at the hearing of this case.

And your orator further shows that he is informed and believes that the consideration or price of said estate purchased by the said C. M. W. as aforesaid, was not less than eighteen thousand dollars, which the said C. M. W. paid, or agreed to pay; and that, as a part of said price or consideration, the said C. M. W. assumed and agreed to pay a mortgage for six thousand dollars on said estate, made by the said I. H. to M. S. and H. S., dated on or about the ——— day of ———, 1854; and that, further, for a portion of said price, or consideration of said purchase, the said C. M. W., together with her husband, the said J. W. W., made and executed to the said I. H. a bond for the sum of six thousand dollars, under seal (a copy whereof is hereto annexed, marked "A"), and that, to secure the payment of said bond, the said C. M. W., together with her said husband, executed and delivered to the said I. H. a mortgage on said estate, before mentioned; which said mortgage, or a certified copy thereof, your orator craves leave to produce in court at the hearing of this cause.

And your orator further shows, that, on or about the ——— day of ———, 1859, he purchased, for a valuable consideration, of the said I. H., the bonds before mentioned, given by the said C. M. W. and her said husband to the said I. H., together with the said mortgage given as aforesaid to secure the payment of the same; which were assigned to your orator by the said I. H., by an assignment in writing duly executed, and delivered by the said I. H. to your orator on or about said ——— day of ———, 1859; and your orator became thereby the owner of said bond and mortgage, and the debt and money due from said C. M. W. to the said I. H., and ever since has and still does continue to own and hold the same.

And your orator further shows, that no part of the principal sum, or the interest thereon of said bond (or of the debt due from the said C. M. W., as aforesaid), has been paid since the same was assigned to him; and he is informed and believes that no part of the principal sum of said bond had been paid before the same was assigned to him; but he is informed that the interest due thereon had been paid up to April, 1857; and there is now due to your orator, as he believes, the whole of the principal sum of six thousand dollars on said bond, and the interest thereon, at the rate of six per cent per annum, from April, 1857, to the present time.

And your orator further shows, that he is informed and believes that the said C. M. W. has not paid said first-mentioned mortgage made by said I. H. to H. S., neither the interest or the principal thereof; but, in consequence of her not paying the same as she had assumed and agreed to do, the holders or holder of said mortgage have foreclosed the same, in the manner and form required by the laws of the state of N. Y.; and, under and in pursuance of such foreclosure, said estate has been sold at sheriff's sale to pay said mortgage; and, as your orator is informed and believes, said estate did not bring at said sale above the sum of seven thousand dollars, which, as your orator is informed and believes, was not enough to pay the amount due on said first-mentioned mortgage.

And your orator further shows, that he is informed and believes that the said C. M. W., together with her said husband, has since the date of said bond and mortgage given by her to the said

I. H., and by him assigned to your orator, sold and conveyed said estate to one W. for a large sum or price, the particulars of which are unknown to your orator.

And your orator further shows, that said estate was conveyed to the said C. M. W., as her sole and separate property, and that she was possessed of it as such; and that, as your orator is informed, she has other sole and separate property, either in her own name or in the name or in the hands of some person as trustee; and that such property, either in her own name or in the hands of her trustee, ought to be and is holden for and chargeable with the payment of the amount of said bond, and the interest due thereon; and your orator ought to receive and recover the same from the said C. M. W.'s estate.

But now, so it is, may it please your honors, that the said C. M. W. and the said J. W. W., although often requested to pay to your orator the amount due to him upon said bond and mortgage, utterly and wholly refuse and neglects to comply with such request, or to pay to your orator the same, or any portion thereof; all which is contrary to equity and good conscience, and tends to the manifest injury of your orator.

In consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your orator is entirely remediless in the premises, according to the strict rules of the common law, and can only have relief in a court of equity, where matters of this nature are properly cognizable and relievable; to the end, therefore, that the said C. M. W., upon her corporal oath, may full, true, direct and perfect answer make to all and singular the matters hereinbefore stated and charged, as fully and particularly as if the same were hereinbefore repeated and she thereunto distinctly interrogated, and that according to the best of her knowledge, information and belief;

And that your honors would order and find the amount due to your orator upon said bond and mortgage, and decree that the same may be paid to your orator out of the separate property of the said C. M. W., standing either in her own name, or in the hands of a trustee; and that your orator may have such other and further relief in the premises as the nature of his case shall require, and to your honors shall seem meet;

May it please your honors to grant unto your orator a writ of subpoena, issuing out of this honorable court, to be directed to the said C. M. W., thereby commanding her, under a certain penalty therein to be specified, to be and appear personally before your honors at a certain day, then and there to answer all and singular the premises, and to stand to, perform and abide such order and decree therein as to your honors shall seem meet; and your orator shall ever pray. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1921; Rogers v. Ward, 8 Allen (Mass.) 387.

2. Inquiry, Whether Any Settlement, and if Proper, and if Not, Direction for Settlement.

The court doth order that it be referred to, etc., to inquire whether (the plaintiff or defendant) A. has made any and what settlement or provision for (the plaintiff or defendant) B., his wife, and the issue of their marriage, or entered into any, and what agreement for that purpose; and if so, whether the same is a fit and proper settlement or provision for the said (plaintiff or defendant) B., and such issue; and if it shall appear that the said plaintiff or defendant) has not made any such settlement or provision, or that such settlement or provision, if any, is not fit and proper, the court doth order that a proper settlement to be made by the said (plaintiff or defendant) A., on, etc., be approved by the, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2288; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 665.

3. Share Settled by Order, Without Deed, Husband Bankrupt.

The court doth order that the residue of the said $——, etc., be carried over in trust in this cause, "The account of the settlement of the defendant C., the wife of W., and her children;" and the court doth declare that the, etc., so to be carried over are to be held in trust for the said defendant C. for her life, and during her present coverture, for her separate use, without power of anticipation, and after her decease in trust for all the children of her present marriage who shall attain the age of twenty-one years, or being daughters shall (attain that age or) marry under that age, equally, and if there shall be no such child, and the defendant C. shall survive the said W., her present husband, in trust for her, her executors, administrators, and assigns; but if she shall die in the lifetime of her said husband, without any child, in trust for the defendants P. and D., as the assignees of his estate and effects; and the court doth order that the interest during the life of the said defendant C., from time to time to accrue due on, etc., so to be carried over be, as the same accrue due, paid to the said defendant C., the wife of the said W., for her separate use, or until further order. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2288; 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 665, 666, and notes.)

4. Decree Ordering Trustee To Contribute to Support of Insane Wife.

The cause having come before the full court, for a final hearing upon the bill, answers and facts agreed, and the parties, by their respective counsel, having been fully heard, it is ordered and decreed that the said H. D., trustee of the said J. E. D., pay to the said W. W. D., guardian of the said J. E. D., the sum of four hundred dollars, the same to be paid in thirty days after the filing of this decree; and that he afterwards pay to the said W. W. D. the sum of four hundred dollars annually from the time of filing this decree, till the further order of the court; the same to be paid in equal half yearly instalments; the said sums to be paid out of the income of the trust property in the hands of the said H. D.

It is further ordered and decreed, that the costs of this suit, and the reasonable charges of counsel, to be approved and allowed by the court, be paid by said H. D. out of said income.

In default of payment by said H. D. of said sum of four hundred dollars, and costs and expenses hereinbefore mentioned, according to the terms of this decree, within thirty days as aforesaid, it is ordered that an execution issue for the same in due form of law.

It is further ordered and decreed, that the said W. W. D. apply the several sums as aforesaid, except the said costs and charges, to the support and maintenance of the said J. E. D., so that, in addition to what shall be furnished for her by him out of his private property, she may be supplied with everything that ought reasonably to be provided for her comfort and convenience.

By the court. Boston, Jan. 16, 1863.

BILLS AND NOTES:

Answer, Illegal Interest in Note.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS:

Answer, Pleading Illegality of Assessment.

I. Answers.

A. Answer, That the Contract Was Cover for Wager.

I. That at the time of the alleged contract the defendant was not a dealer in the merchandise mentioned therein, nor had he possession or control of any thereof.

II. That it was the intent of the parties not to make any actual sale or delivery thereof, but at maturity of the said contract that the difference between the market value and the contract price should be paid by one party to the other.

III. That the market price of such merchandise at the maturity of the contract was, at the time of making the contract, contingent and uncertain; and the contract was a mere wager on the future market price thereof, and contrary to the statute. 2 Abb. Forms 45.

B. Answer, That Debt Was for Money Lost at Play.

I. That the defendant and the plaintiff played together at a game of chance called ———, for stakes, upon credit, and not for ready money; and at said gaming the plaintiff won ——— dollars of the defendant, which he did not pay.

II. That thereafter the defendant gave the plaintiff the note mentioned in the complaint for said money so staked and lost. 2 Abb. Forms 45.

C. Answer, That the Contract Is Foreign One, Void by Law of Place.

I. That the (contract) alleged in the complaint was made without this state, and in the state of ——— (or, in the kingdom of France), where the defendant was then domiciled.

II. That by an act of the legislature of said state, entitled, An Act, etc., passed on, etc., it is enacted that (here set forth the law relied on, and if there be exceptions, add allegations showing that the contract is not within them). 2 Abb. Forms 44.

D. Answer, That Note Was Given To Compound Felony.

I. That heretofore, on, etc., at, etc., one L. M., the son of the said defendant, had feloniously (here designate the crime, e. g., thus), stolen, taken, and carried away a horse, the property of the plaintiff.

II. That the said defendant, in order to compound and settle said felony, gave the said note; in consideration of which, the plaintiff and others desisted from informing and prosecuting upon said felony.

III. That there was no other consideration for said note. 2 Abb. Forms 45.

E. Answer, Note for Liquors Sold Without License.

I. That the only consideration for said note was for the sale of strong or spirituous liquors, sold by said (payee), in quantities less than five gallons to said defendant in the town of ———, and county of ———, the said (seller), at the time of such sale, having no license for the sale thereof, as required by the laws of 18——, either grocer or tavern license.

II. That the said note was transformed to the plaintiff after it was due, and without consideration, and after he had the full notice of the foregoing facts. 2 Abb. Forms 46.

F. Answer, Usury by Antedating Security.

I. That he gave said bond and mortgage upon a loan made to him by the plaintiff, and which was first agreed for on the ——— day of ———, 18—— (or, to secure the purchase money of lands conveyed to him by the plaintiff on the ——— day of ———, 18——, on which day, and not before, said purchase money accrued to the plaintiff).

II. That the said bond and mortgage were antedated as of the ——— day of ———, 18——, upon an agreement between the parties, that the defendant should secure and pay to the plaintiff, in addition to interest at the rate of seven per cent. on said loan (or, purchase money) from said day, the further sum of ——— dollars as interest thereon from the day on which said bond and mortgage bore date, until the day above named, as a cover for usury.

III. That in pursuance of said usurious agreement, the said bond and mortgage were given, and thereafter said sum of ——— was paid by the defendant, and exacted and accepted by the plaintiff. 2 Abb. Forms 46.

"The grand jury of said county charge, that before the finding of this indictment, William Baker, being then and there the father of one Elizabeth Baker, and within the degree of consanguinity within which marriages are declared by law to be incestuous and void, and then and there knowing the said Elizabeth Baker to be his daughter, did then and there live with the said Elizabeth Baker in a state of adultery, against the peace and dignity of the state of Alabama." Baker v. State, 30 Ala. 521.

Indictment for Incest (b).

"That said defendant, Lewis Kaiser, on or about the first day of January, A. D. 1895, and before the finding and presentation of this indictment, at the county of Placer, and state of California, did wilfully, unlawfully; knowingly, incestuously, and feloniously, upon the person of one Cordelia Kaiser, the daughter of said Lewis Kaiser, commit fornication and have sexual intercourse with, and carnally know the said Cordelia Kaiser, contrary," etc. People v. Kaiser, 119 Cal. 456, 51 Pac. 702.

Indictment for Incest (c).

The jurors of the grand jury of the state of Ohio, within and for the body of the county of Lake, impaneled, sworn and charged to inquire of crimes and offenses committed within said county of Lake, in the name and by the authority of the state of Ohio, on their oaths, do further find and present that Benjamin Robert Brown, late of said county, on the eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, with force and arms, in said county of Lake, and state of Ohio, being then and there an unmarried man, did commit fornication with Rose Cramer, by then and there unlawfully and feloniously having sexual intercourse with the said Rose Cramer, the said Benjamin Robert Brown being then and there the uncle of the said Rose Cramer, and the said Rose Cramer being then and there the niece of the said Benjamin Robert Brown, and the said Benjamin Robert Brown, and the said Rose Cramer then and there having knowledge of their relationship, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Ohio. State v. Brown, 47 Ohio St. 102.

Indictment for Incest (d).

"Did unlawfully, feloniously and incestuously commit adultery with one Ella Branham, a single and unmarried female person, by then and there feloniously and incestuously having carnal knowledge of her, the said Ella Branham,—he, the said Will Nations, and she, the said Ella Branham, then and there being first cousins, and he, the said Will Nations, then and there being a married man,—against the peace and dignity of the state of Arkansas." For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, and for his accommodation, would make and deliver to one T. H., his certain promissory note, in writing, and thereby promise to pay to the said T. H., or order, on demand, the sum of ——— dollars, as for value received by the said plaintiff of the said T. H., he, the said defendant, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff, that he, the said defendant, would save harmless and indemnify the said plaintiff against the payment of the said sum of ——— dollars, in the said note mentioned, and all charges and expenses he should bear, sustain or be put unto, by reason of his making and delivering of the said note to the said T. H.; and the said plaintiff in fact saith, that he, confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, did make his certain promissory note in writing, bearing date the same day and year aforesaid, and did thereby promise to pay to the said T. H., or order, on demand, the said sum of ——— dollars, as for value received by the said plaintiff of the said defendant; and that he, the said plaintiff, did deliver the said note, so made by him as aforesaid, to the said T. H.; and the said plaintiff further saith, that the said defendant, not having saved harmless and indemnified the said plaintiff, against the payment of the said sum of ——— dollars, in the said note contained, by the payment thereof, or of any part thereof, to the said T. H.; and the said sum of money being wholly unpaid, he, the said plaintiff, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., was compelled and obliged to pay, and did then and there pay to the said T. H., the said sum of ——— dollars, in the said note mentioned and contained, being then and there due and payable by virtue of the said note, whereof the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, had notice. Nevertheless the said defendant, not regarding, etc., hath not yet repaid to the said plaintiff, the said sum of ——— dollars, or any part thereof, nor in any manner indemnified him on account of his having paid the same (although so to do, he, the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., and oftentimes since hath been requested by the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid), but hath hitherto, wholly neglected and refused, and still doth neglect and refuse so to do, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. II. Complaints.

A. Complaint of Surety Against Principal on Promise To Indemnify.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18——, at ———, the defendant, in consideration that the plaintiff would become surety for him by executing a bond (or other obligation), of which a copy is annexed as a part of this complaint, the defendant promised and agreed with the plaintiff that he would indemnify him, and save him harmless from and against all damages, costs, and charges which he might sustain by reason of his becoming surety as aforesaid.

II. That the plaintiff, confiding in such promise of the defendant, duly executed and delivered such bond (or other obligation).

III. That the defendant did not indemnify the plaintiff, and save him harmless from such damages, costs, and charges; but, on the contrary, the plaintiff, by a judgment, on or about the ——— day of ———, 18——, duly given against him by the ——— court, at ———, in an action brought against him upon said bond, was compelled to pay, and on or about the ——— day of ———, did pay ——— dollars to ———, in satisfaction and discharge of said bond, and he incurred also necessary costs and expenses in said action and on account of said bond, to the amount of ——— dollars.

IV. That the defendant had notice of the premises, but has not repaid any part thereof to the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 363.

B. Complaint on Promise To Indemnify on Action for Money Which Defendant Claimed.

I. That on or about the ——— day of ———, 18——, one M. N. deposited with the plaintiff ——— dollars.

II. That afterwards, on the ——— day of ———, 18——, the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, delivered to him the said sum of money of the said M. N., the defendant then claiming the same, and the plaintiff not knowing to whom the same belonged.

III. That the said M. N. then threatened to commence an action at law against him for the recovery of said money.

IV. That afterwards, on the — day of —, 18—, the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, agreed with the defendant that he would defend any action which the said M. N. should commence against him for the said money; and the defendant, in consideration of the premises, then promised the plaintiff to save him harmless from the consequences of the said action.

V. That the said M. N. afterwards, on (etc.), prosecuted an action against the plaintiff in the court of common pleas, of — county, for the recovery of the said sum of money, of which the defendant then had notice.

VI. That the plaintiff, with the privity of the defendant, and to the best of his ability, defended the said action; but the said M. N. in — term, 18—, of said court, recovered a judgment against the plaintiff in said action, to the amount of — dollars; and afterwards, an execution issued upon the said judgment, and the plaintiff, to prevent his property from being taken on said execution, was forced to pay, and on the — day of —, 18—, did pay the said sum of — dollars, and, also, the sum of — dollars, for poundage and officer's fees, and other expenses upon the said writ. And the plaintiff was also, by means of the premises, put to other charges and expenses of his moneys, amounting to the sum of — dollars, in defending and settling the said action. 1 Abb. Forms 368.

C. Complaint by Retiring Partner Against Sureties in Partner's Bond To Indemnify.

I. That on the — day of —, 18—, the plaintiff and one M. K., theretofore co-partners in business as plumbers, in the city of —, under the firm name of M. K. & M. G., dissolved their connection as such co-partners, and thereupon entered into an agreement in writing, of said date, duly executed and signed by them respectively, and delivered, whereby it was, among other things, mutually agreed that the said M. K. should retain and keep to his sole and separate use all and singular the partnership property of every name and character, whether in action or possession, and wheresoever situated; and in consideration thereof, whereas the said co-partnership was indebted to sundry persons in sundry considerable sums of money, he should pay and discharge the debts so due by the said firm to the extent of — dollars from his own individual resources, and to the like extent hold the plaintiff harmless and indemnified, of and from and by reason of any claims or liabilities due by the said firm (or, instead of stating the substance, say, which agreement contained covenants on the part of the said M. K., of which the following is a copy: copy of covenant).

II. That the defendants, in consideration of said agreement between said M. K. and the plaintiff, and of one dollar to each of them then paid by the plaintiff, entered into an understanding in writing, duly executed and signed by them respectively, and delivered to the plaintiff (a copy whereof is annexed as a part of this complaint), whereby they severally undertook and bound themselves to the plaintiff for the faithful performance by the said M. K. of the covenants in said agreement to be kept and performed on said M. K.'s part.

III. That said M. K., under his said agreement with the plaintiff, retained and kept to his sole and separate use all the partnership property of the firm; but has not, pursuant thereto, paid and discharged the debts due by said firm to the extent aforesaid; and has failed to hold this plaintiff harmless and indemnified to the like extent, of and from and by reason of any claim or liabilities due by the said firm.

IV. That at the time of the dissolution of the partnership, and agreement aforesaid, the said firm were indebted to the firm of L. & Co. of —, for merchandise sold and delivered, in the sum of — dollars, which was then due and payable; which indebtedness formed a part of the — dollars, debts of M. K. and M. G., and was included among such debts, to be paid by the said M. K., under his agreement aforesaid with the plaintiff; but the said M. K., although requested, would not pay L. & Co. their said demand, or any part thereof.

V. That on the — day of — last, an action was duly commenced by the plaintiff, in the court of —, to recover upon and by virtue of the aforesaid agreement, from the said M. K. the said amount with interest, then due by the said M. K.

and M. G. to the said firm of L. & Co., amounting to ——— dollars, and interest thereon; and such proceedings were thereupon had, that on the tenth day of December inst., judgment was recovered in such action (which was duly given) in favor of the plaintiff against the said M. K., for the sum of ——— dollars, including costs; upon which judgment execution was at once duly issued against the said M. K., and is returned wholly unsatisfied.

VI. That prior to the commencement of said action, the plaintiff caused notice in writing to be served on the defendants respectively, as sureties aforesaid, of his intention to commence such action to compel the payment of the indebtedness aforesaid to said L. & Co., by said M. K., or for him; but the defendants altogether neglected to pay attention to said notice.

VII. That the plaintiff has necessarily paid or expended, in consequence of the neglect and refusal of said M. K. to comply with his agreement aforesaid with the plaintiff, at different times since the said ——— day of ———, 18—, in addition to the costs of said action included in said judgment, for legal costs, counsel fees, disbursements, and for other reasonable expenses, divers sums of money, amounting in the aggregate to ——— dollars, which remain due and unpaid to the plaintiff by the said M. K., who, although (on the ——— day of ———, 18—), requested, refuses to make payment thereof to the plaintiff.

VIII. That the defendants (although, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, requested), have not paid to the plaintiff the amount of said judgment, or the legal costs, counsel fees, disbursements, and expenses aforesaid. 1 Abb Forms 366.

D. Complaint by Retiring Partner on Remaining Partners' Promise To Indemnify Him Against Damage.

I. That the plaintiff and the defendants, having been partners in trade at ———, under the firm of B. & Z., on the ——— day of ———, 18—, dissolved the partnership, and mutually agreed that the defendants should take and keep all the partnership property, pay all debts of the firm, and indemnify the plaintiff against all claims that might be made upon him on account of any indebtedness of the said firm, and all costs and charges thence arising.

II. That the plaintiff duly performed all the conditions thereof on his part.

III. That the defendants have not paid all said debts nor indemnified the plaintiff therefrom; but, on the contrary, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, one M. N. recovered judgment, which was duly given in the ——— court against the plaintiff and defendants upon a debt due from the said firm to the said M. N., of which debt the defendants had notice but failed to pay, and on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the plaintiff paid ——— dollars in satisfaction of the same.

(IV. And for a further breach, the plaintiff alleges, etc., setting forth any other liabilities.)

V. That the defendants have not paid the same to the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 365.

INDIANS.

Indictment for Selling Spirituous Liquor to Indian.

That the defendant (naming him), on, etc., at, etc. (stating the time and place), sold and disposed of a quantity of spirituous liquor, to-wit, a pint of whiskey of the value of ten cents, to an Indian of this state, of the Miami nation of Indians, the name of which said Indian, to the jurors aforesaid is wholly unknown, contrary to the form of the statute and against the peace of the state. I. Caption of Indictment (a).

"Norfolk. At a general sessions of the peace, holden at S., in the county aforesaid, on the fifth day of October, in the twenty-fifth year of the reign, etc., before A. B., C. D., and their fellows, justices of our said lord the king, assigned to keep the peace of our said lord the king, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses and other misdemeanors in the same county committed, by the oath of G. H., E. F., etc., good and lawful men of the said county, sworn and charged to inquire for our said lord the king, and the body of the said county, it is presented," etc. 1 Chit. Cr. L. 326.

Note.—The caption formerly concluded "it is presented that," etc., but the preferable form is "it is presented in manner following," that is to say, "Middlesex, to-wit: The jurors, etc." 1 Chit. Cr. L. 334.

Although, in general, the caption does not appear until the return to a writ of certiorari, or a writ of error, yet, in case of high treason, the defendant is entitled to a copy of it in the first instance, after the finding of the indictment, in order that he may be acquainted with the names of the jurors by whom it was presented. The caption is no part of the indictment itself, it is only a copy of the style of the court at which the indictment was found. It is a formal statement of the proceedings, describing the court before which the indictment was found, the time and place where it was found, and the jurors by whom it was found, and these particulars it must set forth with sufficient certainty. The record of the prosecution will not be perfect without the caption, and would not be admissible in evidence. The above form is given by Lord Hale. 1 Chit. Cr. L. 326.

Caption of Indictment (b).

State of New York, county of Kings, ss.: Be it remembered, that, at a Court of Sessions, holden at the City Hall in the city of Brooklyn, in the county of Kings, on the ——— day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, Present, Hon. S. D. Morris, County Judge of said county, and Martin Schoonmaker and John A. Emmons, Esqs., Justices of the Sessions in and for the said county, sitting as such Court of Sessions, a grand jury, of good and lawful men, in and for said county of Kings, were then and there duly impaneled, and then and there duly sworn and charged by said court, to inquire into all offenses, as required by the statute in such case made and provided; whereupon it was afterwards presented by said jurors, at said term of said court, in the manner and form as follows, to-wit: (indictment). Dawson v. People, 25 N. Y. 399.

II. Commencement of Indictment.A. Commencement of Indictment, Ad-dition as Widow.

Middlesex. The jurors for our lord the king upon their oath present, that Elizabeth Powell, late of the parish of Saint Paul, Covent Garden, in the county of Middlesex, widow, on the twentieth day of February, in the sixth year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the Fourth, by the grace of God of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, king, defender of the Faith, with force and arms, at the said parish of Saint Paul, Covent Garden, in the said county of Middlesex, did, etc. (state offense). 2 Chit. Cr. L. 1.

B. Commencement of Indictment, Ad-dition as Yeoman.

D. Commencement of Indictment, Addition as Wife.

Essex. The jurors for our lord the king upon their oath present that E. D., wife of C. D., late of the parish of ———, in the county of Essex, yeoman, on, etc. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 2.

E. Commencement of Indictment for Offense on High Seas.

Admiralty of England. The jurors for our sovereign lord the king upon their oath present that C. D., late of ———, mariner, on, etc., with force and arms upon the high sea, near the coast of Malabar, in the East Indies, and within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England, in and on board of a certain ship, called the Adventure galley (whereof the said C. D. was then and there commander), then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did, etc. (state the offense and every fact to have happened within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England aforesaid; and, if for murder, conclude as follows): And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say that the aforesaid C. D., him the said A. B. upon the high sea aforesaid, in the ship aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of England aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought did kill and murder against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 3.

F. Commencement of a Second or Subsequent Count.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said C. D., on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, etc. (state the offense). 2 Chit. Cr. L. 3.

III. Conclusions of Indictment.

A. Conclusion of Indictment, Offense at Common Law (a).

In contempt of our said lord the king and his laws, to the evil example of all others, and against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 4.

Conclusion of Indictment (b).

To the great scandal, infamy, disgrace and damage of the said A. B., to the evil and pernicious example of all others, in contempt of our said lord the king, and his laws, and against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 4.

B. Conclusion of Indictment for Offense Under Statute.

Against the form of the statute (or statutes) in such case made and provided, and against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 4.

Contrary to the form of the statute of the state in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state.

Note.—Conclusions are necessary parts of the indictment, their form being frequently prescribed by state constitutions.

Note.—For matter in relation to endorsements and the formal requisites in general, see article on "Indictment and Information" in STANDARD PROCEDURE.

IV. Informations.

A. General Form of Information.

"Middlesex: Be it remembered that Christopher Robinson, esq., coroner and attorney of our lady the now queen, in the court of our lady the queen, before the queen herself, who prosecutes for our said lady the queen, in this behalf, in his proper person, comes here into the court of our said lady the queen, before the queen herself, at Westminster, on (Monday, next after eight days of the Holy Trinity, in this same term), and for our said lady the queen gives the court here to understand and be informed that," so proceeding to state the facts and circumstances constituting the offense with the same certainty and precision as in an indictment, and in the same form, and according to the same rules, excepting that, in introducing averments, instead of the words, "And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present," are used the words, "And the said coroner and attorney of our said lady the queen, who prosecutes as aforesaid, further gives the court here to understand and be informed, that," etc., so proceeding to state the offense, and concluding as in an indictment. And to the conclusion of the last count are added these words: "And therefore the said coroner and attorney of our said lady the queen prayeth the consideration of the court here in the premises, and that due process of law may be awarded against him the said J. S. in this behalf, to make him answer to our said lady the queen, touching and concerning the premises aforesaid." Archb. Cr. Pl. 77.

B. Information, ex Officio by Attorney-General.

Michaelmas term, in the 6th year of the reign of King George the fourth. Middlesex (to-wit).

Be it remembered that A. B., esquire, attorney-general of our sovereign lord the now king, who for our said lord the king prosecuteth in this behalf, in his proper person, comes here into the court of our said lord the king, before the king himself, at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, on ——— next after ———, in this same term, and for our said lord the king gives the court here to understand and be informed, that C. D., late of ——— yeoman, on, etc. (describe the offense precisely as in an indictment, and conclude each count the same as in an indictment, and if there be several counts, commence each as follows, and conclude the information as below).

And the said attorney-general of our said lord the king, who prosecutes as aforesaid, further gives the court here to understand and be informed, that the said C. D., on, etc. (state the offense as in a second count in an indictment, and conclude the whole as follows):

Whereupon the said attorney-general of our said lord the king, who for our said lord the king in this behalf prosecutes, for our said lord, the king, prays the consideration of the court here in the premises, and that due process of law may be awarded against the said C. D. in this behalf, to make him answer to our said lord the king, touching and concerning the premises aforesaid, etc. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 6.

To (the judge or officer to whom the petition is presented):

The petition of C. D., an infant under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of (twenty years and two months), respectfully sheweth:

That an action has been commenced against your petitioner, in the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, by A. B., for (here state the cause of action).

But as your petitioner is an infant, as above set forth, he prays that K. L., of (the city of Brooklyn, in the county of Kings, merchant), may be appointed the guardian of your petitioner in the defense of said suit according to the statute in such case made and provided. Burr. App. 235, §498.

B. Petition for Appointment of Prochein Ami for Infant Plaintiff.

To his honor (John W. Edmonds, circuit judge of the first circuit of the state of New York):

The petition of A. B., an infant, under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of (nineteen years and seven months), respectfully sheweth:

That your petitioner is about to commence a suit in the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, against C. D., for (here state the cause of action).

But as your petitioner is an infant, as above set forth, he prays that J. N., of (the city of New York, counselor-at-law), a competent and responsible person, may be appointed to prosecute the said suit for your petitioner, as his next friend, according to the statute in such case made and provided. Dated this (fifteenth day of February, 1840). Burr. App. 234, §497.

C. Order Appointing Guardian for Infant Defendant.

Ordered, that K. L., within (or above) named, be, and he is hereby appointed the guardian of C. D., the defendant in the suit mentioned in the within (or above) petition. Dated the (17th day of March, 1846). Burr. App. 221, §454.

D. Order Appointing Prochein Ami.

Ordered, that J. N., within (or above) named, be, and he is hereby appointed the next friend of A. B., in the suit mentioned in the within (or above) petition. Dated the ——— day of March, 18—. Burr. App. 221, §453; Yates' Forms 347.

E. Order That Defendant Procure Appointment of Guardian.

Ordered, that the defendant in this cause procure the appointment of a guardian therein, within ten days after the service of this order upon him, or that some discreet person will be appointed by me to be guardian for the said defendant, in the defense of the above entitled suit. Dated the ——— day of ———, 18—. Burr. App. 221, §455.

F. Order Appointing Guardian for Infant Defendant on Failure To Procure Appointment by Infant.

It appearing by affidavit that my former order, dated, etc., requiring the defendant in this cause to procure, etc. (reciting the first order), has not been complied with, on the part of the defendant, I do therefore hereby appoint P. S. H., esq., a discreet person, to be guardian for the said defendant, in the defense of the above entitled suit. Dated the ——— day of ———, 18—. Burr. App. 221, §456; Yates' Forms 347.

G. Bond by Prochein Ami To Infant for Moneys Which May Be Recovered.

Know all men by these presents, that we, ———, of ———, I. S., of ———, and I. N., of ———, are held and firmly bound unto A. B. (the infant), in the sum of ——— dollars (double the amount claimed in the suit), lawful money of the United States, to be paid to the said A. B. (penal part in the usual form).

The condition of this obligation is such that if the said ——— shall duly account to the said A. B. for all moneys which may be recovered in a certain suit about to be commenced in the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, by the said A. B. against C. D. for (state briefly the cause of action), and in which suit the said ——— hath been duly appointed the next friend of the said A. B., then this obligation to be void; otherwise to be in full force and virtue.

(Signatures and seals of obligors.)

Sealed and delivered in presence of (Endorsed.)

Approved this ——— day of ———, 1846.

J. W. E., circuit judge.

Burr. App. 511, §1028a.

II. Pleading at Common Law.

A. Declaration by Infant in King's Bench.

A. B., by E. F., who is admitted by the court of our lord the now king, before the king himself, here to prosecute for the said A. B., who is an infant within the age of twenty-one years, as the next friend of the said A. B., complains of C. D. being, etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 32; 2 Saund. 117f; Tidd's Pr. (9th ed.) 99.

Declaration by Infant in Common Pleas.

C. D. was attached to answer A. B. of a plea of trespass on the case (as the plea is), and thereupon the said A. B., by E. F., who is admitted by the court of our lord the king of the bench here, to prosecute for the said A. B., who is an infant within the age of twenty-one years, as the next friend of the said A. B., complains that where-as, etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 32.

B. Pleas.

1. Plea in Abatement of Infancy of Defendant.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by R. J., her guardian, by the court now here specially admitted to defend for her the said defendant, who is under the age of twenty-one years, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and prays judgment, etc. (the usual form), because she says that she the said C. D., at the day of the (exhibition of the bill aforesaid), was, and yet is, under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of nineteen years and no more, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And this she is ready to verify. Wherefore she prays judgment of the bill, etc., aforesaid (as in usual form), and that the same may be quashed, etc. (Add affidavit.) Burr. App. 333, §600; Lill. Ent. 3.

2. Plea in Abatement of Infancy of Plaintiff.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and prays judgment of the said bill (or writ) and declaration, because he says that the said plaintiff is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of (nineteen) years, to-wit, at ———, in the county aforesaid (the venue), and this he is ready to verify; wherefore, inasmuch as the said plaintiff hath sued therein in his own person, and not by his next friend, the said defendant prays judgment of the said bill (or writ) and declaration, and that the same may be quashed. Burr. App. 333, §599; Yates' Forms 108.

3. Plea of Infancy as Bar.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney (or, if the defendant be still an infant, say: "by K. L., admitted by the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, before the justices thereof, as guardian of the said defendant, to defend for the said defendant, who is an infant, under the age of twenty-one years"), comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that he the said defendant, at the time of the making of the said several supposed promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, was an infant within the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of (nineteen) years (the precise age is not material), to-wit, at, etc. (the venue). And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. Burr. App. 345, §632; 3 Chit. Pl. 909.

C. Replications.

1. Replication To Plea in Abatement of Infancy.

And the said plaintiff says that his said bill (or the said writ, or declaration), by reason of anything by the said defendant in his said plea alleged, ought not to be quashed, because he says that at the time of the commencement of this suit, he the said plaintiff was above the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of twenty-two years (without this that he was at the time an infant, under the age of twenty-one years). And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country. And the said defendant likewise, etc. Burr. App. 374, §677.

2. Replication To Plea of Infancy, Ratification After Coming of Age.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant, by him (secondly) above pleaded, says that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant,* because he says that the said defendant, after the making of the said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, and before the commencement of this suit, to-wit, on, etc. (the day of his becoming of age, but the precise day is not material), at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid, attained his age of twenty-one years. And the said plaintiff further says that the said defendant, after he had so attained his age of twenty-one years, and before the commencement of this suit, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid, assented to, and then and there ratified and confirmed the said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned. And this he the said plaintiff is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment and his damages by him sustained, on occasion of the non-performance of the said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 380, §694; 3 Chit. Pl. 1147.

3. Replication To Plea of Infancy, Goods Were Necessities.

A in last form to the *, inserting after the word "pleaded," the words, "so far as the same relates to the several promises and undertakings in the said (first, second, third, fourth and sixth) counts of the said declaration mentioned;" and adding the words, "in respect of the promises in those counts respectively mentioned," and then as follows: because he says that the said meat, drink, washing, lodging and other necessities in the said (first and second) counts of the said declaration respectively mentioned to have been found and provided by the said plaintiff for the said defendant, were, at the time of finding and providing the same meat, drink, washing, lodging and other necessities, suitable to the then degree, estate and condition of the said defendant, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, and that the said goods, wares and merchandise, in the said (third and fourth) counts of the said declaration respectively mentioned to have been sold and delivered by the said plaintiff to the said defendant, were, at the time of the sale and delivery thereof, also necessities suitable to the then degree, estate and condition of the said defendant, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid; and that the money in the said (sixth) count of the said declaration mentioned to have been paid, laid out and expended by the said plaintiff, to and for the use of the said defendant, was so paid, laid out and expended by the said plaintiff in and about the purchase of necessities, fit and suitable for the then degree, estate and condition of the said defendant, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. And this he the said plaintiff is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment, and his damages by him sustained on occasion of the not performing of the said several promises and undertakings in the said (first, second, third, fourth and sixth) counts of the said declaration mentioned, to be adjudged to him, etc. (Nolle prosequi as to residue.) And as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, so far as the same relates to the said several promises and undertakings in the said (fifth, seventh and last) counts of the said declaration mentioned, the said plaintiff saith that he will not further prosecute his suit against the said defendant in respect of the said last mentioned promises and undertakings, or any of them; therefore as to the said last mentioned promises and undertakings, let the said defendant be acquitted, and go thereof without day, etc. Burr. App. 381, §695; 3 Chit. Pl. 1146.

4. Replication, Traverse To Plea of Infancy.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, says that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof, against the said defendant, because he said that the said defendant, at the time of the making of his said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, was of the full age of twenty-one years, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid, and not within the age of twenty-one years, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above, in his said (second) plea in that behalf alleged. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 375, §679; 3 Chit. Pl. 1146.

5. Replication To Plea of Statute of Limitations, Plaintiff an Infant.

(As in II, C, 2, and then as follows): Because the said plaintiff says that at the time the said causes of action accrued to him (or her), he was an infant, under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, at, etc. And this, etc.

(conclude with verification). Burr. App. 384, §702.

D. Rejoinders.

1. Rejoinder, Traverse of Infancy in Replication To Plea of Statute of Limitations.

2. Rejoinder, Denial That Goods Were Necessities.

And the said defendant, as to the said replication of the said plaintiff to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says that the said plaintiff ought not by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him the said defendant, because he says that the said meat, drink, washing, lodging and other supposed necessities in the said (first and second counts) of the said declaration respectively mentioned to have been found and provided by the said plaintiff for the said defendant, and the said goods, wares and merchandise, in the said (third and fourth) counts of the said declaration respectively mentioned to have been sold and delivered by the said plaintiff to the said defendant, were not necessary or suitable to the then degree, estate and condition of him the said defendant, and that the said money in the said (sixth) count of the said declaration mentioned to have been paid, laid out and expended, by the said plaintiff to and for the use, and on the account of the said defendant, was not so paid, laid out and expended by the said plaintiff in and about the purchase of such necessities, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his said replication to the said (second) plea of the said defendant in that behalf alleged. And of this the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 390, §717; 3 Chit. Pl. 1220.

3. Rejoinder, Denial of Ratification of Contract.

And the said defendant, as to the said replication of the said plaintiff to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says that the said plaintiff ought not by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him the said defendant, because he says that he the said defendant did not, after he had attained the age of twenty-one years, and before the commencement of this suit, assent to, ratify or confirm the said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, or any or either of them, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his said replication in that behalf alleged. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country. (And the said plaintiff likewise, etc.) Burr. App. 389, §716; 3 Chit. Pl. 1221.

III. Pleadings Under the Code.

A. Complaint by Infant Showing Appointment of Guardian ad Litem (a).

A. B., an infant, by C. D., his guardian, plaintiff, against Y. Z., defendant.

The plaintiff complaining of the defendant alleges:

I. That the plaintiff is an infant, under the age of twenty-one years.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, upon application duly made on his behalf, the said C. D. was, by an order of this court (or by an order made by Hon. _____, a judge of this court; or by Hon. _____, county judge for _____ county), duly appointed the guardian of the plaintiff for the purposes of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 145.

Complaint by Infant Plaintiff, Showing Appointment of Guardian ad Litem (Short Form) (b).

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the above named _____ was, by Hon. _____, a justice of this court (or county judge of _____ county), duly appointed guardian of the plaintiff for the purposes of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 145.

B. Answers.

1. Answer in Abatement, Infancy of Plaintiff.

That the plaintiff is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and has no guardian appointed herein. 2 Abb. Forms 24.

2. General Answer of Infant or Lunatic in Foreclosure, Partition, Etc.

This defendant, answering by his said guardian, says that he is a stranger to all and singular the matters and things in the complaint in this action set forth, and that he is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and claims such interest in the premises as he is entitled to; and he submits his rights and interests in the matters in question in this action to the protection of the court. 2 Abb. Forms 166.

3. Answer, Infancy of Defendant in Bar.

That at the time of making the supposed contract (and of the delivery of the goods, or other consideration) alleged, he was under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, _____ years of age. 2 Abb. Forms 41.

4. Answer, Infancy and Want of Discretion as To Hired Horse.

I. That at the time of the supposed grievances alleged in the complaint, said horse was in the possession of the defendants by virtue of a contract of bailment for hire; and that the alleged beating and fatiguing by over-driving, occurred and took place through the unskilfulness and the want of knowledge, discretion and judgment of the defendant.

II. That on the termination of the contract of bailment the defendant returned and redelivered to the plaintiff the said horse in full life.

III. That at the time of the bailment, and of the committing of the supposed grievances, the defendant was under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, _____ years of age. 2 Abb. Forms 120.

5. Answer, Ratification by Infant After Coming of Age.

I. That said (infant), after the making of said deed, attained the age of twenty-one years.

II. That thereupon (or afterwards), and on or about the _____ day of _____, 18—, and before this action, he assented to, ratified and confirmed the same, with full knowledge of the facts. 2 Abb. Forms 165.

IV. Infancy as Error of Fact.

A. Assignment, Infancy as an Error of Fact.

Afterwards, to-wit, on the (first Monday of May), in this same term, before the said justices of the supreme court aforesaid, at the (city hall in the city of New York), comes the said C. D., by G. H., his attorney, and says that in the record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in giving the judgment aforesaid, there is manifest error, to-wit, that he the said C. D. appeared in the suit aforesaid, by W. S., his attorney; nevertheless the said C. D., at the time of his said appearance, and also at the time of giving the judgment aforesaid, was under the age of twenty-one years, to-wit, of the age of ——— years, and no more; to-wit, at, etc.; in which case the said C. D. ought to have been admitted to appear in the court aforesaid, to defend the suit aforesaid, by his guardian, and not by his attorney; therefore in that there is manifest error. And this he the said C. D. is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays that the judgment aforesaid, for the error aforesaid, may be revoked, annulled and altogether held for nothing, and that he may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the judgment aforesaid, etc.

G. H., attorney for plaintiff in error.

B. Plea To Assignment of Error of Infancy as an Error of Fact.

And hereupon the said A. B., by E. F., his attorney, freely here in court comes and says that by reason of anything above for error assigned, the judgment aforesaid ought not to be revoked, annulled or held for nothing; because he says that the said C. D., at the time of his said appearance, to-wit, in the term of ———, and also at the time of giving the judgment aforesaid, was of the full age of twenty-one years, to-wit, at ——— aforesaid. And of this he the said A. B. puts himself upon the country, etc. E. F., attorney for defendant in error.

Burr. App. 414, §772; Till. Forms 154.

V. Judgment Records.

A. Verdict for Plaintiff, Plea of Infancy in Assumpsit.

That the said defendant, at the time of making of the said several promises and undertakings above mentioned, was not within the age of twenty-one years, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in that behalf alleged: and they assess, etc. Burr. App. 419, §785.

B. Verdict for Defendant on Several Issues, Infancy, Not Necessities, No Ratification.

That (the said defendant, at the time of the making of the several promises, in the first and second counts of the said declaration mentioned, was an infant, within the age of twenty-one years, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in that behalf alleged): And as to the second issue above joined between the said parties, the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, say that (the goods, wares and merchandise in the third and fourth counts of the said declaration mentioned, were not necessary or suitable to the degree, estate or condition of the said defendant, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in that behalf alleged): And as to the last issue above joined between the said parties, the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, say that (the said defendant did not, after he attained the age of twenty-one years, assent to, ratify or confirm the several promises or undertakings in the fifth and sixth counts of the said declaration mentioned, or any of them, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in that behalf alleged. Burr. App. 426, §813; Archb. Forms 146.

VI. In Equity.

A. Decree Nisi Against Infant.

And this decree is to be binding on the defendants, the infants, unless they shall respectively, within six months after attaining their respective ages of twenty-one years, on being served with subpoena to show cause against this decree, show unto this court good cause to the contrary. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2292; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 685.

B. Decree Absolute Against Infant.

Upon motion, etc., by counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the defendant A. attained the age of 21 years on the ——— day of ———, and that the said defendant was, on the ——— day of ———, duly served with a subpoena to show cause against the decree made in this cause, dated, etc., as by the affidavit of, etc., filed, etc., appears, and no cause having been shown to the contrary thereof, as by the ———'s certificate also appears, and upon reading, etc., this court doth order that the said decree be made absolute against the said defendant A.

3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2293; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 685.

C. Decree, Infants Not Bound, Former Accounts To Be Adopted, if Beneficial.

This court doth "declare that the plaintiffs are entitled to the benefit of the decree dated, etc., and the several proceedings under the same, and subsequent or previous thereto, against all the defendants to this (supplemental) cause, except the infant defendant H., the only son of the defendant J., and the first tenant in tail in esse under the testator's will; and doth also declare that the said decree and orders, and the accounts taken under the same, are not binding on the said defendant, the infant." Usual accounts of personalty, and inquiries as to realty, any accounts settled in testator's lifetime not to be disturbed. "And if it shall appear to be for the benefit of the infant defendant H. to adopt any of the accounts already taken under the decree and orders in the original cause, such accounts are to be adopted to such extent, or in such respects as shall appear to be for the benefit of the said infant defendant." And this decree is to be without prejudice as between the plaintiff and all the defendants except the said infant, to any of the decrees and orders, proceedings and arrangements, made prior to the date hereof. Adjourn, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2294; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 690, 691; Baillie v. Engance, 10 Sim. (Eng.) 167.

D. Order Appointing Guardian of Person and Maintenance.

(This, etc.) appoint B., of, etc., guardian of the person of A., the infant, during his minority, or until further order; and it is ordered by the court that the sum of $—— a year be allowed for the maintenance and education of the said infant for the time past, from the —— day of ——, the time of the death of C., his father, and for the time to come during his minority; and he paid to the said B., his guardian, during his minority, or until further order, by equal half-yearly payments of $—— each, on the —— day of ——, and the —— day of —— in each year, the first of such payments to be made on the —— day of ——, out of the interest from time to time to accrue due on the, etc. Standing, etc. (or by the receiver appointed in this cause, out of the rents and profits of the estates of said A., the infant). And let such payments be allowed the said receiver from time to time in passing his accounts. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2295; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 700.

E. Order for Increase of Maintenance of Infant.

It is ordered that the sum of $—— a year be allowed in addition to the said sum of $—— a year, allowed by the order dated, etc., making together the sum of $—— a year, for the maintenance and education of A., the infant, for the time to come during his minority (or such increased allowance to commence on, or as from); and be paid to, etc. (as in form above). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2295.

A. B. complains of C. D., heir of E. F., deceased, being in the custody of the marshal of the Marshalsea of our lord the now king, before the king himself, of a plea, that he render to him the said plaintiff the sum of ———l. of good and lawful money of Great Britain, which he owes to and unjustly detains from him. For that whereas the said E. F. in his lifetime, whose heir the said defendant is, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) by his certain writing obligatory, sealed with his seal, and now shown, etc. (state the profert or excuse. See "Oyer and Profert") acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound to the said plaintiff in the said sum of ———l. above demanded, to be paid to the said plaintiff whenever he, the said E. F., should be thereunto afterwards requested, for which payment to be well and truly made, he the said E. F. bound himself and his heirs firmly by the said writing obligatory. Nevertheless, the said E. F. in his lifetime, and the said defendant since the death of the said E. F. (although often requested so to do) have not, nor hath either of them, as yet paid the said sum of ————l. or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but the said E. F. in his lifetime, and the said defendant since his decease, have hitherto wholly refused, and the said defendant still wholly refuses so to do; to the damage, etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 468.

II. Declaration Against Heir and Devisee of Obligor.

A. B. complains of C. D. and E. F. which said C. D. is heir of G. H., deceased, and which said E. F. is devisee of the said G. H. of divers lands and tenements of the said G. H., deceased, by his last will and testament being in the custody, etc., of a plea, that they render to him, the said A. B. £——— of lawful, etc., which they owe to and unjustly detain from him. For that whereas the said G. H., of whom the said C. D. is heir, and the said E. F. is devisee as aforesaid, in his lifetime, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) by his certain writing obligatory, sealed with his seal, and to the court, etc. (profert. See "Oyer and Profert") acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the said plaintiff in the said sum of £——— above demanded, to be paid to the said plaintiff, when he the said G. H. should be thereunto requested, and for which payment well and truly to be made, the said G. H. did, by the said writing obligatory, bind himself and his heirs to the said plaintiff. Nevertheless, the said G. H. in his lifetime, and the said defendant his heir, and the said E. F., devisee as aforesaid (although often requested so to do) have not, nor hath either of them, as yet paid the sum of £——— above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but to pay the same to the said plaintiff have wholly neglected and refused, and the said C. D. and E. F. still neglect and refuse to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff; to the damage, etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 469.

III. Plea of Rien Per Descend by Heir.

And the said defendant by E. F., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says, that he ought not to be charged with the said debt by virtue of the said supposed writing obligatory (or indenture, etc.) Because he saith, that he the said defendant hath not, nor at the time of the exhibiting the bill of the said plaintiff, in this behalf (or, if in C. P. or by original, "at the time of the commencement of this suit") nor at any time before or since, had any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by descent from his said father (or brother, etc., according to the fact), in fee simple, and this he is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment, if he, as son (or brother, etc.) and heir of the said G. H., deceased, ought to be charged with the said debt, by virtue of the said writing obligatory. 3 Chit. Pl. 974.

IV. Replication to Plea of Rien Per Descend, That Defendant Had Assets at Time of Commencement of Suit.

(Precludi non.) Because he saith, that the said defendant hath, and at the time of the exhibiting of the said bill of the said plaintiff (or, if in C. P. or by original, "at the commencement of this suit") had sufficient lands, tenements and hereditaments by descent from his said father ("or brother," etc., according to the fact) in fee simple, wherewith the said defendant could and might and ought to have satisfied the said debt of the said plaintiff above demanded. And this the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1174.

V. Replication to Plea of Rien Per Descend, That Defendant Had Assets Before Commencement of Suit.

(Precludi non.) Because, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, he saith, that the said defendant after the death of the said E. F., his father, and before the day of exhibiting the said plaintiff's bill in this behalf (or, if in C. P. or, by original, say, "before the commencement of this suit"), to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, had divers lands and tenements by hereditary descent as heir to the said E. F. in fee simple, whereby he might have satisfied the said plaintiff the debt and damages aforesaid. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1174.

VI. Complaint Against Heir by Creditor of Deceased.

I. State facts showing a debt of the decedent, due and still unpaid.

II. That on the ———— day of

_____, 18____, at _____, said (decedent), being owner in fee (or otherwise) of the property hereinafter described, died intestate (as to said property); and that more than three years before this action, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, letters of administration upon the estate of said (decedent) were duly issued and granted to one M. N. by the surrogate of the county of _____, of this state, appointing said M. N. administrator of all the goods, chattels, and credits which were of said deceased (or, if he left a will, the probate and issue of letters may be alleged, as in the preceding form).

III. That the defendant is the sole heir (or, defendants are the only heirs) of said deceased, and that the following described premises descended from the deceased to him (them) as such: (description of premises).

IV. That the personal assets of said (decedent) were not sufficient to pay and discharge the plaintiff's demand.

Or, IV. That the said (decedent) left no personal assets within this state to be administered (except a small amount, in value not exceeding _____ dollars, which is not sufficient to pay and discharge the plaintiff's demand).

Or, IV. That after due proceedings before the surrogate's court of the county of _____, by (stating briefly what), the plaintiff has been unable to collect his said debt (except the sum of _____ dollars) from the personal representatives of said (decedent, or, from his next of kin, or, legatees).

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment that said premises be sold, and the sum of _____ dollars, with interest thereon from the _____ day of _____, together with costs of this action, be paid to the plaintiff out of the proceeds thereof. 1 Abb. Forms 534.

VII. Complaint by Creditor of Deceased Against Next of Kin.

I. (State facts showing a debt of the decedent, due and still unpaid).

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, said (decedent) died intestate; and that on the _____ day of _____, 18____, letters of administration upon the estate of said (decedent) were granted to one M. N., by an order duly made by the surrogate of the county of _____,

of this state, appointing said M. N. administrator of all the goods, chattels, and credits which were of said deceased (or, allege death, leaving a will, etc., as in next form).

III. That before the commencement of this action said administrator (or, executor) paid over assets of the estate to the defendant, who is one of the next of kin (or, to the defendants, who are the next of kin) of the deceased, amounting to the sum of _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 533.

VIII. Complaint Against Heir or Devisee Where He Has Conveyed Land.

As in either preceding form, adding:

V. That the defendant did, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, convey said mentioned premises to one O. P., and that the premises so conveyed by him were reasonably worth _____ dollars.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment for (the amount of the debt, but not exceeding the value of the premises, etc.). 1 Abb. Forms 536.

IX. Answer by Heir or Devisee, Nothing by Descent or Devise.

That he had not at the commencement of this action (or, at any time before or since), any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by descent from his said father (or, brother, or otherwise as in complaint), (or, by devise from said testator). 2 Abb. Forms 159.

X. Bill by Next of Kin for Share (a).

Humbly complaining show unto your honors, your orator and oratrixes, S. M., of, etc., C. M., of, etc., widow, and A. L. of etc., widow, that A. M., late of, etc., gentleman, was, in his lifetime and at the time of his death, possessed of and well entitled to a considerable personal estate, consisting of moneys in the funds, debts due to him, household goods, plate, linen, china, wearing apparel, and divers other effects of a considerable amount and value, and particularly was possessed of a large number of shares in the stock of _____. And your orator and oratrixes further show that the said A. M., in and about the month of, etc., departed this life, intestate, and without issue, leaving F. M., his wife, one of the defendants hereinafter named, and your orator, his brother, and your oratrixes, his sisters and only next of kin him surviving. And your orator and oratrixes further show, that since the death of the said intestate, the said F. M., his wife, has obtained letters of administration of the goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the said intestate to be granted to her, by and out of the proper court, and has, by virtue thereof, possessed herself of the personal estate and effects of the said intestate to a very large amount and value, and much more than sufficient to pay and satisfy his just debts and funeral expenses, exclusively of the said shares of stock. And the plaintiffs further show, that being entitled as brothers and sisters of the said intestate to a distributive share of his personal estate, the plaintiffs have frequently, by themselves and their agents, applied to the said F. M. and requested her to come to a full and true account with the plaintiffs for the personal estate and effects of said intestate, and to pay them respectively one-third part each of one moiety of the clear residue thereof, with which just and reasonable requests the plaintiffs hoped the said F. M. would have complied. But now so it is, etc. And the said defendant pretends that the personal estate and effects of the said A. M. were small and inconsiderable, and not more than sufficient to pay and satisfy his debts and funeral expenses, and that she has applied all such personal estate and effects in a due course of administration. Whereas the plaintiffs charge the contrary thereof to be the truth, and so it would appear if the defendant would set forth, as she ought to do, a full and true account of all and every the personal estate and effects of the said intestate, which have been possessed or received by the said defendant, or by her order, or to her use, and of her application thereof. And the plaintiffs further charge that the said F. M. has declared to several persons that she means to obtain a transfer of the said shares of stock and to sell and dispose of the same and to withdraw herself to ———, with the produce thereof; and the corporations, in which such stock is held, intend to permit her to make such transfer. All which actings, etc.

And that the defendants may answer the premises, and that an account may be taken by and under the direction of this honorable court of the personal estate and effects of the said intestate,

A. M., possessed by or come to the hands of said defendant, F. M., his widow and administratrix, or to the hands of any other person or persons, by her order or for her use; and also an account of the said intestate's debts and funeral expenses, and that the said intestate's personal estate may be applied in a due course of administration, and that the clear residue thereof may be ascertained, and that the plaintiffs respectively may be paid one-third part each of one moiety of such clear residue, and that in the meantime the said defendant, F. M., may be restrained by the injunction of this honorable court from selling or disposing of or transferring the said stock, and that the ——— may be restrained from permitting such sale or transfer. (And for further relief.)

May it please, etc.

(Pray subpoena and injunction against F. M., and the said ——— [corporations].). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2022.

Bill by Next of Kin for Share (b).

1. A. B., late of, etc., deceased, was, at the time of his death, possessed and entitled of and to a considerable personal estate.

2. The said A. B. died on the ——— day of ———, (a widower and) intestate, leaving the plaintiffs and ——— and ———, his children and sole next of kin, him surviving.

3. On the ——— day of ——— the defendant procured letters of administration to the goods, chattels, and credits of the said A. B. to be granted to him by the proper court for that purpose, and the said defendant thereby became and now is the sole legal personal representative of the said A. B.

4. The defendant, as such administrator as aforesaid, has taken possession of all the movable chattels of the said A. B., and has received certain sums of money in respect of debts which were owing to the said A. B. at the time of his decease.

5. The assets of the said A. B., which have come to the hands of the defendant, were and are much more than sufficient for payment of all the debts and funeral expenses of the said A. B., and he has paid or ought to have paid the same.

6. The defendant has, in fact, in his hands, a large surplus or residue in respect of the intestate's personal estate, which is divisible and ought to be divided amongst the plaintiffs and the said ——— and ———, as his sole next of kin.

7. The plaintiffs have applied to the defendant to furnish them with an account of the personal estate of the intestate, and of the application thereof, and to divide the residue thereof amongst the plaintiffs and the said ——— and ———, but he has refused so to do.

Prayer.

The plaintiffs pray as follows:

1. That an account may be taken of the personal estate of the intestate, come to the hands of the defendant, or of any person or persons by his order or for his use.

2. That an account may be taken of the debts and funeral expenses of the intestate.

3. That the clear residue of the personal estate of the intestate may be ascertained, and that one equal ——— part of such residuary estate may be decreed to be paid to each of the plaintiffs, and that another equal ——— part thereof may be decreed to be paid to the defendant, and to each of them, the said ——— and ———.

4. (Prayer for general relief.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2024.

XI. Decree in Favor of Heirs, Declaring Void Deed Obtained of Their Ancestor by Imposition.

This cause came on to be heard by consent of counsel, at the last term of this court, and was argued by counsel; and thereupon, upon consideration thereof, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed by the court as follows, viz.: that the deeds of conveyance dated the ninth day of May, 1805, and executed by C. W. to A. H., in the pleadings mentioned, ought not to be permitted to stand as absolute and bona fide conveyances to the said A. H., the same having been obtained from the said C. W. by the said A. H., by imposition upon him, he being at the time of the execution thereof in a state of great mental and bodily weakness, as well from the visitation of Providence as from his extreme old age. And it is further ordered, decreed, and declared by the court, that, under all the circumstances of the case, the same deeds of conveyances ought to be permitted to stand as security for any advances made, and charges incurred, and allowances due, to the said A. H., by reason of the premises stated in the pleadings, but no further; and as to all other purposes the same are to be held and decreed to be utterly void; and the same is hereby ordered and decreed accordingly.

And it is further ordered and decreed by the court, that it be referred to A. B., Esquire, a master for this purpose, to take an account of all debts, claims, and dues between the said A. H. and the said C. W., during his lifetime; and in taking such account, the said master is to charge the said A. H. with all the personal estate received by him from the said C. W., including that conveyed by deed of gift to his wife, as in the pleadings mentioned, and also with all the rents and profits of said real estates; and the said A. H. is to be allowed credits for all advances made, and charges incurred, and allowances due, for labor and services to and for the said C. W. during his lifetime; and also credit for all repairs and improvements made by the said A. H., in and about the same real estates. And the said master is also to take in like manner an account of all the rents and profits of the same real estates since the death of the said C. W., and is in like manner to be allowed credit for all repairs and improvements on the same estates during the same period. And the said master is to give notice of his meetings, for the purpose of taking into consideration the premises, to all the parties in interest.

And all further orders and directions are reserved until the coming in of the master's report. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2281; Harding v. Wheaton, 2 Mason (U. S.) 390-392.

A. Prayer for Injunction.

1. Prayer for Injunction and for Subpoena.

May it please your honors to grant unto your orator (or to the plaintiff) not only a writ of injunction, issuing out of, and under the seal of this honorable court, to be directed unto the said C. D., etc., etc., to restrain them, their servants, workmen and agents from committing waste, etc., but also a writ of subpoena, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1907.

See "How To Use This Volume," Introduction, page v.

2. Prayer for Injunction Against Transfer of Property.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays that the said H. E. may be enjoined from passing the said property of the Columbia Insurance Company now in his possession, into the possession of said insurance company, or of any agent or officer thereof, without the order and direction of this honorable court, and that the said H. E. may discover under oath what promissory notes and other property of the said insurance company may now be in his possession or under his control, and that he may be required to deliver up the same into the custody of this honorable court, and that the amount of the debts due from the said insurance company to the plaintiff on said policies of insurance may be fixed and determined, and that so much of the property of said insurance company now in the hands of the said H. E. as may be necessary for that purpose may be applied for the payment of the debt due to the plaintiff from said insurance company as aforesaid, and to grant the plaintiff such other and further relief as to justice and equity may appertain.

To this end may it please your honors to grant unto your orator not only your writ of injunction to be directed to the said H. E., and said company, restraining him from putting away said promissory notes and other property, and directing him to place the same in the custody of such person or persons as your honors may appoint, but also, etc. (prayer for subpoena against said H. E. and the Columbia Insurance Company). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1963; Silloway v. Columbia Ins. Co., 8 Gray (Mass.) 199.

3. Prayer for Injunction Against Working Quarry.

And that in the meantime the said L. M. and his agents and workmen may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from getting, taking, and carrying away any stone from the said quarry, except for building and other purposes in and upon N. farm aforesaid. (General relief.) May it please, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1964.

4. Prayer for Injunction Against Receiving Partnership Debts (a).

And that in the meantime the said defendant W. P. may be restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from collecting or receiving any partnership debts or other moneys, and that some proper person may be appointed to collect and receive the same; and that proper directions may be given for the conduct and management of the said partnership business in future, for the joint and equal benefit of your orator and the said W. P. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1968.

Prayer for Injunction Against Receiving Partnership Debts (b).

And that in the meantime the said defendant C. B. may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from collecting or receiving the partnership debts or other moneys. (And for further relief, etc.) May it please, etc.

Pray subpoena against C. F., and subpoena and injunction against C. B. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1969.

5. Prayer To Restrain Proceedings at Law, and for Injunction.

And that the said C. D., etc., their counselors, attorneys, solicitors, officers or agents, may be restrained by an injunction issuing out of this court, from proceeding further against your orator (or the plaintiff) in the said action commenced against him in the, etc., court of, etc., and now pending and at issue therein, for the recovery of, etc. And that your orator (or the plaintiff) may have, etc. (Prayer for general relief.) May it please your honor to grant unto your orator (or the plaintiff) a writ of injunction, issuing out of and under the seal of this honorable court, to be directed to the said C. D., etc., etc., commanding them and each of them absolutely to desist and refrain from proceeding further against your orator (or the plaintiff) in said action. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1904.

B. Notice of Motion for Special Injunction.

Take notice, etc., etc., that the defendant ——— and his agents (workmen and servants), may be restrained from (here follows the prayer in the bill) until the hearing of this cause, or the further order of the court. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2150.

C. Orders for Injunctions.

1. Order for Injunction on Notice or ex Parte, on Undertaking.

Upon motion, etc., by counsel for the plaintiff, and upon hearing counsel for the defendant (or reading an affidavit of notice of this motion to the defendant, or if moved ex parte before the defendant has appeared to the bill, the clerk's certificate of the filing of the plaintiff's bill in this cause on the — day of —). Enter affidavit in support, and in opposition, if any; and if ex parte, add: And the plaintiff, by his counsel, undertaking to abide by any order this court may make as to damages, in case this court should hereafter be of opinion that the defendant shall have sustained any, by reason of this order, which the plaintiff ought to pay, if so and also undertaking to accept short notice of motion to dissolve the injunction hereby awarded), this court doth order that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendants A., his servants, workmen and agents from, etc.; until the hearing of this cause, or until the further order of this court. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2305.

2. Ex Parte Interim Order for Injunction.

Usual undertaking as to damage (form above). Let the defendant, his servants, workmen and agents, be restrained from, etc.; until after the — day of —, or until the further order of this court. (If so, and let the plaintiff be at liberty to serve the defendant with a notice of motion for the — day of — for an injunction in this cause.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2305.

3. Order for ex Parte Injunction.

Upon the application of the plaintiffs, and upon reading an affidavit of, etc. (enter evidence); and the plaintiffs, by their solicitors, having undertaken, etc. (form above), and having signed, etc., to that effect, accordingly this court doth order that an injunction be awarded, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2305; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 867.

D. Dissolution.

1. Notice of Motion To Dissolve Injunction.

Take notice, etc., etc., that the injunction issued in this cause may be dissolved, with costs. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2153.

2. Order, Injunction Dissolved or Continued on Motion.

Upon motion, etc., by counsel for the defendant (if plaintiff appears, and upon hearing counsel for the plaintiff), and upon reading the order dated, etc. (enter affidavits and answers, if any, and if plaintiff does not appear, an affidavit of service of notice of this motion on the plaintiff). This court doth order that the injunction awarded by the said order dated, etc., do stand dissolved (or be continued until the hearing of this cause, or until the further order of this court). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2324.

3. Injunction Continued on the Hearing.

And it is ordered that the injunction awarded against the defendant H. by the order dated, etc., be continued until further order of this court. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2325.

E. Decrees.

1. Decree Making Injunction Perpetual at Hearing.

This court doth order that the injunction granted (awarded) in this cause to restrain the defendants, their servants, agents or workmen from printing, publishing or vending a book, comedy, or farce called, etc., or any part thereof, be made perpetual; and the plaintiff (by his counsel) waiving the account prayed by the bill, the court doth not think fit to direct any account. Defendants to pay plaintiff's costs. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2325; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 944.

2. Decree for Mandatory Injunction, Enjoining Return of Documents.

This court doth order that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendant H. from detaining and keeping possession of the books, deeds, documents and papers removed as mentioned in the plaintiffs' affidavit by the said defendant, or by his order, from the chambers occupied by the plaintiffs, for retaining which no written authority has been produced by the defendant, as mentioned in the plaintiffs' affidavit of, etc., or any of them, except the five boxes not claimed by the plaintiffs, and from permitting the same or any or either of them, except the said five boxes, to remain away from the office of the plaintiffs, or from parting with the books, etc., removed by the defendant, or by his order, from the chambers occupied by the plaintiffs, or any of them, except the five boxes, to any person or persons other than the plaintiffs, and from destroying, mutilating or obliterating the said books, etc., or any or either of them, except as aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof respectively, or any entries or entry therein, or from making any alteration, interlineation or erasure in the same, or any of them; until, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2323; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 936.

3. Decree, General, Restraining a Town and Its Officers.

And the inhabitants of the said town of B., and all their officers and servants, are hereby enjoined and commanded that they apply the said money to the payment of the legal debts and liabilities of the town, and to no other purpose; and that they shall not at any time, by their vote, or by taxation, or by pledge of the credit of the town, or by the use of its funds, or in any other manner, make any provision, directly or indirectly, for the payment of the money mentioned in the said claims of J. H. and S. O. M., and of E. B. G., set forth in the bill, nor any part thereof, or for the indemnity, in whole or in part, of any person or persons by whom said sums of money have been paid or may hereafter be paid, in whole or in part, or of any person who may be interested in the same, or in any way directly or indirectly, to evade the true intent and effect of this decree. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2323; Frost v. Belmont, 6 Allen (Mass.) 152.

4. Decree To Restrain Use of Real Estate in Violation of Agreement.

And now this cause having been fully heard, it is ordered and decreed that the demurrer be overruled. Thereupon the said defendants, by the agreement of their counsel on file in the cause, do consent that the plaintiff's bill be taken as confessed by them, and all the facts therein stated as fully proved and established on the part of said plaintiffs; and that thereupon this court shall render such final decree in favor of the plaintiffs as by the law of this commonwealth and the facts so established they are properly entitled to have, and according to the prayer of their bill, with taxable costs in favor of said plaintiffs.

The court doth thereupon decree that the said defendants, and each of them, their agents, assistants and abettors, be forever hereafter perpetually enjoined, and they are hereby enjoined, to desist and refrain from all use of the premises numbered two on Hayward Place aforesaid, or any portion of the same; and from appropriating or applying the same to the purposes of a restaurant, eating house, saloon, or any similar use, by whatever name called or known, and from all use or application of said lot, or the buildings thereon, or any portion of the same, for any purpose whatever, except that of a "dwelling house only," and that in the ordinary common acceptance of that term.

And it is further decreed that the plaintiffs recover of the defendants their legal, taxable costs in the premises.

And it is further ordered that the clerk of this court do issue a proper writ of injunction, for the carrying the other portions of this decree into effect, on application of the plaintiffs, at any time after the first day of May next.

By the court.

—, clerk.

F. Writ of Injunction.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

S——, ss. To H. E., of B., in said county, his servants, agents, attorneys and counselors, and each and every of them, greeting:

Whereas it has been represented unto the justices of our supreme judicial court, now holden at Boston, within and for said county, sitting as a court of chancery, that the Columbia Insurance Company, of Columbia, South Carolina, is a foreign insurance company, and that said company is largely indebted to D. S., of N., in the county of E., as in said D. S.'s bill of complaint, this day filed in our said court, is alleged, and that the said company have no property in this commonwealth which can be come at to be attached or taken on execution, and that you the said H. E. have a large amount of the property of the said company now in your possession; consisting chiefly of valuable promissory notes belonging to said company.

We, therefore, in consideration of the premises, do strictly enjoin and command you the said H. E., and all and every the persons before named, from passing any promissory notes or other property now in your possession, or under your control, belonging to the said Columbia Insurance Company, into the possession of any person whatever, and especially not into the possession or control of the said company, or any officer or agent of the same; but to keep and retain the same in your own hands, until the further order of our said court or some one of the justices thereof.

Witness, L. S., esquire, at B., this _____ day of _____,

_____, clerk.

3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2324.

G. Committal for Breach of Injunction.

Whereas the plaintiff on the _____ day of _____, obtained an injunction (recite injunction; or, if writ not issued and served, whereas by an order dated, etc. Recite order for injunction). Now, upon motion, etc., and upon (if the defendant appears, hearing counsel for the defendant and) reading (if the defendant does not appear, an affidavit of, etc., filed, etc., of notice of this motion to the defendant) the said order, the affidavit of, etc. (enter evidence); and this court, being of opinion, upon consideration of the facts disclosed by the said affidavit of, etc. (or the said affidavits) that the said defendant has been guilty of a contempt of this court by a breach of the said injunction, doth order that the said defendant A. do stand committed to the _____ prison for his said contempt. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2325; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed., 1862) 945.

II. Under the Codes.

A. Complaints.

1. Complaint To Restrain Negotiation of Bill or Note.

(Allege making of note for specified object, and its failure.)

II. That the defendant still retains said note in his possession; and though, on the _____ day of _____, 18— the plaintiff requested him to deliver it up, he refused so to do.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands:

1. That the defendant be enjoined from negotiating, transferring or enforcing the same.

2. That it be delivered up and canceled.

3. And for the costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 566.

2. Complaint on Note Against Maker and Indorser, and To Enjoin Withdrawal of Collateral Securities Held by Indorser.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the defendant (maker), for the purpose of inducing the plaintiff to sell him certain goods, agreed to give him, in payment therefor, the said defendant's promissory note, indorsed by the defendant (indorser); and represented to the plaintiff that the said (indorser) would be adequately indemnified, by collateral security, for his indorsement.

II. That the plaintiff was thereby induced to sell and deliver to the said (maker) certain goods, of the value of _____ dollars.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in consideration thereof, the said (maker), by his promissory note, promised to pay to the order of the said (indorser) _____ dollars, _____ months (or days) after said date.

IV. That the said (indorser) indorsed the same to the plaintiff.

V. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the same was presented to the said (maker) for payment, but was not paid.

VI. That due notice thereof was given to said (indorser).

VII. That the same has not yet been paid.

VIII. That the said (maker), when he procured the said indorsement from the said (indorser), lodged with him six promissory notes, for the aggregate sum of _____ dollars, made by one M. N., and indorsed by the said defendant (maker) as security for such indorsement.

IX. That the said defendant (maker) is endeavoring to withdraw the said notes from the said (indorser), in order to prevent their application in payment of the demand of plaintiff on the said indorsement.

X. That the plaintiff has requested the said (indorser) to apply the said notes to the payment of the plaintiff's said claim, but he refuses to do so.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. For _____ dollars, with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18—.

2. That the notes placed in the hands of the said (indorser), as security, be applied to the payment of the said sum.

3. That the defendants be restrained by injunction from disposing of the said notes to any person other than the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 566.

B. Notice of Motion for Injunction.

Please take notice that on the complaint in this action (and on the annexed affidavit) the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard (or will move before Mr. Justice ———, at his office, in the city of ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon),* for an injunction order to restrain the defendant, his agents and servants, from (here state concisely for what the injunction is required, as, for example, in III, A, 1, III, L); and for such other or further order as may be just. 2 Abb. Forms 328.

C. Notice of Motion for Injunction in Interpleader.

(As in preceding form to the *, continuing): that the plaintiff may be at liberty within ten days to pay into this court, in trust in this cause, the sum of ——— dollars, in the pleadings of this cause mentioned, and to deposit in such manner as the court shall direct, the two promissory notes in the complaint mentioned, for the sums of ——— and ——— dollars respectively; and that upon his so doing an injunction may be awarded to restrain the said defendant Y. Z. from (here state acts to be restrained); and for such other or further order as may be just (and for the costs of this motion). 2 Abb. Forms 328.

D. Undertaking on Injunction in Ordinary Cases.

Whereas the plaintiff is about to apply (or has applied) for an injunction restraining the above named Y. Z. from (state very briefly the object of the injunction):

Now, therefore, we (the said A. B., of ———, and) C. D., of No. ——— street, in the city of ———, merchant, and E. F., of the village of ———, builder, undertake, pursuant to the statute, that the said plaintiff will pay to the said Y. Z. such damages, not exceeding ——— dollars, as he may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court shall finally decide that the plaintiff is not entitled thereto. And the damages may be ascertained by a reference, or otherwise, as the court may direct.

Signed and delivered in presence of (witness). 2 Abb. Forms 329.

E. Indorsement of Approval on Undertaking on Injunction.

I approve the within undertaking as to its form and manner of execution (and certify that the within named surety is worth ——— dollars over and above all debts and responsibilities he owes or has incurred). 2 Abb. Forms 330.

F. Undertaking on Injunction Against Corporation.

Whereas A. B. is about to apply (or has applied) for an injunction, which may, among other things, suspend the general and ordinary business of the defendants, the Z. Company, who are a corporation:

Now, therefore, we (the said A. B., of ———, and) C. D., of No. ——— street, in the city of ———, merchants, and E. F., of the village of ———, builder, undertake, pursuant to the statute, that the plaintiff shall pay all damages, not exceeding the sum of ——— dollars, which such corporation shall sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court shall finally decide that the plaintiff was not entitled to such injunction. And the damages may be ascertained by a reference, or otherwise, as the court may direct.

Signed and delivered in presence of (witness). 2 Abb. Forms 330.

G. Bond on Obtaining Injunction To Stay Proceedings.

Know all men by these presents, that we, A. B., of No. ——— street, in the city of M., and C. D., of the village of ———, are held and firmly bound unto Y. Z., of ———, in the sum of ——— dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns; for which payment, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, and our executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals. Dated the ——— day of ———, 18—.

Whereas the above named A. B. has applied to the ——— court of ——— for an injunction to stay proceedings by said Y. Z., in a certain personal action pending in the said court, wherein the said Y. Z. is plaintiff, and the said A. B. is defendant, after (verdict and before) judgment therein:

Now, the condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden A. B. shall well and truly pay unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators and assigns, all such damages and costs as may be awarded to him or them by the court, at the final hearing of the cause (and if deposit is dispensed with, add: and shall also pay the sum of—specify amount of deposit—whenever ordered by the said court), then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of (witness). 2 Abb. Forms 330.

H. Affidavit of Sufficiency of Bond on Injunctions.

C. D., a surety in the within (or annexed) bond, being duly sworn, says that he is a householder, resident within this state, to-wit, at ———, and that he is worth ——— dollars (amount of bond) over and above all debts and demands against him.

(Acknowledgment or proof.) 2 Abb. Forms 331.

I. Order Denying Motion for Injunction Without Prejudice.

Upon reading (the complaint in this action, and affidavit of M. N.), and on hearing O. P. for the plaintiff:

Ordered, that the plaintiff's motion for an injunction be denied, without prejudice to its renewal upon the same or other papers. 2 Abb. Forms 332.

J. Injunction by Judge's Order, Common Form (a).

It appearing satisfactorily to me by the affidavit of ——— (the above named plaintiff, and of M. N., dated on the ——— day of ———, 18—), that sufficient grounds for the order of injunction exists:

I do hereby order that the defendant Y. Z., his agents and servants, refrain from (here state acts to be enjoined; see III, A, 1, III, L), until the further order of this court; and in case of disobedience to this order, you will be liable to the punishment therefor prescribed by law.

O. Injunction Against Banking Corporation, With Order To Show Cause Why Receiver Should Not Be Appointed.

It appearing by the complaint in this action, and the affidavit of the plaintiff, that the defendants are a corporation or association, having banking powers, and exercising the business of banking under the laws of this state, and that they have refused and are unable to pay their debts; and it appearing, also, that the plaintiff is a creditor of such corporation or association, and that this action has been commenced by the service of a copy of the summons and complaint herein on the said defendants:

Therefore, on reading and filing the said complaint and proof of service, and an undertaking with sureties approved by this court, and on motion of J. B., of counsel for the plaintiff, the defendants appearing by their counsel D. L., and admitting notice of this application, it is ordered that the defendants and their officers be, and they are hereby enjoined and restrained from paying out, or in any way transferring or delivering to any person any of their moneys, property, or effects, until the further order of this court (except so far as to receive payment of the same in specie or bills of other banks of the city of ———). But the defendants are not enjoined from delivering up securities to which they have no claim.

And it is further ordered, that the said defendants show cause before this court, on Thursday, the ——— day of ——— instant, at the chambers thereof, city hall, New York, at the opening of the court, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, why one or more receivers should not be appointed to take charge of their property and effects, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, and according to the statutes in such cases made and provided. 2 Abb. Forms 336.

P. Dissolution.

1. Notice of Motion To Dissolve or To Modify Injunction.

Please take notice that on (designate papers), the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard (or will move before—designating the judge who granted the order—at his office in the city of ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon), that the injunction issued in this action be dissolved (or be modified so as to permit defendant to, etc.), with costs; and for such other or further relief as may be just. 2 Abb. Forms 353.

2. Order Dissolving Injunction.

(If made by the court, say: "At a special term," etc.)

On reading and filing the answer of the defendant (and the affidavit of G. H.), and on motion of M. N., counsel for defendant, and after hearing O. P., counsel for plaintiff (or and on proof of service of notice of motion, and no one appearing) in opposition:

Ordered,* that the injunction granted by me (or by A. B., a justice of this court, or county judge of _____ county), on the _____ day of _____, 18—, against the above named Y. Z. be vacated and dissolved (with _____ dollars costs, to abide the event of the action). 2 Abb. Forms 353.

3. Order Dissolving Injunction on Ground of Abatement.

(As in preceding form to the *, continuing): That the plaintiff (or the legal representatives of the deceased plaintiff) revive this action against the (legal representatives of the) defendant within _____ days; or that, in default thereof, the injunction granted herein by me (or my M. N., a justice of this court, or county judge of _____ county), on the _____ day of _____, 18—, against the above named Y. Z. be vacated and dissolved, with _____ dollars costs. 2 Abb. Forms 354.

Q. Damages.

1. Notice of Motion To Ascertain Damages by Injunction.

Please take notice that on the undertaking and other proceedings in this cause, the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____ o'clock in the _____ noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard,* for a reference to ascertain the damages sustained by reason of the injunction granted in this cause on the _____ day of _____ last; and for such other or further order as may be just (and for the costs of this motion). 2 Abb. Forms 354.

2. Order of Reference as Damages by Injunction.

On reading and filing notice of this motion, and on motion of M. N., counsel for defendant, after hearing O. P., counsel for plaintiff:

Ordered, that it be referred to Q. R., to ascertain the damages sustained by the defendant by reason of the said injunction, and to report the same to the court (and that _____ days' notice of the hearing be given to C. D. and E. F., the sureties named in the undertaking given on obtaining said injunction). 2 Abb. Forms 354.

3. Notice of Motion To Confirm Report of Referee on Damages by Injunction.

(As in II, Q. 1, to the *, continuing): to confirm the report of the referee, appointed on the _____ day of _____, 18—, to ascertain the defendant's damages by reason of the injunction heretofore granted in this action (and for judgment thereon against the sureties); and for such other, etc.

(Signature.)

(Address to plaintiff's attorney and to sureties.)

2 Abb. Forms 355.

4. Order Confirming Report as To Damages by Injunction.

On reading and filing the annexed order to show cause (or notice of motion), and affidavit and certificate, and the referee's report, and the evidence on which the same was founded, and on motion of M. N. for the defendants, and after hearing O. P. for plaintiffs, and for (the sureties) in opposition:

Ordered, that the said report of the referee herein be, and the same hereby is, in all respects, confirmed (except as to the item of _____ dollars, paid by the defendants to the constable for his services in taking possession of the property, and attending to sell the same; and as to that item, that it be reduced to _____ dollars, and that on the defendant's consenting to such reduction the report be thereon confirmed), with _____ dollars costs of this motion. 2 Abb. Forms 355.

I. Declarations.

A. Declaration, Injuries Caused by Falling Into Unguarded Area-way.

"And whereas, also, the said defendant, before and on March 19, A. D.
1888, was the possessor and owner of certain other premises, with the appurtenances, situate in the city of Grand Rapids, in the county aforesaid, upon which said premises the said defendant owned and possessed a building which was occupied and used for various business purposes, a portion of said building being used as a theatre.

"And whereas, there now is, and before and on the same day and year aforesaid there were, several separate public entrances and exits to said building on the east side thereof, situate upon the premises aforesaid, and there now is, and before and on the same day and year aforesaid there was, a sidewalk built on said premises upon the east side of said building for all persons to pass and repass at their free will and pleasure into and from said building, as well as for all persons to pass and repass at their free will and pleasure from Pearl street to Lyon street, in the city of Grand Rapids, in the county aforesaid, and which had for a long time theretofore been used by the public as aforesaid, and which said user was upon the invitation of the said defendant, and with his full knowledge and consent.

"And plaintiff further avers that there now is, and before and on the same day and year aforesaid there was, a certain area or hole opening into a certain cellar or vault of, and belonging to, said building and premises of the defendant, which said area or hole opening into said cellar or vault

as aforesaid was situate on said premises upon the east side of said building, and between said building and said sidewalk so built along the east side of said building, as aforesaid.

"Yet the said defendant, well knowing the premises, while he was so the possessor and owner of the said building and premises with the appurtenances, and while there was such area or hole as aforesaid, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, wrongfully and negligently permitted the said area or hole to be and continue, and the same was then and there, so negligently, insufficiently, and defectively guarded that by means of the premises, and for want of proper and sufficient guards to the said area or hole, the said plaintiff, who was then and there passing along said sidewalk on said premises, situate along the east side of said building as aforesaid, with reasonable and due care, and without negligence on his part, accidentally and unavoidably fell into said area or hole, by means whereof the said plaintiff then and there became and was greatly hurt, cut, bruised, and wounded," etc. Brezee v. Powers, 80 Mich. 172, 45 N. W. 130.

B. Declaration Against Manufacturer of Elevator for Injury to Servant of Owner While Testing.

And for a second count in this behalf the plaintiff avers, that heretofore, to-wit: on the 2nd day of February, 1881, Digby V. Bell, Samuel Post and Charles B. Haynes, doing business under the name of the Detroit Soap Company, employers of said plaintiff, were engaged or about to engage in the manufacture of bar soap; that from thence to the time of the injury hereinafter mentioned, said plaintiff continued to be the servant of said employers, whose duty it was, together with other servants so likewise employed, to perform general work and labor in the manufacture of said soap, and handling the same during the different processes of manufacture and preparation of the same for market. That defendant was engaged in the business of manufacturing and putting up machinery, and professed to be skilful in the erection and setting up of hoisting apparatus, known as elevators, and competent to construct and set up the same in a workmanlike manner, and in such complete order that the same, with reasonable care, could be used and run without danger of injury to human life; that so professing his competency as aforesaid, as a convenient means of delivering said soap from one floor to another of the building used and occupied by the employers of said plaintiff for the manufacturing purposes aforesaid, the said defendant constructed and set up in the building aforesaid, for the employers of said plaintiff, the said hoisting apparatus or machine called an elevator, for the use of said employers and their servants, and to enable said employers and their servants to remove said soap from one floor to another of said premises, as might be necessary and convenient in the manufacture of said soap, and the preparation of the same for market; that said defendant having so constructed and provided said elevator, as aforesaid, heretofore, to-wit: on the 25th day of June, 1881, professed to the employers and to the servants of said employers, and represented to said employers, to said servants, and to this plaintiff, that said elevator in the said premises was placed and set up by him for the purposes aforesaid, and was intended by him to be used by said employers and their servants for the purpose of enabling them so as aforesaid to remove said soap from one floor to another of said premises, as might be necessary and convenient for said employers, or for their said servants, in the due performance of their duty, as workmen in and about said premises; and said defendant professed and particularly represented to each and all of the parties aforesaid that said elevator was so constructed as to run either by steam or hand power, was in complete running order and would safely lift or carry two thousand pounds. And thereupon the said plaintiff, confiding in the representations aforesaid, and by command and at the request of said defendant, not knowing that said elevator was dangerous and unsafe for such purpose, with due and proper care and skill in that behalf, and in the ordinary performance of his duty in handling said soap, went upon said elevator. That at the time he so went upon said elevator, the said elevator was wholly unsafe and dangerous, and was not in complete running order, and would not safely lift or carry two thousand pounds; and that defendant then knew, and from long before then, well knew, and had full means of knowing the same was dangerous, and likely to break and fall down and injure persons when used in the ordinary manner, for the purposes aforesaid, and with a much less weight than two thousand pounds; that it was the duty of said defendant not to so have provided said elevator in said state for the said purpose, but to have properly constructed said elevator, and to have taken care that said elevator was not unsafe and dangerous, but was put up in a proper and safe state for the purposes aforesaid, and would safely lift or carry two thousand pounds; and said duty particularly devolved upon said defendant, in that any unskillful, improper or unworkmanlike construction of the same, or the putting up of the same, so that it would not safely lift or carry two thousand pounds, would be in the use and running of the same imminently dangerous to human life, as defendant well knew. That by reason of the aforesaid insecure, wrongful and improper conduct of said defendant, in not taking care that said elevator was safe and sufficiently and properly constructed for the purposes aforesaid, and the dangerous, insecure and unsafe state of said elevator, the same while being so used as aforesaid, by said plaintiff, in the ordinary manner, and with due and reasonable skill and care, and while the said plaintiff was upon it, and with a weight much less than two thousand pounds, to-wit: fourteen hundred pounds, and while said elevator was in the vicinity of one of the upper floors of said building, the said elevator broke, fell and dropped to the lower floor, whereby and by reason whereof the plaintiff had two ribs broken, was injured in his spine, and was otherwise greatly cut, wounded, bruised, maimed and lamed, so as to be unable to perform any service for his employers, or to earn any compensation therefor, for a long space of time, to-wit: one month, and was so permanently injured, that though afterwards partially recovering, yet from thence hitherto the said plaintiff, by reason of his inability and inefficiency, occasioned by the injury aforesaid, has been obliged to work for a much less sum than he otherwise could have earned; and will hereafter at all times be obliged in consequence of said injury to work for a much less sum than he otherwise would have been able to earn, and was also obliged to pay out a large sum for medical attendance; and also suffered great pain of body and mind, to-wit: in the county aforesaid. Necker v. Harvey, 49 Mich. 517, 14 N. W. 503.

C. Declaration, Injury to Employee Using Defective Appliance.

"Morris Burk, plaintiff herein, a resident of said county, by J. W. Donovan, his attorney, complains of above-named defendants, also doing business in said county, of a plea of trespass on the case, filing this amended declaration, and the original hereof, as commencement of suit.

"For that whereas, said plaintiff, while yet a minor (he having only come of age in April, 1890), and while in the employ of said defendants, who were box and wood material makers at Wyandotte, in said county, as a common laborer in and about defendants' works, to-wit: about May 11, 1887, while under the direction, management, and control of said defendants as aforesaid, was injured as hereinafter set forth, to-wit: At the date and place aforesaid the defendants were box-makers and wood-workers, and in and about which employment defendants' employes were required to use certain swift-running and dangerous machinery, also owned and managed by defendants, to-wit: wheels, belts, and pulleys, knives and shafts, all run by steam power, and to manage which it became and was the duty of said defendants to use care, caution, and strong, safe, and sound machinery, in and about its manufacturing of box material, staves, timbers, and divers kinds of wood-work, as aforesaid, and to keep the same in safe condition; yet said defendants, well knowing the premises, and carelessly neglecting to provide said works (in which plaintiff was set to work by defendants, their servants and agents) with the usual safe wheels, belts, pulleys, shafting, and sound machinery, did, to-wit: on the day aforesaid, carelessly neglect, allow, and permit a portion of their said belting, to-wit: one of the main belts in the shop where plaintiff was employed, to become worn, weak, broken, frayed out, unsafe, and dangerous to this plaintiff, and to all other persons in their said employ, and the workmen in and about said factory.

"And plaintiff avers that, while in his regular employ as laborer and helper in said works, he was sent and directed by the foreman of said works to put a belt on one of the shafts aforesaid, in the regular way, and did carefully proceed and attempt to adjust said belt as usual, and which, if sound, could be put on with ease and safety, not knowing its weak, half broken, and dangerous condition, when a loose strip of said belt suddenly caught and entangled the plaintiff's left arm, drawing it violently over the wheel and shaft, and breaking the wrist, forearm, and arm and fingers of plaintiff, without any fault of his own, and by and through the carelessness of said defendants in permitting the use of said unsafe, frayed out, and dangerous belt, which the defendants well knew to be unsafe, unsound, and dangerous; whereby this plaintiff, on the day aforesaid, while in said employ, and in the due discharge of his duty (in working around said machinery), and without any carelessness on his part, and while exercising due and proper care, was caught and mangled by said broken and unsafe belt connected with said machinery, which so entangled his arm as to draw him violently over the wheel of defendants' works, while in swift motion, instantly wrenching and twisting and crushing plaintiff's left wrist, forearm, and arm, hand, and fingers, causing plaintiff great sickness and bodily disorder therefrom, for about one year thence next following; and also causing said arm to be shorter by an inch than the plaintiff's other arm, and greatly deforming said left arm, hand, and fingers of plaintiff, and permanently disabling and injuring this plaintiff from earning his usual wages, to-wit, about $10 a week, for one year, and from earning full wages ever since said date, to his loss and damages in wages $1,000, and fully $200 for board and nursing, and from which injuries plaintiff had never fully recovered, and is permanently injured, all without fault of plaintiff, and wholly by and through the carelessness and negligence of defendants in failing to keep, provide, and use safe, sound, whole, and reliable belts and machinery as aforesaid, especially after having been warned of the ragged, torn, broken, and unsafe condition of the belt aforesaid, which defective belt broke and injured plaintiff in the manner aforesaid, to his damage $10,000, whereby an action hath accrued to plaintiff as aforesaid, and therefore he brings suit, etc." Burk v. Burrell, 88 Mich. 289, 50 N. W. 296.

D. Declaration, Injury to Person Passing in Unloading Wagon.

"And the plaintiffs say that the defendants are teamsters and common carriers, and as such were by their agents and servants engaged in unloading and delivering from a wagon a cask of oil across the sidewalk in Broad Street in Boston into the warehouse of Mixer & Whitman there situate; and the female plaintiff was passing along said sidewalk at the same time, and in the exercise of due care attempted to pass over and across the skids then and there placed by the defendants' agents and servants from the wagon across the sidewalk into the warehouse, and then and there being used by them in unloading and delivering the cask of oil as aforesaid, that she might proceed upon her lawful business without delay; but the defendants' agents and servants so carelessly and negligently managed and handled said cask of oil, and so carelessly and negligently failed to control it, that said cask of oil came upon the female plaintiff, throwing her down with great violence, crushing and fracturing her hip, and inflicting other serious injuries upon her person, by reason of all which the female plaintiff has lost the use of her hip and leg, and has suffered great pain of body, and anguish of mind, has become permanently disabled, and her general health permanently impaired." Murphy v. Deane, 101 Mass. 455.

E. Declaration, Injury Caused by Defective Insulation of Electric Light Wires.

"Also for that, whereas, the said defendant, the Jersey City Electric Light Company, heretofore, to-wit, on the 25th day of August, 1898, was the owner and did operate, manage, and control a certain electric light and power plant, with its machinery, poles, wires, and appliances, in the city of Jersey City, in the county of Hudson aforesaid. And whereas, the said defendant, on the day and year aforesaid, in the city of Jersey City, in the pursuit of its said business, had the management and control of a certain line of electric light and power wires extending through and along various streets in the city of Jersey City, in the county of Hudson aforesaid, and into various houses and buildings located on the line of said streets, one section or portion of which line extended through and along a certain street or avenue in said city called or known as 'Bergen Avenue,' over which said street the said line was suspended by poles, and from said poles on Bergen Avenue said wires were strung or conducted to and into a certain building known as the 'Carteret Club House,' and said wires, consisting of two lines of wires, were strung or suspended from said line of wires to a certain light or air shaft in said Carteret Club House to a point in the easterly side of said light shaft, and were then continued in a downward course to a converter and transformer on the westerly side of said air shaft, and within a short distance of the floor or bottom of said shaft, which floor or bottom of said shaft formed the room of the toilet room in said building, and said two wires were then turned eastwardly and southwardly and upwards into the southerly wall of said light shaft, forming a network of wires in said shaft in said building known as the 'Carteret Club House.' And whereas, the said defendant, on the 25th day of August, 1898, was accustomed, and for a long space of time theretofore, to-wit, for the space of two years, had been accustomed, to use said line of wires for the purposes of furnishing light and power to buildings and manufactories in said city of Jersey City by electricity, and to that end was accustomed, and for the said space of time had been accustomed, to pass and did pass through said line of wires, and through each and every wire of said line in said light shaft, a strong and powerful current of electricity, dangerous to the life of any human being who might come in contact therewith. And the plaintiff avers that at the time the defendant so placed its wires in said light shaft of said Carteret Club House it well knew it would be necessary for mechanics and others to enter and work therein, in and about the care and repair of said light shaft, and that it was the duty of the said defendant to keep the said wires safely, securely, and completely insulated, so that workmen and others lawfully entering in and upon said light shaft should not be injured by contact therewith; but that the said defendant, notwithstanding such knowledge, and disregarding its said duty in the premises, carelessly and negligently maintained the said wires, and carelessly and negligently protected the same by defective insulation, and carelessly and negligently failed to protect and cover said wires with safe or sufficient insulating material, and carelessly and negligently permitted the covering used thereon to become worn, defective, and wholly insufficient to render them safe to persons coming in contact therewith. And the plaintiff further says that on the day and year aforesaid, at Jersey City, in the county of Hudson aforesaid, while the said plaintiff was lawfully engaged at work in repairing and refitting the said air shaft, he, the said plaintiff, came in contact with one of the said wires without any fault, carelessness, or negligence on his part, and thereby received said current into his body, through and by means of which he, the said plaintiff, was greatly shocked, burned, hurt, and wounded, maimed, sick, sore, and disordered, and so remained and continued for a long space of time, to-wit, from thence hitherto, during all which time he was hindered and prevented from performing and transacting his lawful affairs and business during that time to be done and transacted, and will continue so for the remainder of his life, and also was forced to pay, lay out, and expend a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of one thousand dollars, in and about endeavoring to be healed of his burns, wounds, sickness, and disorder, and in caring for himself, to-wit, at Jersey City aforesaid. Wherefore, and by reason of the premises, he, the said plaintiff, saith that by the wrongful acts, omissions, and negligence of the said defendant the said plaintiff is injured and hath sustained damage in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, and therefore he brings his suit," etc. Anderson v. Jersey City E. L. Co., 63 N. J. L. 387, 43 Atl. 654.

F. Declaration, Injury to Child by Improperly Guarding Machinery.

"That, on the 25th day of April, 1884, the defendant was possessed of, using, operating and controlling a planing mill, 347 feet east of South Lincoln street, 322 feet south of Blue Island avenue, and 116 feet west of South Wood street, in Chicago, Cook county, Illinois; that said planing mill was an open and unguarded structure situated in a lot or parcel of land to which free access was allowed, where children were allowed and permitted, with the knowledge and consent of the defendant, to congregate and play at pleasure adjacent to certain streets and highways in the midst of a thickly settled and populous district of said city, and supplied with certain dangerous machinery, to-wit, planers, consisting among other things of certain revolving interlocking cog-wheels of such a character as to be attractive to children, and appeal to their childish curiosity, the dangerous character of which the defendant knew; that the defendant, well knowing the premises, while so operating said mill, and while said mill remained open and children were allowed to play around it as aforesaid, wrongfully, carelessly, negligently and improperly permitted the third planer from the north end of said mill to be, and continue badly, insufficiently and defectively covered, and the plaintiff, a child of the age of nine years, drawn and attracted to said dangerous machinery by childish curiosity, then and there necessarily and unavoidably, while exercising all due care and caution for his own safety, had his left hand caught in said interlocking wheels, and four fingers of his said left hand so badly injured that the said fingers had to be amputated, and the thumb of his left hand was split and torn, and thereby suffered great pain and mental anguish, was prevented from transacting his business and lost large gains and profits, and his means of making and earning a living were greatly reduced, and his said injuries are permanent and lasting; that he expended five hundred dollars endeavoring to be healed."

The second count contains substantially the same allegations and the additional allegation, "That said planing mill and platform on which the planers were located was, with the knowledge and consent of the defendant, a common playground for children." Jensen v. Wetherell, 79 Ill. App. 33.

Note.—The court said: "The filing nine counts for the purpose of stating the facts which appellant relies on seems to us wholly unnecessary."

G. Declaration, Collision Between Row-Boat and Tug.

"In a plea of the case, for that the said plaintiff at Northport, in said county of Waldo, on the 23d day of August, A. D. 1877, was in a small row-boat upon the waters of the Penobscot bay, a public thoroughfare for boats, vessels and steamers, and in the use of ordinary care, and the said Ross and Howell were, then and there, by their servants and agents, in possession of a certain steam tug-boat, called the C. B. Sanford, to the side of which said Ross and Howell by their servants and agents then and there in charge of the said steam tug-boat had then and there attached a vessel, and was then and there towing the same by force of the steam of said tug-boat.

"And the said plaintiff avers that the said Ross and Howell by their said servants and agents, then and there in charge of said steam tug-boat and vessel thereto attached, so negligently, carelessly, and unskillfully managed said boat and vessel that the said vessel for want of good and sufficient management, then and there fell foul of, ran down, and capsized the said row-boat of plaintiff, in which she then and there was as aforesaid, and then and there threw the plaintiff into the water, and dragged her a great distance, to-wit: five hundred feet, at great speed through the water, dislocated her right shoulder, broke one of her ribs, fractured two other of her ribs, jammed, bruised and otherwise injured said plaintiff internally and externally, by reason whereof her life was despaired of, and on account of all which she was greatly frightened and has endured great pain, agony and suffering, been put to great expense in surgical and medical attendance and for nurse, medicine and board, and has been obliged to give up her business, and has become, as she avers, permanently injured, maimed and disfigured for life, and disabled, all to the damage of said plaintiff (as she says) the sum of six thousand dollars." Gilmore v. Ross, 72 Me. 194.

II. Declaration, Injuries by Collision Between Two Street Cars.

"Rebecca C. Beath, plaintiff herein, by Fred H. Warren, her attorney, comes into court, according to the form of the statute authorizing the commencement of suit by declaration, and complains of the Rapid Railway Company, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the state of Michigan, of a plea of trespass on the case, for that whereas, heretofore, to-wit, on the 17th day of October, A. D. 1895, and for some time prior thereto, said defendant was a body corporate, organized and existing under the laws of the state of Michigan, and was then and there engaged in the business of maintaining and operating a certain line of railway extending along the Gratiot road, so called, from the city of Detroit, in the county of Wayne, to the city of Mt. Clemens, in the county of Macomb, upon which line of railway it operated and propelled cars by means of electricity, and was upon, to-wit, the 17th day of October, A. D. 1895, and ever since has been, and now is, engaged in the business of carrying goods and passengers for hire, as a common carrier, on the line of its said railway so maintained and operated in the counties aforesaid.

"And plaintiff further alleges that on, to-wit, the 17th day of October, A. D. 1895, she was a passenger upon defendant's said railway, in a car belonging to and operated by said defendant, running on the Gratiot road, so called, to and towards the city of Detroit; and she then and there paid or caused to be paid to said defendant the full fare demanded by it for passage in said car over its said line of railway, to-wit, from the said city of Mt. Clemens to the said city of Detroit. And thereupon it became and was the duty of the defendant safely then and there to carry and convey the said plaintiff from the said city of Mt. Clemens to the city of Detroit, aforesaid, and to exercise great care in directing, propelling, operating, and maintaining the said car in which plaintiff was a passenger so that said car would pass safely over its said line of railway, to-wit, from the city of Mt. Clemens to the city of Detroit aforesaid, and to so direct, manage, control, maintain, and operate its said line of railway that the cars running thereon, to-wit, on the Gratiot road, so called, between said above-mentioned cities, would not be brought into collision with each other while running back and forth over and along said line of railway aforesaid; and it also became and was the duty of said defendant to employ careful, competent, skilful, prudent, and sober servants and agents to handle, control, direct, manage, and operate its cars running on and along its said line of railway, and to so direct, manage, and control the movement and operation of its said cars that they would not strike, collide with, or in any manner interfere with each other while running on and along said line of railway, and particularly so that the car in which plaintiff was a passenger would not be brought into collision with any other car propelled or driven over defendant's said line of railway in an opposite direction, or otherwise.

"And plaintiff further alleges that said defendant did not regard its said duties, but, on the contrary thereof, wrongfully, negligently, and wilfully disregarded the same, in this, to-wit, that it did not then and there safely carry and convey said plaintiff from said city of Mt. Clemens to said city of Detroit; that it failed to exercise due care in directing, propelling, operating, managing, and maintaining said cars in which plaintiff was a passenger so that it would pass safely over said line of railway aforesaid; that it did not so direct, manage, control, maintain, and operate its said line of railway as to avoid a collision between the cars running back and forth thereon; that it did not employ careful, competent, skilful, prudent, and sober servants and agents to handle, control, direct, manage, and operate its cars running on and along its said line of railway, and failed to so direct, manage, and control the movement and operation of its said cars that they would not collide with each other, and particularly so that the car in which plaintiff was a passenger would not collide with any other car of said defendant's being propelled or driven over said line of railway in an opposite direction, or otherwise.

And plaintiff further alleges that as the car in which she was a passenger was being propelled and driven on said line of railway along the Gratiot road, so called, to-wit, from said city of Mt. Clemens towards the city of Detroit aforesaid, and when it had reached a certain point in the said county of Macomb between switch number five (5) and switch number four (4), to-wit, about three and one-half miles from said city of Mt. Clemens, the defendant, by its servants and agents, acting for and in its behalf, wrongfully, negligently, and wilfully disregarding its duties as aforesaid, then and there so improperly, carelessly, heedlessly, recklessly, and negligently drove, propelled, directed, operated, and managed its cars running each way on and along its said line of railway that a collision occurred between a car running towards the city of Mt. Clemens, and a car in which plaintiff was a passenger; that by reason of said collision said cars were badly wrecked and damaged, and the plaintiff, without any fault or negligence on her part, and while in the exercise of due care and caution, was violently thrown from her seat, and was then and there caught and crushed between the framework and the seat of the car in which she was a passenger, and did then and there suffer serious and permanent injury to her head, arms, legs, thighs, ribs, spine, hips, back and kidneys, and did then and there receive serious and permanent internal injuries, and did then and there suffer a serious and permanent rupture of the tissues in the region of the kidneys, and did then and there receive a serious and permanent injury to her right hip, hip joint, pelvis and thigh, and was then and there paralyzed and otherwise permanently injured, and was then and there greatly bruised, hurt, and wounded, and became sick, sore, lame, and disordered, and so remained and continued for a long time, to-wit, from thence hitherto; and plaintiff has ever since suffered great physical pain and injury, and has undergone great mental anxiety and nervous prostration, and was confined to her bed for a long space of time, to-wit, three months, and was compelled to lay out and expend for medical services and for medicines and surgical appliances a large sum of money, to-wit, two thousand dollars, and has ever since been unable to perform and transact her lawful affairs and business; and plaintiff avers that by reason of the premises she is permanently injured and disabled, and that all of said losses and injuries resulted from the aforesaid acts of negligence and wrongdoing on the part of the defendant, to the plaintiff's damage fifty thousand dollars, and therefore she brings suit.

"Dated March 30, 1896." Beath v. Rapid R. Co., 119 Mich. 512, 78 N. W. 537.

Note.—If it is sought to recover items of damage not necessarily flowing from the injury, such elements must be specifically alleged.

I. Declaration, Action for Being Run Over While on Track.

For that whereas the defendants before and at the time of the committing of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, to-wit, on the 30th day of August, in the year 1869, were the owners of a certain railroad, to-wit, of a railroad from the said city of Norfolk, which connects with the South-side railroad, at or near the city of Petersburg, and of a certain engine and cars, then under the care and management of certain servants of the said defendants; nevertheless the said defendants, by their said servants, so carelessly, negligently and improperly behaved and conducted themselves in and about the management, control, and direction of the said engine and cars, that the same, by and through the default, carelessness, negligence, and improper conduct of the said servants of the said defendants, then with great force and violence were driven and struck against the said plaintiff, by means whereof the right arm of the plaintiff was so fractured and injured that it became necessary to amputate the same, and the said arm was thereupon amputated, and he was otherwise greatly wounded, bruised and injured, and so remained for a long space of time; and also by means of the premises the plaintiff was so maimed as to be disabled for the remainder of his life. To the damage of the said plaintiff of $30,000. Norfolk & P. R. Co. v. Ormsby, 27 Gratt. (Va.) 455.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint, Injuries Caused by Un-guarded Excavation Near Side-walk.

"Bridget Doyle, the plaintiff in this action, respectfully shows to this honorable court, that on or about the second day of November, 1867, at the city of New York, Michael Mulren, the defendant, had caused certain excavations to be made on the lot and sidewalk fronting the same, situated on the west side of James street, about seventy feet south from the corner formed by the intersection of said street and New Bowery, and known as No. 27 James street, to the best knowledge, information, and belief of the plaintiff.

"That said excavations were so made on the said lot and sidewalk fronting on the same, to the depth of eight to ten feet or thereabouts.

"And this plaintiff further shows that the said excavations were at the time aforesaid, left in a negligent and careless condition, in this, that they were left without sufficient guards, or any guards for proper protection of pedestrians on the said sidewalk and street, and that the said negligent and careless condition was and remained and continued dangerous to passers by.

"That at or about eight o'clock P. M., of the second day of November, 1867, while this plaintiff was passing along the said sidewalk as she lawfully might, intending to go from Chatham-square to No. 65 James-street, she did without any negligence or carelessness on her part, fall into the said excavation so made in the said lot and sidewalk, so being negligently and carelessly unguarded and unprotected as aforesaid.

"That by reason of the premises the said plaintiff has sustained damages, as she is advised and believes, in the sum of one thousand dollars.

"Wherefore she demands judgment against the said defendant for her damages in the premises, in the sum of one thousand dollars." Doyle v. Mulren, 7 Abb. Pr. N. S. (N. Y.) 258.

B. Complaint, Injury to Employee by Defective Appliance.

1. That the defendant was at the time hereinafter mentioned and now is a corporation, duly created and existing under the laws of the state aforesaid. 2. That the plaintiff was, on or about the 16th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1896, in the employ of the defendant company as a fireman, and was there actively engaged at work on a train of said defendant company, running between Charleston and Savannah. 3. That while so engaged at Ridgeland, in the county of Beaufort and state aforesaid, as fireman on train proceeding from Savannah to Charleston, under charge and control of Robert Smart, engineer, it became the plaintiff's duty to stand upon a certain platform on which wood was piled, and from said platform to load the tender with fuel, by throwing sticks of wood therein. That after supplying the tender with wood as aforesaid, on a signal that the engine was about to move, the plaintiff stepped to the edge of the said platform and thence endeavored to step on to the engine. 4. That by reason of the broken and unsound condition of the said platform, which caused the fall of the plaintiff, and the sills on which it rested, the said platform gave way under the weight of the plaintiff, and forcibly precipitated him upon the iron structure of the engine. 5. That the broken and unsound condition of the said platform, which caused the fall of the plaintiff as aforesaid, was the result of the carelessness and negligence of the defendant in not keeping said platform in good, reasonable and safe repair. 6. That by reason of the fall aforesaid, the plaintiff sustained serious wounds and bruises in his arm, side and leg, and also injuries of an internal nature, causing him severe bodily pain and suffering, so that he is not able to perform his accustomed labor. That he has already expended a considerable amount of money for medicine and medical attendance, and is advised by his physicians that his said injuries will probably disable him permanently from performing such labor as he was heretofore capable of performing, and will continue to cause him pain and require medical attention and medicine for the rest of his life. 7. That by reason of the carelessness and negligence of the defendant, as hereinbefore set forth, the plaintiff has been damaged $10,000. Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant for the sum of $10,000, and for the costs and disbursements of this action. Johnson v. Charleston, etc. R. Co., 55 S. C. 152, 32 S. E. 2, 33 S. E. 174.

C. Complaint, Injuries Received at Grade Crossing.

"Plaintiff states that defendant is a body politic, duly incorporated by the state of Missouri, and engaged in the transportation of passengers and freight in cars propelled by steam, over certain lines of railway by it owned and controlled, between the city of St. Louis and points south thereof; that defendant uses its cars and locomotives within the limits of the city of St. Louis, and has constructed divers railway tracks across and along streets of said city, among others along Front Street, sometimes called Main Street, in the southern part of said city, which is a public street, highway, and thoroughfare of said city, dedicated to the use of its citizens.

"Plaintiff states that, on the morning of the eighteenth day of June, 1880, while plaintiff, the said Anna, was walking along said Front or Main Street, between Clement and Bryan Streets, as she lawfully might do, defendant, in an unlawful manner, caused one of its locomotives and train of cars to be run and conducted along and over said Front or Main Street in so negligent, careless, and reckless a manner as to strike and run over plaintiff Anna, without any negligence on her part contributing thereto.

"Plaintiff further states, that no bell was rung on said locomotive or train of cars while running over said public street, as so required by proper and prudent management, and that said train was permitted to run along said street at a much greater speed than six miles per hour, and without giving any signal or warning of its approach.

"And plaintiff further states, that in wrongfully causing and permitting said cars to run along said public thoroughfare as aforesaid, defendant also violated the provisions of ordinance No. 10,305 of the city of St. Louis, entitled 'An ordinance to regulate the speed, within the limits of the city of St. Louis, of cars and locomotives propelled by steam power,' approved January 22, 1877, by which it is provided that when running within the limits of the city of St. Louis, the bell of the engine shall be constantly sounded.

"Plaintiff states, that by reason of the neglect, careless and unlawful conduct of defendant in running said locomotive and cars against and over her as aforesaid, plaintiff was greatly and permanently injured in her body; that her head was severely wounded and injured; that she sustained great internal injuries; that her mind and reason have been affected; that she suffered great bodily pains, incurred expenditures for doctor's bills, medicines, and nurses, in the amount of $100, and has been permanently disabled from following any occupation in life, and deprived of the full use of her physical and mental faculties, wherefore plaintiff says she has been damaged in the sum of $10,000, for which sum she now prays judgment, and for her costs." Otto v. St. Louis, etc. R. Co., 12 Mo. App. 168.

Note.—Though this complaint contains an allegation containing the specific facts constituting the negligence which caused the damage, it is held that a general allegation specifying the act constituting the injury and alleging that it was carelessly and negligently done, is sufficient.

D. Complaint, Injuries Caused by Train Falling Through Bridge.

After making the usual prefatory allegations, the petition, in charging the injury producing negligence, states: "That while plaintiff was on such car, in the exercise of due care, in charge of such express matter as aforesaid, and being conveyed by defendant over its said line, he was at a point on a railroad bridge over Big Peno creek in Pike county, Missouri, by reason of the car in which he was riding falling through said bridge on account of the defects in, and insufficiency of said bridge, wounded and injured in the head, face, and eyes. That the said bridge where he was injured was negligently and carelessly and defectively made and maintained, and was at said time in an unsafe and dangerous condition, which said condition was known to the defendant or could have been so known by the exercise of ordinary care, and that his injuries as above set out were caused by the negligence and carelessness of defendant, its agents and servants, in constructing and maintaining such defective, insufficient, unsafe, and dangerous bridge, and in running its said train upon same when in said unsafe and dangerous condition, whereby said bridge gave way and said car in which plaintiff was being conveyed as the same passed over said bridge was caused to fall through the same to the bottom of said creek, thereby injuring plaintiff as aforesaid." Cobb v. St. Louis & H. R. Co., 149 Mo. 609, 50 S. W. 894.

E. Complaint, Injuries Sustained by Sudden Start of Train.

"That on or about November 11, 1896, the defendant, at El Paso, Texas, received plaintiff into one of its cars as a passenger, and for a valuable consideration paid by plaintiff defendant undertook to safely transport plaintiff from the city of El Paso, Texas, to Marfa, in Presidio County, Texas; that on said November 11, 1896, when the defendant's train, composed of an engine, the car in which plaintiff was riding, and several other cars, in going east, reached the town of Marfa about 10 o'clock p. m., defendant's servant called out 'Marfa,' which is the usual and customary signal for all passengers who desire to stop at said town, to leave the train when it stops at the depot. That the train, on reaching the depot at Marfa, came to a full stop, and plaintiff, as soon as it stopped at the depot, that being the usual place for passengers to leave the train, arose from his seat in the car in which he was riding, and without delay proceeded to leave the train; that he went to the front end of the car in which he was riding and walked out on the platform to get off the car and leave the train. That before plaintiff had time to get off, and while he was still on the car platform, the servants and employes of defendant in charge of the train, without giving any warning, negligently caused the car on which plaintiff was riding to be suddenly and abruptly moved with such violence that plaintiff, without any fault or negligence on his part, was thereby thrown to and against the ground with such violence that he was thereby knocked insensible. That while plaintiff was on the ground in such insensible condition, the wheels of defendant's car or cars ran over plaintiff's right foot and ankle, and so mashed, crushed, and mangled the flesh and bones in said foot and ankle that, on or about November 12, 1896, the same had to be amputated just above the ankle. That by reason of said injury plaintiff has suffered great bodily pain and mental anguish, has incurred great expense for physicians, medical treatment, and medicines.

"That he has been confined to his bed ever since said November 11, 1896, and has been unable to do any labor or perform any service to support himself and family since the day of said injury. That plaintiff is permanently disabled from laboring or pursuing any occupation or avocation to support himself and family. That at the time of said injury plaintiff was in good health, a strong and vigorous man, 32 years of age, able to earn and was earning $2500 a year.

"That by reason of said injury his health has been destroyed, his nervous system shocked and permanently impaired, and he has been made a cripple for life. That by reason of the premises, plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of $30,000. Plaintiff represents that said defendant was negligent in suddenly and abruptly moving said train and car at Marfa, after having stopped at the depot, without giving plaintiff sufficient time to leave the train, and was negligent in running its car wheels over plaintiff's foot and ankle after negligently causing him to be thrown to the ground with such force and violence as to knock him insensible, and without giving any warning of its intentions to move said car." Gal., H. & S. A. R. Co. v. Scott, 18 Tex. Civ. App. 321, 44 S. W. 589.

Note.—Not questioned in case. Reversed for admission of evidence of injury not embraced in complaint, to-wit, of unskilfulness of company's physician.

F. Complaint, Injuries Received on Jumping From Street Car, Collision Being Imminent.

1. That the said defendant, "The Columbia Electric Street Railway, Light and Power Company," is a corporation, duly incorporated under the laws of the state of South Carolina, and was such corporation at all the times hereinafter mentioned, and engaged, pursuant to their charter, as common carriers in transporting passengers over the line of its railroad in the streets and suburbs of the city of Columbia, in the state aforesaid, in cars owned and operated by defendant, by means of electric power.

2. That on the 23d day of September, 1895, at or about 7 o'clock in the evening, the said plaintiff was received by said defendant as a passenger on one of its cars, at the Gervais street crossing in Waverly, a suburb of Columbia, going from its Shandon terminus towards and into the said city, the said plaintiff paying the full fare charged for her carriage, and intending to go into said city, the said defendant, in consideration of said payment, agreeing to so carry her.

3. That when the said car thereafter reached what is known as the "Heidt Siding," in the said Waverly, the said car stopped on the main line of the railway track of said defendant in such position that another of defendant's cars going in an opposite direction could pass over said siding, around the car in which plaintiff was seated as a passenger; and it was the duty of said defendant to so move its cars and arrange its switches that the passage of these two cars would be accomplished without injury or peril to any of its said passengers.

4. But the said defendant, not regarding its duties in this regard, caused the said other car to approach this plaintiff's said car with great and dangerous speed, and negligently omitted to have its switch so fixed that said other car would safely pass around this plaintiff's car; but, on the contrary, this switch was not open and the said other car kept upon the main line past the switch, and continued to approach said standing car with great and dangerous speed, to the imminent danger of a collision with the standing car and imminent peril to all the passengers therein.

5. That by reason of this apparent imminent danger to the passengers in said standing car, the plaintiff, in common with other passengers, believed that it was unsafe for her to remain in said car, and it was apparently so unsafe; and in order to free herself from such danger, she was obliged to jump from said car, and did so jump, at the only point of said car where egress to her was possible, and in so doing plaintiff was much frightened and greatly injured, her right ankle being badly sprained, so much so that she had to be carried back to her home and put to bed.

6. That by reason thereof the plaintiff was confined to her bed for three weeks, suffered pain for several months, and was prevented from attending to her labors and duties, and put to great expense for doctor's attendance, medicines and nursing in the attempt to effect a cure, and was otherwise injured, to her damage $2,000.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant for the sum of $2,000 and costs. Wade v.

Columbia Elec. Co., 51 S. C. 296, 29 S. E. 233.

III. Defenses.

A. Answer, Alleging Failure To Use Proper Care.

"Further answering this defendant says that the injuries received by the plaintiff, and set forth in the petition, were received wholly and entirely because of his want of proper care and caution in looking out for his own safety, and by reason of his carelessness in coming in contact with an electric light wire which he knew, or by the exercise of ordinary care for his own safety could have known, was then and there charged with a current of electricity, making it dangerous to life for any one to come in contact with the said wire. Defendant says that by the exercise of ordinary care for his own safety, and such as circumstances and surroundings made it apparent was necessary, the said plaintiff could have avoided coming in contact with said wire, and could have escaped all injury therefrom. Defendant says that plaintiff came into contact with said wire by failing to exercise that degree of care which he knew, or ought to have known, under the circumstances was necessary to be exercised by him to avoid injury from said wire. Wherefore, having answered, defendant prays to be dismissed." McLaughlin v. Louisville Elec. L. Co., 100 Ky. 173, 37 S. W. 851.

Note.—Verdict for defendant reversed because of instructions given and refused. Answer not in question.

B. Answer, Failure To Observe the Approach of Train.

"That, on the day of the accident set forth in the complaint, in the evening, said Thornton started from the residence of one Doctor Sellers, being the first residence fronting on the highway in the complaint mentioned, south of said railroad to the said town of Mount Jackson, most of which is on the north side of said railroad; that immediately before the accident occurred plaintiff was standing on the porch of a residence within one hundred and fifty five feet of the highway crossing at which said accident occurred; that at said point he could see west for about one quarter of a mile on the railroad and about three quarters of a mile east; that at the very moment of starting from that point to cross the said railroad he looked west for a train of cars and saw none, and he looked east and saw one standing near said crossing apparently in the act of moving westward; that knowing there was a post west of said crossing which by its marks required the engineers of trains going east to whistle and ring the bell before passing said crossing, and by his acquaintance with the conduct of said railroad, knowing that such trains should whistle and ring, and having but one eye (he being blind in the right eye), as he passed on to said railroad he listened carefully for the whistling and the ringing of the bell on the train that might be coming from the west on said railroad, and heard none, and used the only eye he had to watch the movements of the train that stood just east of the crossing, so that he might not be injured by its movements; that said Thornton was on said day blind in his right eye, and consequently had, in order to look eastwardly, in facing northward, to turn his head eastward; that while in the act of watching, the train standing on said railroad just east of said crossing, and just as he passed upon said railroad, struck said Thornton. And the defendant further says that from the point one hundred and fifty-five feet south of railroad, where the plaintiff last looked to the west until said plaintiff reached said railroad, he had an open, unobstructed view of the track for a long distance, and could have easily seen the approaching train if he had only looked." Thornton v. Cleveland, etc. R. Co., 131 Ind. 492, 31 N. E. 185.

C. Answer, Setting Up "Act of God."

"That defendant's approaches and bridge over Big Peno creek were constructed in a safe, and workmanlike manner, and were always kept in a safe, proper, and perfect condition down to the time of the accident, and that on the night of that occurrence, to-wit, May 9, 1894, a heavy, sudden, unprecedented and unexpected fall of rain took place in the immediate vicinity of said bridge, causing Peno creek to become flooded and swollen at said point to an extraordinary, unusual, dangerous, unforeseen and unexpected degree and extent, whereby one of the bents constituting a portion of the southeastern approach to said bridge was dislodged and washed out by the flood, between said hour of midnight and two or three o'clock in the morning of May 10, 1894, leaving the rails and stringers underlying same intact, and undisturbed; that its nearest station to said bridge is located at Frankford, Mo., and it is about two and one-half miles distant and that no rain of any consequence fell at Frankford during said night, and that the train on which plaintiff was at the time of the accident was a south bound train and left Hannibal "on schedule time and passed through Frankford about on time and thereafter reached the said bridge about 7 o'clock on the morning of May 10, 1894, and passed on to said bridge and on to the rails covering the space where said bent in the approach to the bridge had been washed away, precipitating the car in which plaintiff was riding into said washed out space.

"Defendant says that it was impossible for it or any of its agents, servants or employes either in charge of said train or those to whom was intrusted the duty of keeping and maintaining such bridge and its approach in a safe condition to have foreseen the heavy and unusual rainfall and the flood incident to same which occurred the night previous to such accident and that it was impossible for defendant, its servants and employes to have provided full and sufficient safeguards against the effect of said rainfall and the violent flood caused thereby, and that it was impossible for defendant, its servants, and employes to have or acquire any knowledge of said heavy rainfall and flood prior to such accident or to have prevented same by the exercise of the utmost prudence, diligence and care on the part of defendant, its servants and employes.

"Defendant therefore says that said accident was an inevitable one, and was caused by the act of God, and the same together with its results were such occurrences which were beyond the power of human ingenuity and ability to either foresee or prevent and defendant is not liable for said accident or any consequences or results following same nor for any damage which plaintiff may have sustained in consequence of same, and now having fully answered, defendant asks to be discharged with its costs." Cobb v. St. Louis & H. R. Co., 149 Mo. 609, 614, 50 S. W. 894.

D. Answer, Claim Satisfied and Discharged.

"Defendant, for further answer, avers that after the committing and happening of the alleged and supposed grievances and acts in the complaint mentioned, and before this action, to-wit, on the said twentieth day of September, 1869, the defendant delivered to the plaintiff seventy-five dollars in coin, and paid the surgeon's bill for attendance upon the said Mary O'Riley; and in consideration of such payment to the surgeon, the plaintiffs accepted and received the sum of seventy-five dollars aforesaid, in full satisfaction and discharge of the damages or liabilities in the complaint mentioned, and all of the damages by the plaintiffs sustained by reason of the matters and things therein alleged." O'Riley v. Wilson, 4 Ore. 97.

E. Answer, Accord and Satisfaction for Personal Injury by Co-Defendant.

"That, after committing the supposed grievances alleged in said complaint, and after the commencement of this action, to-wit, on the 12th day of April, 1876, the defendant, the Mechanics' Institute, delivered to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff accepted and received from the defendant, the Mechanics' Institute, the sum of five hundred dollars, gold coin of the United States, in full satisfaction and discharge of the damages and cause of action alleged in said complaint." Urton v. Price, 57 Cal. 271.

IV. Demurrer, That Negligence Is Insufficiently Alleged.

"That the negligence complained of is not sufficiently and legally set out.

"That it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action." Conley v. Richmond & D. R. Co., 109 N. C. 692, 14 S. E. 303.

V. Reply to Claim of Satisfaction and Discharge.

"That it is not true that plaintiffs, in consideration of the payment of the sum of seventy-five dollars, or any other sum, and the surgeon's fee for attendance upon plaintiff Mary O'Riley, accepted the same in full satisfaction and discharge of the damages or liabilities in the complaint mentioned and set out, and all of the damages by the plaintiffs sustained by reason of the matters and things in said complaint alleged, and plaintiffs deny that they have ever received from any person or persons compensation or satisfaction for the injury and damages in the complaint in this action set out." O'Riley v. Wilson, 4 Ore. 97.

I. Declaration Against Innkeeper for Refusing To Lodge Plaintiff During the Night.

For that whereas the said defendant, before and at the time of the committing the grievance hereafter mentioned, was an innkeeper and did keep a common inn, for the accommodation of travelers, that is to say, a certain common inn, called, etc.; and whereas, whilst the said defendant was such innkeeper, and so kept the said inn as aforesaid, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, the said plaintiff then and there, being a traveler, came and was received by the said defendant into the said inn, and then and there required the said defendant to suffer and permit the said plaintiff to stay and lodge at the said inn, for and during the night of the same day, and although the said plaintiff was then and there ready and willing, and then and there offered to pay the said defendant a reasonable sum of money for such lodging, yet the said defendant not regarding his duty as such innkeeper, but contriving, and wrongfully and unjustly intending to injure the said plaintiff, and to put him to great trouble and expense, and inconvenience, did not, nor would, at the said time when he was so requested as aforesaid, or at any time afterwards, suffer or permit the said plaintiff to stay or lodge at the said inn as aforesaid, during the time aforesaid, but wholly neglected and refused so to do, whereby the said plaintiff was forced and obliged to quit the said inn, and to go and travel in the night time divers, to-wit (five) miles, in order to procure a lodging elsewhere; and upon that occasion the said plaintiff was by means of the said several premises aforesaid, put to great trouble, inconvenience, and expense of his moneys, and was and is otherwise greatly injured and damaged, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 668.

II. Declaration, Loss of Personal Property.

"For that whereas, according to the law and custom of the land, the innkeepers, that keep common inns to lodge and to entertain as guests, travelers, strangers and others therein who abide in the same, are bound to keep their goods and chattels, being within those inns, day and night without diminution, pilfering or loss, so that no damage or loss may happen to any such traveler or such goods for want of due care in such innkeepers or their servants, and the said plaintiff, viz.: on the fourteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, at Augusta, aforesaid, being entertained as a guest in the inn of the said defendant, had a certain overcoat, of the value of twenty dollars, within that inn and delivered the same to the said plaintiff, then and there to be safely kept. Nevertheless the said defendant, then and there knowing the said overcoat to be so as aforesaid, within his said inn, the same day and place, did so negligently keep said overcoat that said overcoat, for want of safe keeping thereof, by said defendant and his servants, was then in said inn wholly lost. And said defendant has not delivered to said plaintiff his said overcoat, although the said defendant was thereafterwards, viz., on the same day, thereto requested, but hitherto hath refused, and still doth refuse so to do, or make him any satisfaction for the same." Norcross v. Norcross, 53 Me. 163.

Note.—The allegation "being entertained as a guest" though inartificial was held to sufficiently charge that defendant was an innkeeper.

III. Complaint for Loss of Trunk or Contents.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned, the defendant was the keeper of a common inn in the city of _____, known as "The _____ House."

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, this plaintiff (or, one M. N., the infant son, or, the servant of this plaintiff), was received by the defendant into his said inn as a traveler, together with his baggage, to-wit, a trunk containing (here designate contents lost), the property of the plaintiff.

III. That the defendant and his servants so negligently and carelessly conducted themselves in regard to the same, that while he so remained at said inn, his said Trunk was taken away (or, was broken open, and said _____ was taken away) from the room of the said (guest) by some person or persons to the plaintiff unknown; and thereby the same became wholly lost to the plaintiff, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 415.

IV. Complaint Against Proprietor of Bathing House for Loss of Pocket Book.

I. That the defendant, at the time hereinafter stated, was a common innkeeper at the town of _____ in this state.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, he received and entertained this plaintiff as a guest at his inn, for hire.

III. That the inn of the defendant was upon the seashore, and in connection with it the defendant maintained bathing houses for the safe-keeping of the clothing, wardrobe, and such money and jewelry of his guests as are usually carried upon the person of guests and patrons of his inn and bathing house.

IV. That while the plaintiff was then and there his guest, the defendant undertook, for compensation paid him by the plaintiff, to keep safely in one of his said bathing houses, the clothing and such articles of jewelry and valuables as the plaintiff then had upon his person, while the plaintiff should bathe; and that the plaintiff thereupon put into his said bathing house his clothing, his pocket-book containing money and such other property as is usually carried upon the person, of the value of ——— dollars, and left the same in the possession and charge of the defendant, both as innkeeper and as special bailee as aforesaid.

V. That while this plaintiff was bathing, his pocket-book and money were, by the negligence, carelessness, and dishonest management of the defendant and his servants, lost and stolen.

(VI. That the amount of the said money belonging to the plaintiff so lost and stolen, while the same was under the charge of the defendant, was ——— dollars and upwards, in lawful money of the United States, and current bills of solvent banks, and sundry small silver coins of trifling value; and that the plaintiff is by profession (designating a business requiring the plaintiff to carry considerable sums), and that said sum was such an amount as he might reasonably and properly carry with him with reference to his circumstances in life, and the nature of his business.)

VII. That the said inn was upon the seashore, and that facilities for bathing according to the customs of the neighborhood, and as the defendant then well knew, were considered a part of the accommodations necessary to be afforded by the innkeepers in that vicinity.

VIII. That by said negligent, careless, and dishonest dealing of the defendant and his servants, the plaintiff has sustained damage, in the sum of ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 416.

V. Plea by Innkeeper Justifying Turning Plaintiff Out of Inn.

Because he says, that he the said defendant, long before and at the said time when, etc., was lawfully possessed of a certain public house, situate at, etc., aforesaid. And the said plaintiff a little before the said time when, etc., entered and came into the said house of the said defendant, and then and there made a great noise and disturbance therein, and the said plaintiff then and there behaved and conducted himself in a rude, quarrelsome, and uncivil manner towards divers persons then and there lawfully being in the said house, and thereby then and there greatly disturbed and disquieted the said defendant and his family, and the said other persons so being in the said house, in the peaceable and quiet occupation and enjoyment thereof; whereupon the said defendant then and there requested the said plaintiff to cease making his said noise and disturbance, and to go and depart from and out of the said dwelling house, which the said plaintiff then and there wholly refused to do, whereupon the said defendant, in defense of the possession of his said dwelling house, at the said time when, etc., gently (moliter manus imposuit). 3 Chit. Pl. 1073.

VI. Indictment for Illegally Removing Baggage.

“Put up at a hotel, . . . did . . . procure fuel, entertainment and accommodation at the said hotel of the said Willis S. Snow, then and there the keeper of said hotel, and did, with such fraudulent intent, on said eighth day of January, 1881, remove and cause to be removed from the said hotel their baggage and effects, consisting of one valise or satchel and its contents, while there was a lien existing thereon for the proper charges due to the said Willis S. Snow from the said H. Hayes and E. Benson for board and entertainment, as aforesaid.” State v. Benson, 28 Minn. 424, 10 N. W. 471.

A. Writ of Inquiry in Ordinary Cases.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the city and county of _____, greeting:

Whereas A. B., lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, at the (capitol in the city of Albany), (the place corresponding with the term of which the narr. is entitled), by bill, without our writ, impleaded C. D., being in custody, etc. (or, if the suit were commenced by declaration, by declaration and not by writ, impleaded C. D.). For that, etc. (here recite the declaration), to the damage of the said A. B. of _____ dollars, as he said, and thereupon he brought his suit, etc. And such proceedings were thereupon had in our supreme court, before our said justices thereof, that the said A. B. ought to recover against the said C. D., his damages on occasion of the premises; but because it is unknown to our said justices of our supreme court aforesaid, what damages the said A. B. hath sustained by means of the premises aforesaid: Therefore, we command you, that by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of your county, you diligently inquire what damages the said A. B. hath sustained, as well by means of the premises aforesaid as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended: And that you send to our said court, before our justices thereof, at the (city hall in the city of New York, on the first Monday of May) next (the return day), the inquisition which you shall thereupon take, under your seal, and the seals of those by whose oath you shall take that inquisition, together with this writ.

B. Writ of Inquiry in Debt on Bond.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

Whereas A. B., lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices of the same court (at the city hall in the city of New York, by bill without our writ), impleaded C. D., being in custody, etc. (or as in last form), before our aforesaid justices of our said supreme court of judicature, of a plea of debt on demand, for (one thousand) dollars of good and lawful money of the United States of America, upon and by virtue of a certain writing obligatory, in the penal sum of (one thousand) dollars, bearing date the (first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine), and sealed with the seal of the said C. D., with a certain condition (as the said A. B. in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, said), thereunder written, whereby (if there be any recital in the bond preceding its condition, say: "After reciting," etc., setting forth the recital), it was provided that if (here set forth the condition), and the said A. B. further said, that, etc. (here state the breaches). And such proceedings were thereupon had in our said supreme court of judicature, before our aforesaid justices thereof, that it was afterwards considered by the same court, that the said A. B. ought to recover against the said C. D. his debt aforesaid, together with his damages, which he had sustained, as well as on account of the detention of the same, and by reason of the breaches of the said condition, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said C. D. is convicted, as appears to us of record: And the said A. B., having prayed our writ to inquire of the truth of the aforesaid breaches of the said condition of the said writing obligatory, and to assess the damages which he hath hereby sustained: Therefore, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, we command you, that by the oath of twelve, etc. (as in preceding form to the end). Burr. App. 489, §996; Till. Forms 59.

C. Writ of Inquiry on Articles of Agreement.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

Whereas A. B., lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, at the (city hall in the city of New York), impleaded C. D., being in custody, etc. (or by declaration and not by writ), of a plea that he should render to him the said A. B. the sum of _____ dollars of good and lawful money of the United States of America, which he owed to and unjustly detained from him: For that whereas, by certain articles of agreement (or a certain indenture), made on, etc. (reciting the whole of the declaration); to the damage of the said A. B. of _____ dollars, as he said, and therefore he brought his suit, etc. And such proceedings were thereupon had in our said court, before our justices aforesaid, that it was afterwards considered by the same court, that the said A. B. ought to recover against the said C. D. his debt aforesaid, together with his damages, which he had sustained as well on occasion of the detention thereof, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended; whereof the said C. D. is convicted, as appears to us of record: And the said A. B., having prayed our writ to inquire of the truth of the aforesaid breaches of covenant above assigned, and to assess the damages which he the said A. B. hath sustained thereby: Therefore, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, we command you, that by the oath of twelve, etc. (as in preceding forms to the end). Burr. App. 490, §997.

D. Writ of Inquiry on Failure To Answer (Code).

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

Whereas, in an action brought by A. B. against Y. Z. in our supreme court, such proceedings were had, upon the personal service of the summons therein upon said Y. Z., that the said A. B. obtained an order of the said court, directing the plaintiff's damages in the said action to be assessed by a jury, a copy of the complaint in said action being hereunto annexed, therefore we command you, that by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of your bailiwick you diligently inquire what damages the said A. B. hath sustained for and on account of the premises in the said complaint contained; and that you, with all convenient speed, return to the office of the clerk of the county of _____ the inquisition taken by you, by virtue of this writ, under your seal, and the seals of those by whose oaths you shall take that inquisition, together with this writ.

A. Complaint by Committee of Lunatic, Idiot, or Habitual Drunkard.

(Name of court, etc.) A. B., as committee of M. N., a lunatic (or, an idiot, or, an habitual drunkard), plaintiff, against W. X. and Y. Z., defendants.

The plaintiff, complaining as the committee of M. N., a lunatic (or, an idiot, or, a person of unsound mind, or, an habitual drunkard), alleges:

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, upon proceedings duly instituted in the supreme court of this state, in and for the county of _____ (or, in the case of an habitual drunkard, it may be, duly instituted in the county court of the county of _____), by an inquisition then taken and returned, said M. N. was found to be a lunatic (or, otherwise, as above), and thereupon this plaintiff was, by an order of said court, duly made by said court, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, appointed committee of said M. V. Petition for Inquest of Insanity.

To the worshipful justices of Cumberland county court.

The petition of Lewis Robinson humbly shows, that his sister Susannah Robinson, an inhabitant of said county, is now about sixty years of age, and that from her infancy she has been subject to great bodily infirmity, caused by a stroke of the palsy, which paralyzed her right side; that from this cause and old age combined, she is now non compos mentis and incapable of managing her estate and business; that she has property, consisting of lands and negroes, and from her imbecility of understanding is wasting and destroying her property. Your petitioner therefore prays that a jury may be ordered to ascertain whether she is compos mentis, or capable of managing her affairs and estate.

VI. Petition for Commitment of Insane Person.

"Houlton, May 10, 1873.

To the selectmen of Houlton:

Daniel McCann of Houlton, complains that his brother, Charles McCann, of said Houlton, is an insane person, dangerous to the community, and prays you immediately to inquire into the condition of said Charles McCann, and to take such further steps as you may deem proper in the premises.

(Signed) Daniel McCann."

Gray v. Houlton, 65 Me. 521.

VII. Complaint to Selectmen for Examination of Insane Person.

"To the selectmen of the town of Eastport:

"M. B. of Eastport, makes complaint and says, that Elizabeth Howard is insane, and he believes it will be for her comfort and safety that she be removed to the insane hospital. Wherefore he prays that an examination into the facts may be made, and that such steps be taken as the law provides in such cases." Inhab. of Eastport v. East Machias, 35 Me. 402.

VIII. Special Verdict (return) on Insanity.

Pursuant to an order of the court of pleas and quarter sessions of Cumberland county, ordering the sheriff of said county to summon a jury of good and lawful men, to inquire into the lunatic and insane condition of the mind of Miss Susannah Robinson, we, the undersigned, after being summoned and duly sworn, and from the testimony made in the case, certify that she, the said Susannah Robinson, is lunatic, idiotic, of an insane mind, and altogether incapable of managing her affairs; that she has been in that situation from her infancy, but that the imbecility of her understanding has been increasing and more apparent for the last two years. We also ascertained that she, the said Susannah, has in her possession, as owner, about 500 acres of land situated on Cape Fear in Cumberland county, and five negroes, stock and household furniture.

In testimony whereof, etc.

Signed by the jurors.

Bethea v. M'Lennon, 23 N. C. 523.

IX. Order Committing Insane Person to Hospital.

"Upon the foregoing complaint, the undersigned, selectmen of Eastport, having inquired into the condition of the above named Elizabeth Howard, who is now in this town, and after hearing the testimony necessary to understand the case, are of opinion that she is insane, and that her comfort and safety will be promoted by a residence at the insane hospital, at Augusta. We therefore order that she be forthwith removed to Augusta, and delivered to the care of the superintendent of the insane hospital, to be detained until she has become of sound mind, or be otherwise legally discharged. Given under our hands," etc. Inhab. of Eastport v. East Machias, 35 Me. 402.

X. Order of Commitment of Insane Person by Court.

"State of Michigan, County of Lenawee.

"At a session of the probate court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the probate office in the city of Adrian, on the 19th day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

"Present R. B. Robbins,
Judge of Probate.

"In the Matter of Mary Vetter, an Indigent Insane Person.

"This day having been assigned for hearing the petition, now on file in this court, of Margaret Scott, superintendent of the State Industrial Home for Girls, alleging that Mary Vetter, a resident of the Industrial Home for Girls, in said county, is insane, and praying that said Mary Vetter may be admitted to the Michigan Asylum for the Insane at Kalamazoo, there to be supported at the expense of the county in which it is shown she is a resident; and having duly notified the said Mary Vetter (there being no known relative of the said Mary Vetter in said county), also D. B. Morgan, prosecuting attorney for said county, and Wm. H. Knight, supervisor of the town of Adrian, in which said Industrial Home for Girls is situate, and in which said insane person at present resides, of the time and place of hearing said petition, and having filed the certificates, taken under oath, of Drs. Abram Stephenson and Wm. E. Jewett, two legally qualified physicians, and having taken the testimony of Wm. E. Jewett and Margaret Scott, credible witnesses, and having inquired into her settlement, and having fully investigated the facts in the case, without the verdict of a jury as to the question of insanity and indigence, I, the judge of probate in and for said county, do find that said Mary Vetter is in indigent circumstances, and certify that satisfactory proof has been adduced showing the said Mary Vetter to be insane; that she has not acquired a legal settlement in said county of Lenawee, but is a resident of the county of Kalamazoo; and that her estate is insufficient to support her under the visitation of insanity.

"It is ordered that the said Mary Vetter be admitted to the Michigan Asylum for the Insane, under and according to the provisions of section 23 of Act 135, Laws of 1885, there to be supported at the expense of the county of Kalamazoo until restored to soundness of mind, if effected within two years, and until otherwise ordered.

"Richard B. Robbins,
"Judge of Probate."

Palmer v. Buck, 83 Mich. 528, 47 N. W. 355.

XI. Guardianship.

A. Petition for Guardian for Insane.

After giving the names of the petitioners, their residence and relations to the defendant, the petition proceeds:

"Your petitioners further represent unto said court that the said Elias B. Sherman is of the age of eighty-one years, and is feeble and infirm, and is an inhabitant of said county, residing at the village of Cassopolis, in said county and state, and is possessed of real estate and personal estate situated and being in said Cass county, and the estimated value of the personal estate, including money, bank stock and notes, is about the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, as petitioners believe, and the estimated value of real estate is the sum of twenty thousand dollars or thereabouts, as your petitioners are informed and verily believe.

Your petitioners further represent that it is necessary that a guardian be appointed of the person and estate of the said Elias B. Sherman, for the following specific reason: Because the Elias B. Sherman, by reason of extreme old age and other causes, is now mentally incompetent to have the charge and management of his property, and has been mentally incompetent for some time past.

Your petitioners further represent that the names of the next of kin of the said Elias B. Sherman, and other persons interested in said estate, as your petitioners are informed and believe, are as follows: Mrs. Edna Celia Norton, a daughter; J. Silver Sherman, a son, both residing at Cassopolis, Michigan; Frank L. Jones and Carrol S. Jones, both grandsons, and both residing at Marcellus, in said county; Mary Blanche Goucher, residing at Clay Center, Kansas; Ellen N. Graham, residing at Cassopolis; and Florence M. Tietzort, residing at Cassopolis; the last three named aforesaid being daughters of the aforesaid John Tietzort, and granddaughters of the said Elias B. Sherman.

Your petitioners therefore pray that a day be fixed for hearing this petition, and that a citation issue, to be personally served upon said Elias B. Sherman and upon some one of his nearest relatives, not less than fourteen days before the return day thereof, requiring them to appear and show cause, if any, why a guardian should not be appointed as aforesaid after a full hearing and examination in the premises, and that Joel Cowgill, residing at Cassopolis, Mich., may be appointed guardian of the person and estate of him, the said Elias B. Sherman, according to the provisions of the statutes in such case made and provided.

Dated this 16th day of March, A. D. 1885."

I. Fire Policies.

A. Complaint by Insured on Fire Policy.

I. That the defendants are a corporation duly created by and under the laws of this state (or the state of, etc.), organized pursuant to an act of the legislature (of said state), entitled (title of the act), passed (date of passage), and the acts amending the same.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in consideration of the payment by the plaintiff to the defendants of the premium of _____ dollars, the defendants, by their agents duly authorized thereto, made their policy of insurance in writing, a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked Exhibit A, and thereby insured the plaintiff against loss or damage by fire to the amount of _____ dollars upon his (dwelling house and his furniture therein), in the village of M.

III. That at the time of making said insurance (or at the time of the commencement of the risk), and from then until the fire hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff had an interest in the property insured, as the owner (or mortgagee, or otherwise) thereof, to an amount exceeding the amount of said insurance (or exceeding the sum of _____ dollars).

IV. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, said dwelling house and furniture were totally destroyed (or damaged, and in part destroyed) by fire, which did not happen by (the causes excepted in the policy).

V. That the plaintiff duly fulfilled all the conditions of said insurance on his part (and more than sixty days, or as otherwise required by the policy, before the commencement of this action, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, gave to the defendants due notice and proof of the fire and loss aforesaid, and duly demanded payment of the said sum of, stating the amount of the loss, if less than the amount insured; but if greater, then the amount insured).

VI. That no part of the same has been paid, and the said sum is now due thereon from the defendants to the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 297.

B. Complaint Where Insurance Was a Renewal.

(As in the preceding form, inserting after paragraph II the following):

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the defendants by their agents duly authorized thereto, in consideration of _____ dollars to them paid by this plaintiff, executed and delivered to this plaintiff their certificate of renewal of said policy, of which the following is a copy (copy of the certificate), (or a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked Exhibit B), and thereby renewed said insurance for the term of one year from said _____ day of, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 298.

C. Complaint by the Insured, Correcting Alleged Mistake.

I. That he was the owner of, etc., in, etc., at the time of its destruction by fire, as hereafter mentioned.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in consideration of _____ dollars to them paid, the defendants executed to the plaintiff a policy of insurance on the said property, a copy of which is hereto annexed as part of this complaint.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the said property was totally destroyed by fire.

IV. That the plaintiff's loss thereby amounted to more upon each part of the property separately insured than the amount of such separate insurance.

V. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, he furnished the defendant with proof of his said loss and interest, and otherwise duly performed all the conditions of the said policy on his part.

VI. That no part of the said loss has been paid.

VII. That the survey referred to in the said policy, and made a part of the same, contains, among others, the following questions and answers (copy):

VIII. That the said questions and answers were not meant or understood, by either of the parties, to be a warranty.

IX. That the plaintiff, by his answers aforesaid, did not mean, nor did the defendant understand him to represent, that there was, etc.; but the defendant then knew that no, etc.; and if the said questions and answers do in law convey such an idea, it is through mistake only. 1 Abb. Forms 299.

D. Complaint by Assignee on Agreement To Insure, Policy Not Delivered.

I. (Incorporation of defendants may be stated, as in I, A.)

II. That on and before the _____ day of _____, 18—, the Winstead Manufacturing Company, a corporation established at, etc., by their agent applied to M. N., the duly authorized agent of the defendants, for insurance against loss or damage by fire upon a certain stock of merchandise, the property of said Winstead Manufacturing Company, consisting of scythes contained in a building of the said Winstead Manufacturing Company, occupied for storing blacking, bluing, and packing scythes, in said Winstead. And the defendants, by their said agent, on said day, agreed to become an insurer to said company on the said stock for three months from the said day, for _____ dollars, at a premium of _____, and that the said defendants would execute and deliver to the said Winstead Manufacturing Company a policy of insurance in the usual form of policies issued by them the said defendants, for the sum of _____ dollars, for the term of three months from the said day.

III. That the said Winstead Manufacturing Company then and there paid to the defendants said premium, to-wit, _____ dollars.

IV. That it was then and there agreed between the said Winstead Manufacturing Company and the said defendants, that the said insurance should be binding on the part of the defendants for the term of three months from the time of the receipt of the said premium, for the sum of _____ dollars, and the said defendants then and there, in consideration of the premises, promised and agreed to and with the said Winstead Manufacturing Company, to execute and deliver to them, in a reasonable and convenient time, a policy in the usual form of their policies, insuring the said stock of goods in the sum of _____ dollars against loss and damage by fire, the insurance to commence at the time of the receipt of the said premium, and continue for the said term of three months.

V. That the defendants, by a policy of insurance issued in their usual form (among other things), do promise and agree (here set out legal effect of the contemplated policy, e. g.), to make good unto the insured all such immediate loss or damage, not exceeding in amount the sum insured, as shall happen by fire to the property insured, within the time for which the insurance is made, the loss or damage to be estimated according to the actual cash value of the property at the time the loss shall happen; the loss to be paid within sixty days after notice and proof thereof made by the insured, and received at the defendant's office in conformity to the conditions annexed to the policy. And by one of the conditions usually annexed to such policy, it is provided that all persons insured by the defendants and sustaining loss or damage by fire, are forthwith to give notice thereof to the company, and as soon after as possible to deliver in a particular account of such loss or damage, signed with their own hands and verified by their oath or affirmation; and shall also declare on oath whether any and what other insurance has been made on the same property; what was the whole value of the subject insured; what was their interest therein, and (among other things) in what general manner the building insured or containing the subject insured, and the several parts thereof, were occupied at the time of the loss, and when and how the fire originated, so far as they know or believe; and by another condition it is stipulated, on the part of the defendants, that payment of losses shall be made in sixty days after the loss shall have been ascertained and proved, and the proof received at the office of the company.

VI. That after the insurance so made, and after the said promise to execute and deliver a policy in conformity thereto, and within the said term of three months, for which the said Winstead Manufacturing Company was so insured, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the said stock of merchandise in the said building mentioned and intended to be so insured, was damaged and in part destroyed (or was totally destroyed) by fire, and that the said Winstead Manufacturing Company thereby sustained loss and damage to a large amount, to-wit, to the amount of _____ dollars, and to more than the sum of _____ dollars over and above all insurance thereon.

VII. That said Winstead Manufacturing Company duly fulfilled all the conditions of said agreement and insurance on their part (and more than sixty days, or otherwise as required by the policy, before the commencement of this action, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, gave to the defendants due notice and proof of the loss as aforesaid, and duly demanded payment of the said sum of _____ dollars).

VIII. That no part of the same has been paid.

IX. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the said Winstead Manufacturing Company duly assigned to this plaintiff the said agreement and insurance, and their claim against the defendants thereon, of which the defendants had due notice. 1 Abb. Forms 300, 302.

E. Complaint on Fire Policy by Assignee, Purchaser of Property.

(As in I, A, substituting, in the averment of the policy, the name of the original insurer in place of the words, "the plaintiff," and the following instead of paragraph III):

III. That at the time of making said insurance (or at the time of the commencement of the risk), and from then until the assignment hereinafter mentioned, said (original insured) had an interest in the property insured as the owner (or mortgagee, or otherwise) thereof, to an amount exceeding the amount of said insurance (or exceeding the sum of _____ dollars).

IV. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, with the consent of the defendants duly given in writing on said policy by their said agents, the said (original insured) duly sold, assigned and conveyed to the plaintiff his interest in the said (property insured), and in the policy of insurance (continue as in I, A, paragraphs IV, V and VI). 1 Abb. Forms 298.

II. Life Policies.

A. Complaint by Executor on Life Policy.

(I. For allegation of incorporation of defendants, see I, A.)

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in consideration of the payment by one M. N. to the defendants, of the premium of _____ dollar (annually during his life), the defendants, by their agents duly authorized thereto, made their policy of insurance in writing, a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked "Exhibit A," and thereby insured the life of said M. N. in the sum of _____ dollars.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, said M. N. died, which death was not caused by (the causes excepted in the policy).

IV. That thereafter, and before this action (or on the _____ day of _____, 18—), said M. N. died, leaving a will, by which the plaintiff was appointed the sole executor thereof (or this plaintiff and C. D. were appointed executors thereof).

V. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, said will was duly proved and admitted to probate in the office of the surrogate of the county of _____, and letters testamentary thereupon were thereafter duly issued and granted to the plaintiff, as sole executor, by the surrogate of said county; and this plaintiff thereupon duly qualified as such executor, and entered upon the discharge of the duties of his said office.

VI. That said M. N. and the plaintiff each duly fulfilled all the conditions of said insurance on his part.

VII. That no part of the same has been paid, and the said sum is now due thereon from the defendants to the plaintiff as such executor. 1 Abb. Forms 302.

Note.—In some jurisdictions it is also necessary to allege that the policy was in full force and effect at the time of the death, that the statements contained in the application were true in all respects and that the death was not caused by any of the exceptions contained in the policy.

B. Complaint by Wife, Partner, or Creditor, Insured on Life Policy.

I. (For allegation of incorporation, see I, A.)

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in consideration of the payment by the plaintiff to the defendants of the (annual) premium of _____ dollars, the defendants, by their agents duly authorized thereto, made and delivered to the plaintiff their policy of insurance upon the life of M. N., a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked "Exhibit A," and thereby insured the life of said M. N. in the sum of _____ dollars, payable to the plaintiff.

III. That the plaintiff was then the wife of said C. B. (or the partner of said C. B., in the business of, etc., or a creditor of said C. B. to the amount of _____ dollars, stating facts showing his interest in the life), and as such had a valuable interest in the life of said M. N.

IV. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, said M. N. died, which death was not caused by (the causes excepted in the policy).

V. That said M. N. and the plaintiff each duly fulfilled all the conditions of said insurance on their part.

VI. That no part of the same has been paid, and the said sum is now due thereon from the defendants to the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 303.

C. Complaint on Life Policy by Assignee in Trust for Wife.

I. (For allegation of incorporation of defendants, see I, A.)

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in consideration of the payment by one M. N. to the defendants of the premium of _____ dollars (annually during his life), the defendants, by their agents duly authorized thereto, made their policy of insurance in writing, a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked "Exhibit A;" and thereby insured the life of said M. N. in the sum of _____ dollars.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the said M. N. (with the written consent of the defendants, by their said agents, duly indorsed on the policy (or otherwise state such consent as is required by the terms of the policy), duly assigned said policy of insurance to this plaintiff in trust for L. N., his wife.

IV. That up to the time of the death of M. N. all premiums accrued upon said policy were duly paid.

V. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, said M. N. died, which death was not caused by (the causes excepted in the policy).

VI. That said M. N. and the plaintiff each duly fulfilled all the conditions of said insurance on their part (and the plaintiff, more than sixty days, or as otherwise required by the policy, before the commencement of this action, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, gave to the defendants due notice and proof of the death of said M. N. as aforesaid, and duly demanded payment of the said sum of _____ dollars).

VII. That no part of the same has been paid, and the said sum is now due thereon from the defendants to the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 304.

III. Marine Policies.

A. Declaration on Marine Policy of Insurance.

For that whereas, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (date of policy), at, etc. (venue), by a certain deed-poll, or policy of insurance then and there made by the said defendants, and sealed with the seal of the said defendants, and which said deed or policy of insurance, the said plaintiff now brings here into court, the date whereof is a certain day and year therein mentioned, to-wit, the same day and year aforesaid, the said plaintiff as well in his own name, etc. (set forth the policy verbatim to the end). In witness whereof, the said defendants had caused their seal to be thereunto affixed, and the sum and sums by them assured to be therein underwritten, under which said deed or policy of assurance a certain memorandum was then and there written, whereby the said defendants declared the said policy to be free from average on corn, fish, salt, etc. (set forth the usual memorandum at the foot of the policy). And also a certain other memorandum was then and there written, whereby the said defendants declared themselves to be content with that assurance for fourteen thousand dollars, on the whole ship, valued at that sum; as by the said deed or policy of assurance, and memorandum so made as aforesaid more fully appears. And thereupon the said defendants became insurers to the said plaintiff for the said sum of fourteen thousand dollars, in the said deed or policy of assurance; and the said plaintiff further says, etc. (Averments as usual that plaintiff was interested, the ship's safety, departure and damage at sea, etc., according to the facts.) Of all which said premises the said defendants afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., there had notice; by reason whereof an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff, to demand and have of and from the said defendants the said sum of fourteen thousand dollars, so insured aforesaid, parcel of the said sum above demanded, whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff to demand and have, of and from the said defendants, the said sum of _____ dollars, parcel of the said sum above demanded, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. (Then add money had and received, account stated, and breach in debt.) Burr. App. 284. §552; Yates' Forms 470.

B. Complaint on Valued Policy on Ship or Cargo.

I. (For allegation of incorporation, see I. A.)

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, in consideration of the premium of _____ dollars, then and there paid to them by the plaintiff (or which this plaintiff then and there agreed and became liable to pay to the defendant), the defendants, by their agents duly authorized thereto, made their policy of insurance in writing, of which a copy is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked "Exhibit A," * and thereby insured for him _____ dollars upon the ship (or upon the cargo, or certain goods, then laden, or about to be laden, upon the ship) _____, then lying in the harbor of, etc. (or as the case was), for a voyage from _____ to _____, against the perils of the seas (or the perils of fire, mentioning the perils which occasioned the loss), and other perils in the policy mentioned.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the said ship sailed from said _____ on the voyage described in the policy, and while proceeding therein (or during said voyage and while lying in the port of, etc.), was by the perils of the seas wrecked and totally lost (or was burned and wholly destroyed by fire).

IV. That the plaintiff was, at the time of the commencement of the risk and thereafter until the said loss, the owner of said (insured property, or interested in said insured property) to an amount exceeding (the whole amount insured), to-wit, _____ dollars.

V. That the plaintiff duly fulfilled all the conditions of said policy of insurance on his part (and more than sixty days, or as otherwise required by the policy, before the commencement of this action, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, he gave to the defendants due notice and proof of the loss as aforesaid, and duly demanded payment of said sum of _____ dollars).

VI. That no part of the same has been paid, and there is now due from the defendants to the plaintiff thereon the sum of _____ dollars, with interest from, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 305.

C. Complaint on Open Marine Policy.

(As in preceding form, substituting in paragraph II, at the *): and thereby promised to pay to the plaintiff, within _____ days after proof of loss and interest, all loss and damage accruing to him by reason of the destruction or injury of the ship (or of the cargo, or certain goods, then laden, or about to be laden upon the ship), then at _____, during its next voyage from _____ to _____, whether by perils of the sea or of fire (mentioning the perils which occasioned the loss), or by other causes therein mentioned, not exceeding _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 307.

D. Complaint on Marine Policy on Freight.

(As in III, B, substituting at the * in paragraph II): and thereby insured for him _____ dollars upon freight of certain goods then laden (or about to be laden) in the ship _____, then at _____, to be transported by the plaintiff from _____ to _____, against the perils of the seas (or the perils of fire, mentioning the perils which occasioned the loss), and other perils in the policy mentioned.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, said ship sailed from _____, on the voyage described in the policy, and while proceeding thereon (or during said voyage, and while lying in the port of, etc.), said goods, the freight whereof was insured, were lost by (the perils of the sea).

IV. That the plaintiff has not received any freight upon said goods, nor was any earned thereon by reason of (such loss of the vessel).

(Or, where the freight was paid in advance):

IV. That the plaintiff thereupon became liable to repay (and on the _____ day of _____, at _____, did repay) to the shippers of said goods the sum of _____ dollars, freight which had been advanced by them.

V and VI as in III, B. 1 Abb. Forms 308.

E. Complaint on Marine Policy for Partial Loss and Contribution To General Average.

(I and II as in preceding forms.)

III. That said ship did, on the _____ day of _____, sail on said voyage, and whilst proceeding thereon was by the perils of the seas dismasted and otherwise damaged in her hull, rigging and appurtenances; insomuch that it was necessary for the preservation of said ship and her cargo to throw over a part of said cargo, and the same was accordingly thrown over for that purpose.

IV. That by means thereof the plaintiff was obliged to expend _____ dollars in repairing said ship at _____; and, also (or and is also liable to pay) _____ dollars as a contribution to and for the loss occasioned by throwing over a part of said cargo.

V. That said ship also suffered much damage that was not repaired at _____, to-wit, to the amount of _____ dollars.

(Continue as V and VI, in III, B.)
1 Abb. Forms 309.

F. Complaint, Averment of Loss by Collision.

(Substitute for paragraph III, in preceding forms).

III. That on or about the _____ day of _____, while the said ship or vessel in said policy named (with the said goods on board), was proceeding on her said voyage, and before her arrival at her said port of destination in the said policy mentioned, another vessel, with great force and violence, was carried against and ran afoul of the said ship, and the said ship thereby was sunk and lost (with the said goods, which thereby were wholly lost to the plaintiff). 1 Abb. Forms 308.

G. Complaint, Averment of Waiver of Condition.

That afterwards (and on the _____ day of _____, at _____), the defendants, by their agents duly authorized thereto, waived the condition of the said policy by which (designating it), and released and discharged the plaintiffs from the performance thereof (or and consented that the plaintiffs should, etc., according to the facts). 1 Abb. Forms 308.

IV. Defenses.

A. Answer, Denial of Policy.

That they did not make and deliver the policy of insurance alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 91.

B. Answer, Denial of Loss.

That the said building was not destroyed (or injured) during the term of said insurance by (state perils insured against), but said loss occurred wholly by (very briefly indicate the excepted peril). 2 Abb. Forms 91.

C. Answer, Denial of Plaintiff's Interest.

That the plaintiff did not own, and had no insurable interest in, the said goods (or the said building, house, or its contents) at the time of the happening of said loss. 2 Abb. Forms 91.

D. Answer, That Policy Was Obtained by Misrepresentations.

That the defendants were induced to subscribe the policy, and become insurers, as alleged in the complaint, by the misrepresentation made by the plaintiff to the defendants of a fact then material to be known to the defendants, and material to the risk of the said policy; that is to say, by the misrepresentation that the said vessel was loaded with hides, whereas a large portion of her cargo consisted of guano (or that the said vessel had sailed from _____ on the _____ day of _____, 18—, whereas she had not sailed from _____ on that day, but on the _____ day of _____), as the plaintiff well knew. 2 Abb. Forms 91.

E. Answer, Denial of Account of Loss.

That the said plaintiff did not, within _____ days, which was the time limited in the conditions annexed to the said policy, nor within a reasonable time after the said loss, make out or deliver a particular account of such loss and damage, signed by or on behalf of the plaintiff, and verified by his oath or affirmation; but neglected to do so for the space of _____ months after said loss. 2 Abb. Forms 92.

F. Answer, Failure To Give Notice of Loss.

I. (Allege provision of policy, similarly to IV, H.)

II. That the plaintiff did not before this action give any notice of the loss of the said goods by fire, for which he seeks recovery in this action; nor furnish any statement of the loss of the said goods. 2 Abb. Forms 93.

G. Answer, That Plaintiff Gave in a Fraudulent Account of Loss.

That after the alleged loss and damage, and before action, the plaintiff made and delivered to the defendants a false and fraudulent account of the alleged loss and damage, as and for such account as is mentioned in the conditions contained in (or annexed to) said policy, in which said account he represented and stated that insured goods and property of the plaintiff to the amount of _____ dollars had been burnt and destroyed by the said fire, and that his loss and damage by the said fire were to the said amount of _____ dollars, with intent to induce the defendants to pay to him said amount; whereas insured goods and property of the plaintiff had not been burnt or destroyed by said fire to that amount, and his said loss and damage were not to that amount, as the plaintiff then well knew. 2 Abb. Forms 93.

H. Answer, Transfer Without Insurer's Consent.

I. That it is among other things provided by said insurance policy that in case of any transfer or termination of the interest of the insured, either by sale or otherwise of the property insured without the consent of the company, the policy should from thenceforth be void.

II. That after the making of said policy, and before the loss alleged, the interest of the said (insured) in said (things insured) was terminated and transferred, and the title thereto vested in said plaintiff without the consent of the defendants, whereby the policy became, and was, void at the time of said loss. 2 Abb. Forms 93.

I. Answer, Extra-Hazardous Risk.

I. (Allege provision of policy, similarly to IV, H.)

II. That after the making of the said policy, and before the loss alleged, the plaintiff received into his said store a large quantity of goods known and described as extra-hazardous, to-wit, _____, well knowing that such reception was a violation of the conditions in the said policy contained; and at the time of the said fire, the said plaintiff had in said store a large quantity of such extra-hazardous goods. 2 Abb. Forms 94.

J. Answer, Existence of Liens.

I. (Allege provision of policy, similarly to IV, H.)

II. That at the time of making said policy, the said interest of (the insured) was not free from all liens and claims that might be prosecuted against the said (thing insured); but, on the contrary, the same was subject to a chattel mortgage, which was unknown to the defendants at the time of issuing said policy, which mortgage was dated on the _____ day of _____, and given by said plaintiff to one M. N. to secure _____ dollars. 2 Abb. Forms 94.

V. Replication, Waiver by Defendant of Conditions in Policy.

And the plaintiff says that by reason of anything in the plea No. 2 alleged, he ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action against the said defendant, because he says that after the said policy of insurance was issued, and before the period of six months from the date of loss and damage by fire had expired, viz: On the 11th day of February, 1885, the said defendant, by its own endorsement in writing upon said policy, waived the clause or provision of said policy in said plea referred to and set forth, and suspended the operation thereof as follows, viz:

'Winchester, Va., February 11, 1885

'The provision in this policy limiting the time within which suit may be brought against this company under it, is hereby waived for thirty days from this date.

I. Bills of Interpleader.

- A. Statements in Bill by Purchaser Against Different Persons Claiming Payment.

Bill states that on the _____ day of _____, the plaintiff purchased of the defendant, Salter, a cargo of coal, then on board of a vessel, at ten dollars per chaldron, amounting to 1125 dollars, payable in a note at thirty days. The coal was delivered to the plaintiff, who paid Salter one hundred dollars on account. That the defendants, P. & S. Schermerhorn, afterwards issued an attachment against W. W., as an absent debtor, and the defendants F. & B. caused another attachment to be issued against W. W., as an absconding debtor, and warrants were issued, in the usual form, to the sheriff of _____, who gave notice to the plaintiff not to pay over to any person, except the sheriff, any property or money of W. W., and the plaintiff was informed by the sheriff, and the attorneys of the defendants P. & S. S., and F. & B., that the coal so purchased by him was the property of W. W., for whom the defendant Salter was only an agent, and that the plaintiff would be held liable, if he paid the residue of the money to Salter. That the plaintiff applied to the defendants for leave to pay the money to Salter, without responsibility; and he, also, applied to Salter, to relieve or secure him against the operation of the attachment, and any further responsibility, which they respectively refused to do, and that Salter had commenced a suit at law against the plaintiff to recover the money. The plaintiff averred that he was always ready and willing to pay the money, if he could do so safely, and offered to pay it into court. He prayed for an injunction to restrain the suit at law, and for relief generally. The bill was accompanied with the usual affidavit, denying any collusion and indemnity, etc. Upon the plaintiff's paying the money into court, an injunction was granted. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2030; Richards v. Salter, 6 Johns. Ch. (N. Y.) 445.

- B. Bill of Interpleader (Modern English Form).

(The bill set forth a bond of the plaintiffs, who were partners together in trade, for payment of £18,000, to M. J., when she was unmarried; the marriage of the defendant H. J. and M. J., his wife, and the issue of the marriage, viz., the three infant defendants; a settlement made previously to their marriage, by which the bond, together with the principal money and interest thereby secured, was assigned to the defendants, T. B., S. B., and R. J., upon certain trusts for the benefit of the said M. J., her said husband, and their issue, "but the plaintiffs are not acquainted with the particulars of the said settlement, and crave leave to refer thereto.")

The said T. B., S. B., and R. J. claim to be entitled under the said settlement to receive the principal money and interest secured by the said bond.

The plaintiffs have lately discovered that the said bond or obligation is now in custody or possession of the defendant A. B., and he claims to be entitled thereto and the principal money and interest thereby secured.

On or about, etc., a notice in writing was served upon the plaintiffs, by the solicitor of the last-named defendant, which is in the words following, etc. (Claiming the money.)

of threats to prosecute an action or suit, and that he has actually sued out a writ in the court of ——— in the names of the said H. J. and M. J., his wife, against the plaintiffs.)

The other defendants T. B., S. B., and R. J., also threaten and intend to commence and prosecute some proceedings at law or in equity against the plaintiffs, on the recovery of the amount due from the plaintiffs upon the said bond. Plaintiffs submit that the said defendants ought to interplead between themselves, the plaintiffs being ready and hereby offering to pay the same to such of the defendants as this honorable court may determine to be entitled thereto.

The said last-named defendants ought to set forth the particulars of their respective claims to the moneys due upon the said bond or obligation, and how to make out the same.

Prayer.

1. That the defendants may answer the premises, and that the defendants may be decreed to interplead and settle and adjust between themselves their right or claims to or in the money due or payable under the said bond or obligation, the plaintiffs being ready and willing, and hereby offering to pay the moneys due and payable under the same to such of the said defendants as this honorable court may determine to be entitled thereto.

2. That the said defendant A. B. may be restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from prosecuting the said action so commenced by him as aforesaid against the plaintiffs; and that all the said defendants may be respectively restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from prosecuting or commencing any other action or actions or legal proceeding or proceedings against the plaintiffs, or any or either of them, for the recovery of the moneys due or to become due or payable under the said bond or obligation, or any part thereof, or otherwise concerning the matters aforesaid.

3. (For general relief.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2027.

C. Bill of Interpleader, Prayer That Defendants Interplead.

And that the said several defendants may be decreed to interplead touching their said several claims, and that plaintiff may be at liberty to pay the several sums now justly and fairly due from him for the rent of the said messuage or tenement and premises into the bank, in the name and the privity of the accountant-general (or of the clerk), of this honorable court, in trust for the benefit of the persons or person entitled thereto, subject to the further order of this court, after deducting thereout in the first place, the aforesaid sum of ———, to be allowed unto plaintiff for repairs pursuant to the said agreement, together with all sums of money expended and advanced by the plaintiff for land-tax and other necessary outgoings in respect of the said premises. And that plaintiff may be at liberty to quit the possession of the said premises, and that possession thereof may be delivered up to such person or persons as this honorable court shall direct or appoint. And that plaintiff may have a satisfaction or allowance made out unto him out of the rent of the said premises for the several articles hereinbefore and in the first agreement particularly mentioned, which have been provided by plaintiff at his own expense for the said premises. And that in the meantime the said defendants, S. O. and T. C., may be restrained by the order or injunction of this honorable court from all further proceedings in the aforesaid action of ejectment brought against plaintiff, and that they and all the said other defendants may be in like manner restrained from making any distresses or distress upon the said messuage or tenement and premises, and from commencing or prosecuting any action or actions at law against plaintiff to recover the rent of the said premises, or to turn plaintiff out of possession thereof, or otherwise from proceeding at law against the plaintiff touching any one of the matters aforesaid. And that all proper and necessary directions may be given for the purposes aforesaid. (And for further relief.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2031.

D. Bill by Executor, in Nature of Interpleader To Obtain Instructions of Court.

To the honorable the justices of the supreme judicial court, sitting in equity.

W. T. A., of B., in the county of S., esquire, brings his complaint against S. B., of said B., widow, and J. G. B., of said B., single woman, and W. W. S., of said B., and Hester V. A., of M., in the state of New Jersey, wife of Henry V. A., physician, and said Henry and C. W., of the city and state of N. Y., and the said H. V. A., as trustee of said C.

And the plaintiff shows that on the twenty-sixth day of March, A. D. 1860, T. W., of said B., esquire, made his last will and testament; that T. W. departed this life on the thirtieth day of said March; that on the thirtieth day of April, of the same year, the said will was admitted to probate, and letters testamentary issued to the plaintiff, the executor therein named.

2. That among other provisions of said last will and testament are these following, etc., as by reference to a certified copy of said will in court to be produced will more fully appear.

3. That the real estate devised to the plaintiff, upon the trusts in said will recited, was, at the time of the decease of said T. W., subject to a mortgage for the sum of fifty-six hundred dollars and interest.

4. That the testator purchased said real estate of one S. R., and that it was conveyed to him by deed of said S. R., bearing date the second day of May, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven; that the consideration stated in said deed, and, as the plaintiff is informed and believes, the true consideration for the conveyance, was the sum of eighty-five hundred dollars; that after the description of the metes and bounds of the land in the said deed conveyed, the conveyance is "declared to be subject to a mortgage of fifty-six hundred dollars and interest, and also subject to the taxes for 1857, said mortgage forming part of the consideration; that said mortgage is excepted from and taken out of the covenants of said deed, as by reference to a copy of said deed in court to be produced will more fully appear.

5. That the mortgage referred to in said deed was given by said R. and one L. B. L. to J. V. K., to secure the promissory note of said L., for said sum of fifty-six hundred dollars.

6. That after the conveyance of said estate to the testator, the testator paid the interest upon said mortgage as it became due to the said J. V. K., the holder thereof; that the testator, as the plaintiff is informed and believes, was desirous of taking up the mortgage and substituting his own note therefor, and offered to the said J. V. K., the holder of the mortgage, so to do; but the said J. V. K. expressed a preference to let the matter remain as it then stood.

7. That the said S. B. and J. G. B. claim that said mortgage debt is to be paid from the personal assets in the hands of the plaintiff, as executor.

8. That the said W. W. S. and others, residuary legatees, claim that the said real estate is devised to the plaintiff in trust for said S. B. and J. G. B., subject to the incumbrance of said mortgage and that the plaintiff has no authority under said will to pay said mortgage debt.

9. And the plaintiff has no interest in the matter in controversy between the several defendants, but is advised that he cannot safely proceed in the matter without the direction and judgment of this court sitting in equity, having no adequate remedy at law. Wherefore the plaintiff prays that the said several defendants may be decreed to interplead and state their several claims upon the plaintiff in the execution of his said trust as executor; so that the court may adjudge whether a sufficient sum shall be taken from the assets of the estate in the hands of the plaintiff, to pay said mortgage debt and the interest thereon; or whether the same shall be paid to the defendants claiming under the residuary clause of said will.

To the end, therefore, that the said defendants may answer the premises, and that they may be decreed to interplead together; and that it may be ascertained by a decree of this honorable court whether said mortgage debt shall be paid by the plaintiff from the assets of the testator in the hands of the plaintiff as executor; and that the plaintiff may have other needed relief in the premises;

May it please your honors to issue your writ of subpoena, directed to the several defendants, commanding them, and every of them, at a day certain, to appear before your honors, and then and there to answer all and singular the premises, and to stand to and abide such order and decree therein, as to your honors shall seem meet.

II. Affidavits.

A. Affidavit To Be Annexed to Bill of Interpleader (a).

I, _____, the above named plaintiff, make oath and say, that the bill in this suit (or the bill hereunto annexed) is not filed by me in collusion with any or either of the defendants in the said bill named, but such bill is filed by me of my own accord for relief in this honorable court. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2175.

Affidavit to Bill of Interpleader (b).

The said J. C. maketh oath and saith, that he has exhibited his bill of interpleader against the defendants in this cause without any fraud or collusion between him and the said defendants, or any or either of them; and that the said J. C. hath not exhibited his said bill at the request of the said defendants, or any or either of them, and that he is not indemnified by the said defendants or by any or either of them, and saith that he hath exhibited his said bill with no other intent but to avoid being sued or molested by the said defendants, who are proceeding, or threaten to proceed, at law against him for the recovery of the rent of the said _____, in the bill mentioned. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2029.

B. Affidavit of Secretary to Public Company To Be Annexed to Bill of Interpleader.

I, H. D., of, etc., make oath and say, that I am secretary of the _____ insurance company, and that I do not, and to the best of my knowledge and belief the said insurance company do not, nor do or does any members or member thereof, collude with either of the defendants named in the bill hereunto annexed, but such bill is filed by me, on behalf of the said company, of my own accord for relief in this honorable court (or, if the company is plaintiff say, "but such bill is filed by the said company of its own accord, for relief," etc.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2030.

III. Orders.

A. Order for Injunction in Interpleader on Payment Into Court.

It is ordered that the plaintiffs W. and B. be at liberty to pay the sum of $_____ insured on the life of H., into the bank, with the privy, etc., to the credit of this cause; and thereupon it is ordered that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendants F. and M., his wife, from proceeding in the action at law commenced by them against the plaintiffs, as in the bill mentioned; and to restrain the said defendants from commencing or preventing any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings against the plaintiffs, or either of them, to recover the money insured by the policies in the bill mentioned. Direction for investment when paid in. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2327; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 962.

B. Order for Injunction on Undertaking as to Subject-Matter.

(Plaintiffs sold resin to Ws, but retained possession at Ws' request; Ws resold to B., who before delivery became bankrupt. Actions were brought against the plaintiffs by Ws, and by C., etc., B.'s assignees. Blann was assignee under trust deed for the creditors of Ws.)

And the plaintiffs (by their counsel), undertaking not to part with the _____ tons of resin mentioned in the plaintiff's bill, until the further order of this court, and also undertaking to give a notice of motion that the said _____ tons of resin may be sold and the proceeds thereof paid into court, it is ordered that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendants Ws and C. from prosecuting the actions at law commenced by them respectively against the plaintiffs, for or in respect of the _____ tons of resin in the bill mentioned, and also to restrain the said defendants, together with the defendant Blann, from commencing or prosecuting any further or other action or suit against the plaintiffs, for or in respect of the said _____ tons of resin; until, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2328; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 962.

IV. Decrees.

A. Decree To Interplead.

This court doth order that the parties interplead; and for that purpose it is ordered that the defendants W., etc., proceed in the action of, etc., brought by them against the plaintiffs (as in the bill mentioned), with liberty for the defendants C., etc., the assignees of B., to defend such action. Direction to tax the plaintiffs' costs of suit, and also of the said action, and of the action brought by the defendants C., etc., against the plaintiffs, so far as they have proceeded; and to raise and pay such costs from proceeds of sale of the resin paid into court. Adjourn, etc., until after trial. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2329; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 964.

B. Decree, Action Stayed as to Policy Money; Inquiry Who Entitled.

(By consent.) Plaintiff to be at liberty to retain the sum of $——— for his costs of the action at law in the bill mentioned, and of this cause, out of the sum of $———, the amount due upon the policy in the bill mentioned. And it is ordered that the plaintiff M., on or before, etc., pay the sum of $———, being the residue of the said sum of $———, after such retainer, into the bank, etc., to the credit of the cause. Directions to invest; injunction to stay the defendant T. from prosecuting the action at law commenced by her against the plaintiff, and to stay her and the other defendants from commencing or prosecuting any other action against the plaintiff or the insurance company in respect of any money due on the policy. And it is ordered, that all further proceedings in this cause be stayed as regards the plaintiff; and as between the defendants that an inquiry may be made who is entitled to the said sum of $———. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2329; Macintyre v. Thomson, 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 964.

V. Under Code.

A. Complaint, Interpleader.

I. That before the making of the claims hereafter mentioned one M. N. deposited with the plaintiff (describe the property) for (safe keeping).

II. That the defendant W. X. claims the same (under an alleged assignment thereof to him from the said M. N.)

III. That the defendant Y. Z. also claims the same (under an order of the said M. N., transferring the same to him).

IV. That the plaintiff is ignorant of the respective rights of the defendants.

V. That he has no claim upon the said property, and is ready and willing to deliver it to such persons as the court shall direct.

VI. That this action is not brought by collusion with either of the defendants.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That the defendants be restrained, by injunction, from taking any proceedings against the plaintiff in relation thereto.

2. That they be required to interplead together concerning their claims to the said property.

3. That some person be authorized to receive the said property pending such litigation.

4. That upon delivering the same to such (person) the plaintiff be discharged from all liability to either of the defendants in relation thereto.

5. And that the plaintiff's costs be paid out of the same. 1 Abb. Forms 567.

B. Oath Denying Collusion, To Annex to Complaint of Interpleader.

That he does not bring this action by the consent, knowledge, privity, or combination of any or either of the defendants in this action, but only of his own free will, for relief in this court. 2 Abb. Forms 328.

C. Interpleader, Order for Judgment and Reference.

(Recitals of proceedings as in other cases, continuing):

Thereupon it is ordered and adjudged, that the said complaint (or bill of interpleader) is properly brought by the plaintiffs in this action; that the plaintiffs be paid their costs of this action, to be taxed by deducting the same from out of the fund in the complaint mentioned, and ——— dollars as an additional allowance; and that the plaintiffs thereupon, within thirty days next hereafter, pay into court, and deposit the amount of the residue of said fund, principal and interest to the time of such payment, with the clerk of this court, for the benefit of such of the defendants as shall be found to be entitled thereto; and that the plaintiffs so paying said amount into court, and depositing the same with the clerk of this court, be dismissed from the further prosecution of this action, and thereupon be released, acquitted, and discharged from all claims or liability to either or any of the defendants in this action, for, upon, or by reason of said fund, on the payment thereof into court as aforesaid.

And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the said defendants do interplead, settle, and adjust their several claims, demands and matters in controversy in this action, as between themselves.

(And for that purpose, it is further ordered and adjudged, that it be, and is hereby referred to R. E., esq., counsellor at law, of ———, as sole referee, to hear and determine the same, fourteen days' notice of such hearing to be first given to the respective defendants, or their attorneys, with power to require said several defendants to present, try, and determine their several and respective claims to said fund in controversy before him, in such manner and under such regulations as he may deem just and proper.

That the said referee, among other things, examine, ascertain, and determine which of said defendants is entitled to the said fund so deposited with the clerk of this court; and if he shall be of the opinion that any one or more of the said defendants is, or are, equitably entitled to have a share in the same, that said referee also ascertain and determine what portion of said fund belongs to each; and that said referee do find, decide, and report thereon with all convenient speed. 2 Abb. Forms 557.

VI. By Motion.

A. Affidavit in Action for Recovery of Money.

Y. Z., being duly sworn says:

I. That he is president of the defendants above named, who are a banking corporation, duly incorporated by and under the laws of this state.

II. That the above entitled action has been commenced, and is now actually pending, in this court against the above named defendants on a contract; and that the said defendants have not yet answered therein and their time to do so does not expire until the ——— day of ——— next.

III. That said action is brought to recover the sum of ——— dollars, deposited with the said defendants on or about the ——— day of ———, 18——, by one M. N.; and that the plaintiff claims to be entitled to said moneys so deposited, under an assignment thereof to him by the said M. N.

IV. That on the ——— day of ———, 18——, one O. P. gave to said defendants notice that he had been appointed receiver of all the property of the said M. N., and demanded of said defendants that they pay the said deposit to him; which demand was made without any collusion with these defendants. And this deponent further says, that the defendants are not acquainted with the respective merits of said claims, and do not know to which of said parties they can safely pay said money; but hereby offer to pay the same into court, upon being discharged from liability to either of them, in order that said several claimants may interplead, and settle their claims between themselves. 2 Abb. Forms 238.

B. Affidavit, in Action for Specific Property.

Y. Z., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the defendant in the above entitled action.

II. That the complaint herein was served on ———, and no answer has yet been served or filed.

III. That the property which is claimed by the complaint herein was consigned to deponent by one M. N., of ———, subject to his order.

IV. That the same property is claimed by one O. P., of ———, under a written order of the said M. N., dated ———, and directing its delivery to him as the alleged purchaser thereof; while the plaintiff herein claims under a general assignment of all the property of the said M. N., to him, executed by the said M. N. on the same day.

V. That the defendant is ignorant of the rights of the respective claimants, and is not acting in collusion with either of them.

VI. That the defendant is ready and willing to deliver the said property to such person as the court may direct, upon being discharged from liability to either of the said claimants. 2 Abb. Forms 240.

C. Notice of Motion for Interpleader.

Take notice, that on the affidavit herewith served, and on the complaint herein, the defendant will move the court, at a special term to be held at ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18——, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, to substitute O. P., of ———, in his place, as defendant herein, and to discharge this defendant from liability to either the plaintiff or the said O. P. concerning the agreement (or otherwise designate the contract) mentioned in the complaint, upon this defendant's paying into court the sum of ——— dollars, the amount claimed in the summons herein (or, if the action is for specific property say, concerning the property mentioned in the complaint, upon said defendant's transferring the same to such person as the court may direct); or for such other relief as may be just (and for the costs of this motion). 2 Abb. Forms 238.

D. Orders.

1. Order for Interpleader.

Ordered, that on payment by the defendant to the clerk of the county of _____, of the amount claimed in the summons herein, principal and interest, less ten dollars costs of this motion, within five days from the entry of this order, O. P. be substituted as defendant in this action in place of Y. Z., the defendant above named, and that said Y. Z. thereupon be discharged from liability to either the plaintiff above named or said O. P. And it is further ordered, that if the said O. P. does not appear and defend this action within twenty days after service upon him of a copy of this order, together with a copy of the complaint herein, the plaintiff may apply ex parte for an order that the money so deposited be paid over to him. 2 Abb. Forms 241.

2. Order of Interpleader, Delivery of Specific Property, and Appointing Receiver Therefor.

Ordered, I. That the defendant deliver the property mentioned in the complaint herein to R. S., esq., of _____, who is hereby appointed receiver thereof.

II. That O. P., of _____, be substituted as defendant in this action, in place of the above named Y. Z.; who shall, upon delivery of the said property to the said receiver, be discharged from all liability therefor, either to the plaintiff or to the said O. P.

III. That the said receiver hold the said property, subject to the further direction of this court. (If any special authority is needed as for the collection of incomes, or the sale of the property, insert it here.)

IV. That within _____ days after entry (or, notice) of this order, the plaintiff serve a summons and a copy of his complaint, amended as he may see fit (with a copy of this order), upon the said O. P.; and that the said O. P. answer such complaint within _____ days thereafter.

V. That if the plaintiff neglect to serve his summons and complaint and this order as herein directed, the defendant Y. Z. may apply to the court for an order dismissing the action, and that the said property be delivered by the receiver to the said defendant Y. Z.; and if the said O. P. neglect to answer such complaint, if served as herein directed, the plaintiff may apply on notice, for an order that said property be delivered by the receiver to the plaintiff.

VI. That _____ dollars costs be allowed to the said Y. Z., to be deducted by him out of the fund (or, to be paid by the plaintiff, and allowed to him in case of his final recovery of judgment). 2 Abb. Forms 242.

In the matter of the petition of C. D. to be made a party defendant in an action pending in this court between A. B., plaintiff, and Y. Z., defendant.

To the supreme court held in and for the county of _____:

The petition of your petitioner, C. D., shows to this court:

I. That an action is now pending in this court by A. B., plaintiff, against Y. Z., defendant, for the recovery of the possession of certain real property, situated in _____, and known as number _____, _____ street, and more particularly described in the complaint in said action; which action the petitioner is informed and believes (is at issue, but) has not proceeded to judgment.

II. That said Y. Z. occupies said premises as tenant of your petitioner, and not otherwise. That your petitioner claims in good faith to be the owner in fee simple of said premises (here may briefly indicate source of title, e. g., thus), having purchased the same at a sale by the sheriff of _____, upon a judgment and execution duly issued thereon against the property of one M. N., who as your petitioner is informed and believes, was the owner in fee simple of said premises at the time of said sale.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that he may be made a party defendant in said action, and may be allowed to defend the same, and that he may have such other relief as may be just. (Verification.) 2 Abb. Forms 235.

B. Petition by Owner, Goods Seized on Attachment.

"To the judge of the circuit court of Greenville county:

"The petition and claim of the Pennsylvania Steel Company of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, respectfully shows:

"1. That the Pennsylvania Steel Company is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

"2. That the Pennsylvania Steel Company prior to the fifth day of June, 1888, contracted with the Georgia Construction and Investment Company, defendant in the above entitled suit, to sell to said company a lot of steel rails for construction of a railroad, at a price and on terms of sale agreed upon between them.

"3. That on the fifth day of June, 1888, the Pennsylvania Steel Company, in pursuance of said contract of sale, caused to be shipped from the city of Philadelphia, in the state of Pennsylvania, via the Port Royal and Augusta Railroad, thirteen hundred and four steel rails, weighing three hundred and twenty-five gross tons, to be transported by the Port Royal and Augusta Railroad Company and its connecting lines to Greenville, in the State of South Carolina, and there to be delivered to the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company.

"4. That likewise, in pursuance of said contract of sale, the said Pennsylvania Steel Company on the 15th day of June, 1888, caused to be shipped from the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, via the Port Royal and Augusta Railroad, twenty-seven hundred and six steel rails, weighing six hundred and seventy-five 29-224 tons, to be transported by the Port Royal and Augusta Railroad and its connecting lines to Greenville, in the State of South Carolina, and there to be delivered to the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company.

"5. That at the times hereinafter mentioned there was and still is due to the Pennsylvania Steel Company by the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company, for and on account of the purchase money of the said steel rails so shipped under said contract of sale, the sum of sixteen thousand and five hundred dollars.

"6. That a portion of said steel rails, viz.: 271 at Laurens depot, in the County of Greenville, being still in the course of transportation and before delivery to the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company, the vendees under said contract of sale, were levied upon under a warrant of attachment issued by the clerk of the court of Greenville County in the above entitled suit, under which warrant the sheriff of Greenville County on the _____ day of _____, 1888, returned as attached the said 271 rails at said point above named. That the remainder of said rails so levied upon under said warrant by the sheriff of Greenville County, viz.: 70 at McBee's depot lot, in the County of Greenville, 330 near Reedy River Church, in the County of Greenville, and 107 near Carter's Shop, in the County of Greenville, were at the time of said levy in the possession of the said Georgia and Construction and Investment Company, but were held by the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company, subject to the order of your petitioner, the Pennsylvania Steel Company, and as the property of the said Pennsylvania Steel Company until paid for.

"7. That subsequent to the making of the said contract of sale and before delivery of the said rails to the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company, and before the issuing of the notices hereinafter mentioned, the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company became and still is insolvent and unable to pay the said sum of $16,500 so due by it to the Pennsylvania Steel Company.

"8. That the said Port Royal and Augusta Railroad Company and its connecting lines, in whose custody and under whose control said rails were at the time undelivered, were duly notified by the said Pennsylvania Steel Company not to deliver the rails so shipped under said contract of said sale, and said notices were given before the delivery of said rails to the said Georgia Construction and Investment Company.

"Wherefore your petitioner claims the said steel rails mentioned in paragraph 6 hereof as its property, and prays that the same may be so adjudged, and that the sheriff of Greenville County may be ordered to deliver the same to your petitioner, and for such other and further relief as may be just, together with the costs of this proceeding." v. Georgia Const. & Inv. Co., 32 S. C. 319, 11 S. E. 192.

Note.—Not directly in question, but sufficiency necessary to decision.

C. Petition for Intervention by Execution Creditor, Suit Against Levying Officer.

"Comes now E. M. Ensfield & Co., and shows to the court that they recovered a judgment in the circuit court of the United States, district of Nebraska, against Warren D. and A. S. Howard, doing business as Howard Bros., for the sum of $695 and costs, in an action pending in said court wherein E. M. Ensfield & Co. was plaintiff and said Howard Bros. was defendant; that an execution was duly issued upon said judgment and delivered to Brad B. Slaughter, marshal of said court, and one of the defendants herein; that said execution was duly levied upon a stock of general merchandise and certain notes and book accounts as property of said Howard Bros. by said marshal, through his duly appointed deputy, R. Q. Stewart, defendant herein; that said property was advertised and sold according to law by said marshal and his deputy; said property so levied upon and sold is the same property for the alleged conversion of which plaintiff herein seeks to recover from defendants herein; that the plaintiff to this action claims to have been owner of said property at the time of said levy and sale which your petitioner alleges is untrue, and says that said property at the time of said levy and sale was the property of said Howard Bros.; that the claim of said W. S. Howard to the ownership of said property is made in pursuance of a conspiracy and confederation between him and said Howard Bros., to hinder, cheat, and defraud the creditors of said Howard Bros., and particularly your petitioners. Your petitioners caused said levy and sale to be made as aforesaid, and have obligated themselves to indemnify and save harmless the said marshal from all damages and liabilities such marshal might incur by reason of the making of such levy and sale. Said Howard Bros. being insolvent, your petitioner has an interest in the controversy in this case, adverse to the plaintiff, and as judgment creditor under said execution, and is the real party in interest in the defense of this case.

"Wherefore your petitioners pray that they may be made parties defendant in this case and be permitted to defend the same, and that an order be made to that effect, and that they be given a reasonable time in which to plead." Howard v. Stewart, 34 Neb. 765, 52 N. W. 714.

Note.—Not directly in controversy, but its sufficiency necessary to decision.

II. Affidavit by Owner of Chattels on Motion To Be Made Party.

C. D. being duly sworn, says:

I. That the above entitled action is brought for the recovery of the possession of certain personal property, to-wit (one hundred barrels of flour); which action has not, as deponent is informed and believes, proceeded to judgment.

II. That the defendant received the said (flour) from this deponent for storage, and this deponent is the sole owner thereof.

III. That the claim of the plaintiff in this action is made adversely to deponent's title, and deponent desires to litigate the question directly with him. 2 Abb. Forms 236.

III. Notice of Motion by Owner of Chattels To Be Made Party.

(Title as in I; or if the motion is on affidavit alone, entitle in the cause.)

Please take notice, that on the annexed petition (or, affidavit), and on the pleadings in this action, the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____ o'clock in the _____ noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, for an order, under §122 of the Code of Procedure, directing C. D., the petitioner above named, to be made a party defendant in the action now pending in this court between A. B., plaintiff, and Y. Z., defendant, and for such other relief as may be just. 2 Abb. Forms 236.

IV. Order Bringing in Third Person as Party Defendant.

On reading and filing the petition (or, affidavit) of C. D., dated the _____ day of _____, 18____ (and proof of due service of notice of this motion), and on motion of O. P. for said C. D., and after hearing Q. R. (or, no one appearing) in opposition:

Ordered, that C. D. be made a party defendant herein, and that the summons and complaint be amended accordingly (and that plaintiff have leave to amend them in other respects as he may be advised); and that on said C. D. causing a notice of appearance for himself herein to be given to plaintiff's attorney within _____ days from the entry of this order, a copy of the complaint as amended be served upon his attorney within twenty days thereafter, and the cause thereupon proceed in like manner as if said C. D. had been originally made a party defendant herein. 2 Abb. Forms 236.

V. Order Permitting Intervention With Conditions.

"It is hereby ordered that said petitioners have leave, and leave is hereby granted to them, to intervene in this suit for their own interests, and the interests of those whom they represent, and to that end to appear in the suit within three days, as defendants, in the same manner and with like effect as if they were named in the original and supplemental bills as defendants having or claiming an interest: Provided, that said petitioners all appear by the same solicitor or solicitors. This order to be without prejudice to proceedings already had; but this is not to be construed as depriving the petitioners of leave to apply for a rehearing or review of any order heretofore made, upon due notice to the parties interested." Ex parte Jordan, 94 U. S. 248, 24 L. ed. 123.

State of New York, County of Livingston, ss:

The jurors of the People of the State of New York, in and for the body of the county of Livingston aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, present, that John Cramer, late of the town of North Dansville, in the county aforesaid, on the tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty, at the town and in the county of Livingston aforesaid, did sell and cause to be sold strong and spirituous liquors and wines in quantities less than five gallons at a time, to divers citizens of this State, and to divers persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and did then and there deliver and cause to be delivered, in pursuance of such sale to the said divers citizens of this State, and to the said divers persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, the said strong and spirituous liquors and wines in quantities less than five gallons at a time, to-wit: One pint of alcohol, one pint of wine, one pint of gin, one pint of brandy, one pint of rum, one pint of whisky, one pint of spirits, one pint of ale, one pint of strong beer, one pint of cordial, one pint of porter, one pint of distilled liquor, and one pint of mixed liquors, without having a license therefor granted as provided in the act of the legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An act to suppress intemperance and to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors," passed April 16, 1857, and without any lawful authority, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said John Cramer, on the tenth day of March, in the year aforesaid, at the town of North Dansville, in the county aforesaid, did sell and cause to be sold strong and spirituous liquors and wines to divers citizens of this State, and to divers persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and did then and there deliver and cause to be delivered, in pursuance of such sale, to the said divers citizens of this State, and to the said divers persons to the jurors aforesaid unknown, the said strong and spirituous liquors and wines, to-wit: One pint of alcohol, one pint of wine, one pint of gin, one pint of brandy, one pint of rum, one pint of whisky, one pint of spirits, one pint of ale, one pint of strong beer, one pint of cordial, one pint of porter, one pint of distilled liquor, and one pint of mixed liquors, to be drank in the house and shop of him, the said John Cramer, there situate, and in the out-house, yard and garden appertaining thereto, and did then and there suffer and permit the said liquors and wines so sold by him and under his directions and authority, to be drank in his house and shop, and in the out-house, yard and garden thereto belonging, without having obtained a license therefor as an inn, tavern, or hotel keeper, and without being in any manner thereunto authorized by law, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

G. Bulkley, District Attorney.

People v. Cramer, 5 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 171.

Indictment for Selling Liquors Without License (b).

"John Doe Bodeckar, whose true Christian name is to the prosecuting attorney unknown, in King county, state of Washington, on the 4th day of July, 1894, unlawfully and wilfully did sell and dispose of, for and in consideration of money, intoxicating malt liquor, to-wit: beer, commonly known and designated as lager beer, to a person and persons whose name is to the prosecuting attorney unknown, said malt liquor then and there being an intoxicating liquor and not then and there sold upon the written prescription of any reputable physician or for medical, mechanical or scientific purposes but for the purpose of beverage only, said intoxicating liquor as aforesaid then and there not sold within the corporate limits of any city, town or village or within one mile of the corporate limits of any city, town or village, or within one mile of the corporate limits of the same, he, the said John Doe Bodeckar, whose true Christian name is unknown to the prosecuting attorney as aforesaid, not then and there having a license issued by the proper authorities to sell intoxicating liquors in King county, state of Washington." State v. Bodeckar, 11 Wash. 417, 39 Pac. 645.

II. Affidavit (Complaint) Selling Contrary to Law.

That on, etc., at the county of Harrison and state of Indiana, James Welsh did then and there unlawfully sell to one Andrew J. Glaze, at and for the price of 5 cents, a less quantity than a quart of beer at a time, to-wit: one glass of beer containing a half pint, he the said James Welsh not then and there having a license to sell intoxicating liquors in a less quantity than a quart at a time, in force at the time, according to the laws of said state, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, etc. Welsh v. State, 126 Ind. 71, 25 N. E. 883, 9 L. R. A. 664.

III. Indictment, Selling Less Than Permitted Quantity.

M. Tamler and Jos. Polly are accused by the grand jury of the county of Multnomah, state of Oregon, by this indictment, of the crime of selling spirituous liquors in this state in less quantities than one gallon, without having first obtained a license from the county court of the county of Multnomah for that purpose, committed as follows: That said M. Tamler and Jos. Polly on the fifth day of July, A. D. 1889, in the county of Multnomah and state of Oregon, did unlawfully and wilfully sell spirituous liquors in this state, namely, whiskey, in less quantities than one gallon, to-wit: about one gill of whiskey to one Timothy Maloy for ten cents; the said M. Tamler and Jos. Polly not having first then and there obtained a license from the county court of Multnomah county for the purpose, namely, for the purpose of selling that quantity of liquor, contrary to the statutes in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Oregon. Dated at Portland in the county aforesaid, this 15th day of July, 1889. State v. Tamler & Polly, 19 Ore. 528, 25 Pac. 71.

IV. Information for Illegally Selling Liquor To Be Drunk on Premises.

"State of Illinois, Bureau county, ss. In the county court of Bureau county. Of the August term, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Be it remembered, that Charles C. Warren, county attorney for the county of Bureau and State of Illinois, and who prosecutes in this behalf in the name and by the authority of the people of the State of Illinois, in his own proper person, comes now here into court, and, in the name and by the authority of the people aforesaid, gives the court to be informed and understand that Baltis Myers, on the 1st day of July, A. D. 1872, at and within the county of Bureau and State of Illinois, and without him, the said Baltis Myers, having first obtained a license to keep a grocery, a certain quantity of intoxicating liquor did sell, to be drank in, upon and about the building or premises where sold, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of Illinois." Myers v. People, 67 Ill. 503.

V. Indictment for Giving Away on False Prescription.

"State of West Virginia, Wayne county, to-wit: The grand jurors of the State of West Virginia in and for the body of the county of Wayne, impaneled and sworn in the circuit court of said county, and now attending said court upon their oaths, present that Alvin Watts, a practicing physician, in said county, on the 1st day of January, 1896, for the purpose of aiding one Fitzhue Stephens, a licensed druggist doing business as such in said county, in violating chapter 32 of the Code of West Virginia, in the unlawful sale of spirituous liquors, did unlawfully give one G. W. Fry a written prescription for spirituous liquors, specifying therein the said G. W. Fry as the person to whom said liquors were to be furnished by said Fitzhugh Stephens, druggist, together with the kind and quantity of liquors to be so furnished, and did in said prescription falsely, knowingly, and unlawfully state that said spirituous liquors so prescribed were absolutely necessary as a medicine, and not to be used as a beverage; he, the said Alvis Watts, then and there well knowing that said spirituous liquors so prescribed for the said G. W. Fry were not absolutely necessary as a medicine for the said G. W. Fry, and were to be used by him as a beverage, against the peace and dignity of the State." State v. Watts, 43 W. Va. 182, 27 S. E. 302.

Note.—The court in the opinion suggests this language instead of that of the indictment: "That Alvis Watts, a physician, did, on the 1st day of January, 1896, in the county aforesaid, unlawfully, for the purpose," etc., or "that Alvis Watts, a physician, on the 1st day of January, 1896, did, in the county aforesaid, unlawfully, for the purpose," etc.

VI. Information, Maintaining Nuisance by Selling Liquor.

"In the name and by the authority of the State of Kansas, I, Theodore Laing, county attorney in and for the county of Cloud, in said state, who prosecute for and in behalf of said state, in all courts sitting in and for said county of Cloud, and duly empowered to inform of offenses committed within said county, come now here and give the court to understand and be informed, that Camille Teissedre, on, to-wit, the first day of June, A. D. 1881, and on divers other days and times between that date and the day of the filing of this information in said county of Cloud, did keep the place known and described as the west room of Bartlett & Crump's brick block, situated on lot one of block five in the city of Clyde, in said Cloud county; and in said place the said Camille Teissedre, as well as divers other persons, with the knowledge and consent of the said Camille Teissedre, then and on said other days and times unlawfully did sell, barter, give away, and keep for sale, barter and use, intoxicating liquors, in violation of the act of the legislature of the state of Kansas, approved February 19, 1881, entitled 'An act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, except for medical, scientific and mechanical purposes, and to regulate the manufacture and sale thereof for such excepted purposes,' to the common nuisance of the people of said state of Kansas, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Kansas." State v. Teissedre, 30 Kan. 210, 476, 2 Pac. 108, 650.

VII. Affidavit, Selling Liquor to Minor.

"George King, being duly sworn according to law, upon his oath says that, on the 26th day of December, 1879, at the county of Wabash, in the State of Indiana, one Schuyler Hamilton did then and there unlawfully sell one gill of intoxicating liquor, to-wit, gin, for the sum of ten cents in money, the same being less than a quart, to one Orlando C. King, who was then and there under twenty-one years of age, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Indiana." State v. Hamilton, 75 Ind. 238.

VIII. Indictment, Selling Liquor on Sunday.

"That one Valentine Effinger, late of the county aforesaid, at the county aforesaid, on the ——— day of June, A. D. 1886, that day being then and there the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday (said Valentine Effinger being then and there a dram-shop-keeper, having license as such) did unlawfully then and there sell and dispose of, upon and about his premises, to one Elbert Stone, then and there being, certain intoxicating liquor, to-wit, one-half pint of beer for ten cents, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state." State v. Effinger, 44 Mo. App. 81.

IX. Indictment, Selling on Election Day.

"In the name and behalf of the citizens of Georgia, charge and accuse T. Newman, of the county and State aforesaid, with the offense of misde-meaner; for that the said T. Newman, on the sixth day of June in the year 1896, in the county aforesaid, did then and there unlawfully and with force and arms then and there sell, give and furnish spirituous, intoxicating and malt liquors to various persons, a primary election being then and there held on said day to elect candidates for the democratic party of said county for the various county offices of said county." Newman v. State, 101 Ga. 534, 28 S. E. 1005.

X. Complaint, Being Open at Prohibited Hour.

"On the 22d day of July, A. D. 1882, at the village of Clare, in the county aforesaid (the said 22d day of July, A. D. 1882, being a week day), Burton Husted, Charles Peters and Frank Parish (he, the said Burton Husted, not being a person whose business it is and was at that time to deal in drugs and medicines), did not close at the hour of nine o'clock on said 22d day of July, A. D. 1882, a certain saloon in the village of Clare, in said county, which said saloon he, the said Burton Husted, was then and there the proprietor and keeper, the said saloon being then and there a place in said village where malt, spirituous, and intoxicating liquors were sold at retail. But that the said Burton Husted kept the said saloon open on the said 22d day of July, A. D. 1882, until twenty minutes past eleven o'clock in the afternoon of said day, contrary and in violation of Act 259 of the Session Laws of 1881.

"And the said Charles Peters and Frank Parish being then and there clerks, servants and agents of the said Burton Husted, and they as such clerks, servants and agents of said Burton Husted, not being persons whose principal business it is and was at that time to deal in drugs and medicines, either for themselves or for their principal, Burton Husted, did not close at the hour of nine o'clock on the 22d day of July, A. D. 1882, a certain saloon in the village of Clare, in said county, which said saloon one Burton Husted was then and there the proprietor and keeper, the said saloon being then and there a place in said village where malt, spirituous, and intoxicating liquors were sold at retail. But that the said Charles Peters and Frank Parish kept the said saloon open on the said 22d day of July, A. D. 1882, until twenty minutes past eleven o'clock in the afternoon of said day, contrary and in violation of Act No. 259 of the Session Laws of 1881. People v. Husted, 52 Mich. 624, 18 N. W. 388.

Note.—Held that the use of afternoon instead of night did not render complaint bad.

XI. Complaint, Recovery of Penalty. State of Illinois, Hancock county. ss.

Thomas C. Sharp, town attorney, complainants of James Booth, that, to-wit, between the 1st day of October, 1870, and the 23d day of January, 1871, at the county aforesaid, and within the town of Carthage, said James Booth did sell, barter, exchange and give away in a less quantity than one gallon, brandy, also whiskey, also rum, also gin, also other alcoholic and distilled spirituous liquors, etc., in violation of an ordinance of said town of Carthage, entitled, 'An ordinance to suppress and prohibit the selling, bartering, exchanging and giving away of vinous, malt, fermented and intoxicating liquors by unlicensed persons.

Thos. C. Sharp."

Booth v. Town of Carthage, 67 Ill. 102.

XII. Complaint To Recover a Penalty for School Fund.

"Your petitioner, William Jamison, for the use of the school fund of Van Buren county, Iowa, claims of the above named defendant, Ed. F. Burton, the sum of one hundred dollars, as a penalty for the violation of section 1539 of the Code of Iowa, and for cause of such claim he avers that he is a citizen of Van Buren county, Iowa; that on or about the 29th day of April, 1875, and between the 10th day of April, 1875, and the 30th day of April, 1875, the said defendant sold and gave away to one Horace Jamison, he then and there being a minor, certain intoxicating liquor, known as beer, in the city of Keosauqua, in said county, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided. Wherefore he prays judgment for the sum of one hundred dollars and costs of suit for the use of the school fund aforesaid." Jamison v. Burton, 43 Iowa 282.

Note.—Held not necessary to allege seller knew purchaser was a minor.

At a court of chancery held for the state of New York, at the town of _____, on the _____ day of _____, one thousand eight hundred _____. Present, _____, chancellor. S. S. v. J. J., and others.

On reading and filing the affidavit, etc. (as in IV, C), it is ordered, that an issue be, and the same is hereby awarded in this cause, between the complainant and the defendant J. J., to try the matters of fact in dispute between them by a jury; that the said issue be tried in the superior court of the city of New York; upon which trial either party may read the sworn answer of the said J. J. in this cause, and may examine the defendant P. P. as a witness, in case it shall appear to the court before which the trial is had, that he is not interested in the event of this suit, in favor of the party calling him as witness. And it is further ordered, that it be referred to J. R., one of the taxing masters of this court, to settle the form of the issue or issues to be tried, in the manner directed by the ——— rule of this court. Burr. App. 542, §1070b.

C. Order in Chancery for Feigned Issue Where Issue Is Settled by Court.

(Caption as in preceding form.)

On reading and filing the affidavit of B. R. W., esquire, solicitor for the complainant, showing that his cause is at issue upon a replication to the answers of the defendants P. S. and J. S., and is in readiness to take testimony therein, the bill having been taken as confessed against the defendant P. M., and the cause standing for hearing upon bill and answer as to the defendant J. D., and on reading and filing a notice on the part of the defendant P. S., for an issue or issues in this cause to be tried by a jury, and an affidavit of the due service of such notice upon the solicitor for the complainant, and upon the solicitor for the defendant J. S., and on hearing A. T., esquire, of counsel for the defendant P. S. and B. R. W., esquire, as counsel for the complainant, on the said motion, no one appearing on the part of the defendant J. S., it is ordered, that issues be, and they are hereby awarded in this cause, between the complainant and the defendants P. S. and J. S., to try the matters of fact in dispute between them by a jury. It is further ordered, that the said issues be tried at the circuit court, in and for the county of Rensselaer, and that upon the trial of the said issues, the defendant P. M., may be examined as a witness for either party, in case it shall appear to the court before which the trial is had, that he is not interested in the event of this suit in favor of the party calling him as a witness; that the issues between the complainant and the defendant P. S. be, 1st. Whether the said P. S. executed the bond and mortgage mentioned in the complainant's bill; 2. Whether the complainant executed the release of the said bond and mortgage, as stated in the answer of the defendant P. S.; and that the complainant hold the affirmative upon the first question, and the defendant P. S., the affirmative upon the second question; the issue between the complainant and that the defendant J. S. be, whether the release of the farm of the said defendant from the lien of the mortgage mentioned in the complainant's bill, was obtained by the said J. S. fraudulently, as alleged in the bill? and that the complainant be considered as holding the affirmative of the last mentioned issue upon the trial thereof. It is further ordered, that upon the trial of the issues between the complainant and the defendant P. S., either party may read the sworn answer of the said P. S. Burr. App. 541, §1070a.

D. Order for an Issue at Law in Equity.

1. Order for an Issue in General (a).

"And now, upon motion of the parties and due examination of the pleadings, the court doth think fit and proper (and doth order) that the matters in dispute in this cause be tried and determined by a jury upon the following issues to be joined, viz." "And it is further ordered, that the said issues stand for trial at the ——— next to be held in the county of ———, on the, etc., and that upon the trial of said issues, the answer of the defendant and the plaintiff's bill, and the depositions now on file may be read, and that either party may offer any competent evidence under the directions of the presiding judge. And all further directions are reserved until after the trial of said issue." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2333.

Order for an Issue in General (b).

And now on motion of the defendant and after hearing of the parties, it is ordered that an issue be framed by the parties for the purpose of submitting to a jury the following question: was any and how much of the consideration of the deed of May 10, 1862, given by James Perkins to Elizabeth A. Perkins, paid from the property of William J. Perkins. And it is further ordered that said issue stand for trial at the term next to be held in the county of Lincoln; that the plaintiff here shall be the plaintiff in the trial at law; and that the parties at such trial may read in evidence such and so much as is material, and none other, of the depositions taken before the publication of the testimony on February 19, 1872, excepting the depositions of such deponents as are actually in attendance at said trial, together with such other depositions as may be taken by either on or before April 1, next, including the oral testimony of any witnesses, which shall be competent, the verdict to be certified to the chief justice of the court. And all further directions are reserved until after the trial of said issue. Call v. Perkins, 65 Me. 439.

2. Order for an Issue, as to Amount of Damages.

"Inasmuch as it does not satisfactorily appear to the court, that any agreement has been made by and between the parties, as to the amount of such damages and compensation (in dispute), to the end that the same may be satisfactorily ascertained, it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that an issue be made up between the parties, to ascertain by the verdict of a jury, etc., the amount of such damages and compensation." Directions as to the court and term; form of the issue; restrictions on plaintiff in the trial; admissions to be made by defendant; allowances by the jury; "and that all further directions be reserved until the said issue shall be tried, and the postea returned to this court." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2331; Phillips v. Thompson, 1 Johns. Ch. (N. Y.) 152.

3. Order for an Issue as to Fraud.

And now, on motion of the plaintiff, and after hearing the parties, the court doth think fit and proper, and doth order, that the matters of fraud alleged in the bill, and in dispute in this cause, be tried and determined by a jury on the following issue to be joined, viz., etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2332.

4. Order for Issues as to Right of Way.

For issues: "1. As to right of way through a place called 'George yard;' 2. If there be any such such right, whether it extends over the whole; 3. If not, what is the extent, length, breadth, and direction of it; 4. Whether any such right has been obstructed or disturbed by the defendants, or any of them, and if so, in what manner and to what extent; 5. Whether there is any public right (other than a right of way) over the whole; 6. Whether such right, if any, has been obstructed or disturbed by the defendants, etc." Direction for special circumstances to be indorsed on the postea. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2334; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 988.

5. Order for Issue as to Validity of Bond.

This court being desirous of having the following questions of fact decided by a jury, that is to say: 1. Whether the bond and warrant of attorney was obtained from the plaintiff by means of any fraudulent (or unfair) representations by the obligees, or any of them; 2. Whether the same was obtained by any untrue representation; 3. Whether the same was obtained by any fraudulent (or unfair) concealment or suppression of the obligees, or either of them; 4. Whether the bond, etc., was given to secure any debt or liability, other than the whole or part of the balance due from P. to the firm in the pleadings mentioned. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2333; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 985.

6. Order for Issues as to Clause in Will.

It is ordered that the parties proceed to a trial at law, at the ——— next to be holden, etc., on the following issues: 1. Whether H., late of, etc., deceased, did, in and by a certain paper writing dated, etc., purporting to be a codicil to the last will and testament of the said H., devise in manner and form following, that is to say, etc. (stating part not disputed); 2. Whether the said H., having in and by his will, dated, etc., from and after, etc., devised, etc., did by his said codicil devise in manner and form following, that is to say, etc. (stating part disputed)." Defendant H. to be plaintiff at law, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2333.

7. Order for Issue as to Sanity, and Validity of Deed; Fraud.

1. Whether M., in, etc., named, at the time of the execution of the indentures dated, etc., in etc., mentioned, was of sound mind, understanding, and capacity to execute the said deeds; 2. Whether the said deeds were obtained from the said M. by fraud or imposition. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2334.

E. Order for Directions After Issues Awarded.

"The plaintiff in this case having, on motion, obtained an award of issues to be tried by the jury, which are already framed and settled, and filed in the cause, it is ordered, that said issues be sent to the trial term of this court, in this county, for trial by the jury, the verdict thereon to be certified to the law term of this court. And it is further ordered, that the plaintiff here shall be regarded as the plaintiff in the trial of these issues, and that the parties upon the trial may read the bill and answers, and any evidence legally taken to be used on the hearing in chancery, unless in cases where the attendance of any of the witnesses is actually procured; and also may offer such other and further evidence, including the testimony of the parties, as in law would be competent on the trial of such issues." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2334; Clark v. Congregational Soc., 44 N. H. 382, 383.

F. Form of Verdict Indorsed on Record.

"The jury find that the said O. M. F. did sign, execute, and deliver the agreement of compromise of which a copy is annexed to the plaintiff's bill marked (B.). And the jury further find that the signature of the said O. M. F. to the aforesaid agreement of compromise was not procured, brought about and effected by fraud, imposition, and false representations on the part of the said F. L. and wife, and their agents." 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2335.

G. Order on Equity Reserved After Trial of Issue.

This cause coming on (the ——— day of ———, and) this day to be heard and debated before this court, etc., in the presence of counsel learned for, etc., upon the equity reserved by the order dated, etc., the parties having, pursuant to the said order, proceeded to trial of the issue (or several issues or question or questions of fact) thereby directed, before the court of, etc., at the sittings, etc., where the jury found, etc. (state from the postea), upon opening and debate of the matter, and hearing the said order and the postea (enter any other evidence) read, and what was alleged, etc. This court, etc., doth, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2335.

H. Order After Issue as to Clause in Will.

This court doth declare, that it appears, by the finding of the jury, that the part of the codicil of the testator H., whereby he expressed himself as follows, etc., does not constitute the will of the testator; and that the part of the codicil of the testator, whereby he expressed himself as follows, etc., doth constitute the will of the testator; and that one part of the said codicil constituting, and another part thereof not constituting, the will of the testator, this court cannot order the same to be given up; but it being consonant to equity that the parties should stand in such a situation as if the said codicil could be delivered up, the court doth declare, that so much of the said codicil as does not constitute the will of the testator is void, and that the devise to the heirs of the body of the testator, contained in his said codicil, ought not take effect; and doth decree the same accordingly; and it is ordered that the defendant S. H. be restrained from setting up any title at law to the several estates so devised to the heirs of the body of the testator, contained in the said codicil, and in question in these causes. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2336; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 993, 994.

V. Feigned Issues at Law.

A. Order for Feigned Issue.

On motion of Mr. G. H., attorney for the defendant in the above cause, and on reading the affidavits as well on the part of the defendant in support of the motion, as on the part of the plaintiff in opposition thereto, it is ordered, that the defendant's attorney prepare the draft of a feigned issue to try the question whether the bond and warrant of attorney, on which the plaintiff's first judgment is entered, are usurious; and that the draft of such issue be served upon the plaintiff's attorney within eight days after obtaining a certified copy of this rule, who shall have leave to propose and serve amendments within six days thereafter; and if the said attorneys cannot settle the terms and form of such issue, it shall be the duty of the defendant's attorney to give eight days' notice to the plaintiff's attorney, that he will apply to one of the judges of this court at a certain time and place to be specified in such notice, to have the terms and form of said issue settled; and it is further ordered, that the said issue be tried at the next (Washington) circuit. Burr. App. 580, §1136.

B. Order for Feigned Issue Respecting Receipt of Money.

Pleas before the justices of the supreme court of judicature, etc. (placita as in an ordinary judgment record, of the term of which the issue is made up).

(Kings) county, ss.: Be it remembered, that on the ——— Monday of ———, in this same term, before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the _____ in the _____ of _____, comes A. B. by E. F., his attorney, and brings into the said court of the people, before the aforesaid justices thereof, now here, his certain bill against C. D. being in custody, etc., of a plea of trespass on the case upon promises; which said bill follows in these words, that is to say:

(Kings) county, ss.: A. B., by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D. being in custody, etc., for that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (state the time) at, etc. (state the place), a certain discourse was had and moved by and between the said A. B. and the said C. D., and in that discourse a certain question then and there arose, whether the said C. D. did on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, or at any other time, receive for the use or on account of J. K., deceased, the sum of _____ dollars, or any other and what sum of money; and thereupon heretofore, to-wit, on the said, etc. (state the time), at, etc. (state the place), aforesaid, in consideration that the said A. B. at the special instance and request of the said C. D. had then and there paid to him the said C. D. the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, of lawful money of the United States of America, he the said C. D. undertook, and then and there faith fully promised the said A. B. to pay him the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars of like lawful money, in case the said C. D. did on the said _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, or at any other time, receive for the use or on the account of the said E. F., the said sum of _____ dollars, or any other sum of money whatsoever: And the said A. B. in fact saith that the said C. D. did on the said _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred _____ receive for the use and on the account of the said E. F., the said sum of _____ dollars, to-wit, at _____ aforesaid; whereof the said C. D., afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year first above mentioned, there had notice: Nevertheless the said C. D., not regarding his said promise and undertaking, so by him made in manner and form aforesaid, hath not as yet paid the said sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, or any part thereof, to the said A. B. (although often requested so to do); but he to do this hath hitherto wholly refused, and still doth refuse; to the damage of the said A. B. of _____ dollars, and therefore he brings this suit, etc.

And the said C. D., by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that the said A. B. ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him; because he says that though true it is, that such a discourse was had and moved by and between the said A. B. and the said C. D., and that he the said C. D. did undertake and promise, in manner and form as the said A. B. hath above in his said declaration in that behalf alleged: For plea in this behalf, the said C. D. saith that he the said C. D. did not on the said _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, or at any other time, receive for the use or on the account of the said E. F. the said sum of _____ dollars, or any other sum of money whatsoever, in manner and form as the said A. B. hath above in his said declaration in that behalf alleged; and of this he the said C. D. puts himself upon the country; and the said A. B. doth the like. Therefore, the issue above joined is ordered, etc. (order for trial in the usual form). Burr. App. 520, §1042; Till. Forms 168.

JEOPARDY.

I. Plea, Discharge of Jury Without Verdict, 686

II. Replication to Plea of Jeopardy, 687

I. Plea, Discharge of Jury Without Verdict.

"The State of Nebraska, plaintiff, v. Ach Smith, defendant. Plea in bar.

"Now comes Ach Smith, defendant, in his own proper person, into court here, and having heard the information read, says that the state of Nebraska ought not further to prosecute said information against him because at the February term, 1894, of the district court of Douglas county the prosecuting attorney of said county, duly authorized by law so to do, presented an information against him for the same offense with which the defendant is charged in the present information; that said defendant was duly arraigned in said court on said information and pleaded not guilty thereto; that thereupon a jury was duly impaneled and sworn in said cause in said court, and the trial proceeded with, when said jury were discharged by the court without the consent of the defendant, and over and against his protest and objection, without agreeing on a verdict and without disagreeing or other special cause, there being no special necessity for the discharge of the said jury. Wherefore, the defendant prays judgment of the court that he may be dismissed and discharged from the premises in the present information specified." Smith v. State, 42 Neb. 356, 60 N. W. 585.

II. Replication to Plea of Jeopardy.

St. Lawrence Sessions. The People v. John Grant.

The people of the state of New York, by Thomas V. Russell, district attorney, for the county of St. Lawrence, come and reply to the special plea in bar of the said defendant, and say that said jury was not discharged by the court, in case of the said John; that immediately after the impaneling of the jury in said plea mentioned, and before any further proceedings were had, and before any evidence was given to the said jury, at the special instance and request of the said defendant made in open court, the said jury were allowed by the said court to separate and go without the court house. Grant v. People, 4 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 527.

II. Demurrer to Complaint, 687

I. Demurrer to a Declaration for Joining Counts in Trover and in Assumpsit.

(General form of special demurrer, continuing as follows): For that in and by the said declaration in the first count thereof, the said plaintiff hath declared and complained against the said defendant in a plea of trespass on the case for a certain supposed wrongful conversion and disposal of the said spaniel and setting dog therein mentioned of the said plaintiff to the use of him the said defendant, and yet in the said second and last counts of the said declaration, the said plaintiff hath declared against the said defendant in the above suit in an action of assumpsit for supposed breaches of express or implied promises in not returning and re-delivering certain spaniels therein respectively mentioned, supposed to be lent and delivered by the said plaintiff to the said defendant, and not for any supposed wrongful conversion and disposal thereof; and also for that there are in the said declaration pretended causes of action, different in their natures, comprehended and included in the same declaration, to-wit, a pretended cause of action founded on a supposed wrongful conversion and disposal of a spaniel and setting-dog of the said plaintiff and pretended causes of action, grounded on promises which are incompatible with each other, and ought not to be joined in the same declaration; and also for that causes of action, founded on supposed wilful and determined wrongs and injuries, ought not, and cannot be blended and included in one and the same declaration, with causes of action founded on promises or contracts, and also, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1248.

II. Demurrer to Complaint for Misjoinder of Actions.

The defendant demurs to the complaint herein for the ground that it appears upon the face of the complaint:

That several causes of action have been improperly united, one being (very briefly designating it, e. g., thus:) a money demand on contract, and the second a claim to recover real property and damages for withholding thereof, and the third a claim to recover damages for injuries to the person. 2 Abb. I. In General.

A. Judgment Record on Verdict for Plaintiff in Assumpsit.

Supreme Court. Pleas before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the _____ in the city of _____, of the term of _____ (the term of which issue is joined), in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____.

Witness, _____ esquire, chief justice.

_____ county, ss.: Be it remembered, that on the _____ Monday of _____, in this same term (for variations in the memorandum, see next form), before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes A. B., by E. F., his attorney, and brings into the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, his certain bill (see next form) against C. D., being in custody, etc., of a plea of trespass on the case upon promises (or as the action may be), which said bill follows in these words, that is to say:

_____ county, ss.: A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., defendant, etc. (copy the declaration, omitting the signature).

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends, etc. (copy the plea, or pleas, and then copy the other pleadings, if any, in separate paragraphs, to the issue, in the same way).

Therefore, the issue above joined, is ordered by the supreme court, to be tried at the circuit court appointed to be held at the court house, in the town of _____ in and for the county aforesaid, on the _____ Monday of _____ next (the time and place of holding the circuit).

At which day and place last above mentioned (or afterwards, that is to say, on the day and at the place last above mentioned), before _____, esquire, one of the circuit judges of the state of New York (the judge who tried the cause), according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, * come as well the above named plaintiff as the above named defendant, by their respective attorneys above mentioned, * and the jurors of the jury, summoned to try the said issue, being called also come; who, to speak the truth of the matters aforesaid, being chosen, tried and sworn say, upon their oath, * that the said defendant did undertake and promise (in case, that the said defendant is guilty of the premises above laid to his charge," in trespass, "that the said defendant is guilty of the several trespasses above laid to his charge," in covenant, "that the above mentioned indenture is the deed of the said defendant, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in that behalf alleged; and as to the breaches by the said plaintiff above assigned," etc. (according to the variations in the postea, see "Verdicts," in this volume), in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above complained against him; and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, by reason of the premises, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for those costs and charges, to six cents.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant, his said damages, costs and charges, by the jurors aforesaid, in form aforesaid assessed, and also _____ dollars and _____ cents), for his said costs and charges, by the said court now here adjudged, of increase, to the said plaintiff, and with his assent, which said damages, costs and charges, in the whole, amount to _____ dollars and _____ cents).

And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 165, §310.

B. Record on Verdict for Plaintiff With Variations.

(Placita as in preceding form.)

(City and) county (of _____), ss.: Be it remembered that heretofore, to-wit, in (October) term, now last past (the term of which the declaration is entitled), before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of New York, at the (court house in the city of _____) (place corresponding with the term), came A. B. by E. F., his attorney, and brought into the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, then there, according to the statute in such case made and provided, his certain declaration against C. D. and I. J., of a plea of trespass on the case upon promises (or as the action is), which said declaration follows in these words, that is to say:

(City and) county (of _____), ss.: A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, etc. (copy the declaration, and then proceed in a new paragraph, as follows):

And now at this day, that is to say, on the (_____ Monday of _____), in this same term (the term of the issue), until which day the said defendants had leave to imparl to the said declaration, and then to answer the same, before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____ (place corresponding with the term), come as well the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, as the said defendants, by G. H., their attorney. And the said defendants, by their said attorney, defend the wrong and injury, when, etc. (copy the plea, and other pleadings, if any, to issue, as in the last form).

And hereupon the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid, of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the (_____ Monday of _____), of the term of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the term immediately preceding the circuit at which the cause is to be tried), at the _____ of the city of _____), and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid at the same place.

At which said last mentioned day, before the said justices, at the place last aforesaid, come the parties aforesaid by their respective attorneys aforesaid; and because it is suggested and proved, and manifestly appears to the court here, that the issue above joined between the parties aforesaid, ought to be tried in the county of _____, and not in the (city and) county of _____), aforesaid; therefore the issue above joined, is ordered by the said supreme court to be tried at the circuit court appointed to be held at the (court house in the town of _____), in and for the said county of _____, on the _____ Monday in _____ next.

At which day, etc. (as in last form to the end of the postea).

And because the said court of the people, before the aforesaid justices thereof, now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, therefore the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid, of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the _____ Monday of _____, of the term of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at the (courthouse in the city of _____), and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place, to hear the judgment of the said court thereupon.

At which said last mentioned day, before the said justices, at the place last aforesaid, come as well the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, as the said defendant C. D., by his attorney aforesaid; and the said defendant I. J. comes not. And hereupon the said plaintiff suggests to the court now here, and gives the said court to understand and be informed, that after the last continuance of the plea aforesaid (or after the finding of the verdict aforesaid), and before this day, to-wit, on, etc., the said defendant I. J. died, to-wit, at, etc. (the time and place of death), and the said defendant C. D. survived him; which allegation the said defendant C. D. doth not deny, but admits the same to be true; therefore let all further proceedings in this cause against the defendant I. J. be stayed: whereupon the said plaintiff prays judgment against the said defendant C. D. of and upon the premises. Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 166, §311.

C. Continuance Before Suggestion, or Special Entry on the Record.

And hereupon the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid, of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the _____ Monday of _____ of the term of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at the _____ of the city of _____; and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid at the same place. At which said last mentioned day, before the said justices, at the place last aforesaid, come the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid. And hereupon (proceed to enter the suggestion, or make the entry required). Burr. App. 86, §165.

II. Abatement.

A. Judgment Record on Cassetur Bill.

And hereupon the said plaintiff, inasmuch as he cannot deny the several matters by the said defendant above pleaded, prays judgment, and that the said bill (or writ, or declaration) of him, the said plaintiff, may be quashed, to the intent that he may exhibit a better bill (or sue out a better writ, or file a better declaration) against the said defendant. Therefore, etc. Till. Forms 213; Burr. App. 148, §282.

B. Judgment Record on Demurrer, Plea in Abatement and Respondent Ouster.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid; whereupon, all and singular the premises aforesaid being seen by the court now here, and fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, for that it appears to the said court now here that the said plea of the said defendant, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law to quash the said bill (or writ, or declaration) of the said plaintiff: Therefore it is considered that the said defendant do further answer (or answer over) the said plaintiff to his bill (or writ) and declaration (or to his declaration) aforesaid. And thereupon a further day is given by the said court now here, to the parties aforesaid, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, until the _____ Monday of _____ next (first day of next term); that is to say, for the said defendant to answer over to the said declaration of the said plaintiff against him, etc. The same day is given to the said plaintiff there, etc.

(If the defendant pleads over, the record proceeds as follows):

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come as well the said plaintiff, as the said defendant, by their respective attorneys aforesaid. And the said defendant, by his said attorney, defends the wrong and injury when, etc. (here follows the plea). Burr. App. 156, §298; Till. Forms 202; Yates' Forms 48, 780.

C. Judgment Record on Default After Pleading in Abatement and Respondent Ouster.

(Copy the judgment record on respondent ouster, 11, B, and then continue as follows):

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes the said plaintiff by his attorney aforesaid; and the said defendant, although solemnly demanded, comes not, nor does he further answer to the declaration aforesaid of the said plaintiff thereof against him, etc., nor say anything in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein wholly undefended against the said defendant.

Wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant his damages (or debt and damages), by reason of the premises. (The rest of the record is the same as on default in not pleading, and will therefore conclude as in IV, B, 5, or according to the case.) Burr. App. 151, §289; Yates' Forms 48.

D. Judgment Record on Demurrer to Replication to Plea in Abatement, Sustained.

(As in V, A, to the *, then as follows): it appears to the said court here that the said plea by the said defendant above, in manner and form aforesaid, pleaded in abatement, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law to quash the said bill (or writ, or declaration) of the said plaintiff. Burr. App. 160, §305.

E. Judgment Record on Verdict in Abatement for Plaintiff.

(Placita, memorandum and pleadings as in I, A, order for trial, as in I, A; then enter the postea as in I, A, negativing the matter pleaded in abatement, and assessing the plaintiff's damages, and conclude with judgment in the usual form on verdict; see I, A.) Burr. App. 172, §318.

F. Judgment Record Where Verdict Has Been Given for Defendant on Plea of Misnomer.

(As in I, A, to the last *, and then thus): that the said C. D. was not, at the time of exhibiting the said bill (or filing the said declaration), by the said plaintiff in this behalf (or at the time of the commencement of this suit), nor hath he at any time hitherto been called or known by the name of B. D. in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above alleged. Burr. App. 172, §319.

III. Dismissal, Etc.

A. Judgment Record on Nolle Prosequi.

(The record being brought down to the proper period [usually to the end of the pleadings], continue as follows):

And hereupon the said plaintiff, inasmuch as he cannot deny the matters by the said defendant above pleaded, now freely here in court confesses that he will not further prosecute his suit against the said defendant. Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 147, §279; 2 P. & Du. Pr. 763.

B. Judgment Record on Nolle Prosequi to Some Counts.

(If entered before issue, the nolle prosequi will be contained in the proper pleading, and will therefore appear with it on the record.)

(If entered after issue and before trial, it will appear after the pleadings in this form):

And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court confesses that he will not further prosecute his suit against the said defendant, in respect of the promises and undertakings (or premises), in the said (sixth and last) counts of the said declaration mentioned. Therefore as to the said promises and undertakings (or premises) in the said (sixth and last) counts of the said declaration mentioned, let the said defendant be acquitted, and go thereof without day, etc. (Here follows the order for trial.)

(If entered at the trial, the nolle prosequi will appear in the same form as above, at the beginning of the postea, thus):

Afterwards, to-wit, at the day and place last above mentioned, before _____, esquire, one of the circuit judges of the state of New York, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, come the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid, etc. (copying the postea). And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court confesses, etc. (to the end of the nolle prosequi, and then proceed with the postea). And the jurors of the jury, etc. (to the end of the record). Burr. App. 147, §280; Till. Forms 213.

C. Judgment Record on Nolle Prosequi to Some Defendants.

(If entered before issue, the nolle prosequi will appear on the record in the pleading where it belongs.) (After issue, the nolle prosequi is entered as follows): And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court confesses that he will not further prosecute his suit against the said defendant L. M. Therefore let the said defendant L. M. be acquitted of the premises in the said declaration mentioned, and go thereof without day, etc.

Therefore the issue above joined between the said plaintiff and the said defendant C. D. is ordered, etc. (order for trial). Burr. App. 147, §281.

D. Judgment Record on Nolle Prosequi After Issue of Law.

(As in VII, B.)

And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court confesses that he will not further prosecute his suit against the said defendant in respect of the said issue above joined between the said parties, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the country. Therefore as to the said issue, and as to the said premises in the said (second) count of the said declaration mentioned (the count or counts on which the issue in fact was taken), whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the country, let the said defendant be acquitted, and go thereof without day, etc.

Therefore, etc. (judgment on the issue in law). Burr. App. 148, §281a.

E. Retraxit, Entry of.

(After appearance of the parties in the postea, add the following): And hereupon the said plaintiff, in his own proper person, comes into the court now here, and confesses that he will no further prosecute his action aforesaid against the said defendant, and prays his retraxit thereof may be entered of record. And it is granted, etc. Burr. App. 96, §183; Yates' Forms 343.

F. Judgment Record on Discontinuance.

(The record being brought down to the period of discontinuance, proceed as follows):

Afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in the term of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the term of entering judgment), before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes the said defendant, by his attorney aforesaid, and the said plaintiff does not further prosecute his said suit against the said defendant, but voluntarily permits the same to be discontinued.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 145, §277.

G. Judgment Record as in Case of Nonsuit.

(As in I, A, to the end of the order for trial, and then as follows):

And now at this day, to-wit, on the _____ Tuesday of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the special term at which judgment is given), before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes the said defendant by his attorney aforesaid, and the said plaintiff, although solemnly demanded, comes not. And it appearing to the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, that the said plaintiff has neglected to bring the issue above joined, on to be tried, according to the course and practice of the said court:

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 149, §283.

H. Judgment Record on Nonsuit Ordered by Court.

(As in I, A, to the end of the order for trial, and then as follows):

At which day and place, before _____, esquire, one of the circuit judges of the state of _____, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, come as well the said plaintiff as the said defendant, by their respective attorneys aforesaid; and the jurors of the jury, summoned to try the said issue, being called, also come, who, to speak the truth of the matters aforesaid, being chosen, tried and sworn, evidence was thereupon given to them by the said plaintiff, which being insufficient to maintain the said issue on his part, and the said plaintiff being thereupon solemnly called, to produce further evidence to support and maintain his said action, the said plaintiff comes not, but makes default, nor does he further prosecute his suit against the said defendant.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 150, §287

IV. Default.

A. Non Pros.

1. Judgment Record on Non Pros. for Not Declaring.

And the said C. D., at the same day, duly appeared by G. H., his attorney (and put in special bail) at the suit of the said A. B. (according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided). And the said A. B. has not yet declared against the said C. D. in the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, as he ought to have done, according to the rules and practice of the said court; but has therein wholly made default.

Therefore it is considered, etc. Burr. App. 132, §260.

2. Judgment Record on Default, Non Pros. for Not Declaring in Debt Qui Tam.

A. B., who brought a writ of the people of the state of New York, as well for the said people as for himself, against C. D., of a plea of debt on statute (referring to the statute, as in the writ), hath not prosecuted his writ aforesaid.

Therefore it is considered that the said A. B. take nothing by his said writ, but that he be in mercy, etc. And it is further considered, etc. Burr. App. 133, §260a; Till. Forms 209.

3. Judgment Record on Non Pros. for Not Replying.

And hereupon the said defendant prays that the said plaintiff may reply to the plea of him, the said defendant, above pleaded: Whereupon a day is given to the court here, to the said plaintiff, before the justices aforesaid, until the _____ day of _____, in this same term (the day on which the judgment is entered), at the _____ in the city of _____; that is to say, for him, the said plaintiff, to reply to the plea aforesaid. The same day is given to the said defendant, at the same place.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ aforesaid, comes the said defendant, by his attorney aforesaid, and the said plaintiff, although solemnly called, comes not; nor has he replied to the aforesaid plea of the said defendant, nor does he further prosecute his said suit against the said defendant, but therein makes default. Burr. App. 142, §270.

B. Nil Dicit.

1. Judgment Record on Default for Not Pleading in Assumpsit.

(Placita as in I, A.)

Be it remembered that on the _____ Monday of _____ in this same term (or heretofore, to-wit, on the third Monday of October, in October term now last past, before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes (or came), A. B., by E. F., his attorney, and brings (or brought) into the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, now here (or then there), his certain declaration against C. D., according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, of a plea of (trespass on the case upon promises), which said declaration follows in these words, to-wit:

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, etc. (copy the declaration to the words, "brings suit," inclusive, and also the note or bill, if any be endorsed on it).

(If the default were of a term subsequent to that of the declaration, insert an imparlance, as in IV, B, 5, otherwise, proceed thus):

And the said defendant in his proper person (or by G. H., his attorney), comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant: Wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant, his damages, on occasion of the premises.

And hereupon the said plaintiff suggests to the court now here, and gives the said court to understand and be informed, that the said declaration was filed in the office of _____, esquire, one of the clerks of this court, and that a copy of said declaration, and a notice requiring the defendant to plead thereto according to the practice of this court, were personally served on the said defendant, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided. And hereupon the said plaintiff prays judgment, and his damages by him sustained by occasion of the non-performance of the said promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, to be adjudged to him, etc. And because it is suggested and proved, and manifestly appears to the said court now here, that the said plaintiff has sustained damages on occasion of the premises to _____ dollars, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended:

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 139, §267.

See "How To Use This Volume," Introduction, page v.

2. Judgment Record on Default for Not Pleading by One Defendant.

And the said I. N. and I. S., defendants in this suit (the pleading defendants), by G. H., their attorney, come and defend the wrong and injury when, etc. (copying the plea).

And the said defendant C. D. (the defaulting defendant), in his proper person (or by G. H., his attorney), comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff: whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant C. D.: whereby, and by force of the statute in such case made and provided, the said action of the said plaintiff is severed. Wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant C. D., his damages on occasion of the premises. And hereupon the said plaintiff prays judgment against the said C. D., and his damages by him sustained on occasion of the non-performance of the said promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, to be adjudged to him, etc.

And hereupon the said plaintiff suggests to the court now here (enter suggestion of filing and service of the declaration, as in last form).

And because it is suggested and proved, and manifestly appears to the said court now here, that the said plaintiff has sustained damages on occasion of the premises to _____ dollars, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended:

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 140, §267a.

Note.—This by reason of statute. General rule is defaulting defendant abides result at trial.

3. Judgment Record on Default for Not Rejoining.

And hereupon the said plaintiff prays that the said defendant may rejoin to the replication of the said plaintiff by him above pleaded: whereupon a day is given to the said defendant, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ day of _____ next (the day of entering judgment), that is to say, for the said defendant to rejoin to the replication aforesaid. The same day is given to the said plaintiff there, etc.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ aforesaid, comes the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, and the said defendant, although solemnly demanded, comes not, but makes default: nor hath he in any wise rejoined to the aforesaid replication of the said plaintiff, nor said anything in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant. Wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant his damages (or debt and damages), by occasion of the premises. Burr. App. 143, §271.

4. Judgment Record on Default for Not Pleading in Debt, on Writ of Inquiry, Debt on Bond.

(Impar lance, if necessary, as in IV, B, 5, to the words, "defends the wrong and injury when, etc.," and then proceed as follows): and says nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant; wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant his said debt and his damages on account of the detention thereof, and by reason of the aforesaid breaches of the said condition of the said writing obligatory above assigned, together with his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended.

But because it is unknown to the said court now here what damages the said plaintiff has sustained by reason of the premises, the sheriff of the said (city and) county of _____ (the venue), is commanded that by the oaths of twelve good and lawful men of his county he diligently inquire what damages the said plaintiff has sustained, as well by reason of the aforesaid breaches above assigned as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended; and that he send the inquisition which he shall thereupon take to the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ Monday of _____ next, under his seal, and the seals of those by whose oaths he shall take that inquisition, together with the writ to him thereupon directed: the same day is given to the said plaintiff at the same place.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ of the city of _____, comes the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, and the sheriff, to-wit, W. J., esquire, sheriff of the (city and) county of _____, now here returns a certain inquisition, indented, taken before him, at the _____ of the city of _____, in his said county, on the _____ day of _____ last, by the oaths of twelve good and lawful men of his county; by which it is found that the said defendant did not, etc. (state the finding of the jury), and that the said plaintiff has sustained damages, by reason of the aforesaid breaches of the said condition of the said writing obligatory, to _____ dollars, over and above his costs and charges, by him about his suit in this behalf expended; and for those costs and charges to six cents. Burr. App. 137, §266.

5. Judgment Record on Default for Not Pleading, on Writ of Inquiry at Subsequent Term.

Be it remembered that, heretofore, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in _____ term, now last past, before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the (courthouse in the city of _____), came A. B., by E. F., his attorney, and brought into the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof then and there, his certain bill against C. D., being in custody, etc., of a plea of trespass on the case upon promises (or as the action is), which said bill follows in these words, that is to say: (City and county of _____), ss.: (Here copy declaration to the end, omitting the signature, and proceed on a new line as follows):

And now at this day, that is to say, on the first Monday of _____, in this same term of _____ (the term of which the judgment is entered), until which day the said defendant had leave to imparl to the said bill (or declaration), and then to answer the same, etc., before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come as well the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, as the said defendant, in his proper person (or by G. H., his attorney). And the said defendant defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant: Wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant his damages, on occasion of the premises.* And hereupon the said plaintiff prays judgment, and his damages by him sustained on occasion of the non-performance of the said promises and undertakings, in the said declaration mentioned, to be adjudged to him, etc. And because it is suggested and proved, and manifestly appears to the said court now here, that the said plaintiff hath sustained damages on occasion of the premises, to _____ dollars and _____ cents besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended: Therefore, etc.

(In case of unliquidated demand, continue from *): But because it is unknown to the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, what damages the said plaintiff has sustained by means of the premises, the sheriff of the said city and county of _____ (the venue in the action) is commanded that, by the oaths of twelve good and lawful men of his county, he diligently inquire what damages the said plaintiff has sustained, as well by means of the premises as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended; and that he send the inquisition which he shall thereupon take to the justices of the said supreme court of judicature, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ day of _____ next (the return of the writ), under his seal, and the seals of those by whose oaths he shall take that inquisition, together with the writ to him thereupon directed: the same day is given to the said plaintiff, at the same place.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid; and the sheriff, to-wit, _____, esquire, sheriff of the said (city and) county of _____, now here, returns a certain inquisition indented, taken before him at the _____ of the city of _____, in his said county, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, by the oaths of twelve good and lawful men of his county; by which it is found that the said plaintiff has sustained damages by means of the premises, to _____ dollars and _____ cents, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, and for those costs and charges to six cents.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 135, 136, §§262, 263, 264.

6. Judgment Record on Default in Suit on Bail-Bond.

(Placita of the term of judgment.) (Memorandum as in IV, B, 5, or IV, B, 1, according to the case.) (Declaration.) And the said defendants in their proper persons (or by G. H., their attorney), come and defend the wrong and injury when, etc., and say nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendants.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 184, §338.

7. Judgment Record on Default in Recognizance of Bail.

(Placita in the usual form, of the term of the judgment.)

(Memorandum as in IV, B, 5, or IV, B, 1, according to the case.) (Declaration.)

(Imparalance, if necessary, as in IV, B, 5.)

And the said I. N. and I. S., defendants in this suit (by G. H., their attorney), come and defend the wrong and injury when, etc., and say nothing in bar or preclusion of the aforesaid action of the said plaintiff: Whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendants.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 189, §344.

V. Demurrers.

A. Demurrer to Declaration or Replication Overruled.

(Copy the demurrer book to the end, and then continue the record as follows):

And because the said court of the people, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, therefore the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid, of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the ——— Monday of ——— of the term of ———, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ——— (the term when the demurrer was argued), at the ——— in the city of ———. And the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place, to hear the judgment of the said court thereupon.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the ——— in the city of ———, come as well the said plaintiff as the said defendant, by their respective attorneys aforesaid. Whereupon, all and singular the premises aforesaid being seen, and by the said court here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had,* it appears to the said court here that the declaration (or first count of the declaration, or replication) aforesaid, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law for the said plaintiff to have and maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant.

Therefore it is considered, etc. Burr. App. 157, §299; 2 P. & Du. Pr. 755.

B. Judgment Record on Demurrer to Declaration or Replication, Sustained.

(The record is, in all respects, the same as in V, A, to the *, after which proceed thus): it appears to the said court here that the declaration (or first count of the declaration, or replication) aforesaid, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law for the said plaintiff to have and maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 159, §302.

C. Judgment Record on Demurrer to Plea or Rejoinder Sustained.

(As in V, A, to the *, and then as follows): it appears to the said court here that the said plea (or rejoinder) by the said defendant above pleaded, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law to bar or preclude the said plaintiff from having or maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 158, §301.

D. Record on Demurrer to Plea or Rejoinder Overruled.

(As in V, A, to the *, and then as follows): it appears to the said court here that the said plea (or rejoinder) by the said defendant above pleaded, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law to bar and preclude the said plaintiff from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 159, §303.

E. Judgment Record on Frivolous Demurrer.

And because the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, therefore the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid, of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the _____ Monday of _____ of the term of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at the _____ in the city of _____ (the term when judgment is given); and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place.*

At which said last mentioned day, before the said justices, at the place last aforesaid, comes the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, and the said defendant, although solemnly demanded, comes not, but makes default. (If in any action where the damages are assessed by the clerk, proceed as in IV, B, 5, from the words, "wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover, etc.," to the end. If a writ of inquiry was issued, as in IV, B, 5.) Burr. App. 156, §297.

F. Judgment Record on Demurrer Decided for Plaintiff, After an Issue of Fact Tried.

(Placita.)

(Be it remembered that, on, etc.)

(Declaration.)

(Plea, general issue, to all the counts but the first.)

(Demurrer to the first count.)

(Joinder in demurrer; after which proceed as follows):

But because the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, whereon the parties aforesaid have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, a day is given to the parties aforesaid, before the justices of this same court, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ Monday of _____ next (the term following the circuit at which the issue in fact is to be tried), to hear judgment thereon; for that the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, are not yet advised thereof, etc. And because it is unknown to the said court here whether or not the said defendant will be convicted of the premises, whereof the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court; and because it is convenient and necessary that there be but one taxation of damages in this suit: Therefore it is ordered by the said court that the issue above joined, to be tried by the country, be tried at the circuit court appointed to be held at the _____ in the town of _____, in and for the county of _____ aforesaid, on the (first day of _____) next; and it is further ordered that the jury who shall try the said issue, also inquire of, and assess the damages, which the said plaintiff hath sustained by occasion of the premises, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, if judgment shall happen to be given for the said plaintiff.

And now at this day, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____ aforesaid, comes the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid and _____, esquire, one of the circuit judges of the state of New York, before whom the said issue was tried, hath sent hither his record had before him, in these words, to-wit: Afterwards, that is to say, on the _____ day of _____ aforesaid, at the _____ in the town of _____ aforesaid, before _____, esquire, one of the circuit judges of the state of New York, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, come as well the said plaintiff as the said defendant, by their respective attorneys aforesaid: and the jurors of the jury summoned to try the said issue, being called, also come; who, to speak the truth of the matters aforesaid, being chosen, tried and sworn, say upon their oath, as to the issue above joined between the said parties to be tried by the country; that (the said defendant did undertake and promise, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in the said second and subsequent counts of his said declaration complained against him); and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, by reason of (the not performing the promises and undertakings in the said counts mentioned), over and above his costs and charges, by him about his suit in this behalf expended (to _____ dollars), and for those costs and charges, to _____ cents. And as to the issue above joined between the said parties, whereon they have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, say that if it shall happen that judgment shall be thereupon given for the said plaintiff, then they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, by him sustained by reason (of the not performing the promises and undertakings in the first count of the said declaration above mentioned), over and above his costs and charges, by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for the costs and charges last aforesaid, to six cents. (If the issue in law is decided of this term, judgment is here entered; but if not, continue the record as follows): But because it is unknown to the said court here whether or not the said defendant will be convicted of the premises aforesaid, whereof the parties aforesaid have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, therefore let the giving of judgment in this behalf against the said defendant be stayed, until the issue aforesaid, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, shall have been adjudged and determined.

And because the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, whereof the parties aforesaid have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, a further day is given to the said parties before the justices aforesaid, at the (courthouse in the city of _____, on the _____ Monday of _____, next, to hear judgment thereupon, for that the said court are not yet advised thereof, etc.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the (courthouse in the city of _____, come the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid. And hereupon all and singular the premises aforesaid, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, being seen, and by the court now here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it appears to the said court here that the (first) count of the declaration aforesaid, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law, for the said plaintiff to have and maintain his aforesaid action against the said defendant.

VI. Cognovit.

A. Judgment Record on Cognovit in Assumpsit.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that he cannot deny the action of the said plaintiff, nor but that he the said defendant did undertake and promise, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof* complained against him, nor but that the said plaintiff hath sustained damages on occasion of the not performing of the said several promises and undertakings, in the said declaration mentioned, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars and _____ cents. Burr. App. 71, §141.

B. Judgment Record on Cognovit in Debt.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that he cannot deny the action of the said plaintiff, nor but that the said writing obligatory is the deed of him, the said defendant, nor but that he owes to the said plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars above demanded, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him. (If the cognovit be of part of the cause of action, vary the form thus: "and says that he cannot deny the action of the said plaintiff, nor but that he, the said defendant, does owe to the said plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars, parcel of the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded.") Burr. App. 72, §144.

C. Judgment Record on Cognovit in Assumpsit as to Part of Cause of Action.

(As in VI, A, to the *, and then thus): In the (second and third) counts of his said declaration, complained against him; nor but that the said plaintiff hath sustained damages on occasion of the not performing of the said several promises and undertakings in the said (second and third) counts of the said declaration mentioned, over and above his costs, etc. (as in VI, A, to the end; or add at the end, after the sum confessed, "parcel of the said sum of [the damages claimed by the plaintiff] above demanded"). Burr. App. 72, §142.

D. Judgment Record on Cognovit in Assumpsit With Stipulation.

(At the foot of the ordinary form, subjoin the following): The above cognovit is given on condition that judgment shall not be entered thereon (or that execution shall not be issued on the judgment to be entered thereon), before the _____ day of _____ next. And I hereby stipulate that if default shall be made in the payment of the said (the debt or sum confessed), together with the said costs, on the said _____ day of _____, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter up judgment therefor, and forthwith to sue out execution thereupon (or otherwise, as the terms may be). Burr. App. 72, §1413.

VII. Verdict.

A. Judgment Record for Plaintiff in Debt.

(As in I, A, to the last *, after which proceed as follows): that the above mentioned writing obligatory is the deed of the said defendant, as the said plaintiff hath above in that behalf alleged; and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, on occasion of the detaining the aforesaid debt, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to six cents, and for those costs and charges to six cents. Burr. App. 168, §312.

B. Record on Verdict After Decision of Issue at Law.

But because the court now here are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, whereof the parties aforesaid have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, a day is given to the parties aforesaid, before the justices of this same court, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ Monday of _____ next (the next term after issue), to hear judgment thereon, for that the said court now here, before the aforesaid justices thereof, are not yet advised thereof, etc.

And it is further ordered by the said court that the said issue above joined between the said parties, to be tried by the country, be tried at the circuit court, appointed to be held at the (courthouse in the town of _____), in and for the county of _____ aforesaid, on the _____ day of _____ next (next circuit after issue).

And now at this day, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____ aforesaid, come as well the said plaintiff as the said defendant, by their respective attorneys aforesaid. And hereupon all and singular the premises aforesaid, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court, being seen, and by the court now here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it appears to the said court here that the (first) count of the declaration aforesaid, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law for the said plaintiff to have and maintain his aforesaid action against the said defendant: wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant his damages by reason of the premises in the said first count of the said declaration mentioned.

But because it is unknown to the said court here what damages the said plaintiff hath sustained by reason thereof, and because it is convenient and necessary that there be but one taxation of damages in this suit, therefore let the giving of judgment in this behalf against the said defendant be stayed, until the said issue above joined between the said parties, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the country, shall have been tried and determined. And because the said issue above joined between the said parties, to be tried by the country, was not tried at the said circuit court, held at the time and place hereinbefore mentioned, therefore the process thereof, between the parties aforesaid, is continued until the circuit court, appointed to be held at, etc., on, etc. (as in the order for trial). And it is further ordered that the jury who shall try the said issue also inquire of, and assess the damages which the said plaintiff hath sustained by occasion of the premises, whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the said court.

At which day, etc. (enter the postea as in I, A, to the last *, and then proceed as follows): as to the issue within joined between the said parties, to be tried by the country, that the said defendant did undertake and promise, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath in the said (second and subsequent) counts of his said declaration above complained against him: and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, by reason of not performing of the promises and undertakings in the said counts mentioned, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for those costs and charges to six cents. And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, also say that they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, by him sustained by reason of the not performing the promise and undertaking in the said first count of the said declaration, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for his costs and charges last aforesaid to six cents.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 176, §326; 2 P. & Du. Pr. 742.

C. Judgment Record on Special Verdict (Argument in First Instance).

(As in I, A, to the end of the order for trial, then enter the postea and special verdict [see X, Verdict, in this volume]; then, if necessary, add a continuance [see Continuances] to the term of giving judgment, and conclude as follows):

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid: Whereupon, all and singular the premises aforesaid being seen, and by the said court here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it appears to the said court here that, etc. (stating the affirmative or negative of the issue, according to the decision).

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 179, §331.

VIII. Judgment Record for Plaintiff on Inquest.

(The record is the same as on verdict, I, A, except that in entering the postea you substitute for the part between the first and second *, the following clause): comes the above named plaintiff, by his attorney above mentioned, and the above named defendant, although solemnly required, comes not, but makes default. Therefore let the jurors of the jury be taken against him by his default. And the jurors of the jury, summoned, etc. (as in I, A, to the end, varying the entries if necessary, as in I, B, III, A, and III, C, in Verdicts). Burr. App. 169, §314.

IX. Judgment Record on Report of Referee.

(To issue; and then, if the reference were of the same term with the issue, continue as follows):

And hereupon the said plaintiff gives the said court now here to understand and be informed that the trial of the issue (or issues) in this cause will require the examination of a long account on the part of him, the said plaintiff (and of the said defendant); and the said plaintiff, according to the statute in such case made and provided, prays the said court now here, by a rule in that behalf made, to refer this cause to referees (not being less than three persons), to be nominated by the said court now here, to finally hear and determine the matters in controversy in this cause. And because the said defendant does not deny the allegation aforesaid, but admits the same to be true, therefore, in pursuance of and according to the aforesaid statute, let it be, by rule for that purpose to be duly entered, referred to K. L., of the (city of _____, counsellor-at-law), and M. N. and O. P., of the (same place, merchants) as referees, to hear and examine the matters in controversy between the said plaintiff and defendant; and let the said referees, upon pain of contempt, report thereon to the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ Monday of _____ next. The same day is given to the parties aforesaid at the same place.

At which day, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid;* and the referees above mentioned, to-wit, K. L., M. N. and O. P., to whom it was referred to hear and examine the matters in controversy between the said plaintiff, and the said defendant, and to report thereupon, now report that they find there is due from the said defendant to the said plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars and _____ cents, besides his costs and charges, by him about his suit in this behalf expended.*

Therefore it is considered that the said report do stand confirmed; and it is further considered, etc. (enter judgment).

(If the rule for reference were made at a term subsequent to that of the issue, after entering the pleadings to issue, continue as follows): And hereupon the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid, of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the _____ Tuesday of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at the _____ in the city of _____; and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place.

At which said last mentioned day, before the justices aforesaid, at the place last aforesaid, come the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid: And hereupon the said plaintiff gives the said court now here to understand, etc. (proceeding as in V, F, to the end).

(If the report were not made at the term specified in the record, a continuance should be entered, commencing at the first * in V, F, as follows): and the referees above named have not made their report in and upon the matters in controversy to them referred, neither have they done anything therein. And thereupon a further day is given to the referees aforesaid, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the _____ Monday of _____ next, to report in and upon the matters in controversy, referred to them as aforesaid. The same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place. At which day, etc. (proceed as in V, F).

(If judgment be not rendered on the coming in of the report, insert a continuance as follows): And because the said court of the people, before the said justices thereof now here, are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, therefore the process thereof is continued between the parties aforesaid of the plea aforesaid, in this same court, before the justices thereof, until the _____ Monday of _____ of the term of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the term of which judgment is entered), at the (courthouse in the city of _____), and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place, to hear the judgment of the said court thereupon.

At which said last mentioned day, before the said justices at the place last aforesaid, come the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys aforesaid; and thereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the said court here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it is considered that the said report do stand confirmed, etc. (enter judgment). Burr. App. 162, §308.

X. Judgment Record on Non Obstante Verdicto.

(The record being brought down to the term of giving judgment, including the postea, continue as follows):

And now at this day, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in the term of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid: And hereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the court now here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it seems to the said court now here that (the plea aforesaid of the said defendant, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in the law to bar or preclude the said plaintiff from having or maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against him, the said defendant), the verdict aforesaid of the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid given, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. Wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover, etc. (if in assumpsit, here enter interlocutory, and then final judgment, or enter award of writ of inquiry, and judgment thereon, as in I, A. If in debt, the judgment will be final). Burr. App. 180, §333; Yates' Forms 792, 343.

XI. Judgment Record on Arrest of Judgment.

(The record being brought down to the term in which the judgment was arrested, continue as follows):

And now at this day, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in the term of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____, before the justices aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, come the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid: And hereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the court now here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it seems to the court now here that no judgment can be rendered on the verdict (or inquisition) aforesaid; inasmuch as the declaration (or replication) of the said plaintiff, and the matters therein contained, are manifestly insufficient in the law for him, the said plaintiff, to have or maintain his action aforesaid thereof against him, the said defendant. Therefore the judgment on the said verdict is hereby arrested and stayed; and it is also considered that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. Burr. App. 180, §332; Yates' Forms 166.

XII. Damages.

A. Entry of Remittitur Damna After Verdict.

(After the entry of the verdict, proceed thus):

And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court remits to the said defendant _____ dollars, part and parcel of the damages aforesaid, by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid found, and prays judgment for (his said debt and for) the residue of the damages aforesaid by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid found, together with his costs and charges by him about this suit in this behalf expended, etc. Burr. App. 82, §156; Yates' Forms 785.

B. Entry of Remittitur Damna After Assessment of Damages.

And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court remits to the said defendant the sum of _____ dollars (the excess), part and parcel of the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, by the said inquisition in form aforesaid found; and prays judgment for the residue of those damages, costs and charges, together with his further costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, etc. Burr. App. 82, §156a; Till. Forms 189.

C. Record on Election Meliora Damna.

(As in ordinary records on verdict, to the words, "say upon their oaths," in the postea, and then as follows): that the said several defendants are guilty, etc. (as in the usual form in trespass); and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff by reason of the premises, over and above his costs, etc. (as in the usual form), against the said defendant C. D. at _____ dollars, against the said defendant I. J. at _____ dollars, against the said defendant K. L. at _____ dollars, and against the said defendant M. N. at _____ dollars; and for those costs and charges to six cents.

And hereupon the said plaintiff now here, before the aforesaid justices, elects to recover against the said defendants _____ dollars, the damages aforesaid, by the jurors aforesaid found against the said defendant M. N., as his better damages, besides his costs; and the said plaintiff freely here in court remits to the said defendants the said sums of _____ dollars, _____ dollars and _____ dollars, by the jurors aforesaid found against the said defendants C. D., I. J., and K. L., respectively.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 183, §337; Yates' Forms 165.

XIII. Replevin.

A. Judgment Record on Default for Not Pleading in Replevin.

(Placita [of the term of the judgment] as in last form.)

_____ county, ss.: C. D. was summoned to answer A. B. of a plea wherefore, etc. (here copy the declaration, and then proceed as follows):

And the said C. D. (by G. H., his attorney) comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action of the said plaintiff; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant: wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant his damages on occasion of the taking and unjust detention of the goods and chattels aforesaid.

But because it is unknown to the said court now here what damages the said plaintiff hath sustained, etc. (here enter award of writ of inquiry in the usual form, then enter the return of the writ, and the inquisition assessing the damages [and also the value of the goods], and conclude with judgment). Burr. App. 140, §268; Till. Forms 225.

B. Judgment Record on Default of Plaintiff to Plead to Avowry in Replevin.

C. D. was summoned to answer unto A. B. of a plea wherefore he took, etc. (copy the declaration).

And the said C. D., by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and well avows the taking, etc. (copy the avowry or cognizance).

And upon this the said C. D. prays that the said A. B. may plead in bar of the said avowry (or cognizance), and thereupon a day is given to the said A. B., before the justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at, etc., on, etc., that is to say, for him, the said A. B., to plead in bar of the said avowry (or cognizance), the same day is given to the said C. D., etc. At which day, before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at, etc., comes the said C. D., by his attorney aforesaid, and offers himself against the said A. B. in the plea aforesaid; but the said A. B., although solemnly called, comes not, but makes default, nor hath he pleaded in bar of the said avowry (or cognizance), nor doth he further prosecute his writ against the said C. D.

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 141, §269; Till. Forms 226; Yates' Forms 566.

C. Judgment Record on Non Cepit for Plaintiff.

(As in I, A, as far as the last *, and then as follows): that the said defendant did take the goods and chattels in the declaration of the said plaintiff mentioned and set forth; and they assess the damages which the said plaintiff hath sustained, by reason of the said unlawful taking above mentioned, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for those costs and charges to six cents. (And they assess the value of the said goods and chattels to _____ dollars.)

Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 170, §316.

D. Judgment Record on Non-detinet for Plaintiff.

(As in I, A, as far as the last *, and then as follows): that the said defendant doth detain the goods and chattels in the declaration of the said plaintiff mentioned and set forth; and they assess the damages which the said plaintiff hath sustained by reason of the said unjust detention above mentioned, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for those costs and charges to _____ cents. And they assess the value of the goods and chattels in the said declaration specified to _____ dollars. Burr. App. 171, §317.

XIV. Ejectment.

A. Judgment Record in Ejectment, Verdict for Plaintiff.

(Placita as in I, A, of the term of which issue is joined.)

_____ county, ss.: Be 'it remembered that on the _____ day of _____, in this same term, before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the _____ in the city of _____, comes A. B., by E. F., his attorney, and brings into the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof now here, his certain bill against C. D. in a plea of ejectment; which said bill follows in these words, that is to say:

(City and) county (of _____), ss.: A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, of a plea of trespass and ejectment: For that whereas, etc. (here copy the declaration to the end, and then copy the plea as follows):

And the said C. D., by G. H., his attorney, comes and says that he is not guilty of unlawfully withholding the premises claimed by the said A. B. as alleged in his said declaration. And of this he, the said C. D., puts himself upon the country. And the said A. B. doth the like. Therefore the issue above joined is ordered by the said supreme court to be tried at the circuit court, etc. (order for trial in the usual form; see I, A).

Afterwards, that is to say, etc. (here enter the postea as in Verdict, IX, A, and conclude with the entry of judgment). Burr. App. 527, §1049.

B. Judgment Record in Ejectment for Plaintiff on Default.

As in last form to the end of the declaration, and then as follows:

And now, at this day, that is to say, on the _____ Monday of _____ in this same term, until, which day the said defendant had leave to imparl to the said bill, and then to answer the same, etc., before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of New York), comes the said plaintiff by his attorney aforesaid, and the said defendant, although solemnly demanded, comes not, but makes default; whereby the said plaintiff remains therein undefended against the said defendant; wherefore the said plaintiff ought to recover against the said defendant the possession of the premises in the said declaration of the said plaintiff described; together with his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended. Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 528, §1050.

C. Judgment Record in Ejectment for Plaintiff on Verdict Where His Title Expires Before Trial.

(As in XIV, A, to the end of the order for trial, then enter the postea, as in Verdict, IX, A, and conclude with award of judgment.) Burr. App. 529, §1051.

D. Judgment Record in Ejectment for Plaintiff on Suggestion of Damages.

(This is merely a continuation of the original judgment record in ejectment, XIV, A, as follows):

And now at this day, to-wit, on the _____ Monday of _____, in the year, etc., before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid (or, within mentioned, if the entries be on a separate paper attached to the original record), at the (court house in the city of Rochester), comes the said (or within named) plaintiff, by E. F., his attorney, and according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, suggests to the said court, and gives the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, now here, to understand and be informed, that the said plaintiff claims from the said (or within named), defendant, the sum of _____ dollars, in which sum the said defendant is indebted to him, the said plaintiff, for the use and occupation of the premises in the above (or within) written judgment described, from the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., until the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., during all which time the said defendant enjoyed the mesne profits thereof; and the value of which profits amounts to the said sum of (one thousand) dollars, above claimed. And being so indebted as aforesaid, the said defendant, in consideration thereof, afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc. (some day after the recovery of the judgment), at, etc., undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him, the said plaintiff, the said sum of _____ dollars, when he, the said defendant, should be thereunto afterwards requested. Yet the said defendant, although often requested, etc., hath not yet paid the said sum of (one thousand) dollars, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but so to do hath hitherto wholly refused, and still doth refuse, to the damage of the said plaintiff of the said sum of _____ dollars, above claimed, etc.

And the said defendant, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends, etc. (copy the plea and other pleadings, if any, to issue).

Therefore the issue above joined is ordered by the said supreme court to be tried, etc. (usual order for trial).

Afterwards, that is to say, etc. (here enter the postea in the usual form, to the words "being chosen, tried and sworn," and then proceed as follows): say upon their oath that the said defendant did undertake and promise in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above suggested against him; and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff on occasion of the premises, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, to _____ dollars, and for those costs and charges to six cents. Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 529, §1052.

XV. Record of Entry of Remittitur from Supreme Court (Affirmance).

Pleas before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the _____ in the city of _____, of the term of _____ (the term in which the writ of error was sued out), in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____.

Witness, etc. (as in usual form).

Afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____ at the _____, in the city of _____ (or as the case may be), a transcript of the record and proceedings aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, with all things concerning the same, by means of a certain writ of the people of the state of New York, for correcting errors, prosecuted by the said C. D. against the said A. B., of and upon the premises, by the supreme court of judicature of the said people, before the justices thereof, now here, was transmitted before the president of the senate, senators and chancellor of the state of New York, in the court for the trial of impeachments and the correction of errors, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. And the said C. D. appearing in the court aforesaid for the trial of impeachments and the correction of errors, assigned certain matters for error in the record and proceedings aforesaid, and in giving the judgment (or final determination) aforesaid, for reversing the said judgment; to which the said A. B., also appearing in the said court for the trial of impeachments and the correction of errors, pleaded that there was no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in giving the judgment (or final determination) aforesaid; and afterwards, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ——— (the day when the decision of the court of errors was made), as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the judgment (or final determination) aforesaid, in form aforesaid, given, as also the matters by the said C. D. for error assigned, being by the said court for the trial of impeachments and the correction of errors, diligently examined and fully understood, it seemed to the same court * that there was no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in giving the judgment (or final determination) aforesaid; therefore it was then and there considered by the said court for the trial of impeachments and the correction of errors, that the judgment aforesaid should be in all things affirmed, and stand in its full force, strength and effect, the matters aforesaid above for error assigned and alleged in any wise notwithstanding; & it was then and there further considered by the same court, that the said A. B. should recover against the said C. D. ——— dollars by the same court there adjudged to the said A. B., at his request, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for his damages, costs and charges which he had sustained and expended on occasion of the delay of execution of the judgment (or final determination) aforesaid, on pretense of prosecuting the said writ of error; and thereupon, as well the record aforesaid, as the proceedings of the president of the senate, senators and chancellor in the court for the trial of impeachments and the correction of errors aforesaid, before them had in the premises, were by the said president, senators and chancellor, remitted into the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, before the justices thereof, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and now remain in the said supreme court of judicature, before the justices thereof, etc. Burr. App. 188, §342; 2 Humph. Prec. 1186.

XVI. Criminal Record.

A. Record of Indictment and Conviction of Murder.

Warwickshire, to-wit: Be it remembered, that at the general session of the lord the king of oyer and terminer holden at Warwick, in and for the said county of Warwick, on Friday, the twelfth day of March, in the second year of the reign of the lord George the Third, now king of Great Britain, before Sir Michael Foster, knight, one of the justices of the said lord the king assigned to hold pleas before the king himself, Sir Edward Clive, knight, one of the justices of the said lord the king, of his court of common bench, and others their fellows, justices of the said lord the king, assigned by letters-patent of the said lord the king, under his great seal of Great Britain, made to them the aforesaid justices and others, and any two or more of them (whereof one of them, the said Sir Michael Foster and Sir Edward Clive, the said lord the king would have to be one), to inquire (by the oath of good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, by whom the truth of the matter might be the better known, and by other ways, methods, and means, whereby they could or might the better know, as well within liberties as without) more fully the truth of all treasons, misprisions of treason, insurrections, rebellions, counterfeittings, clippings, washings, false coinings, and other falsities of the moneys of Great Britain, and of other kingdoms or dominions whatsoever; and of all murders, felonies, manslaughters, killings, burglaries, rapes of women, unlawful meetings and conventicles, unlawful uttering of words, unlawful assemblies, misprisions, confederacies, false allegations, trespasses, riots, routs, retentions, escapes, contempts, falsities, negligences, concealments, maintenances, oppressions, champerties, deceits, and all other misdeeds, offenses, and injuries whatsoever, and also the accessories of the same, within the county aforesaid, as well within liberties as without, by whomsoever and howsoever done, had, perpetrated, and committed, and by whom, to whom, when, how, and in what manner; and of all other articles and circumstances in the said letters-patent of the said lord the king specified; the premises and every or any of them howsoever concerning; and for this time to hear and determine the said treasons and other the premises, according to the law and custom of the realm of England; and also keepers of the peace and justices of the said lord the king, assigned to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors committed within the county aforesaid, by the oath of Sir James Thomson, baronet, Charles Roper, Henry Dawes, Peter Wilson, Samuel Rogers, John Dawson, James Phillips, John Mayo, Richard Savage, William Bell, James Morris, Laurence Hall, and Charles Carter, esquires, good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, then and there impaneled, sworn, and charged to inquire for the said lord the king and for the body of the said county, it is presented: That Peter Hunt, late of the parish of Lighthorne, in the said county, gentleman, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on the fifth day of March in the said second year of the reign of the said lord the king, at the parish of Lighthorne aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one Samuel Collins, in the peace of God and of the said lord the king then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault; and that the said Peter Hunt, with a certain drawn sword, made of iron and steel, of the value of five shillings, which he the said Peter Hunt in his right hand then and there had and held, him the said Samuel Collins, in and upon the left side of the belly of him the said Samuel Collins, then and there feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike, thrust, stab, and penetrate; giving unto the said Samuel Collins, then and there, with the sword drawn as aforesaid, in and upon the left side of the belly of him the said Samuel Collins, one mortal wound, of the breadth of one inch and the depth of nine inches; of which said mortal wound he the said Samuel

Collins, at the parish of Lighthorne aforesaid, in the said county of Warwick, from the said fifth day of March in the year aforesaid, until the seventh day of the same month in the same year, did languish, and languishing did live; on which said seventh day of March in the year aforesaid, the said Samuel Collins, at the parish of Lighthorne aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, of the said mortal wound did die; and so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say that the said Peter Hunt him the said Samuel Collins, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the peace of the said lord the now king, his crown, and dignity. Whereupon the sheriff of the county aforesaid is commanded that he omit not for any liberty in his bailiwick, but that he take the said Peter Hunt, if he may be found in his bailiwick, and him safely keep, to answer to the felony and murder whereof he stands indicted. Which said indictment the said justices of the lord the king above named, afterwards, to-wit, at the delivery of the gaol of the said lord the king, holden at Warwick in and for the county aforesaid, on Friday, the sixth day of August, in the said second year of the reign of the said lord the king, before the right honorable William lord Mansfield, chief justice of the said lord the king, assigned to hold pleas before the king himself, Sir Sidney Stafford Smythe, knight, one of the barons of the exchequer of the said lord the king, and others their fellows, justices of the said lord the king, assigned to deliver his said gaol of the county aforesaid of the prisoners therein being, by their proper hands do deliver here in court of record in form of the law to be determined. And afterwards, to-wit, at the same delivery of the gaol of the said lord the king of his county aforesaid, on the said Friday, the sixth day of August, in the said second year of the reign of the said lord the king, before the said justices of the lord the king last above named and others their fellows aforesaid, here cometh the said Peter Hunt, under the custody of William Browne, esquire, sheriff of the county aforesaid (in whose custody in the gaol of the county aforesaid, for the cause aforesaid, he had been before committed), being brought to the bar here in his proper person by the said sheriff, to whom he is here also committed. And forthwith being demanded concerning the premises in the said indictment above specified and charged upon him, how he will acquit himself thereof; he saith that he is not guilty thereof; and thereof for good and evil he puts himself upon the country. And John Blencowe, esquire, clerk of the assizes for the county aforesaid, who prosecutes for the said lord the king in this behalf, doth the like. Therefore let a jury thereupon here immediately come before the said justices of the lord the king last above mentioned, and others their fellows aforesaid, of free and lawful men of the neighborhood of the said parish of Lighthorne, in the county of Warwick aforesaid, by whom the truth of the matter may be better known, and who are not of kin to the said Peter Hunt, to recognize upon their oath whether the said Peter Hunt be guilty of the felony and murder in the indictment aforesaid above specified, or not guilty; because as well the said John Blencowe, who prosecutes for the said lord the king in this behalf, as the said Peter Hunt, have put themselves upon the same jury. And the jurors of the said jury by the said sheriff for this purpose impaneled and returned, to-wit, David Williams, John Smith, Thomas Horne, Charles Nokes, Richard May, Walter Duke, Matthew Lion, James White, William Bates, Oliver Green, Bartholomew Nash, and Henry Long, being called, come; who, being elected, tried, and sworn to speak the truth of and concerning the premises, upon their oath say, that the said Peter Hunt is guilty of the felony and murder aforesaid, on him above charged in the form aforesaid, as by the indictment aforesaid is above supposed against him; and that the said Peter Hunt at the time of committing the said felony and murder, or at any time since to this time, hath not nor hath any goods or chattels, lands or tenements, in the said county of Warwick, or elsewhere, to the knowledge of the said jurors. And upon this it is forthwith demanded of the said Peter Hunt, if he hath or knoweth anything to say wherefore the said justices here ought not upon the premises and verdict aforesaid to proceed to judgment and execution against him; who nothing further sayeth, unless as he before had said. Whereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the said justices here fully understood, it is considered by the court here, that the said Peter Hunt be taken to the gaol of the said lord the king of the said county of Warwick from whence he came, and from thence to the place of execution on Monday now next ensuing, being the ninth day of this instant August, and there be hanged by the neck until he be dead; and that afterwards his body be dissected and anatomized. 4 Bl. Com. (App.) §1.

B. Conviction of Manslaughter.

Upon their oath say that the said Peter Hunt is not guilty of the murder aforesaid, above charged upon him; but that the said Peter Hunt is guilty of the felonious slaying of the aforesaid Samuel Collins; and that he had not nor hath any goods or chattels, lands or tenements, at the time of the felony and manslaughter aforesaid, or ever afterwards to this time to the knowledge of the said jurors. And immediately it is demanded of the said Peter Hunt if he hath or knoweth anything to say wherefore the said justices here ought not upon the premises and verdict aforesaid to proceed to judgment and execution against him; who saith that he is a clerk, and prayeth the benefit of clergy to be allowed him in this behalf. Whereupon, all and singular the premises being seen, and by the said justices here fully understood, it is considered by the court here that the said Peter Hunt be burned in his left hand and delivered. And immediately he is burned in the left hand, and is delivered, according to the form of the statute. 4 Bl. Com. (App.) §2.

C. Judgment Record, Sentence of Imprisonment in State Prison.

"Randolph county circuit court, September Term, A. D. 1863. The People of the State of Illinois v. William Schirmer. September 17th, 1863.

"And now on this day comes the people by Watts, O'Melveny, Johnson and J. B. Underwood, and the defendant by Snyder and Barnum, and the defendant having been furnished with a copy of the indictment and list of the regular panel of the jurors, etc., the defendant is arraigned and enters the plea of not guilty; whereupon the trial commences, and the regular panel of the jury being exhausted, the sheriff of said county is ordered to summon from the bystanders six jurors, etc., which is done, and the names of the so summoned jurors given to defendant's attorney. Whereupon came the jurors of the jury selected in this cause, to-wit: . . . twelve good and lawful men, who, being elected, tried and duly sworn a true verdict to render in said cause, etc. And the said jury, after hearing the evidence and arguments of counsel in said cause, and after retiring to consider of their verdict, returned into court the following verdict, September 18th, 1863: 'We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of manslaughter, and fix the term of his confinement in the penitentiary for and during his natural life.' Whereupon, the court, being fully advised of and concerning said case, verdict, evidence, etc., doth order and adjudge that said William Schirmer be sentenced to the penitentiary of the State of Illinois, for the space and term of his natural life at hard labor, except one day of the time, which is to be solitary confinement in said penitentiary; and that the sheriff of Randolph county see that this order be executed, etc., and that said people have their costs," etc. Schirmer v. People, 33 Ill. 275.

XVII. Enrolment of Final Decree in Equity.

At a court of chancery held for the state of New York, at the town of _____, on the _____ day of _____ (the date being the time when the enrolment is signed).

Present _____, chancellor
(or, _____, vice chancellor of the 4th circuit).

A. B. v. C. D., E. F., J. K., and G. T.

The complainants filed their bill of complaint in this cause, which bill is hereto annexed, on the _____ day of _____, 1842, before the chancellor, against the defendants C. D., E. F., J. K., and G. T. A subpoena to appear in the said cause was thereupon issued, returnable the _____ day of _____, 1842, and was served personally, previous to the return day thereof, on all of said defendants. The defendants C. D. and J. K. appeared in said cause by their solicitor, and G. T. being an infant, appeared by S. T., his guardian ad litem duly appointed by the court. On the _____ day of _____, 1842, upon filing an affidavit of the service of the subpoena upon the defendant E. F., and that he had not caused his appearance to be entered within the time limited by the rules of the court, an order was entered, taking the bill as confessed by the said E. F.

On the _____ day of _____, 1842, an order was entered authorizing the complainant to amend his bill in the manner specified in a notice of motion for that purpose, annexed to an affidavit of the complainant on that day presented; which affidavit is hereto annexed. In pursuance of which order, amendments to the said bill were filed, on the _____ day of _____, 1842, which are hereto annexed.

On the _____ day of _____, 1842, the defendants C. D. and J. K. filed their answer to said amended bill; which answer is hereto annexed. And on the _____ day of _____, 1842, the defendant G. T. by her said guardian ad litem, filed her answer thereto; which answer is also hereto annexed. Replications to said answers were filed on the _____ day of _____, 1842, copies whereof are hereto annexed. On the _____ day of _____, 1842, proofs were taken in said cause before T. G. Y., one of the examiners of this court, in pursuance of an order for that purpose previously entered.

On the _____ day of _____, 1843, the cause being in readiness for hearing, was brought to a hearing before the chancellor upon the pleadings and proofs, when an interlocutory decree was made and entered therein, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit: (insert interlocutory decree).

On the _____ day of _____, 1843, the cause was brought to a hearing for further directions upon the master's report in pursuance of the said interlocutory decree of the _____ day of _____, which report was filed on the _____ day of _____, 1843, and is hereto annexed; whereupon a final decree was made and entered therein, in the words and figures following, to-wit: (insert final decree).

Thereupon the costs of the complainant were taxed at $_____. And the costs of the guardian ad litem of the defendant G. T. at $_____.

Whereupon the said pleadings and reports, and such other papers filed in this cause as are required by the general rules of this court, together with the said taxed bill of costs, are now attached together and hereto annexed; and the said final decree is signed and enrolled, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, the day and year in the caption of this enrolment mentioned.

R. H. W., chancellor.

2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 454.

Note.—Equity courts were not courts of record. Statutes have given decrees the force and effect of judgments. In enrolment of decrees it was the custom to insert the substance of pleadings.

And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 166, §310.

D. Judgment for Defendant in Bar, or on Demurrer.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff take nothing by his said bill (or writ, or declaration), but that he be in mercy, etc.; and that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. And it is further considered by the said court now here, that the said defendant do recover against the said plaintiff _____ dollars and _____ cents, for his costs and charges by him, about his defense in this behalf, laid out and expended, by the said court now here adjudged to the said defendant, and with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. And that the said defendant have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 159, §302; 172, §320.

E. Judgment, Not Pleading in Assumpsit.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his damages by occasion of the premises, to _____ dollars, by the court here assessed, and also _____ dollars for his costs and charges by the court now here adjudged to the said plaintiff, with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges, in the whole amount to _____ dollars.

And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 139, §267.

F. Judgment in Debt, on Bond, Not Pleading.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his said debt, and also _____ dollars and _____ cents for his damages which he hath sustained, as well on occasion of the detaining the said debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, by the said court now here adjudged of increase to the said plaintiff and with his assent. And it is further considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant _____ dollars for his damages aforesaid, by the said inquisition above found. And that the said plaintiff have execution thereof, etc.

And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 137, §266.

G. Judgment in Ejectment for Plaintiff.

Therefore it is considered that the said A. B. do recover against the said C. D. the possession of the said premises, according to the said verdict of the said jury. And it is further considered, that the said A. B. do recover against the said C. D. his damage, costs and charges, by the jury aforesaid, in form aforesaid assessed; and also _____ dollars, for his said costs and charges by the said court now here adjudged of increase to the said A. B. and with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges in the whole amount to _____ dollars, and hereupon the said A. B. prays the writ of the people of the state of New York to be directed to the sheriff of the (city and) county of _____ aforesaid, to cause him to have possession of the said premises, according to the force, form and effect of his said recovery; and it is granted to him, returnable before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the (court house in the city of Rochester, the third Monday of October) next. Burr. App. 527, §1049.

H. Judgment in Ejectment for Plaintiff on Default.

Therefore it is considered that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant, the possession of the said premises. And it is further considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant ——— dollars, for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, by the court now here adjudged to the said plaintiff, and with his assent. And hereupon the said plaintiff prays the writ of the people, etc. (as in last form to the end). Burr. App. 528, §1050.

I. Judgment in Ejectment, Title Expires Before Trial.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his damages, costs and charges aforesaid, by the jurors aforesaid, in form aforesaid assessed: (and also ——— dollars for his said costs and charges by the said court now here adjudged, of increase, to the said plaintiff, and with his assent: which said damages, costs and charges in the whole amount to ——— dollars). And as to the premises described in the aforesaid declaration of the said plaintiff, it is further considered, that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. Burr. App. 529, §1051.

J. Judgment in Ejectment on Suggestion of Damages.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his said damages, costs and charges, by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed; and also, etc. (judgment for costs in the usual form). Burr. App. 529, §1052; Yates' Forms 493.

K. Judgment for One Defendant and Against the Other.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant C. D. his said damages, costs and charges, by the jurors aforesaid, in form aforesaid assessed; and also ——— dollars for his costs and charges, by the said court now here adjudged, of increase, to the said plaintiff, and with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges in the whole amount to ———. And the said defendant C. D. in mercy, etc. (If costs are given to the defendant who is acquitted, proceed thus): And it is further considered, as to the said defendant K. L. that the said plaintiff be in mercy, etc., and that the said defendant K. L. do go thereof without day. And it is further considered, that the said defendant K. L. do recover against the said plaintiff ——— dollars, and ——— cents for his costs and charges by him laid out and expended in and about his defense in this suit, by the court now here adjudged to the said defendant K. L. and with his assent. And that the said defendant K. L. have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 175, §324; Yates' Forms 165.

L. Judgment Record for Defendant, Goods Replevied.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff take nothing by his said writ, but that he and his pledges to prosecute be in mercy, etc. And that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. And that he have a return of the goods and chattels aforesaid. And it is further considered that the said defendant do recover against the said plaintiff his damages aforesaid by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed, and also ——— dollars and ——— cents, for his costs and charges, by the court now here adjudged of increase to the said defendant, and with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, which said damages, costs and charges in the whole amount to ———.

And that the said defendant have execution thereof.

(Where the defendant waives a judgment for the return of the goods, the judgment is entered thus): And, the said defendant, now here waiving any judgment for a return of the said goods and chattels, and praying judgment for the value thereof, it is further considered that the said defendant do recover against the said plaintiff ——— dollars, being the value of the said goods and chattels by the jurors aforesaid above found; and also ——— dollars for his damages aforesaid by the same jurors in form aforesaid assessed; and also ——— dollars for his costs, etc. (as above) which said value, damages, costs and charges in the whole amount, etc. (as above). Burr. App. 173, §321; Yates' Forms 568.

M. Judgment for Defendant, Goods Not Replevied.

(As in the last form concluding as follows):

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff take nothing by his said writ, but that he and his pledges to prosecute be in mercy, etc. And that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. And it is further considered, that the said defendant do recover against the said plaintiff ——— dollars and ——— cents, for his costs and charges by him about his defense in this behalf laid out and expended, by the court now here adjudged to the said defendant, and with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and that the said defendant have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 174, §322.

N. Judgment in Replevin, Not Pleading.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his damages aforesaid by the said inquisition above found, and also ——— dollars for his costs and charges by the said court now here adjudged, of increase, to the said plaintiff and with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges in the whole amount to ——— dollars. And the said defendant in mercy, etc. (If the goods have not been replevied, add a further judgment as follows): And it is further considered that the goods and chattels in the said plaintiff's declaration specified, be replevied and delivered to the said plaintiff without delay, or in default thereof, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant ——— dollars, being the value of the said goods and chattels by the said inquisition above found, etc. Burr. App. 140, §268; Till. Forms 225.

O. Judgment, Non Pros., Not Declaring in Replevin.

Therefore it is considered that the said A. B. take nothing by his said writ, but that he be in mercy, etc., and that the said C. D. do go thereof without day, etc.: (and that he have a return of the said goods and chattels, etc.) It is also considered by the court here that the said C. D. do recover against the said A. B., ——— dollars for his costs and charges by him laid out about his defense in this behalf, by the said court here adjudged to the said C. D., and with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. And that the said C. D. have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 133, §261; Yates' Forms 566; Archb. Forms 413.

P. Judgment on Non-Detinet in Replevin for Plaintiff.

Therefore it is considered, etc. (judgment as in V, C, and then thus): And it is further considered, that the goods and chattels aforesaid in the said declaration specified, be replevied and delivered to the said plaintiff without delay, or, in default thereof, that the said plaintiff recover against the said defendant ——— dollars, being the value of the said goods and chattels, by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; which said value, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, amount in the whole to ——— dollars and ——— cents. And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 171, §317.

Q. Judgment on Default of Plaintiff To Plead to Avowry in Replevin (With Award of Retorno Habendo and Writ of Inquiry).

Therefore it is considered, that the said A. B. take nothing by his said writ, but that he be in mercy, etc.; and that the said C. D. do go thereof without day, etc.; and that he have a return of the goods and chattels aforesaid. And it is further considered, that the said C. D. ought to recover against the said A. B. his damages on occasion of the premises, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided.

Therefore it is commanded to the sheriff that without delay he caused the goods and chattels aforesaid to be returned to the said C. D. And in what manner he shall execute the writ of the said people, he make appear to the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, on, etc. It is also commanded to the sheriff, that by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of his county, he diligently inquire what damages the said C. D. hath sustained, as well on occasion of the premises, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, as for his costs and charges by him laid out about his defense in this behalf; and that the inquisition which the said sheriff shall thereupon take, he make appear to the said justices, etc., at, etc., under his seal and the seals of those by whose oath he shall take that inquisition; and that he have there the names of them by whose oath he shall take that inquisition, together with the writ of the said people to him thereupon directed. The same day is given to the said C. D., etc.

At which day, etc. (proceed to enter the return of the inquisition, and the finding of the jury, and conclude with final judgment for the damages and costs). Burr. App. 141, §269; Till. Forms 226; Yates' Forms 566.

R. Judgment To Determine Claims to Real Property.

Therefore it is considered, that the said C. D. and all persons claiming under him the premises described in the notice aforesaid, by title accruing subsequently to the service of the aforesaid notice, be forever barred from all claim to any estate of inheritance or freehold in the said premises. And it is further considered, that all other proceedings in this behalf be, and they are hereby discontinued, etc. (no judgment for costs). Burr. App. 533, §1057; Yates' Forms 772.

S. Judgment on Non Pros., Not Declaring.

Therefore it is considered that the said A. B. take nothing by his said writ, but that he be in mercy, etc. And that the said C. D. do go thereof without day, etc. And it is further considered by the said court now here, that the said C. D. do recover against the said A. B. ——— dollars and ——— cents, for his costs and charges, by him about his defense in this behalf laid out and expended, by the said court now here adjudged to the said C. D., and with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and that the said C. D. have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 132, §260; Till. Forms 207.

T. Judgment on Nolle Prosequi to Some Defendants.

(In entering judgment against one defendant, insert a judgment for the other defendant for his costs thus):

And it is further considered by the court here, that the said ——— do recover against the said plaintiff, ——— dollars for his costs and charges by him about his defense in this behalf laid out and expended, by the said court here adjudged to the said defendant, ——— and with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. And that the said defendant have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 147, §281.

U. Judgment for Defendant on Plea of Misnomer.

Therefore it is considered, that the said bill (or declaration), of the said plaintiff be quashed, etc. And that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. Burr. App. 172, §319.

V. Judgment on Demurrer to Declaration or Replication in Assumpsit Overruled.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his damages by occasion of the premises, to ——— dollars and ——— cents, by the court here assessed; and also ——— dollars and ——— cents, for his costs and charges, by the court now here adjudged to the said plaintiff, with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges, in the whole amount to ——— dollars and ——— cents.

And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 158, §300.

W. Judgment on Cassetur Bill.

Therefore it is considered, that the said bill (or writ) be quashed, etc. And that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. And it is further considered by the said court now here (judgment for costs as in V, S, supra). Burr. App. 148, §282; Till. Forms 213.

X. Judgment on Election Meliora Damna.

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendants C. D., I. J., K. L. and M. N., his better damages aforesaid, above found and now here elected by the said plaintiff, and also ——— for his costs and charges, etc. (in the usual form). Burr. App. 183, §337; Yates' Forms 165.

Y. Judgment on Plea of Abatement Sustained.

Therefore it is considered that the said bill (or writ, or declaration) of the said plaintiff be quashed. And that the said defendant do go thereof without day, etc. (the rest of the judgment as in V, D). Burr. App. 160, §305.

Z. Judgment on Report of Referees.

Therefore it is considered, that the said report do stand confirmed; and it is further considered that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his damages aforesaid, by the referees aforesaid in form aforesaid reported; and also ——— dollars and ——— cents for his said costs and charges by the said court now here adjudged to the said plaintiff, and with his assent, which said damages, costs and charges, in the whole, amount to ——— dollars and ——— cents.

And the said defendant in mercy, etc. Burr. App. 163, §308.

(Judgment for defendant in ordinary form according to case.) Burr. App. 164, §309.

VI. Judgment Under the Codes.

A. Judgment on Verdict.

The issues in this action having been brought on for trial before Mr. Justice ———, and a jury at a circuit (or trial term of this) court, held on the first Monday of ———, 18—, and * the issues having been tried, and a verdict for the plaintiff (or defendants) having been duly rendered on the ——— day of ———, 18— (and their costs having been adjusted at ——— dollars):

Now, on motion of M. N., for said ———, it is adjudged that said plaintiffs recover of said defendants ——— dollars found by the jury, with ——— dollars costs (or that the defendants have judgment against the plaintiff, upon the issues in this action, for the sum of ——— dollars), (or state special relief). 2 Abb. Forms 540.

B. Judgment on Verdict Subject to Opinion of the Court.

A verdict having been taken in this cause for the plaintiff, subject to the opinion of the court, at the general term, on a case to be made by the plaintiff, and the case having been heard at said term; now, on motion of M. N. for the defendant, and after hearing O. P., for the plaintiff:

It is adjudged that (etc., as in other forms). 2 Abb. Forms 542.

C. Judgment on Trial of Issues of Fact by the Court (a).

This action having been brought to a trial by the court (a trial by jury having been duly waived), and a decision therein having been rendered for the plaintiff (or defendant), and filed; now, on motion of M. N., counsel for said ———,

It is adjudged that, etc. (as in other forms). 2 Abb. Forms 543.

Judgment on Trial of Issues of Fact by Court (b).

"This cause was heard before the Honorable C. D. Clark, judge, etc., without the intervention of a jury, a jury having been waived by stipulation in writing, signed by plaintiff and defendant; and the court having heard the evidence and argument of counsel, finds the issues joined in favor of the plaintiff, and that the defendant is justly indebted to plaintiff, principal and interest to the present date, in the sum of three thousand one hundred and thirty-eight dollars and eight cents. It is therefore adjudged by the court that Athens Woolen Mill recover of American Credit Indemnity Company said sum of three thousand one hundred and thirty-eight dollars and eight cents ($3,138.08), together with all the costs of this cause, for both of which execution will issue." American Credit I. Co. v. Athens Woolen Mills, 92 Fed. 581, 34 C. C. A. 161.

D. Judgment on Trial of Issues of Fact by the Court, Where a Reference Has Been Had After Trial and Before Final Judgment.

The issues in this cause having been tried by the court without a jury, and the written decision of the justice holding said court having been made, bearing date the ——— day of ———, 18—, and duly filed, and an order of reference thereon made, bearing date the ——— day of ———, 18—, duly entered, and the report of the referee thereon, bearing date the ——— day of ———, 18—, made and filed, by which it appears (briefly stating conclusions of report):

Now, therefore, on due proof (that the complaint and notice of the pendency of this action was filed on the ——— day of ———, 18—, in the office of the clerk of the county of ———, and) of the service of due notice of hearing of the cause on all the defendants, and on motion of M. N. for the plaintiff, and after hearing O. P. for the defendant, no one else appearing for any defendant,

It is adjudged (etc., stating relief as in other forms). 2 Abb. Forms 543.

E. Judgment Where Part of the Issues Were Tried With a Jury, and a Part Without, and Questions of Law Were Reserved.

This case having been tried before

Mr. Justice ———, and a jury, as to certain issues, and by the said judge without a jury as to the residue, and the questions of law having been reserved for argument before said justice, and the same having been argued; now, on motion of M. N. for the defendants,

It is ordered and adjudged that the complaint be, and the same is hereby dismissed, without costs to either party as against the other. 2 Abb. Forms 545.

F. Against Executor or Administrator.

(Recite proceedings and verdict, decision or report, as in preceding forms, continuing):

Therefore it is adjudged that said plaintiff recover against said defendant as executor of the will of M. N., deceased (or administrator of the goods, chattels, and credits which were of M. N., deceased), ——— dollars, to be levied and collected of the goods and chattels, and credits of said M. N. in the hands of said defendant to be administered (or which shall hereafter come to the hands of said defendant to be administered), together with ——— dollars costs of this action, to be levied in the same manner as aforesaid (or, if chargeable on defendant personally, say: to be levied of the proper goods, chattels, lands, and tenements of the said defendant, in case the same cannot be levied of the goods and chattels of the said M. N., as aforesaid). 2 Abb. Forms 552.

G. Judgment in Action in the Nature of Scire Facias.

(Recite proceedings as in preceding forms, continuing):

And it appearing that the action is brought to continue the action mentioned in the complaint herein, in the name of the above named plaintiff, as executor of, and in lieu and place of M. N., deceased, the former plaintiff therein; and, also, to obtain execution, in the name of the plaintiff, of the judgment mentioned in the complaint herein, according to the force, form, and effect thereof, and of the recovery therein, and certain findings of fact and conclusions of law being made by this court; now, on motion of O. P., for the plaintiff herein:

It is adjudged that the said action mentioned in the complaint herein be continued in the name of the plaintiff A. B., as executor of the said M. N., deceased; and that the said A. B., as executor as aforesaid, have execution of the aforesaid judgment for the damages and costs aforesaid, and the interest thereon, against the said defendant, with the like effect as if the said M. N. had not died, according to the force, form, and effect of the said judgment.

And it is further adjudged that the plaintiff recover of the said defendant ——— dollars, for his costs and disbursements in this action; and that the plaintiff have execution therefor. 2 Abb. Forms 553.

H. Judgment in Replevin for Recovery of Possession.

(Recitals of proceedings and verdict, decision, or report, as in preceding forms, continuing): and the value of the property claimed (and damages for the detention thereof), having been assessed at ——— dollars, by the jury (or by a sheriff's jury by the direction of the court, or by said referee):

Therefore it is adjudged that the plaintiff (or defendant) recover of the defendant the possession of the personal property described in the complaint (or the following described personal property, description); or ——— dollars in case a delivery of said property cannot be had; and also that he recover (——— dollars damages, together with) ——— dollars costs, amounting in the whole to ——— dollars. 2 Abb. Forms 554.

I. Judgments in Actions for Lands (Ejectment) for Recovery of Possession, With Damages, Etc.

(Recitals of proceedings, and verdict, decision or report, as in preceding forms, continuing): therefore:

It is adjudged that the plaintiff (naming him) recover of the defendant (naming him) the possession of the real property described in the complaint (or, if only a part is recovered, the following described real property: description); and, further, that he recover of the defendant (the sum of) ——— dollars, damages for the withholding thereof, and also ——— dollars for the rents and profits thereof, and) ——— dollars costs of this action, amounting in the whole to ——— dollars. 2 Abb. Forms 555.

J. Judgments of Perpetual Injunction Enjoining Construction or Authorization of Railroad.

(Recitals as in preceding forms, continuing):

It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said defendants (names), and each of them, and all persons claiming under them, or acting under the authority and direction of them, or either of them, are hereby perpetually enjoined and restrained from entering into or upon said street, called Broadway, for the purpose of laying or establishing a railroad therein, under the grant or resolution of said common council, above referred to.

And it is further ordered and adjudged that the said defendants, the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of New York, be, and they hereby are, perpetually enjoined and restrained from granting to any person or persons whomsoever the exclusive right, liberty, and privilege of laying down or constructing a railroad in Broadway. 2 Abb. Forms 555.

K. Judgment on Order Dismissing Action.

This action having been commenced by the service of the summons, without a copy of the complaint, on the defendant, and the said defendant having, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, served on the plaintiff's attorney a notice of appearance, and demanded a copy of the complaint, and due proof having been given to the court of such notice and demand, and that no copy of the complaint has been served (and the court having made an order that unless plaintiff, within twenty days from service of such order, serve a copy of said complaint; and due proof being produced by the affidavit of M. N. that said order was served on the plaintiff's attorney, on the _____ day of _____, and that no copy-complaint has been served, although more than twenty days have elapsed), now, on motion of M. N. for the defendant:

It is adjudged that the complaint be dismissed for want of service of a copy thereof, and that the defendant recover of the plaintiff _____ dollars, his costs of the action. 2 Abb. Forms 504.

L. Judgment for Defendant, After Order Sustaining Demurrer.

An order having been entered in this action on the _____ day of _____, 18—, giving the said plaintiffs leave to amend their complaint herein within twenty days after service of such order upon their attorneys, and giving the said defendants twenty days after service of such amended complaint upon their attorneys to demur or answer to said amended complaint, and directing that if the said plaintiffs should fail, within that time, to amend their said complaint, that the same be dismissed, and judgment entered herein, in favor of the defendant herein, without costs to either party; and a copy of said order having been served on said attorneys, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, and more than twenty days having elapsed since such service, and the said plaintiffs having failed to amend their said complaint, as by said order allowed:

Now, on motion of M. N., attorney for the said defendants, it is ordered and adjudged that the complaint herein be, and the same is hereby dismissed, and that the defendants have judgment herein without costs to either party (or for his costs and disbursements, amounting to the sum of _____ dollars). 2 Abb. Forms 539.

M. Judgment for Plaintiff After Order Overruling Demurrer.

The order of the court (made at general term, reversing the order of the special term by which the demurrer was sustained, and) giving judgment in favor of the plaintiff in this cause upon the demurrer therein, with the usual leave to defendant to answer, having been served on the defendant's attorney more than _____ days ago, and the defendant not having elected to answer; now (on filing the clerk's report, etc., or such other assessment of damages as is required by section _____ of the code), and on motion of M. N., counsel for the plaintiff:

It is adjudged that the plaintiff recover of the defendant _____ dollars, with _____ dollars costs of the action, making together _____ dollars (or state special relief). 2 Abb. Forms 539.

N. Judgment Dismissing the Complaint (Non Pros.) for Failure To Furnish Particulars.

(Recite service of summons and complaint as in other cases): And an order having been made, dated on the _____ day of _____, that the said plaintiff's attorney should deliver to the said defendant's attorney an account in writing of the particulars of the plaintiff's demand for which this action was brought (or show cause on the _____ day of _____), and that in the meantime all further proceedings in this cause should be stayed; at which day, the plaintiff not having delivered the particulars, it was ordered that the said plaintiff's attorney should, within _____ days, deliver to the said defendant's attorney an account in writing of the particulars of the said plaintiff's demand for which the said action was brought, and that in default thereof the defendant should be at liberty to enter judgment of dismissing the plaintiff's complaint. And although notice of the said last mentioned order was, on the _____ day of _____, given to the attorney of the plaintiff, and although the said _____ days have elapsed, yet the said attorney of the said plaintiff has not delivered to the said defendant's attorney, or the said defendant, any account in writing of the particulars of the said plaintiff's demand for which this action was brought. Therefore, ordered, that the said plaintiff take nothing by his said action, and that the same be dismissed, and that the said defendant do recover against the plaintiff _____ dollars for his costs and disbursements. 2 Abb. Forms 190.

O. Judgment on Nonsuit at the Trial.

(As in VI, A, to the *, continuing): and the allegations and proofs on the part of the plaintiff having been heard and considered, and said judge having directed the complaint to be dismissed, and judgment rendered for defendant; now, on motion of M. N., for said defendant:

It is adjudged that the defendant recover of the plaintiff _____ dollars, his costs and disbursements of this action. 2 Abb. Forms 540.

P. Judgment on Acceptance of Offer.

This action having been commenced (e. g., thus) by personal service of summons upon the defendant Y. Z., on the _____ day of _____, 18—, and the defendant W. X. having appeared, and said defendants having offered in writing to allow the plaintiff to take judgment against them for _____, which offer the plaintiff within ten days thereafter duly accepted in writing, pursuant to section _____ of the code of procedure, now, on motion of M. N., plaintiff's counsel:

It is adjudged that said plaintiff recover of said defendants _____ dollars (or other relief, according to the offer), with _____ dollars costs and disbursements, making together _____ dollars. 2 Abb. Forms 506.

I. Executions.

A. Against the Property.

1. Fieri Facias for Plaintiff in Assumpsit.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., defendant, in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars, which A. B., plaintiff, lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, recovered against the said defendant for his damages which he had sustained, as well by reason of the not performing certain promises and undertakings then lately made by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, as for the costs and charges, by the said plaintiff, about his suit in that behalf expended; whereof the said defendant is convicted, as appears to us of record. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant cannot be found within your county, that then you cause the damages aforesaid to be made of the real estate, whereof the said defendant was seised, on the _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand

_____ (the day of docketing judgment), or at any time thereafter, in whose hands soever the same may be. * And have you that money before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, in sixty days from the receipt hereof by you, to render unto the said plaintiff, for the damages aforesaid; and have you then there this writ.

Witness, _____, esquire, our chief justice, at the court house in the city of _____, the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight _____.

_____, clerks.
_____, attorney.

(Endorsed.)
Supreme court.
A. B. v. C. D.

Fi. fa. ret. (_____, 18—).

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels, in your county, which were of C. D., deceased, at the time of his death, in the hands of I. J., executor (or administrator), etc. (as in I, A, 18, c), to be administered, you cause to be made _____ dollars, which A. B., lately, in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, recovered against the said I. J., as executor (or administrator), as aforesaid, for his damages which he had sustained, as well on occasion of the not performing certain promises and undertakings made by the said C. D. in his lifetime to the said A. B., as for his costs and charges by him, about his suit in that behalf expended; whereof the said I. J. is convicted, as appears to us of record; if the said I. J. hath so much thereof in his hands to be administered.* And if he hath not so much thereof in his hands, to be administered, then that you cause to be made _____ dollars and _____ cents), parcel of the damages aforesaid, being for the costs and charges aforesaid, of the proper goods and chattels of the said I. J. in your county. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said I. J. cannot be found, etc. (as in I, A, 1, to the end).

(Endorsed as in last form.) Burr. App. 110, §213a; Till. Forms 84.

19. Fieri Facias Against Joint Debtors, Where All Have Not Been Served.

(The fi. fa. in this case is in the ordinary form, against all the defendants, as though all had appeared; and is so endorsed in the title of the cause.)

But the following special endorsement is required by statute, in addition to the usual directions to the sheriff): "The sheriff will not levy on the sole property of R. B. (the defendant not taken or served), but on his personal property, owned by him as a partner with C. D. and H. P. (the defendants taken or served), or with either of them." Burr. App. 110, §214.

20. Fieri Facias for Residue in Debt.

The people, etc., to the sheriff, etc. Whereas, etc. (here recite the fieri facias as in I, A, 2, and then proceed as in that form, in all respects, except that instead of "damages," only, you say "debt and damages," throughout. Burr. App. 111, §216.

21. Fieri Facias for Residue in Assumpsit.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

Whereas by our writ, we lately commanded you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., defendant, in your county, you should cause to be made _____ dollars, which A. B., plaintiff, then, lately, in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, had recovered against the said defendant, for his damages which he had sustained, as well on occasion of the not performing certain promises and undertakings then lately made by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, as for the costs and charges by the said plaintiff, about his suit in that behalf expended; whereof the said defendant was convicted, as appeared to us of record. And, if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant could not be found in your county, that then you should cause the damages aforesaid to be made of the real estate, whereof the said defendant was seised on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, or at any time afterwards, in whose hands soever the same might be; and that you should have that money before our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, in sixty days from the receipt thereof, by you, to render to the said plaintiff for his damages aforesaid; and you, at the expiration of the said sixty days, returned to our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, that, by virtue of the said writ to you directed, you had caused to be made of the goods, chattels and real estate, of the said defendant _____ dollars, parcel of the damages aforesaid, which money you had ready at the day in the said writ contained, as by the said writ you were commanded; and that the said defendant had not any other or more goods, chattels, or real estate, in your county, whereof you could cause to be made the residue of the damages aforesaid, or any part thereof; therefore, we command you, that of the goods and chattels of the said defendant, in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars, residue of the damages aforesaid. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant cannot be found in your county, that then you cause the said _____ dollars, residue of the damages aforesaid, to be made of the real estate, in your county, whereof the said defendant was seised on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, or at any time afterwards, in whose hands soever the same may be. And have you those moneys before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, in sixty days from the receipt hereof by you, to render unto the said plaintiff, for the residue of his damages aforesaid. And have you then there this writ. Witness, etc. (teste in ordinary form, see I, A, 1). Burr. App. 111, §215; Till. Forms 75.

22. Fieri Facias, Alias.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of (Essex), greeting:

We command you, as before we have commanded you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., etc. (as in the ordinary forms). Burr. App. 112, §217.

23. Fieri Facias Pluries.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, as oftentimes before we have commanded you, that of the goods and chattels, etc. (as in the ordinary forms). Burr. App. 112, §218.

24. Fieri Facias, Testatum in Case.
The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
_____, greeting:

Whereas by our writ of fieri facias we lately commanded our sheriff of the county of _____, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., defendant, in his county, he should cause to be made, (four hundred) dollars, which A. B., plaintiff, lately before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, recovered against him, for the damages which he had sustained, as well by reason of, etc. (reciting the fi. fa.), as for the costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended; whereof the said defendant was convicted as appeared to us of record; and if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant could not be found in his county, that then he should cause the damages aforesaid to be made of the real estate, etc. (as in fi. fa.), and that he should have those moneys before our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, in sixty days from the receipt of the said writ by him, to render unto the said plaintiff, for the damages aforesaid; and our said sheriff of the said county of (Ulster), at the expiration of the said sixty days, returned to our said justices, that the said defendant had no goods, chattels, or real estate, in his county, whereof he could cause to be levied the damages aforesaid, or any part thereof. Whereupon, on behalf of the said plaintiff, it is sufficiently testified to our said court, that the said defendant has sufficient goods, chattels, and real estate, in your county, whereof you may cause to be levied the damages aforesaid. Therefore we command you, that of the goods and chattels of the said defendant, in your county, you cause to be made the damages aforesaid; and if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant cannot be found therein, that then you cause the damages aforesaid to be made of the real estate in your county, whereof the said defendant was seised, on the _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____ (day of docketing judgment), or at any time afterwards, in whose hands soever the same may be. And have you those moneys before our said justices, in sixty days from the receipt hereof by you, to render unto the said plaintiff, for the damages aforesaid. And have you then there this writ. Witness, etc. (Teste in the ordinary form, see I, A, 1.) Burr. App. 112, §219; Till. Forms 89.

25. Fieri Facias, Testatum in Debt.

(Same as last form, with the necessary difference in reciting the writ of fi. fa. and substituting "debt and damages," for "damages," throughout. Burr. App. 113, §220.

26. Fieri Facias, Testatum for Residue.

The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
_____, greeting:

Whereas by our writ we lately commanded our sheriff of the county of _____ that of the goods and chattels, etc. (to the end of the fieri facias, and then as follows): And our said sheriff of the county of _____, at the expiration of the said sixty days returned to our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, that, by virtue of the said writ to him directed, he had caused to be made of the goods and chattels, etc., of the said defendant _____ dollars, parcel of the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid, which money he had ready before our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the day in the said writ contained, as by the said writ he was commanded; and that the said defendant had not any other or more goods or chattels, nor any real estate, in his county, whereof he could cause to be made the residue of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid, or any part thereof; and because it is sufficiently testified in our said supreme court of judicature, before our said justices thereof, that the said defendant hath sufficient goods and chattels in your county, whereof you may cause to be made the residue of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid; therefore, we command you, that of the goods and chattels of the said defendant, in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars, residue of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid. And if sufficient goods, etc. (as in I, A, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 113, §221.

27. Fieri Facias, Testatum Alias.

(Same as the testatum, I, A, 24, adding, in the mandate, the words, "as before we have commanded you." Burr. App. 113, §222.

28. Fieri Facias, Testatum Pluries.

(Same as the testatum, I, A, 24, adding in the mandate, the words, "as oftentimes before we have commanded you.") Burr. App. 114, §223.

29. Fieri Facias on Scire Facias.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., defendant in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars, which A. B., plaintiff, lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, recovered against the said defendant, for his damages which he had sustained, as well on occasion of the not performing certain promises and undertakings then lately made by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, as for the costs and charges, by the said plaintiff, about his suit in that behalf expended (if the action were debt, vary this part of the form as in I, A, 2), whereof the said defendant was convicted, as appears to us of record; and also _____ dollars (the costs of the scire facias), which in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, were adjudged to the said plaintiff, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for his costs and charges by him laid out, in and about the prosecution of our writ of scire facias, for having execution upon the said judgment, for the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid;* and whereupon, it was, after plea pleaded (or demurrer joined), therein, considered in our same court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, that the said plaintiff should have his execution against the said defendant, of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid, according to the force, form and effect of the said recovery, as also appears to us of record. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant cannot be found in your county, that we command you, that you cause the damages and costs (or debt, damages and costs), aforesaid, to be made of the real estate, whereof the said defendant was seised on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____ (day of docketing judgment), or at any time thereafter, in whose hands soever the same may be. And have you those moneys before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, in sixty days from the receipt hereof by you, to render to the said plaintiff for the (debt), damages and costs aforesaid. And have you then there this writ. Witness, etc. (teste, etc., as in I, A, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 114, §224; Caines' Forms 260; Till. Forms 75.

30. Fieri Facias Against Special Bail on Recognizance After Default.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of I. S. and I. N., the bail of C. D., defendants in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars of debt, which A. B., plaintiff, lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, recovered against the said defendants, and _____ dollars which in our said court were adjudged to the said plaintiff for the damages which he had sustained, as well by occasion of the detention of that debt, as for the costs and charges by the said plaintiff, about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said defendants are convicted, as appear to us of record. And if sufficient goods, etc. (as in I, A, 2, to the end). Burr. App. 115, §225.

31. Fieri Facias After Scire Facias by Default.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, etc. (as in I, A, 29, to the *, and then as follows): And whereupon it is considered in our same court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, that the said plaintiff have his execution against the said defendant, of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid, according to the force, form and effect of the said recovery, by the default of the said defendant, as also appears to us of record. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant, etc. (as in I, A, 29, to the end). Burr. App. 115, §226; Till. Forms 75.

32. Execution Against Heirs and Terre-Tenants.

The people, etc., to the sheriff of the (city and) county of _____, greeting:

We command you that of all (here describe the land as in the scire facias), in your county, of which C. D., lately deceased, or any person or persons in trust for him, was or were seized on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., you cause to be made _____ dollars and _____ cents, which A. B., lately, in our supreme court of judicature, recovered by our writ of seire facias against (here name the heirs or terre-tenants), heirs (or terre tenants), of the said C. D., deceased; and wherein it was considered that the said A. B. have execution thereof; and whereof the said (heirs or terre-tenants) are convicted, as appears to us of record. And have those moneys before, etc. (return and teste as in an ordinary fi. fa., I, A, 1). Burr. App. 518, §1039.

33. Fieri Facias After Non Pros. or Affirmation in Supreme Court.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars (or a certain debt of _____ dollars), which A. B., lately in our court of common pleas, in and for the (city and) county of _____ (or otherwise, describing the court), before the judges thereof (or otherwise, according to the style of the court), recovered against the said C. D., etc. (state the recovery): Whereof the said C. D. is convicted, as by the inspection of the record and proceedings thereof, which we lately caused to be brought into our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, at the _____ in the city of _____, for certain supposed causes of error therein, and which are now there remaining, appears to us of record; and also _____ dollars, which in our said supreme court, before our said justices thereof, were adjudged to the said A. B., according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for his damages, costs and charges which he had sustained and expended, on occasion of the delay of execution of the judgment aforesaid, on pretence of prosecuting our writ of error brought thereupon by the said C. D. against the said A. B., because the said C. D. did not prosecute the said writ of error with effect (or on an affirmance, the said judgment being in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, in all things affirmed), whereof the said C. D. is also convicted, as appears to us of record. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said C. D. cannot be found in your county, that then you cause the damages (or debt and damages), and costs aforesaid, to be made of the lands, tenements, real estate and chattels real, in your county, whereof the said C. D. was seised on the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and _____, or at any time afterwards, in whose hands soever the same may be. And have the said moneys before our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, in sixty days from the receipt hereof by you, to render to the said A. B. for his damages, costs and charges aforesaid. And have you then there this writ. Witness, etc. (teste in the usual form). Burr. App. 115, §227; Till. Forms 76.

34. Fieri Facias on Reversal for Costs.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., in your county, you cause to be made _____ dollars, and _____ cents, which in our court for the correction of errors were adjudged to C. D., for his costs and charges by him laid out and expended in and about the prosecution of our writ of error brought into our said court for the correction of errors, of and upon a judgment rendered in our supreme court of judicature before our justices thereof, in favor of A. B. against the said C. D., in a plea of (trespass on the case upon promises), and which said judgment of our said justices of our said supreme court, was, for certain errors therein, reversed by our said court for the correction of errors; whereof the said A. B. is convicted as appears to us of record; and if sufficient goods, etc. (conclude as in usual form). Burr. App. 117, §228a; Yates' Forms 619.

B. Under the Codes.

1. Execution Against Property.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____, greeting:

Whereas judgment was rendered on the _____ day of _____, one thousand eight hundred and _____, in an action in the _____ court, between A. B., plaintiff, and Y. Z., defendant, in favor of the said (naming judgment creditor), against the said (debtor) , for the sum of _____ dollars, as appears to us by the judgment-roll, filed in the office of the clerk of the county of _____ (or, of the clerk of said court). And whereas the said judgment was docketed in your county, on the _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____, and the sum of _____ is now actually due thereon with interest from the _____ day of _____: therefore we command you that you satisfy the said judgment (a) out of the personal property of the said judgment-debtor within your county; or if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of the real property in your county belonging to such judgment debtor on the day (a) when the said judgment was so docketed in your county, or at any time thereafter, in whose hands soever the same may be, and return this execution within sixty days after its receipt by you, to the clerk of (designating the clerk with whom the record of judgment is filed).

8. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum on Non Pros. for Not Declaring.

(As in I, C, 1, to the *, and then as follows): To satisfy C. D., defendant, ——— dollars (the defendant's taxed costs), which lately, in our supreme court of judicature, before our aforesaid justices thereof, were adjudged to the said defendant, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for his costs and charges by him laid out in and about his defence * of and upon our certain writ of capias ad respondendum, issued out of our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, at the suit of the said plaintiff, against the said defendant, for that the said plaintiff had not declared thereupon, in our said court, before our said justices, against the said defendant, before the end of ——— term, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ———, being the next term after the appearance of the said defendant, at the suit of the said plaintiff, whereof the said plaintiff is convicted as appears to us of record, etc. (as in I, C, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 120, §237; Till. Forms 111.

9. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum on Non Pros. for Not Replying.

(As in the last form to the *, and then as follows): In a certain action of trespass on the case (or, as the action is), then lately commenced and depending in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, at the suit of the said plaintiff, against the said defendant, for that the said plaintiff had not replied to certain pleas then lately pleaded by the said defendant in the said action, or further prosecuted the same; whereof, the said plaintiff is convicted, etc. (as in I, C, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 120, §238; Till. Forms 112.

10. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum on Judgment as in Case of Nonsuit.

(As in I, C, 7, to the *, and then as follows): In a certain action of trespass on the case (or as the action is), then lately commenced and depending in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, at the suit of the said plaintiff, against the said defendant, for that the said plaintiff had neglected to bring a certain issue before then joined in the said action, on to be tried, according to the course and practice of our said supreme court, whereof the said plaintiff is convicted, as appears to us of record, etc. (as in I, C, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 120, §239; Till. Forms 112.

11. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum on Nonsuit.

(As in I, C, 7, to the *, and then as follows): In a certain action of trespass on the case (or as the action is), lately brought in our said supreme court, before our said justices thereof, by the said plaintiff, against the said defendant, for that the said plaintiff did not prosecute the said action; whereof the said plaintiff is convicted, etc. (as in I, C, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 121, §240; Till. Forms 112.

12. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum on Verdict for Defendant.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of ———, greeting:

We command you, that you take A. B., if he may be found in your county, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, at the ———, in the city of ———, on the (first Monday of ——— next), to satisfy C. D., defendant, ——— dollars and ——— cents), which lately, in our supreme court of judicature, before our aforesaid justices thereof, were adjudged to the said defendant, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for his costs and charges by him laid out, in and about his defence, in a certain action of trespass on the case (or as the action is), lately prosecuted in our said supreme court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, by the plaintiff, against the said defendant; whereof the said plaintiff is convicted, etc. (as in I, C, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 121, §241; Till. Forms 113.

13. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum, Alias.

The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
———, greeting:

We command you, as we have before commanded you, that you take, etc. (as in any other writ of capias ad satisfaciendum, altering the return and teste to suit the case). Burr. App. 121, §242.

14. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum, Pluries.

The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
———, greeting:

We command you, as we have oftentimes before commanded you, that you take, etc. (as in any other ca. sa., altering the return and teste to suit the case). Burr. App. 122, §243.

15. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum, Testatum in Assumpsit.

The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
———, greeting:

Whereas we lately commanded our sheriff of the county of ———, that he should take C. D., defendant, if he should be found within his county, and him safely keep, so that he might have his body before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, at a certain place and on a certain day now past, to satisfy A. B., plaintiff, ——— dollars, which he lately in our said supreme court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, recovered against the said defendant for the damages which he had sustained, as well by reason of the not performing certain promises and undertakings then lately made by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, as for his costs and damages by him about his suit in that behalf expended;
whereof the said defendant was convicted, as appeared to us of record; and that he should have then and there that writ. And our sheriff of the county of ———, on that day returned to our said court, that the said defendant was not found within his county; whereupon, on behalf of the said plaintiff, it is sufficiently testified to our said court that the said defendant does lurk and secret himself in your county. Therefore we command you, that you take him, if he shall be found within your county, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before our justices of our said supreme court of judicature, at the
——— in the city of ———, on the (first Monday of ———) next, to satisfy the said plaintiff for the damages, costs and charges aforesaid;

and have you then there this writ.
Witness, etc. (teste in ordinary form, as in I, C, 1). Burr. App. 122, §244;
Till. Forms 113.

16. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum, Testatum in Debt.

The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
———, greeting:

Whereas we lately commanded our sheriff of the county of ———, that he should take C. D. (recite the ca. sa.
as above, with the necessary changes).
And our said sheriff, etc., on that day returned, etc. (as in last form throughout, except that for "damages" you say, "debt and damages"). Burr.
App. 122, §245.

17. Capias Ad Satisfaciendum on Scire Facias on Judgment in Debt.

The people of the state of New York,
to the sheriff of the county of
———, greeting:

We command you, that you take C.
D., if he may be found in your county, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before our justices of our supreme court of judicature, at the
——— in the city of ———, on the (first Monday of ———) next, to satisfy A. B., plaintiff, ——— dollars of debt which he lately in our said court, before our said justices thereof, recovered against the said defendant, and also ——— dollars and ——— cents), which in our said court were adjudged to the said plaintiff for the damages which he had sustained, as well by occasion of the detention of that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended (if the action were for damages, vary the form as in I, C, 1), whereof the said defendant was convicted, as appears to us of record. And also ——— dollars (the costs of the scire facias), which in our said court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, were adjudged to the said plaintiff, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for his costs and charges by him laid out in and about the prosecution of our writ of scire facias for having execution upon the said judgment for the debt and damages (or damages), aforesaid; and whereupon it was considered in our same court, before our aforesaid justices thereof, that the said plaintiff should have his execution against the said defendant, of the debt and damages (or damages), aforesaid, according to the force, form and effect of the said recovery, as also appears to us of record. And have you then there this writ. Witness, etc. (as in I, C, 1, to the end). Burr. App. 123, §245a.

D. Execution Against the Person (Code).

(As in I, B, 1, to the †, continuing): And whereas, an execution against the property of the said ——— has been duly issued to the sheriff of the county of ——— (or to you), and returned unsatisfied; therefore we command you, that you arrest the said ———, and commit him (or them) to the jail of your county until he (or they) shall pay the said judgment, or be discharged according to law. And return (concluding as in I, B, 1). 2 Abb. Forms 605.

W. J., (late) sheriff.

Burr. App. 585, §1148.

H. Venditioni Exponas.

1. Venditioni Exponas, General Form.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of ——, greeting:

Whereas, by our writ we lately commanded you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., defendant, in your county, etc. (here recite the fi. fa. to the end). And you at that day returned to our said justices, at the —— in the city of ——, that by virtue of the said writ to you directed, you had taken goods and chattels of the said defendant, to the value of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid, which said goods and chattels remained in your hands unsold, for want of buyers: Therefore we, being desirous that the said plaintiff should be satisfied his damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid, command you, that you sell, or cause to be sold, the goods and chattels of the said defendant, by you in form aforesaid taken, and every part thereof, for the best price that can be got for the same, and at least for the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid. And have the money arising from such sale before our said justices of our supreme court aforesaid, at the (capitol in the city of Albany), on the (first Monday of January) next, to render to the said plaintiff, for his damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid. And have you then there this writ.

Witness, Greene C. Bronson, esquire, our chief justice, at the ——— in the city of ———, the third Monday of ———, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ———.

———, ———, clerks.

———, attorney.

Burr. App. 123, §246; Till. Forms 94.

2. Venditioni Exponas for Part, Combined With Fi. Fa. for the Residue.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of ———, greeting:

Whereas, by our writ we lately commanded you, that of the goods and chattels of C. D., defendant, in your county, etc. (reciting the fi. fa.). And you at that day returned to our said justices of our supreme court, at the ——— in the city of ———, aforesaid, that, by virtue of the said writ to you directed, you had taken goods and chattels of the said defendant, to the value of (two hundred) dollars, parcel of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid; which said goods and chattels remained in your hands unsold for want of buyers, and therefore that you could not have that money before our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the ———, in the city of ———, at the day aforesaid: and that the said defendant had no other or more goods or chattels in your county, whereof you could cause to be made the residue of the damages (or debt and damages), aforesaid, or any part thereof, as by the said writ you were commanded. Therefore, we command you, that you expose to sale the goods and chattels of the said defendant, by you in form aforesaid taken, and have the said (two hundred) dollars, parcel of the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid, before our said justices of our supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the ——— in the city of ———, on the (third Monday of ———), next, to render to the said plaintiff for so much of the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid: We also command you, that of the goods and chattels of the said defendant, in your county, you cause to be made ——— dollars, residue of the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid. And if sufficient goods and chattels of the said defendant cannot be found in your county, that then you cause the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid, to be made of the real estate in your county, whereof the said defendant was seised, on the (tenth day of ———), in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ———, or at any time afterwards, in whose hands soever the same may be: And have that money, together with the said ——— dollars, parcel of the damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid, before our said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the day and place aforesaid, to render to the said plaintiff for his damages (or debt and damages) aforesaid: And have you then there this writ. Witness, etc. (as in preceding form to the end). Burr. App. 124, §247; Till. Forms 94.

II. Actions.

A. Declarations.

1. Declaration on a Final Judgment.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, comes into this court, according to the form of the statute authorizing the commencement of suits by declaration, and complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, of a plea that he render to the said plaintiff the sum of ——— dollars and ——— cents (the amount of the judgment as docketed), lawful money of the United States of America, which he owes to, and unjustly detains from him. For that whereas the said plaintiff heretofore, to-wit, in the term of (May), in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ———, in the (supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York), at the ——— in the city of ———, before the aforesaid justices thereof, by the consideration and judgment of the said court, recovered against the said defendant the said sum of money above demanded, which, in and by the said court, were then and there adjudged to the said plaintiff, for his damages which he had sustained, as well by reason of the non-performance, by the said defendant, of certain promises and undertakings, then lately made by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, as for his costs and charges, by him about his suit in that behalf expended (if in debt, after the words, "recovered against the said defendant," add, "as well a certain debt of ——— dollars, as also ——— dollars, which, in and by the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, were then and there adjudged to the said plaintiff, for his damages which he has sustained, as well by reason of the detention of the said debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended); whereof the said defendant was convicted, as by the record and proceedings thereof, remaining in the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof, more fully appears; which said judgment still remains in full force and effect, not reversed, satisfied, or otherwise vacated: And the said plaintiff hath not obtained any execution or satisfaction of or upon the said judgment so recovered as aforesaid: Whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff, to demand and have of and from the said defendant the said sum of money above demanded. Nevertheless the said defendant (although often requested so to do) hath not as yet paid the said sum of money above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused, and still neglects and refuses so to do. To the damage of the said plaintiff of one hundred dollars (enough to cover interest, etc.), and therefore he brings his suit, etc. Burr. App. 278, §546.

2. Declaration on Judgment for Defendant.

(Same as in preceding form, to and including the words, "recovered against the said defendant," and then proceed as follows): the sum of _____ dollars, above demanded, which in and by the said court of the said people, before the aforesaid justices thereof, were adjudged to the said plaintiff, and with his assent, for his costs and charges, by him laid out and expended in and about his defense of a certain action of trespass on the case on promises (or as the action is), then lately prosecuted in the said court by the said defendant against the said plaintiff, whereof the said defendant was convicted, as by the record, etc. (same as in preceding form to the end). Burr. App. 279, §547.

3. Declaration on a Justice's Judgment.

For that whereas, heretofore, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year eighteen hundred and _____, at the town of W., in the county of A., the said A. B. commenced an action of assumpsit against the said C. D., then (and still) being a resident of the said county, by summons before J. S., then (and still) being a justice of the peace in and for the said county, and having authority under and by virtue of article two, part three, title four, chapter two of the revised statutes of this state, entitled "Of the jurisdiction of justices' courts," and the act amending the same, passed May 14th, 1840, entitled "An act concerning justices' courts," to hold courts for the trial of actions of assumpsit in certain cases. The said summons was issued by and under the hand of the said justice, directed to any constable of the said county, commanding him to summon the said C. D. to be and appear before the said justice, at _____, in the said town of W., on the _____ day of _____, in the year eighteen hundred and _____, at _____ o'clock in the afternoon, to answer the said A. B. in a plea of trespass on the case; and was by the said justice delivered to I. J., then (and still) being a constable of the said county, who afterwards, and before the time of appearance therein mentioned, returned the same to the said justice, with a return thereupon in writing, with his name signed thereto, that he had, on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., served the same upon the said C. D. personally. At which said time and place of appearance mentioned in the said summons (if the defendant did not appear), the said A. B. appeared before the said justice, and the said C. D. did not appear, then nor within one hour thereafter, but therein made default. (If the defendant did appear, then say: the said A. B. and C. D. appeared before the said justice, and the said A. B. declared against the said C. D. upon an account for work and labor (or as the case may be), and claimed damages to the amount of one hundred dollars only (if the defendant appeared and pleaded, say): to which the said C. D. pleaded the general issue; the said justice then holding a court by authority of the acts aforesaid, for the trial of the said action. And such proceedings were thereupon had before the said justice, that the said A. B., afterwards, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc. (or, if judgment was rendered the same day, "on the day and year last aforesaid"), at the place aforesaid, by the consideration and judgment of the said justice, recovered against the said C. D. the sum of — dollars, for his damages and costs therein adjudged to the said A. B. by the said justice, and whereof the said C. D. is convicted. Which said judgment still remains in full force and effect, wholly unsatisfied, not paid nor reversed, annulled, nor set aside, nor hath the said A. B. had execution thereof. Whereby an action hath accrued, etc. (conclude in the ordinary form). Burr. App. 279, §548; 1 Humph. Prec. 682.

4. Declaration on Judgment of Foreign Court.

For that whereas, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., a certain decree and sentence was made, in and by his majesty's court of sessions in Scotland, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), in a certain matter then depending in the same court, wherein the said plaintiff was pursuer, and the said defendant was defender, by which said decree it was found, and the lords of council and sessions being the judges of the same court, did thereby then and there find the said defendant liable to the said plaintiff in the sum of £——— sterling, as the said plaintiff's salary for eighteen nights he had been engaged to perform by the said defendant at certain theatres, etc. (set out the adjudicatory part of the decree carefully), as by the said decree and sentence more fully appears, of which said decree and sentence the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, had notice, which said decree and sentence still remain in full force and effect, not in any wise reversed, set aside or otherwise vacated; and the said plaintiff hath not obtained any satisfaction of or upon the said decree or sentence for the said several sums of money so decreed and ordained as aforesaid, whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff, to demand and have of and from the said defendant the said sum of £———, parcel of said sum above demanded. 2 Chit. Pl. 415.

B. Complaints.

1. Complaint on Judgment, General Form.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ———, in the court of ——— (or before M. N., a justice of the peace in and for the town of, etc.), the plaintiff recovered a judgment, which was duly given by said court (or justice) against the defendant, for ——— dollars, in an action wherein this plaintiff was plaintiff (or defendant), and the defendant herein was defendant (or plaintiff).

II. That no part thereof has been paid (except, etc.). 1 Abb. Forms 333.

Note.—In some jurisdictions if more than ten years have elapsed since recovery of the judgment, that fact must be alleged; if a lesser period has elapsed it must appear that leave of court has been obtained. Therefore the statute must be consulted.

2. Complaint on Foreign Judgment of Court of General Jurisdiction.

I. That at the times hereinafter mentioned, the circuit court of the county of ———, of the state of ———, was a court of general jurisdiction, duly created by the laws of that state.

II. That on or about the ——— day of ———, the plaintiff commenced an action in said court (or, if the preceding allegation is not inserted, in the supreme court of the state of ———), against the defendant by the issue of summons (or other process), which summons was duly and personally served on the defendant (or in which action the defendant voluntarily and duly appeared in person, or by attorney).

III. That such proceedings were thereupon had, that on the ——— day of ———, 18—, in said action, the plaintiff recovered judgment, which was duly given by said court against the defendant, for the sum of ——— dollars.

IV. That no part thereof has been paid (except, etc.). 1 Abb. Forms 334.

3. Complaint Upon Justice's Judgment.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ———, before M. N., a justice of the peace in and for the town of ———, the plaintiff recovered a judgment, which was duly given by said justice, against the defendant for ——— dollars damages and ——— dollars costs, in an action wherein this plaintiff was plaintiff (or defendant), and the defendant herein was defendant (or plaintiff).

II. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, a transcript of the same was filed and docketed in the office of the clerk of the county of ——— (if the judgment debtor resided in another county, add: and on ——— a transcript of the same was filed and docketed in the office of the clerk of the county of ———, in which county the defendant then resided (or state ignorance of residence, etc., as in next form).

III. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, an execution in due form was issued upon the said judgment against the personal and real property of the defendant, to the sheriff of said (last mentioned) county, in which county the defendant then resided (or allege non-residence; see next form).

Continue as in other forms. 1 Abb. Forms 570.

4. Complaint on Foreign Judgment of Inferior Tribunal.

I. That at the times hereinafter mentioned, M. N. was a justice of the peace, in and for the town of ———, in the county of ———, and state of ———, having authority under and by virtue of an act of said state, entitled ———, passed on the ——— day of ———, 18—, to hold court, and having jurisdiction as such over actions of (state the jurisdiction sufficiently to make it appear that it included the cause in question).

II. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ———, aforesaid, the plaintiff commenced an action against the defendant before the said justice, by summons (or other process), duly issued by said justice on that day, for the recovery of (here designate the cause of action sufficiently to show it to be within the jurisdiction), which summons was duly and personally served on the defendant (or in which action the defendant voluntarily and duly appeared).

III. That such proceedings were thereupon had, that on the ——— day of ———, 18—, in said action the plaintiff recovered judgment, which was duly given by said justice against the defendant, for the sum of ——— dollars, to-wit, ——— dollars for said debt (or damages), and ——— dollars costs.

IV. That no part thereof has been paid (except, etc.). 1 Abb. Forms 335.

5. Complaint on Judgment by Assize.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, at ———, in the court of ——— (or before M. N., a justice of the peace in and for the town of, etc.), one O. P. recovered a judgment which was duly given by said court (or justice) against the defendant, for ——— dollars, in an action wherein the said O. P. was plaintiff, and the defendant was defendant (or otherwise as the case was).

II. That thereafter (or on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ———), said M. N. duly assigned said judgment to this plaintiff (of which the defendant had due notice).

III. That no part thereof has been paid (except, etc.). 1 Abb. Forms 333.

6. Complaint by Purchaser at Sheriff's Sale for Waste Committed Before Conveyance.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the premises hereinafter described, being then owned in fee simple by one K. L., but being subject to the lien of a judgment theretofore recovered by M. N. against O. P., and docketed in said county, the sheriff of said county, by virtue of an execution thereon, sold the same, which are bounded and described as follows (here describe the premises).

II. That at such sale the plaintiff became the purchaser, and the sheriff executed and delivered to him a certificate of the sale, and subsequently, and on the ——— day of ———, 18—, and before this action, executed and delivered to the plaintiff a deed of the premises pursuant to the sale, and the plaintiff paid the purchase money therefor.

III. That intermediate the sale and the delivery of the deed, the defendant, being in possession (or the said ——— being in possession, the defendant, with his consent), cut and carried from the land one thousand pine trees, etc., of the value of ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 479.

C. Pleas.

1. Plea of Nul Tiel Record in Action on Judgment.

And the said defendant, by ———, his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that there is not any record of the said supposed recognizance (or, if in debt upon a judgment, say, "of the said supposed recovery"), in the said declaration mentioned remaining in the said court of our said lord the King, before the king himself (or in C. P., "in the said court of our said lord the king of the bench"), in the manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his said declaration alleged, and this the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment if the said defendant ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 994.

2. Plea of Payment of Judgment.

Because he says that after the recovery of the said judgment, and before the exhibiting of the bill of the said plaintiff against the said defendant in this behalf (or, if in C. P., or by original, "before the commencement of this suit"), to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, he the said defendant paid and satisfied to the said plaintiff the said sum of £———, in form aforesaid recovered. And this, etc. (conclude as in preceding form). 3 Chit. Pl. 996a.

3. Plea, No Appearance in Foreign Court (a).

And the said defendant, for a further plea in this behalf, by leave of the court here, etc., says that the plaintiffs their said action thereof ought not to have or maintain against him, because, he says, that he was never served with any process in the suit in which the judgment in the plaintiffs' declaration mentioned was obtained; that he did not appear thereto in person or by any duly authorized attorney; that he was not resident or present within the jurisdiction of said court in which the said judgment was rendered, at any time pending the said suit, or when judgment was rendered therein; that some person or persons, to-wit, James, Noyes and Barber, appear in the said suit for the defendant, but that neither they nor any person or persons were ever authorized by the defendant to do so, and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said plaintiffs their aforesaid action thereof ought to have or maintain against him. Price v. Ward, 25 N. J. L. 225.

Plea, No Appearance in Foreign Court (b).

And the said defendant, by P. B., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that the plaintiffs their said action thereof ought not to have or maintain against him, because he says, that he was never served with any process in the suit in which the judgment in the plaintiffs' declaration mentioned was obtained; that he did not appear to said suit in person or by attorney; and that he was not resident nor present within the jurisdiction of the said court in which the said judgment was rendered, at any time pending the said suit, or when judgment was rendered therein, and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the plaintiffs ought to have or maintain the aforesaid action thereof against him. Price v. Ward, 25 N. J. L. 225.

D. Answers (Code).

1. Answer, Invalidity of Foreign Judgment.

I. That no process was served upon him in the action mentioned in the complaint.

II. That he never appeared in person or by attorney in the said action. 2 Abb. Forms 102.

2. Answer, Invalidity of Judgment Against Non-Resident.

I. That the action in which the supposed judgment against him was alleged to have been recovered arose upon an alleged contract.

II. That when that action was commenced this defendant was a non-resident of the state of New York and a resident of Illinois.

III. That he never appeared in that action, and never was personally served in the state of New York with summons therein.

IV. That when the order for publication of the summons in that action was made, and for a long time before and after, he had no property or rights of property within the state of New York; and that when that judgment was rendered, said court had acquired no jurisdiction of his person. 2 Abb. Forms 102.

3. Answer, Fraud in Recovery of Judgment.

I. That after the commencement of the action mentioned in the complaint, the said plaintiff came to this defendant, and, with intent to deceive him, and prevent him from defending it, falsely and fraudulently represented (here state representations, e. g., thus): that he, said plaintiff, intended to and would dismiss said action, and that this defendant need not appear therein.

II. That, relying on said representations, this defendant omitted to appear therein, as he otherwise would have done.

III. That the plaintiff thereafter, and without the knowledge of, or notice to, this defendant, proceeded to judgment therein, with intent to defraud him.

Wherefore the defendant asks that said judgment be adjudged void, and the plaintiff be forever restrained from enforcing it; and for his costs of this action 2 Abb. Forms 101.

I. Notice of Motion To Revive Dormant Judgment.

"Comes now the plaintiff, Joseph McMullen, and represents and shows to the court that heretofore, to-wit, on the 28th day of October, 1892, the above named plaintiff obtained judgment in this court against the above named defendant, James McCornack, for the sum of $2,400.00, to bear interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the said date of its rendition, and the costs of said action taxed at $——, which said judgment is cited and made a part hereof.

"That said judgment remains due and wholly unpaid; that by operation of law the said judgment has become dormant.

"Plaintiff therefore moves the court that said judgment be by the order of this court revived against the defendant, and for all other proper relief in the premises.

"Joseph McMullen,

"By J. A. Wilson, His Attorney."

Wilson v. McCornack, 10 Okla. 180, 61 Pac. 1068.

Note.—Sufficiency not questioned. Order of revival set aside because of service of notice by attorney instead of sheriff as required by statute.

II. Order Reviving Dormant Judgment.

"And now on this 16th day of March, 1898, the same being one of the regular judicial days of said court, this cause came on for hearing on the motion of the plaintiff for a revivor of this judgment, and it appearing to the court that said judgment was rendered on the 28th day of October, 1892, and that the same has become dormant by the lapse of time; and it further appearing to the court that the plaintiff has served due and legal notice of this motion for revivor upon the said defendant; and it further appearing that said judgment was rendered for the sum of $2,397.96, and to draw interest from the 28th day of October, 1892, at the rate of seven per cent per annum and that said interest accrued to this date amounts to $917.46, and that costs accrued herein amounts to $6.80;

"It is therefore considered, ordered and adjudged by the court, that said motion to receive said judgment be sustained, and that the same is hereby in all things revived, the same as if it had not become dormant by the lapse of time. It is further adjudged that there is due on said judgment the principal sum of $2,397.96, and the further sum of $917.46, interest accrued to this date since the rendition of said judgment of $3,315.41, and that the costs accrued herein, which is a part of this judgment, is the sum of $6.80, and it is further ordered by the court that execution issue herein on the praecipe of the plaintiff.

J. R. Keaton, Judge."

Wilson v. McCornack, 10 Okla. 180, 61 Pac. 1068.

III. Notice of Motion To Vacate Order Reviving Judgment.

"Comes now the above named defendant, James McCornack, and moves the honorable court to set aside and vacate the order of revivor made on the 16th day of March, 1898, for the following reasons:

"First. That no such judgment was ever rendered against this defendant as that recited in the order of revivor complained of by this defendant.

"Second. That no service of motion, process, writ, or summons, was ever made upon the defendant as required by law.

"Wherefore, the defendant asks that said order of revivor be held for naught, and that the same be vacated and set aside as void for the reasons herein recited.

A. B. Hammer, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Wilson v. McCornack, 10 Okla. 180, 61 Pac. 1068.

IV. Complaint for Revival of Judgment by Action.

"The plaintiffs complain of the defendant, and allege, that heretofore, to-wit, on the 3d day of December, 1855, the above named Philander Wheeler recovered a judgment in the supreme court of the state of New York against the said defendant, in an action upon contract, for the sum of eleven hundred and thirty-four dollars and eighteen cents, damages and costs, which said judgment was duly docketed in the office of the clerk of the county of Dutchess, in said state, on the 3d day of December, 1855, in which action said Philander was plaintiff, and said Orville was defendant, which judgment still remains undischarged and unpaid, and not reversed or set aside, and is now in full force and effect, and upon which judgment execution hath not been issued; that after the rendition of said judgment, and on or about the 15th day of December, in the year 1855, the said Philander died, leaving a last will and testament, and codicil; that said Philander was, up to the period of his death, a resident of the town of Salisbury, in the state of Connecticut; that after the death of the said Philander Wheeler, said last will and testament with codicil, was duly proven in the court of probate for the district of Salisbury, in said state of Connecticut, a court duly organized, having authority to take proof of wills and admit the same to probate, and appoint such administrators as next described, under and by virtue of the laws of the state of Connecticut; and said plaintiffs were, by said probate court, duly appointed administrators, with the will annexed, of the goods, chattels and credits which were in said state of Connecticut, of the said Philander, deceased; that thereupon said plaintiffs accepted said appointment, were duly qualified and entered upon the discharge of the duties of such administrators; that afterwards, and on the 29th day of February last, said plaintiffs were duly appointed by the surrogate of the county of Dutchess, in the state of New York, administrators, with the will and codicil annexed, of all the goods, chattels and credits, which were of the said deceased in said state of New York, and thereupon were duly qualified, and entered upon the discharge of the duties of said office; that said defendant resided in said county of Dutchess at the period of the death of the said Philander, and immediately previous thereto he had assets which then were, or before the appointment of said plaintiffs as such administrators by said surrogate of the county of Dutchess, came within said county of Dutchess.

"Wherefore plaintiffs ask the judgment of this court in their favor, that execution may issue upon said judgment against said defendant in the name of the plaintiffs, to be levied of any lands which the defendant held when the said judgment was docketed, or for such further or other order, judgment or relief as may be meet and proper, with costs of suit." Afterwards, to-wit, on the — Monday of —, in January term, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and —, the said plaintiff comes here into court, by his attorney aforesaid, and prays the writ of (the people of) the state of New York, of fieri facias, to be directed to the sheriff of the county of — for levying the said sum of — dollars, being the (damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed), and it is granted to him, returnable before the justices of the — court of — of the (people) aforesaid, in — days from the receipt thereof by the said sheriff. And now at this day, that is to say, on the — Monday of — in — term, in the year last aforesaid (the term in or after which the sixty days expire), before the said justices of the — court of — aforesaid, at the — in the city of — comes the said plaintiff by his said attorney, and the sheriff, to-wit, H. B., esq., sheriff of the said county of —, now here returns that he has caused to be levied of the goods and chattels of the said defendant the said sum of — dollars, as by the said writ he was commanded. And hereupon the said plaintiff freely here in court acknowledges that he is fully paid and satisfied all such damages so assessed as aforesaid, together with his costs of suit, and all reasonable charges for executing the said execution: Therefore let the lands and goods of the said defendant be forthwith discharged of the said execution, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. Partition;

Order To Confirm Sale.

I. Notice of Sale of Real Property Under Foreclosure or Partition.

By virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale (or of partition and sale), made in the above entitled action on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the subscriber, a referee, for that purpose duly appointed, will sell, at _____, in _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____ o'clock in the _____ noon of that day, the real estate (and mortgaged premises) directed by said judgment to be sold, and therein described as follows (describe premises, each lot separately).

(Date and signature of referee and attorney.) 2 Abb. Forms 608.

II. Referee's Report of Sale in Partition, Foreclosure, or Other Action.

To the _____ court of _____.

In pursuance of a judgment of this court, in this action, bearing date the _____ day of _____, 18—, I, R. F., referee, to whom the execution thereof was confided, do report:

That I caused notice of the time and place of sale of the premises mentioned in the judgment, containing a brief description thereof, to be published (here state mode, so as to show compliance with the directions of the judgment and rules of court). And agreeably to said notice, I did, at the time and place specified in the notice, to-wit, the _____ day of _____, 18—, at noon, attend at the _____ in said city, and exposed said premises for sale, by public auction to the highest bidder.

And I further report that the said premises were then and there fairly struck off and sold to M. N. for _____ dollars, he being the highest bidder therefor, and that being the highest sum bid for the same.

(Or, where there are several parcels): And I further report that the several lots or parcels of land so directed to be sold as aforesaid, were put up for sale separately, and were each and every of them fairly struck off and sold to M. N., for the following sums respectively (here name the parcels and prices); those sums being the highest sums bid for the said lots respectively, and the said M. N. being the highest bidder therefor; which several sums amount in the aggregate to _____ dollars.*

And I do further report that I received from the said purchaser the amounts so bid by him as above mentioned, and that thereupon I executed, acknowledged and delivered to said purchaser the usual referee's deed for said premises, and that I have paid over and disposed of the purchase-money or proceeds of sale as follows, viz.:

I have retained in my hands the sum of _____ dollars, being the amount of my fees and expenses on said sale.

I have paid (here enumerate in detail the payments made, according to the judgment; and in case of a surplus in foreclosure, add): and I have deposited the balance, being the sum of _____ dollars, in the hands of the county treasurer of _____ county to the credit of the clerk of this court, as directed by said judgment.

(In case of a deficiency in foreclosure, substitute for the foreclosure sentence): And I have paid the plaintiff, through his attorney, the whole of the residue, being the sum of _____ dollars; and I also report that the deficiency due to the plaintiff from the defendant Y. Z., and for which he is personally liable under the judgment herein, is _____ dollars, with interest from the date of this my report. I have taken receipts for the sum so paid, which are hereto annexed. The schedule hereto annexed contains a statement of the sums thus received and paid out.

(I do also report that I have let the said M. N. into the possession of said premises.)

All which is respectfully submitted.
2 Abb. Forms 608.

III. Referee's Report of Sale in Partition, Foreclosure, or Other Action, Where Purchaser Has Not Completed His Purchase.

(As in preceding form to the *, concluding thus):

That the terms and conditions of such sales were reduced to writing, and made known to the persons attending such sale, previous to putting up said premises, and were as follows (that the purchaser of each lot or separate parcel, was to pay ten per cent. of the purchase money down, on the day of sale, and the residue when the sale should be confirmed and the deed delivered). And that the said M. N. has signed the written conditions of sale above mentioned, together with an acknowledgment that he has purchased the premises upon those terms, and he has paid to me the amount required to be paid down.

All of which is respectfully submitted. 2 Abb. Forms 610.

IV. Order Setting Aside Sale on Ground of Mistake and Inadequacy of Price.

(As in IX, adding at the end):

And that the sale be set aside on condition that the defendant pay to M. N., the purchaser, upon demand, his costs and expenses attending the purchase, which are hereby fixed and allowed at _____ dollars, together with _____ dollars costs of attending this motion.

And it is further ordered that if the said condition be complied with, the plaintiff be at liberty to cause the mortgaged premises to be again exposed for sale by the same referee, and according to the directions in the judgment in this action; and that the costs and expenses of the former notice and sale on the part of the plaintiff, to be ascertained and declared by said referee in his report of such second sale be included in the costs of this action, and be chargeable with the other costs of this action, upon the mortgaged premises; and that a copy of this order be forthwith served on the attorney for the plaintiff, and also on the purchaser or his counsel. 2 Abb. Forms 612.

V. Bond Required as Condition of Ordering Re-Sale.

Know all men by these presents, that we, W. X. and Y. Z., of _____, are held and firmly bound unto A. B., of _____, in the sum of _____ dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said obligee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals. Dated the _____ day of _____, 18—.

Whereas, at a special term of the supreme court of the state of New York, held at the city hall, in the city of New York, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, an order was duly entered in the above entitled cause, setting aside the sale of the premises heretofore had under the judgment in said cause, and described in the complaint in this action; and ordering a resale of the same, upon the defendant filing a bond with sureties, to be approved by a judge, that at least the sum of _____ dollars, and the expenses of a resale, shall be bid by a bona fide bidder at said resale. Now the condition of this obligation is such that if, on said resale, there shall be a bona fide bid of _____ dollars, and in addition thereto of a sum sufficient to pay the expense of said resale, and such bidder shall then and there, if the property is struck down to him, complete his bid as required by the terms of said resale, then this obligation to be void; otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue. 2 Abb. Forms 613.

VI. Order Confirming Referee's Report of Sale.

On reading and filing the report of R. F., esq., referee, appointed to sell the premises described in the complaint in this action, which report bears date the _____ day of _____, 18—, and on filing proof of service of due notice of this motion on all the parties who have appeared in this action:

Ordered, that the said report be, and the same is hereby in all respects confirmed. 2 Abb. Forms 610.

VII. Affidavit To Move To Compel Purchaser To Complete His Purchase.

O. P., being sworn, saith: That he is one of the plaintiff's attorneys in this action; that the action was instituted for (the foreclosure of a mortgage), and the (mortgaged) premises were offered for sale, under the direction of the sheriff of _____ county (or of R. F., esq., referee, whose report of sale is hereto annexed), on the _____ day of _____, 18—, under the usual terms of sale, and purchased by M. N.; that by the terms of sale, the deed was to be delivered to the purchaser, and the purchase money was to be paid to the sheriff (or to said referee) on the _____ day of _____, 18—. That said purchaser declines to complete his purchase, alleging that the proceedings in foreclosure are irregular and void in this, viz. (here indicate the objections made, e. g., thus): that the summons is not correctly published, and that the defendants W. X. and Y. Z., who are proceeded against by advertisement, are not foreclosed thereby. Deponent further states that a copy of said summons, as advertised, is hereto annexed. 2 Abb. Forms 611.

VIII. Notice of Motion To Compel Purchaser To Complete His Purchase.

Take notice that on the affidavit of which a copy is herewith served, and on the judgment and proceedings in this cause, the undersigned will move the court, at a special term thereof to be held at ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, for an order requiring you to complete your purchase mentioned in said affidavit, and pay the amount bid therefor, and for such other relief as may be just, together with the costs of this motion.

(Address to purchaser.) 2 Abb. Forms 610.

IX. Order Compelling Purchaser To Complete His Purchase.

On reading and filing the affidavit of O. P. (and the report of R. F., esq., referee herein), and after hearing O. P. for the motion, and Q. R. (or and on proof of service of due notice of this motion, and no one appearing) in opposition:

Ordered, that said motion be and the same hereby * is granted. 2 Abb. Forms 611.

X. Order Discharging Purchaser.

(As in preceding form to the *, continuing): denied, and that M. N., the purchaser, be discharged from his said purchase.

And it is further ordered that R. F., esq., the referee in this action (or the sheriff of said ——— county), repay to said M. N. his said deposit.

And it is further ordered that the plaintiff pay to said M. N., on demand (or within ——— days after service of this order), (interest thereon from the time when the purchase was to have been completed, together with) his expenses of examining the title, which are hereby fixed and allowed at the sum of ——— dollars, together with ——— dollars costs of this motion. 2 Abb. A. Venire To Summon Jurors Drawn Pursuant to Statute.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Plymouth, ss. To either of the constables of the town of Duxbury in our said county, greeting: (Seal.)

We command you that without delay you make known unto the selectmen and town clerk of said Duxbury and them warn to assemble at the town clerk's office, or at some other public place appointed for the purpose in said town, there by you made known, and be present at the draft and selection of one person qualified to serve as juror, of good moral character, of sound judgment, and free from all legal exceptions, to serve as traverse juror, at our supreme judicial court, to be holden at Plymouth, within and for our county of Plymouth, on the third Tuesday of May next. And you will take care that the meeting for the draft of such juror be held not less than seven days, and not more than twenty-one days, before the day when they are required to attend.

We also command you, that four days, at least, before the day when they are required to attend, you summon the person so drawn and selected, to attend at our said court, on Tuesday the eighteenth day of said May at 11 of the clock in the forenoon.

Hereof fail not, and make due return of this venire, with your doings herein, to the clerk's office, four days before the opening of said court.

Witness, Marcus Morton, Esquire, at Plymouth, the twenty-fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Wm. H. Whitman, clerk.

Com. v. Besse, 143 Mass. 80, 8 N. E. 878.

B. Venire for Foreign Jury (From Another County).

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of Schenectady (the county from which the jury is to come), greeting: (Seal.)

We command you, that you cause to come before our justices of our Supreme Court of Judicature, at the City Hall in the city of New York, on the first Monday of May next (the term following the circuit at which the cause is to be tried), (or before the justices of the supreme court, circuit judges, or some or one of them, at a circuit court to be held in and for the county of Rensselaer), (the county where the cause is to be tried), at the court-house in the city of Troy, in the said county of Rensselaer, on the ——— day of ——— (the time of holding the circuit), if they, or any or either of them shall sooner come, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided), twelve good and lawful men of your county, each of whom shall be assessed for personal property belonging to him in his own right, to the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars, or who shall have a freehold estate in real property in your county belonging to him in his own right, or in the right of his wife, to the value of one hundred and fifty dollars, free from all reprises, debts, demands or incumbrances whatsoever, by whom the truth of the matter may be better known, and who are in no wise of kin either to A. B. the plaintiff, or C. D. the defendant, to make a certain jury of the country between the parties aforesaid, in a plea of trespass on the case (or whatever the action is), because as well the said plaintiff as the said defendant between whom the controversy is, have put themselves upon the jury. And have you then there the names of those jurors, and this writ. Witness (Greene C. Bronson), Esquire, our Chief Justice at the (capitol in the city of Albany, the eighteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six).

—————, ———, clerks.

E. F., attorney.

Burr. App. 485, §990; Till. Forms 69.

II. Return by Officer to Venire.

Duxbury, April 28, 1886.

Plymouth, ss.

In obedience to this venire, I have this day served the same upon the selectmen and town clerk of said town, and on the twenty-eighth day of April, 1886, Robert T. Randall was openly drawn by one of the selectmen from the jury box, to serve as traverse juror at the said court; and on the twenty-ninth day of April, 1886, I summoned said person to attend said court, by reading to him this venire, with the endorsement thereon of his having been drawn (or by leaving at his place of abode a written notification of) his having been drawn traverse juror as aforesaid, and of the time and place of the sitting of the said court and the time when he will be required to attend; and now make return of this venire.

Wm. J. Alden,

Constable of the town of Duxbury.

Com. v. Besse, 143 Mass. 80, 8 N. E. 878.

III. Order for Certification of Jury List Nunc Pro Tunc.

"It appearing to the court that James Tobin, Charles S. Bohlor, Chas. H. Sibley and Walter A. Clark, four of six jury commissioners who revised the list of grand and traverse jurors at the time of the last revision prescribed by law, are here in court, the two other jury commissioners, Chas. Spaeth and Joshua K. Evans, having, since the date of said revision, departed this life, and that said surviving commissioners are ready to certify that the list made out at said revision and now presented to them, contains all the names placed in the grand and the traverse jury boxes respectively at said last revision. And the clerk of this court, who is ex-officio clerk of said board of jury commissioners, is also ready to certify to said list, and that the names of the grand jurors mentioned in the third plea in abatement are in the jury box by them revised and on the list made out by them at said revision.

"It is ordered that said commissioners and said clerk be allowed to certify said list nunc pro tunc." Jackson v. State, 76 Ga. 551.

IV. Challenge to the Array.

(Title of the cause.)

And now, at this day, to-wit: (the time and place, etc.), came as well the aforesaid plaintiff, as the aforesaid defendant, by their respective attorneys aforesaid, and the jurors of the jury empaneled in this cause, being summoned, also came, and hereupon, the said (defendant) challenges the array of the said panel; because he says, that, etc. (here set forth the matter of challenge with certainty and precision), and this he is ready to verify: Wherefore, he prayeth judgment, and that the said panel may be quashed.

G. H., attorney for defendant.

Burr. App. 70, §140; Yates' Forms 72.

V. Challenge to the Array, Entry of.

(After appearance of the jury in the postea, proceed as follows): And hereupon the said defendant, by G. H., his attorney, challenges the array of the said panel because he says that, etc. (here set forth the cause of challenge). Wherefore he prays judgment, and that the said panel may be quashed, etc. Burr. App. 96, §186; Yates' Forms 782.

VI. Plea to Challenge of Jury.

And hereupon the people aforesaid, by Alanson Munger, District Attorney of the county of Tioga aforesaid, answers the said challenge so made by the said John M. Thurston, and says, that after the drawing of the said thirty-six jurors, before mentioned, for said court of Oyer and Terminer, in due and legal manner, the said order of the said Wm. H. Shankland, one of the justices of the Supreme Court, ordering and directing the drawing of twenty-four additional petit jurors to attend the said term of the said court of Oyer and Terminer, was obtained, served and filed with the clerk of said county of Tioga; that after the time of drawing the said thirty-six jurors, and before the time for the drawing of the said twenty-four additional jurors, under and in pursuance of said order, a new return of jurors had been made by the proper town officers of the several towns in the said county of Tioga, as provided by statute, to the said clerk; that thereupon and before the time for drawing the said twenty-four additional jurors, the said county clerk had destroyed (as he was required by law to do) the list of jurors or ballots from which the jurors to attend the court of Oyer and Terminer of said county had theretofore been drawn, and that the said twenty-four additional jurors, so required by said order, were drawn in manner and form directed by statute in such cases made and provided, by the said clerk from and out of said new lists of jurors, so newly furnished to him, the said clerk as aforesaid, and that the full number of twenty-four additional jurors were drawn out of the proper lists or ballots, in pursuance of said order and in the manner provided by law, and the twenty-four jurors thus drawn, as last aforesaid, were duly summoned, which said people are ready to verify, wherefore they pray judgment that the said panel may not be quashed, etc. People v. Thurston, 2 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 49, 54.

VII. Replication to Plea to Challenge of Jury.

And the said John M. Thurston, protesting that the said answer and the matters therein contained, are not a sufficient answer in law to said challenge; replies to said answer that twenty-four additional jurors were not drawn, as required by said order, or in manner and form directed by the statute in such case made and provided, by the said clerk, and that the full number of twenty-four additional jurors were not drawn from and out of the proper list or ballots, in pursuance of said order, or in the manner provided by law, but that one of the jurors of the twenty-four drawn, in pursuance of said order, was also one of the thirty-six petit jurors previously drawn for said term of said court of Oyer and Terminer, and was not an additional juror thereto, and that but twenty-three additional jurors were in fact drawn in pursuance of said order. And this he is ready to verify; wherefore, as before, he prays judgment that the panel may be quashed, etc. People v. Thurston, 2 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 49, 54.

VIII. Notice of Motion for Foreign Jury.

Sir—Please to take notice, that upon the affidavit, with a copy whereof you are herewith served, this court will be moved, at the next special term, to be held at the capitol in the city of Albany, on the first Tuesday of (April) next, that the issue in this cause be tried by a jury to be summoned from the county of _____. Take notice that on an affidavit of which a copy is herewith served upon you, and upon the pleadings and proceedings in this action, the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at the courthouse in _____, in the county of _____ (or at the city hall in the city of _____), on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____ o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, for an order that a special jury be struck for the trial of this action. 2 Abb. Forms 460.

Notice of Motion for a Special Jury (b).
(Title of the cause.)

Sir:—Please to take notice, that upon the affidavit, with a copy whereof you are herewith served, this court will be moved, at the next special term, to be held at the capitol in the city of Albany, on the first Tuesday of (April) next, that a special jury be struck for the trial of the issue in this cause. Dated, March 14th, 1846.

Yours, etc.,

G. H., attorney for defendant (or plaintiff).

To E. F., esquire, attorney for plaintiff (or defendant).

Burr. App. 210, §416.

XI. Affidavit To Move for a Special Jury.

A. B., of _____, being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the plaintiff in the above entitled action.

II. That the same is brought against the defendant for publishing of this plaintiff, in his official character as (state the office), the following libelous and scandalous words, to-wit (insert the words charged). And this deponent further says that the said words so as aforesaid uttered and published of this deponent are wholly false. 2 Abb. Forms 461.

XII. Order for Special or Struck Jury (a).

On motion of Mr. J., of counsel for the plaintiff, and after hearing counsel in opposition thereto, ordered that a special jury be struck for the trial of this cause (and that the plaintiff pay seven dollars costs of opposing this motion). Burr. App. 459, §922.

Order for a Special or Struck Jury (b).

On reading and filing the annexed notice of motion (and proof of service thereof) and the affidavit of _____, and on motion of G. H., after hearing

Q. R. (or no one appearing) in opposition:

Ordered that a special jury be struck for the trial of this action, for the purpose of trying the same at the next circuit court, appointed to be held in and for the county of _____, at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18—. 2 Abb. Forms 461.

XIII. Application for Elisors To Summon Special Jury in Criminal Case.

*State of Missouri, plaintiff, v. Marshall J. Hultz, defendant.

"The state comes by her attorney, and moves the court for an order appointing one or more impartial persons to act as elisors in summoning the special venire ordered in this cause, and to do and perform all other functions and duties devolved upon the sheriff in the further conduct of the trial thereof, for the reasons following: Because said sheriff and coroner are unduly biased and prejudiced in favor of the defendant in the cause, and will not for said reason impartially summon the venire ordered and return an unbiased and impartial persons thereon, or execute impartially the other duties involved in the trial of said cause.

"(Signed) C. H. Gordon.

"C. H. Gordon, prosecuting attorney for the state, makes oath and says he believes the matters and facts as set out in the foregoing motion are true.

Return, That Court Was Without Jurisdiction.

I. Plea to Jurisdiction (a).

And the said defendant, in his own proper person comes and says, that this court ought not to have or take further cognizance of the action aforesaid, because he says, that the said supposed cause of action, and each and every of them (if any such have accrued to the said plaintiff, accrued) to the said plaintiff out of the jurisdiction of this court, that is to say, at _____ in the county of _____ and not at _____ in the county of _____ or elsewhere within the jurisdiction of this court; and this the said defendant is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment whether this court can or will take further cognizance of the action aforesaid. (There must be an affidavit of the truth.) 3 Chit. Pl. 894.

Plea to Jurisdiction (b).

"And the said George H. Sidwell, one of the defendants in the above entitled cause, for the sole purpose of pleading to the jurisdiction of the said court, comes and says that this court ought not to have or take cognizance of the said action, because the said supposed causes of action, and each and every one of them, arose in the county of Cook in said State of Illinois, and not within the said county of Vermilion, and that the said action is not a local action, and that both he and his co-defendant, George T. Sidwell, at the time said suit was begun, and at all times since, have resided in said Cook county, and not within the said county of Vermilion; that process was served on the said George T. Sidwell in said county of Cook, and not within the said county of Vermilion; and was served on this defendant while he was on a public railroad train passing through said county of Vermilion, and not within the said county of Cook where he resides; and this the said defendant is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment whether this court can or will take further cognizance of this action.

George H. Sidwell."

"State of Illinois, county of Cook, ss.

George H. Sidwell, being first duly sworn, says the foregoing plea, by him subscribed, and the statement made therein, are true.

III. That said _____, at the commencement of this suit, was and still is resident within said district, and at _____. 2 Abb. Forms 24.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

I. Indictment of Justice, Failing To Turn Over Property, 758

II. Indictment of Justice, Failing To Report, 758

I. Indictment of Justice, Failing To Turn Over Property.

That on the 1st of June, 1863, at the city of Baltimore, Silas Wright, a negro, was arrested and brought before the plaintiff in error, who was then and there a justice of the peace of said city, accused of stealing certain bank notes and promissory notes, and upon a hearing by the justice was discharged; that at the time of the arrest, Wright was searched and certain bank notes taken from him and delivered to the plaintiff in error, who was in duty bound to deliver the same to the person legally entitled to demand and receive the same; that William Daniel afterwards became and was legally entitled to receive the same, and the plaintiff in error, then and there, unlawfully, wilfully, oppressively, corruptly, and in violation and contempt of his duty in that behalf as justice of the peace, did neglect and refuse to deliver the bank notes, etc., to the said Daniel, being then and there requested so to do, well knowing the said Daniel was so entitled, etc. Hiss v. State, 24 Md. 556.

II. Indictment of Justice, Failing To Report (a).

"The grand jurors of the state of Arkansas, duly selected, empanelled, sworn and charged to inquire in and for the body of the county of Nevada, on their oath, present that one W. R. McClure, late of said county, on the first day of August, 1881, with force and arms, in the county aforesaid, then and there being a justice of the peace of Caney township, in said county, did, on or before said day, the same being the day fixed by law for the commencement of the circuit court of said county, for the present term thereof, and since hitherto has failed to file with the county clerk of said county an abstract of all misdemeanors tried before him, the said W. R. McClure, as said justice of the peace, since the last term of said court, giving the style of the case, the nature of the offense, how he obtained jurisdiction thereof, whether the offender was acquitted, or convicted, and if convicted, the amount of the fine or punishment imposed. And the grand jurors aforesaid, on their oaths aforesaid, do say that the said W. R. McClure, a justice of the peace as aforesaid, is guilty of non-feasance in office, in manner and form aforesaid, contrary," etc. McClure v. State, 37 Ark. 426.

Indictment of Justice, Failing To Report (b).

"Being charged and required by the code of criminal procedure to report to each term of the district court of Liberty county the number of criminal cases tried and determined before him, wherein he as such justice of the peace had jurisdiction to try, did wilfully, corruptly, and unlawfully fail and neglect to report to the district court of Liberty county, at the October term, A. D. 1872, of said court, the criminal causes tried before him subsequent to and following the June term, A. D. 1872, of the district court of Liberty county; wherefore the grand jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say that the said Baldwin hath committed a misdemeanor in office," etc. State v. Baldwin, 39 Tex. 156.

IV. Indictment for Fraudulent Arrest and Carrying Away, 760

I. Indictment for Kidnaping.

"The jurors for the state, upon their oath present, that on the 23d day of January, A. D. 1884, in the county of Wake, one Irene Pearson, then and there being a child of one H. I. Pearson, was residing with her said father, H. I. Pearson, and that then and there, while the said Irene Pearson was so residing with her said father, John George alias John Green, late of said county, wilfully and unlawfully did abduct the said Irene Pearson from, and induce her, the said Irene Pearson, to leave her father aforesaid, the said H. I. Pearson, she, the said Irene Pearson, then and there being under the age of fourteen years, against the form of the statute," etc. State v. George, 93 N. C. 567.

II. Indictment for Kidnaping With Intent To Carry From Residence.

"That Anzley Sutton, on the 5th day of April, 1886, at Dubois county, in the State of Indiana, did then and there feloniously, forcibly and fraudulently arrest Joel R. King, with the felonious and fraudulent intention of carrying him, the said Joel R. King, forcibly and against his will, from his place of residence, said forcible and fraudulent arrest not being then and there made in pursuance of any law of this state or of the United States." State v. Sutton, 116 Ind. 527, 19 N. E. 602.

III. Information for Kidnaping Under Common Law.

"That on the 25th day of July, in the year 1883, at said county, said William Smith did feloniously, unlawfully, maliciously, and wilfully assault one A. B. Ewers, and then and there feloniously, unlawfully, injuriously, wilfully, and without lawful authority, forcibly confine and imprison, against his, the said A. B. Ewers', will, and him, the said A. B. Ewers then and there feloniously, and without any lawful authority, and against his will, forcibly did convey from Mill Creek, in said county, to Hawthorne's store, in said county, against the peace and dignity of the state of Wisconsin." Smith v. State, 63 Wis. 453, 23 N. W. 879.

Note.—Held insufficient under the statute, but describing an offense at common law. The mandate of the court was as follows:

By the Court.—The judgment of the circuit court is reversed, and the cause remanded with directions to sentence the defendant under and by virtue of section 4635 of the Revised Statutes of 1878, as having been found guilty of a crime at common law, "the punishment of which is not prescribed by any statute of this state." Smith v. State, 63 Wis. 453, 23 N. W. 879.

IV. Indictment for Fraudulent Arrest and Carrying Away From Residence.

"Did then and there feloniously, knowingly, and fraudulently carry off and decoy and kidnap Arizona Wilson and Rosa Wilson from their then place of residence in the city of Indianapolis, Indiana, and carry the said Arizona Wilson and Rosa Wilson away from their then place of residence in the said city and county aforesaid, into the city of Evansville, Indiana, said acts not being, then and there, done in pursuance of the laws of the State of Indiana or of the United States," etc. Wallace v. State, 147 Ind. 621, 47 N. E. 13.

Note.—This is under a statute making it an offense to take a person from his residence, or to arrest or imprison any one with such intention, unless it be in pursuance of the law of the state or of the United States.
KIN OR KINDRED.—See INHERITANCE.

LACHES.

Answer Setting Up Laches.

(After setting out matters in defense) "This defendant, the said Richard Sullivan, further says, and the said Appleton believes it to be true, that when the said deed was executed by the said Thomas R. and Emily, she was perfectly sane and intelligent, fully capable to appreciate the circumstances of the case, and the valuable interest thereby assigned; that they have been informed, and believe and so allege, that she and the said Thomas R. were made acquainted with all the facts necessary to form a judgment as the reasonableness and propriety of their executing the same, and that they did so voluntarily and of their own accord, and for the considerations therein stated. And these defendants expressly deny upon their knowledge, information and belief, that the said deed was executed by the said Thomas R. and Elizabeth, or either of them, under the circumstances of fraud or duress, and insist that the same was done by them voluntarily and knowingly, and for a good and valuable consideration. And these defendants say that, by the said several deeds, the said John L., Thomas R., Elizabeth and Emily, for good and valuable considerations did assign, remise, release, and forever quit-claim unto the said William Sullivan and Jonathan Amory, all their respective interest, present or reversionary, in and to said trust fund, and all claims and demands which they or either of them had or could have against them, the said Sullivan and Amory, on account of anything done or omitted to be done by them in the care, management and disposal of said trust fund, or in any wise relating thereto; and these defendants insist upon said releases, and claim the same benefit thereof as if they had pleaded the same. And these defendants say that for many years after the said Emily executed said deed in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-six, she continued to be of sane and intelligent mind, and was well acquainted with all the circumstances relating to said trust fund and the nature and effect of her said deed, and that to their knowledge or belief she never repudiated the same, or denied her obligation under the same, or pretended to have any claims, or demands upon the said trustees on account thereof; and these defendants submit to the judgment of this honorable court, whether, after so many years perfect and entire acquiescence therein by the said Emily, during which time she was sane and intelligent and able to act for herself, it is competent for any person being, or pretending to be her guardian, to set up and maintain in her behalf this present suit." Sullivan v. Sullivan, 23 Fed. Cas. No. 13,598.

I. Declarations.

A. Declaration for Rent on Lease.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, comes into this court, according to the form of the statute authorizing the commencement of suits by declaration, and complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, of a plea of breach of covenant: For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ——— (the date of the lease), at (New York, to-wit, at the city and) in the county of (New York) aforesaid, by a certain indenture then and there made between the said plaintiff of the one part, and the said defendant of the other part (the counterpart of which said indenture [or, if both parts of the deed be originals, that is, signed by all the contracting parties, say: "one part of which said indenture", sealed with the seal of the said defendant, the said plaintiff now brings here into court, the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid), the said plaintiff did demise, lease and to farm let (according to the words in the lease), unto the said defendant, his executors, administrators and assigns, a certain messuage, or dwelling house, tenements and premises, with the appurtenances, particularly mentioned and described in the said indenture, situate in the city and county of New York aforesaid (if the description of the premises be very long, say: "certain tenements with the appurtenances particularly mentioned and described in the said indenture, situate, etc.," and in order to avoid variance, it is advisable not to state the abutfalls, or any other very particular description), (except as in the said indenture is excepted), to have and to hold the said messuage, or dwelling house, tenements and premises, with the appurtenances (except as aforesaid), unto the said defendant, his executors, administrators and assigns, from the _____ day of _____ then last past, to the full end and term of (seven) years thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended (pursuing the words of the lease): yielding and paying therefor, yearly and every year, to the said plaintiff, his heirs (or executors, administrators, as in the indenture), or assigns, the clear yearly rent or sum of _____ dollars, payable quarterly, that is to say, on the _____ day of, etc., in each and every year, by even and equal portions (or otherwise, according to the words in the lease). And the said defendant did thereby for himself, his executors, administrators and assigns, covenant, promise and agree to and with the said plaintiff, his heirs (or executors, administrators, as in the lease), and assigns, that he the said defendant, his executors, administrators or assigns, should and would well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, to the said plaintiff, his heirs (executors, administrators), or assigns, the said yearly rent or sum of _____ dollars, at the several days and times aforesaid (let this be according to the words of the covenant). As by the said indenture, reference being thereunto had, will (amongst other things) more fully and at large appear. By virtue of which said demise, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., entered into and upon all and singular the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and became and was possessed thereof, for the said term so to him thereof granted as aforesaid. And although the said plaintiff hath always, from the time of making the said indenture, hitherto well and truly performed, fulfilled and kept all things in the said indenture contained, on his part and behalf to be performed, fulfilled and kept, according to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the said indenture, to-wit, at the city and in the county aforesaid, yet (protesting that the said defendant hath not performed, fulfilled or kept anything in the said indenture contained, on his part and behalf to be performed, fulfilled and kept, according to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning thereof, the said plaintiff saith that after the making of the said indenture, and during the said term thereby granted, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____ (the day on which the rent fell due), at the city and in the county aforesaid, a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars of the rent aforesaid, for (_____ years and a half), of the same term, ending on the day and year last aforesaid, became and was, and still is, in arrear and unpaid to the said plaintiff, contrary to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the said indenture, and of the said covenant of the said defendant, by him in that behalf so made as aforesaid, to-wit, at the city and in the county aforesaid. And so the said plaintiff in fact saith that the said defendant (although often requested so to do), hath not kept the said covenant so by him made as aforesaid, but hath broken the same; and to keep the same with the said plaintiff hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused, and still doth neglect and refuse; to the damage of the said plaintiff of (one thousand dollars), (a sum sufficient to cover the real demand and interest, till the time of final judgment), and therefore he brings his suit, etc. Burr. App. 290, §357; 2 Chit. Pl. 549; Till. Forms 397.

B. Declaration for Rent on Demise and Use and Occupation.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., de-defendant in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea that he render to the said plaintiff the sum of (twelve hundred) dollars (the aggregate of the sums mentioned in the different counts), of lawful money of the United States of America, which he owes to and unjustly detains from him: For that whereas the said plaintiff heretofore, to-wit, on the (first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three), at (the city, and in the county of New York) aforesaid, demised to the said defendant a certain message, land and premises (or a certain message, buildings farms and lands, or otherwise as the case may be), with the appurtenances, situate, lying and being in the said (city and county of New York). To have and to hold the same to the said defendant for a certain term of years, to-wit, for and during, and until the full end and term of (three) years, then next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, yielding and paying therefor the yearly rent or sum of (two hundred) dollars, in equal quarter yearly payments, to-wit, on the first days of August, November, February and May, in each of the said years (or otherwise, according to the lease). By virtue of which said demise the said defendant entered into the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and was possessed thereof from thenceforth, until and upon the first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six), when a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of (six hundred) dollars for rent aforesaid, for the space of (three years) then elapsed, became and was due and payable from the said defendant to the said plaintiff, and still is in arrear and unpaid to the said plaintiff in this suit, to-wit, at the place aforesaid; whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff, to demand and have of and from the said defendant the said sum of money last mentioned, parcel of the said sum of money above demanded. And whereas, also, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the (first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six) aforesaid, was indebted unto the said plaintiff in the further sum of (six hundred) dollars, like lawful money as aforesaid, for the use and occupation of a certain message, land and premises (or otherwise, as above), with the appurtenances of the said plaintiff, situate, lying and being in (the city and county of New York) aforesaid, by the said defendant, and at his special instance and request, and by the sufferance and permission of the said plaintiff, for a long time then elapsed, had, held, used, occupied, possessed and enjoyed, and to be paid by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, when the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. Whereby and by reason of the said last mentioned sum of money being and remaining wholly unpaid, an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff, to demand and have of and from the said defendant, the said sum of (six hundred) dollars, parcel of the said sum of money above demanded: Yet the said defendant although often requested so to do, has not yet paid the said sum of money above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, the said defendant has hitherto wholly refused, and still does refuse; to the damage of the said plaintiff of (one hundred) dollars (a nominal sum), and therefore he brings suit, etc. Burr. App. 280. $549; 2 Chit. Pl. 430; Yates' Forms 470.

C. Declaration for Rent Due on Agreement To Let.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, comes into this court, according to the form of the statute authorizing the commencement of suits by declaration, and complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, of a plea of breach of covenant: For that whereas the said plaintiff heretofore, to-wit, on the (first day of May), in the year one thousand eight hundred and (forty-four), at the (city and in the county of New York), aforesaid, demised and let unto the said defendant, the (here describe the premises as in the agreement); and the said defendant then and there by a certain instrument in writing, made under his hand and seal, which the said plaintiff now brings here into court, the date whereof is on the same day and year last aforesaid, hired and took of and from the said plaintiff the premises above described, for the term of (two) years to commence the said (first day of May), one thousand eight hundred and (forty-four), at the yearly rent of (four hundred) dollars, payable quarterly; and then and there, in and by the said instrument in writing, did covenant and promise to make punctual payment of the rent in manner aforesaid, and quit and surrender the said premises at the expiration of the said term, in as good state and condition as reasonable use and wear thereof would permit, damages by the elements excepted. By virtue of which said demise and letting, the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, on the said (first day of May), in the year aforesaid, entered into and upon all and singular the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and became and was possessed thereof from thence and until the (first day of May), in the year one thousand eight hundred and (forty-six); at which time a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of (four hundred) dollars, for rent of the said premises, became due and payable, and still is due and in arrear and unpaid to the said plaintiff, contrary to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the covenant so made by the said defendant as aforesaid, to-wit, at the place aforesaid. And the said plaintiff in fact says that the said defendant has not made payment of the said rent, nor performed the covenant in the above mentioned instrument in writing mentioned, to be paid and performed by him, as aforesaid, but has made default therein, and that the said defendant (although often requested so to do), has not kept the said covenant so by him made as aforesaid, but has broken the same, and to keep the same with the said plaintiff, and to pay the said sum of money last mentioned, or any part thereof, the said defendant has hitherto wholly neglected and refused, and still does neglect and refuse; to the damage of the said plaintiff of (five hundred) dollars, and therefore the said plaintiff brings suit, etc. Burr. App. 292. §558.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint by Landlord, Having Paid Tax Which Tenant Had Agreed To Pay.

I. That at _____, on or about the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff and the defendant entered into an agreement, of which the following is a copy (set forth agreement or lease, or say: an agreement by which the defendant hired of the plaintiff a house in _____, and further agreed, etc., reciting stipulation to pay tax).

II. That there was duly laid upon said premises for the year 18—, and while the covenants of the aforesaid agreement were in full force, and the defendant was in possession of the premises by virtue thereof, a tax of _____ dollars, which the defendant neglected to pay (and that said plaintiffs were not aware, until on or about the _____ day of _____, 18—, of such neglect).

III. That by reason thereof the plaintiff was, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, compelled to pay the said sum of _____ dollars, with _____ dollars arrearages of interest, amounting in the whole to _____ dollars.

IV. That no part thereof has been repaid. 1 Abb. Forms 169.

B. Complaint on Promise To Pay for Surrender of Lease.

I. That at the time hereafter mentioned, the plaintiff had a lease of a house and lot in the town of _____, for a term commencing on the _____ day of _____, 18—, and ending on the _____ day of _____, 18—, under which he was entitled to the possession of said house and lot.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, the defendant being the owner of (or having purchased) the reversion of said premises, subject to the unexpired term of the lease, promised the plaintiff that in consideration that he, the plaintiff, would surrender to the defendant the unexpired term and the possession, he would pay the plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars (on, etc.).

III. That the plaintiff thereupon accordingly surrendered the unexpired term and the possession to the defendant.

(Or III. That the plaintiff duly performed all the conditions thereof on his part.)

IV. That no part of said sum has been paid (except the sum of, etc.). 1 Abb. Forms 211.

C. Complaint, Lessor Against Lessee, for Deficiency After Re-Entry by Lessor.

I. That heretofore the plaintiff, by an indenture made between him and the defendant, bearing date the _____ day of _____, 18—, demised and leased to the defendant certain premises therein mentioned (or very briefly designate them), at the yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable quarterly on, etc.; and further covenanted with the plaintiff that he would not (here state special covenant), and that in case of any breach on his part of said covenant, the plaintiff reserved full power which was thereby acceded to by the defendant to re-enter said premises, and eject the occupants thereof, and relet the same for the benefit of the defendant.

II. That the defendant, contrary to his covenant (here state the breach), and that the plaintiff for that cause re-entered the premises, and took possession thereof by virtue of the authority given herein in the lease, and as agent of the defendant, and not otherwise, and that he made diligent efforts to relet the premises for the defendant, but was unable to do so.

III. That thereby the plaintiff lost the sum of _____ dollars rent, which would have been payable to him on, etc. 1 Abb. Forms 310.

D. Complaint, Lessor Against Lessee for Rent.

I. That heretofore the plaintiff, by an indenture made between him and the defendant, bearing date the _____ day of _____, 18—, demised and leased to the defendant certain premises therein mentioned (or very briefly designate them), at the yearly rent of _____ dollars.

II. That the defendant thereby covenanted to pay said rent quarterly on the first day of, etc., in each year.

III. That the plaintiff has duly performed all the conditions thereof on his part.

IV. That the defendant has not paid the rent of the (quarter) ending on the _____ day of _____, 18—, amounting to _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 310.

E. Complaint, Lessor Against Assignee for Rent.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, by a lease in writing, then made between this plaintiff and one M. N., under the hand and seal of said M. N. (of which a copy is annexed as part of this complaint), this plaintiff leased to said M. N. certain lands (or very briefly designate them), to have and to hold to said M. N. and his assigns, from the _____ day of _____, 18—, for the term of _____, then next ensuing, for the yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable to this plaintiff on the (state days of payment), which rent said M. N. did thereby for himself and his assigns, covenant to pay to the plaintiff accordingly.

(II. That by virtue thereof, said M. N., on the _____ day of _____, 18—, entered into the demised premises, and was possessed thereof.)

III. That thereafter, and during said term, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18— (naming a day before the breach), all the estate and interest of said M. N. in said term, by an assignment then by him made, became vested in the defendant, who thereupon entered into the demised premises, and became possessed thereof (and continued so possessed from thence hitherto, or until, etc.).

IV. That during the time the defendant was so possessed of the premises, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the sum of _____ dollars of said rent, for the quarter ending on that day (or otherwise), became due to the plaintiff from the defendant; but no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 311.

F. Complaint, Lessor Against Executors.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, by a lease in writing, then made between the plaintiff and one M. N., under the hand and seal of said M. N. (of which a copy is annexed as part of this complaint), the plaintiff leased to said M. N. certain lands (or very briefly designate them), to have and to hold to said M. N., and his executors, administrators and assigns, from the _____ day of _____, 18—, for the term of _____, then next ensuing, for the yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable to his plaintiff on the (state days of payment), which rent said M. N. did thereby for himself and his executors, administrators and assigns, covenant to pay to the plaintiff, accordingly.

II. (That by virtue thereof said M. N., on the _____ day of _____, 18—, entered into the demised premises, and was possessed thereof.)

III. That thereafter and during said term, said M. N. died, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, leaving a will appointing the defendants his executors.

IV. That the defendants, by an order or determination of the surrogate of the county of ———, duly made on the ——— day of ———, 18—, were appointed, and now are, the executors of his said will.

V. That as such executors the defendant took possession of, and occupied the premises under said lease.

VI. That the sum of ——— dollars of said rent for the quarter ending on (a day before the lessee's death), became due on said day to the plaintiff from said M. N., but no part thereof has been paid.

VII. For a further breach the plaintiff alleges that after the death of said M. N., and while the defendants were so in possession, the sum of ——— dollars of said rent for the quarter ending on, etc., on that day became due to the plaintiff from the defendants, but no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 312.

G. Complaint, Grantee of Reversion, Against Lessee for Rent.

I. That one M. N., being the owner in fee of certain premises (or very briefly designate them), did, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, by a lease in writing then made between him and the defendant, under the hand and seal of the defendant (a copy of which is annexed as part of this complaint), lease to the defendant said premises from the ——— day of ———, 18—, for the term of ———, then next ensuing, for the yearly rent of ——— dollars, payable to said M. N., his heirs and assigns, on the (state days of payment), which rent the defendant did thereby covenant to pay to said M. N., his heirs and assigns, accordingly.

(II. That by virtue thereof, the defendant entered into the demised premises, and was possessed thereof.)

III. That thereafter, and on the ——— day of ———, 18—, said M. N., by his deed, under his hand and seal (a copy of which is hereto annexed), sold and conveyed to this plaintiff the demised premises (of which the defendant had due notice).

IV. That thereafter, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the sum of ——— dollars of said rent, for the quarter ending on that day (or otherwise), became due to the plaintiff from the defendant; but no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 313.

H. Complaint, Assignee of Rent Against Lessee.

(I and II as in preceding form.)

III. That thereafter, and on the ——— day of ———, 18—, said M. N. duly assigned to the plaintiff said covenant and all his right to the rent therein secured.

IV. (As in the preceding form.) 1 Abb. Forms 314.

I. Complaint, Heir of Reversioner Against Lessee.

I. That one M. N., now deceased, being in his lifetime the owner in fee of the tenements hereinafter mentioned, on (etc., state the lease and the covenants which were broken, as in the preceding forms).

II. That the said M. N., being seized of the reversion in said demised premises, afterwards, and during the said term, on (etc.), died so seized; whereupon the said reversion then descended to the plaintiff as his (son and only child and) heir; and thereby the plaintiff then became seized thereof in fee.

III. That thereafter, to-wit, on, etc., the sum of ——— dollars of said rent, for the quarter ending on that day (or otherwise), became due to the plaintiff from the defendant; but no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 314.

J. Complaint, Assignee of Devisee of Reversion and Rent Against Assignee of Part of Premises.

I. That one M. N., being the owner in fee of certain premises (or very briefly designate them), on the ——— day of ———, 18—, by lease in writing then made between him and one O. P., under the hand and seal of said O. P. (a copy of which is annexed as part of this complaint), leased to said O. P. said premises from the ——— day of ———, 18—, for the term of ———, then next ensuing, for the yearly rent of ——— dollars, payable to said M. N., his heirs and assigns, on the (state days of payment), which rent O. P. did thereby covenant to pay to said M. N., his heirs and assigns, accordingly.

II. That by virtue thereof the defendant entered into the demised premises, and was possessed thereof.

III. That thereafter, and during said term, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, 18— (naming a day before the breach), said O. P. duly assigned all his interest in a divided part of the land, equal in value to the residue of the demised premises, and thereby the defendant became tenant of such part.

IV. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, said M. N. died, having by his last will and testament devised the (reversion and) rent to one Q. R., which said will was duly proved and recorded as a will of real estate before the surrogate of the county of ———, on, etc.

V. That Q. R., on the ——— day of ———, 18—, duly (conveyed and) assigned said (reversion and) rent to the plaintiff.

VI. That thereafter, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the sum of ——— dollars of said rent, for the quarter ending on that day (or otherwise) became due to the plaintiff from the defendant; but no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 314.

K. Complaint Against Tenant on Covenant To Keep Premises in Repair.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, by a lease in writing then made between the plaintiff and the defendant, under their hands and seals (or under the hand and seal of the defendant), the plaintiff leased to the defendant for one year from said date, at a yearly rent of ———, a certain dwelling house, with stable and sheds attached, in the village of ———, in the county of ———, the property of the plaintiff, the same being upon a part of the estate of M. N., deceased (or otherwise briefly designate the premises).

II. That said lease contained a covenant on the part of the defendant, of which the following is a copy (copy of the covenant).

(Or II. That the defendant in said lease covenanted that he would, during the said term of one year, at his own cost and expense, keep said dwelling house and premises in good repair, and at the expiration of said term leave the said dwelling house and premises in as good condition as he received the same, reasonable wear and tear excepted.)

III. That the defendant entered upon the premises and occupied the same during the said term of one year, under said agreement; but that he has failed to keep the said house and premises in good repair; but, on the contrary, he has left them in such condition that the fences are broken down, the walls and the roof admit the water, and in consequence the plastering has in many places fallen down, the window glass is broken (or other injuries), and the house and premises are otherwise injured by reason of the neglect of the defendant to keep them in good repair, pursuant to his said agreement, to the damage of the plaintiff ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 348.

L. Complaint Against Landlord, Breach of Covenant To Keep in Repair, Special Damage.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, by a lease in writing, then made between the plaintiff and the defendant, under their hands and seals (or under the hand and seal of the defendant), the defendant leased to the plaintiff the premises known as No. ——— street, in the city of New York, for one year from that date, at the yearly rent of ——— dollars.

II. That said lease contained a covenant on the part of defendant, of which the following is a copy (copy of covenant to keep in repair).

III. That the plaintiff entered into possession of said premises under said lease, and used the same as a store and warehouse for storing and selling various articles of dry goods.

IV. That the defendant has failed to perform said covenant and keep the premises in repair, and has allowed the walls and roof to become and remain leaky, by means whereof the water has entered said premises and utterly ruined a portion of his said goods, and seriously injured others, to the damage of the plaintiff ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 349.

M. Complaint Against Landlord for Breach of Covenant for Quiet Possession.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, the plaintiff and the defendant entered into an agreement under their hands and seals (or under the hand and seal of the defendant), whereby the plaintiff hired and the defendant leased for the term of ——— years from said date, at a yearly rent of ——— dollars (here briefly designate the premises).

II. That said lease contained a covenant on the part of the defendant, of which the following is a copy (copy of covenant for quiet possession).

(Or II. That the defendant in said lease covenanted with the plaintiff that he should peaceably and quietly occupy and enjoy the premises aforesaid for the said term of _____ years.)

III. That the plaintiff has not been permitted peaceably to occupy and enjoy the possession of said premises; but, on the contrary, after the commencement of the term, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, one M. N., who was at the time of making said lease, and thereafter, until the last mentioned day, the lawful owner (or lawfully entitled to the possession) of said premises, entered upon the same and ejected this plaintiff therefrom, and has ever since kept him out of possession of the same (or designate what part), to his damage _____ dollars.

IV. (Allege special damage, if any e. g., as follows): That the plaintiff, confiding in the covenant of the defendant aforementioned, had purchased a number of farming utensils and implements of husbandry for the cultivation of said premises, and had entered upon said premises and commenced to raise grain and fruit thereon, when he was so ejected; and that by reason of the defendant's failure to fulfil said covenant, said farming utensils and implements became of little or no value to him, and he was deprived of the result of his time and labors in cultivating said premises, to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars.

(Or IV. That the plaintiff was thereby prevented from continuing his business of a hatter at the place, and was compelled to expend _____ dollars in removing therefrom, and lost the custom of his said business by such removal, to his damage _____ dollars.) 1 Abb. Forms 350.

N. Complaint Against Landlord on Agreement To Complete Demised Premises Well.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the said plaintiffs entered into an agreement in writing with the defendants, bearing date on that day, duly executed by the plaintiffs under the firm name of A. B. & Co., and by the defendants under the firm name of Y. Z. & Co.; of which agreement the following is a copy (copy agreement to complete unfinished warehouse, in the same manner as an adjoining building, and let it to the plaintiff, giving possession on a day named).

II. That after the making of this agreement, and on or about the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendants delivered, and the plaintiffs took possession of the first floor and basement of said building, under and in pursuance of said agreement, no lease or other agreement having been made or executed between the parties; and that the plaintiffs took possession thereof upon the faith and assurance of the defendants, and the full belief thereof, that the said premises were finished in the same manner as the store then occupied by M. N., in the same street, and in accordance with the terms of said agreement.

III. That the said premises were not finished in the same manner as the store at the time of making such agreement, occupied by M. N., in the same street, but, on the contrary thereof, the roof of the building, and the gutters, watercourses, and leaders therefrom, were constructed and finished in a different and less perfect manner than those upon that store, and an obstruction was placed over the top of the leader that conducted the water from the said roof of the building, which obstructed and prevented the water from passing off from said roof, whereas no such obstruction was placed over the top of the leader, or gutter, or watercourse, from the roof of the store then occupied by said M. N., in the same street.

IV. That in consequence thereof, the water falling upon the roofs of said building mentioned in said agreement was obstructed and prevented from passing off through the gutters, watercourses, or leader, and was forced back upon and ran through the skylight in the roof, and down into the said first floor and basement, and upon the silks, goods and wares and merchandise of the said plaintiffs kept therein, and greatly injured the same, to the damage of the plaintiffs _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 351.

O. Complaint, Sub-Tenant Against His Immediate Lessor.

I. That at the times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant held certain premises (very briefly designating them), as tenant thereof to one M. N., at a yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable by the defendant to said M. N., on the (state days of payment).

II. That on the _____ day of

_____, 18—, in consideration that the plaintiff then became the tenant to the defendant of said premises (or of _____, which premises were a portion of the above described premises), at a yearly rent of _____ dollars, payable to him by the plaintiff, the defendant gave to the plaintiff a written agreement to indemnify him, of which the following is a copy (or state its substance, e. g., thus): and thereby promised that he would, during the continuance of the tenancy of the plaintiff, indemnify him and save him harmless from and against the payment of the rent payable to M. N. as aforesaid; and from and against all costs, damages or expenses to which he might be put by reason of any default in the payment thereof).

III. That the defendant, contrary to his promise, omitted to pay the rent which became due from him to said M. N. on the _____ day of _____, 18—, which was during the tenancy of the plaintiff under said agreement.

IV. That by reason thereof said M. N., on the _____ day of _____, 18—, in the court of _____, commenced proceedings to recover possession of said premises, which were then occupied by the plaintiff under said agreement, for the non-payment of said rent; and thereby the plaintiff was obliged to pay, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, did pay to said M. N., to the use of the defendant, the sum of _____ dollars, the amount of said rent, together with _____ dollars, the costs and charges of said proceedings; and was put to great trouble and inconvenience, to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 364.

P. Complaint by Lessor Against Lessee for Injunction and Damages.

I. That the plaintiff, being then and ever since owner in fee simple of the premises hereinafter mentioned, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, by a lease in writing then made between the plaintiff and the defendant, under their hands and seals (or under the hand and seal of the defendant), the plaintiff leased to the defendant (designate term and premises, e. g., thus), for ten years from said date, at a yearly rent of $1,000, a certain dwelling house, with stable and sheds attached, and ten acres of lawn and woodland, orchard and garden, at _____, in the county of _____, the property of the plaintiff.

II. That said lease contained a covenant on the part of the defendant, of which the following is a copy (copy of the covenant as to waste or repairs).

(Or II. That the defendant in said lease covenanted that he would—stating the substance of the covenant.)

III. That the defendant took possession of the premises under said lease, the same being then in good repair and condition; but that they have since become ruinous and bad, and the lands very much deteriorated by the wilful mismanagement and improper cultivation thereof by the defendant; that he has ploughed up the garden, destroying the shrubbery and flowers therein, and has cut down ten ornamental and shade trees standing near the house, and has cut down ten apple trees in the orchard (or in like manner state other waste, according to the fact), and has otherwise suffered and committed great waste on the premises; by reason of which waste the premises are worth _____ dollars less, to be sold, than they were when the defendant took possession thereof; and it would cost _____ dollars to restore them.

IV. That the defendant threatens to cut down other of the ornamental, shade and fruit trees, and to remove the partitions in the first story of the house, and turn it into a workshop (or other threatened waste).

Wherefore the plaintiff asks judgment:

1. That the defendant may be required to (restore and) repair the premises.

2. That he pay the plaintiff _____ dollars damages done to and suffered by the premises (the plaintiff hereby waiving all forfeitures and penalties incurred in respect to said waste).

3. That he be required to keep the same in good repair and condition during the continuance of his interest therein, and to manage and cultivate the farm in a proper and husbandlike manner, according to the terms of the lease, and the custom of the country.

4. That he be enjoined from committing any further waste, and particularly from (stating particular act to be enjoined). 1 Abb. Forms 480.

III. Pleas.

A. Plea, No Rent in Arrear.

Because he says that no part of the said rent in the said declaration mentioned is in arrear or unpaid, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his declaration in that behalf alleged, and of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 993.

B. Plea of Assignment by Assignee Before Rent Became Due.

Because he says that after he the said defendant became assignee of the said demised premises, as in the said declaration mentioned (before any rent) became due and owing to the said plaintiff, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, he the said defendant, by a certain indenture of assignment, then and there made, and duly signed by him the said defendant, and sealed with his seal, for the considerations therein mentioned, did, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 994.

C. Plea of Assignment and Acceptance of Assignee.

Because he says that after the making the said demise in the said declaration mentioned, and before any part of the said rent in the said declaration mentioned became due and payable, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), he the said defendant by a certain indenture of assignment, by him then and there made and duly signed by the said defendant, and sealed with his seal, for the considerations therein mentioned, did bargain, sell, assign, transfer and set over unto G. H., etc., all the right, title, interest, term of years then to come and unexpired, property, claim and demand whatsoever of the said defendant of, in and to the said several demised premises, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold, etc. (as the words of assignment), by virtue of which said indenture of assignment the said G. H. afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, entered into the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and became and was thereof possessed for the residue of the said term then to come therein and expired, whereof the said plaintiff on the day and year last aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, had notice; and the said defendant further saith that the said plaintiff, after the entry of the said G. H. into the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, under and by virtue of the said assignment, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, did accept and receive of and from the said G. H. as tenant to the said plaintiff, a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £——— for the rent aforesaid, in form aforesaid, reserved and then made payable, and then and there accepted the said G. H. as his tenant of the said demised premises, with the appurtenances. And this, etc. 3 Chit Pl. 993.

D. Plea, Traverse of Assignment.

Because he saith that all the estate, right, title, interest and term of years then to come and unexpired, property, claim and demand whatsoever of the said E. F. of and in the said premises, with the appurtenances, by assignment thereof duly made, did not come to and vest in the said defendant in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath in his said declaration in that behalf alleged. And of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1019.

E. Plea of Eviction.

Because he says that the said plaintiff, after the making of the said indenture, and before any part of the said rent in the said declaration mentioned became due and payable to the said plaintiff, to-wit, on, etc., with force and arms, etc., entered into and upon the said demised premises, and then and there ejected, expelled, put out, and amoved the said defendant from the possession thereof, and kept and continued him the said defendant so ejected, expelled, put out and amoved from thence hitherto, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 993.

F. Plea That Lessor Was Seized for Life Only.

Because he saith that the said E. F., deceased, at the time of the making of the said indenture was seized only in his demesne, as of freehold, for the term of his natural life, of and in the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and continued so seized thereof, until and at the time of his death, and that after the making of the said indenture, and before the expiration of the said term, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, the said E. F. died; whereupon the said indenture, and the term thereby created, wholly ceased and determined; without this, and at the time of the making of the said indenture, the reversion of and in the said demised premises, with the appurtenances belonging to the said E. F. and his heirs, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above in his said declaration in that behalf alleged. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1019.

G. Plea That Defendant Did Repair.

Because he says that he well and sufficiently repaired, sustained and defended against the wind and rain, the tenement aforesaid, at his own costs and expenses, during the year elapsed of the term aforesaid. And of this he puts himself upon the country, etc. Burr. App. 361, §655; Yates' Forms 451.

H. Plea, Premises Not Out of Repair.

Because he says that (here deny the breach in the words assigned in the declaration, which may perhaps be thus): the said messuage and tenement, farm house, and out-houses thereunto belonging, were not, nor are, nor was, nor is any part thereof ruinous, prostrate, fallen down, or out of repair, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him the said defendant, and of this he the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1019.

I. Plea That Defendant Was Unable To Obtain Possession of Leased Land.

"And for a further plea in this behalf as to the supposed breaches of covenant in said declaration mentioned, these defendants say, actio non, etc., because they say that neither they nor their assignees have ever received possession of said premises, in and by said indenture stated to have been demised to them, and that at the time when said term, by said lease or indenture, admitted to be granted to these defendants, commenced, to-wit, on the first day of March, A. D. 1878, said defendants and their assigns were kept out of possession of said premises by the plaintiffs, and neither these defendants nor their assignees were able to obtain possession of said premises, by reason whereof said premises became of no use or value to these defendants or their assigns, and said indenture in said declaration mentioned was annulled, canceled, and set aside, and the said defendants, if ever bound thereby, were released therefrom; and this the defendants are ready to verify, etc." Field v. Herrick, 10 Ill. App. 591.

J. Plea by Assignee of Tenant of Assignment of Lease.

"And now comes the said defendant, by Charles W. Thomas, its attorney, and for a plea in this behalf says action non, because it says that on the 28th day of November, 1887, it, the said defendant, by its instrument in writing of that date, under its corporate seal, did assign and set over to one Jacob Lasurs, of said county, the lease in the declaration mentioned as having been made and executed by plaintiffs, and all the leasehold interest and estate thereby conveyed, and did put the said Lasurs into possession of the mine and premises in said lease described, by virtue whereof said Lasurs became, and since said time hath been, the sole lessee of said mine and premises under said lease: without this, that the defendant has had the use, control and enjoyment of said mine and premises from, to-wit, the 20th day of September, 1891, to the 20th day of September, 1894, as is by the said declaration supposed; and this the defendant is ready to verify, wherefore," etc. Consolidated Coal Co. v. Peers, 166 Ill. 361, 46 N. E. 1105.

IV. Answers.

A. Denial of Hiring Premises.

That he did not hire said premises of the plaintiff (or execute, or accept said lease from the plaintiff), as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 97.

B. Denial of Use and Occupation of Premises.

That he did not occupy the premises as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 97.

C. Denial by Assignee of Occupation.

That said (lessee) did not hire the premises from the defendant as alleged; and that no assignment of any such lease was made to or accepted by the defendant, as alleged, and that the defendant did not occupy the premises under the lease. 2 Abb. Forms 97.

D. Answer, Assignee's Assignment To Third Person.

That before the rent claimed in the complaint became due, and on or about the ——— day of ———, 18—, the defendant assigned all his interest in said lease to one M. N., who then entered into possession, and so continued when said rent became due. 2 Abb. Forms 97.

E. Answer, Tender of Rent Upon the Land.

I. That he was present at the said demised dwelling house at the time when the said ——— dollars became due as aforesaid, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, for a reasonable time, to-wit, the space of one hour before sunset, and there continued until a reasonable time, to wit, one hour after sunset on the same day, and during all the interval of time aforesaid was there, ready to pay the said ——— dollars to the plaintiff.

II. That neither the said plaintiff, nor any other person on his behalf, during any part of said time, was there ready to receive the same.

III. That since the said day the defendant has always been, and still is, ready to pay the said ——— dollars to the plaintiff; and he now brings the said ——— dollars here into court, ready to be paid to the said plaintiff, if he will accept the same. 2 Abb. Forms 98.

F. Answer, Eviction.

I. That after the making of the lease (or after the letting) mentioned in the complaint, and before any part of the rent in the complaint demanded became payable, the plaintiff forcibly entered upon the premises, and removed the defendant therefrom (or from a part thereof, to-wit, describing the part), and kept him out of possession from thence until the ——— day of ———, 18— (or until after said rent became due). 2 Abb. Forms 98.

G. Answer, Surrender of Premises.

That before the rent claimed in the complaint became due (or before the alleged breaches, or the breaches by this defense answered), the defendant surrendered to the plaintiff the demised premises, and all the residue of the said term then to come, and unexpired therein; and the plaintiff then accepted such surrender, and took possession of the said premises. 2 Abb. Forms 99.

H. Answer, That Landlord Accepted an Assignee as His Tenant.

I. That before the rent (or the last instalment of rent) claimed in the complaint became due (or before the breaches alleged, or the breach hereby answered), the defendant duly assigned (by deed) all his estate and term of years then to come and unexpired in the demised premises to M. N., who then entered into the same, and was possessed thereof for the residue of said term.

II. That the plaintiff then had notice thereof, and afterwards accepted from the said M. N. rent under the lease (or agreement) mentioned in the complaint, and accepted the said M. N. as his tenant of said premises. 2 Abb. Forms 99.

D., the proprietor thereof against the form, etc., and against the peace, etc. 3 Chit. Cr. L. 974a.

G. Indictment for Stealing a Horse.

That A. B., late of, etc., on, etc., aforesaid, one gelding of the price of — pounds, of the goods and chattels of one J. D., then and there found and being, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and lead away, against the peace, etc. (Add a count for single larceny.) 3 Chit. Cr. L. 980.

Note.—In case of cattle say "drive away," instead of "lead away." Archb. Cr. Pl. 195.

H. Indictment for Stealing Railroad Bonds.

The grand jury of the city and county of New York by this indictment accuse William S. Roberts and Edward H. Walton of the crime of grand larceny in the first degree, committed as follows: the said William S. Roberts and Edward H. Walton, each late of the first ward of the city of New York, in the county of New York aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, with force and arms, ten written instruments and evidences of debt, to-wit: the bonds and written obligations issued by the Georgetown and Lane's Railroad Company, a corporation duly existing under the laws of the state of South Carolina, and called "first mortgage bonds," in and by each of which the said railroad company acknowledged itself indebted to the bearer thereof in the sum of one thousand dollars, and which said sum the said railroad company thereby promised to pay on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord 1913, with interest, the same bearing date on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1883, and being then and there each duly signed by the president and secretary of the said railroad company, and sealed with the seal thereof, and numbered, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen and eighteen, respectively, and being then and there in full force and effect, and wholly unsatisfied, and of the value of one thousand dollars each (a more particular description of which said bonds and written obligations is to the grand jury aforesaid unknown) of the valuable things, evidences of debt, goods, chattels, and personal property of the Bethlehem Iron Company then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity. Roberts v. Reilly, 116 U. S. 80, 83, 84, 6 Sup. Ct. 291, 29 L. ed. 544.

I. Indictment for Stealing Money, Currency.

"Divers coins of the United States current as money in said commonwealth of the amount and of the value in all of three dollars." Com. v. Collins, 138 Mass. 483.

J. Indictment for Larceny From Person.

"The said Alex. Graham, Sophia Graham, John Daws and Hattie Dillon, on the 16th day of April, 1882, in the county aforesaid, seven $100 notes, of the value and denomination of $100 each, consisting of national bank notes, and national currency notes called greenbacks, and all of the aggregate value of $700, then and there being the property of A. H. Hildebrand, and then on the person of the said A. H. Hildebrand, feloniously did steal, take and carry away, contrary to law." State v. Graham, 65 Iowa 617, 22 N. W. 897.

K. Information Charging Second Offense.

"William A. Branyan, prosecuting attorney in and for the 28th judicial circuit of Indiana, now gives the Huntington Circuit Court to understand and be informed that David Randall, on the 31st day of April, A. D. 1892, at and in said county and State aforesaid, did then and there unlawfully and feloniously steal, take and carry away six dollars in money, of the value of six dollars, then and there, and being then and there the personal goods, money and chattels of William Powers. And the said Randall was heretofore convicted of petit larceny in the Wells Circuit Court, in Wells county, in said State, as William Powers has complained upon oath.

(Signed) William A. Branyan, Prosecuting Attorney."

Randall v. State, 132 Ind. 539, 32 N. E. 305.

Note.—Held sufficient description of property under constitutional provision that the accused has the right "to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him," and statutory provision that it is sufficient to describe money, etc., "simply as money, without specifying any particular coin, note, bill, or currency."

I. Indictment for Cohabiting Together as Man and Wife.

"One William Chandler, late of said county, on the 14th day of August, A. D. 1883, and on divers other days and times, as well before as after that date, and previous to this presentment, at said county and State aforesaid, being a married man and having a lawful wife then living, and Grace Beeman, at the time being unmarried, Grace Beeman and said Chandler, not being married to each other, did then and there during said time unlawfully live and cohabit together as man and wife." State v. Chandler, 96 Ind. 591.

Note.—Held that the language of the indictment "cohabit as man and wife" was equivalent in meaning to the language of the statute "cohabit with another in a state of adultery."

II. Indictment for Lascivious Cohabitation (a).

"State of Missouri, county of Shannon. In the Shannon Circuit Court, April term, 1854.

The grand jurors for the state of Missouri, impaneled, etc., upon their oath present, that John Bess and Polly Bess (alias Polly Cox), both late of Shannon county, on the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and on divers other days between that day and the time of the finding of this bill of indictment, with force and arms, at, etc., did then and there live in a state of open and notorious adultery, and did then and there lewdly and lasciviously abide and cohabit with each other; and were then and there guilty of open, gross lewdness and lascivious behavior, by then and there publicly, lewdly and lasciviously abiding and cohabiting with each other, contrary," etc. State v. Bess, 20 Mo. 419.

Indictment for Lascivious Cohabitation (b).

The indictment charges with sufficient allegation as to time and place, that the defendant and one Janet Lowery, did "unlawfully, openly and publicly, live, dwell and cohabit together, in lewdness and lasciviousness, they being unmarried to and with each other." People v. Colton, 2 Utah 457.

Indictment for Lascivious Cohabitation (c).

"Did then and there wrongfully, unlawfully and illegally, each with the other, live together in an open state of adultery, the said Herbert P. Crane, alias Bert Crane, being then and there a married man, having been previously married to one Jessie E. Doolittle, and the said Lizzie B. Stiles, alias Lillian B. Stiles, being then and there a married woman, having been previously married to one Everell D. Stiles, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided," Crane v. People, 168 Ill. 395, 48 N. E. 54.

Note.—Sustained under a statute providing that "if any man and woman shall live together in an open state of adultery of fornication, or adultery and fornication."

III. Indictment, Living in Fornication.

"The State of Alabama, Macon county. In the circuit court, at spring term, 1849.

"The grand jurors for the said State, sworn and charged to inquire for the said county, upon their oaths present, that John R. Lawson, a man, and Mary Swinney, a woman, both late of said county, on the first day of January, 1849, and continually from that day to the finding of this indictment, in the county aforesaid, did live together in fornication, against the peace and dignity of the state," etc. Lawson v. State, 20 Ala. 66.

Note.—Held sufficient for general charge of living together in state of fornication under statute. Questioned as to sufficiency as descriptive of single offense.

I. Declarations.

A. Declaration for Libel, Charging Perjury.

For that whereas the said plaintiff now is a good, true, honest, just and faithful citizen of this state, and as such hath always behaved and conducted himself, and until the committing of the several grievances by the said defendant, as hereinafter mentioned, was always reputed, esteemed and accepted by and amongst all his neighbors, and other good and worthy citizens of this state, to whom he was in anywise known, to be a person of good name, fame and credit, to-wit, at, etc. And whereas also the said plaintiff hath not ever been guilty, or until the time of the committing of the said several grievances by the said defendant as hereinafter mentioned, been suspected to have been guilty of perjury or any other such crime. (If the slander do not amount to a charge of any specific offense, such as perjury or theft, etc., the inducement, instead of the words, "of perjury or any other such crime," should run thus: "of the offenses and misconduct hereinafter mentioned to have been charged and imputed to the said plaintiff, or of any other such offense or misconduct.") By means of which said premises, he the said plaintiff, before the committing of the said several grievances by the said defendant, as hereinafter mentioned, had deservedly obtained the good opinion and credit of all his neighbors, and other good and worthy citizens of this state, to whom he was in anywise known, to-wit, at, etc. And whereas also, before the committing of the several grievances by the said defendant, as in the first and second counts hereinafter mentioned, a certain action had been depending in the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, before the justices thereof, at the _____ in the _____ of _____, wherein one J. K. was the plaintiff, and one L. M. was the defendant, and which said action had been then lately tried at the circuit court, in and for the county of _____, and on such trial the said plaintiff had been, and was examined on oath, and had given his evidence as a witness, for and on the part and behalf of the said J. K., to-wit, at, etc. Yet the said defendant, well knowing the premises, but greatly envying the happy state and condition of the said plaintiff, and contriving, and wickedly and maliciously intending to injure the said plaintiff in his said good name, fame and credit, and to bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace with and among all his neighbors, and other good and worthy citizens of this state, and to cause it to be suspected and believed by those neighbors and citizens, that he the said plaintiff had been and was guilty of perjury (or "of the offenses herein-after mentioned to have been imputed to him"), and to subject him to the pains and penalties, by the laws of this state made and provided against, and inflicted upon persons guilty thereof; and to vex, harass, oppress, impoverish and wholly ruin him the said plaintiff, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc. (the precise day is not material), at, etc., falsely, wickedly and maliciously did compose and publish, and cause and procure to be published, of and concerning the said plaintiff (it is necessary to state that the libel was of and concerning the plaintiff, and of the preceding inducements), and of and concerning the said action, which had been so depending as aforesaid, and of and concerning the evidence by him the said plaintiff given on the said trial, as such witness as aforesaid, a certain false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel, containing, amongst other things (this allegation "inter alia" is sufficient; but if different parts of a libel not following each other be set out in the same count, it is inaccurate to describe it as an entire libel, and the part should be set forth thus: "in one part of which said libel there was and is contained the following false, etc., matter, of and concerning the said plaintiff, that is to say, etc." [stating that part of the libel, and then say]: "and in another part of which said libel there was," etc.), the false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory and libelous matter following, of and concerning the said plaintiff, and of and concerning the said action, and of and concerning the evidence by him the said plaintiff, given on the said trial as such witness as aforesaid (that is to say), he (meaning the said plaintiff) was forewarned on the trial, meaning the said trial, and thereby then and there meaning that he the said plaintiff, in giving his evidence as such witness on the said trial as aforesaid, had committed wilful and corrupt perjury.

And the said plaintiff further saith that the said defendant, further contriving and intending as aforesaid, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., falsely, wickedly and maliciously did publish a certain other false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel, of and concerning the said plaintiff, and of and concerning the said action, which had been so depending as aforesaid, and of and concerning the evidence by him the said plaintiff given on the said trial, as such witness as aforesaid, containing amongst other things the false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory and libelous matter following, of and concerning the said plaintiff, and of and concerning the said action, and of and concerning the evidence given by him the said plaintiff on the said trial as such witness as aforesaid, that is to say (vary the statement of the words and innuendos as may be advisable under the particular circumstances of each case).

And the said plaintiff further saith that the said defendant, further contriving and intending as aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., falsely, wickedly, maliciously, wrongfully and unjustly did publish and cause and procure to be published, a certain other false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel, of and concerning the said plaintiff, containing amongst other things certain other false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory and libelous matters, of and concerning the said plaintiff as follows, that is to say, he (meaning the said plaintiff) is perjured! By means of the committing of which said several grievances by the said defendant as aforesaid, he the said plaintiff hath been and is greatly injured in his said good name, fame and credit, and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace, with and amongst all his neighbors, and other good and worthy citizens of this state, insomuch that divers of those neighbors and citizens, to whom the innocence and integrity of the said plaintiff in the premises were unknown, have, on occasion of the committing of the said grievances by the said defendant as aforesaid, from thence hitherto suspected and believed, and still do suspect and believe, the said plaintiff to have been, and to be a person guilty of perjury, and have by reason of the committing of the said grievances by the said defendant as aforesaid, from thence hitherto wholly refused, and still do refuse, to have any transaction, acquaintance or discourse with him the said plaintiff, as they were before used and accustomed to have, and otherwise would have had. And also by reason thereof, one J. K., who before and at the time of the committing of the said grievances, was about to retain and employ, and would otherwise have retained and employed, the said plaintiff as his servant, for certain wages and reward to be therefore paid to him the said plaintiff, afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc., wholly refused to retain and employ him the said plaintiff in the service and employ of him the said J. K., and the said plaintiff hath from thence hitherto remained and continued, and still is wholly out of employ; and the said plaintiff hath been and is by means of the premises otherwise greatly injured, to-wit, at, etc. To the damage, etc. Burr. App. 323, §592; 2 Chit. Pl. 620.

B. Declaration for Slander, Charging Robbery.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea of trespass on the case: For that whereas the said plaintiff always was and is a good, true and honest citizen of this state, and never was guilty of the crimes hereinafter laid to his charge: Nevertheless the said defendant, well knowing the premises, but contriving and maliciously intending to injure, defame and slander the said plaintiff in his good name, to-wit, on the ——— day of ———, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ——— (the day of speaking the words, or about it; the precise day stated need not be proved), at ———, in the county of ——— aforesaid, in a certain discourse which the said defendant then and there had with the said plaintiff, in the presence and hearing of divers good and worthy persons, did speak, publish and declare to, of and concerning the said plaintiff these false, iniquitous, scandalous and malicious words, to-wit, "you (the said plaintiff meaning) are a robber;" "you (the said plaintiff meaning) are perjured" (or according to the case). And whereas also the said defendant, with further malice towards the said plaintiff, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year, and the place aforesaid, in a certain other discourse which the said defendant then and there had, in the presence and hearing of divers other good people, of and concerning the said plaintiff, did falsely and maliciously speak, publish and declare, in the presence and hearing of those people these other false and scandalous words, of and concerning the said plaintiff, to-wit ("he [the said plaintiff meaning] is a robber," etc., as the case may require). By reason of the speaking, publishing and uttering of which said false, scandalous and malicious words, the said plaintiff is greatly prejudiced in his good name, fame, credit and reputation: Wherefore the said plaintiff says that he is injured, and has sustained damage to the amount of (five thousand) dollars, and therefore the said plaintiff brings suit, etc.

E. F., plff. atty.

Burr. App. 322, §591; see 2 Chit. Pl. 634, 641; 2 Humph. Prec. 772 et seq.

C. Declaration for Irrelevant Libelous Statement Contained in Pleading.

"And the plaintiff further says, that the said defendant made and published and filed and caused to be filed in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court in and for the county of Suffolk, and made a matter of public record in said court, a false and malicious libel concerning the plaintiff, a copy of which is hereto annexed, and therein falsely and maliciously charged the plaintiff with the crime of murder, in the words following, to-wit, 'and well knew that said McLaughlin' (meaning the plaintiff) 'caused to be put to death, immediately after its birth, an illegitimate child born to him' (meaning the plaintiff) 'by one Sarah Clark, of said Newton;' and by the same words falsely and maliciously accused the plaintiff of the crime of adultery by thus charging that an illegitimate child was born to the plaintiff by one Sarah Clark, the plaintiff being a married man and having a lawful wife alive, other than the said Sarah Clark; and the defendant, in said libelous paper, falsely and maliciously accused the plaintiff of said crimes of murder and adultery, and other crimes and felonies; and the plaintiff avers that said libelous paper was made and published and filed as aforesaid by the defendant, of his express malice and without color for making said imputations, and with a design to defame and slander the plaintiff." McLaughlin v. Cowley, 127 Mass. 316.

II. Pleas.

A. Plea, Justification of Words of Perjury.

(First plea, general issue.)

Because he says that before the speaking and publishing the said words of and concerning the said plaintiff (in the said ——— counts mentioned), to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), at the assizes then and there holden before ———, then chief justices of our said lord the king, assigned to hold pleas before the king himself, and ———, then one of the justices of our said lord the king, assigned to hold pleas before the king himself, justices of our said lord the king, appointed to take the assizes for the said county, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, a certain issue before then joined in an action brought and prosecuted in the court of our said lord the king, before ——— and his companions, then justices of our said lord the king of the bench at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, by and at the suit of one

E. F., as the plaintiff, against one G. H., as the defendant, for the supposed breach of certain promises and undertakings alleged by the said E. F. to have been made to him by the said G. H. and not performed, came on to be tried in due form of law, and was then and there tried by a jury of the country in that behalf, duly taken and sworn between the parties aforesaid, and upon such trial of the said issue the said plaintiff appeared as a witness for and on behalf of the said E. F., the plaintiff in the said action, and the said plaintiff was then and there in open court at the said assizes holden as aforesaid, before the said ——— and ———, the justices aforesaid, duly sworn, and took his corporal oath upon the holy gospel of God, to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching and concerning the matters in question in the said issue (they the said ——— and ———, then and there having sufficient and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said plaintiff in that behalf; and upon the said trial of the said issue, it then and there became and was material to ascertain the truth of the matters hereafter stated to have been sworn to by the said plaintiff. And the said defendant further says that the said plaintiff being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, then and there, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, falsely, wickedly, wilfully, maliciously and corruptly, and by his own act and consent did say, depose, swear and give evidence, amongst other things, at and upon the said trial, to and before the said jurors so sworn, to try the said issue as aforesaid, and the justices aforesaid, that, etc. (here state that part of the plaintiff's evidence in which he committed perjury). Whereas in truth and in fact, etc. (here negative the plaintiff's evidence as in an indictment for perjury). And the said plaintiff did thereby in the said court at the said assizes so holden as aforesaid, upon his said oath upon the trial of the said issue, falsely, wickedly, wilfully and corruptly commit wilful and corrupt perjury; wherefore the said defendant, at the said several times when, etc., in the said ——— counts mentioned, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, spoke and published of and concerning the said plaintiff, the said several words, in the said counts mentioned to have been spoken and published by the said defendant of and concerning the said plaintiff, as it was lawful for him to do for the cause aforesaid. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1033.

B. Plea, Justification of Words of Theft.

(First plea, general issue.)

And for a further plea in this behalf (if the plea is intended to justify the words in particular counts only, here say, "as to the speaking and publishing of the said several words of and concerning the said plaintiff, as in the — counts mentioned"), the said defendant by leave of the court here for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, saith that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that the said plaintiff, before the speaking and publishing of the said several words of and concerning the said plaintiff, as in the said (— counts of the said) declaration mentioned, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), did feloniously steal, take and carry away certain goods and chattels, to-wit, — of one E. F., of great value, to-wit, of the value of £—. Wherefore he the said defendant afterwards, to-wit, at the said several times when, etc., in the (— counts mentioned), at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, did speak and publish the said words of and concerning the said plaintiff, as in the (said — counts of the said) declaration mentioned, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1031.

C. Plea To Slander of Plaintiff's Ship.

(First plea, general issue.)

And for a further plea in this behalf, as to the speaking and publishing the words following, parcel of the words in the said first count of the said declaration mentioned, to-wit, "I saw the ship, and the splice or scuff of the keelson was open, so that I could put my four fingers in edgeways;" and also as to the speaking the words in the said second count of the said declaration mentioned, to-wit, "the ship's back is broke," and also as to speaking and publishing the said words in the third count of the said declaration mentioned, he the said defendant, by leave, etc. (actio non), because he says that before the time when the said words were by him spoken as aforesaid, he the said defendant had seen the said ship, and the splice or scuff of the keelson of the said ship was open, so that he the said defendant could put his four fingers in edgeways, and that the said ship's back was broke, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, by reason thereof the said defendant at the time in the said declaration mentioned, spoke and published the said words in the introductory part of this plea mentioned, as it was lawful for him to do. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1040.

III. Replication to Plea Justifying Words de Injuria.

(Similiter to general issue.)

And as to the said pleas of the said defendant, by him (secondly and thirdly) above pleaded, the said plaintiff saith that he, by reason of anything by the said defendant in those pleas above alleged, ought not be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action against the said defendant, in respect of the grievances in the introductory part of those pleas mentioned; because he saith that the said defendant, at the said time when, etc., in the said (first and second) counts mentioned, of his own wrong, and without the cause by the said defendant in his said (second and third) pleas, or either of them respectively mentioned, did commit the said grievances in the introductory part of those pleas mentioned, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against the said defendant, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. And this the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1186.

IV. Complaints.

A. Complaint, General Form, Where the Words Are Libelous on Their Face.

I. That on the — day of —, 18—, the defendant maliciously (composed and) published concerning the plaintiff, in a newspaper called the — (or in a handbill which he caused to be circulated and posted), at —, the false and defamatory matter following, to-wit (copy of the article complained of; or say, a certain article, containing the false and defamatory matter following, to-wit, and give extracts from the article, including all the objectionable matter).

That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the defendant, in the presence and hearing of one M. N. (or of a number of persons), maliciously spoke concerning the plaintiff the false and defamatory words following (set out the words complained of as accurately as possible); whereby the plaintiff was injured in his reputation, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 499.

G. Complaint for Slander Respecting Plaintiff's Trade, With Special Damages.

I. That at the time of the commission of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff was engaged in business as merchant (or otherwise), and had always maintained a good reputation and credit as such merchant.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the defendant, in the presence and hearing of a number of persons, maliciously, and with intent to cause it to be believed that the plaintiff kept false and fraudulent books of account in his said business, spoke concerning this plaintiff and concerning his said business the false and defamatory words following, to-wit: "He keeps false accounts, and I can prove it" (or otherwise state the words complained of).

III. That by reason thereof, a number of persons, and in particular (name the persons referred to), who had theretofore been accustomed to deal with the plaintiff in his business aforesaid, ceased to deal with him, and the plaintiff was thereby deprived of their custom, and of the profits which he would otherwise have made by a continuance of such dealing, and was otherwise injured in his reputation, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 501.

H. Complaint for Slander of Title.

I. That the plaintiff being the owner in fee (or other estate) of a certain farm, situate in the town of _____, and county of _____ (briefly designate the property in question), caused the same, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, to be offered for sale (or to be put up and exposed for sale by public auction).

II. That the defendant, well knowing the premises, and maliciously (and without probable cause) contriving to cause it to be suspected that the plaintiff did not own said farm, and could not sell the same, and to prevent him from effecting a sale thereof (procured one M. N. to attend said sale, and maliciously procured said M. N. to state, and) did maliciously then and there publicly state (through the said M. N.), in the presence and hearing of O. P. (or of many persons then and there assembled for the purpose of bidding on said property and buying the same), concerning the plaintiff and his said property, the false and defamatory matter following, to-wit (set out the words complained of, with suitable innuendos).

III. That by reason thereof the said O. P. was (or various persons, and in particular, naming the persons referred to who attended on said auction sale for the purpose of buying thereat, were) dissuaded from bidding therefor, and refused and still do refuse to purchase the said property in consequence thereof; and the plaintiff has been unable to sell the same (and has been obliged to expend _____ dollars in and about the attendance upon said auction), and has been otherwise greatly injured, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 502.

V. Answers.

A. Answer, Denial of Inducement.

That the plaintiff was not a physician, as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 137.

B. Answer, Justification of Charge of Perjury.

That before the speaking (or publishing) of the words alleged in the complaint, and at a term of the _____ court, duly held at _____, in the month of _____, 18—, before one of the judges of the _____ court, upon the trial of an action there pending between one M. N. as plaintiff, and O. P. as defendant, A. B., the plaintiff in this action, appeared as a witness for and on behalf of the said M. N., and was then and there, in open court, duly sworn, and took oath to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching and concerning the matters in question in the said issue.

II. That the plaintiff, being so sworn, falsely and maliciously deposed and gave evidence, among other things, that (here set forth that part of the plaintiff's evidence in which he committed perjury).

III. That in truth (here negative the plaintiff's evidence as in an indictment for perjury).

IV. That the truth of the matters hereinbefore stated were material and pertinent to the issue there tried. 2 Abb. Forms 140.

C. Answer, Truth of Words.

That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, the plaintiff (here briefly state the offense, e. g., thus): stole from the defendant one bale of hay, to which the defendant referred when speaking (or printing, or writing) the words stated in the complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 144.

D. Answer, Justification and Denial of Malice in Charge of Larceny.

I. That each and every article in the complaint mentioned as having been charged by defendant to have been stolen by the plaintiff had, at the time mentioned in the complaint, been taken and stolen from the defendant.

II. That the defendant is informed and believes that the plaintiff has been, and is, guilty of each and every charge in said complaint alleged to have been made against her by the defendant; and that whatever the defendant has said of or concerning the plaintiff she has said in the full belief of its truth and verity, and in self vindication and warning to others, and not from any motives of malice towards the plaintiff. 2 Abb. Forms 144.

E. Answer, Justification and Mitigation in Publishing Account of Arrest.

First. For a defense:

That the publication complained of was true. (If the alleged libel was not specific in its charges, state the facts upon which it was founded.)

Second. As mitigating circumstances:

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff accused one A. B. of a burglary at _____.

II. That thereupon an officer of the police of _____ took the said A. B. into custody, and conducted him to a station house.

III. That while at the station house the said A. B. made to the captain of police there in command a statement, which is fairly and truly reported in the publication complained of (or made a statement to the effect that the burglary with which he was charged was planned by the plaintiff, and was effected by him and the plaintiff in concert; that they quarreled over the division of the plunder, and that thereupon the plaintiff charged him with the robbery).

IV. That afterwards the plaintiff was arrested by a police officer, and conveyed before C. D., a police justice of the city of _____, and held to bail by the said justice to answer the charges of the said A. B.

V. That the publication complained of contained a fair and true statement of the preceding circumstances.

VI. That it was published in a newspaper belonging to the defendant, by his employes, without his knowledge or consent.

VII. That the persons publishing the same inserted it as an item of public news, without malice, believing the same to be true. 2 Abb. Forms 142.

F. Answer, Alleged Libel was a Privileged Communication.

That in the month of _____, 18—, at the city of New York, the plaintiff brought an action against this defendant in the _____ court, for having as alleged maliciously and without probable cause prosecuted the said plaintiff on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, and this plaintiff was arrested in said action by an order of arrest issued therein.

II. That afterwards, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at said city, this defendant did, by his attorney, procure an order from one of the justices of said court, requiring the plaintiff to show cause, at a certain day and place therein named, why this defendant should not be discharged from said arrest, or why the sum in which he was held to bail should not be reduced.

III. That said order was granted upon an affidavit of this defendant, made in answer to an affidavit made by the plaintiff upon which the order of arrest aforesaid was granted, and for the purpose of procuring this defendant's discharge or a reduction of bail as aforesaid.

IV. That the supposed libel in the complaint set forth is a part of said affidavit of this defendant, and was published by him by the presentation of said affidavit to the said court upon said motion, and not otherwise.

(V. This defendant denies that he published said supposed libel maliciously, or with the intent charged in the complaint.)

VI. That said supposed libelous matter was pertinent and relevant in said motion, and for the purpose of procuring the relief prayed for therein (or that this defendant had reasonable cause for believing, and did in fact believe, at the time of said publication, that the same was true and pertinent, etc., as above). 2 Abb. Forms 145.

G. Answer, Alleged Slander Was Privileged Communication To Employer.

I. That he was, at the time of uttering the words mentioned in the complaint, the confidential clerk of A. B.

II. That the said A. B. inquired of the defendant the character of the plaintiff (with a view to employing him as a clerk, or otherwise), and the defendant then stated to him the matter referred to in the complaint.

III. That the defendant had probable cause for believing, and did believe, the same to be true. 2 Abb. Forms 147.

H. Answer, Alleged Libel Fair Report of Public Official Proceedings.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, in the course of a certain trial then pending in the _____ court of _____, wherein O. P. was plaintiff, and R. S. was defendant, one M. N., counsel for said O. P., made a public statement or speech.

II. That the defendants, as publishers and proprietors of the _____, published in said newspaper a fair and true report of the judicial proceedings had upon such trial, and of the public statement or speech made as aforesaid in the course thereof, which publication is the same publication as that in the complaint set forth (or of which publication the supposed libelous article in the complaint set forth is part)

III. The defendants deny that they published the same maliciously, or with intent to injure the plaintiff, or with the intent charged in the complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 147.

VI. Indictments.

A. Indictment, Common Form.

The jurors for our lord the king, upon their oath, present that C. D., late, etc., being a person of an evil, wicked and malicious mind and disposition, and unlawfully, wickedly and maliciously devising, contriving and intending, as much as in him lay, to scandalize, vilify and defame one A. B., and to bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace, and to injure, prejudice and aggrieve him the said A. B., and to provoke the said A. B. to commit a breach of the peace, on, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, of his great hatred, malice and ill-will towards the said A. B., unlawfully and maliciously did compose and publish, and cause and procure to be composed and published, a certain false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel of and concerning the said A. B., containing therein amongst other things the false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory and libelous words and matter following of and concerning the said A. B., that is to say (here state the libelous matter with innuendoes, and then proceed as follows): which said false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel he the said C. D., afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, unlawfully, wickedly and maliciously did send, and cause to be sent, to one E. F., in the form of a letter addressed to the said E. F., and did thereby then and there unlawfully, wickedly and maliciously publish, and cause to be published, the said libel, to the great damage, scandal, infamy and disgrace of the said A. B., in contempt, etc., to the evil and pernicious example, etc., and against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. And the jurors, etc., do further present that the said C. D., further contriving and intending as aforesaid, on the said, etc., with force and arms, at, etc., aforesaid, of his great hatred, malice and ill-will towards the said A. B., unlawfully, wickedly and maliciously did publish, and cause to be published, a certain other false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory libel, of and concerning the said A. B., containing therein amongst other things the following false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory and libelous matter of and concerning the said A. B., that is to say, etc. (here state libel with innuendoes, as in first count, and then conclude, "to the damage," etc., as in the first count). 3 Chit. Cr. L. 888.

B. Indictment for Libel on Envelope in Mail.

"State of Missouri, city of St. Louis, ss.: In the St. Louis court of criminal correction. St. Louis, March 29th, 1888. State of Missouri, plaintiff, v. A. G. Armstrong, defendant. Charged with criminal libel. Barnard Dierkes, assistant prosecuting attorney of the St. Louis court of criminal correction, now here in court, on behalf of the state of Missouri, information makes as follows: That A. G. Armstrong, of Mexico, Audrain county, Missouri, in the city of St. Louis, on the 27th day of March, 1888, and on divers days in said year, did wilfully and maliciously libel and defame one Mary Vincil, of the city of St. Louis, by causing to be published and issued in said city, and by having sent through the mails, and put before the eyes of divers people in said city, a certain envelope, printing, writing, sign, representation, effigy, as follows:

Chicago, Ills.

March 26

R. R.

BAD DEBT

Collecting Agency,

Chicago.

U. S.

Stamp

Mrs. Mary Vincil,
C/o Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney,
St. Louis, Mo.

2 N. Beaumont Street.

Intending and meaning thereby to indicate to the public and to all persons seeing said writing, printing, sign, representation and effigy, that she the said Mary Vincil, was dishonest; that she did not pay her just debts; that she had been guilty of unfair dealing; that she was a 'dead beat,' tending to provoke the said Mary Vincil to wrath, to expose her to public hatred, contempt and ridicule, and to deprive her of the benefits of public confidence and social intercourse. That said envelope contained certain scurrilous, blackmailing and indecent allegations concerning said Mary Vincil, as follows:

" 'Agency's 4th Letter

" 'Chicago, 3-26, 1888.

" 'Mrs. Mary Vincil, 5.00

C/o A. G. Armstrong:

" 'We find that the account which we notified you some time ago is still unsettled. Can you afford have the public know that you refuse to pay this bill? You may need credit again some time, but as long as this account remains in this unsatisfactory manner it will be hard for you to obtain it. If you desire to have credit with the merchants in your locality, and maintain a reputation for honesty and fair dealing, you will adjust this claim. Call on or write the party, and make some kind of a settlement at once. If you will pay part of it now, and make some arrangements for the balance, we will not crowd you for a while. Have the party to whom the bill is due write us at once, stating what arrangements you have made, before we publish the delinquent list of your town.

Very respectfully,

" 'Sprague's Collecting Agency.

" 'Per.

" 'P. S. Should you positively refuse to make any arrangements for a liquidation of this claim, we feel justified in advertising the same for sale in the newspapers, as well as to send you a statement regularly until the matter is settled. A delinquent list is published for the good and protection of the public, as well as a guide for business men in extending credit, as it contains the names of those who do not try to meet their obligation. Do not correspond with us. Settle the matter with the party to whom the account is due, whose name was given in our former letter.'

That said envelope was known by the public to contain said scurrilous and abusive matters, and said Armstrong intended, by causing said matter to be sent to said Mary Vincil through the mails, to advertise her as a 'dead beat,' as dishonest, as 'poor pay,' as unfit to be trusted, as unfit for public confidence; and said acts were done by said Armstrong to extort money from said Mary Vincil, under the pretense that she the said Mary Vincil was indebted to him, when such was not the fact, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state.

C. Indictment for Libel of Public Official

"The grand jury of the county of Clinton, in the name and by the authority of the state of Iowa, accuse E. W. Conable of the crime of libel, committed as follows: The said E. W. Conable, on the 3d day of November, A. D. 1888, in the county aforesaid, being a person of an envious, vicious, evil and wicked mind, and wickedly, maliciously and unlawfully contriving and intending as much as in him lay to injure, oppress and vilify the good name, fame, credit and reputation of Walter I. Hayes, a citizen of the state of Iowa, and at that time, and now, a member of the fiftieth congress of the United States of America for the second congressional district of the state of Iowa, and at that time a candidate for reelection as a member of the fifty-first congress of the United States from said district, and to bring him into contempt, infamy and public hatred, and to deprive him of the benefits of public confidence, and to defame, asperse, scandalize and vilify the character of said Walter I. Hayes, and to insinuate and cause it to be believed that the said Walter I. Hayes had been guilty of gross misconduct in his said office of member of congress as aforesaid, and that he had, as such congressman, corruptly received money, or attempted so to receive it, in consideration of recommending some person for appointment as postmaster at Wilton, in said congressional district, and that he was thereby an unfit person to be re-elected to said office, did unlawfully and maliciously, wickedly and scandalously, compose, write, print and publish, and did cause and procure to be composed, written, printed and published in a certain so-called public newspaper entitled the 'Clinton Morning News,' a certain false, wicked, mischievous and scandalous libel of and concerning the said Walter I. Hayes, and of and concerning his administration of the duties of his said office, while in the performance thereof, which said wicked, malicious, scurrilous, false, mischievous and scandalous libel contained the following: 'The attempted sale of the Wilton postoffice. A great deal of discussion has been indulged in of late, through the second district, and especially in Muscatine county, regarding an alleged attempt on the part of Congressman Hayes (meaning Walter I. Hayes) to sell the Wilton, Muscatine county, postoffice for $500. It is claimed there are several witnesses to the transaction, and no doubt there are (meaning there were witnesses to a transaction in which Walter I. Hayes attempted to corruptly sell the position of postmaster at Wilton, in said congressional district); but for fear that an exposure would have a damaging effect on the Muscatine democratic ticket, those who held the proofs of guilt (meaning guilt upon the part of said Walter I. Hayes in selling or attempting to sell the postoffice at Wilton), in the shape of correspondence, etc., are reticent about giving the evidence to the public. But the facts are generally known, and are the subject of universal comment among Muscatine citizens. It is not at all strange that Hayes should traffic in matters of this kind. It would not be because he possessed any conscientious scruples against doing such a thing that he would refrain, but simply for fear of being found out. In the case at hand, however, he seems to have given little thought as to consequences, trusting, no doubt, to his ability to bulldoze the thing through. The $500 once in his pocket (meaning that said Walter I. Hayes had received or attempted to obtain $500 for a sale of the postmastership of said Wilton), then he would trust to luck for means wherewith to deceive the people. That there are dozens of men in Muscatine county who have seen evidence that would convict Hayes of attempting to sell the Wilton postoffice there is not a shadow of doubt. (Meaning that said Walter I. Hayes had actually in fact attempted to sell the postmastership of said Wilton.) Voters of the second district, is this (meaning said Walter I. Hayes) the sort of men you want to represent you in congress? Is it creditable to you, democrats, to assume the responsibility of placing so corrupt an official (meaning said Walter I. Hayes) in a high office of honor and trust? Can you afford to let the stigma rest on you of sending such a man (meaning said Walter I. Hayes) to congress, knowing that he is wholly unworthy, and has grossly betrayed the confidence you have reposed in him? (Meaning that said Walter I. Hayes had, as a member of congress, as aforesaid, grossly betrayed his position, and corruptly sold, or attempted to sell, the postmastership at said Wilton.) Can you afford to do this? Look at the matter squarely in the face, and then ask yourselves if you can afford to do that which would reflect discredit and dishonor on each one of you, individually, who casts a vote for Walter I. Hayes for congressman. We have more faith in the integrity of the great majority that compose the Democratic party of the second district than to think for a moment that that majority desires to be represented by political corruptionists and traffickers in the confidences of the people and of the spoils of the office. (Meaning that said Walter I. Hayes was politically corrupt as a member of congress, a trafficker in office.) Gentlemen, it is for you, for you, to say, on Tuesday next, whether you desire an honest or a dishonest may to represent you in congress.' And the grand jury aforesaid, upon their oath, do further present that, at the time the said E. W. Conable so wrote, printed and published the said false, scurrilous, scandalous and malicious defamatory libel, the same was false, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Iowa." State v. Conable, 13 Cr. L. M. 89, 90-92.

D. Indictment, Libel Contained in Handbill.

"That one William E. Verry, at the county of Brown and state of Kansas, on the 12th day of March, 1886, did, unlawfully and wilfully, maliciously make, write, print, compose, dictate, publish and circulate, and procure to be made, written, printed, composed, published and circulated, among other things, certain false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory words, figures and language, of and concerning one A. H. Thomas, to provoke the said A. H. Thomas to wrath and expose him to public hatred, hate and ridicule, and deprive him of public confidence and social intercourse, as follows, to-wit: (insert statement alleged to be libelous).

"The said William E. Verry meaning thereby to charge and accuse the said A. H. Thomas with the crime of robbery and with the crime of grand larceny. The false, scandalous and defamatory words, figures and language, among other things, were contained in numerous printings in the form of circulars and handbills, of which the following is a copy: (insert copy of circular or handbill).

"Which said printing in the form of circulars and handbills the said William E. Verry then and there unlawfully, wilfully and maliciously published and circulated by means of placing them in the hands of Elias Moser, J. H. Scoulter, and numerous and divers other persons in the city of Hiawatha, Brown county, Kansas, and by distributing and leaving them at the store and places of business of L. R.

Yates, C. Meisenheimer, and numerous and divers other places of business and stores in said city of Hiawatha, to the great damage, disgrace, scandal and infamy of the said A. H. Thomas, and tending to provoke him to wrath and expose him to public hatred, contempt and ridicule, and to deprive him of public confidence and social intercourse contrary to the provisions of the statute in such a case made and provided." State v. Verry, 36 Kan. 416, 13 Pac. 838.

Note.—Indictment pronounced good by opinion, but case reversed on instructions.

E. Information, Libel With Innuendo Charging Crime.

"I, the undersigned county attorney, in the name, by the authority and on behalf of the state of Kansas, give information that on, to-wit, the 3d day of December, 1885, in the said county of Rice and state of Kansas, the said W. E. Carr, whose given name is unknown, did then and there unlawfully, falsely and maliciously make, compose and publish, and cause and procure to be composed and published, and did knowingly and wilfully aid and assist in making, publishing and circulating, in a certain newspaper called the Ellinwood Express, published and circulated in said county of Rice, in the state of Kansas, by the said W. E. Carr, the said W. E. Carr being the proprietor and editor of said newspaper, on, to-wit, the 3d day of December, 1885, and the said W. E. Carr did on said day publish and circulate in the said county of Rice a certain false, malicious, defamatory libel of and concerning John W. White, with the malicious intent to provoke him, the said John W. White, to wrath, and expose him to public hatred, contempt and ridicule, and to deprive him of the benefits of public confidence and social intercourse, with malicious and defamatory libel, so published as aforesaid, by him, the said W. E. Carr, contained, the false, malicious, mischievous and defamatory, and libelous words and matters, according to the tenor following, that is to say: 'When the antiquated, bow-legged fossil, who edits the only religious paper in the valley says that the Express (meaning the Ellinwood Express) desires to libel John White (meaning the said John W. White), (as if such a thing is possible!) he utters that which he, as well as everybody else, knows to be a lie. We said that John White (meaning the said John W. White) was tricky politically, and that if he were guilty of the charges stated by men who live near and know him well, it is due his constituency that he resign, as the people did not want to be represented by a man upon whom the faintest suspicion rests. We say so still (meaning that the said John W. White is guilty of said robbery, as stated in the first count of this information). When Mr. White (meaning the said John W. White) shall have cleared up this early-day transaction (meaning that the said John W. White is guilty of said robbery) of business satisfactorily, it will then be in order for him to state why he attempted, once upon a time, to down a Hutchinson man for $400, and got most gloriously left (meaning that the said John W. White had, once upon a time, attempted to steal or embezzle $400 from some Hutchinson man). Our advice to the editor of the penny-a-line journal is, to find out something about his protege before charging the Express (meaning the Ellinwood Express) with maligning him (meaning the said John W. White). A man who will do one dishonest thing is liable to do another when an opportunity presents itself (meaning that the said John W. White was guilty of said robbery). When Mr. White (meaning the said John W. White) produces the evidence of his innocence (meaning that the said John W. White is guilty of said robbery), the Express (meaning said Ellinwood Express) will see to it that its readers are made aware of the fact, and it won't be necessary for White (meaning the said John W. White) to say, 'Any expense incurred in relation to this matter, send me a bill of, and I will settle.' Said libel as aforesaid being to the great injury and defamation of the said John W. White: contrary to the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Kansas." State v. Carr, 37 Kan. 421, 15 Pac. 603.

F. Indictment for Slander, Charging Unchastity.

"Did wilfully, wantonly, maliciously and falsely impute, orally, to one Catherine Eugenie Smith, then and there an unmarried female in this State, a want of chastity, in this, namely, he the said Zene Patterson then and there stated to one Milton Vandegriff and one Scott Perkins, that he knew she the said Catherine Eugenie Smith was pregnant, and that he the said Zene Patterson and one Joseph Perkins had been having carnal intercourse with her the said Catherine Eugenie Smith for the space of about two years." Patterson v. State, 12 Tex. App. 458.

LIBERUM TENEMENTUM.

I. Plea, 787

II. Replications, 788

A. Traverse, 788

B. Demise to Defendant, 788

C. New Assignment, 788

III. Rejoinder, Notice To Quit, 788

IV. Surrejoinder, Notice To Quit Was Waived, 789

V. Rebutter, Denying Notice To Quit Was Waived, 789

I. Plea in Trespass Quare Clausum Fregit.

And for a further plea in this behalf as to the breaking and entering the said close, in which, etc., in the said declaration mentioned, and with feet in walking, treading down, trampling upon, consuming and spoiling, the grass and herbage then and there growing, the said defendant says, that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him; because he says, that the said close in the said declaration mentioned, and in which, etc., now is, and at the several times when, etc., was the close, soil, and freehold of him the said defendant. Wherefore he the said defendant at the said several times when, etc., broke and entered the said close in which, etc., and with feet in walking trod down, trampled upon, consumed, and spoiled the grass and herbage then and there growing, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid, which are the same trespasses in the introductory part of this plea mentioned, and whereof the said plaintiff hath above complained. And this the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him. Steph. Pl. 315.

II. Replications.

A. Replication, Traverse to Plea of Liberum Tenementum.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, says, that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof, against the said defendant, because he says, that the said close in the said declaration mentioned, in which, etc., now is, and at the said several times when, etc., was the close, soil, and freehold of him, the said plaintiff, and not the close, soil and freehold of him, the said defendant, in manner and form as he the said defendant, hath above in his said (second) plea alleged. And this he, the said plaintiff, prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 378, §690; 3 Chit. Pl. 1208.

B. Replication to Liberum Tenementum, Demise to Defendant.

Because he says, that whilst the said (dwelling-house) was the (dwelling-house) and freehold of the said defendant, and before the said time when, etc., to-wit, on, etc. (day of demise) at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, the said defendant demised the said (dwelling-house) with the appurtenances, to the said plaintiff, to have and to hold the same to the said plaintiff for and during and unto the full end and term of one year from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, and so from year to year, for so long time as they the said plaintiff and defendant should respectively please (or if the demise be under an indenture of lease then set forth the lease and habendum); by virtue of which said demise, the said plaintiff afterwards, and before the said time when, etc., entered into the said (dwelling-house) and became and was possessed thereof, and continued so thereof possessed from thence, until the said defendant afterwards, and during the continuance of the said demise, to-wit, at the said time when, etc., of his own wrong, broke and entered the said (dwelling-house) and committed the said several trespasses in the introductory part of the said (second) plea mentioned, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against the said defendant. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) 3 Chit. Pl. 1209.

C. Replication, New Assignment to Plea of Liberum Tenementum.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, says, that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof, against the said defendant, because he says, that the said piece or parcel of land in which, etc., in the said first count of the said declaration mentioned, at the said several times, when, etc., was and is a certain close in the town aforesaid, called ———, abutting, etc. (state the abutments), which said close now is, and at the said several times, when, etc., was another and different close from the said close in the said last plea of the said defendant mentioned, and therein alleged to be the close, soil and freehold of the said defendant; and this he, the said plaintiff is ready to verify. Wherefore, inasmuch as the said defendant hath not answered the said trespasses by him committed in the said close in which, etc., above newly assigned, the said plaintiff prays judgment, and his damages on occasion of the committing of the said trespasses above newly assigned, to be adjudged to him, etc. Burr. App. 388, §715.

III. Rejoinder to Replication, Notice To Quit.

Because he says, that the said defendant after the making of the said demise, etc., gave due notice to, and then and there required the said plaintiff to quit and deliver up the possession of the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said defendant unto the said ——— day of ———, A. D. ———, then next following; and by means thereof, afterwards, and before either of the said times when, etc., to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, the said tenancy, and the estate and interest of the said plaintiff in the said demised premises, and the said place in which, etc., with the appurtenances, wholly ended and determined, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, and thereupon he the said defendant, after the said tenancy was so ended and determined as aforesaid, to-wit, at the said several times when, etc., entered into the said (dwelling-house) in which, etc., and committed the said supposed trespasses in the introductory part of the said (second) plea mentioned, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) 3 Chit. Pl. 1232.

IV. Surrejoinder That Notice To Quit Was Waived

Because he says, that after the giving of the said notice in the said rejoinder mentioned, and before the expiration of the said tenancy, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, the said defendant waived, relinquished, and abandoned the said notice, and then and there assented and agreed with the said plaintiff to the continuance of the said tenancy in the said replication mentioned, and the said tenancy did continue from thenceforth, until, and at, and after the said time when, etc., to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) 3 Chit. Pl. 1235.

V. Rebutter Denying That Notice To Quit Was Waived.

And the said defendant, as to the said surrejoinder of the said plaintiff, to the said rejoinder of the said defendant to the said replication to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says, that the said plaintiff ought not, by reason of anything by him in that surrejoinder alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him in respect of the said supposed trespasses in the introductory part of the said (second) plea mentioned, because he says, that the said defendant did not waive, relinquish, or abandon the said notice, or assent or agree with the said plaintiff to the continuance of the said tenancy in the said replication mentioned, nor did the same continue in manner and form as the said plaintiff has above in his said surrejoinder in that behalf alleged. And of this the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1236.

I. Pleas.

- A. Plea of Actio Non Accrevit Infra Sex Annos (did not accrue within six years).

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by S. G. R., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that the said several supposed causes of action in the said declaration mentioned, did not, nor did any or either of them, accrue to the said plaintiff, at any time within six years next before the commencement of this suit, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him the said defendant. And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. Burr. App. 344, §630; 3 Chit. Pl. 941.

- B. Plea of Non-Assumpsit Infra Sex Annos (did not promise within six years).

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by H. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that he the said defendant did not at any time within six years next before the commencement of this suit, undertake or promise in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him. And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. Burr. App. 344, §631; 3 Chit. Pl. 939.

II. Demurrer To Plea, Non-Assumpsit Instead of Non-Accrevit.

That although the said causes of action in the said first, second and third counts mentioned did not arise or accrue upon the making of the promises and undertakings in those counts mentioned, but on contingencies and on the happenings of events which occurred after the making of said promises and undertakings; yet the said defendant, in and by his plea, states that he the said defendant did not, at any time within six years next before the exhibiting of the bill of the said plaintiff in this behalf, undertake or promise in manner and form as he the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him, instead of pleading as to the said first, second and third counts, that the causes of action therein mentioned did not accrue within six years. 3 Chit. Pl. 1258.

III. Replications.

- A. Replication To Plea of Action Non Accrevit.

And the said plaintiff, as to the said plea of the said defendant by him (secondly) above pleaded, says that the said plaintiff, by reason of anything by the said defendant in that plea alleged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant,* because he says that the said several causes of action in the said declaration mentioned, and each and every of them, did accrue to the said plaintiff within (six) years next before the commencement of this suit, in manner and form as he the said plaintiff hath above complained against the said defendant, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. Burr. App. 377, §688; 3 Chit. Pl. 1160.

B. Replication To Plea of Non-Assumpsit.

Because he says that the said defendant did, within six years next before the exhibiting of the bill of the said plaintiff in this behalf (or in C. P., or by original, "before the commencement of the suit"), undertake and promise in manner and form as he the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid. And this he the said plaintiff prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1160.

C. Replication of Statute of Limitations To Set-Off.

(As in III, A, to the *, and then as follows): because he says that the said several supposed debts and causes of set-off in the said (last) plea mentioned, did not, nor did any or either of them, arise or accrue to the said defendant at any time, within six years next before the commencement of this suit, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in his said (last) plea in that behalf alleged. And this, etc. (conclude with a verification). Burr. App. 383, §699.

D. Replication To Statute of Limitations, Plaintiff Was Imprisoned (a).

(As in III, A, to the *, then as follows): because the said plaintiff says that at the time the said causes of action accrued to him (or her) * he was imprisoned on a criminal charge * (stating the charge), to-wit, at, etc. And this, etc. Burr. App. 384, §704.

Replication To Statute of Limitations, Plaintiff Was Imprisoned (b).

(As in preceding form, substituting for the part between the , the words, "he was in execution, under the sentence of a criminal court, for a term less than for his natural life;" stating when and where convicted, and for what crime.) Burr. App. 384, §705.

E. Replication To Plea of Statute of Limitations, Plaintiff Was Feme Covert.

(As in III, D, substituting for the part between the , the words, "she was a married woman, to-wit, the wife of one A. B.") Burr. App. 384, §706.

F. Replication To Plea of Statute of Limitations, Defendant Was Out of State.

(As in III, A, to the *, and then as follows): because he says that the said defendant, before and at the time when the said several causes of action in the said declaration mentioned accrued to the said plaintiff, against the said defendant, was out of this state, to-wit, at, etc., and that he the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., returned into this state, which said return of the said defendant was his first return into this state after the accruing of the said several causes of action, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And the said plaintiff further says that he commenced his suit against the said defendant, within (six) years after his the said defendant's first return into this state, after the accruing of the said several causes of action, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And this, etc. (conclude with a verification). Burr. App. 385, §708; 3 Chit. Pl. 1162.

G. Replication to Plea of Statute of Limitations, Defendant Left State.

(As in III, A, to the *, and then as follows): because he says, that after the said causes of action accrued to him, to-wit, on, etc., the said defendant departed from, and resided out of this state from that time, for the space of (eleven months), next thereafter, when he first returned to this state, and hath ever since resided therein; and that the said plaintiff commenced his suit within (six years and eleven months), next after the making of the said promises and undertakings in the declaration aforesaid mentioned. And this, etc. (Conclude with a verification.) Burr. App. 385, §709; 2 Humph. Prec. 910.

H. Replication to Plea of Statute of Limitations, Process Issued Within Six Years.

(As in III, A, to the *, and then as follows): because he says, that the said causes of action in the said declaration mentioned, did respectively accrue to him, to-wit, on, etc. (the time) and that within six years next thereafter, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., he caused a certain writ of capias ad respondendum to be issued out of this court, directed to the sheriff of the county of ———, in which county the said defendant then usually resided (or had last resided), in good faith, and with intent that the same should be actually served; and such writ was afterwards duly returned, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., by which said writ, the said sheriff was commanded (here recite the writ accurately). At which said day and place for the return of the said writ, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., before the said court, came the said plaintiff, by E. F., his attorney, but the said defendant did not come; and the said sheriff then and there returned to the said court that (here state sheriff's return of non est inventus). Whereupon, on the prayer of the said plaintiff, and with the like good faith and intent, the said sheriff of the said county of _____ was again commanded by a writ issuing out of the said court, called an alias capias ad respondendum, that he should take (here recite the alias, making it returnable the term next after the first writ was returned). At which day and place (the return day of the alias), to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., before the said court came the said plaintiff by his attorney aforesaid, and the said sheriff did not return the said writ last mentioned, nor did he do anything thereupon, nor did the said defendant come. Therefore as before, and on the prayer of the said plaintiff, and with the like good faith and intent, the said sheriff was again commanded by a writ called a pluries capias ad respondendum, that he should take (here again recite the writ, generally a supposed writ, and so repeat from the word "therefore," from term to term, until the writ which is actually served on the defendant, be returned, which return is thus stated): At which day and place, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (the return day), before this court came the said plaintiff, by his attorney aforesaid, and the said defendant did also come and the said sheriff returned to the said court then there, the writ last mentioned, and with his return thereto, that he had (here set forth in substance, the sheriff's return of the service of the writ). And the said plaintiff further says, that the declaration aforesaid of him, the said plaintiff, was exhibited with the like good faith and intent by the said plaintiff, and filed of and upon the plea aforesaid, as of the said term in which the said writ was so returned. And this, etc. (Conclude with verification.) Burr. App. 385, §709a; Yates' Forms 318.

IV. Rejoinder to Replication to Plea of Statute of Limitations.

And the said defendant, as to the said replication of the said plaintiff, to the said (second) plea of the said defendant, says that the said plaintiff ought not, by reason of anything by him in that replication alleged, to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, the said defendant, because he says, that by the course and custom of the said court here, a writ of capias ad respondendum sued out after the end of any term, is supposed to have been sued out of the said court here within the term next preceding. And the said defendant further saith, that the said writ of capias ad respondendum, in the said replication mentioned, was really and truly sued out of the said court here by the said plaintiff after the _____ day of _____, in said replication mentioned, being the last day of (October) term, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, that is to say on the _____ day of _____, in that year. And the said defendant further says, that he did not promise or undertake, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him, at any time within six years next before the said writ was so really and in truth issued as aforesaid. And this he, the said defendant, is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant. Burr. App. 391, §722; Till. Forms 559.

V. Verdicts.

A. Verdict for Plaintiff on Plea of Statute of Limitations, Action Did Not Accrue.

That the said several causes of action in the said plaintiff's declaration mentioned, did accrue to the said plaintiff within six years next before the commencement of this suit, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above complained against the said defendant, and they assess, etc. Burr. App. 419, §783.

B. Verdict for Defendant on Plea of Actio Non Accrevit in Assumpsit.

That the said several causes of action in the said plaintiff's declaration mentioned, did not (nor did either of them) accrue to the said plaintiff within six years next before the commencement of this suit, in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in that behalf alleged. Therefore, etc. Burr. App. 425, §811.

C. Verdict for Plaintiff on Plea of Statute of Limitations, Did Promise.

That the said defendant did, within six years next before the exhibiting of the bill of the said plaintiff against the said defendant, in this cause (or before the commencement of this suit), undertake and promise in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above complained against him; and they assess the damages of the said plaintiff, etc. Burr. App. 418, §782.

VI. Complaints.

A. Complaint on an Express Promise in Consideration of Precedent Debt.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, at _____, the defendant being then indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of _____ dollars for (here state concisely the consideration, e. g., goods heretofore sold and delivered by the plaintiff to the defendant), in consideration thereof promised the plaintiff that he would pay him said sum on the _____ day of _____ (or, on demand, or otherwise, as the case may be).

II. That no part thereof has been paid (except the sum of, etc.) 1 Abb. Forms 212.

B. Complaint on Debt Barred by Statute of Limitations, or a Discharge, and Revived by New Promise.

(Plead the original cause of action as in other cases, and continue.)

II. That thereafter on the _____ day of _____, in consideration of the foregoing facts, the defendant promised to the plaintiff that he would pay such indebtedness.

III. That no part of the same has been paid (except the sum of, etc.) 1 Abb. Forms 213.

VII. Answers.

A. Answer, Statute of Limitations, Did Not Accrue.

That the cause of action stated in the complaint (or, that as to _____ dollars, part of the cause of action stated in the complaint, the same) did not accrue within _____ years before the commencement of this action. 2 Abb. Forms 34.

B. Answer, Statute of Limitations, Not Guilty Within Period.

That the defendant was not guilty of the grievances alleged in the complaint (or in the first cause of action in the complaint) at any time within _____ years before the commencement of this action. 2 Abb. Forms 35.

C. Answer, Statute of Limitations From Date of Right To Make Demand.

Further answering, and, as a further and separate defense, the defendants allege that the cause of action contained in said complaint accrued more than six years before the commencement of this action, and that the right to make the demand necessary to maintain said cause of action was complete more than six years before the commencement of this action. Jex v. Mayor, 111 N. Y. 339, 19 N. E. 52.

VIII. In Equity.

A. Answer, Statement Raising Defense of Statute of Limitations.

The said G. S., deceased, did not, as we severally verily believe, at any time during the period he was so in possession or receipt of the rents and profits of the said mortgaged hereditaments as aforesaid, sign or give any acknowledgment in writing or otherwise, of the title of the said J. M. and T. M., or either of them, or of any person or persons claiming under them, or either of them to the said J. M. and T. M., or either of them, or to the plaintiffs in this suit or either of them, or to the defendant W. T., or to any person or persons whatsoever claiming any estate or interest in the said hereditaments, or to the agent or agents of the said J. M. and T. M., or of the plaintiffs or of the defendant W. T., or either of them; nor have or hath one or either of us, at any time or times subsequently to the decease of the said G. S., signed or given any acknowledgment, etc. (as above).

The said J. M. and T. M. have not nor hath either of them, nor have or hath the plaintiffs or the defendant W. T., or any or either of them, made any payment whatever, either in respect of interest of the said several mortgage securities or any or either of them, or of the principal moneys thereby secured, or any part thereof, subsequently to the time when the said G. S., deceased, so entered into the possession or receipt of the rents and profits of the mortgaged hereditaments and premises as aforesaid.

We severally claim the benefit of the provision made in and by the statute passed in the session holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of his late majesty, William the Fourth, "For the Limitation of Actions, and suits relating to Real Property, and for simplifying the Remedies for trying the Rights thereto," in bar to the relief sought by the plaintiffs in this suit, in the like manner as if we had pleaded the same. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2143.

B. Answer of Statute of Limitations.

And the defendants, in addition to the foregoing answer, aver that the cause of action, if any there may be, arising to the plaintiffs on account or by reason of the several allegations and complaints in their said bill contained, did not accrue within six years before the said bill was filed, and this allegation the defendants make in bar of the plaintiff's bill, and pray that they may have the same benefit therefrom as if they had formally pleaded the same. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2144.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of May, 1890.

"A. Donaldson,

"Notary Public, Chippewa, county, Mich.

"Filed May 5, at 12 o'clock M., 1890.

"Wm. Webster, Clerk."

Wiggins v. Houghton, 89 Mich. 468,
50 N. W. 1005.

Note.—Held sufficient in connection with statement, but suggested that it would be better to have amount of each claim separately stated in affidavit.

II. Appointment of Agent To Prosecute Claim.

"We, the undersigned, having filed a statement and claim of lien on a certain quantity of saw-logs and timber reported to be owned by James Connolly, of Marquette, Michigan, with the clerk of Chippewa county, Michigan, and each of our claims for labor, etc., is less than one hundred dollars, and for the purpose of prosecuting our claim in the circuit court for Chippewa county, we do hereby designate and appoint James Wiggins, one of our number, our agent for prosecuting our said liens, or any suit necessary to enforce the same, in his name, and as fully as we, or each of us, could or might do.

Dated on this 1st day of May, 1890.

Thomas Howie,
Archie Hall,
Michael Meagher,
George Baynes,"

Wiggins v. Houghton, 89 Mich. 468, 50 N. W. 1005.

III. Statement of Lien by Agent of Logger.

"State of Michigan, county of Chippewa, ss.

"James Wiggins, of Marquette, in the county of Marquette, and State aforesaid, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is agent for and makes this statement of lien for work and labor performed by Michael Meagher, and this statement is made for and in behalf of said Michael Meagher in hauling and laboring, and in working in and about the following described property, to-wit, a quantity of board timber and boom timber and saw-logs. All of said timber and saw-logs are marked with the sign as follows, R, and gotten out by Robert Houghton, and reputed to be owned by James Connolly, of Marquette, Michigan; and said property is now situate in sections 27 and 35, in township 45 north, of range 7 west.

"That the last day's work of said labor was done on the 5th day of April, 1890; that Michael Meagher actually did said work and labor, and the same was performed in the county of Chippewa, in said State, and that the same described property, or considerable portion thereof, is now in the county of Chippewa, State of Michigan; that there is now due this Michael Meagher, claimant, for said work and labor, so as aforesaid by him done and performed, over and above all legal set-offs, the sum of forty-five dollars ($45.00), as near as may be, for which said sum this deponent claims a lien upon said described property; and this deponent has personal knowledge of the facts herein set forth.

James Wiggins, claimant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2d day of April, 1890.

A. Donaldson,

Notary Public in and for Chippewa County."

Wiggins v. Houghton, 89 Mich. 468, 50 N. W. 1005.

IV. Affidavit of Attachment To Enforce Log Lien by Cook.

"Watson Brooks, being duly sworn, on oath says, that he is the above plaintiff; that the above defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in a sum of over $5.00, and in the sum of $90, over and above all set-offs; that said indebtedness is due for labor and services done and performed by the plaintiff for the defendant, in and about cooking for men driving pine logs in Oconto county, Wisconsin, between the 9th day of April, 1872, and the 24th day of May, 1872; and that said logs are now lying in the waters of the Oconto river and Peshtigo brook, in Oconto county, Wisconsin, and are marked as follows (here follows description of logs); and that the plaintiff, on the 19th day of June, 1872, duly filed his statement, or petition under oath, for a lien on said logs, in the office of the clerk of circuit court for the county of Oconto, Wis." Winslow v. Urquhart, 39 Wis. 260.

V. Declaration in Debt for Penalty, Converting Logs.

That the defendants "did take, carry away, saw, split, destroy, and convert to their own use one pine mill log, of the value of ten dollars, the property of the plaintiffs, put by them into the river called the Great Androscoggin, and marked by their mark, to-wit, etc., cut out therefrom, with an axe; which log the said—defendants—did take, carry away, saw, split, destroy, and convert to their own use, without the consent of the plaintiffs, and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; whereby they have forfeited and become liable to pay to the plaintiffs the sum of fifty dollars, and an action has accrued," etc. Prost v. Rowse, 2 Me. 130.

VI. Declaration, Injury to Mill Dam by Logs.

"In a plea of the case, whereupon the plaintiff declares and says that he is, and has been for the last six years, the owner (and he and those under whom he owns the right have been for more than fifty years) of a mill-privilege, and a mill-dam built across Passumpsic River in the town of Burke, and of a saw-mill built on said dam, and has been all that time in the possession and use of the same for the purpose of sawing lumber for customers and making gains thereby; and the defendant has, during all that time, been engaged in the lumber business, and interested in saw-mills below the plaintiff's, on the same stream, and, on divers days and times between the 15th day of May, 1861, and the day of the date of this writ, and more especially at times of high water in spring, has run, driven and floated down said stream, from above the plaintiff's said mill, a large number of mill-logs at a single run or drive upon and over the plaintiff's said dam, thereby creating such force and pressure upon and against the plaintiff's dam as to settle, break, and carry away parts thereof, and render the plaintiff's mill of no use, or benefit; and these injuries have been often repeated in the manner aforesaid, during the time aforesaid, and the plaintiff has been compelled to let his mill be idle, and to expend money in repair of the dam to the amount of one hundred dollars, and until these injuries, so often repeated, have wholly destroyed and rendered said dam useless and good for nothing; and the same cannot be repaired or rebuilt without great expense, and expense unwarrantable, and disproportionate to all benefit to be derived from running said mill if the dam was rebuilt or repaired. Whereby the plaintiff has not only been deprived of the use of his said mill during the time aforesaid, and been compelled to expend a large sum in the repair of the dam, but has wholly lost said dam, and his said mill has been rendered of no value, all which is to the damage of the plaintiff, five hundred dollars." Coe v. Hall, 41 Vt. 325.

I. Declaration for Malicious Prosecution.

bors, and other good and worthy citizens of this state, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), yet the said defendant well knowing the premises, but contriving and maliciously intending to injure the said plaintiff in his aforesaid good name, fame and credit, and to bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace, and to cause him, the said plaintiff, to be imprisoned for a long space of time, and thereby to impoverish, oppress and wholly ruin him, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., went and appeared before one J. K., Esq., then and there being one of the justices of the people of the state of New York, assigned to keep the peace of the same people, in and for the county of _____ and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors committed in the said county, and then and there, before the said J. K., so being such justice as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid, falsely and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, charged the said plaintiff with having feloniously stolen a certain gold watch of him, the said defendant, and upon such charge, he, the said defendant, falsely and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, caused and procured the said J. K., so being such justice as aforesaid, to make and grant his certain warrant, under his hand and seal, for the apprehending and taking of the said plaintiff, and for bringing him, the said plaintiff before him, the said J. K., or some other of the people's justices of the peace, in and for the said county of _____ to be dealt with according to law for the said supposed offence; and the said defendant, under and by virtue of the said warrant, afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., wrongfully and unjustly, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, caused and procured the said plaintiff to be arrested by his body, and to be imprisoned and kept, and detained in prison for a long space of time, to-wit, for the space of _____ hours then next following, and until he, the said defendant, afterwards to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., falsely and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, caused and procured the said plaintiff, to be carried and conveyed in custody before the said J. K. so being such justice as aforesaid, and to be committed by the said justice, for a further examination, to a certain jail or prison of the said people, called _____ and there, to-wit, in the said jail or prison, he, the said defendant, then and there falsely and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, caused and procured the said plaintiff to be imprisoned, and to be kept and detained in prison for a long space of time, to-wit, for the space of _____, then next following, and until he the said defendant afterwards, to-wit on, etc., falsely and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, caused and procured the said plaintiff to be carried and conveyed in custody before one L. M., then and there being a certain other justice of the said people, assigned to keep the peace of the said people, and to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses and other misdemeanors, committed in the same county of _____ to be examined before the said justice, touching and concerning the said supposed crime. (Which said last mentioned justice having heard and considered all that the said defendant could say or allege against the said plaintiff, touching and concerning the said supposed offence, then and there, to-wit, on, etc., last aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, adjudged and determined that the said plaintiff was not guilty of the said supposed offence, and then and there caused the said plaintiff to be discharged out of custody, fully acquitted and discharged of the said supposed offence); and the said defendant hath not further prosecuted his said complaint, but hath deserted and abandoned the same, and the said complaint and prosecution is wholly ended and determined, to-wit, at, etc.

And whereas also, the said defendant further contriving and maliciously and wickedly intending as aforesaid, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., falsely and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, charged the said plaintiff with having committed a certain offence punishable by law, to-wit, felony; and upon such last mentioned charge, he, the said defendant, then and there, to-wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, at, etc., falsely and maliciously caused and procured the said plaintiff to be arrested by his body, and to be imprisoned, and to be kept and detained in prison for a long space of time, to-wit, for the space of _____ then next following, and at the expiration of which said time, he, the said plaintiff, was duly discharged and fully acquitted of the said last mentioned offence, to-wit, at, etc. By means of which said several premises, he the said plaintiff hath been, and is greatly injured in his said credit and reputation, and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace, with and amongst all his neighbors, and other good and worthy citizens of this state, and divers of those neighbors and citizens to whom his innocence in the premises was unknown, have on occasion of the premises, suspected and believed, and still do suspect and believe, that the said plaintiff hath been and is guilty of felony; and also the said plaintiff hath, by means of the premises, suffered great anxiety and pain of body and mind, and hath been forced and obliged, to lay out and expend divers large sums of money, in the whole amounting to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of six hundred dollars, in about the defending of himself in the premises, and the manifestation of his innocence in that behalf, and hath been greatly hindered and prevented, by reason of the premises, from following and transacting his lawful and necessary affairs and business for a long time, to-wit, for the space of _____, and also, by reason and by means of the said premises, he, the said plaintiff hath been, and is otherwise greatly injured in his credit and circumstances, to-wit, at, etc. Burr. App. 325, §593; Yates' Forms 386.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint for Malicious Prosecution on a Criminal Charge.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant, maliciously intending to injure the plaintiff in his good reputation, appeared before _____, justice of the peace of said county (or, one of the police justices of said city), and, without any probable cause whatsoever, charged the plaintiff, before said justice, with having (feloniously stolen a certain gold watch of the defendant); and maliciously, and without probable cause, procured said justice to grant a warrant for the arrest of the plaintiff upon the said charge.

II. That the said justice issued said warrant accordingly, and the plaintiff was arrested and imprisoned under the same for _____ hours and was obliged to, and actually did, give bail in the sum of _____ dollars).

III. That afterwards, and on the _____ day of _____, the plaintiff having been examined before the said justice for the said supposed crime, the said justice adjudged him not guilty thereof, and fully acquitted him of the same; and that since that time the defendant has not further prosecuted said complaint, but has abandoned the same.

(IV. That the said charge and the arrest of the plaintiff thereunder were extensively published in several public newspapers, among others, the _____, as the plaintiff believes, through the procurement of the defendant.)

V. That by means of the premises the plaintiff was injured in his person, and prevented from attending to his business, and was compelled to pay _____ dollars costs, counsel-fees in defending himself, and _____ dollars in obtaining bail; and in consequence of the arrest and detention he lost his situation as servant of _____; and many persons, hearing of the said arrest, and supposing the plaintiff to be a criminal, have refused to employ him; to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 486.

B. Complaint for Obtaining Indictment, on Which a Nolle Prosequi Was Afterwards Entered.

I. That the defendant, maliciously intending to injure the plaintiff in his good name and credit, and to bring him into public disgrace, and to cause him to be imprisoned, and thereby to impoverish and injure him, on or before the _____ day of _____, 18____, procured M. N., then the district attorney in and for the county of _____, in this state, to issue subpoenas for the purpose of compelling and procuring the attendance of witnesses, among others, one O. P., at a court of oyer and terminer, held on the day last mentioned at _____, in said county, before the grand jury and persons serving as grand jurors at such court of oyer and terminer, for the purpose of procuring an indictment to be found against the plaintiff, as hereafter more fully stated.

II. That the defendant, at said court of oyer and terminer, complained of the plaintiff before the grand jury and falsely, and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, charged the plaintiff to the grand jury with having, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, induced defendant to deliver to the plaintiff certain personal property of the said defendant.

III. That said charge was and is wholly false and untrue, which the defendant then and at all times since well knew.

IV. That defendant falsely, and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause, procured the grand jury aforesaid to find and present to the said court of oyer and terminer an indictment against the plaintiff for said alleged false and fraudulent pretenses and representations.

V. That the defendant falsely, and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, procured a warrant, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the said county of _____, for the arrest of the plaintiff upon the aforesaid indictment, to answer the charges therein made against him as aforesaid, to be issued by the said court of oyer and terminer, or by a justice of the supreme court, judge of the county court of said county of _____, or district attorney aforesaid; and afterwards, on or about the _____ day of _____, 18____, caused the plaintiff to be arrested and to be kept in custody, restrained of his liberty for the space of two days then next following, and afterwards caused him to be carried in custody before the county judge of said county, and to be then and there compelled to give bond to appear for trial therein.

VI. That the plaintiff did appear at the said court of oyer and terminer last above mentioned, held in and for the said county of _____, at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and other days, pursuant to said bond; whereupon the said defendant did falsely, and maliciously, and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever, procure the said court, by order entered in its minutes, to send the aforesaid indictment to the court of sessions of the said county of _____, to be proceeded on and tried therein; and, in like manner, procured the said court of oyer and terminator to compel the plaintiff to enter into a recognizance to appear at such court of sessions, to answer and stand trial upon the aforesaid indictment against him.

VII. That the plaintiff did appear at the said term of said court of sessions, ready and willing to then and there stand trial upon the aforesaid indictment against him, pursuant to and as required by said recognizance. Whereupon the aforesaid district attorney, after consulting and advising with the defendant, and pursuant to his request and instructions, did then and there move the said court that the plaintiff be discharged out of custody, and fully discharged and acquitted of the said indictment and of the supposed offense therein charged against him, and be no further prosecuted thereon; whereupon the said court, having heard and considered all that the said defendant and the people, by the aforesaid district attorney, could say or allege against the plaintiff touching and concerning the said supposed offense, did then and there adjudge, order and determine that the plaintiff be discharged out of custody, and be fully discharged and acquitted of the said indictment, and be no further prosecuted thereon.

VIII. That the said indictment, complaint, and prosecution, and each of them, is wholly ended and determined in favor of plaintiff.

IX. (Allege special damage, if any.)
1 Abb. Forms 486.

C. Complaint for Arrest in a Civil Action.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the defendant, maliciously intending to injure the plaintiff, and without probable cause, made affidavit, and procured one M. N. to make an affidavit, in an action then brought (or, depending) against this plaintiff by _____, in which he falsely and maliciously alleged (here set forth the grounds of the false arrest); and that upon said affidavits the defendant procured to be issued an order of arrest against this plaintiff, under which the plaintiff was arrested and imprisoned for the space of _____, and compelled to give bail in the sum of _____ dollars.

II. That thereafter said order of arrest was vacated by said court (or judge), upon the ground that (here set forth briefly the grounds on which it was vacated).

(Or II. That, thereafter, such proceedings were had in such action, that it was finally determined in favor of this plaintiff, and judgment was rendered for him therein. 1 Abb. Forms 488.

III. Answer, Pleading Justification in Malicious Prosecution.

"And for further plea, defendants say that Mrs. Rachel Francis did prosecute the said J. W. Henderson before W. C. Horton and before the city court of Atlanta for the offense of larceny, and that she did also cause him to be arrested and imprisoned, and that said arrest, imprisonment and prosecution was upon probable cause and without malice. Mrs. Rachel Francis owned two houses on Ponder Alley that were in process of erection. A large amount of lumber was stolen from said houses, said lumber being, at the time of the larceny, the property of Mrs. Rachel Francis. The faith upon which said arrest, imprisonment and prosecution took place was substantially that Mrs. Rachel Francis saw said Henderson taking her lumber, and also was informed by several persons that they saw him taking the lumber. On the committing trial, a number of witnesses swore that they saw said Henderson taking the lumber, and the said Henderson did not deny the fact that he took it." Henderson v. Francis, 75 Ga. 178.

Notice of Motion for Mandamus (b).
To the Honorable George Oulton, controller of the state of California:

Sir: You will please take notice that on Tuesday, the 11th day of April, A. D. 1865, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, I shall apply to the supreme court of the state of California, to issue a peremptory mandamus commanding you, that as controller of the state of California, you do forthwith draw your warrant on the treasurer of the said state, in favor of William C. Stratton, for the sum of one hundred dollars and eighty cents, due from the state of California to said Stratton, for his salary as state librarian, from the 17th to the 31st days of March, A. D. 1865.

The said application will be founded upon the affidavit of William C. Stratton, a copy of which affidavit is herewith served.

William C. Stratton.

Stratton v. Oulton, 23 Cal. 44.

B. Petitions.

1. Petition for Writ, To Draw Warrant.

To the honorable the justices of the supreme court, at the term begun and held at Ottawa on the second Tuesday of September, A. D. 1872.

Respectfully represents unto your honors, Norman L. Freeman, of the county of Sangamon, and state of Illinois, that on the first day of March, A. D. 1876, he was appointed by your honorable court reporter of the decisions thereof, which office was accepted by him and he duly qualified as such reporter, and which said office he still holds and performs the duties incident thereto; that, under the statute in such cases made and provided, it is the duty of your petitioner to deliver to the secretary of state of said state of Illinois, as soon as convenient after publication, such number of copies of the respective volumes of the reports of said court as may be necessary to enable said secretary to distribute the same in manner provided by law; that said number now required by law is five hundred and seventy-two; that upon such delivery of said volumes of said reports to said secretary it is the duty of said secretary to deliver to your petitioner a certificate, specifying the number of copies of the said reports which shall have been so delivered to him, and on presentation of said certificate to the auditor of public accounts of the said state of Illinois, it is, by the law in such cases made and provided, the duty of the said auditor to issue to your petitioner his warrant on the treasury of said State of said number of copies of said reports so delivered, at the price of six dollars per volume.

Your petitioner further represents that, as such Reporter, on the second day of September, A. D. 1872, he delivered to the said secretary of State ten copies or volumes of the fifty-fifth volume of said reports, which said ten volumes completed the number of said volume fifty-five, and not before then delivered, of the quality and style as required by law, and which said copies were duly accepted by said secretary of State, and by whom a certificate was given therefor to your petitioner, in the manner required by law as aforesaid; that on the said second day of September, A. D. 1872, your petitioner presented said certificate to Charles E. Lippincott, auditor of public accounts of said state of Illinois, at his office, in the city of Springfield, in said state, and demanded that he issue to your petitioner his warrant in the treasury of said State for the sum of sixty dollars, being the price of said ten volumes at six dollars per volume, which said auditor refused then and there to do, and since wholly refused so to do, alleging that the law under which your petitioner has been delivering the said reports to the said secretary of State had been repealed by the 18th section of article 4 of the constitution of the said state of Illinois.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays your Honors to grant a writ of mandamus, under seal of this Court directed to the said Charles E. Lippincott, auditor as aforesaid, commanding him forthwith to issue and deliver to your petitioner his warrant on the treasury of said state of Illinois for the said sum of sixty dollars, for the price of said ten volumes of said reports so delivered as aforesaid, and for such other and further relief in the premises as to your Honors shall seem meet, and as to right and justice may appertain; and as in duty bound, your petitioner will ever pray, etc. State v. Lippincott, 64 Ill. 257.

2. Petition for Writ of Mandamus Requiring Payment to Schools.

To the honorable, the supreme court of the state of Ohio, within and for the county of Hamilton, in said state:

Your petitioners, Richard Phillips, John I. Gaines, William Beckley, Ishmael Keith, William Ferguson, and William A. Nelson, respectfully represent and state to the court, that they constitute the board of directors of common schools for the eastern and western districts of the city of Cincinnati, which schools are established by law for the education of the colored youth residing in said city; and that in pursuance of law, your petitioners rented divers rooms, and established divers schools in said city, for the education of said youth, and employed competent and duly qualified teachers as instructors of said youth in the schools aforesaid.

And your petitioners further state, that heretofore, to-wit: on the 15th day of March, 1850, William Disney, in his capacity as treasurer of said city, received from the treasurer of Hamilton county, the sum of two thousand and one hundred and seventy-seven and sixty-seven hundredths dollars, for the use of your petitioners, and of the common schools for colored youth, so by them established, the same being the proportion of the public funds belonging to your petitioners, and to the schools under their charge, as the same was apportioned by the auditor of said county, in pursuance of law, which sum of money still remains in the hands of said treasurer, in the treasury of said city.

And your petitioners further represent, that on the first day of April, 1850, there became due from them for expenses incurred in the support of said schools the sums hereinafter set forth, as follows, namely: The sum of six dollars to the trustees of the New Street Church for two months' rent of school room; the sum of seven dollars to the trustees of the Union Baptist Church, for one month's rent of school room; to Martha S. Whipple, the sum of twenty dollars, for one's month's salary as teacher; to Peter Clarke, the sum of twenty dollars, for one month's salary as teacher; to William R. Casey, one month's salary as teacher, the sum of twenty dollars, and to O. J. B. Nickens, the sum of sixty dollars, for two months' salary as teacher in said schools; and that, thereupon, afterwards, to-wit: on the fifth day of April, 1850, your petitioners duly certified to the city council of said city the correctness of said several accounts, together with the several accounts, respectively, and desired the city council to pass an order directing the treasurer of said city to pay the same out of the funds of your petitioners in his hands, to the persons entitled to receive the same; but your petitioners state that the said city council, afterwards, on the first day of May, 1850, utterly refused to pass any order in relation to the payment of said accounts, and they now claim that they have no power, jurisdiction or authority to make any order in the premises.

And your petitioners further represent, that afterwards, to-wit: on the 10th day of May, 1850, they caused said accounts to be presented to the said William Disney, treasurer of said city, and payment thereof was then and there demanded of said Disney, as treasurer, and the said Disney then and there utterly refused and still doth refuse to pay the same, or any part thereof, although the said Disney then had and now has in his hands, as treasurer, as aforesaid, the whole of said sum of two thousand one hundred and seventy-seven and sixty-seven hundredths dollars, and which said sum is held by said Disney, as treasurer of said city, for the use of your petitioners, and of the schools so by them established; he, the said Disney, pretending that he has no power to disburse any of the funds in the city treasury, without the order of said city council, signed by the city clerk, first being and had and obtained.

And your petitioners further state, that by reason of said refusal by said city council to pass the orders aforesaid, and of said treasurer to pay said accounts, the teachers employed by your petitioners are deprived of the compensation, which is justly due them for the services, and the schools so by your petitioners established have been suspended for want of means to carry on the same, although a fund amply sufficient to sustain said schools has been provided by law, and is now in the hands of said Disney, as treasurer of said city.

And your petitioners further state, that they are entirely without remedy in the premises, unless it be afforded by the interposition of this honorable court; and they therefore pray that writs of mandamus may issue against the city of Cincinnati, the city of Cincinnati, and William Disney, treasurer of said city; that said city and city council be commanded to pass an order directing said treasurer to pay said accounts, out of said fund, and that the said Disney, as treasurer, be commanded to pay the same to the order of your petitioners, and that such other order may be had in the premises, as justice may require.

3. Petition for Writ. To Declare Relator Elected to Office.

"To the honorable justices of the supreme judicial court now holden at Portland within and for the county of Cumberland.

"Francis Bacon of Buxton, in the county of York, esquire, respectfully represents, that on the sixteenth day of November last past, the qualified electors of the county of York (which said county constituted a registry district) gave in their votes at the several town and plantation meetings, holden on that day in pursuance of the warrants of the county commissioners, for the choice and election of a register of deeds for said county and registry district; that prior to the twenty ninth day of December last past, the clerks of the respective towns and plantations in said county, caused to be delivered into the office of the clerk of the county commissioners, fair copies of the lists of votes aforesaid, attested by the selectmen and clerks of said towns, and by the assessors and clerks of said plantations, and duly sealed up in open town or plantation meeting, to be by the said commissioners opened and compared with the like returns from the several towns and plantations in said county; on the said twenty-ninth day of December last past, the county commissioners aforesaid of said county of York, which county commissioners were, and now are, Moses Swett, John Bailey and Timothy Shaw, Jr., assembled at Alfred, in said county, to open and compare the said returns of the lists of votes, given in as aforesaid in the several towns and plantations in said county; and that they did proceed to open and compare said returns as aforesaid.

"And your petitioner further represents that by the returns of the lists of votes aforesaid, duly signed, attested, sealed up and returned as aforesaid, it then and there appeared, that your petitioner had received a majority of the votes, so given in by the electors aforesaid, for a person to fill the office of register of deeds for said county, and was then and there entitled to be declared register of deeds for said county, and then and there personally appeared before the said commissioners and requested and demanded of the said commissioners to be declared register of deeds of the said county; and then and there offered and was ready to file the bond and take the oath required by law of the register of deeds.

"Yet the said commissioners, unmindful of their duty in this behalf, and of the requirements of the statute in such case provided, and disregarding the rights of your petitioner, wholly refused and neglected to declare your petitioner register of deeds as aforesaid, and still refuse and neglect so to do, and did decide and declare that no person had a majority of the votes so returned as aforesaid, and that there was no election of any person to said office.

"By reason of which acts, doings and omissions your petitioner is greatly aggrieved; and is wrongfully deprived and kept out of said office and the emoluments thereof.

"Wherefore he prays this honorable court that a rule of this court may issue to the said county commissioners of the county of York, commanding them to appear before this honorable court and show cause, if any they have, why the said county commissioners refused and neglected to declare your petitioner register of deeds as aforesaid, and why a writ of mandamus should not issue from this court, commanding the said commissioners to declare him register as aforesaid.

"Francis Bacon."

"Cumberland, ss. Portland, January 1, A. D. 1847.

"Personally appeared Francis Bacon, above named, and made oath that the foregoing petition was true, according to his best knowledge and belief. Before me,

"G. F. Shepley, Justice Peace."

Bacon v. York County Comrs., 26 Me. 491.

4. Petition by Attorney General for Writ, Requiring Stopping of Trains at Particular Station.

"To the honorable superior court, now in session at New Haven, within and for the county of New Haven.

Comes Eleazer K. Foster, the attorney for the state of Connecticut, within and for New Haven County, and respectfully represents that the New Haven & Northampton Company is, and for more than thirty years last past has been, a corporation duly created by the laws of the state of Connecticut, and that said company has an office for the transaction of business and is located in the town and county of New Haven, and that said corporation, by an act of the general assembly passed May session, 1846, was duly authorized to construct a railroad from said New Haven, northerly along the line of the said company's canal, to the town of Farmington, in Hartford county, and that said company, in accordance with the terms and provisions of said act, did construct and put in operation a railroad from said New Haven to said Farmington, passing through the town of Cheshire in New Haven county, which road has been operated by said corporation since the 1st day of June, 1848, to the present time.

"And the said attorney avers that said corporation, in the year 1848, established a station, for the purpose of the reception and delivery of passengers and freight, commonly called 'Brooks' Station,' at a point on and along the line of the railroad in said Cheshire, and that said corporation, and all persons operating said railroad, with its consent, have from the 1st day of July, 1848, to the 1st day of August, 1869, continued said station, so established as aforesaid, and have during all that period received and delivered passengers and freight at said station.

"And the said attorney further avers, that on the 1st day of August, 1869, and ever since that day hitherto, the said corporation has abandoned said station, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided, and has ceased to stop its trains, running over said road, at said station, to the great discomfort, annoyance and inconvenience of the public.

"And the said attorney avers that the railroad commissioners have never approved of such abandonment of said station by said company, nor has a public hearing been had by them to approve of such abandonment.

"Wherefore the said attorney moves this honorable court to issue a writ of mandamus requiring and enjoining the said corporation to discontinue its abandonment of said station, and to stop its trains, passing over said railroad, and by said station, at said station, for the reception and delivery of passengers and freight, or to signify cause to the contrary thereof to this court. And your petitioner will ever pray. Dated at New Haven, the 11th day of November, 1869." State v. New Haven & N. Co., 37 Conn. 153.

II. Orders.

A. Order for Mandamus (a).

The People ex. rel. A. B. v. C. D.

On reading and filing the affidavits of A. B. and others in this cause, and on motion of E. F., of counsel for the relator, it is ordered that a mandamus issue out of, and under the seal of this court, directed to the said C. D., commanding him forthwith to deliver to the said A. B. all books and papers, and everything appertaining to the office of (clerk of the county of ———); or that he show cause before the justices of this court, at, etc., on the ——— day of ——— next, why he should not deliver the same. Burr. App. 579, §1134a.

Order for Mandamus (b).

The honorable John C. Watrous, district judge of the United States for the district of Texas, having filed a return to the rule granted at the last term in this case, requiring him to appear and show cause, if any he had, why a mandamus should not be awarded, requiring and commanding him to cause the decree rendered by the said court, on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1854, in a certain cause therein then depending, between the said Union Bank of Louisiana, as complainant, and Josiah S. Stafford and Jeannette Kirkland Stafford, his wife, as defendants, to be at once carried into execution, according to the terms thereof, notwithstanding the appeal from said decree, taken by the said defendant to this court, and the order of the said court that the appeal bond filed by the said defendants, on the said appeal, operated as a supersedeas to the said decree of the said court.

And the cause shown appearing in the following statement returned by the said district judge, namely: (here was inserted return of respondent).

And after due deliberation thereupon, had, it appearing to the court that it was the duty of the judge, in allowing the appeal, to take security on the appeal in the sum decreed, and not having done so, that the appellant was not entitled to a supersedeas of any process necessary to carry the decree into execution, and that the judge was bound to issue the proper process on the application of the complainant. It is therefore now here directed and ordered by this court that a mandamus be awarded to the district judge of the United States for the district of Texas, requiring and commanding the said judge forthwith to carry the aforesaid decree of the said district court of the 25th of February, A. D. 1854, into effect. Stafford v. Union Bank, 17 How. (U. S.) 275, 15 L. ed. 101.

B. Order Denying Peremptory Writ of Mandamus.

"This day came again the parties by counsel, and the court having maturely considered the petition of the plaintiff, the demurrer and answer of the defendant, and argument of counsel, is of opinion that where the corporation court has, under the provisions of sec. 666 of the code, as amended by Acts of 1897-8, p. 343, decided that an additional survey need not be made because a sufficient description of the lot can be obtained from the records, there is no necessity for a report by the city engineer, since any report made by him without a survey would only show what the court has, by dispensing with the survey, declared sufficiently appears by the record. It is therefore considered that the prayer of said petition for a mandamus be denied, and the petition dismissed, and that the defendant recover against the plaintiff his costs by him about his defense herein expended." Glenn v. Cutshaw, 96 Va. 677, 33 S. E. 1015.

III. Alternative Mandamus.

A. Alternative Mandamus to Court of Common Pleas, Commanding Sealing of Bill of Exceptions.

The people of the state of New York, to the judges of the court of common pleas for the county of (Westchester), greeting:

Whereas it has been lately represented to us, in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, on the part and behalf of J. K., that at a court of common pleas, held in and for the county of (Westchester), at, etc., on, etc., a certain suit, then and there pending in the said court of common pleas, before you, the said judges, wherein J. K. was appellee and S. K., appellant, was argued before you, and a judgment of nonsuit rendered therein by you the said judges; and that the said J. K., by his counsel learned in the law, did then and there except to the opinion of you the said judges, in the said suit, and to the judgment therein by you so rendered as aforesaid, and did then and there write his exceptions, and tender the same to you, and request you to affix your seals to the same; to which said exceptions you, the said judges, refused to affix your seals: Whereupon we, being willing that justice should be done in the premises, do command you, that you, the said judges, do affix your seals to the said bill of exceptions according to the statute in such case made and provided; or in default thereof, that you make known to us in our supreme court of judicature, before our said justices thereof, at the capitol in the city of Albany, on the _____ day of _____ next, why you have not done the same. And have you then there this writ. Witness, Greene C. Bronson, esquire, our chief justice at the (court-house in the city of Rochester), the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc. Burr. App. 534, §1058.

B. Alternative Mandamus to a Corporation, To Admit an Alderman Into Office.

The people of the state of New York, to the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of _____, greeting:

Whereas A. B. was duly elected one of the aldermen of the _____ ward of the said city, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., and by the said mayor or recorder of the said city in presence of you, the said aldermen and commonalty, ought to be admitted and sworn into the said office of alderman; nevertheless, you, not being ignorant of the premises, but disregarding your duty therein, have not only refused (though thereto required by the said A. B.) to cause the said A. B. to be sworn and admitted into the said office of alderman, in manner aforesaid, but yet do refuse so to do, in contempt of us and to the great damage of the said A. B., as by his complaint we have understood: We therefore, being willing that speedy justice should be done in this behalf, do command and firmly enjoin you, that immediately after the receipt of this writ, you do cause the said A. B. to be duly sworn and admitted into the said office of alderman; or to signify the cause to us why you cannot, or will not cause the said A. B. to be so sworn and admitted as aforesaid; lest in your default complaint should again come to us. And how you shall have executed this our writ make known to our justices of our supreme court of judicature, at the (capitol in the city of Albany), on the _____ Monday (or Tuesday) of _____ next. And have you then there this writ. Witness, Greene C. Bronson, esquire, our chief justice at, etc. (teste in the usual form).

C. Alternative Writ of Mandamus Directing Expenditure of School Moneys.

The state of Ohio, Hamilton county. To the city of Cincinnati, and the city council thereof, greeting:

Whereas, it has been suggested to us, that you have refused to issue an order directing the treasurer of the said city to pay certain sums of money, alleged to be due as follows, to-wit: The sum of six dollars, to the trustees of New Street Church, for two months' rent of school room; the sum of twenty dollars, to the trustees of North Church, for two months' rent of school room; the sum of seven dollars to the trustees of the Union Baptist Church, for one month's rent of school room; to Martha S. Whipple, the sum of twenty dollars, for one month's salary as teacher; to Peter Clarke, the sum of twenty dollars, for one month's salary as teacher; to William R. Casey, one month's salary as teacher, the sum of twenty dollars; to O. J. B. Nickens, the sum of sixty dollars, for two months' salary as teacher; the correctness of which several sums of money had been certified to you by the board of directors of common schools for the eastern and western districts of the city of Cincinnati. Now, therefore, we being willing that full and speedy justice should be done in the premises, do command you that you issue an order directing the treasurer of said city to pay the said several sums of money, so certified, as herein before stated, or that you appear before the judges of our supreme court, sitting within and for the said county of Hamilton, at the court-house in said county, on the 18th day of May, 1850, at nine o'clock a. m. of said day, to show cause why you refuse to do so.

Witness, Isaac G. Burnet, clerk of our supreme court, at Cincinnati, this 16th day of May, A. D. 1850.

Isaac G. Burnet, clerk.

State v. Cincinnati, 19 Ohio 178, 182.

IV. Return to Mandamus.

The answer of the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of _____ within mentioned.

We, the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty do humbly certify to the justices within mentioned, that the within named A. B. was not elected an (alderman) as by the within writ is within alleged; and therefore we could not cause him to be sworn nor admitted, as by that writ we were within commanded.

C. D., mayor (seal).

Return to Writ of Mandamus (b).

"To the honorable supreme court of the state of Texas:

"The district judge of the twenty-second judicial district of the state of Texas, for return to the alternative writ of mandamus heretofore issued by said court against him on application made by the bakers, says (here insert facts upon which respondent relies for refusing request of petitioner).

"Wherefore this respondent prays that the honorable court will make such order in the premises as shall be required by the law, and that this respondent may be hence dismissed.

"G. H. Noonan, respondent."

Garza v. Baker, 58 Tex. 483.

V. Peremptory Mandamus.

(Where a peremptory mandamus has been allowed after an alternative writ, the form will be the same as that of the first writ, adding after the words "as by his complaint we have understood" (or are here informed), the following: "and which complaint we have adjudged to be true, as appears to us of record;" omitting also the alternative clause to show cause. Where a peremptory writ is granted in the first instance, it is issued in the following form):

The people, etc., to the (judges of the court of common pleas, for the city and county of New York), greeting:

Whereas E. M. B. lately recovered a judgment for the sum of _____ dollars, against one I. G., which said judgment was entered of record in the said court of common pleas on the _____ day of _____ last; and upon which said judgment a writ of fieri facias was issued; and afterwards a levy made by virtue of the said fieri facias upon the goods and chattels of the said I. G., to-wit, on the _____ day of _____; and whereas we have been informed from the complaint of the said E., that a rule was granted by you during the last _____ term of the said court of common pleas, setting aside the said fieri facias, to the great damage and grievance of the said E.: We, therefore, being willing that due and speedy justice should be done to the said E. in this behalf, as it is reasonable, do command you, firmly enjoining you, that immediately after the receipt of this our writ, you do, without delay, vacate and cause to be vacated, the said rule granted by you at the said last _____ term of the said court of common pleas, that the same complaint may not, by your default, be again repeated to us; and how you shall have executed this our writ make known to us before our justices, at, etc., on, etc., next (the return day), then and there returning this our writ, upon peril that may fall thereon. Witness, etc. (teste as in the alternative writ).

VI. Judgment Record on Mandamus.

Pleas before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at the (capitol in the city of Albany), of the term of (January), in the year one thousand eight hundred and (forty-six).

Witness _____, esquire, Chief Justice.

_____, clerks.

State of New York, ss.: The people of the state of New York, sent to (the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of _____) their writ close in these words, to-wit: The people of the state of New York, etc. (here copy the mandamus, including the signatures, and then the return as follows):

The answer of the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of _____ within mentioned.

We, the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty, do humbly certify to the justices within mentioned, that the within named A. B., was not elected an (alderman) as by the within writ is within alleged; and therefore we could not cause him to be sworn nor admitted, as by that writ we were within commanded.

C. D., mayor (Seal).

(If the relator pleads to the return, and an issue in fact is produced thereon, the entries on the record will be as follows):

And now at this day, to-wit, on, etc., before the justices aforesaid, at, etc., come as well the said A. B., by E. F., his attorney, as the said mayor, alderman and commonalty, by G. H., their attorney. And the said A. B. by his said attorney says, that he was duly elected an (alderman of the _____ ward of the said city), as in the said writ is above alleged; and this the said A. B. prays may be inquired of by the country. And the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty, by their said attorney, do the like, etc.

Therefore the issue above joined is ordered by the said supreme court to be tried at, etc. (usual order for trial at the circuit).

Afterwards, to-wit, etc. (the postea is here entered in the usual form, to the words, "say upon their oaths;" after which the record proceeds as follows): that the said A. B. was duly elected an (alderman), in manner and form as by the said writ of mandamus is within alleged; and they assess the damages which the said A. B. hath sustained by reason of his not being sworn and admitted into the said office, as alleged in the said writ, over and above his costs and charges, by him about his suit in this behalf expended, at (five hundred) dollars, and for those costs and charges to six cents. Whereupon the said A. B. prays judgment, and also the people's writ of peremptory mandamus to be directed to the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty, commanding them to cause the said A. B. to be sworn and admitted into the said office of alderman, etc.

Therefore it is considered that the said A. B., recover against the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty, his damages aforesaid by the jurors aforesaid, in form aforesaid found, and also _____ dollars and _____ cents for his cost and charges, by the court now here adjudged of increase to the said A. B. and with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges, in the whole amount to _____ dollars and _____ cents; and it is further considered that the people's writ of peremptory mandamus do forthwith issue, directed to the said mayor, aldermen and commonalty, commanding them, upon pain and peril that shall fall thereon, to cause the said A. B. to be immediately sworn and admitted into the aforesaid office of alderman, according to the command of the said former writ of alternative mandamus, etc.

(If, instead of pleading, the relator demurs to the return, the record will resemble that on an ordinary demurrer.) Burr. App. 523, §1047.

VII. Executions.A. Execution on Mandamus for Relator.

The people, etc., to the sheriff, etc., greeting:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of, etc. (the parties against whom the writ issues) in your county you cause to be made _____ dollars and _____ cents, which lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, were adjudged to A. B. as well for his damages by him sustained by reason of his not being sworn and admitted into the office of (an alderman of the _____ ward of the city of _____), (or otherwise, according to the case), as for his costs and charges by him laid out and expended in and about the prosecution of our certain writ of mandamus in that behalf issued; and whereof the said (the parties proceeded against), are convicted, as appears to us of record; and if sufficient goods and chattels of the said, etc., cannot be found, then (of the real estate, etc., as in the ordinary fi. fa. to the end). Burr. App. 518, §1039a.

B. Execution for Defendant on Mandamus.

The people, etc., to the sheriff, etc.:

We command you, that of the goods and chattels of A. B. in your county, you cause to be made ——— dollars and ——— cents, which lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, were adjudged to (the parties against whom the writ was issued), for their costs and charges by them laid out and expended in and about their defense, to our certain writ of mandamus, and whereof the said A. B. is convicted, as appears to us of record: and if sufficient goods, etc. (as in the ordinary fi. fa.). Burr. App. 519, §1039b.

“The United States of America, ss. The president of the United States of America, to the president of the senate of the state of New York, the senators, chancellor and justices of the supreme court of the said state, being the judges of the court for the trial of impeachments and correction of errors, holden in and for the said state of New York, greeting:

“Whereas, lately, in the court for the trial of impeachments and correction of errors, holden in and for the state of New York, before you, or some of you, in a cause between Charles A. Davis, plaintiff in error, and Isaac Packard, Henry Disdier, and William Morphy, defendants in error;

the judgment of the said court for the trial of impeachments and correction of errors was in the following words, to-wit: ‘Therefore, it is considered by the said court for the correction of errors, that the judgment of the supreme court aforesaid be, and the same is hereby in all things affirmed. It is further considered that the said defendants in error recover, against the plaintiff in error, their double costs, according to the statute in such case made and provided, to be taxed in defending the writ of error in this cause, and also interest on the amount recovered, by way of damages,’ as by the inspection of the transcript of the record of the said court for the trial of impeachments and correction of errors, which was brought into the supreme court of the United States by virtue of a writ of error, agreeably to the act of congress in such case made and provided, fully and at large appears. And whereas, in the present term of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, the said cause came on to be heard before the said supreme court, on the said transcript of the record, and was argued by counsel; on consideration whereof, it is the opinion of this court that the plaintiff in error, being consul-general of the king of Saxony, exempted him from being sued in the state court; by reason whereof, the judgment rendered by the court for the trial of impeachments and correction of errors is erroneous. Whereupon, it is ordered and adjudged by this court that the judgment of the said court for the trial of impeachments and correction of errors be, and the same is hereby reversed; and that this cause be, and the same is hereby remanded to the said court, with directions to conform its judgment to the opinion of this court.

“You, therefore, are hereby commanded that such further proceedings be had in said cause, as according to right and justice, and in conformity to the opinion and judgment of said supreme court of the United States, and the laws of the United States, ought to be had, the said writ of error notwithstanding.

II. Mandate, Appellate Court to Common Pleas.

"District court, September Term, A. D. 1874.

"This day this cause came on to be heard upon the petition, transcript and record, and errors assigned, and was argued by counsel, and the court being fully advised in the premises, do find that there is error, and do order and adjudge that the judgment in the court of common pleas in favor of Elizabeth Morris, against the said David Stevenson and Elizabeth Stevenson, be, and the same is hereby, reversed and held for naught. And it is further ordered that this cause be remanded to the court of common pleas for further proceedings." Stevenson v. Morris, 37 Ohio St. 10.

III. Mandate from United States Supreme Court to District Court.

Mandate supreme court United States. United States of America, ss. To the president of the United States of America, to the honorable the judge of the district court of the United States for the northern district of California, greeting:

Whereas lately, in the district court of the United States for the northern district of California, before you, in a cause between the United States, appellants, and John C. Fremont, claimant and appellee; the decree of the said district court was in the following words, namely:

This cause coming on to be heard at the above stated term, on appeal from the final decision of the commissioners to ascertain and settle private land claims in the state of California, under the act of congress approved March 3, 1851, upon the transcript of the proceedings and decision, and the papers and evidence on which said decision was founded, and also upon the testimony and depositions taken before this court, and the arguments of counsel for the United States and for the claimant being heard, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the decision of the said commissioners be in all things reversed and annulled, and that the said claim be held invalid and rejected, "as by the inspection of the transcript of the record of the said district court which was brought into the supreme court of the United States, by virtue of an appeal agreeably to the act of congress in such cases made and provided, fully and at large appears.

And whereas in the present term of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, the said cause came on to be heard before the said supreme court on the said transcript of the record, and was argued by counsel, on consideration whereof it is the opinion of this court that the claim of the petitioner to the land as described and set forth in the record is a good and valid claim. Whereupon it is now here, ordered, adjudged, and decreed, by this court, that the decree of the said district court in this case be and the same is hereby reversed, and that this cause be and the same is hereby remanded to the said district court for further proceedings to be had therein, in conformity to the opinion of this court.

You, therefore, are hereby commanded that such further proceedings be had in said cause, in conformity to the opinion and decree of this court as according to right and justice, and the laws of the United States, ought to be had, the said appeal notwithstanding.

Witness the Honorable Roger B. Taney, chief justice of said supreme court, the first Monday of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

United States v. Fremont, 18 How. (U. S.) 30, 15 L. ed. 302.

IV. Mandate of State Supreme Court.

"And now, at this day, this cause being called, and having been heretofore argued and submitted, and taken under advisement by the court, and all and singular the law and premises being by the court here seen, heard, understood, and fully considered, the opinion of the court herein is delivered by Field, C. J., Cope, J., concurring, to the effect that the judgment of the court below be reversed, with directions to enter judgment for the plaintiff upon the special findings for the premises in controversy, pursuant to the prayer of the complaint.

"Whereupon it is now considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court here, that the judgment of the district court of the fourth judicial district, in and for the county of San Francisco, in the above-entitled cause, be and the same is hereby reversed with costs, and said court is directed to enter judgment for the plaintiff, upon the special findings for the premises in controversy, pursuant to the prayer of the complaint." Leese v. Clark, 28 Cal. 26.

Mandate of State Supreme Court (b).

"This cause having been presented for argument at the November term, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, of this court, and the case having been read, and as well the arguments of the counsel of the respective parties heard thereon, and the record and proceedings in the court below, together with the assignment of errors to this court having been duly considered and diligently examined, and time having been taken to determine the same, and mature deliberation having been had thereon, and this court being of opinion that, in the giving of judgment in this cause in the court below error exists—it is, therefore, at the present March term of this court ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said judgment of the Hunterdon circuit court in this cause must be reversed, and judgment rendered for the plaintiff for the amount of the check, with interest from the death of the testator; and that the writ, return, and record to this court, and the proceedings therein had, be remitted to the said circuit court; and that the costs in this court be taxed."

MARSHALING ASSETS.

Bill for Marshaling Assets.

Humbly complaining show unto your honors your orators, A. B. and C. D., of, etc. (creditors of S. M., late of, etc., deceased) on behalf of themselves, and all other unsatisfied creditors by simple contract of the said S. M., who shall come in and contribute to the expense of this suit. That the said S. M. was in his lifetime, and at his death, indebted to your orators, as co-partners, in the sum of $———, for business done by your orators for him, as his agents. And the said S. M. was also at his death, indebted to several other persons by simple contract or otherwise, in several other sums of money. And your orators further show unto your honors, that the said S. M. was, in his lifetime, and at the time of his decease, seised in fee simple of divers real estates, situate at —— (subject, as it is alleged, to an annuity of $——— payable to E. the wife of I. C. of, etc., who, together with her said husband, are two of the defendants hereinafter named); and was also possessed of considerable personal estate, and being so seized and possessed, duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, bearing date the —— day of —— (executed by him the said S. M., and attested in such manner as by law is required for devising real estates, whereby he devised all his said real estates to the said E. C. then E. F., for her life, with remainder to R. B. of, etc. (another defendant hereinafter named) then, and now an infant under the age of twenty-one years, his heirs and assigns forever; and the said testator thereby gave all his personal estate, after payment of his funeral and testamentary expenses and debts, with which he charged all his said personal and real estates, to the said I. C., who he thereby appointed sole executor of his said will, as by the said will and the probate copy thereof respectively, reference being thereunto had, will more fully appear. And your orators further show unto your honors, that the said testator departed this life on or about _____, without altering or revoking his said will, leaving I. M. of, etc., another defendant hereinafter named, his uncle and heir at law, and also leaving the said E. C., then E. F., and I. C. him surviving; and the said I. C. soon after the decease of the said testator, duly proved the said will in the proper court, and took upon himself the execution thereof, and under and by virtue of such probate, possessed himself of all, or most of the personal estate of the said testator. And your orators further show unto your honors, that the said E. C. upon, or soon after the death of the said testator, entered upon, and took possession of all his said real estates, and continued in possession thereof, until her marriage with the said I. C. (which happened some time ago), and ever since that time, the said I. C. in right of the said E. C. hath been, and now is, in the possession or receipt of the rents and profits of all the said estates devised to the said E. C. for her life. And your orators further show unto your honors, that the whole of your orators' said debts remain due and owing to them respectively, and they have therefore frequently requested the said I. C. to account with your orators, and such other unsatisfied creditors as aforesaid, for the personal estate of the said testator, and to apply the same in payment of their respective demands; and your orators hoped that the said personal estate would have been duly applied towards payment of the said debts, so far^{et}s the same would extend, and that any deficiency therein would have been supplied out of the said real estate: But now so it is, may it please your honors, the said I. C. combining with the said E., his wife, R. B. and I. M. (charge confederacy) has absolutely refused to pay any part of the said debts due to your orators as aforesaid, or the demand of such other unsatisfied creditors as aforesaid, pretending that all the said testator's personal estate received by him was not sufficient to satisfy the bond, and other specialty debts owing by the said testator, at the time of his death; and that he hath applied the same in discharge of such debts. Whereas, your orators charge, that the said testator's personal estate was more than sufficient to satisfy all his funeral and testamentary expenses and debts, as well those by specialty as by simple contract, and that it would so appear, if the said I. C. would set forth such account thereof as hereinafter required, but which he refuses to do; and your orators further charge, that if the said personal estate be insufficient for the payment of the specialty and simple contract debts of the said testator, then that the said specialty debts ought to be paid out of the said testator's real estates; and if the said personal estate, or any part thereof, has been applied in payment of any such specialty debts, then that your orators, and the other creditors by simple contract of the said testator, are entitled in equity to stand in the place of such specialty creditors against the said real estates, and to have a satisfaction thereout, for so much of the personal as has been, or shall be exhausted by payment of such specialty debts, and to have the said real estates, or a sufficient part thereof sold for that purpose, and also for the purpose of supplying any deficiency in the said personal estate, for the payment of any of the debts so charged by the said testator on his said real and personal estate as aforesaid: But the said I. C. and E., his wife, not only refuse to join in any such sale, but the said I. C. in right of the said E., his wife, claims to be interested in the said real estates, under the said devise thereof, unto the said E. C. for her life, and also on account of the said annuity of $_____ payable to the said E. C. as aforesaid, and oppose a sale of any part thereof, for the purposes aforesaid. And the said R. B. alleges that he is an infant, and therefore cannot join in any such sale as aforesaid; and the said I. M. as heir at law of the said testator, disputes the validity of the said will, and refuses his concurrence, if necessary, in any such sale as aforesaid. (Interrogate to the material parts of the statement and charges of this bill.) And that the said defendants I. C. and E., his wife, may set forth in manner aforesaid, a particular rental or account, of all and singular the real estates of which the said S. M. was seized of or entitled to at the time of his death; and where the same and every part thereof are, or is situate, and to whom let, and at what yearly, or other rent or rents; and also a particular account of the rents and profits of the said estates, received by or for the use of them, or either of them, since the death of the said testator. And that the said defendant I. C. may also set forth an account of the said testator's personal estate, and the amount and particulars thereof possessed by him, and what part thereof is now in his hands, and how much thereof has been disposed of by him in payment of the said testator's funeral and testamentary expenses and debts; and what debts, and to what amount, still remain unsatisfied; and whether they are debts by simple contract or specialty. And that an account may be taken, by and under the decree of this honorable court, of the said debt so due to your orators as such copartners as aforesaid, and all other debts which were owing by the said testator at the time of his death, and which still remain unpaid. And that an account may also be taken of the said testator's personal estate and effects received by, or for the use of the said I. C. as such executor as aforesaid; and that the personal estate and effects of the said testator may be applied in payment of his said debts in a due course of administration: And that so much thereof as shall remain, after payment of the said testator's debts by specialty, may be applied in or towards the payment of the said debt so due to your orators as aforesaid, and the debts, of all other unsatisfied creditors of the said testator, by simple contract, who shall come in and contribute to the expense of this suit, in proportion to their respective demands; and in case it shall appear, that the whole, or any part of the said testator's personal estate, has been exhausted, or applied in or towards the payment of his specialty debts, and that the residue thereof is not sufficient to answer the debts of your orators, and the said testator's other debts on simple contract; then that it may be declared that your orators and the other creditors by simple contract of the said testator, ought to stand in the place of the said testator's creditors by specialty, who have had, or shall have a satisfaction for their debts out of the said personal estate, and may have satisfaction out of the said real estate for so much of their respective debts as his personal estate shall be deficient to answer, by reason of the same having been exhausted or applied, in or towards the payment of his debts by specialty; and that the same may be decreed accordingly; and that the said real estates may be sold or mortgaged for that purpose; and that all proper parties may be decreed to join in such sale or mortgage; and that the money to arise from such sale or mortgage may be paid to your orators and the said other creditors by simple contract accordingly. And that your orators and the said other unsatisfied creditors by simple contract of the said testator, may have such further and other relief in the premises as to your honors may seem meet, and the circumstances of this case require. May it please, etc. (End by praying process of subpoena against I. C. and E., his wife, R. B. and I. M.) Curtis' Eq. Precedents 47.

granted for variance, no question as to sufficiency.

III. Complaint by Servant of Railroad Injured by Defective Machinery.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned, the defendants, a corporation duly organized under the laws of this state, were the owners of a certain railroad, known as _____ Railroad, together with the track, cars, locomotives, and other appurtenances there-to belonging.

II. That the plaintiff, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at the time of the committing of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, was in the employment of the defendants, as fireman upon a locomotive engine, the property of the defendants, driven by steam upon their road; and it was the duty of the defendants to provide a good, safe, and secure locomotive, with good, safe, and secure machinery and apparatus.

III. That yet the defendants, not regarding their duty, conducted themselves so carelessly, negligently, and unskilfully in this behalf, that they provided and used an unsafe, defective, and insecure locomotive, of which they had notice.

IV. That for want of due care and attention to their duty in that behalf, on the day and at the place aforesaid, and while the said locomotive was in the use and service of the defendants upon their said railroad, and while the plaintiff was on the same, in the capacity aforesaid, for the defendants, the boiler connected with the engine of the said locomotive, by reason of unsafeness, defectiveness, and insecurity thereof, exploded, whereby large quantities of steam and water escaped therefrom and fell upon the plaintiff.

V. That by reason thereof the plaintiff became, and for a long time remained, ill; and was obliged to, and did, expend about the sum of _____ dollars in attempting the cure of himself, and was for a number of weeks prevented from pursuing his business, and was otherwise injured, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 454.

IV. Complaint Against Employer for Breach of Agreement To Employ.

"And the plaintiff says that he is a machinist of great skill and long experience; that he was employed in business at Wailuku in the Sandwich Islands; that the defendant engaged him to abandon his said business and leave Wailuku and come to said Chicopee to take the position of a foreman in the employment and in the manufacturing establishment of the defendant as soon as he, said plaintiff, should reach Chicopee; that he, the plaintiff, in consequence of such engagement and by agreement with the defendant for such position as foreman at a good salary, did abandon his said business and come to Chicopee, and offered himself to the defendant ready to take the position as agreed upon, but the defendant utterly refused to employ him and would not receive him but turned him away, whereby the plaintiff lost much valuable time, was put to great expense and lost his business, which was of great value and profit to him." Noble v. Ames Mfg. Co., 112 Mass. 492.

V. Complaint, Action for Salary and Expenses on Wrongful Discharge.

"Comes now the plaintiff and for amended cause of action states that the defendant is a corporation doing a general clothing business in the city of Cincinnati, in the state of Ohio; that on the 1st day of December, 1894, the defendant entered into a written contract with plaintiff by which it agreed to employ the plaintiff for a period of one year from said date as a traveling salesman to sell defendant's goods, and agreed to pay plaintiff as a salary therefor $1,200 per year and agreed to pay the same monthly at $100 per month and to pay his traveling expenses incurred while transacting the business of defendant, which contract is filed herewith and made a part of this statement; that plaintiff entered upon the discharge of his duties under said contract and worked for the defendant from the 1st day of December, 1894, and up to the 14th day of November, 1895, as traveling salesman for the defendant in the sale of its goods in the territory assigned to him by the defendant; that on said 14th day of November, 1895, the defendant discharged plaintiff and ordered him to send in his samples and notified him that his services were no longer wanted by defendant; that plaintiff was ready and willing at all times to fulfil his contract with defendant, but was prevented from doing so by defendant as aforesaid; that defendant paid to plaintiff for his services so rendered, the following amounts, to-wit: (here follows an itemized statement of credits, being the same as set out in the amended statement filed with justice with the addition of the item 'By voluntary credit $50') leaving a balance due from defendant to plaintiff for the last three months' services in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for which amount he asks judgment and for costs." Hansard v. Menderson Cloth. Co., 73 Mo. App. 584.

VI. Complaint, Action Against Third Person for Wrongfully Procuring Plaintiff's Discharge.

That the plaintiff, on August 23, 1890, was employed as a laborer by Waldo L. Pevear at Lynn; and that the said Pevear was entirely satisfied with the services rendered by him, and that the said defendant maliciously and wilfully, and with intent to prevent said plaintiff from having employment, influenced, persuaded, and induced said Pevear to discharge plaintiff from his said employment, thereby materially injuring the plaintiff in his business and prospects, and wrongfully deprived him of the means of obtaining a living." Lombard v. Lennox, 155 Mass. 70, 28 N. E. 1125.

VII. Complaint for Wrongful Discharge After Agreement To Employ in Consideration of Release for personal Injuries.

"The plaintiff James Dolan complains of the defendant, the Pennsylvania Company, and for cause of action says that the defendant company was, on the days and times of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, a railroad corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Indiana, owning, using and operating a line of railroad known as the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis Railroad, together with its locomotives, cars, switches, side-tracks and other appurtenances thereto belonging, at the county of Clark, in said State; that on the 9th day of January, 1890, the plaintiff was in the service of the defendant, in the capacity of yard brakeman, at said county; that the defendant required of him, as a part of his duties as such brakeman, to couple and uncouple cars and assist in removing and transferring them from place to place on the defendant's track, in defendant's yard, and in the coupling and uncoupling of said cars the duties of plaintiff required him to pass in between them while they were in motion; that while the plaintiff was then and there engaged in the services of defendant in the line of his employment, and in the act of coupling defendant's cars, he received a permanent injury of his right hand, causing the loss of his thumb and forefinger, and, as a result thereof, permanently lost the natural and proper use and strength of his right hand and arm, and caused him thereby to suffer great pain in body and mind, and put him to great expense for medical and surgical aid and nursing in trying to cure himself of said injuries; that said injury was caused by the negligent failure of the defendant in knowingly allowing and permitting the draw-heads and dead-woods attached to said cars to become broken and out of repair, and also in allowing and permitting the dead-woods to be and remain in uneven height on said cars, thereby rendering it very dangerous and hazardous to couple the same, which facts were well known to the defendant and unknown to the plaintiff; that said injury was caused by the negligence of the defendant, and without any fault or negligence on the part of the plaintiff; that by reason of said injury the defendant became liable to plaintiff in damages in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000); that at the time of receiving said injury plaintiff was earning and receiving from the defendant for his services the sum of two dollars per day for his said services; that the said injury rendered the plaintiff unfit and unable to continue in the service of the defendant as yard brakeman, and he was, for that reason, discharged from the service and pay of the defendant by the defendant; that thereafter, to-wit, on the 31st day of January, 1890, the plaintiff called on the defendant and demanded of defendant the amount due him for said injuries, and requested the payment thereof; that defendant then promised and agreed to pay plaintiff therefor in full settlement and satisfaction for said debt and injury the sum of one hundred dollars in money and receive him back into their service, and re-employ him and give him a job of steady and permanent employment, and pay him therefor an amount per day for his services equal to the amount he was earning and receiving at the time of his severe injury; that said sum of one hundred dollars would be paid at once, and that he should be employed as soon as he was sufficiently recovered from his severe injuries as to be able to work; that the defendant required, as a condition to said promise and agreement, and as a further consideration therefor, the plaintiff should sign and execute a release to defendant, releasing defendant from all liability for damages and all claims and rights whatever growing out of said injury, and relinquishing all claims and rights to bring suit therefor; that the defendant promised and agreed that all the said promises and agreements would be faithfully and honestly carried out and performed by defendant in the event that the said promises, agreements and conditions were accepted by plaintiff. It was further provided and agreed by the parties that the said promises and agreements, when carried out and performed by defendant, should operate and be in full satisfaction and payment to plaintiff of all debts, damages and causes of action growing out of, or which might arise by reason of, said injury in any way. The plaintiff then accepted of said promises, agreements and conditions in full satisfaction and payment of his injuries; that afterwards, to-wit, on the ——— day of February, 1890, in pursuance of said promises, agreements, conditions and acceptance thereof as aforesaid, the plaintiff and defendant, at the office of the defendant, in the city of Jeffersonville, in said county, and the defendant then and there, for the purpose of carrying out the said promises and agreements, paid to plaintiff the sum of one hundred dollars as a partial payment of the same, and the plaintiff then and there accepted of defendant the said sum of one hundred dollars as a partial payment and satisfaction of the promises and agreements of the defendant as agreed, and the plaintiff then and there signed and executed to defendant the release required by the defendant and agreed to by the parties as aforesaid, and to the full and complete satisfaction of the defendant, which release was received and accepted by defendant and is now in its possession; that afterwards, to-wit, on the first day of March, 1890, when plaintiff had sufficiently recovered of his said injuries as to be able to go to work, he called on the defendant and notified it of that fact, and demanded that the defendant re-employ him; whereupon defendant at once employed him and gave him a job of flagging its trains, in which employment defendant kept and retained him about three months, when, without any cause or fault on the part of the plaintiff, the defendant discharged him from its services and pay, without giving any cause or reason to plaintiff for so doing; that during all the time of said three months' re-employment the plaintiff honestly and faithfully and properly discharged all the duties assigned him; that ever since the discharge of the plaintiff last above named the defendant has refused, and now refuses, to receive the plaintiff back into its service and give him a job of steady and permanent employment, or give him employment of any kind, or pay him any money, though often requested by plaintiff to do so; that the plaintiff was able, ready and willing to continue in the service of defendant, at flagging trains, and is now, and has been at all times, able, ready and willing to flag trains, or do and perform any other service for defendant within his power to do, all of which facts, now and during all of said time, were well known to defendant; by reason of which facts and grievances plaintiff has, during all of said time, been out of employment and unable to earn any money, and has suffered great loss and damage thereby, in the sum of five thousand dollars; that the plaintiff has done and performed all the conditions, promises and agreements on his part to be done and performed by him in the premises as hereinbefore stated; that the defendant has failed and refuses to do and perform its promises and agreements in manner and form as above stated and set out. Wherefore," etc. The Pennsylvania Co. v. Dolan, 6 Ind. App. 109, 32 N. E. 802.

VIII. Notice to Employer of Injury.

"Please take notice that Charles Dolan, of Ayer, Mass., while at work in your employ was injured on the twelfth day of March, A. D. 1888, in the leach-room of your tannery at Ayer, Mass., by reason of the falling in of the roof thereof and the falling of the steam pipes therein, said roof and steam pipes both falling upon said Dolan. Corcoran and Parker, Attorneys for Charles Dolan." Dolan v. Alley, 153 Mass. 380, 26 N. E. 989.

Note.—The question was on sufficiency of signature by attorneys.

IX. Indictment for Enticing Servant Under Contract To Leave Employer.

"The jurors upon their oath present, that H. L. Harwood and L. B. White, late of the county of Wayne, on the 19th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at and in the county aforesaid, unlawfully and wilfully did entice, persuade and procure Will Humphrey, Sam Womble and Wayland Tutor, servants, who had heretofore contracted with the Wayne Agricultural Works—a company incorporated under the laws of North Carolina—to serve said Wayne Agricultural Works as servants and laborers, which contract was then in force and subsisting, to unlawfully leave the service of the said Wayne Agricultural Works (the employers aforesaid of the said servants Will Humphrey, Sam Womble and Wayland Tutor), against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State." State v. Harwood, 104 N. C. 724, 10 S. E. 171.

X. Indictment, Intimidation of Employee.

That the defendant, on July 13, 1879, at Fall River, "one Horace S. Andrews (did) unlawfully and wilfully (intimidate, and did seek to intimidate), and by force and intimidation did seek to prevent from continuing in the employment of a corporation, to-wit, the Weetamoe Mills, a corporation then and there duly incorporated under the laws of said commonwealth and having its usual place of business in said Fall River, he the said Horace S. Andrews being then and there employed by and in the employment of said corporation as a spinner in the mill of said corporation; against the peace of said commonwealth and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided." Com. v. Dyer, 128 Mass. 70.

- I. Indictment for Mayhem at Common Law.

Essex, to-wit. The jurors for our lord the king upon their oath present that A. B., late of ———, in the parish of ———, in the county of ———, laborer, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, on the ——— day of ———, in the ——— year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the third, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland king, defender of the faith, with force and arms, at the parish of ——— aforesaid, in the county of ——— aforesaid, in and upon one C. D., in the peace of God and our said lord the king then and there being, feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault. And that the said A. B., with a certain sword made of iron and steel, of the value of five shillings, which he the said A. B. then and there had and held in his right hand, the arm of him the said C. D. feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did strike and cut; and that the said A. B., with the sword aforesaid, by the striking and cutting aforesaid, did then and there the right hand from the arm of him the said C. D. cut and sever, and did him the said C. D., by the cutting and severing of the right hand from the arm of him the said C. D. aforesaid, then and there feloniously maim. And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say that the said A. B. him the said C. D., in the manner and by the means (or in manner and form) aforesaid (or in the conclusion of a second or subsequent count, last aforesaid), feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, did feloniously maim, against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity.

Compiled by writer from 3 Chit. Cr. L. 750, 751, 757, according to id. 357.

II. Indictment for Mayhem Under Statute, Disfiguring Thumb.

"In and upon one Walter Westlake, in the peace of God and of the people of the state, then and there being, wilfully and feloniously and with premeditated design, did make an assault, and that the said Owen Tully with the teeth of him, the thumb of him, the said Walter Westlake, then and there wilfully and feloniously and from premeditated design, did cut, bite, slit and destroy on purpose, with intent, then and there and thereby, in manner aforesaid, the said Walter Westlake then and there to maim and disfigure, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided," etc. Tully v. People, 67 N. Y. 15.

III. Indictment for Mayhem, Injury to Private Parts.

"For that the said Thomas J. Kitchens on the 30th day of May, in the year 1887, in the county aforesaid, did then and there, unlawfully and with force and arms, wilfully and maliciously injure, wound and disfigure the private parts of one Janie Toler, the said Janie Toler then and there being a female, with intention then and there to disfigure said private parts by then and there with a certain knife cutting said private parts." Kitchens v. State, 80 Ga. 810, 7 S. E. 209.

Note.—It is held to be unnecessary to do more than describe the offense in the language of the statute, or so plainly as to be easily understood by the jury.

I. Complaints.

- A. Complaint by Contractor for Building Materials.

The complaint of the plaintiff, filed pursuant to an order of this court, made on the _____ day of _____, 18—, shows:

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, this plaintiff, by virtue of a contract with the defendant, sold and delivered to the defendant certain building materials, consisting of _____, of the value of _____ dollars; the quantity and value of which is set forth in the bill of particulars herein.

II. That by the terms of said contract and sale, the said sum became due on the _____ day of _____, 18—, but the defendant has not paid the same.

III. That the said materials were used in erecting a building and appurtenances upon the following described premises, to-wit (describe the premises).

IV. That the said premises were, at the time of making said contract of sale, and until the filing the notice of lien hereinafter mentioned, the property of the defendant.

V. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, and after performance of said contract, the plaintiff duly filed with the clerk of the city and county of New York (or clerk of _____ county), a notice of lien claimed upon said premises for the indebtedness aforesaid; which said notice was duly verified, and specified the amount of the claim as above stated, and specified the defendant as the person against whom the claim was made, and as the owner of said premises, which were therein described by the street (and number) of the building.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment, directing a sale of the interest of the defendant, in the premises, building and appurtenances above described, to the extent of the right of defendant on the _____ day of _____, 18— (date of filing the notice of lien), and directing that the proceeds of such sale be applied to the payment of the costs of these proceedings, and to the payment of this plaintiff's claim aforesaid (and that the residue of such proceeds, if any, be paid to the clerk of the city and county of New York, to abide the further order of the court); and that if the proceeds of such sale shall not be sufficient to discharge the costs and claim aforesaid, this plaintiff have leave to docket a transcript of judgment against the defendant for any such sum as may remain due. 1 Abb. Forms 522.

Note.—Compare form with present statutes.

Order in commencement mentioned is local practice only.

B. Complaint by Subcontractor, Against Owner and Contractor, for Labor.

The complaint of the plaintiff, filed pursuant to an order of this court, made on the _____ day of _____, 18—, shows:

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendant W. X. (contractor) entered into a contract with the defendant Y. Z. (owner) for the erection of a building and appurtenances upon the premises hereinafter described; by the terms of which contract it was agreed that (state substance of terms of contract; or say, which contract was as follows, to-wit: and give copy).

II. State performance of contract by contractor so far as to show indebtedness of owner to contractor, and aver such indebtedness, specifying its amount.

III. That between the _____ day of _____, 18—, and the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff, in pursuance of an agreement theretofore entered into by him with the defendant W. X. (contractor), and in conformity with the terms of the contract above mentioned, performed (state kind of labor performed), to the value of _____ dollars, the nature, amount, and value of which labor are set forth in the bill of particulars herein.

IV. That by the terms of the agreement between the plaintiff and the defendant W. X. (contractor) said sum became due on the _____ day of _____, 18—, but he has not paid the same.

V. That said labor was performed in erecting a building and appurtenances upon the following described premises: (describe premises).

VI. That the said premises were, at the time when said labor was performed, and until the filing the notice of lien hereinafter mentioned, the property of the defendant Y. Z. (owner).

VII. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff duly filed with the clerk of the city and county of New York (or, clerk of _____ county), a notice of lien claimed upon said premises for the indebtedness aforesaid, which notice was duly verified, and specified the amount of the claim as above stated, and specified the defendant (owner's name) as the person against whom the claim was made, and as the owner of said premises, which were therein described by the street (and number) of the building.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment directing a sale of the interest of the defendant Y. Z. (owner), in the premises, building, and appurtenances above described, to the extent of the right of said defendant on the _____ day of _____, 18____ (date of filing the notice of lien), and directing that the proceeds of such sale be applied to the payment of the costs of these proceedings, and to the payment of the plaintiff's claim aforesaid (and that the residue of such proceeds, if any, be paid to the clerk of the city and county of New York, to abide the further order of the court); and prays judgment, in addition, against the defendant Y. Z. (contractor) for the sum of _____ dollars (the amount of the plaintiff's claim), with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18____, together with the costs of these proceedings. 1 Abb. Forms 524.

Note.—In preparing complaint on subcontractor's lien have regard to whether the statutes of the particular state give the lien by subrogation or as a direct lien.

C. Complaint To Set Aside Fraudulent Lien.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant Y. Z., conspiring with the other defendants before named to defraud the plaintiff, filed a notice of lien against said W. as owner, and said X. as the person against whom said claim is made, upon the said building and premises, and for the sum of _____ dollars.

II. That neither the said sum, nor any sum whatsoever, was or at any time will be owing to said Y. Z., as in said notice of lien pretended; and that said Y. Z. has been fully paid for all labor he has done or caused to be done upon said building and appurtenances, and he has no legal or just claim against the defendant X., or any other person for any labor done or materials furnished in or about the same; and that said lien, if allowed to stand, would wholly defeat the claim and lien of the plaintiff.

Insert, in demand of relief: and that the lien filed by said Y. Z., on the _____ day of _____, 18____, be adjudged fraudulent and void, and be set aside; and that said Y. Z. pay the costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 525.

II. Notice of Lien by Subcontractor.

"I, Leonard A. Getchell, of Boston, in the county of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on oath do certify that I have performed and caused to be performed labor as a carpenter on a certain house situated in the Charlestown district of said Boston, said house being a double wooden house and situated on a lot of land (describing it by metes and bounds), being the premises conveyed to John P. Moran by Sampson Warren, by deed dated May 9, 1874, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, book 1211, page 181; that the said lot and building are owned, or believed by me to be owned, by John P. Moran, of Chelsea, in said county. And I further certify that I have a claim and lien upon said house and the appurtenances thereto belonging, and the lot of land on which said house stands, and the interest of the owner or owners thereof, to secure the amount due me for labor performed, with interest, and all costs and expenses of enforcing said lien. And I further certify that said labor was performed in pursuance of a contract made by him with one J. H. Staples, of said Chelsea, and that said Staples was duly authorized to make said contract by said J. P. Moran; and I further certify that my contract with said Staples was to labor and furnish labor by the day on said house, and to receive therefor a just and reasonable sum per day; and in accordance therewith I performed and caused to be performed labor amounting to $102, and there is due therefor the sum of $72.

I further certify that I ceased to labor and cause labor to be performed on said house on the first day of August, A. D. 1874, and that the account hereto annexed is a just and true account, and that the credit therein given is the only credit." Getchell v. Moran, 124 Mass. 404.

III. Answers.

A. Answer, Denial of Plaintiff's Employment.

"He denies that he ever directly or indirectly employed the plaintiff, or had any contract relation, express or implied, with him or any one of the several persons named in the petition as assignors, to him of claims for work, or that he is in any manner indebted or liable to him or them for wages or anything else.

"Further answering he says, some days prior to April 19, 1893, this defendant became the owner of a valid claim against Mullen for the sum of $82.00 then past due, and for the purpose and with the intent of getting payment and satisfaction of that amount he engaged Mullen to paint his building at the agreed price of $80.00. Defendant had no knowledge or information that Mullen, being himself a working painter, would employ any other person to work on the job. After the work was done Mullen was not satisfied with the set-off, and refused to accept a satisfaction of the $82.00 claimed against himself in payment of the $80.00 claimed, though admitting the validity of the account and his obligation to pay, and thereupon set on foot schemes to avoid the set-off." Stark v. Simmons, 54 Ohio St. 435, 43 N. E. 999.

Note.—In case of sub-contractors, regard must be had to whether they take by subrogation or by direct lien.

B. Answer, That Lien Not Filed Within Prescribed Time.

"Deponent is informed and believes, and expects to be able to prove that the claimants furnished no materials of the nature and kind in said claim mentioned, namely, hardware, for and towards the erection and construction of the said house against which the said claim is filed, described in the said claim and the scire facias issued thereon, within six months of the time of the filing of said claim, but that the said hardware and materials were furnished for and towards the erection and construction of said house described in said claim and in the scire facias as aforesaid more than six months prior to the filing of said claim, to-wit, before the first day of January, A. D. 1891." Shannon v. Broadbent, 162 Pa. 194, 29 Atl. 865.

IV. Execution on Judgment on Mechanic's Lien.

"The state of Missouri, to the sheriff of Jackson county, greeting. Whereas, Joseph H. Fink and John H. Schmidt, on the 29th day of October, A. D. 1887, at our circuit court of Jackson county, at Kansas City, hath recovered judgment against O. L. Remick and John M. Stone for the sum of three hundred and forty-five 40-100 ($345.40-100) dollars which to the said Joseph H. Fink and John H. Schmidt was adjudged as aforesaid and also for other costs, which said judgment is a special judgment in words and figures as follows, to-wit: This cause is submitted to the court and the court finds the allegations in the petition to be true and that defendant O. L. Remick and John M. Stone owe and are indebted to plaintiffs as set forth in the petition for the material had and used by them on five (5) two story buildings on lots three (3), four (4), and five (5), in block eight (8), Rice's Addition to Kansas City, Missouri, owned by Robert H. Hunt, for whom said Remick and Stone erected said buildings under a contract therefor with said Hunt, and further finds that plaintiffs have done all things required to secure a statutory lien for said debt on said property. It is therefore considered and adjudged that plaintiffs have a recovery of O. L. Remick and John M. Stone, three hundred and forty-five 40-100 dollars for their debt, together with the costs of this suit, and if no property of said Remick and Stone sufficient to satisfy said debt and costs be found, that the same or the residue thereof be levied upon and made out of lots three (3), four (4), and five (5), block eight (8), Rice's Addition to the City of Kansas, Jackson county, Missouri. These are therefore to command you that of the goods, chattels and real estate of the said O. L. Remick and John M. Stone, you cause to be made the sum aforesaid adjudged against them, together with the costs, and if no sufficient property of the said Remick and Stone can be found out of which to make the aforesaid judgment, you cause to be made out of the property charged with the lien thereof as aforesaid under a claim by R. H. Hunt and that you have the same before the judge of our said court on the first day of next January term thereof to satisfy the judgment and costs aforesaid and that you certify how you executed this writ. Wherefore L. F. McCoy, clerk of our said court hath the seal thereof hereto affixed at office in Kansas City, this sixteenth day of November, A. D. 1887. L. F. McCoy, clerk, by D. M. McClanahan, deputy clerk." Fink v. Remick, 33 Mo. App. 624.

"For second amended complaint the plaintiff complains and alleges that it is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of Ohio and is a citizen of the state of Ohio; that the defendants are and each of them is a citizen of the state of Colorado; and that the property in controversy exceeds the value of $500.

"Plaintiff further alleges that on the 21st day of June, 1865, one Joseph Coley and one George C. Reeves, each being a citizen of the United States, went upon the public domain and the United States theretofore wholly unoccupied and unclaimed and located on said day a tunnel and tunnel site at the base of Glacier mountain, in Snake river mining district, county of Summit, state of Colorado.

"That afterwards and on the same day they marked the boundaries of their said location and commenced to run a tunnel into said Glacier mountain, and, after fully complying with the laws of the United States, the laws of the state of Colorado, and the local rules and regulations of the said Snake river mining district, they caused to be made out and recorded in the recorder's office of the county of Summit aforesaid a location certificate of said tunnel claim, which said certificate described the location and boundaries of said tunnel claim.

"That from the day of said location until the ouster hereinafter set forth the said locators of said tunnel claim and their grantees remained continuously in possession of said tunnel claim, working and mining thereon, and have expended thereon more than the sum of $5000.

"That the plaintiff is the owner of the said tunnel claim above described by location and purchase, and is now entitled to the quiet and peaceable and exclusive possession thereof by virtue of a full compliance on its part and on the part of its grantors with the laws, rules, and customs above set forth; that the plaintiff and its grantors have been in the peaceable and undisputed possession of said tunnel claim, by virtue of such location, occupation, preemption, and record, for more than five years prior to the ouster hereinafter complained of.

"That plaintiff and its grantors, for more than five consecutive years prior to the acts of the defendants hereinafter mentioned, paid all taxes legally or otherwise assessed upon said tunnel claim, and have worked and mined the same from said 21st day of June, 1865, up to the time of the acts of the defendants hereinafter set forth.

"That the said tunnel claim so located embraces many valuable lodes or veins which have been discovered, worked, and mined by the plaintiff and its grantors.

"That the said tunnel claim was by its locators named the Silver Gate tunnel claim, and is described more fully as follows: Commencing at the base of said Glacier mountain east of Bear creek, and running southeast and parallel with Coley tunnel through said mountain five thousand feet from the mouth or starting point of said tunnel at a stake marked and in or at the mouth of said Silver Gate tunnel and two hundred and fifty feet northeast and two hundred and fifty feet southwest from said stake or tunnel to its termination.

"Said tunnel site is situated on Glacier mountain, in Snake river mining district, county of Summit and state of Colorado, and is five thousand feet in length by five hundred feet in width.

"Plaintiff further alleges that while it was in the quiet and peaceful possession of said tunnel claim and every part thereof the defendants, wrongfully and without right and without consent of the plaintiff, to-wit, on or about the 2d day of July, 1883, entered upon the premises and into said tunnel so run by plaintiff and its grantors on said claim, and wrongfully and unlawfully ousted the plaintiff therefrom, claiming said tunnel as the War Eagle.

"That on or about said last mentioned date the defendants, without right, made a pretended location of a lode claim across said tunnel and within said tunnel claim, and therein wrongfully ousted the plaintiff therefrom, claiming that they had discovered a lode which they called the Tempest lode.

"That the defendants have been ever since hitherto unlawfully and wrongfully withheld the possession of the said premises and tunnel claim from the plaintiff, to its damage in the sum of $1000.

"Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants—

"(1) For the recovery of the possession of said Silver Gate tunnel, tunnel site, and claim.

"(2) For the sum of $1000 damages for the wrongful withholding thereof.

"(3) For costs of suit." Glacier, etc. Min. Co. v. Willis, 127 U. S. 471, 8 Sup. Ct. 1214, 32 L. ed. 172.

II. Complaint, Injury to Surface Support Caused by Mine.

Said plaintiff is the owner of a tract of surface land, containing about fifty-one acres, and overlying the coal works or mines of the defendant, in Allen township, Washington county, Pennsylvania, on which tract of land, prior to the committing of the trespasses hereinafter complained of, there were a well and three never-failing springs of water. The surface of said tract was suitable for grazing and agricultural purposes and was so used by said plaintiff. There was also on said tract a two story brick dwelling house thirty-three by eighteen feet with cellar underneath, all in good repair and the walls perfectly sound. Plaintiff further states that said defendant negligently and carelessly mined out the coal underlying said tract of land, whereby the said well and springs thereon were taken away and destroyed, the said surface cracked and damaged. Plaintiff also states that said defendant mined out the coal underlying said surface and took away the natural support thereof and allowed the same to be and remain without support, either natural or artificial, whereby the plaintiff's said surface has been caused to settle and crack, taking away and destroying the said well and three springs and leaving the said surface destitute of the water which is necessary thereon for domestic and grazing purposes; and rendering said surface unsafe for grazing purposes; and injuring and damaging said surface for agricultural and any other purposes for which the same is available. Plaintiff also states that by reason of the lack of support to said surface as aforesaid, the foundation and house walls of said dwelling house have been caused to crack in numerous places, whereby the said walls have been thrown out of plumb and said house rendered unsafe for use as a dwelling house and otherwise damaged. Pringle v. Vesta Coal Co., 172 Pa. 438, 33 Atl. 690.

MISCEGENATION.

I. Indictments, 829

II. Complaint (Criminal), 829

I. Indictment for Miscegenation (a.)

The indictment charges that "Tony Pace, a negro or the descendant of a negro to the third generation inclusive, a man, and Mary Ann Cox, a white woman, did live together in a state of adultery or fornication." Pace v. State, 69 Ala. 231, 44 Am. Rep. 513.

Indictment for Miscegenation (b.)

The indictment in this case charges "that on March 18, A. D. 1875, in the county of Gregg and state aforesaid, one Charles Frasher, late of the said county, being then and there a white man, did then and there unlawfully, knowingly, and feloniously marry a negro, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state." Frasher v. State, 3 Tex. App. 263, 30 Am. Rep. 131.

Note.—The indictment was approved but the case reversed for error in instructions. Indictment should name other party to marriage.

II. Complaint for Miscegenation.

"I, T. C. Miller, do solemnly swear, that Thomas Dodson and Mrs. _____

Dodson, in said county of Pulaski, did on the first day of March, 1891, live and cohabit together as husband and wife, he being a negro man and she being a white woman, in violation of the statutory laws of the state of Arkansas; and pray a warrant from T. W. Wilson, justice of the peace for said county, to apprehend and bring said Thomas Dodson before said justice, to be dealt with according to law." Dodson v. State, 61 Ark. 57, 31 S. W. 977.

N. one quarter's rent of the house then occupied by the defendant (or, otherwise show what the debt was).

II. That this plaintiff, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, duly demanded payment of the same from the defendant, but no part thereof has been paid (or, no part thereof has been paid, except—amount of payment made, if any). 1 Abb. Forms 166.

E. Complaint, Paid Money to Third Person at Defendant's Request.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____ (at _____), at the request of the defendant, the plaintiff paid to one M. N. _____ dollars.

II. That in consideration thereof, the defendant promised to repay the same to the plaintiff (on demand).

III. That (on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the plaintiff demanded payment of the same from the defendant, but) he has not repaid the same. 1 Abb. Forms 165.

F. Complaint, Money Received, Common Form.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____ (or, at sundry times between the _____ day of _____, and the _____ day of _____, at _____), the defendant received from one M. N. (or, received from the plaintiff, and as his agent, or, otherwise) the sum of _____ dollars, to the use of the plaintiff.

II. That thereafter, and before this action, the plaintiff demanded payment thereof from the defendant.

III. That he has not paid any part thereof (except the sum of _____ dollars). 1 Abb. Forms 173.

G. Complaint for Money Received Contrary to Statute.

That defendant is (or, where he is sued as executor or administrator, the defendant's testator was, or, intestate was, before his death) indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of _____ dollars (the sum received, or, value of goods received), whereby an action accrued to the plaintiff, according to the provisions of the statute regulating the interest on money (or, against betting and gaming, or otherwise stating its subject). 1 Abb. Forms 175.

MONOPOLIES.

Declaration on the Case by Manufacturer Injured by Monopoly.

"That, for six years prior to the committing of the grievances complained of, plaintiff was a manufacturer and dealer in bricks, and was the owner and possessed of certain lands and buildings at Hobart, Indiana, which were in use by him as such manufacturer, and which had been acquired and equipped for said business of manufacturing brick at an expenditure of $50,000; that during said period the plaintiff was engaged in the manufacture of brick and selling the same almost exclusively in Cook county, Illinois, and was in receipt of large profits, and especially from having a market for said brick in said Cook county; that during said time the Chicago Masons' & Builders' Association was a corporation in said Cook county and had among its members about two-thirds of all persons and firms then engaged in said county in the business of constructing brick and mason work and in purchasing and obtaining supplies of brick to be used in said county; that the membership of said corporation comprised substantially all the responsible and reliable persons or firms engaged in the business aforesaid in said Cook county; that during said period the members of said association constructed 95 per cent. of the brick and mason work in said county, and plaintiff made sales of substantially all of the brick of his manufacture, and all that could be manufactured at his said plant, to members of said association, from which he derived profits of $10,000 per year; that the defendant J. C. Thompson is and was a member and president of said association; that during said period there was in said county a voluntary organization of individuals known as the Brick Manufacturers' Association of Chicago, comprising 95 per cent. of the manufacturers of brick in said county; that the members of said association were manufacturers of, and dealers in, and sellers of brick in said county; that the defendants D. V. Purington, William H. Weekler, Adam J. Weekler, Frederick W. La Bahn, Louis Rehmer, P. J. Sexton, Edwin T. Harland, Charles Harmes, and William Schlake were during said period, and still are, members of said association and engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling brick; that during said period there was in said county a voluntary association known as the Bricklayers' Union, comprising 98 per cent. of the competent bricklayers of said county; that, while the plaintiff was lawfully conducting his business as a manufacturer of, and dealer in, brick, the defendants, wrongfully and unlawfully conspiring, etc., to injure the plaintiff in his business and to deprive him of the legitimate profits thereof, wrongfully and corruptly conspired and agreed among themselves, and caused to be agreed by said Masons' & Builders' Association and the members thereof, that such members should not purchase, nor be permitted to purchase, any brick to be used by them, or any of them, from any person, firm, or corporation, except as such as had subscribed to the rules and regulations of said Masons' & Builders' Association, to which said rules and regulations the plaintiff was under no obligations to subscribe; that said Bricklayers' Union wrongfully and corruptly took action assuming to bind and pledge its members not to handle or lay any brick manufactured by any person who had not subscribed to the rules and regulations of said Masons' & Builders' Association, which said action or pledge was accepted and acted upon by the members of said union and defendants; that after the making of said agreements and pledges, and with the unlawful purpose of injuring, etc., the plaintiff's business, and of preventing and precluding him from conducting his said business in Cook county with profit, the defendants procured persons to go to customers of plaintiff, and to attend at the places where brick of the plaintiff were bought to be used in constructing buildings in said county, and then and there wrongfully represented to the said customers and said workmen employed to lay and work with brick of the plaintiff that, if said customers should purchase, or said workmen use, brick manufactured by plaintiff, such customers and workmen would be prevented from completing or proceeding with any building or structure upon which it was proposed to use the brick of plaintiff; that, in furtherance of their unlawful conspiracy in that behalf, the defendants have, by wrongful threats and the imposition of fines upon persons dealing in or using the brick of plaintiff in said county, prevented sundry customers of plaintiff from purchasing brick from plaintiff, and from completing contracts in which such brick would have been used, and have prevented workmen from laying or using plaintiff's brick, and have made wrongful and malicious threats, whereby customers of plaintiff have been deterred from buying or using plaintiff's brick; that, by means of said several agreements and said wrongful, unlawful, and malicious acts and interference of the defendants and the aforesaid unlawful conspiracy in that behalf, the plaintiff has been wholly deprived of the sales of brick in said county which he otherwise would have had, and has been and is unable to dispose of and sell his brick in said county, and has lost and been deprived of divers large gains and profits, etc., and, by means of the premises, the business of the plaintiff has been greatly damaged and rendered less profitable, and the value of his lands and buildings greatly depreciated, to the damage of the plaintiff in the sum of $100,000." Purington v. Hinchliff, 219 Ill. 159, 76 N. E. 47, 2 L. R. A. (N. S.) 824.

I. Foreclosure.A. Bills.

1. Bill for Foreclosure, Mortgagor in Possession.

Humbly complaining, shows unto your honors your orator R. S., of, etc., that on the, etc., P. J., of, etc. (one of the defendants hereinafter named), being, or pretending to be, seized in fee of a certain parcel of real estate, situate, etc., and bounded, etc., and having occasion for the loan of a sum of money, applied to your orator to lend him the sum of $———, and in order to secure the repayment of the same, with interest, proposed to mortgage to your orator the said real estate. And your orator further shows unto your honors that your orator did comply with the request of the said P. J., and did accordingly lend him the said sum of $———, and for securing the repayment thereof, with interest as aforesaid, by deed, bearing date on, etc., and made and executed by the said P. J., did grant, bargain, sell and convey unto your orator, the premises above described: to have and to hold unto your orator, his heirs and assigns, in fee simple forever, subject nevertheless to a proviso for the redemption of the said premises, on payment by the said P. J., his executors, administrators or assigns, to your orator, his executors, administrators or assigns, of the said sum of $———, with lawful interest for the same, within one year from the date of said deed, as by the said deed, reference thereunto being had, will more fully appear. And your orator further shows that the said sum of $———, or any part thereof, was not paid to your orator or to any person on his behalf, according to the said proviso in said deed at the time therein mentioned, and has not now been paid to your orator, but is still due and owing to him, together with a great arrear of interest thereon. And your orator well hoped that the said P. J. would either have paid your orator the said sum of $———, and the interest thereon, or would have suffered your orator to have peaceably and quietly held and enjoyed the said premises, and for that purpose your orator has frequently applied to the said P. J., and requested him to pay the said sum of $———, and the interest due upon the same, or else peaceably to deliver up possession to your orator of the said mortgaged premises, together with all deeds, evidences, writings, etc., relating to or concerning the same, and to release all his right, title and equity of redemption of, in and to the said premises, to your orator and his heirs, the said P. J. well knowing, as your orator charges the truth to be, that the said premises are a very scanty security for the principal and interest now due to your orator thereon. And your orator well hoped that the said P. J. would have complied with such your orator's reasonable request, as in justice and equity he ought to have done. But now so it is, etc. (charge of confederacy). And the said defendant P. J. pretends that the said premises were mortgaged by him to, etc., whereas your orator charges that, etc. And at other times the said P. J. pretends, etc., whereas your orator charges, etc. All which actings, etc. (jurisdiction clause). And that the said P. J. may discover whether there is or are any other, and what incumbrance or incumbrances upon or affecting the said mortgaged premises, or if so, in whom the same is or are vested. And that an account may be taken, by and under the direction and decree of this honorable court, of what is due and owing to your orator for principal and interest moneys upon and by virtue of his said recited mortgaged securities, and that the said P. J. may be decreed to pay and satisfy to your orator what shall appear to be due and owing to him on the taking of the aforesaid account, by a short day to be appointed by this honorable court, together with your orator's costs. And in default thereof, that the said P. J., and all persons claiming under him, may be absolutely barred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption, or claim, in and to the said mortgaged premises, and every part thereof, and may deliver over to your orator all deeds, writings and documents whatsoever in his custody, possession or power, relating to or concerning the said premises, and every part thereof, etc. And that an account may be taken by and under the direction and decree of this honorable court, etc., etc. And that the defendant may be decreed to pay unto your orator, etc., etc. May it please, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1926.

2. Bill for Foreclosure Against Surviving Mortgagor, Etc.

Humbly complaining, shows unto your honors, your orator A. H., of, etc., esq., against S. M. C., of, etc., and G. R., of, etc., that J. S. C., now deceased, the said S. M. C. and the Reverend P. K., now deceased, being or alleging themselves to be seized of and entitled to the premises hereinafter particularly described, in trust for the benefit of the said J. S. C. and S. M. C., and having occasion to borrow the sum of $5,500, applied to and requested your orator to lend them the sum of $3 000, part of such sum of $5,500, on the security hereinafter mentioned, and that your orator complied with such request, and did accordingly lend and advance the sum of $3,000 to the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K. And that, thereupon, and in order to secure the repayment thereof with interest, the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K. duly executed a certain indenture of mortgage, bearing date ———, and made or expressed to be made between the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K., of the one part, and your orator of the other part. And that thereby, after reciting as therein mentioned, it was witnessed that for and in consideration of the said sum of $3,000, to the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K. paid by your orator, the receipt whereof they did thereby acknowledge, they the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K., and each of them, did grant, bargain, sell and convey unto your orator, his heirs and assigns, all that capital messuage, etc., together with all and every the appurtenances, etc., to hold the said messuage, etc., unto your orator, his heirs and assigns, in fee simple forever, but subject to a proviso for redemption upon payment by the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K., their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, unto your orator, his executors, administrators or assigns, of the said sum of $3,000, with interest after the rate of 5 per cent. per annum at or upon the ——— day of ———, then next ensuing; as in and by the said indenture, reference being thereto had, will more fully appear. And your orator further shows unto your honors that the said sum of $3,000 was not paid to your orator at the time, for that purpose limited by the said indenture, for the payment of the same, and that thereby the estate of your orator in the said mortgaged premises became absolute at law. And your orator further sheweth unto your honors that in or about the year ——— the said J. S. C. died, having first made his will bearing date ———, whereby he devised all real estate, including his interest in the said mortgaged premises, to the said S. M. C. and P. K. and to G. R., of ———, and their heirs. And your orator further shows unto your honors that the said P. K. had no beneficial interest in the said mortgaged premises; and that he died some time since, leaving the said S. M. C. him surviving; and that the said S. M. C. alone is now entitled to the equity of redemption of the mortgaged premises in trust, as to one moiety thereof, for his own use and benefit, and in trust, as to the other moiety, for the use and benefit of himself and the said G. R., as devisees of the said J. S. C. And your orator further shows that the said sum of $3,000, together with a considerable arrear of interest accrued due thereon, is now due to your orator on the security of the said premises. And that your orator has frequently, and in a friendly manner, applied to the said S. M. C. and requested him to pay the same, and to release his equity of redemption of and in the said mortgaged premises. And your orator well hoped that such his just and reasonable requests would have been complied with, as in justice and equity they ought to have been. But now so it is, may it please your honors, that the said S. M. C., combining with the G. R., and contriving how to injure your orator in the premises, refuses so to do, although your orator charges that your orator did as aforesaid well and truly advance and pay the said sum of $3,000 to the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K., and that for securing the repayment thereof with interest, the said J. S. C., S. M. C. and P. K. duly made and executed to your orator such indenture as is hereinbefore mentioned; and that the whole of the said sum of $3,000, together with a large arrear of interest accrued due thereon, is now justly due and owing to your orator on the security aforesaid. And your orator charges that the mortgaged premises are very scanty security for the repayment of what is due and owing to your orator or the security thereof. And your orator charges that the said G. R. is and claims to be interested in the said mortgaged premises, or some part thereof, and to be entitled to redeem the same, but he, and also the said S. M. C., refuses so to do. And your orator charges that the said defendants ought either to pay what is due to your orator as aforesaid, or otherwise to release their equity of redemption in the said premises, but they refuse so to do. All which actings, etc. (jurisdiction clause). And that the said defendant may answer the premises; and that an account may be taken by and under the direction and decree of this honorable court of what is due and owing to your orator for principal money and interest on the security of the said mortgaged premises; and that the said defendants may be decreed to pay unto your orator what shall appear to be justly due and owing to him on the taking of the aforesaid account, together with his costs of this suit, by a short day to be appointed by this court for that purpose, your orator being ready and willing, and hereby offering, on being paid his principal money and interest and costs, at such appointed time, to reconvey the said mortgaged premises unto the said defendants, or unto either of them, as this honorable court shall direct. And in default of such payment, that the said defendants and all persons claiming under them may be absolutely barred and foreclosed of and from all right and equity of redemption in and to the said mortgaged premises, and every part thereof forever. And may deliver up to your orator all and every the deeds, writings and documents in their or either of their possession, custody or power, relating to the said mortgaged premises, and every part thereof. (And that an account, etc.; see preceding form.) May it please your honors, etc. (Pray subpoena against S. M. C. and G. R.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1928.

3. Prayer in Bill for Foreclosure and Sale.

That an account may be taken, by or under the direction of this honorable court, of what is due for the principal and interest on the said mortgage, and that the said defendants, or some one of them, may pay unto your orator the money which shall be found due to him, by a short day to be appointed for that purpose by this honorable court; or, in default thereof, that all the said defendants, and their respective heirs, executors and administrators, and all other persons claiming, or to claim by, from or under them, or any of them, may be absolutely barred and foreclosed of and from all right and equity of redemption of, in and to the said estates, and every part thereof; or, if on any account your orator is not entitled to such foreclosure, then that the said estates may be sold, and all proper parties may join therein, and that the money so due to your orator may be paid to him by and out of the money which shall be raised by such sale, etc., etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1930.

B. Decrees.

1. Decree for Foreclosure at Hearing, Mortgagor in Possession.

The court doth order and decree that it be referred to A. B., esquire, master, etc., to compute what is due to the plaintiff, for principal and interest on his mortgage in the pleadings mentioned, and for his costs of this cause, such costs to be taxed, etc., and upon the defendant's paying to the plaintiff what shall be reported due to him for principal, interest and costs as aforesaid, within _____ months after the said master shall have made his report, at such time and place as said master shall appoint, it is ordered that the said plaintiff do reconvey (resurrender, reassign) the mortgaged premises free and clear of all incumbrances done by him, or any claiming by, from or under him (or by those under whom he claims), and deliver up upon oath all deeds and writings in his custody or power relating thereto, to the defendant, or to whom he shall appoint. But in default of the said defendant's paying to the plaintiff such principal, interest and costs as aforesaid, by the time aforesaid, it is ordered and decreed that the said defendant from thenceforth do stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all (right, title, interest and) equity of redemption of, in and to the mortgaged premises. Liberty to apply. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1922.

2. Decree of Final Foreclosure (Strict).

Upon motion, etc., by counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that by the decree, dated, etc., it was ordered that it be referred to A. B., esquire, master, etc., to take an account, etc., that in pursuance of said decree the said master, on the _____ day of _____, made his report, and thereby certified that there would be due to the plaintiff for principal and interest on his said mortgage, and for his costs, etc., on the _____ day of _____, the sum of $_____, which the said defendant was thereby appointed to pay to the plaintiff on, etc., at, etc., between, etc.; that it appears by the affidavit of the plaintiff, filed, etc., that he did attend on the said _____ day of _____, at, etc., from before the hour of _____ till after the hour of _____ of that day, in order to receive from the defendant the said sum of $———, but the said defendant did not, nor did any person on his behalf, attend to pay the said sum, and that the said sum hath not, nor hath any part thereof since paid to the plaintiff, but that the whole thereof still remains due and owing; and upon reading the said decree, report and affidavit, this court doth order that the defendant do from henceforth stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all (right, title, interest and) equity of redemption of, in and to the said mortgaged premises. (Take the words of the decree.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2224.

3. Decree for Sale in Default of Payment.

Usual account: Direction for payment to plaintiff, and reconveyance by him. "But in default of defendants paying to the plaintiff, etc., it is ordered and decreed that the said mortgaged premises, or a competent part thereof, be sold with the approbation of the master; and that the money to arise by such sale be applied in payment of what shall appear to be due to the plaintiff for principal, interest and costs, as aforesaid, and be in the meantime paid into, etc., to the credit of this cause." Adjourn, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2224.

4. Decree for Foreclosure, Mortgagee in Possession; Costs; Repairs; Improvements and Profits; Reconveyance; Default; Infant.

It is ordered that the plaintiff's bill do stand dismissed as against the defendant H. S., with costs, and that it be referred to, etc., of this court to tax the said costs; and it is ordered that the plaintiff R. H. do pay to the said defendant his costs when taxed, and what the plaintiff shall so pay is to be added to his own costs, to be taxed as hereinafter directed; and it is ordered that it be referred to G. F. C., esq., master, etc., to take the following accounts, that is to say: 1. An account of what is due for principal and interest on the security of the premises comprised in the indenture (or deed) dated, etc. 2. An account of all sums of money paid, laid out and expended by the said W. M. or the plaintiff (transferee of the mortgage) for fines, fees and costs, etc.; and of all sums of money paid, laid out or expended by the plaintiff in necessary repairs and lasting improvements of the premises comprised in the said indenture (or deed) of mortgage of, etc.; and in taking the said account, interest is to be computed on the money paid for fines and fees on renewal, and the charges attending the same, and laid out in repairs and lasting improvements, after the same rate of interest as the said mortgage carried; and what shall appear to be due on the said account is to be added to what shall be found due for principal and interest on the said mortgage. 3. An account of the rents and profits of the premises comprised in the indenture (or deed) of, etc., or which without wilful default of the plaintiff might have been received; and what shall be found due from the plaintiff on taking the said account is to be deducted from what shall be found due to him for principal and interest as aforesaid; and in taking the said accounts, all just allowances are to be made.

And it is ordered that it be referred to the said ——— to tax the plaintiff his costs of this suit.

And it is ordered that upon the defendants or any of them paying to the plaintiff what shall be found to be due to him for principal and interest as aforesaid, together with his costs of this suit, within (six) months after the same shall have been certified, at such time and place as shall be appointed, the plaintiff do reconvey and reassign the mortgaged premises for all the plaintiff's interest therein to the defendants or such of them as shall redeem, free and clear of all incumbrances done by the said W. M., or the plaintiff, or any person claiming by, from or under them, or either of them, and to deliver up all deeds and writings in the custody or power of the plaintiff relating thereto, upon oath, to the said defendants, or such of them as shall redeem, or to whom they shall appoint.

But it is ordered that in default of the defendants paying unto the plaintiff such principal, interest and costs as aforesaid, by the time aforesaid, the defendants shall stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption of, in and to the said mortgaged premises comprised in the said indenture (or deed), etc.

And the said decree is to be binding on the infant defendant A. N., unless he, being served with a subpoena to show cause against the same, shall within six months after he should attain his age of twenty one years, show unto this court good cause to the contrary. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2222. See Tripp's Forms 134.

C. Order Enlarging Time for Payment.

The report of the master to whom it was referred to compute and ascertain the amount due to the complainant in this cause for principal and interest on his bond and mortgage, and tax his costs in this suit, having been filed and duly confirmed, from which it appears that there will be due to the said complainant, for principal, interest and costs, the sum of $——, on the —— day of ——, instant, which was the time appointed by the said master for the payment thereof, and on reading affidavits, and on motion of Mr. F. S. K., solicitor for the defendant, and on hearing Mr. W. C. N., solicitor for the complainant, in opposition thereto, it is ordered that upon the said defendant's paying to the complainant, on or before the —— day of —— instant, the sum of $—— reported due to the complainant for interest and costs on his said mortgage, by the said master's report, the time for the defendant's redeeming the said mortgaged premises be enlarged for six months. And upon such payment, it is ordered that it be referred back to the said master to compute the complainant's subsequent interest, and tax his subsequent costs, including the costs of this application, and to appoint a new time and place for payment of what shall be found due to the complainant in respect thereof. But in default of the defendant's paying to the complainant the said sum of $—— by the time aforesaid, the said defendant is to stand absolutely foreclosed. 2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 625.

D. Affidavit of Having Attended To Receive Mortgage Money.
City and county of Albany, ss.:

G. H., of said city, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the —— day of ——, he did, under and by virtue of a certain power of attorney, duly executed by A. B., the complainant in this cause, bearing date the —— day of ——, and in pursuance of the report of D. B. G., one of the masters of this court, bearing date the —— day of ——, personally attend and wait at the Merchant's Exchange in the city of Albany, from before the hour of —— of the clock in the —— noon of the said —— day of ——, until after the hour of —— at noon, being the time and place mentioned in the said master's report, in order to receive from the defendant in this cause the sum of $——, by the said report reported due and directed to be paid to the said complainant for principal, interest and costs, in respect of his mortgage in question in this cause; at which time and place the said defendant did not, nor did any person or persons on his account or behalf, attend or pay to this deponent the said sum of $—— or any part thereof; and that the said sum of $—— still remains due and unsatisfied as he verily believes. 2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 626.

E. Final Order for Strict Foreclosure.

A decree having been made upon the hearing of this cause, on the —— day of —— last, by which it was referred to one of the masters of this court residing in the county of ——, to compute and ascertain the amount due to the complainant for principal and interest upon the bond and mortgage mentioned in the bill in this cause, and to tax the costs of the said complainant and add the amount thereof to the sum which should be found due to him from the defendant, and to fix a time and place for the payment of the said principal, interest and costs, and ordering that in default of the said defendants paying the sum thus reported due, by the time limited for that purpose, the defendant should stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption of, in and to the said mortgaged premises; and the said master having, in pursuance of the said decree, on the —— day of —— last, made and filed his report, which has been duly confirmed, whereby he certified the sum of $—— to be due to the complainant, for principal, interest and costs on the said mortgage, which he appointed to be paid on the —— day of —— last, between the hours of —— of the clock in the forenoon and twelve o'clock at noon, at the Merchant's Exchange in the city of ——; at which time and place G. H., being duly authorized by the complainant, attended for the purpose of receiving the said money, but neither the defendant nor any person on his behalf did then attend to pay, or have since paid or tendered the same, as by the affidavit of the said G. H. now read appears; on motion of W. C. N., solicitor for the complainant, and on hearing Mr. F. S. K., of counsel for the defendant, in opposition thereto, it is ordered and decreed that the said defendant C. D. do stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all right, title, interest, equity and benefit of redemption of, in and to the said mortgaged premises as they are described in the said mortgage and in the said decree of the _____ day of _____. 2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 626.

F. Complaints.

1. Complaint by Mortgagee Against Mortgagor and Junior Incumbrancers To Foreclose Upon Default in Interest, Insurance Paid by Mortgagee, Outstanding Judgment.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendant (mortgagor) made his bond to the plaintiff under seal, and dated on that day, conditioned to pay to the plaintiff _____ dollars on (stating condition of bond); and thereupon he (together with the defendant, naming his wife) duly made and acknowledged his (or their) mortgage to the plaintiff, of even date therewith, as collateral, to secure the payment of said bond, a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint (or allege its legal effect as follows: and that by said mortgage he, or they) granted, bargained and sold to the plaintiff, his heirs and assigns, the following described premises (insert description of premises from mortgage), which conveyance was nevertheless upon the condition that (state condition of mortgage, with interest and insurance clauses).

II. That said mortgage was duly acknowledged, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, duly recorded in the office of the clerk of _____ county, in book _____ of mortgages, page _____.

III. That the interest on said bond and mortgage, which became payable on the _____ day of _____, 18—, is still due and unpaid; that more than _____ days have elapsed since said interest became due and payable, and the plaintiff elects to deem the whole principal sum to be immediately due and payable; and there is now justly due to him on said bond and mortgage _____ dollars, with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____ per cent. per annum.

(Where plaintiff has paid insurance, etc.) IV. That the defendant (mortgagor) did not keep the premises insured (stating breach of the insurance covenant, e. g., thus), but wholly neglected so to do (or but on the contrary suffered the insurance to expire on the _____ day of _____); in consequence whereof the plaintiff caused them to be insured in the _____ company of _____ for the term of _____ from the _____ day of _____, 18—, and paid therefor the premium of _____ dollars.

(V. That no proceedings have been had, at law or otherwise, for the recovery of said moneys, or any part thereof (except that heretofore the plaintiff commenced an action in this court against the defendant to recover on a promissory note for _____ dollars, which formed a part of the indebtedness for which said bond and mortgage was given, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, judgment of nonsuit was given against the plaintiff on the ground that the mortgage merged the note).

(Where plaintiff holds other liens.)

VI. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____, in the court of _____ (or before M. N., a justice of the peace in and for the town of _____), the plaintiff recovered a judgment, which was duly given by said court (or justice) against the defendant, for _____ dollars, in an action wherein this plaintiff was plaintiff (or defendant), and the defendant herein was defendant (or plaintiff); and which was on the _____ day of _____, 18—, duly docketed in the office of the clerk of said county, so as to become, and still remains, a lien on the mortgaged premises.

VII. That the defendants (subsequent incumbrancers) have or claim some interest in, or lien on, said mortgaged premises, accrued since the lien of said mortgage.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That each of the defendants, and all persons claiming under them, or either of them, subsequent to the commencement of this action, may be foreclosed of all equity of redemption or other interest in said mortgaged premises.

2. That the same be sold, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the costs and expenses of this action, and the amount due on said bond and mortgage, and the amount of said premium of insurance (and of said judgment), with interest on said moneys up to the time of such payment.

3. That the defendant (mortgagor) may be adjudged to pay any deficiency that may remain after applying all of said moneys so applicable thereto. 1 Abb. Forms 597.

2. Complaint by Assignee Against Mortgagor, Mortgagee Who Guaranteed Payment, Grantee of Equity of Redemption Who Assumed Mortgage and Junior Incumbrancers.

I and II. As in preceding form, substituting the mortgagee's name for the words, "the plaintiff."

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendant (mortgagee), by an instrument in writing under his hand and seal, duly assigned said bond and mortgage to the plaintiff for value, and thereby (and for a consideration expressed therein) guaranteed to the plaintiff the payment of said bond and mortgage (or which assignment contained a covenant, of which the following is a copy, setting it forth).

IV. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendant (mortgagor) and (his grantee) entered into an indenture under their hands and seals, whereby the said (mortgagor) conveyed to said (grantee) the mortgaged premises, subject to said mortgage, and said (grantee) covenanted that he would pay off and discharge the same as a part of the consideration of said conveyance (or otherwise, as the covenant was).

Or, where the conveyance subject to the mortgage was not signed by the grantee. IV. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendant (mortgagor), by deed dated on that day, duly conveyed said premises, subject to said mortgage, to the defendant (owner of equity of redemption); which deed contained a covenant on the part of the latter, of which the following is a copy (copy of covenant to assume mortgage). And said conveyance thereupon was accepted by said (grantee).

(Continue as in preceding form. 1 Abb. Forms 600.

3. Complaint, Allegation of Inadequacy of Security and Demand for Receiver of Rents and Profits.

Insert in either preceding form:

That the mortgaged premises consist of (briefly stating situation, c. g.), a single village lot, with a house thereon, which is old and out of repair, and rapidly deteriorating; and the present value of the premises is about _____ dollars, and they are subject to a prior mortgage, on which about _____ dollars is due. That they are a scanty and insufficient security for the plaintiff's mortgage debt, and the defendants, who are personally liable therefor, are insolvent.

And insert in the prayer for relief:

That a receiver of the rents and profits be appointed, by order of the court, to apply the same to the plaintiff's demand. 1 Abb. Forms 601.

4. Complaint by Mortgagee in Possession Against Parties Entitled To Redeem, Seeking Accounting and Payment, or Strict Foreclosure.

(Allege mortgage, default, etc., as in preceding forms.)

III. That after the mortgage debt became due as aforesaid, the plaintiff entered into possession of the mortgaged premises, and the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, and has since continued, and still is, in possession.

IV. That the said rents and profits have not been sufficient in amount to equal the annual interest upon the said bond and mortgage (or state otherwise, as the fact may be).

V. That the plaintiff has laid out considerable expenditures for permanent improvements upon said premises, to-wit (stating the general nature and value of same), which he claims should be allowed him as an offset against so much of said rents and profits. And has also paid the sum of _____ dollars for taxes and assessments (or, if any prior lien has been discharged, state the nature of the lien, amount and time of payment of same); all of which sums the said plaintiff also claims should be allowed him, and credited on his account against so much of said rents and profits; which several sums, when so applied and credited to the said plaintiff, charging the plaintiff with the amount of rents and profits so received by him, will leave remaining due to said plaintiff, on his said bond and mortgage, about _____ dollars.

VI. That the defendant (junior incumbrancer) has, or claims, an interest in said mortgaged premises, under and by virtue of a mortgage thereon from the said defendant (mortgagor) subsequent to the mortgage of the plaintiff; and the defendant _____ has, or claims, an interest therein, etc. (setting forth generally the interests of the respective parties).

VII. That the plaintiff has applied to the said defendants (junior incumbrancers), and requested them to pay the plaintiff the said sum so due on the bond and mortgage held by the plaintiff, or come to an accounting with him thereon for the said rents and profits (permanent improvements and advances), and, after the proper charges and credits, pay the said plaintiff what should appear to be due him on his said bond and mortgage; or, in default thereof, to release their right and equity of redemption in said mortgaged premises. But the said defendants have hitherto refused, and still refuse so to do, or to comply with any part of said plaintiff's request.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That an account may be taken of what, if anything, is due and owing to the plaintiff for principal and interest on his said bond and mortgage; and that an account may also be taken of the rents and profits of the said mortgaged premises which have been received by said plaintiff, and also of the expenditures of the said plaintiff for permanent improvements, and for taxes and assessments (or for the amount so paid for prior incumbrances, etc., as the case may be).

2. That the said defendants pay the plaintiff what may be found due him on taking the said account, together with his costs of action, by a short day to be appointed by the court for that purpose; or, in default thereof, that the said defendants, and all persons claiming under them, be absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all right and equity of redemption in and to the said mortgaged premises, and every part thereof, and that said defendants deliver up to the plaintiff all deeds, papers or writings in their custody or power relating to or concerning the said mortgaged premises, or any part thereof; and for such further relief as may be just, with costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 601.

5. Complaint on Note and Mortgage (Short Form).

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the defendant made his promissory note of that date, and thereby promised to pay to plaintiff, or order, _____ dollars, _____ years after said date, for value received.

II. That the defendant, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, to secure the payment of said note, executed to the plaintiff his mortgage deed, and thereby conveyed to the plaintiff, his heirs and assigns, the following lands and tenements, situate in said county of _____ (description as contained in the deed). The condition contained in said mortgage deed was, in substance, that if (here set forth the condition).

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____ o'clock a. m. (or p. m.), said mortgage was delivered to the recorder of said county, to be by him entered on record, and was recorded the same day (according to facts).

IV. That the said deed has become absolute; and there is due and remaining unpaid upon said indebtedness the sum of _____ dollars, with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18—.

Wherefore the plaintiff asks that said mortgage may be foreclosed, the said premises ordered to be sold, and the proceeds applied to the payment of said debt, and execution awarded for the balance. 1 Abb. Forms 603.

G. Answers.

1. Answer, Denial of Mortgage.

That he has not knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to whether the defendant (mortgagor) ever executed the bond and mortgage described in the complaint, or whether the defendant (mortgagee), ever assigned said supposed bond and mortgage to the plaintiff, or whether he is now the lawful owner or holder thereof. 2 Abb. Forms 163.

2. Answer, Denial of Having Assumed Mortgage.

That he denies that the defendant (mortgagor) ever executed or delivered any deed or conveyance of the premises described in the complaint to this defendant (except as hereinafter admitted, see next defense), or that this defendant ever accepted said supposed deed, or entered into possession of said premises, or ever in any manner what-ever assumed or agreed to pay the mortgage set forth in the complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 164.

3. Answer, Non-Joinder of Owner of Equity of Redemption.

I. That after the making of the mortgage in the complaint described, and before this action, the defendant X., being seized of the premises, by his deed under his hand and seal, dated on the _____ day of _____, 18—, duly conveyed the same to one M. N., subject to said mortgage.

II. That said M. N. is still living at _____, and is now the owner of the equity of redemption in said premises. 2 Abb. Forms 165.

4. Answer, Purchaser, Having Equity of Redemption in Part of Premises, Is Entitled To Have Residue Sold First.

I. That after the making of the mortgage mentioned in the complaint, and which the plaintiff seeks to foreclose, said (mortgagor) conveyed to this defendant a part of the mortgaged premises for a valuable consideration, by deed bearing date on the _____ day of _____, 18—, and recorded on the _____ day of _____, 18—, in lib. _____ of conveyances, page _____, in the office of the clerk of the county of _____, which said portion of the mortgaged premises are described as follows (copy of description).

II. (That after the aforesaid conveyance, the said (mortgagor) conveyed the residue of said premises to the defendant W. X.)

Wherefore the defendant demands that if a foreclosure be adjudged, all of said premises not so conveyed to this defendant be sold first; and that the premises so conveyed to this defendant be not sold, unless a sale thereof should be necessary to satisfy deficiency arising after the sale of such residue. 2 Abb. Forms 165.

II. Order of Reference To Take Proof Etc.

On reading and filing the affidavit of M. N., dated the _____ day of _____ last, stating the proceedings herein, and the affidavits of O. P. and Q. R., therein referred to, and on motion of M. N. for the plaintiff (no one appearing in opposition):

Ordered that it be referred to R. F., esq., of _____, counselor-at-law, to compute and ascertain the amount due to the plaintiff, for principal and interest on the bond and mortgage set forth in the complaint in this action, (and the amounts due to such of the defendants as are prior incumbrancers).

(Where the whole mortgage debt is not due, add: and also to compute and ascertain the whole amount due, and yet to become due, secured by said mortgage, and remaining unpaid, with interest; and to ascertain the situation of the mortgaged premises, and whether the same can be sold in parcels without prejudice to the interests of the parties; and if he shall be of opinion that a sale of the said premises, in one parcel, will be most beneficial to the parties, then that he report his reasons for such opinion; and if there is a question among the defendants as to the order in which parcels should be sold, may add: and also to examine and determine the order in which the said parcels should be sold for the payment of the plaintiff's demand, in view of the equitable rights of the parties.)

(Where any defendants are infants having answered generally, or are absentees, add: and also to take proof of the facts and circumstances stated in the complaint; and to examine the said plaintiff or his agent on oath, as to any payments that may have been made.) 2 Abb. Forms 521.

I. Judgments.

1. Judgment for Foreclosure, No Defense, Whole Debt Due.

On reading and filing the affidavit of M. N., showing service of summons in this action on all the defendants personally (except the defendant W. X., and on reading and filing the affidavits of M. N. and O. P., showing that the summons has been served upon the defendant W. X., pursuant to an order of the court by publication of the same, and mailing the same with the complaint, as therein directed); and on reading and filing the affidavit of O.

P., the attorney for the plaintiff, showing that the time to answer has expired, and no demurrer or answer has been put in (except the answer of the defendant U. V., who is an infant, and whose answer by his guardian does not deny any material allegation of the complaint); and showing that the summons and complaint in this action, and due notice of the pendency of this action, were duly filed in the office of the clerk of the county of _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18—; (a) and an order of reference having been made to compute the amount due to the plaintiff upon the bond and mortgage set forth in the complaint (and if any of defendants are infants, having put in general answer, or are absentees, add: and to take proof of the facts and circumstances stated in the complaint, and examine the plaintiff or his agent on oath as to any payments made, and which ought to be credited on said bond and mortgage (b), and on reading and filing the report of the referee named in the order of reference, by which report, bearing date the _____ day of _____, 18—, it appears that _____ dollars was due thereon at the date of said report. (c) Now, on motion of O. P., attorney for the plaintiff:

It is adjudged, that the mortgaged premises described in the complaint in this action as hereinafter set forth, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to raise the amount so reported due to the plaintiff for principal, interest, and costs, and which may be sold separately without material injury to the parties interested, be sold by public auction, in the _____ county of _____, by or under the direction of the sheriff of said _____ county (or, by or under the direction of R. F., who is hereby appointed referee for that purpose, or, who was heretofore appointed referee in this action); that the said sheriff (or referee) give public notice of the time and place of such sale, according to law, and the practice of this court; that the plaintiff or any other party to this action may become a purchaser on such sale; that the said sheriff (or referee) execute to the purchaser or purchasers, a deed or deeds of the premises sold; that out of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting the amount of his fees and expenses on such sale, and any lien or liens upon said premises so sold, at the time of such sale, for taxes or assessments, he pay to the plaintiff or his attorney the sum of _____ dollars adjudged to the plaintiff for costs and charges in this action, with interest from the date hereof; and, also, the amount so reported due (d) as aforesaid, together with the legal interest thereon, from the date of the said report; or so much thereof as the purchase money of the mortgaged premises will pay of the same; and that he take a receipt of the plaintiff or his attorney for the amount so paid, and file the same with his report of sale; and that the purchaser or purchasers at such sale be let into possession of the premises on production of the deed (and a certified copy of the order confirming the report of sale). That the said sheriff (or referee) pay the surplus money (if any) within five days after the same shall be received and be ascertainable (in the city of New York, say, to the chamberlain of the said city, and in other counties, say), to the treasurer of said county, subject to the further order of the court, and take a receipt therefor, and file the same with his report; that he make a report of such sale, and file it with the clerk of this court with all convenient speed.

And it is further adjudged, that if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient to pay the amount so reported due (e) to the plaintiff, with the interest and costs as aforesaid, the said sheriff (or referee) specify the amount of such deficiency in his report of sale; and that the defendant Y. Z. pay the same to the plaintiff, with interest from the date of such report; and that plaintiff have execution therefor.

(f) And it is further adjudged that the defendants, and all persons claiming under them, or any or either of them, after the filing of the aforesaid notice of pendency of this action, be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, title, interest, and equity of redemption in the said mortgaged premises so sold, or any part thereof.

The following is a description and the particular boundaries of the premises to be sold, as hereinbefore directed: (insert description). 2 Abb. Forms 565.

2. Judgment for Foreclosure, No Defense, Part Only of Debt Due.

(As in preceding form, substituting for the words between [b] and [c].

and also to ascertain the situation of said mortgaged premises, and whether the same can be sold in parcels without injury to the interests of the parties; and if such referee would be of the opinion that the premises cannot be sold in parcels without injury to the interests of the parties, then that he report his reasons for such opinion:

On reading and filing said report, from which it appears that there was actually due to the said plaintiff, at the date of said report, for said principal and interest, the sum of _____ dollars, and the whole amount secured by and unpaid upon said bond and mortgage, with interest thereon, to the date of said report, is the sum of _____ dollars; and that said premises can be sold in parcels without injury to the interests of the parties (here add, briefly, reasons controlling the order of sale if any are stated in the report).

(And insert at [f]):

And it is further adjudged, that said plaintiff be at liberty at any time hereafter, as any instalment of principal or interest shall become due on said bond and mortgage, to apply to this court on the foot of this judgment, for a further judgment (or, to apply to the aforesaid referee, who is hereby continued referee for that purpose, on the foot of this judgment, and procure a report of the amount which shall then be due, to the end, that on the coming in and confirmation of such report, a judgment may be made), for a sale of the residue of said premises not sold under this judgment, to satisfy the amount which shall then be due, with interest, and the costs of such report and sale.

And in case said premises shall all be sold under this judgment to satisfy the amount now actually due, with interest and costs, it is then further ordered, that the said plaintiff be at liberty at any time thereafter, when any future instalment of principal or interest shall fall due upon said bond and mortgage, to apply to this court for an execution against said defendant, Y. Z., who is personally liable for the payment of the debt secured by the said mortgage, for the amount which shall then be due, with interest and the costs of such application. 2 Abb. Forms 568.

3. Judgment for Foreclosure, No Defense, Part Only of Debt Due, But Whole Property To Be Sold.

(As in 1, I, 1, substituting for the words between [b] and [c]), and also to ascertain the situation of said mortgaged premises, and whether the same can be sold in parcels without injury to the interests of the parties; and if such referee would be of the opinion that the premises cannot be sold in parcels without injury to the interests of the parties, then that he report his reasons for such opinion. On reading and filing said report, from which it appears that there was actually due to the said plaintiff, at the date of said report, for said principal and interest, the sum of _____ dollars, and the whole amount secured by and unpaid upon said bond and mortgage, with interest thereon, to the date of said report, is the sum of _____ dollars; and that said premises cannot be sold in parcels without injury to the interests of the parties.

(And substituting at [d] and [e] in place of the word "due," the words), "to be secured by and unpaid upon said bond and mortgage."

(And insert at the end, immediately before the last paragraph, which gives description of the premises, the following):

And in case the amount reported as actually due, with interest and the costs of this action, shall be paid before such sale, it is further adjudged, that said plaintiff be at liberty, at any time hereafter when any principal sum or interest secured by said bond and mortgage shall become due, according to the condition of the said bond, to apply to the court on the foot of this judgment for a further judgment (or, to apply to the aforesaid referee, who is hereby continued referee for that purpose, on the foot of this judgment, and procure a report of the amount which shall then be due thereon, to the end, that upon the coming in and confirmation of such report, a judgment may be made) for a sale of the said premises to satisfy the amount which shall then be due, with interest, and the costs of such (report and) sale.

And it is further adjudged, that in case the said premises shall be sold under this judgment, and shall not produce sufficient to satisfy the amount so reported as secured and unpaid, with interest, and the costs of this action and of such sale, the said plaintiff may, at any time thereafter, when any such deficiency of principal or interest shall have become due according to the condition of the said bond, apply to this court for an execution against said defendant, Y. Z., who is personally liable for the payment of the debt secured by the said mortgage, to collect the amount which shall be then due thereon. 2 Abb. Forms 569.

4. Recital, Where Amount Is Computed by Court.

(As in I, I, 1, substituting for the words between [a] and [c]), and the plaintiff having produced to the court satisfactory proof that there is due upon the bond and mortgage mentioned and set forth in the said complaint, the sum of _____ dollars, including interest to this _____ day of _____, 18____. 2 Abb. Forms 571.

5. Judgment for Deficiency, Against Mere Surety.

And it is further adjudged, that if the plaintiff is not able to collect the amount of such deficiency out of the estate of the said (mortgagor, etc.), upon the issuing of an execution, against his property, to the sheriff of the county in which he resides, or of the county where he last resided in this state, the defendants (the sureties), upon the return of such execution unsatisfied, pay so much of such deficiency as the proceeds of the sale hereinbefore directed, and the amount, if any, which shall have been collected of the said (mortgagor, etc.), personally (subsequent to the assignment by said sureties to the plaintiff), exclusive of the costs and expenses of the foreclosure and sale, shall be less than the principal (or, other limit of sureties' liability) and the interest thereon from the time of the commencement of this action to the time of such sale; with the interest on that part of the deficiency, from the time of the said sale until it shall be so paid by them.

And it is further adjudged, that if they pay the amount thus decreed against them personally, or if the same is collected out of their property, they shall have the benefit of this judgment against the said (mortgagor, etc.), for the purpose of enabling them to obtain remuneration from him to the same extent, with interest, but no further; either by a new execution against his property, or by bringing an action thereon, as they may think proper. 2 Abb. Forms 571.

6. Judgment of Strict Foreclosure.

(Recitals of proceedings, see other forms.)

It is adjudged, that upon the defendants paying unto the said plaintiff the amount which is so found, and reported due to him, for principal and interest as aforesaid, with _____ dollars costs, hereby adjudged to the plaintiff, within six months after the entry of this judgment, and service of notice thereof (with interest thereon from the date of the above mentioned report, until the time of such payment) at (specifying place and hours for paying); that the said plaintiff do reconvey the mortgaged premises to the said defendant, by a suitable and proper instrument of conveyance, to be approved of by the court in case the parties cannot agree upon the form thereof, free and clear of all incumbrances, done or suffered by him, or by any person claiming by, from, or under him (and with the usual covenants against his or their acts); and that he deliver up all deeds and writings in his custody or power relating thereto, upon oath, to the said defendant, or to whom he shall appoint. And further, that the said plaintiff cancel and discharge such mortgage of record. But in default of the said defendant's paying unto the said plaintiff such principal, interest, and costs as aforesaid, by the time limited for that purpose, then it is adjudged that the said defendant, and all persons claiming by, from, or under him, do stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption of, in, and to the said mortgaged premises.

The following is a description, and the particular boundaries of the premises hereinbefore mentioned (insert description). 2 Abb. Forms 572.

II. Redemption.

A. Bills.

1. Bill for Redemption of Mortgages by Heir.

To, etc.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors, your orator, J. G., of, etc., that J. G., the elder, late of, etc., but now deceased, and E., his wife, now also deceased, the late father and mother of your orator, were in the right of the said E., seized in fee simple of, or otherwise well entitled to, two parcels of real estate, bounded and described as follows: (here insert boundaries, etc.) And your orator further showeth, that the said J. G., the elder, and E., his wife, in or about the year ———, made some conveyance and assignment of the said premises unto W. B., of, etc., the defendant hereinafter named, by way of mortgage for securing the repayment of a certain sum of money, with interest, then advanced to the said J. G. by W. B., or by J. B., then of, etc., on the part of, and as the agent of, the said W. B.

And your orator further showeth unto your honors, that the said W. B., upon or soon after the making of the said security, entered into the possession of the said mortgaged premises, or into the receipts of the rents and profits thereof, and hath ever since continued in such possession and receipt, and the said W. B., or the said J. B., on his behalf, also possessed himself of all the title deeds relating to the said premises. And your orator further showeth that the said J. G., the elder, departed this life in or about the year ———, and that the said E., having survived her husband, departed this life on or about, etc., intestate, and without having made, after the death of her said husband, any conveyance or disposition of such right and interest as she retained at his death in the premises, leaving your orator, her eldest son and heir-at-law, who thereupon became entitled to the equity of redemption of the said mortgaged premises.

And your orator further showeth unto your honors, that the said W. B. from time to time made some small payments to the said J. G., the elder, in his lifetime, and after his death to the said E., out of the rents and profits of the said premises; and the said W. B. applied the greater part of such rents and profits to his own use, and by means thereof the said W. B. hath been more than repaid the principal and interest due to him on the security of the said premises. And your orator hath frequently applied to the said W. B., and requested him to come to an account for the rents and profits of the said premises so received by him, and to pay over to your orator what he should appear to have received beyond the amount of the principal and interest due to him, and to deliver up the possession of the said mortgaged premises; and your orator well hoped that the said defendant would have complied with such requests as in justice and equity he ought to have done, but that the said W. B., acting in concert with divers persons unknown to your orator, refuses to comply therewith. To the end therefore, that, etc.

And that the said defendant may answer the premises, and that an account may be taken of what, if anything, is due to the said defendant for principal and interest on the said mortgage, and that an account may also be taken of the rents and profits of the said mortgaged premises, which have been possessed or received by the said defendant, or by any other person or persons by his order or for his use, or which without his wilful default or neglect might have been received, and that if it shall appear that the said rents and profits have been more than sufficient to satisfy the principal and interest of the said mortgage, then that the residue thereof may be paid over to your orator; and that your orator may be permitted to redeem the said premises, your orator being ready and willing, and hereby offering to pay what, if anything, shall appear to remain due in respect to the principal and interest on the said mortgage; and that the said defendant may be decreed to assign and to deliver up possession of the said mortgaged premises to your orator or to such person as he shall direct, free from all incumbrances made by him or any person claiming under him, and may deliver over to your orator all deeds and writings in his custody or power relating to the said mortgaged premises. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1933.

2. Statements in Bill for Redemption of Absolute Deed Taken as Security.

Bill by E. W., of, etc., as assignee of N. W., against A. B., of, etc., states that, on the ——— day of ———, N. W. was seized of a tract of land in C., containing about eleven acres and a half; that about one acre of this land had been sold and conveyed by N. W. to J. F., who, having mortgaged it back to secure the payment of the consideration money, N. W. had entered for breach of condition, and to foreclose the mortgage; that all but the J. F. acre was incumbered by two mortgages, both held by the defendant; the first being a mortgage from said N. W. to F. W., on which there was then due for principal and interest the sum of $1,487.32/100, the defendant being the executor and trustee under the will of F. W., in that right holding this mortgage; and the second being a mortgage from N. W. to the defendant, nominally to secure the sum of $1,200 and interest, but really to secure such sums as might be advanced by the defendant to N. W.; and that on this last-mentioned mortgage there was then due, for such advances, the sum of four hundred dollars.

The bill further states that at the same time N. W. also owed the defendant, personally, eight dollars 10/100, and to him as agent for the heirs of N. W., senior, the sum of one hundred and thirty-six dollars 71/100; that N. W. was much embarrassed in his affairs, and at the pressing solicitation of the defendant, who was his brother-in-law and of W. W., his brother, he consented to make a deed of the said land, excepting the J. F. acre, to the defendant, absolute in form, but intended to stand as security for what N. W. thus owed; that the conveyance was made for that purpose only, and the defendant went into possession; that none of the notes held by the defendant were surrendered or cancelled, the same being retained because the land was held as security only; that the defendant was to have the management of the land and receive the rents and profits, and apply them towards the accruing interest; and if there should be any excess, towards the principal, and that N. W. was to have the right to redeem, at any time when he should be able to do so.

The bill further states that afterwards the defendant, without any notice to N. W. of his intention to sell, or to purchasers of the nature of his title, sold the land by an absolute title, to bona fide purchasers, without notice; and it prays for an account of the rents and profits while held by the defendant, and of the value of the land when sold, and that after deducting the amount for which the land stood as security, the residue may be paid to the plaintiff, who alleges himself to be the assignee, by deed, for a valuable consideration, of all N. W.'s equity in the premises. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1938; Wyman v. Babcock, 2 Curt. C. C. 386.

3. Bill for Redemption by Purchaser of Equity of Redemption.

To the judges of the circuit court of the United States, within and for the district of Massachusetts, sitting in equity:

W. H., of S., in the county of P., in the Rhode Island district, a citizen of the state of Rhode Island, brings this his bill of complaint against the president, directors and company of the W. bank, a corporation legally created under the laws of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and located and transacting business in the city and county of W. in said commonwealth, all citizens of the state of Massachusetts.

And thereupon your orator complains and says: That one S. H., of N., in said county of W., and commonwealth of Massachusetts, on or about the fourteenth day of October, A. D. 1839, was seized in fee simple of, or otherwise well entitled to, certain real estate situated in said N., particularly described in certain deeds of conveyance of the same to said S. H., one from J. F. and S. W., dated December 17, 1821, and one from J. E., dated October 11, 1822, recorded in the registry of deeds for the county of W., book 242, page 32; also a deed from J. E. to said H., dated May 3, 1825, recorded in said registry of deeds, book 248, page 457, copies of which deeds are hereunto annexed, and made a part of this bill marked ———.

And your orator further shows, that the said S. H., on or about said fourteenth day of October, A. D. 1839, made a conveyance of said premises, by way of mortgage, to one H. M. H., of B., in the county of S., and commonwealth of Massachusetts, to secure the repayment of a sum of money, with interest then due from the said S. H. to the said H. M. H.; and that subsequently and on or about the seventh day of March, A. D. 1847, the said H. M. H. transferred and assigned all his interest in said mortgage deed, and in the premises therein described, and in the debt thereby secured, to the defendants. Copies of said mortgage deed, and of the assignment thereof, are hereunto annexed, marked, etc., and made a part of this bill.

And your orator further shows, that after the making of the said transfer, and on the third day of December,

A. D. 1849, the said defendants entered into the possession of the said mortgaged premises, or into the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, and hath ever since continued in such possession and receipt.

And your orator further shows, that since the said mortgaged premises have been in the possession of the defendants, the mills and principal buildings thereon have been destroyed by fire, and that the same were insured by the said S. H., who occupied said premises under lease from said defendants for the benefit of said defendants, as further security for said mortgage debt, and that large sums have been paid to said defendants, on said policies, and that they still hold other policies upon the machinery in said mills, which was also destroyed by fire, which policies have been assigned to said defendants as further security for, and in payment of, said mortgage debt, and that the whole amount of said policies is sufficient to cancel the greater part, if not the whole, of the residue of said debt, which has not otherwise been paid by said S. H., and that if a just account were taken of such payments, and of the sums received or to be received on said policies, which are now due and payable, and of said rents and profits received by said defendants, the whole of said mortgage debt would be found to be justly paid and discharged.

And your orator further shows, that on the ——— day of ———, A. D. 184—, the equity of redemption which the said S. H. retained and owned in said property, was transferred to one A. W. P. by assignments in the course of proceedings under the insolvent law of said commonwealth of Massachusetts, to which the said S. H. was a party, and that said A. W. P., as such assignee of said S. H., by his deed dated the 24th day of June, A. D. 1844, conveyed said equity of redemption to your orator, a copy of which deed is hereunto annexed, marked, etc.

And your orator further shows, that being the owner of said right of redemption in said property, he has applied to said defendants and requested them to come to an account for the rents and profits of the said premises so received by them, and of the moneys received by them from said S. H., for the interest and principal of said debt, and from the policies of insurance, and to deliver up the possession of said mortgaged premises to him, upon being paid what, if anything, should be found to be justly due to them upon said account, which your orator is and has been ready and willing to pay, and is ready to bring the same into court, if anything shall be found to be justly due to said defendants upon the proper taking of said account. And your orator well hoped that the said defendants would have complied with such requests, as in justice and equity they ought to have done; but the said defendants, acting in concert with divers persons unknown to your orator, refuse to comply therewith, and insist upon holding possession of said estate, and foreclosing your orator's right of redemption therein, and retaining said policies and the amounts received thereon, and said rents and profits, without accounting for the same.

To the end, therefore, that the said defendants may, if they can, show why your orator should not have the relief hereby prayed, and the said defendants may answer the premises, and that an account may be taken of what, if anything, is due to the said defendants for principal and interest on the said mortgage, and that an account may be taken of the rents and profits of the said mortgaged premises, which have been possessed or received by the said defendants, or by any other person or persons, by their order or for their use, or which, without their wilful default or neglect, might have been received; and also of all sums that may have been paid by said S. H. or others towards the principal and interest of said mortgage debt; and also of the policies of insurance and other securities which the said defendants have received, and of the sums which they have or might have realized therefrom, on account of the principal and interest of said debt, and of the values of such policies and other securities now in their hands, on account of said debt, which they have not sold or turned into money; and that the said defendants be ordered to apply the same to the payment of said debt; and that, if it shall appear that said rents and profits, and the payments and the proceeds of said policies and other securities have been and are more than sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said mortgage debt, that the residue may be paid over to your orator; and that your orator may be permitted to redeem the said premises, your orator being ready and willing, and hereby offering to pay what, if anything, shall appear to remain due, in respect to the principal and interest on the said mortgage; and that the said defendants may be decreed to deliver up possession of the said mortgaged premises to your orator, or to such person as he shall direct, free from all incumbrances made by them, or any person claiming under them, and may deliver to your orator all deeds and writings in their custody or power relating to the said mortgaged premises, and that your orator may have such further and other relief in the premises as the nature of this case shall require, and to your honors shall seem meet.

May it please your honors to grant unto your orator the subpoena of the United States of America, to be directed to the said president, directors, and company of the W. bank, thereby commanding them at a certain day, and under a certain pain therein to be specified, personally to be and appear before your honors in this honorable court, and then and there to answer all and singular the premises, and to stand to, abide, and perform such order and decree thereof, as to your honors shall seem meet.

W. H.

By his solicitors, T. A. J., and B. F. B. B. & B., solicitors.

3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1935.

B. Orders.

1. Order for Inquiry as to Occupation Rent.

And it being alleged, that the defendant has been in the actual possession and enjoyment of the said mortgaged premises since the ——— day of ———, it is ordered that the master do inquire, whether the defendant has been so in the possession and enjoyment as alleged of the whole of the premises or any part thereof, and if he so find, it is ordered that he do set an annual value by way of occupation rent thereon during the time of the occupation thereof, and charge the defendant with said value in the said account of rents and profits. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2231.

2. Order That Account Be Taken of Repairs and Lasting Improvements.

And it is ordered that the master do take an account of all sums of money laid out or expended by the defendant in necessary repairs and lasting improvements on the premises comprised in the said mortgage, and let interest be computed on the sums which shall appear to have been so laid out in lasting improvements after the same rate of interest as the said mortgage carries, and let what shall appear to be due on the last mentioned account be added to what shall appear to be due for principal, interest, and costs on said mortgage. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed. 2232.

3. Order That Profits Be Applied to Discharge of Mortgage Debt.

And let what shall appear to be due on the said account of rents and profits be applied, first in discharging the interest, and then in sinking the principal money secured by the said mortgage, and if the same shall break in upon the principal, then rests are to be made from time to time, and interest to be computed only on the residue thereof. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2232.

4. Order for Inquiry as to Deterioration.

And it is ordered that the master do inquire whether the mortgaged premises have been deteriorated since the defendant hath been in possession thereof, by the wilful neglect of the defendant in not repairing the same, and to what extent. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2232.

5. Order To Inquire as to Strip and Waste.

And it is further ordered that the said master do take an account of all wood and timber cut down and carried off by said C. L. from said mortgaged premises, and of all other strip and waste by said C. L. committed on the said mortgaged premises. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2232.

6. Order To Take Account of Insurance Premiums.

That the master do take an account, etc., including the sums the defendant has paid for premiums on the policy of insurance in the pleadings mentioned, with interest thereon at the same rate as the mortgage carries. 3

Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.)
2233.

C. Decrees.

1. Decree for Redemption and Account Against Mortgagee in Possession.

(Among other things.) The court doth think fit and so order and decree, that it be referred to Mr. A. B., one of the masters, etc., to take an account of what is due to the defendant, J. R., for principal and interest on his said mortgage, and to tax him his costs of this suit. And the said master is also to take an account of the rents and profits of the said mortgaged premises come to the hands of the said defendant, J. R., or of any other person or persons by his order or for his use, or which he without wilful default might have received. And what shall be coming on the said account of rents and profits is to be deducted out of what shall be found due to the said defendant, J. R., for principal, interest and costs. And for the better taking the said account, all parties are to produce, etc., as the said master shall direct, who in taking the said account is to make unto the parties all just allowances. And what upon the balance of the said account shall be certified due to the said defendant, J. R., for his principal, interest, and costs, it is ordered and decreed that the said plaintiff, A. O., do pay the same unto the said defendant, J. R., within _____ months after the said master shall have made his report, at such time and place as the said master shall appoint, and that thereupon the said defendant do re-surrender (re-convey, re-assign) the said mortgaged premises unto the said plaintiff A. O., or unto such person or persons as he shall direct, free, and clear of all incumbrances done by him or any person claiming, by, from, or under him. But in default of the said plaintiff's paying unto the said defendant, J. R., what shall be so certified due to him for principal, interest, and costs as aforesaid, after such deductions made thereout as aforesaid, at such time and place as aforesaid, it is ordered that the said plaintiff's bill, as against the said defendant, J. R., do from thenceforth stand dismissed out of this court, with costs, to be taxed by the said master.

2231.

2. Dismissal of Bill for Redemption, on Failure To Pay Amount Found Due.

Upon motion, etc., by counsel for the defendant, who alleged that by the decree, dated, etc., it was referred to Mr. A. B., etc., to take an account, etc. That in pursuance of the said decree, the said master made his report, dated, etc., and thereby certified that there would be due to the defendant for principal and interest on his said mortgage, and for his costs, etc., on the _____ day of _____, the sum of $_____, which the said plaintiff was thereby appointed to pay to the defendant, on, etc., at, etc., between, etc.; that it appears by, etc., that he did attend, etc. (naming the place and time appointed) in order to receive from the plaintiff the said sum of $_____, but the plaintiff did not, nor did any person on his behalf, attend to pay the said sum, and that the said sum hath not, nor hath any part thereof, been since paid to the defendant, but that the whole thereof still remains due and owing; and upon reading the said decree, the said master's report, etc., this court doth order that the plaintiff's bill do stand dismissed out of this court with costs, to be taxed, etc., and paid to, etc., pursuant to said decree.

D. Complaints.

1. Complaint To Redeem by Mortgagee Against Mortgagee.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the plaintiff having made to the defendant a bond under his hand and seal, dated that day, conditioned to pay, etc. (state condition of bond), and, being owner in fee (or otherwise) of the premises hereinafter described, made to the defendant a mortgage of even date therewith, to secure the payment thereof, whereby the plaintiff granted, bargained, and sold to the defendant the said premises, upon the condition nevertheless that (state condition of the mortgage), which said premises are (bounded and) described as follows: (insert description from mortgage).

II. That the plaintiff has paid to the defendant all the interest due on said _____ dollars, from the _____ day of _____, 18____, up to the _____ day of _____, 18____; and that on the _____ day of _____, 18—, when (or, and after) the said mortgage became due, he tendered to the defendant the sum of ——— dollars, together with all interest (and costs) due thereon, and has ever since been ready and willing to pay the same; but the defendant refused to receive the same or to deliver up said mortgage to be cancelled.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment that an account be taken of the amount now due the defendant on said bond and mortgage for principal, interest (and costs); and that the plaintiff may be at liberty to redeem said mortgaged premises upon payment of whatever may be found so due; and that the defendant, upon payment thereof, acknowledge satisfaction of said mortgage, and discharge the same of record. 1 Abb. Forms 604.

2. Complaint To Redeem by Lessee.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the defendant (mortgagor) being the owner in fee of the following described premises, leased the same to the plaintiff by an indenture dated on that day, a copy of which is annexed as a part of this complaint; and that by virtue of said lease the plaintiff entered upon, and ever since has been, and still is, in possession of said premises, and is vested with the unexpired term thereof; which premises are (bounded) and described as follows: (description).

II. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, said (mortgagor) made to the defendant (mortgagee) a mortgage upon the same premises, to secure ——— dollars, payable on the ——— day of ———, 18—.

III. That on the said day the mortgage became due, but has not been paid; and that said (mortgagee) has commenced an action (or proceedings under the statute) to foreclose the same for such default.

IV. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the plaintiff tendered ——— dollars to said (mortgagee), being the amount due on said mortgage, with interest, and the costs of said action (or proceeding) up to that time, in redemption of said mortgage, and has ever since been ready and willing to pay the same; and did then request him to assign the same to the plaintiff, but he refused so to do.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment that he be allowed to redeem the said mortgage upon paying to the defendant (mortgagee) the amount due upon the mortgage; and that upon such payment the defendant, by an assignment duly executed and acknowledged by him, assign said bond and mortgage to the plaintiff. 1 Abb. Forms 605.

E. Order of Reference To Take Account in an Action To Redeem.

This cause coming on to be tried at a special term of this court held on the ——— day of ———, 18—, before J. J., one of the justices thereof, and it appearing that the taking of an account is necessary for the information of the court before judgment; thereupon, on hearing the counsel for the respective parties, ordered, that it be referred to R. F., esq., as sole referee, to take and state an account between the several parties to this action, in the manner and under the directions following to-wit:

That he compute the amount due upon the bond and mortgage executed by the plaintiff to the defendant, Z., mentioned in the complaint, from the 8th day of March, 1839, down to which time the interest appears to have been paid.

That he ascertain (from the deeds or otherwise) the consideration paid by the purchasers and defendants, X. and Y., from the said Z., at the auction sale of the said premises made on the 7th of November, 1850 (proceeding to state the mode of apportioning the redemption money among them).

That he open and state an account with each of such defendants, in which he is to allow such party his proportion of the mortgage money so ascertained as aforesaid, with interest; and also all taxes and assessments paid by him or those under whom he claims, upon the lots now held by him; and also any sum paid for necessary repairs upon the same, and any amount expended for lasting improvements, with interest on such sums respectively; and that he state and charge such party with any rents and profits of such lots received by him, or those under whom he claims, or by any one on his or their belief, or which could have been received without wilful default, with interest.

And upon the coming in and confirmation of the report, the action may be brought on for final determination. 2 Abb. Forms 672.

F. Judgment for Redemption, Ordinary Form.

(Recitals of proceedings.)

Therefore, it is adjudged, that the defendant pay unto the said plaintiff _____ dollars, the amount which is so found and reported due to him, for principal and interest as aforesaid (with _____ dollars for the said value of his improvements), and with _____ dollars costs, hereby adjudged to the plaintiff, within six months after the entry of this judgment, and service of notice thereof (with interest thereon from the date of the above-mentioned report, until the time of such payment), at (specifying place and hours for paying); and that the said defendant do surrender the said mortgaged premises unto the said plaintiff, or unto such person or persons as he shall direct, free and clear of all incumbrances, done or suffered by him, or any person claiming by, from, or under him, and deliver unto the said plaintiff, on oath, under the direction of the court if the parties cannot agree in respect thereto, all deeds and writings in his custody or power, relating to the said mortgaged premises. But in default of the said plaintiff's paying unto the said defendant what is so reported to be due to him for principal, interest (improvements), and costs as aforesaid, it is ordered, that this action do from thenceforth stand dismissed out of this court, with costs. 2 Abb. Forms 573.

G. Affidavit by Mortgagee of Non-payment of Money.

Y. Z., the above defendant, being duly sworn, says: .

That he has not, nor has any other person or persons on his behalf, at any time heretofore received or been paid the sum of _____ dollars, or any part thereof, which by the judgment made in this cause, on the _____ day of _____, 18____ (and the referee's report dated _____, made in this cause pursuant to the said judgment), was ordered and appointed to be paid to this deponent; but that the said sum of _____ dollars, with interest, now remains due and owing to this deponent upon the mortgage in the said judgment mentioned. 2 Abb. Forms 576.

H. Final Order Dismissing Action for Redemption.

Upon the judgment in this cause, entered on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and on reading and filing due proof of service upon the said plaintiff more than six months since, of notice of the entry of the same (and of a copy of the bill of costs as taxed), and on reading and filing the affidavit of the said defendant, showing that the amount thereby required to be paid, has not been paid; but that the whole of the said sum of _____ dollars still remains due and owing from the plaintiff to the said defendant for his principal, interest, and costs; on motion of O. P., of counsel for the defendant, and on hearing Q. R., of counsel for the plaintiff, in opposition;

It is ordered and adjudged, that this action be, and hereby is dismissed, with costs. 2 Abb. Forms 576.

Sir, please to take notice, that upon the affidavit (or affidavits), with a copy (or copies) whereof you are herewith served, this court will be moved, at the next special term, to be held at the ——— in the city of ———, on the first Tuesday of ——— next, that (state the relief to be moved for). Dated, ———, 18——.

Yours, etc.,

G. H., defendant's attorney.

To E. F., esq.,

Plaintiff's attorney.

Burr. App. 205, §399.

Note.—It has not been definitely laid down when an application for an order should be by petition and when by motion. There is propriety, it would seem, in moving by petition when the application is in behalf of a person not already named as a party, or in behalf of one not sui juris.

B. Notice of Motion, General Form (Code).

(Title of the cause.)

Please take notice, that on the affidavit of which a copy is herewith served, the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at ———, on the ——— day of ———, 18——, at ——— o'clock in the ——— noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard (state the relief to be moved for).

D. Notice of Motion for Order To Enter Order Nunc Pro Tunc.

(Commencement of notice of motion as in I. B.) That the order made in this cause, dated on the ——— day of ———, 18——, which has been drawn up, but by mistake omitted to be entered within the time limited therefor (by the rules of this court), may be entered nunc pro tunc. 2 Abb. Forms 693.

E. Countermand of Notice.

F. Order To Show Cause, General Form.

(Title of cause.)

On the foregoing affidavit (and on the pleadings), (and demand therein mentioned), let the plaintiff show cause at a special term to be held at _____ on the _____ day of _____, at _____ o'clock in the _____ noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, why (state the relief to be moved for) should not be (state the relief to be granted), (and why the defendant should not have the costs of this motion), (and such other relief as may be just). (And until the determination of this motion that all proceedings on the part of the plaintiff be stayed.) (And particularly [stating any proceeding desired to be stayed].) 2 Abb. Forms 245.

Note.—This form is placed here because in many jurisdictions the order to show cause serves principally as a short notice of a motion.

II. Affidavits.

A. Affidavit, General Form.

(Title.) (City and) county of _____, ss.

John Doe, of _____ (and, if there are two deponents, Richard Roe of _____, severally) being duly sworn, says (each for himself) that he is an agent of the plaintiffs (or other description of the deponent).

(Statement of facts.)

John Doe,

Richard Roe, his+mark.

Sworn (or, affirmed) before me, this _____ day of _____, 186—,

(Official designation.)

1 Abb. Forms 4.

Note.—Omit title if action not pending.

Note.—It is a common fault in drawing affidavits to state matters in inducement previous to the beginning of the oath, (as "John Doe, one of the parties above named, being duly sworn, on oath, says," instead of "John Doe, being duly sworn, on oath, says, he is one of the parties above named"). This has carried reversible error into records.

In some jurisdictions a practice has grown up of attaching to the affidavit by a party in support of a motion a prayer for the relief desired similar to that in case of a petition.

B. Jurats.

1. Jurat to Affidavit, Where Deponent Is a Lunatic.

Sworn before me, this _____ day of _____, 18—, I having first examined the deponent, a lunatic, as to the state of his mind, and he appearing to me to be now of sound mind, capable of understanding, and actually understanding, the nature and contents hereof.

(Official designation.)

1 Abb. Forms 6.

2. Jurat, Where Deponent Is a Foreigner.

Sworn before me, this _____ day of _____, 18—, I having first sworn M. N., an interpreter, to interpret truly the same to the deponent, who is a foreigner not understanding the language, and he having so interpreted the same to deponent.

(Signature as above.)

1 Abb. Forms 6.

3. Jurat to Affidavit, Where Deponent Is Blind, or Illiterate.

Sworn before me, this _____ day of _____, 18—, the same having been in my presence (or, by me) read to the deponent, he being blind (or, illiterate), and he appearing to me to understand the same.

(Signature as above.)

1 Abb. Forms 6.

III. Motion in Writing.

For forms, see cross-references above under this title, and 2 STANDARD PROC. 900, 915.

Note.—The statutes of some states require certain motions to be in writing and to be filed in the action. This filing of a written motion is not the making of a motion; it must be called up in court on notice the same as any other motion.

MULTIFARIOUSNESS.Demurrer in Equity for Multifariousness (a).

The demurrer of C. D., defendant, to the bill of complaint of A. B., complainant.

This defendant (or, these defendants respectively), by protestation, not confessing or acknowledging all or any of the matters and things in the said complainant's bill to be true, in such manner and form as the same are therein set forth and alleged, doth (or, do) demur thereto, and for cause of demurrer sheweth (or, show) that it appears by the said bill that the same is exhibited by the said complainant against this defendant and T. M., W. P. and N. W. as defendants thereto, for several distinct matters and causes, in many whereof as appears by the said bill, this defendant is in no way interested; and, by reason of such distinct matters, the said bill is drawn out to a considerable length, and this defendant is compelled to take a copy of the whole thereof; and by joining distinct matters together which do not depend on each other, the proceedings in the progress of the said suit will be intricate and prolix, and this defendant put to unnecessary charges and expenses, in matters which in no way relate to or concern him. Wherefore this defendant (or, these defendants) demands the judgment of this honorable court whether he shall be compelled to make any further or other answer to the said bill or any of the matters and things therein contained, and prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs in this behalf sustained. 2 Barb. Ch. Pr. 406.

Demurrer in Equity for Multifariousness (b).

"That it appears by the said bill that the same is exhibited by the complainant Isaac N. Jenness, and the several other persons therein named as complainants thereto, for distinct matters and causes, in several whereof, as appears by the said bill, the said complainants are not in any manner in common or jointly interested or concerned, and that the bill is multifarious, and that the said complainants have not, in and by their said bill, made or stated such a case as entitled them in a court of equity to any relief from or against this defendant touching the matters contained in said bill, or any of such matters." Jenness v. Smith, 64 Mich. 91, 30 N. W. 909.

I. Complaint.

- A. Complaint Against City, General Form.

The plaintiff complaining of the defendant, a municipal corporation created by the laws of this state, alleges:

- I. (Set forth cause of action.)

II. And this plaintiff further shows that heretofore, and on or about the _____ day of _____, he presented in writing to the comptroller of the city of New York the claim hereinbefore set forth, upon which this action is founded, for adjustment, and that at least twenty days have elapsed since such presentation of the claim.

III. And this plaintiff further shows that heretofore, and on or about the _____ day of _____, and after the expiration of the said twenty days, he made a second demand, in writing, upon the said comptroller, for the adjustment of the said claim, but the said comptroller has hitherto wholly neglected and refused to make an adjustment or payment thereof. 1 Abb. Forms 139.

Note. Use care in examining charter and statutes for special provisions as to acts preliminary to action.

*B. Complaint Against Municipality.
Neglect of Excavation in Street.*

I. That the defendants are a municipal corporation, duly organized under the laws of this state.

II. That, among other things, it is by their charter made their duty to keep the streets in said city in good order, and at all times properly protect any excavations made in said streets. That they accepted said charter imposing said duty, and undertook the performance thereof prior to the year 1855.

III. That a certain street in said city, known as _____, was and is much traveled and used by the citizens thereof and others; so much so, that said duty of said defendants as to said street was, and became at the time thereafter mentioned, a matter of public and general concern.

IV. That on or about the _____ day of _____, 18____, a deep and dangerous hole or trench was excavated in said street, and suffered by the defendants, during a night on or about said day, to remain open, exposed, and without proper protection or notice to citizens and travelers against accidents.

V. That the plaintiff on the night aforesaid was lawfully traveling on said street, and, wholly unaware of danger, was accidentally, and without fault or negligence on her part, precipitated into said hole, whereby she received great bodily injury, and was made sick, sore, lame, and disabled for the space of _____; during all which time she thereby suffered great pain, and was thereby then and there hindered from attending to her business and domestic affairs, and has ever since remained and continued sick, sore, lame, and disabled; and was put to great expense in trying to be cured, and has suffered, and still continues to suffer great pain of body by means of such injuries, to her damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 446.

C. Complaint Against City or County for Damage Done by Mob or Riot.

I. That at and before the times hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff was the occupant of the store and basement, with appurtenances, in the building known as No. _____, in _____ street, in _____, and therein he conducted a business as a gunsmith, and dealer in guns, pistols, gun materials and fittings, and military equipments, fishing tackle, apparatus, and equipments.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and less than three months before the commencement of this action, a mob of disorderly and riotous persons collected together in said (town) and created a riot.

III. That on said day the rioters broke into the plaintiff's said store and premises, and carried away therefrom and destroyed his goods and merchandise. (That a number of articles he was able to and did save from the rioters, by concealing them in the said basement. That he used all diligence to prevent the breaking open of his store and the destruction and injury of his aforesaid property, but was unable to prevent the same.)

IV. That on, etc., being apprised of a threat or attempt on the part of the rioters to destroy or injure his property, he immediately notified the mayor of said city (or, the sheriff of said county; or where the action is against the mayor or sheriff, notified the defendants) of all the facts brought to his knowledge in relation to such threat or attempt.

V. That the said defendants, though having due notice of the said riot immediately upon its breaking out, did not themselves protect the plaintiff's property, but neglected so to do.

VI. That the value of his said goods and chattels so destroyed or injured by the said rioters was _____ dollars, after deducting the value of all goods returned to him by the police, as retaken from the rioters; and he also sustained _____ dollars damage, by the breaking of his store, and injury to the building, and the breaking up of his business for _____ days thereafter by reason of the destruction of his stock of goods. 1 Abb. Forms 466.

D. Complaint To Recover Agreed Damages for Property Illegally Taken for Public Improvement.

1. That the defendant is a body corporate, duly created and organized by and under the laws of said state.

2. That heretofore, to-wit, on the eighth day of February, 1873, plaintiff was seized and possessed in fee simple of a certain lot or parcel of land situate in the town of Chester, at the southeast corner of Main and Columbia streets, containing a frontage on said Main street of twenty-three feet, and a depth on Columbia street of two hundred and nineteen feet.

3. That at the date above named, defendant, through its officers and agents, and for the purpose, as it is alleged, of widening said Main street, entered upon and seized and dedicated to the public use the whole of the front of said lot, bounding a distance of twenty-three feet on Main street and to the depth of twelve feet, against the protest and objections of plaintiff, and to his damage $500.

4. That plaintiff, at the time of said seizure, had begun to erect a certain building of brick on his said premises; and in consequence of said seizure of a part thereof was compelled to erect the same on more unfavorable ground, whereby the expense of erecting was greatly increased, and to the amount of $140.

5. That plaintiff, pursuant to the directions and ordinances of said defendant corporation, was also put to the further expense, in consequence of the seizure of his said premises, of making and erecting a new sidewalk or pavement upon the portion of the premises so seized, at a cost of $20.

6. That at the time of said seizure and dedication of plaintiff's said premises, and at divers times afterwards, the defendant, by its corporate authorities, faithfully promised and agreed with plaintiff, in consideration that he would acquiesce in said seizure and dedication to public use of the premises and abandon all further resistance and objection to said seizure and dedication of the same to public use, that defendant would pay to him the full value of said premises so seized, and also the additional expenses incurred by him in the erection of his building and sidewalk; but although plaintiff, relying upon said promises, did acquiesce in the dedication to public use of said premises, the defendant has neglected and refused, and still neglects and refuses, to pay the value of said premises according to its said promises, and plaintiff alleges that said premises so seized and dedicated and his increased expenses of sidewalk and building were reasonably of the value of $660, and that defendant should be required to pay said sum, with interest, by way of damage for its detention.

Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment against said defendant for relief, in that defendant be required to pay to him the value of his said premises and his expenses, pursuant to its promise and undertaking, and costs. Coleman v. Chester, 14 S. C. 286.

E. Complaint To Recover Amount of Interest Coupon.

"That on the 1st day of January, 1870, at Nebraska City, in said county, the said defendant made and issued its certain bond, dated on said day at said place, whereby, for value received, it promised twenty years from date to pay the bearer one thousand dollars at the Broadway Bank in the city of New York, with interest payable semi-annually at said bank, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, according to divers coupons thereto attached, which bond, in order to distinguish it from others of like character, was marked No. ———; that attached thereto was, among others, a certain coupon, bearing date on the day and at the place aforementioned, made by said county, whereby it promised to pay to the bearer thereof forty dollars at said bank, on the 1st day of July, 1870, for the interest then and there to be due on said bond, which coupon is in words and figures as follows:—

Nebraska City, January 1, 1870.

$40.

"The county of Otoe, in the State of Nebraska, promises to pay to the bearer forty dollars, at Broadway Bank, New York, on the 1st day of July, 1870, being for six months' interest on bond No. ———.

"A. Stout,

"President board county commissioners.

"George R. McCallum, clerk.

"That before said coupon by its terms became due and payable, the said bond, together with said coupon, came to and for value became the property of this plaintiff, who thereupon became, and has ever since been and still is the true and lawful holder thereof; that when said coupon by its terms became due and payable, the same was duly presented at the place of payment therein mentioned, and payment demanded, but refused because said defendant had not nor did it ever have funds at said place; that the said plaintiff has often and in a friendly manner, applied to said defendant, at its treasury, in Nebraska City, in said county, to pay said coupon, but it has refused to do so, notwithstanding it is justly indebted thereon to this plaintiff in the full sum of forty dollars, with interest from the first day of July, 1870." Chicago, etc. R. Co. v. Otoe County, 1 Dill. (U. S.) 338.

Note.—Held, in federal courts, the plaintiff is not bound to show preliminary steps to issue bonds. Want of authority to issue is a matter to be pleaded in defense.

I, A. B., the plaintiff in the above entitled action, being duly sworn, says, that (here state cause of action, see Forms II, A, 1; II, L, in Attachment, this volume).

II. (State the condition of the cause, e. g., thus): That the said defendant has not as yet served any answer or demurrer to the complaint herein, which was served on him on the —— day of ——, 18——, as deponent is informed by his attorney herein, nor has he given any notice of appearance herein.

III. That being so indebted (or, liable) to this deponent, the said defendant has lately threatened and given out that he will speedily leave this state, and go abroad to —— (here state facts substantiating this allegation).

IV. And this deponent verily believes, that if the said defendant should be suffered to leave this state, this deponent will either lose his said debt, or the same will be very much endangered, and it will be difficult, if not impossible, for this deponent to recover the same. 2 Abb. Forms 306.

C. Affidavit To Obtain Ne Exeat, in an Action for Accounting.

A. B., the above named plaintiff, being duly sworn, says:

I. That the said Y. Z., formerly entered into an agreement with this deponent to fit out, and put a cargo on board of, a certain vessel, called the M., for a voyage from N. Y. to the island of J., and from such island to N. O. That, accordingly, such vessel was engaged and fitted out, and a cargo put on board; and that the said defendant Y. Z. went out as master and supercargo of such vessel and her cargo, with full power to dispose of the same.

II. That the said Y. Z. proceeded to the said island of J., and there sold and disposed of the cargo of such vessel, and, with the proceeds thereof, purchased a quantity of rum and sugar, and loaded the vessel with the same, and therewith proceeded to N. O. aforesaid, where he sold and disposed of such cargo, and received the proceeds thereof.

III. And, further, this deponent says, that the said Y. Z. has rendered to this deponent sundry accounts of his transactions and dealings in and about such adventure, and the avails and proceeds thereof; and this deponent has also rendered to the said Y. Z. divers accounts relating to the same, which have been acquiesced in and agreed to by the said Y. Z. And this deponent says, that upon such accounts, respectively, it appears that the said Y. Z. is justly indebted to this deponent in the sum of _____ dollars, by the admission of the said Y. Z.

IV. But this deponent says, that such accounts rendered by the said Y. Z. are, in several respects, erroneous, and contain divers improper and over-charges against such adventure and this deponent, and have omitted divers proper credits to be given in account with the same. And this deponent verily believes, that upon a fair and just account to be made up, stated, and settled between this deponent and the said Y. Z. in relation to such adventure and transactions, he, the said Y. Z. would be found justly and truly indebted to this deponent in the sum of _____ dollars; for which debt, or sum of money, this deponent has not received any security or satisfaction.

V. And this deponent further says that he has lately commenced an action in this court against the said Y. Z., setting forth the premises fully and at large, and specifying various errors, over-charges, and omissions in such accounts rendered by the said Y. Z., and praying that an account may be truly settled and stated under the direction of this court, and that this deponent may be paid the balance which shall be found due thereupon; in which action the said Y. Z. has appeared, but has not answered.

VI. And this deponent further says, that the said Y. Z. has declared his intention to leave the state of New York, and to proceed to England, where he intended to settle and reside; and that the said Y. Z. on or about the _____ day of _____ last, informed one M. N. to that effect, as by the affidavit of the said M. N. appears. And this deponent verily believes that if the said Y. Z. goes out of the state of New York, according to his intention, he will not return, and thereby this deponent will be in great danger of losing his said debt. 2 Abb. Forms 307.

II. Application for Ne Exeat by Petition.

To the justices of the _____ court of _____.

The petition of J. J., the plaintiff, shows:

I. That your petitioner is plaintiff in the above entitled action. That such action was commenced on the _____ day of _____, by the service of a summons, together with a copy of the complaint, upon the above named defendant, R. J. That the object of such action was to obtain a limited divorce in favor of the said plaintiff against the said defendant, upon the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment of said plaintiff, your petitioner, by said defendant, and also upon the ground of such conduct on the part of said defendant towards your petitioner, his wife, as renders it unsafe and improper for her to cohabit with him, said defendant; as more fully appears by the pleadings now on file, to which, for greater certainty, your petitioner refers.

II. That the defendant answered the complaint in this action, and the issues were tried before Hon. M. N., one of the justices of this court, without a jury, at a special term thereof, on the _____ day of _____ last past. That no decision thereon has yet been made or rendered by said justice to the knowledge or belief of your petitioner, nor has any final judgment in said action yet been made or entered.

III. That by an order made and entered in said action on the _____ day of _____ last past, now on file in the office of the clerk, and to which your petitioner, for greater certainty, refers, it was, among other things, provided, "that upon Saturday of each and every week during the pending of this action, and until the final judgment therein, or the other or further order of this court, said defendant is ordered and directed to pay to the said plaintiff the sum of ten dollars as alimony during the pending of this action, and for the education of, and support of, the children therein mentioned;" and also, "that during the pending of this action, and until the other or further order of this court, the defendant R. J. is hereby enjoined and restrained from removing the said children in the complaint in this action named and described, or any, or all of them, from the custody, care, or control of the said plaintiff, J. J., or in any way or manner interfering with her custody and care of them, or either of them; and until such judgment or order, the custody and control of the said children is, by this order, awarded to the said plaintiff, J. J."

IV. That a copy of such order was duly served on said defendant, and that such order has not in any way been altered or modified.

V. That since the trial of such action the defendant has, from time to time, paid to your petitioner the moneys to her directed to be paid by said order; but that, on the _____ day of _____, instant, between the hours of six and eight in the morning, the said defendant did enter the premises occupied by your petitioner with her children, and, against the remonstrance and objection of your petitioner, forcibly took and removed therefrom all the furniture and household utensils heretofore therein remaining, and caused the same to be sent without the state of New York, to _____, in the state of _____.

VI. That the said defendant has also, pending this action, repeatedly stated to your petitioner that he had no real estate in the state of New York, and no personal property, except his printing type, which would soon be worn out; and that he was not bound to support your petitioner, unless he wished to. That he had rented a place in said _____ for a year, and that he meant to reside and live there; and threatened also that he would remove your petitioner's children out of the jurisdiction of this court; and she verily believes, from such statements and threats, and such removal of such furniture, as above stated, that he now intends to depart out of the jurisdiction of this court, with intent to evade such order.

VII. Your petitioner further states, that the said defendant R. J. is a printer; that, according to his own statement upon examination before a referee in this action, he does not own any real estate in this state, and his income is derivable from his earnings as a printer; that he has no other property, to the knowledge of your petitioner, which might be resorted to for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of said order above referred to, in case he should leave this state; but that he is abundantly able, from his earnings, to pay the alimony or dower, in addition to his own comfortable support.

VIII. That your petitioner has no other means of support, except as in said complaint averred, to which she asks leave to refer; and that the youngest child of your petitioner by said defendant is but seven months old.

Your petitioner therefore prays that a writ of ne exeat may issue against said defendant R. J., to restrain him from departing without this state, and that he may be compelled to give such security or bail as may be proper.

(Verification.) 2 Abb. Forms 308.

III. Writ of Ne Exeat.

The people of the state of New York, to the sheriff of the county of _____:

Whereas, it appears to us in our _____ court (of the _____ of _____), before (one of) the justices thereof, that Y. Z. is greatly indebted to A. B., and the said A. B. has commenced an action in our said court against the said Y. Z., which said action is now pending and undetermined (or, that the said A. B. has commenced an action against said Y. Z. for a divorce, and that said defendant has been ordered by our said court to pay _____ dollars a week as alimony to the said plaintiff, pending the action), and that the said defendant designs quickly to go into parts without this state, as by oath made on that behalf appears, which tends to the great prejudice and damage of the said plaintiff.

Therefore, in order to prevent this injustice, we hereby command you that you do without delay cause the said Y. Z. personally to come before you, and give sufficient bail or security, in the sum of _____ dollars, that he will not go, nor attempt to go, into parts without our state without leave of our said court; and in case he shall refuse to give such bail or security, then you are to commit him to the common jail of your county, there to be kept in safe custody until he shall do it of his accord; and when you have taken such security, or made such commitment, you are forthwith to make and to return a certificate thereof to our said court, together with this writ.

Witness, Hon. _____, one of the justices of our _____ court (at chambers), this _____ day of _____, 18—.

(Signature of clerk.)

V. Order To Show Cause Why Ne Exeat Should Not Be Set Aside.

On the annexed affidavits of the defendant and of M. N., and on all the pleadings and proceedings herein, let the plaintiff, or her attorneys, show cause, before a justice of this court, at a special term thereof to be held at _____, in _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at _____ o'clock in the _____ noon, why the writ of ne exeat heretofore granted herein (or, of which a copy is annexed) should not be set aside as void, or im-providently granted (or, for neglect of the plaintiff to prosecute the action, or, as irregular in this, specifying irregularity); or for such other or further order as may be proper. 2 Abb. Forms 311.

VI. Order Setting Writ Aside.

On reading and filing the affidavits of the defendant and M. N., and the copy of the petition of the plaintiff, and copy of the writ of ne exeat there-to annexed, and the order to show cause why said writ should not be set aside; and after hearing O. P., of counsel for the plaintiff, in opposition, and on motion of Q. R., of counsel for the defendant:

Ordered, that the said writ or order of ne exeat, issued out of this court, on the _____ day of _____, 18—; to the sheriff of the county of _____, and commanding said sheriff to cause the defendant R. J. personally to come before him, and give sufficient bail or security, in the sum of _____ dollars, that the said R. J. will not go nor attempt to go into parts without the state of New York, and in default of giving such bail or security to commit him, the said R. J., to the common jail of said county, there to be kept in safe custody until he shall do it of his own accord, etc., be set aside, vacated, and discharged; and the said R. J. is hereby discharged from the custody of said sheriff under said writ or order. 2 Abb. Forms 312.

VII. Affidavit To Set Aside Ne Exeat for Neglect To Prosecute.

M. N., attorney for the defendant, being duly sworn, says:

I. That this action was commenced, by the service of a summons upon said defendant, on the _____ day of _____, 18—; and that on the _____ day of said month this deponent served upon the plaintiff's attorney herein a notice of retainer for the defendant in this action, and a demand of a copy of the complaint herein, as appears by said notice, and demand and proof of service annexed.

II. That no copy of the complaint in this action has been served upon this deponent, although more than twenty days have elapsed since the service of the said demand of a copy of the complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 312.

VIII. Bail Bond on Arrest on Ne Exeat.

Whereas, the said _____ has been arrested under and by virtue of a writ of ne exeat issued out of and under the seal of the supreme court of this state, by which the said sheriff was required to hold the said _____ to bail in the sum of _____ dollars; now therefore, the condition of the said obligation is such that if the said _____ shall go or depart, or attempt to depart from or beyond the said state, without the leave of such court, then the said _____ and each of them will pay or cause to be paid unto the said _____ sheriff as aforesaid, the said sum of _____ dollars; but if the said _____ shall not go or depart, or attempt to go or depart from or beyond the said state without leave of such court, then and in that case this obligation shall be void and of no effect; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence _____. (Affidavit of justification and acknowledgment.) Crocker on Sheriffs (2d ed.) 559.

IX. Affidavit of Sheriff to Copy of Bond.

(Title of action.)

County of _____, ss.: A. B., sheriff of _____ county, being sworn, says that the within is a true copy of the bond taken by him on the arrest of the defendant therein named, and now in his possession, with all the indorsements thereon.

I. Declarations.

A. Declaration Against Owner of Coach for Negligence of Servant in Driving Against Chaise.

For that whereas the said plaintiff, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), was lawfully possessed of a certain carriage, to-wit (a chaise), of great value, to-wit, of the value of _____ dollars, and of a certain horse (or divers, to-wit, _____ horses), then and there drawing the same, and in which said carriage the said plaintiff was then riding in and along a certain public and common highway; and the said defendant was also then and there possessed of a certain other carriage, and of a certain other horse (or divers, to-wit, _____ horses), drawing the same, and which said carriage and horses of the said defendant were then and there under the care, government and direction of a certain then servant and there driving the same, in and of the said defendant, who was then along the said highway, to-wit, at, etc. Nevertheless the said defendant then and there, by his said servant, so carelessly and improperly drove, governed and directed his said carriage and horses, that by and through the carelessness, negligence and improper conduct of the said defendant by his said servant in that behalf (one of the hind wheels of), the said carriage of the said defendant, then and there ran, and struck with great force and violence upon and against the said carriage of the said plaintiff, and thereby then and there crushed, broke to pieces, damaged and destroyed the same (and one of the wheels, and the splinter bar, and the shafts thereof), and the said carriage of the said plaintiff, thereby * then and there became, and was rendered of no use or value to the said plaintiff, and thereby the said plaintiff was then and there cast out and thrown with great force and violence, from and off his said carriage, to and upon the ground there, and by means of the several premises aforesaid, the said plaintiff was then and there greatly bruised, hurt and wounded, and became and was sick, sore, lame and disordered, and so remained and continued for a long space of time, to-wit, hitherto, during all which time the said plaintiff suffered great pain, and was hindered and prevented from performing and transacting his lawful affairs and business by him during that time to be done and transacted; and also, by means of the premises, was forced and obliged to pay, lay out and expend, and hath necessarily paid, laid out and expended, divers sums of money, in the whole amounting to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, in and about the endeavoring to be healed and cured of his said wounds, hurt and bruises, occasioned as aforesaid; and also by means of the premises, the said plaintiff hath paid, laid out and expended, divers large sums of money, amounting in the whole to a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of _____ dollars, in and about the repairing of the said chaise so damaged as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc.

And whereas also the said plaintiff, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), was lawfully possessed of a certain other carriage, to-wit, a chaise of great value, to-wit, of the value of seven hundred dollars, and of a certain other horse (or of divers others, to-wit, _____ horses), then and there harnessed to the same, and in which said carriage the said plaintiff was then riding in and along a certain public and common highway; and the said defendant was also then and there possessed of a certain other carriage, and of a certain other horse (or divers, to-wit, _____ other horses), drawing the same, and which said last mentioned carriage and horse (or horses) the said defendant was then and there driving in and along the said highway, to-wit, at, etc. (venue). Nevertheless the said defendant then and there so carelessly and improperly drove, governed and directed his said carriage and horses, that by and through the carelessness, negligence and improper conduct of the said defendant, the said carriage of the said defendant then and there crushed, broke to pieces, damaged and destroyed the said carriage of the said plaintiff, and the said carriage of the said plaintiff thereby then and there became and was rendered of no use or value to the said plaintiff, and thereby, etc. (Conclude as in the first count from the *, and add the usual general conclusion.) Burr. App. 310, §579; 2 Chit. Pl. 710; Yates' Forms 417.

B. Declaration Against Common Carrier for Losing Box.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by L. V., his attorney, complains of C. D., de-defendant in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea of trespass on the case: For that whereas the said defendant, before and at the time of the delivery of the goods and chattels to him, as hereinafter next mentioned, was, and from thence hitherto hath been, and still is, a common carrier of goods and chattels for hire, to-wit, from ——— to ———, to-wit, at, etc. And whereas also the said plaintiff, whilst the said defendant was such common carrier as aforesaid, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (the real place), to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), caused to be delivered to the said defendant, and the said defendant then and there accepted, and received of and from the said plaintiff, a certain box (or parcel, according to the fact), containing divers goods and chattels, to-wit, etc. (here specify the articles according to their description), of the said plaintiff, of great value, to-wit, of the value of ——— dollars, to be safely and securely carried and conveyed by the said defendant, from ——— aforesaid, to ——— aforesaid; and there, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid, safely and securely to be delivered for (or to) the said plaintiff, for certain reasonable reward, to the said defendant in that behalf. Yet the said defendant, not regarding his duty as such common carrier as aforesaid (but contriving and fraudulently intending, craftily and subtly to deceive, defraud and injure the said plaintiff in this behalf), did not, nor would safely or securely carry or convey the said (box) and its contents aforesaid, from ——— aforesaid, to ——— aforesaid, nor there, to-wit, at ——— aforesaid, safely or securely deliver the same for (or to) the said plaintiff; but on the contrary thereof, he the said defendant, so being such common carrier as aforesaid, so carelessly and negligently behaved and conducted himself in the premises that, by and through the carelessness, negligence and default of the said defendant in the premises, the said (box) and its contents aforesaid, being of the value aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at; etc. (the venue), aforesaid, became and were wholly lost to the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid.

And whereas also, heretofore, to-wit, on the same day and year aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid, the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, caused to be delivered to the said defendant a certain other (box), containing certain other goods and chattels, to-wit, goods and chattels of the like number, quantity, quality, description and value, as those in the said first count mentioned, of the said plaintiff, to be taken care of, and safely and securely carried and conveyed by the said defendant to ——— aforesaid, and there, to-wit, at ——— aforesaid, to be safely and securely delivered by the said defendant for the said plaintiff, within a reasonable time then next following, for certain hire and reward to the said defendant in that behalf; and although the said defendant then and there accepted, and had and received the said last mentioned (box), and its contents aforesaid, for the purpose and on the terms aforesaid, and although a reasonable time for the carriage, conveyance and delivery thereof as aforesaid hath long since elapsed, yet the said defendant, not regarding his duty in that behalf (but contriving and fraudulently intending, craftily and subtly to deceive and defraud the said plaintiff in this respect), did not, nor would, within such reasonable time as aforesaid, or at any time afterwards (although often requested so to do), take care of or safely or securely carry and convey the said last mentioned (box) and its contents aforesaid, to ——— aforesaid, nor there, to-wit, at ——— aforesaid, safely or securely deliver the same for the said plaintiff, but hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused so to do; and by means of the negligence and improper conduct of the said defendant in that behalf, the said last mentioned (box) and its contents aforesaid have not been delivered to, or for the said plaintiff at ——— aforesaid, or elsewhere, and are wholly lost to the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid. To the damage of the said plaintiff of ——— dollars, and therefore he brings his suit, etc. Burr. App. 313, §582; 2 Chit. Pl. 651; Yates' Forms 392.

C. Declaration Against Bailee for Negligence.

For that whereas heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, had caused to be delivered to him the said defendant a certain chair (or sideboard, etc.), of him the said plaintiff, of great value, to-wit, of the value of _____ dollars, to be taken care of and safely and securely kept by the said defendant for the said plaintiff, he the said defendant, undertook, and then and there agreed with the said plaintiff, to take due and proper care of the said (chair) for the said plaintiff, and to re-deliver the same to the said plaintiff when he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested; and although the said defendant was afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., requested by the said plaintiff to re-deliver the said (chair) to him the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc., yet the said defendant, not regarding his duty in that behalf, did not, nor would, when he was so requested as aforesaid, or at any time before or afterwards, re-deliver the same to the said plaintiff, but on the contrary thereof, he the said defendant so carelessly behaved and conducted himself with respect to the said (chair), and took so little and such bad care thereof, that by and through the carelessness, negligence and improper conduct of the said defendant, the said (chair), being of the value aforesaid, became and was wholly lost to the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc.

And whereas also, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., the said defendant, at his special instance and request, had the care of a certain other (chair) of the said plaintiff of great value, to-wit, of the value of one hundred dollars, yet the said defendant, not regarding his duty in that behalf, did not nor would take due and proper care of the said last mentioned (chair), but wholly neglected so to do, and took such bad care thereof that afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., the said last mentioned (chair) became and was wholly lost to the said plaintiff, to-wit, at, etc. (Third count in trover.) Burr. App. 314, §583; 2 Chit. Pl. 670.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint, Negligence of Servant in Driving Against Plaintiff's Vehicle.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the plaintiff was riding along the public highway, in the town of _____, in a chaise, drawn by a horse, both the property of the plaintiff, of the value of _____ dollars.

II. That the defendant was then the proprietor of a stage and four horses, which were then passing along said highway in the possession of defendant (or of defendant's servant), who was driving the same.

III. That defendant (or that said servant) so carelessly drove and managed said stage and horses that by reason of his negligence said stage struck the plaintiff's chaise, and overthrew and broke the same, and threw down the plaintiff's horse, breaking his leg, and threw the plaintiff out of his chaise upon the ground (or otherwise describe the accident according to the fact), whereby the plaintiff was bruised and wounded, and was for _____ days prevented from attending to his business, and was put to great expense in repairing his chaise and in endeavoring to be healed of his own hurts, and he was obliged to kill his said horse in consequence of his leg being broken as aforesaid, to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 452.

B. Complaint Against Railroad, Crossing Accident.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned, the defendants, a corporation duly organized under the laws of this state, were the owners of a certain railroad, known as _____ railroad, together with the track, cars, locomotives and other appurtenances thereto belonging.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, while the plaintiff was traveling in a wagon drawn by two horses, all the property of the plaintiff, and of the value of _____ dollars, along the public highway from _____ to _____, which public highway crosses the railroad aforesaid at a place called _____; and as the plaintiff had reached said crossing, the defendants carelessly and negligently caused one of their locomotives (with a train of cars attached thereto) to approach said crossing, and then and there to pass rapidly over the track of said railroad, and negligently and carelessly omitted, while so approaching said crossing, to give any signal, by ringing the bell or sounding the steam whistle, by reason whereof the plaintiff was unaware of their approach.

III. That by reason of said negligence of the defendants the locomotive struck the plaintiff's horses and threw them down, killing one of them immediately, and so severely injuring the other as to make it necessary to kill him; and also overset the plaintiff's wagon, breaking it so that it is worthless; and also threw the plaintiff out upon the ground, with such force as to fracture his left collar-bone (or other consequences, according to the fact).

IV. That thereby the plaintiff has been deprived of the use of said horses and wagon, and was put to great pain and to great expense in endeavoring to cure himself of said injury, and was and still is prevented from going on with his business as ———, and is, as he believes, permanently injured, so that he will never be as strong or able to carry on said business as effectively as before, and was otherwise greatly injured, to his damage ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 453.

C. Complaint Against Railroad for Killing Cattle.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned the defendants, a corporation duly organized under the laws of this state, were the owners of a certain railroad known as ——— railroad, together with the track, cars, locomotives, and other appurtenances thereto belonging.

II. That on the ——— day of ———, 18—, the plaintiff was the owner and possessed of certain cattle, to-wit (designating them), of the value of ——— dollars, and which cows and oxen casually and without the fault of the said plaintiff, strayed in and upon the track and ground occupied by the railroad of the said defendant at M.

III. That the said defendants, by their agents and servants, not regarding their duty in that respect, so carelessly and negligently ran and managed the said locomotive and cars that the same ran against and over the said cows and oxen of the said plaintiff, and killed and destroyed the same, to the damage of the plaintiff ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 454.

D. Complaint Against Contractor for Leaving Street Insecure, Horse Injured.

I. That at the times hereinafter mentioned the defendant had taken upon himself (or had agreed with the trustees of the village of ——— to lay down pipes in and under the highway (known as ——— street), in ———, for the purpose of lighting the said highway with gas, and to make the proper trenches for the purpose; and when such pipes were laid down, to fill up properly the said trenches, and to put and leave the said highway clear and in a reasonably secure condition.

II. That the defendant and his servants, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, accordingly took up part of the said highway, and made trenches and holes therein, and laid down said pipes, and displaced the earth and materials of the said highway, and so carelessly and negligently filled said trenches, and left the said highway in so dangerous and improper state, that a horse of the plaintiff, of the value of ——— dollars, which he was then and there lawfully driving along the said highway, sunk and fell therein, and was wounded and lamed, and rendered of little or no value, to the plaintiff's damage ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 447.

E. Complaint for Laying Rubbish in Street, Whereby Plaintiff Was Thrown Out of Carriage.

I. That the defendant, on or about the ——— day of ———, 18—, wrongfully placed large quantities of building materials and earth in the public highway (known as ——— street) in ———, and negligently left the same therein, obstructing the highway during the night time, and without placing any light or signal there to indicate danger.

II. That in consequence of said negligence and improper conduct of the defendant, in the nighttime of that day, the carriage of the plaintiff, of the value of ——— dollars, with the plaintiff therein, then passing through said street, was accidentally driven against the said obstructions, and was thereby overturned; by means whereof the plaintiff was bruised and wounded (conclude as in other forms). 1 Abb. Forms 447.

F. Complaint for Keeping Open Dangerous Hatchway, Through Which Plaintiff Fell.

I. That the defendant, at the time hereinafter mentioned (was the owner and) had possession and control of a certain building and premises (briefly designate them), with the appurtenances thereto belonging, which building was then occupied by him as (briefly designate the uses of the building, if a public resort).

II. That said building was negligently and carelessly built, inasmuch as there was in the public hall in the second story of the same (at the time of its erection and leasing by the defendant, as well as) at the time hereinafter mentioned, an unguarded hole or hatchway through the floor, opening into the first story.

III. That the defendant, well knowing the premises, and while the owner and occupant (or while the occupant) of said building, did, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, negligently and wrongfully leave the same uncovered and unprotected, by means whereof the plaintiff, who was then lawfully in said building, and in the pursuit of his business (or by the permission of the defendant), then and there necessarily and carefully passing along said hall, fell through said hatchway.

IV. That by means of the premises the plaintiff was greatly hurt and injured, and became sick and lame, and so remained for a long time (or so still remains), and was during the space of _____ prevented from attending to his business as _____, and was compelled to, and did expend, _____ dollars in endeavoring to be healed of his said injuries (or otherwise state injuries to plaintiff according to the fact), to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 444.

III. Answers.

A. Answer, Plaintiff's Own Negligence, Falling Into Hole.

That the defendant and his servants used due care and diligence (about the construction of the said building, or in repairing said street, and replacing the pavement thereof, or in guarding the said excavation with proper bulwarks, and in putting up lights during the nighttime, or otherwise, according to the allegations in the complaint), and that said injury was not caused by any negligence on the part of the defendant or his servants, but was owing to the negligence and fault of the plaintiff himself. 2 Abb. Forms 117.

B. Answer, Denial of Ownership of Plaintiff.

That the said horse and carriage alleged to have been injured were not the property of the plaintiff. 2 Abb. Forms 117.

C. Answer, Denial of Ownership of Cause of Injury.

That at the time of the grievance alleged the defendant was not the owner, and had not the possession or control of the premises in which said hole or hatchway was (or of the wagon which caused the alleged injury). 2 Abb. Forms 117.

NEUTRALITY LAWS.

I. Indictment, Preparing Military Expedition, 870

II. Indictment for Fitting Out Vessel, 870

III. Libel To Condemn Vessel, 871

I. Indictment, Preparing Military Expedition in Violation of Neutrality Laws.

The indictment charges that defendants, "mariners, at the district aforesaid and within the jurisdiction of this court, did, within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, to-wit, at the port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, within the district aforesaid, begin, set on foot, and provide and prepare the means for a certain military expedition and enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory and dominions of a foreign prince, to-wit, against the island of Cuba, the said island of Cuba being then and there the territory and dominions of the King of Spain, the said United States being then and there at peace with the King of Spain, contrary to the form of the act of Congress in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America," Wiborg v. United States, 163 U. S. 632, 16 Sup. Ct. 1127, 41 L. ed. 289.

II. Indictment for Fitting Out Vessel in Violation of Neutrality Laws.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said John D. Quincy, on the day and year aforesaid, at the district aforesaid, within the limits of the United States, and within the jurisdiction of the United States and of this court, with force and arms, was knowingly concerned in the fitting out of a certain vessel called the Bolivar, otherwise called Las Damas Argentinas, with intent that such vessel be employed in the service of a foreign people, that is to say, in the service of "The United Provinces of Rio de la Plata," to commit hostilities against the subjects of a foreign prince, that is to say, against the subjects of "His Imperial Majesty, the Constitutional Emperor and Perpetual Defender of Brazil," with whom the United States then were, and still are at peace, against the form of the Act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the United States.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said John D. Quincy, on the day and year aforesaid, at the district aforesaid, within the limits of the United States and within the jurisdiction of the United States and of this court, with force and arms, was knowingly concerned in the fitting out of a certain other vessel, called the Bolivar, otherwise called Las Damas Argentinas, with intent that the said vessel should be employed in the service of a foreign people, that is to say, in the service of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, to cruise and commit hostilities against the subjects and property of a foreign prince, that is to say, against the subjects and property of His Imperial Majesty the Constitutional Emperor and Perpetual defender of Brazil, with whom the United States then were and still are at peace, against the form of the act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the United States. United States v. Quincy, 6 Pet. (U. S.) 445, 8 L. ed. 458.

III. Libel To Condemn Vessel for Violation of Neutrality Laws.

(The first two paragraphs of the libel alleged the seizure and detention of the vessel, and the libel then continued):

"Third. That the said steamboat or steam vessel, the 'Three Friends,' was on, to-wit, on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1896, furnished, fitted out and armed, with intent that she should be employed in the service of a certain people, to-wit, certain people then engaged in armed resistance to the government of the King of Spain, in the island of Cuba, to cruise and commit hostilities against the subjects, citizens, and property of the King of Spain, in the island of Cuba, with whom the United States are and were at that date at peace.

"Fourth. That the said steamboat or steam vessel, 'Three Friends,' on, to-wit, on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1896, whereof one Napoleon B. Broward was then and there master, and within the said southern district of Florida, was then and there fitted out, furnished, and armed, with intent that said vessel, the said 'Three Friends,' should be employed in the service of a certain people, to-wit, the insurgents in the island of Cuba, otherwise called the Cuban revolutionists, to cruise and commit hostilities against the subjects, property, and people of the King of Spain, in the said island of Cuba, with whom the United States are and were then at peace.

"Fifth. That the said steamboat or steam vessel 'Three Friends,' on, to-wit, on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1896, and whereof one N. B. Broward was then and there master, within the navigable waters of the United States, and within the southern district of Florida and the jurisdiction of this court, was then and there, by certain persons to the attorneys of the said United States unknown, furnished, fitted out, and armed, being loaded with supplies and arms and munitions of war, and it, the said steam vessel 'Three Friends,' being then and there furnished, fitted out, and armed with one certain gun or guns, the exact number to the said attorneys of the United States unknown, and with munitions of war thereof, with the intent, then and there, to be employed in the service of a certain people, to-wit, certain people then engaged in armed resistance to the government of the King of Spain in the island of Cuba, and with the intent to cruise and commit hostilities against the subjects, citizens, and property of the King of Spain, in the said island of Cuba, and who, on the said date and day last aforesaid, and being so furnished, fitted out, and armed as aforesaid, then and there aforesaid, from the navigable waters of the United States, to-wit, from the St. Johns river, within the southern district of Florida, and within the jurisdiction of this court aforesaid, proceeded upon a voyage to the island of Cuba aforesaid, with the intent aforesaid, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. And that by force and virtue of the acts of Congress in such case made and provided, the same steamboat or steam vessel, her tackle, engines, machinery, apparel and furniture became and are forfeited to the use of the said United States.

"Sixth. And the said attorneys say that by reason of all and singular the premises aforesaid, and that by force of the statute in such case made and provided, the aforesaid and described steamboat or steam vessel 'Three Friends,' her tackle, machinery, apparel, and furniture, became and are forfeited to the use of the said United States."

(And concluded with a prayer for process and monition and the condemnation of the vessel as forfeited.) United States v. Three Friends, 166 U. S. 1, 17 Sup. Ct. 495, 41 L. ed. 897.

II. Affidavits.

A. Affidavit To Move for a New Trial on the Ground of Misconduct of a Juror.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, the (second) day of the trial of this action, on the steps of the courthouse he heard a conversation between one L. M. and R. S., one of the jurors before whom said action was then on trial.

II. That the said L. M. then and there told said juror that he was acquainted with the witnesses in this case, and had been acquainted; that they would swear to anything for a dollar.

III. That the said L. M. applied these remarks to the witnesses for the (defendant) only; that said L. M. spoke of U. V., one of the (defendant's) witnesses, in particular, as a bad character.

IV. That the said L. M. then and there stated to said juror that W. X., the principal witness for the plaintiff, was a very respectable citizen; that he had never heard anything against him.

V. That the said L. M. and the said juror were and are old acquaintances and friends.

VI. That on the next day, and while the trial was still proceeding at the same place, the said L. M., in the hearing of deponent, renewed the said conversation, and intimated that in his opinion the (defendant) was endeavoring to establish his case by false swearing. 2 Abb. Forms 491.

B. Affidavit To Move for New Trial on Ground of Improper Communication by Plaintiff to Jury.

J. K., being duly sworn, says:

I. That on the morning of the (second) day of the trial of this cause, and after the plaintiff had rested his case, but before the opening of the court, three of the jurors who were empaneled to try the cause, were in the bar room of a public house in the village of _____, together with a number of other persons there assembled.

II. That while said jurors were there, the plaintiff addressed them, and said in their presence and hearing, that the defendants were a cut-throat corporation; that they had swindled the public; that they had defrauded him, the plaintiff; that he, plaintiff, had paid them thousands of dollars; that he delivered the fruit in controversy on said _____ defendants at their dock to be carried on their boats, and that they refused to carry the same, and went off without it; and in consequence the fruit rotted or spoiled on his, plaintiff's, hands, and he lost several hundred dollars; and that defendants ought to stand it or be compelled to suffer the loss.

III. That thereupon the constable in attendance upon the court remarked to the plaintiff in the presence and hearing of the jurymen, that the persons he was addressing were jurymen, and asked plaintiff if he did not know it.

IV. That plaintiff immediately replied that he knew what he was about, and requested the constable to mind his own business, and that what he had been saying to the jurors about his suit was true; and he, plaintiff, afterwards continued addressing the jurors in substance as before, detailing as he, plaintiff, insisted, what were the facts of his case, and the mismanagement of the defendants in relation to his fruit. 2 Abb. Forms 492.

C. Affidavit To Move for New Trial on Ground of Surprise.

Q. R., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the attorney for the defendant herein.

II. That this action was brought to recover possession of certain real prop-city, to wit, a farm in the town of _____, in this state.

III. That from the commencement of this action until about (ten) days prior to the trial hereof, the attorney for the plaintiff had in his possession a certain deed, made and executed by the father of the plaintiff, now deceased, conveying said real property in fee to one J. K.

IV. That plaintiff claims title to said real property by descent from his said father, and in no other way.

V. That deponent gave plaintiff's attorney reasonable notice to produce said deed on the trial, and further duly and seasonably subpoenaed the plaintiff's attorney to attend the trial, and bring with him the said deed.

VI. That prior to the service of said notice and subpoena, the plaintiff's attorney delivered said deed to the plaintiff, who thereupon deposited the same with L. M., the counsel of plaintiff, residing in _____.

VII. That at the trial of this action, deponent learned for the first time that the said plaintiff's attorney had parted with said deed.

VIII. That up to the time he was put upon the stand, the plaintiff's attorney entirely concealed from deponent the fact that said deed was out of his possession.

IX. That deponent was taken entirely by surprise by the failure of the plaintiff's attorney to produce said deed.

X. That on a new trial deponent can, as he believes, obtain the production of said deed, or if not, can prove the contents thereof by the testimony of J. K.

XI. That there has been no opportunity since the trial of this cause to notice a motion for a new trial, until the special term to be held at _____ on the _____ day of _____, 18—. 2 Abb. Forms 494.

D. Corroborating Affidavit, New Trial, Surprise.

J. K., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the person referred to in the foregoing affidavit of Q. R.

II. That the statements therein contained, so far as they relate to deponent, are true.

III. That the contents of the deed mentioned in said affidavit are such as are therein stated. 2 Abb. Forms 495.

E. Affidavit To Move for New Trial on Ground of Newly Discovered Evidence (a).

C. D., the above named defendant, being duly sworn, deposes and says that this action was brought for (state what), and that the defense set up thereto by this deponent was (state what). And deponent says that this cause was tried at a circuit court which was holden at the courthouse in the town of _____, in and for the said county of _____, on the _____ day of _____ last, and a verdict rendered therein for the plaintiff, for _____ dollars. And deponent further says that he has fully and fairly stated the case in this cause to G. H., esquire, his counsel therein, who resides in _____, and has fully and fairly disclosed to his said counsel the facts which he expects to prove by I. J., of _____, and that the said I. J. can testify to the following facts, that is to say (here state the testimony, or let an affidavit of the witness, stating the facts, be annexed to the affidavit, and referred to in the usual way). And this deponent further says that such evidence has been discovered since the said trial, and was not previously known to this deponent to exist, and that the same is material to this deponent, as he is advised by his said counsel, and verily believes.

Sworn, etc. Burr. App. 33, §64.

Affidavit To Move for New Trial on the Ground of Newly Discovered Evidence (b).

Y. Z., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the (defendant) in this action.

II. That this action was tried on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at a (circuit court), held in and for the county of _____, at _____, in said county.

III. That said trial resulted in a verdict for the (plaintiff) for _____ dollars.

IV. That since the said trial, and on the _____ day of _____, 18—, deponent has discovered for the first time that he could have proved by one J. K., who resides at _____, the following facts: that at the time of the representations testified to by L. M., upon the trial of this action, he was present; that the representations actually made by the (defendant) at that interview were that he believed N. O. was good, but that he would not be security for him; that the safety of the loan would depend upon his business, and whether it continued good; that he believed the business was profitable, and would pay well if judiciously managed; that the (defendant) did not say that N. O. was perfectly good, or that the money would certainly be repaid, or that N. O. was doing a business second to none in the world, nor anything to that effect. 2 Abb. Forms 495.

F. Corroborating Affidavit, Newly Discovered Evidence.

J. K., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is, and was at the time of the conversation between L. M. and the defendant, a clerk in the store of the defendant.

II. That at the said conversation so referred to the (defendant) made the representations set forth in the foregoing affidavit, and no others.

III. That from the (defendant's) manner of speaking of the suit, deponent supposed there was no danger of a recovery against him, and he therefore did not communicate what he knew until after the verdict was rendered. 2 Abb. Forms 497.

G. Affidavit To Move for New Trial for Irregularity in Noticing Cause.

G. H., the attorney for the defendant in this cause, being duly sworn, deposes and says that issue was joined in said cause on the _____ day of _____ last; and that on the _____ day of _____ following, a notice of trial in said cause for a circuit court to be held in and for the said county of _____ (a copy of which notice is hereto annexed), was served upon this deponent by a clerk of E. F., the plaintiff's attorney, which notice this deponent at the same time refused to receive as irregular and insufficient. And deponent further says that notwithstanding such refusal, and the insufficiency of said notice, the said E. F. proceeded to the trial of said cause, at the said circuit court, and obtained a verdict against the defendant for _____ dollars.

Sworn, etc. Burr. App. 33, §63.

H. Affidavit To Move for New Trial in an Action To Recover Possession of Real Property.

A. B., being duly sworn, says:

I. That he is the (plaintiff) in this action.

II. That this action was brought on to recover the possession of real property, to-wit, a certain block of land in the city of _____.

III. That the action was tried at a circuit court, held in and for the county of _____, at _____, in said county before Mr. Justice M. N., and a jury; and that on the _____ day of _____, 18—, said jury returned a verdict in favor of the (defendant).

IV. That judgment was entered on said verdict herein within (three) years last past, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, in favor of the (defendant).

V. That deponent is ready and willing to pay all costs and damages awarded against him as a condition of obtaining a new trial.

(If the application is for a second new trial, set forth facts which show that justice will be promoted by such new trial.) 2 Abb. Forms 497.

Note.—Second trial is granted as a matter of right in some states in ejectment.

III. Orders.

A. Order Granting Motion for New Trial.

A motion for a new trial on the part of the (plaintiff) herein having been made on the case (or exceptions, or case containing exceptions), (and upon reading and filing the affidavits of _____), and after hearing G. H., esq., of counsel for the plaintiff, in support of said motion, and O. P., esq., of counsel for the defendant, in opposition:*

Ordered that the said motion for a new trial be, and the same hereby is, granted (or granted, with costs to abide the event, or on payment of costs, or on payment of all costs of the action after notice of trial, or on condition that the plaintiff stipulate, etc., or otherwise state the terms on which the new trial is granted). 2 Abb. Forms 498.

B. Order Granting Motion Unless the Opposing Party Will Consent To Reduce His Verdict.

As in previous form to the *:

Ordered that the said motion for a new trial be, and the same hereby is, granted, unless the plaintiff, within _____ days, stipulate to reduce the verdict to _____ dollars (or unless the defendant within _____ days stipulate to waive the sum awarded to him by the verdict for his counterclaim herein), in which case said motion is denied (without costs). 2 Abb. Forms 498.

C. Order Setting Aside Nonsuit and for New Trial.

On reading and filing an affidavit (or admission) of the due service of notice of argument in this cause, on motion of Mr. F., of counsel for the plaintiff (no one appearing to oppose), ordered that the nonsuit in this cause be, and the same is, hereby set aside, and a new trial granted. Burr. App. 465, §942.

Note.—Include in order the setting aside of all proceedings subsequent to trial.

D. Order Denying New Trial.

This cause having been brought to argument, and counsel having been heard thereon, on motion of Mr. F., of counsel for the plaintiff, ordered that a new trial be denied (with costs). Burr. App. 465, §943.

Notice, 17th Plea of General Issue.

"You will please take notice that on the trial of said cause the above named defendant will give in evidence, and insist in its defense, that, at the time of the alleged destruction and damage of the property claimed in plaintiff's declaration to have been destroyed and damaged by fire, as in said declaration set forth, none of said claimed to be insured property was so destroyed, as alleged in said declaration; that said property had, prior to the said fire reaching it, been all removed to a place of safety, and was not in anywise damaged or destroyed, of which fact the assured and said plaintiffs had notice.

"That said policy of insurance declared upon contained the following condition:

"Any fraud or attempt at fraud, or any misrepresentation in any statement touching the loss, or any false swearing on the part of the assured or his agent, in any examination, or in the proofs of loss, or otherwise, shall cause a forfeiture of all claim on this association under this policy; and in such case this association shall have the right, at any time, to require the same to be delivered up to be canceled."

"That the said assured, and the said plaintiffs, in making claim against this defendant, and in making proofs of loss to this defendant, violated the said condition." Robinson v. Fire Assn., 63 Mich. 90, 29 N. W. 521.

I. Declaration for Nuisance Near Dwelling.

For that whereas the said plaintiff, before and at the time of the committing of the grievances by the said defendant as hereinafter mentioned was, and from thence hitherto hath been, and still is, possessed of a certain messuage or dwelling house, and premises, situate in the county of _____ (or, at, etc.); and the said messuage or dwelling house, and premises of the said plaintiff, with his family, at the times hereinafter mentioned, occupied and inhabited, and still doth occupy and inhabit, to-wit, in the county (or at, etc.) And whereas also the said defendant, before and at the time of the committing of the grievances hereinafter next mentioned, was, and from thence hitherto hath been, and still is possessed of a certain piece or parcel of ground contiguous and near to the said messuage or dwelling house, and premises, of the said plaintiff, to-wit, in the county (or at, etc.) aforesaid. Nevertheless the said defendant contriving and intending to injure, prejudice, and aggrieve the said plaintiff, and to incommode and annoy him and his family in the possession, occupation, and enjoyment of his said messuage or dwelling house, and premises, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., and on divers other days and times, between that day and the day of exhibiting this bill (or, if in C. P., say, "commencement of this suit"), wrongfully and injuriously erected and built a certain building and erected on the said piece or parcel of ground of the said defendant, so being contiguous and near to the said messuage or dwelling house and premises of the said plaintiff as aforesaid, and wrongfully and injuriously kept and continued, and caused to be kept and continued, the same building and erection so erected and made, for a long space of time, to-wit, hitherto; and on the several days and times aforesaid, to-wit, in the county (or at, etc.) aforesaid, wrongfully and injuriously exercised and carried on in the said house or building, the trade or business of a candlemaker or manufacturer of candles, and made, and caused and procured to be made and manufactured, divers large quantities of candles therein. By means of which several premises, divers noisome, noxious, and offensive vapors, fumes, smokes, smells, and stenches, on the several days and times aforesaid, rose, issued, and proceeded from the said buildings and erections, and entered into and spread and diffused themselves over and upon, into, through, and about the said messuage or dwelling house and premises of the said plaintiff, and the air over, through, and about the same, was thereby greatly filled and impregnated with the said noisome, noxious, and offensive vapors, fumes, smokes, smells, and stenches, and was rendered, on the said several days and times aforesaid, and became and was, and still is corrupted, offensive, unwholesome, unhealthy and uncomfortable, and the said plaintiff hath thereby been and still is greatly annoyed and incommoded in the use, possession, occupation, and enjoyment of the said messuage or dwelling house and premises, and hath been, and is, by means of the committing of the grievances aforesaid by the said defendants as aforesaid, otherwise greatly injured and damaged, to-wit, in the county (or at, etc.) aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 773.

II. Pleas.

A. Plea in Nuisance, Not Guilty.

And the said C. D. by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that he is not guilty of the premises above laid to his charge, in manner and form, as the said A. B. hath above thereof complained against him. And of this, he puts himself upon the country, etc.

G. H., attorney for deft.

Burr. App. 571, §1113.

B. Plea Justifying Removal.

Because he says, that the said defendant, before and at the said time when, etc., and from thence hitherto hath been, and still is, lawfully possessed of and in a certain garden or parcel of land, situate and being in the parish aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, and that the said branches in the said first count mentioned, and the said wood and underwood, in the said last count mentioned, just before the said time when, etc., were overhanging, encumbering, and damaging the said garden or parcel of land of the said defendant, and the vegetables therein growing; wherefore he the said defendant, at the said time when, etc., did cut, lop, and top the said branches and underwood so overhanging, encumbering, and damaging the said close of the said plaintiff as aforesaid, and took and carried away the said branches, wood, underwood, and berries, to a small and convenient distance, and there left the same for the said plaintiff, as he lawfully might for the cause aforesaid, which are the said supposed trespasses whereof the said plaintiff hath complained against the said defendant. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1102.

III. Writ of Inquiry as to Nuisance.

The people of the state of New York to the sheriff of the (city and) county of _____, greeting:

Whereas A. B., lately in our supreme court of judicature before our justices thereof, impleaded C. D. of a plea wherefore, etc. (here insert the declaration), to his damage _____ dollars, as he said: And such proceedings were thereupon had in our said supreme court, before our said justices, that the said plaintiff ought to recover his damages by occasion of the premises; but because it is unknown to our said supreme court, before our said justices, what damages the said plaintiff hath sustained by reason of the premises. Therefore we command you, that with twelve good and lawful men of your county, you go to the place where the said nuisance in the said declaration mentioned exists, and there by the oath of the said twelve good and lawful men, you diligently inquire thereof, and of the damages occasioned thereby; and that the inquisition which you shall thereupon take you send to our said court, before our justices thereof, at, etc., on, etc. (the return day) under your seal, and the seals of those by whose oath you shall take that inquisition, together with this writ. Witness, etc. (teste and signatures in the usual form). Burr. App. 590, §1161.

IV. Judgment in Nuisance.

(The record is made up in the same manner as in ordinary actions, with placita, pleadings and the usual entries to judgment, which, if rendered for the plaintiff, is entered as follows):

Therefore it is considered, that the said plaintiff do recover against the said defendant his damages aforesaid, by the jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid found, and also _____ dollars and _____ cents for his costs and charges, by him about his suit in this behalf expended, by the court now here adjudged of increase to the said plaintiff, with his assent; which said damages, costs and charges in the whole amount to _____ dollars and _____ cents. And it is further considered, that the said nuisance in the said declaration described and set forth, be removed by the sheriff of the county of _____ (the county in which the nuisance occurred. If there be judgment as to the particular manner in which the nuisance is to be abated, it must be set forth). And let the said defendant be taken, etc. Burr. App. 532, §1055; Yates' Forms 522.

V. Execution in Nuisance.

The people, etc., to the sheriff, etc., greeting:

Whereas A. B. lately in our supreme court of judicature, before our justices thereof, at, etc., recovered a judgment against C. D. on a writ of nuisance, that he should recover of the said C. D. _____ dollars, as well for his damages by him sustained by the said nuisance, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, adjudged by the said court to the said plaintiff; and it was further considered by the said court before our said justices that the said nuisance be removed by (here state how, according to the judgment, and describe the nuisance to be removed, with convenient certainty); whereof the said defendant is also convicted as appears to us of record; and although judgment be given as aforesaid, yet execution thereof remaineth still to be done; now, therefore, we command you, that (of the goods and chattels of the said C. D., etc. (as in ordinary fl. fa.)), and we further command you that) you forthwith do remove (state according to the judgment), and how you shall have executed this our writ, make appear to our justices of our supreme court of judicature at, etc., on, etc. (the return day), together with this writ.

Witness, etc. (teste in the usual form).

_____, _____, clerks.

E. F., attorney.

Burr. App. 519, §1040; Yates' Forms 522.

VI. Complaints.

A. Complaint Against Erector of Slaughter House, a Nuisance, Seeking Damages.

I. That the plaintiff is, and at the times hereinafter mentioned was (the owner and) possessed of the house and lot No. _____ in _____ street, in the city of _____, which he inhabited with his family.

II. That the defendant was also then possessed of certain premises contiguous to (or, in the immediate vicinity of) those of the plaintiff.

III. That the defendant, in the month of _____, 18____, erected on his said premises a slaughter house and cattle pens, and thereafter kept and slaughtered therein large numbers of cattle and hogs, thereby causing noxious and offensive smells, and loud and offensive noises, and tainting and corrupting the atmosphere, so as to render the dwelling house and premises of the plaintiff unfit for habitation, to the nuisance of the said dwelling house and premises of the said plaintiff, and to his damage _____ dollars.

IV. That the defendant's violation of this covenant has prevented other lots in the vicinity from becoming valuable to the plaintiff, as they would otherwise have done, and has injuriously affected their condition and hindered the plaintiff from selling them; that the offal and blood in and carried out from said slaughter-house, and the offensive smell created thereby, is a nuisance to the vicinity of the said premises and to the plaintiff, whose house is adjoining; to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 475.

B. Complaint, Prayer for Judgment for Injunction Against Nuisance, and for Damages.

State facts as in preceding forms, demanding judgment thus: Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That the defendant be restrained by injunction from erecting or using the said building as a _____, or otherwise to the nuisance of the plaintiff, or permitting it to be so used.

2. That the plaintiff recover from the defendant _____ dollars damages, and his costs. 1 Abb. Forms 476.

C. Complaint Against Continuer of Nuisance.

I. That the plaintiff is, and at the times hereinafter mentioned was (the owner and) possessed of the house and lot No. _____, in _____ street, in the city of _____, which he inhabited with his family.

II. That ever since the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant has maintained a slaughter house on his premises contiguous thereto (or, in the immediate vicinity thereof), and has kept and slaughtered therein large numbers of cattle and hogs, thereby causing noxious and offensive smells, and loud and offensive noises, and tainting and corrupting the atmosphere, so as to render the dwelling house and premises of the plaintiff unfit for habitation, to the nuisance of the said dwelling house and premises of the said plaintiff, and to his damage _____ dollars.

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the plaintiff requested the defendant to remove the said slaughter house, or to cease using it for that purpose, but he has not done so.

IV. Special damage, if any. 1 Abb. Forms 476.

VII. Answers.

A. Answer, Denial of Nuisance.

That the defendant's premises have not been used as a slaughter house (or other offensive manner), as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 127.

B. Denial of Act.

That the defendant did not erect (or keep up) said (dam), as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 128.

C. Answer, Denial of Plaintiff's Title.

That the plaintiff was not, and is not, owner of (or, possessed of) the premises described in the complaint, as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 127.

D. Answer, Alleging Prescriptive Right To Maintain Nuisance.

"And for a third plea in this behalf, the said defendants say that the premises, whereon the injury alleged by the plaintiff is being done, were owned and possessed by the defendants, and those under whom the defendants legally claim, for many years, before the plaintiff became possessed of his title in, or occupied the premises in the declaration mentioned, and that defendants, and those under whom they so legally claim, have used their aforesaid property for a brewery, and therein conducted their business as such for more than twenty years, before the commencement of this suit, without suit, molestation or disturbance by, or on the part of the owners and occupiers of the said property, now of the plaintiff, and during all that time they had continued to use and carry on their said trade as brewers, and during all that time the said business of brewing had thereon been followed, conducted and done with no more or greater noise, jarring or agitation, than were necessary and requisite to enable them to carry on their said business, and than the plaintiff, and those under whom he claims, had been accustomed to, from said cause and business, during all that time." Repp v. Berger, 60 Md. 1.

VIII. Bill To Prevent Nuisance Where Irreparable Injury Would ensue.

That your orator A. B. now is, and for a considerable time past has been, possessed of a certain message or dwelling house, with the appurtenances, situate at D., in the county of C., in which, for twenty years last past, there has been, and still is of right ought to be, two ancient windows to admit of light and air, for the convenient and wholesome use, occupation, and enjoyment of the said house. And your orator further sheweth unto your honors, that G. H., of, etc. (the defendant hereinafter named) is possessed of a piece or parcel of land adjoining or contiguous to that part of your orator's said house wherein are such windows as aforesaid; and the said C. D. has lately begun to dig the foundation for a certain wall or building in that part of the said piece of ground which is immediately opposite, and is within the space or distance of four feet only from such part of your orator's said house as aforesaid; and the said G. H. has already erected, or caused to be erected, part of such intended wall or building of considerable height, and exceeding the height of twenty feet, which has greatly darkened your orator's said dwelling house and the appurtenances, and prevented the light and air entering your orator's said house through the said windows, and rendered the same close, uncomfortable, and unwholesome, and unfit for the habitation of your orator. And your orator further sheweth unto your honors, that, in consequence of such proceeding on the part of the said G. H. as aforesaid, your orator, in or as of last ——— term, brought an action on the case in, etc., which has since been tried, and a verdict obtained for your orator, for the sum of $———, for the damages sustained by your orator by the erection of such wall or building as aforesaid.

And your orator further sheweth, that your orator, both previously to, and since the determination of such action as aforesaid, frequently by himself and otherwise applied to the said G. H., and requested him not only to desist from continuing to erect, but also to take down and abate such wall or building, and nuisance, so as to prevent your orator being so injured thereby as aforesaid, which your orator hoped would have been done. But now so it is, may it please, etc., the said G. H. combining, etc., still proceeds in the erection of the said wall or building, and he pretends that, as an absolute owner of the said piece of ground, he has good right to erect the said wall or building or any part thereof, without any interruption or prevention by or on the part of your orator; and he also pretends that the said wall or building is erected on an ancient foundation, and therefore, notwithstanding it may obstruct your orator in the free enjoyment of the light and air, which was admitted through your orator's said windows, that he is legally entitled so to do. Whereas your orator charges the contrary thereof to be true, and that the said G. H. is only entitled to exercise such acts of ownership in and upon the said piece of ground as are legal and proper, and not to erect a wall or building so near to your orator's message and dwelling house as to obstruct his ancient windows, and become a nuisance to your orator; and that even if the said wall or building be erected on an ancient foundation, but which your orator nowise admits, yet the said premises being so far distant from L., no right or privilege, to the injury or prejudice of your orator, by reason thereof, attaches to the said G. H., as such owner of the said piece of ground as aforesaid. And your orator further charges, that from the slight and perishable materials of which the said wall or building is composed, the same is in great and constant danger of falling and doing considerable injury to your orator, as the said G. H. well knows, but nevertheless he persists in his intention of continuing such erection, which will render the said wall or building much more injurious and dangerous to your orator than the same now is, unless he shall be restrained therefrom by the order and injunction of this honorable court. And that the said G. H. may make a full and true disclosure and discovery of and concerning the several matters aforesaid; and that the said G. H. may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from proceeding in the erection of the said wall or building; and that he may be decreed to obviate and abate the said nuisance, so as to render your orator's enjoyment of his said dwelling house, with the appurtenances, as safe, wholesome, and fit for your orator's habitation as the same was previously to the commencement of the erection of such wall or building as aforesaid. (And for general relief.) May it please, etc. (End with praying an injunction in the terms of the prayer, and praying process, etc.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2070.

IX. Decrees.

A. Interlocutory Decree, Ordering Reference for Experiments as to Extent of Nuisance.

And now this cause coming on to be heard, etc., etc., it is ordered by the court, that it be referred to T. R., esq., as master, with directions to ascertain and report to this court upon the evidence in the cause, and such other evidence as he may deem necessary, and such experiments as he may choose to direct, to what extent, if any, the erection of the Albion dam has obstructed or does obstruct the natural flow of the water from the plaintiff's mill and lands, and to what extent it will be required to be lowered, if any, in order to restore the flow of said water to its state before said erection; and that he have authority to summon witnesses, administer oaths, and exercise all the usual powers of master in chancery in such cases, and that he have authority in particular to direct the parties to stop their several mills if necessary, in order that all such experiments as the master may think requisite to be made may be made, and for the same purpose, if necessary, to direct that the dam may be lowered and ponds drawn off, and to compel the obedience of the said parties to all orders made by him in the necessary discharge of the duties of his appointment. And that he may report to this court of his doings in the premises, when he shall have performed the duties of his said appointment.

And the said master is in the meantime specially directed to proceed immediately to ascertain by actual experiments, conducted by skilful engineers, to be chosen by himself and with notice to the parties, the effect on the plaintiffs' works of lowering the Albion dam to the height at which it stood before the erection thereon of 1828, that is to say, two feet below its present height, that these experiments be made at different states of the river, so as to show the effect aforesaid at those several states respectively, that the master have authority to direct the defendants to draw off the water in their pond, by gates or by reducing the height of the dam or by any other means so that the said experiments may be fully and satisfactorily made, at the said several depths of water in the river. That the said master cause these experiments to be made forthwith, and that he report the result thereof specially to this court. And that the master have also authority by such experiments to ascertain the effect of lowering said dam to intermediate stages less than two feet, at the said several states of the water; and that he have authority to direct and order both parties to stop their respective works if necessary, and to do and perform whatever he may judge necessary, in order to render such experiments complete and satisfactory.

Ordered as above.

Nov. Term, 1833. B. C., clerk.

The parties agree that S. B. C. and R. S. S. be the engineers to be employed by the master.

Witness, B. C., clerk.

3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2311, 2312.

B. Decree for Abating and Reducing a Mill-Dam Which Caused the Water To Flow Back on Mills Above; But so Framed as to Conclude Neither Party as to the Right To Raise Flash Boards in the Dam in Certain States of the River. Injunction Not Again To Raise Dam so Reduced.

(Final decree.) This cause came on again to be heard upon the master's report, and the exceptions taken thereto by the parties respectively, and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof, it was ordered, adjudged, and decreed by the court, that the exceptions of the said parties respectively be, and the same are hereby overruled, and that the said report do stand in all matters confirmed except as herein-after stated. And it not appearing by the answers of the defendants that they assert any right or title to the Eel dam, in the said answers stated, under the owners thereof, by operation of law or otherwise, nor what the true nature and extent of the right and title of the said owners of said Eel dam were and are: It is, thereupon, further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the said Albion dam in the said pleadings mentioned ought to be reduced from its height, at the time of the filing of the plaintiff's bill, the space of twenty-four inches from the top thereof, as a nuisance to the privileges and mills of the plaintiffs in the same bill mentioned, and in violation of their rights thereto; and the said defendants are hereby ordered to abate and reduce the said Albion dam the said twenty-four inches accordingly, within forty days from the entering of this decree. And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the said defendants, their heirs and assigns be, and they hereby are, perpetually enjoined, after the same Albion dam is so abated and reduced as aforesaid, never thereafter to raise the same dam above the level to which the same shall be so abated and reduced as aforesaid. And it is further adjudged and decreed that a writ of injunction do issue forthwith against the defendants, commanding them to comply with all and singular the premises so enjoined upon them.

And inasmuch as it appears from the master's report that in low states of the river, when it is not obstructed by snow and ice, the defendants might, without injury to the plaintiffs, put flashboards on their dam sixteen inches and one-half wide, and the same keep up, until the water in the river flows over the top of them with their present mill gates drawn, and it is not the intent of the court, in any manner, to act upon this part of the said report, but to leave the parties respectively to their respective rights in regard thereof in the same manner as if the same were not stated in the same report; it is further ordered and declared, that no part of this decree is to be construed in any manner to affirm or deny the right of the defendants to put up such flash-boards; but the parties are left to their respective rights in the premises, as if the same were not stated in the report.

And it is further ordered and decreed, that the plaintiffs do recover their costs in the premises. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2310; Mann v. Wilkinson, 2 Sumn. 273, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,036.

C. Decree Staying Pollution of Stream.

This court doth order, that a perpetual injunction be awarded to restrain the local board of health for the town of ———, their agents, servants, and workmen, from causing or permitting to pass any sewage, filth, or other offensive matter, either solid or liquid, down or through any sewer or drain into the river W., in the bill mentioned, to the injury of the plaintiff. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2309; 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 894.

X. Indictments.

A. Indictment for Nuisance, Maintaining Dam at Outlet of Lake.
State of New York, Ontario county, ss:

The jurors for the people of the state of New York and for the body of the county, to-wit. Henry Smith, etc., etc., being sworn and charged to inquire for the people of the said state, and for the body of the county aforesaid, upon their oath, present, that James L. Munson and Jacob Ansberger, late of the town of ——— in the county aforesaid, on the first day of ———, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ———, with force and arms, at the town of ———, in the county aforesaid, being possessed of a certain mill and mill-dam, which said mill and mill-dam were built, erected and maintained by the said James L. Munson and Jacob Ansberger, across a certain outlet and common watercourse called "Canandaigua Outlet," near a certain place called "Canandaigua," in said county, which continually and during said time, and at all times of the year, hath run and been used and accustomed, and of right ought, without any obstruction or impediment, to run out of a certain lake called "Canandaigua Lake," situate and being in said county within its natural banks, through the lands and premises of divers good and lawful citizens of the state of New York.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said James L. Munson and Jacob Ansberger, being so possessed of a certain mill and mill-dam with their appurtenances, situate near and adjacent to a certain common highway and public road, and the dwelling houses of divers of the good citizens of the state of New York, at the town and in the county aforesaid, on the first day of ——— in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ———, and on divers days before and since that day, by so building, erecting and maintaining the said mill, and the said mill-dam being so as aforesaid built, erected and maintained across the said outlet and common watercourse, as aforesaid, did injuriously, unlawfully and maliciously obstruct the water in its said ancient course, so that it did not run at it was used and accustomed to do, but by means thereof and thereby, injuriously, unlawfully and maliciously, did permit and cause the said water of the said mill-dam to overflow the natural banks of the said ancient and common watercourse, upon either side and on both sides of the said watercourse, and to flow back upon to a great distance, to-wit, for the distance of five miles on either side and on both sides of the said watercourse, and overflow and cover and submerge the lands of the good and lawful citizens of the state of New York, there lying and situate adjacent thereto, on either side and on both sides of the said watercourse, so that by reason thereof the same could not be cultivated, by means whereof the mud, wood, leaves, brush, and animal and vegetable substances, and other filth, collected and brought down the channel of the said watercourse, and from the waters of the said lake, by the natural flowing of the waters, then became and were, during all the time aforesaid, collected and accumulated in large quantities in the channel of the said watercourse, by the natural flowing of the waters, and on the lands and premises overflowed, covered and submerged, as aforesaid; and the said mud, wood, leaves, brush, and animal and vegetable substances, and other filth so there collected and brought down the channel of the said watercourse, and by the waters of the said lake, became and were, and still are very offensive, and the waters became and are corrupted, and by means whereof and from the action of the same upon the said mud, wood, leaves, brush, and the animal and vegetable substances, and other filth brought down the channel of the said watercourse, and upon the vegetable substances then growing upon the margin of the said watercourse, and upon the said lands overflowed and submerged as aforesaid, and by the alternate rise and fall of the water in the said pond and upon the said adjacent lands, the said mud, wood, leaves, brush, and the animal and vegetable substances and water, so as aforesaid collected, became stagnant, putrid and noxious, from whence unwholesome damps, fogs and smells did arise, whereby the air was greatly corrupted and infected, to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good and lawful citizens of the state of New York dwelling thereabouts, and all others passing and repassing on the said highway and near the said highway and near the said stagnant waters, and against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity. Munson v. People, 5 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 16.

B. Indictment Obstructing Highway by Maintaining Fence.

"That Chester C. Matthews and Benjamin Buzzard, late of said county, on the thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and from that day until the commencement of proceedings herein, to-wit, on the twenty-eighth day of March, A. D. 1870, with force and arms, at Jackson township, in said county of Ashland and State of Ohio, knowingly and unlawfully did obstruct and incumber the public highway, to-wit, a certain county road, duly, lawfully, and regularly laid out, opened, worked, and used as a public highway by the people and citizens of the State of Ohio, and which said public highway is situate in the township of Jackson, and in said county of Ashland and State of Ohio, by then and there causing and permitting to stand and remain in said public highway a fence of rails, which said fence the said Chester C. Matthews and Benjamin Buzzard placed and caused to be placed in said public highway, knowingly and unlawfully, and with intent to obstruct and incumber the same, to the great damage and common nuisance of the citizens and people of the county of Ashland, and the citizens and people of the State of Ohio." Matthews & Buzzard v. State, 25 Ohio St. 536.

Note.—Held sufficient under the statute without an averment that the public were actually hindered.

C. Affidavit Charging Maintenance of Nuisance.

"Henry Jones, being duly sworn, on his oath swears, that on or about the 24th day of July, 1876, at said county, and near the city of Madison, and at divers other times before said day and the commencement of this action, at and near the dwelling houses of affiant and divers citizens of said place and county, said Moses did unlawfully maintain, and cause and procure to be maintained, a slaughter house, for the purpose of slaughtering cattle, and boiling the entrails and offal of the cattle; and the said Moses did, on the day and year, at the place aforesaid, and on divers other days and times before the commencement of this action, unlawfully kill and slaughter cattle, and boil entrails and offal, and cause and procure the slaughtered cattle, and the entrails and offal of the same to be boiled, to the injury of divers citizens, near said slaughter house as aforesaid; by reason whereof divers noisome, offensive and unwholesome smokes, smells and stinks, during the time aforesaid, were from them emitted, so that the air then and there was filled and impregnated with said smokes, smells and stinks, and made offensive, uncomfortable and unwholesome to the citizens near said slaughter house." Moses v. State, 58 Ind. 185.

Note.—Held to describe a public nuisance under the statute.

D. Affidavit, Maintaining Smoke-stack of Insufficient Height.

"Frederick Dalman being duly sworn, upon his oath says that on the first day of December, A. D. 1896, at the county of Allen and State of Indiana, Mary L. Smith and John C. Fulk did then and there, and on divers other days, both before and since said time, and up to the date of this prosecution, unlawfully erected, continued and maintained in the city of Ft. Wayne and State of Indiana, at, near, and among the dwelling houses of the divers inhabitants of the said city, a certain smoke-stack, projecting from a building used by the said Mary L. Smith and John S. Fulk, as a grist, feed, and flour mill, such stack being connected with a furnace within said building and used for the carrying away of smoke and soot produced by the burning of coal, wood and corn-cobs in such furnace, the said Mary L. Smith and John C. Fulk maintaining such stack at an elevation not sufficient to carry away the soot and smoke discharged from the same, by reason whereof unwholesome smokes and gases and great quantities of soot, which issue from such stack, then and there are carried to the ground and into the streets, to-wit, yards, verandas, and residences of the inhabitants there residing, thereby rendering the air unwholesome, uncomfortable and injurious to the health and offensive to the senses, while the free use of the property of said inhabitants is thereby obstructed, and the comfortable enjoyment thereof prevented, to the great damage and common nuisance of all the inhabitants of the said city, and State there being, residing and passing through and along said street, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Indiana. (Signed) Frederick Dalman. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of December, 1896. Henry P. Scherer, Mayor and Ex-officio J. P." Fulk v. State, 19 Ind. App. 356, 49 N. E. 465.

Note.—Reversed and a new trial granted because of failure to prove the allegation that the stack was of insufficient height, though it might be immaterial to the sufficiency of the affidavit.

Middlesex, to-wit—The jurors for our lady the queen upon their oath present, that J. S., late of the parish of B., in the county of M., bookseller, being a scandalous and evil-disposed person, and devising, contriving, and intending the morals as well of youth as of divers other liege subjects of our said lady the queen to debauch and corrupt, and to raise and create in their minds inordinate and lustful desires, and the clergy of this kingdom to bring into great contempt, hatred, scandal, infamy, and disgrace on the third day of August, in the ninth year of the reign of our sovereign lady Victoria, with force and arms, at the parish aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, in a certain open and public shop of him the said J. S., there situate, unlawfully, wickedly, maliciously, and scandalously did sell and utter to one J. M., a certain lewd, wicked, scandalous, and obscene print or paper, entitled "The Parson receiving Tithes in kind," representing a man in the habit of a clergyman, in an obscene impudent, and indecent posture with a woman; and which said lewd, wicked, scandalous, and obscene print or paper is contained in a certain printed pamphlet then and there uttered and sold by him the said J. S. to the said

J. N., entitled "The Covent Garden Magazine, or Amorous Repository, calculated solely for the Entertainment of the Polite World, for April, 1773;" to the manifest corruption of the morals as well of youth as of other liege subjects of our said lady the queen, to the great scandal, infamy and disgrace of the clergy of this kingdom, in contempt of our said lady the queen and her laws, to the evil example of all others in the like case offending, and against the peace of our lady the said queen, her crown and dignity. Archb. Cr. Pl. 534.

II. Information, Publishing and Selling Obscene Literature.

"Frank Holedger is hereby charged with the crime of publishing, editing and selling obscene and indecent literature, committed as follows, to-wit: That on the 12th day of January, A. D. 1895, at the county of Spokane and state of Washington, Frank Holedger then and there being, did then and there knowingly, unlawfully, maliciously, scandalously and feloniously compose, edit, print, sell, distribute and offer for sale and distribution a certain lewd, scandalous, obscene and indecent newspaper of the date of January 12th, 1895, commonly known as the Spokane Sunday Sun. Contrary to the statute," etc. State v. Holedger, 15 Wash. 443, 46 Pac. 652.

Note.—Held sufficient under statute.

III. Indictment, Exhibiting Obscene Painting.

"The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, inquiring for the city of Philadelphia, upon their oaths and affirmations respectively do present, that Jesse Sharpless, late of the same city yeoman, John Haines, late of the same city yeoman, George Haines, late of the same city, yeoman, John Steel, late of the same city yeoman, Ephraim Martin, late of the same city yeoman, and ——— Mayo, also late of the same city yeoman, being evil disposed persons, and designing, contriving, and intending the morals, as well of youth as of divers other citizens of this commonwealth, to debauch and corrupt, and to raise and create in their minds inordinate and lustful desires, on the first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, at the city aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this court, in a certain house there situate, unlawfully, wickedly, and scandalously did exhibit, and show for money, to persons, to the inquest aforesaid unknown, a certain lewd, wicked, scandalous, infamous, and obscene painting, representing a man in an obscene, impudent, and indecent posture with a woman, to the manifest corruption and subversion of youth, and other citizens of this commonwealth, to the evil example of all others in like case offending, and against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania." Com. v. Sharpless, 2 Serg. & R. (Pa.) 91.

Note.—In the opinion it was said: "Must the indictment describe minutely, the attitude and posture of the figures? I am for paying some respect to the chastity of our records. These are circumstances which may be well omitted."

Downer*, 8 Vt. 424, 30 Am. Dec. 482.

Note.—Held sufficient at common law.

IV. Indictment, Assault on Officer.

Be it remembered, that at a county court, begun and holden at Burlington, within and for the county of Chittenden, on the third Tuesday of September, A. D. 1881, the grand jurors within and for the body of the county of Chittenden aforesaid, now here in court duly empaneled and sworn, upon their oath present that Eugene Carpenter and Thomas Fassett, of Burlington, in the county of Chittenden, on the, to-wit: 12th day of September, A. D. 1881, at Burlington, in said county of Chittenden, with force and arms, in and upon Joseph A. Larose, then and there being a police officer of the city of Burlington, in the county of Chittenden aforesaid, under the authority of the State, did an assault make by then and there beating him, the said Joseph A. Larose, with fists, clubs, feet and sticks, and did then and there by means of which impede and hinder the said Joseph A. Larose, police officer aforesaid, while in the execution of his said office, of police officer as aforesaid, and while he as such police officer was engaged in attempting to quell and quiet a disturbance of the public peace between them, the said Eugene Carpenter and Thomas Fassett, and other persons to the grand jurors aforesaid at present unknown, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state. State v. Carpenter, 54 Vt. 550.

Note.—This was held to be a good common law form.

V. Indictment, Resisting Officer Serving Process.

The grand jurors chosen, selected and sworn, in and for the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, in the name and by the authority of the people of the state of Illinois, upon their oaths present, that Elijah Bowers, late of said city, on the twenty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in said city of Chicago, in the county and state aforesaid, in and upon one Michael Hickey, in the peace of the people then and there being, and being then and there a public officer, to-wit, a constable, and being then and there in the due execution of his duty as such constable, and being then and there attempting to serve a lawful process did then and there unlawfully, knowingly and wilfully resist, obstruct, and oppose, and him, the said Hickey, acting as such officer, he, the said Elijah Bowers, did then and there beat, wound, and ill-treat, contrary to the statute and against the peace and dignity of the same people of the state of Illinois.

D. Mellroy, state's attorney.

Bowers v. People, 17 Ill. 373.

VI. Indictment, Resisting Receiver Appointed by Court.

That the defendant "knowingly and wilfully did resist and oppose one Stephen Adams, there and then duly appointed and acting as receiver of and for the circuit court of Polk county, Iowa, in the case of the National Life Ins. Co. of Montpelier, Vermont, plaintiff, against John D. Rivers and others, defendants, and by said court then and there, by order in writing, duly made and delivered to him, directed, authorized, and empowered to take charge of, and hold the crops growing or grown on the following described premises, to-wit: (describing them) "in his, the said Stephen Adams', efforts to obey and execute the said order of said court; and the said defendants above named, when and while said Stephen Adams, as such receiver, was legally and peacefully attempting to take charge of said crops growing and grown on the lands aforesaid, unlawfully, knowingly and wilfully did, then and there, resist and oppose him, the said Stephen Adams, by then and there closing and keeping closed the gates and other ways of entrance to and upon said lands, by threats of personal violence, by having and displaying arms and weapons, and other acts and threats unknown to the grand jury—contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state of Iowa." State v. Rivers, 64 Iowa 729, 19 N. W. 792.

VII. Indictment, Interfering With Witness, Advising Non-attendance.

"That J. J. Goss was indicted for murder by the grand jury at the April term, 1889, sitting in and for said county of Pike, and that one S. F. Perrow was a material witness on behalf of defendant, J. J. Goss, and that said S. F. Perrow was duly summoned to appear before the honorable circuit court of Pike county at its April term, 1889, on the 20th day of April, 1889, and to appear from day to day and from term to term of said court until discharged by law; and so the grand jurors upon their oaths do further present that S. R. Perrow, late of the said county, on the 21th day of April, 1899, in the county aforesaid, unlawfully and wilfully did then and there attempt to obstruct and impede the trial of said cause, to wit, the State of Mississippi v. J. J. Goss, charged with murder, by then and there counseling, advising and secreting said witness, S. F. Perrow, and to remain away from and absent himself as a witness on behalf of said J. J. Goss, when said case was called for trial in aforesaid court, and by virtue of said counseling and advising to the said S. F. Perrow, given by the said S. R. Perrow, said S. F. Perrow failed to answer as a witness as aforesaid, when said cause was duly called in court, against the peace and dignity of the State of Mississippi." Perrow v. State, 67 Miss. 305, 7 So. 349.

VIII. Indictment, Interfering With Witness, Administering Intoxicants.

That the defendant, "well knowing that one Fred N. Treat, had been summoned in due form of law to appear before the supreme judicial court holden at Belfast within and for the county of Waldo, on the thirtieth day of April aforesaid, then and there to give evidence in said court in behalf of the state, and contriving and intending to obstruct the due course of justice, did then and there unlawfully and corruptly prevent, and attempt to prevent the said Treat from appearing at said court to give evidence as aforesaid, by then and there soliciting, enticing and persuading the said Treat to become intoxicated, and by then and there removing and abducting him the said Treat, whereby the said Treat did not appear at said court and give evidence," etc. State v. Holt, 84 Me. 509, 24 Atl. 951.

That L. P., late of, etc., being an evil disposed person, and not minding to get his living by truth and honest labor, according to the laws of this realm, but compassing and devising how he might unlawfully obtain, and get into his hands and possession, the moneys of the honest liege subjects of our said lord the king, for the maintenance of his unthrifty living, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, falsely, and deceitfully did pretend and affirm to one T. T. that his, the said L. P.'s name was H. H. of N., in the county of S., esquire, and nephew to Mr. H. of N., in the county of S. (meaning J. H. of N., in the county of S., clerk), and that the said L. P. a certain false and counterfeit letter, in the name of him the said J. H. as a true letter of the proper handwriting of him the said J. H. falsely, fraudulently, and deceitfully, to the said T. T. then and there did deliver (he the said J. H. of N., in the county of S., clerk, then and long before being the special friend and intimate acquaintance of him the said T. T.) by which said false and counterfeit letter it was mentioned that the said J. H. desired the said T. T. to supply the bearer thereof, Mr. J. H., with the sum of sixty guineas, and to place it to his account (meaning the account of him the said J. H.), and that the said T. T. then and there believing the said false and counterfeit letter, to be of the proper handwriting of him the said J. H. did then and there pay and deliver to the said L. P. sixty pieces of gold coin, of the proper coin of this kingdom called guineas, of the value of sixty-three pounds of lawful money of G. B. whereas in truth and in fact, the said J. H. never did write or send, or cause to be written or sent, any such letter to the said T. T. desiring the said T. T. to supply the said H. H. with any sum of money whatever, and so the jurors, etc., do say, that the said L. B. Indictment for False Pretenses, Pretending Second Mortgage Was Only Lien.

And the jurors aforesaid, on their oaths aforesaid, present, that James Sully, on the 23d day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, at the city of Buffalo, in the county aforesaid, feloniously devising and intending, by unlawful ways and means, to obtain the signature of one Trumbull Carey to a certain written instrument, to-wit, to a written instrument commonly called a bank check, which was and is in the words and figures following, to-wit:
$2,000. "Buffalo, June 23d, 1859.

Bank of Genesee: Pay to the order of James Sully two thousand dollars, and charge to my account."

Did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Trumbull Carey that a certain mortgage, hereinbefore particularly described and set forth in the first count of this indictment, was the only mortgage, lien or incumbrance of any kind upon the premises in said mortgage described; that there was no other mortgage, lien or incumbrance upon the premises therein described; that it was a first and only mortgage, lien or incumbrance upon the premises therein described, and was a bona fide mortgage, and given for a part of the purchase-money of said premises, and which said mortgage was executed by Ernestus T. Cross and Margaret Cross, his wife, to William M. Moulton, and bears date June the second, in the year last aforesaid, and is to secure the payment of the sum of four thousand and three hundred dollars, and which said mortgage, and the premises described therein, are hereinbefore, in the first count of this indictment, particularly described and set forth; and the said Trumbull Carey, then and there believing the said false pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said James Sully, and then and there believing the same, and being deceived thereby, was then and there induced, by reason of the false pretenses and representations aforesaid, so made as aforesaid, to purchase the mortgage aforesaid, and the bond accompanying the same, and to affix and write his name and signature to the aforesaid written instrument, commonly called a bank check, to-wit, in the words and letters following: "T. Carey," which said check, with the signature of said Trumbull Carey thereon, obtained as aforesaid, the said James Sully took and obtained from said Carey, in part payment of the purchase-money for said mortgage and bond purchased as aforesaid; and the said James Sully did then and there feloniously, knowingly and designedly obtain the signature aforesaid of the said Trumbull Carey to the aforesaid written instrument, commonly called a bank check, by reason of the false pretenses and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Trumbull Carey.

Whereas in fact, and in truth, said mortgage was not then and there the only mortgage, lien or incumbrance upon the premises therein described, and whereas in fact, and in truth, said mortgage was not then and there the first and only mortgage, lien or incumbrance upon the premises therein described, and was not a bona fide mortgage, given for part of the purchase-money, but, on the contrary, said mortgage was given without any consideration whatsoever and was then and there wholly worthless, and there was then and there another mortgage upon said premises to secure the payment of the sum of five thousand two hundred and fifty dollars, dated the sixth day of May, in the year last aforesaid, executed and delivered by one William M. Moulton to one Truman Luce, and which mortgage was then and there the first mortgage upon the aforesaid premises, and was the first and prior lien and incumbrance thereon, and the said James Sully then and there well knew, at the time of his making the false pretenses and representations aforesaid, that the said last mentioned mortgage was upon the said premises, and was the first mortgage, lien and incumbrance thereon; and whereas in fact, and in truth, each and every of the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said James Sully were utterly false and untrue, and the said James Sully well knew that each and every of the pretenses and representations so made by him as aforesaid, were utterly false and untrue, at the time of making the same, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity.

C. Indictment for False Pretense, Pretending To Be Agent of Wholesale Firm.

City and county of New York, ss.:
The jurors of the people of the state of New York, in and for the body of the city and county of New York, upon their oath, present:

That Julius J. Smith, late of the first ward of the city of New York, in the county of New York aforesaid, well knowing that Rachel Stoesser, hereinafter mentioned, was then and there a customer, and in the habit of dealing with the firm of J. Riegelman & Deffaa, dealers in flour, doing business in said city, on the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud said Rachel Stoesser, did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to said Rachel Stoesser, that he, the said Julius J. Smith, was then and there a salesman and agent for the said firm of J. Riegelman & Deffaa, and that he, the said Julius J. Smith, had then and there procured to be sent to said Rachel Stoesser by said firm of J. Riegelman & Deffaa, ten barrels of flour and one bag of meal; and that he, the said Julius J. Smith, had then and there full power and authority to collect and receive the price of said flour and meal from the said Rachel Stoesser. And the said Rachel Stoesser, then and there believing the said false pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Julius J. Smith, and being deceived thereby, was induced by reason of the false pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver and did then and there deliver to the said Julius J. Smith the sum of eighty-two dollars and seventy cents in money, of the value of eighty-two dollars and seventy cents of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Rachel Stoesser, and the said Julius J. Smith did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum in money of the value aforesaid of the said Rachel Stoesser, of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Rachel Stoesser by means of the false pretenses and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to keep and defraud the said Rachel Stoesser of the said sum in money of the value aforesaid.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Julius J. Smith was not then and there a salesman and agent for the said firm of J. Riegelman & Deffaa, and had not then and there procured to be sent to said Rachel Stoesser by the said firm of J. Riegelman & Deffaa, ten barrels of flour and one bag of meal; whereas, in truth and in fact, he, the said Julius J. Smith, had not then and there any power and authority to collect and receive the price of said flour and meal from the said Rachel Stoesser. And whereas, in fact, and in truth, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Julius J. Smith to the said Rachel Stoesser, were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the ward, city and county aforesaid. And whereas, in fact and in truth, the said Julius J. Smith well knew the said pretenses and representations, so by him made as aforesaid to the said Rachel Stoesser, to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say, that the said Julius J. Smith by means of the false pretenses and representations aforesaid, on the day and year aforesaid, at the ward, city and county aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly did receive and obtain from the said Rachel Stoesser the sum in money of the value aforesaid of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Rachel Stoesser with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud her of the same, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the state of New York and their dignity.

A. Oakey Hall, district attorney.

People v. Smith, 5 Park. Cr. (N. Y.) 490, 491.

D. Indictment for Obtaining Merchandise by False Pretenses.

"In the Pope circuit court, the state of Arkansas, against John Johnson. Indictment.

"The grand jury of Pope county, in the name and by the authority of the state of Arkansas, accuse John Johnson of a felony, committed as follows, to-wit:

"The said John Johnson, on the nineteenth day of July, A. D. 1880, in the county and state aforesaid, unlawfully, feloniously and designedly, did falsely pretend to one D. M. Mourning, that he, the said John Johnson, was then in the employ of one W. R. Kiger, and was then sent by the said W. R. Kiger to the said D. M. Mourning, for one pair of shoes (the said W. R. Kiger then and long before being well known to the said D. M. Mourning and G. H. Mourning, in their business and way of trade as merchants), by reason of which said false pretenses, the said John Johnson did, then and there, unlawfully obtain from the said D. M. Mourning, one pair of shoes, of the value of two dollars and twenty-five cents, of the joint goods and chattels of the said D. M. Mourning and G. H. Mourning, with intent then and there to cheat and defraud them, the said D. M. Mourning and G. H. Mourning, of the same, whereas in truth, and in fact, the said John Johnson was then sent by the said W. R. Kiger to the said D. M. Mourning for the pair of shoes aforesaid. Against the peace and dignity of the state of Arkansas." Johnson v. State, 36 Ark. 242.

Ordered, that W. X., of _____ (designating official description) be substituted as the (defendant) herein, in place of Y. Z. (and he is hereby required to appear and answer within _____ days after service of a copy of this order). 2 Abb. Forms 234.

III. Complaint for an Office Not Elective.

I. That at the times hereafter mentioned, in the municipal corporation entitled "The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York," there was, and still is, an executive department created and existing under the laws of this state, known as the street department, the chief officer of which department is called the street commissioner, which office of street commissioner was and is a public office in said city.

II. That in the month of _____, 18____, one J. S. T. was duly elected to said office, for the term of _____ years from the _____ day of _____, 18____, and on said day entered upon the duties of said office, and discharged the duties thereof until the _____ day of ———, 18——, when he died, whereby the office became, and thence, until and at the time of the appointment hereinafter referred to, continued vacant.

III. That after said death, and on the ——— day of ———, 18——, the said (individual plaintiff) was appointed to said office by the mayor of said city, with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen of said city, and thereafter, and on the same day, in due form of law, and according to the ordinances of the corporation of said city, he gave sufficient security for the performance of his duties as such street commissioner, in the form and amount for that purpose prescribed by the said ordinances, and took and subscribed, before the mayor of said city, and filed, his oath in the following form: (copy oath). And that he accepted such appointment, and in all respects qualified himself to assume such office, and perform the duties thereof.

IV. That the defendant, claiming to have been appointed by the governor of the state of New York, to fill the aforesaid vacancy, created by the death of said J. S. T., and without any other or any legal warrant, right, or grant whatever, intruded into and usurped said office, and still unlawfully holds and exercises the same.

Wherefore the plaintiff demands judgment, with costs:

1. That the defendant is not entitled to the said office, and that he be ousted therefrom.

2. That the said (individual plaintiff) is entitled to the office, and to assume the execution of the duties of the same on taking the oath and filing the bond prescribed by law. 1 Abb. Forms 620.

IV. Official Bonds.

A. Complaint, Assignment of Breach of Bond of County Treasurer.

That said treasurer, between the ——— day of ———, and the ——— day of ———, received various sums of money as such treasurer, amounting to about the sum of ——— dollars (being a part of the tax raised in his county for the year ———), and that he fraudulently, and in breach of his trust, converted and appropriated to his own use said sum.

For a further breach, the plaintiff alleges that said treasurer, on the ——— day of ———, accounted with the plaintiffs concerning moneys (raised in his county for defraying the public and necessary charges thereof) which had come to his hands as said treasurer, and on such accounting was found to be in arrear, and indebted to the plaintiffs in the further sum of ——— dollars, and that on the ——— day of ———, the plaintiffs demanded that he pay the same over to them, but he refused so to do, and no part thereof has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 283.

B. Assignment of Breach of Sheriff's Bond.

1. Complaint, Assignment of Breach in Sheriff's Bond, for Neglect To Levy.

That on the ——— day of ———, in an action brought by him against one M. N., the relator recovered judgment, duly given by the Court of ———, against said M. N., for the sum of ——— dollars (which judgment was on, etc., duly docketed in the office of the clerk of the county of, etc.)

That on the ——— day of ———, an execution in favor of the relator against the property of said M. N. was duly issued on said judgment, and delivered to the said sheriff, of which the following is a copy: (or state its effect).

That said sheriff did not execute said process, but although there was then within his county real and personal property of which he might have levied, the moneys thereby directed to be levied (and of which he had notice), he neglected and refused so to do, whereby the relator lost his said debt.

That on the ——— day of ———, leave was granted to the relator by the supreme court at ———, to prosecute said bond by reason of the premises. 1 Abb. Forms 284.

2. Complaint, Assignment of Breach in Sheriff's Bond, Neglect To Sell.

(Allege judgment and execution, as in preceding form.)

That the said sheriff by virtue thereof, on the ——— day of ———, levied on the goods of said M. N., of the value of ——— dollars; but he neglected to advertise and sell the goods so levied on by him as aforesaid, and no part of the moneys directed to be collected on the relator's said execution has been received by the relator. 1 Abb. Forms 284.

3. Complaint, Assignment of Breach in Sheriff's Bond, Neglect To Return.

(Allege judgment and execution, as in IV, 13, 1, continuing): who by virtue thereof, on the ——— day of ———, levied on the goods of said M. N., of the value of ——— dollars; but, although more than sixty days elapsed after its delivery to him and before this action, wholly neglected and failed to make return of said execution, and no part of the moneys directed to be collected thereby has been received by the relator. 1 Abb. Forms 285.

4. Complaint, Allegation of Judgment Against Sheriff.

That thereafter, and on and about the ——— day of ———, in an action brought by the plaintiff in the ——— court, he recovered against a judgment duly given against the said sheriff for the sum of ——— dollars, for the damages which the relator had sustained by the neglect of the sheriff to execute (or, return) said process, and ——— dollars costs of his said action, and no part thereof has been paid to the relator. 1 Abb. Forms 285.

V. Indictments for Misconduct in Office.

A. Indictment for Official Misconduct, Failure To Pay Over to Successor.

"The state of South Carolina, county of Lexington. At a court of general sessions, begun and holden in and for the county of Lexington, in the state of South Carolina, at Lexington court house, in the county and state aforesaid, on the third Monday of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the jurors of and for the county aforesaid, in the state aforesaid, upon their oath, present: That William J. Assmann, late of the county and state aforesaid, on the first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and on divers other days since said day, and up to the eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, with force and arms unlawfully did commit official misconduct, in this, that he, the said

William J. Assmann, was duly elected clerk of the court of common pleas and general sessions of Lexington county, at the regular general election in the year 1888, and duly qualified as such within the time required by law, and entered upon and continued to discharge the duties of said office up to and until the eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, at which time one Isaiah Haltiwanger succeeded him, the said William J. Assmann, as clerk of the court of common pleas and general sessions of the county of Lexington aforesaid, and entered upon the discharge of the duties of said office. And at that time aforesaid, to-wit: on the eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, the said William J. Assmann then and there had and held in his hands a certain sum of money, to-wit: the sum of $1,926.45, which had been received by him, the said William J. Assmann, as clerk as aforesaid, in proceedings had in a case entitled Ex parte E. E. Fort, as administratrix of the estate of Hugh L. Boyd, deceased, In re E. E. Boyd, as administratrix as aforesaid, plaintiff, v. Mary L. Lee, as executrix, and others, defendants, which said sum of money the said William J. Assmann, upon the succession of him, the said Isaiah Haltiwanger, to the office aforesaid, at the time aforesaid, and within thirty days thereafter, he, the said William J. Assmann, failed to pay over to his successor in office as clerk of the court of common pleas and general sessions of Lexington county, to-wit: to the said Isaiah Haltiwanger, the aforesaid sum of $1,926.45, paid him as clerk aforesaid, under the proceedings aforesaid against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state.

P. H. Nelson, solicitor."

State v. Assmann, 46 S. C. 554, 24 S. E. 673.

B. Indictment for Failure To Make Report of Revenue.

That defendant, as clerk of the county court of Campbell county, "wilfully, knowingly, and unlawfully failed to make to the chairman of the county court in the time required by the act of 1875, his monthly report of revenue by him received," and said report for the months alleged, in 1876, was not made till the 8th of February, 1877. State v. Jones, 2 Lea (Tenn.) 716.

C. Indictment Against County Clerk for Failing To File Statement.

The first count charged that defendant "being the clerk of said court from January 1st, 1871, to January 1st, 1875, did, on the 1st day of January, 1875, and at the end of the year 1874, wilfully, corruptly, knowingly, etc., fail and refuse to file a statement in detail, under oath or affirmation, showing the aggregate amount of fees and emoluments received by him as clerk for the year 1874." The third count charged that "defendant, during his term of office, and on the eighteenth day of November, 1874, did, wilfully, corruptly, fraudulently, etc., represent and show that he had not received, for the year 1874, in the aggregate of all official fees and emoluments, more than the sum of $2,500, after deducting such sums as were necessary and proper for the payment of deputies and assistants; and that there was no surplus to pay into the county treasurer; and did then and there procure the court to receive the said statement, and discharge the said defendant from making any further statement or settlement of official fees for the year 1874, and did so cause the court to make said order, whereas, in truth, the fees for said year amounted to $7,764, and leaving a balance, after deducting $2,500 and reasonable deputy hire, of $2,598; that he did, with the intent to cheat, cause and procure said false settlement and discharge to be made, and is, therefore, guilty of a fraud in office." State v. O'Gorman, 68 Mo. 179.

D. Indictment for Neglect To Supervise Jail.

"Did then and there unlawfully and negligently fail to exercise a supervision and control over the county jail of said county, he, the said John F. Gordon, being then and there the sheriff of said county, namely: he the said John F. Gordon did then and there, on said day, and divers days just before said day, wholly fail and neglect to enter said jail and examine the same, and did then and there wholly neglect and fail to examine into the manner of keeping the prisoners confined in said jail, and did wholly fail and neglect to see that proper precautions were taken to prevent the escape of said prisoners, so that fifteen prisoners were then and there kept in said jail without being ironed, and without a guard around said jail, so that on said day, by the failure and neglect aforesaid by the said John F. Gordon as aforesaid, one George Middleton, then and there legally confined in said jail, on accusation of theft of a mare, and fourteen other persons then and there legally confined in said jail on accusations of felonies, did then and there and thereby escape from jail and flee from custody, and that said prisoners were then and there enabled to, and did escape on account of, and by reason of, said neglect and failure as aforesaid, against the peace and dignity of the state." Gordon v. State, 2 Tex. App. 154.

Note.—Under general provision of statute against neglect of duty by officers.

E. Indictment for Neglecting To Keep Road in Repair.

The jurors for the state upon their oaths present, that John A. Dickson, R. K. Presnell, John Garrison, T. J. Gilliam, Sam Huffman, N. L. Beach, commissioners of the town of Morganton, late of the county of Burke, on the first day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, with force and arms, at and in the county aforesaid, unlawfully and wilfully did fail, refuse and neglect to have the road leading from the depot to Huntling Creek worked out and kept in proper repair. The same being a public road or street and within the corporate limits of the town of Morganton, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state.

L. F. Spainhour, solicitor.

State v. Dickson, 124 N. C. 871, 32 S. E. 961.

F. Indictment for Misconduct in Office, Appropriating Money Contrary to Law.

"The grand jury of the county of Webster, in the name and by the authority of the state of Iowa, accuse Josiah Conlee, John Wilson, A. Graves, G. T. Richey, John Linn, N. H. Hart, A. S. White, C. C. Carter, D. C. Russell, D. W. Prindle, C. W. Maher, and J. M. Henderson, of the crime of wilful misconduct in office in ordering the erection of bridges at a cost of more three $5,000 each, without first submitting a proposition therefor to the legal voters of said county; committed as follows: The said J. Slat. Conlee and others (having them), on the 14th day of September, A. D. 1866, in the county aforesaid, then and there being the supervisors of the county of Webster, in the State of Iowa, and being convened in session as the board of supervisors of said county, wrongfully, unlawfully and wilfully, did order the erection of three several bridges within the limits of said county, at a cost exceeding the sum of $5,000 each, and then and there, wrongfully, unlawfully and wilfully, did appropriate, of the public money of said county, the sum of $5,000 each, for the erection of three several bridges within the limits of said county, and the further sum of $5,000 each, for the abutments and trestle work on said bridges, being a part, parcel and portion of said bridges, without first submitting any proposition therefor to the legal voters of the county of Webster, contrary to the prohibition of the statute in such cases made and provided, and in violation of their official duties." State v. Conlee, 25 Iowa 237.

State, and has been sentenced by the said court to suffer the penalty of death on the 24 day of July next; and where as the said George Wilson has been recommended as a fit subject for the exercise of executive clemency by a numerous and respectable body of petitioners, praying for him a remission of the sentence of death, inasmuch as, in such a case, sentence of imprisonment for twenty years may yet be pronounced against him on the indictment to which he has pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court of the United States for the said district, and a still more severe imprisonment may be awarded him for the same acts in the criminal courts of Pennsylvania:

"Now therefore, I, Andrew Jackson, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, have pardoned, and do hereby pardon the said George Wilson the crime for which he has been sentenced to suffer death, remitting the penalty aforesaid, with this express stipulation, that this pardon shall not extend to any judgment which may be had or obtained against him, in any other case or cases now pending before said court for other offenses wherewith he may stand charged.

"(L. S.) In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed to these presents. Given at the city of Washington this 14th day of June, A. D. 1830, and of the independence of the United States the fifty-fourth.

"Andrew Jackson.

V. Indictment for Solemnizing Marriage Without Consent of Parents.

United States, District of Columbia and County of Washington, to-wit:

The jurors for the United States for the District of Columbia and county of Washington, upon their oath, present that Andrew Thomas McCormick, late of the county of Washington, clerk, upon the twenty-third day of July, in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand eight hundred and two, with force and arms, at the county of Washington aforesaid, did unlawfully, knowingly, and wilfully solemnize matrimony between Henry Lawler, late of the county of Washington aforesaid, then a bachelor, and one Mary Ann Densley, then a single woman, daughter of one Hugh Densley, late of the county of Washington, without the consent of the said Hugh Densley, and without the consent of Mary Ann Densley, wife of the said Hugh Densley and mother of the said Mary Ann Densley first named, personally given or signified under the hand and seal of the said Hugh Densley, or the said Mary Ann his wife, and attested by two witnesses, the said Mary Ann Densley daughter to the said Hugh Densley, and Mary Ann his wife, then and there being under the age of sixteen years, and not before married; in contempt of the laws of the land, to the evil example of all others in like cases offending, against the form of the statute in that case made and provided, and against the peace and government of the United States. United States v. McCormick, 1 Cranch C. C. (U. S.) 106, 26 Fed. Cas. No. 15,662.

VI. Affidavit of Defense by Parent Alleging Support of Child Gratuitous.

The affidavit of defense averred: "that the plaintiffs therein are Edward McLaughlin and Mary McLaughlin, that said Mary is the wife of Edward McLaughlin and the sister of deponent's wife, who died some four years ago; that the claim in this case is for the board of deponent's minor child, now about five years of age, that when deponent's wife died, said Mary McLaughlin offered to take said child and care for it, and deponent allowed her to have it until about the twenty-eighth day of October, 1892, when, upon a writ of habeas corpus being issued by deponent, she was compelled to surrender the said child to him, that deponent never contracted or agreed to pay any board for said child, neither did plaintiffs ever demand any board for said child, but, on the contrary, refused to receive or charge any board; in consequence thereof, deponent considering that he was indebted to plaintiffs for their kindness, made Mary McLaughlin presents, etc., far exceeding, as deponent believes, the value of the board of said child as charged in the statement filed. Deponent further says that during the time the child was with plaintiffs he furnished and paid for all of its clothes and other necessities.

"That the charges made, if proper claims against him, are excessive and entirely out of proportion. That plaintiffs are not entitled to a judgment for want of an affidavit of defense, as the claim entirely is upon a quantum meruit, and not upon a contract or promise to pay a certain amount, all of which deponent believes and expects to be able to prove upon the trial of the cause." McLaughlin v. McLaughlin, 159 Pa. 489, 28 Atl. 302.

I. Pleas.

A. Plea of Non-joinder of Plaintiff.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, comes and defends the force and injury, when, etc., and prays judgment, etc. (in the usual form), because he says that the said plaintiff neither at the said times when, etc., nor ever since, hath not, nor had anything in the said close in which, etc., nor in the trees and underwood in the said (bill) mentioned to be therein growing, nor in any of them, nor any part thereof, nor in the said goods and chattels in the said (bill) mentioned, nor in any of them, nor in any part thereof, but jointly and undividedly with I. J. and K. L., who are both still alive, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And this he is ready to verify. Wherefore inasmuch as the said I. J. and K. L. are not named in the said (bill) together with the said plaintiff, he, the said defendant, prays judgment of the said (bill), and that the same may be quashed, etc. (Add affidavit.) Burr. App. 335, §605; 1 Wentw. Pl. 67.

B. Plea of Non-Joinder of Defendant.

And the said defendant, by E. F., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, etc., and prays judgment of the said bill (or, if by original, or in C. P., instead of the word "bill" say "writ and declaration"), because he says that the said several supposed promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, if any such were made, were, and each of them was, made by the said defendant jointly with one E. F., who is still living, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), and not by the said defendant alone; and this he the said defendant is ready to verify, whereof inasmuch as the said E. F. is not named in the said bill (or, if by original, or in C. P., say "writ and declaration"), together with the said defendant, he the said defendant prays judgment of the said bill (or, if by original, or in C. P., say "writ and declaration"), and that the same may be quashed, etc. (add affidavit.) 3 Chit. Pl. 900.

II. Replication to Plea of Non-Joinder.

And the said plaintiff saith that his said bill (or "the said writ") by reason of anything by the said defendant in her said plea above alleged, ought not to be quashed, because he saith that the said several promises and undertakings were not made by the said defendant jointly and together with the said E. P. in manner and form as the said defendant hath above in his said plea in that behalf alleged. And this be the said defendant prays may be inquired of by the country, etc. 1 Chas. Pl. 1142.

III. Answers of Non-Joinder.

A. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of One Party to Contract.

I. That the supposed contract (or other cause of action) mentioned in the complaint, if any such was made, was made with said ———, by the plaintiff (or by the defendant) and * ——— M. N., jointly (and if as partners, may add, as partners under the firm name of Y. Z. & Co.).

II. That the said M. N. is still living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 28.

B. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of a Co-executor.

I. That the said M. N., the testator mentioned in the complaint, by his will duly appointed the plaintiff and one O. P., jointly, executors of his said will.

II. That on or about the ——— day of ———, 18—, letters testamentary thereupon were duly issued to said O. P. (together with the plaintiff) by the surrogate of the county of ———; and he thereupon duly qualified as executor, and still is such, and living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 29.

C. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of Co-administrator.

That after the death of said M. N., and on or about the ——— day of ———, 18—, letters of administration were duly issued to one O. P., together with the plaintiff, by the surrogate of the county of ———; and said O. P. thereupon duly qualified as administrator, and still is such, and living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 29.

D. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder in Case of Indorsement.

I. That the supposed note in the complaint alleged to have been indorsed (or transferred) to the plaintiff was not indorsed (or transferred) to him individually, but to the plaintiff and one (continue as in III, A, from the *). 2 Abb. Forms 29.

E. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of Other Owners in Action Relative to Land.

That M. N. and O. P., residing at ———, are tenants in common with the plaintiff in said lands, and necessary parties to this action. 2 Abb. Forms 29.

F. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of Tenant in Common, as to Part of the Goods.

That as to the taking (or converting) of said (here mention the part as designated in the complaint; or, if not there designated, say, a part of the goods mentioned in the complaint, to-wit, a wagon and harness), the same were at the time of said supposed trespass the property of the plaintiff and one M. N., as tenants in common, and not of the plaintiff alone.

II. That the said M. N. is still living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 29.

G. Answer in Abatement, Joint Interest in Plaintiff and Third Person.

I. That the plaintiff had not, at the time of the alleged grievances in the complaint mentioned (nor at any time since) any title to or interest in the (property the subject of the action) therein mentioned, except jointly and undividedly with M. N. and O. P.

II. That said M. N. and O. P. are still living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 30.

H. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of Necessary Defendant.

That the said work and labor were done, and money was paid by the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, jointly with one M. N., who is still living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 30.

I. Answer in Abatement, Non-joinder of Partner of Defendants.

I. That at the time of the making of the contract mentioned in the complaint, these defendants were in partnership with one M. N., under the firm of Z., N. & Co.

II. That said note was made by these defendants jointly with said M. N., and not otherwise (which the plaintiffs then well knew).

III. That said M. N. is still living at ———. 2 Abb. Forms 30.

IV. Suggestions.A. Suggestion of Death of Defendant Between Declaration and Plea.

(After entering the declaration, proceed as follows):

And the said C. D. and B. D., defendants in this suit, by G. H., their attorney, come and defend the wrong and injury when, etc., and pray leave to imparl to the said declaration until the _____ Monday of _____ next, before the justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at the _____ in the city of _____, and it is granted to them, etc. The same day is given to the said plaintiff at the same place. At which day, before the justices aforesaid, come as well the said plaintiff by his attorney aforesaid as the said defendant C. D. by his attorney aforesaid, and the said defendant B. D. comes not. And hereupon the said C. D. gives the court here to understand and be informed that after the last continuance of the plea aforesaid, and before this day, to-wit, on, etc., the said B. D. died, to-wit, at, etc. (the time and place of the death), and the said C. D. survived him: which allegation the said plaintiff doth not deny, but admits the same to be true. Therefore let all further proceedings in this cause against the said B. D. be stayed.

And the said C. D. defends the wrong and injury when, etc. (copy the plea of the surviving defendant, and go on with the proceedings against him only). Burr. App. 87, §166; Till. Forms 149.

B. Suggestion of Marriage of a Feme Plaintiff After Verdict or Interlocutory Judgment, and Before Final Judgment.

And hereupon the said plaintiff gives the court now here to understand, and be informed, that after the last continuance of the plea aforesaid (or after the finding of the verdict aforesaid), and before this day, to-wit, on, etc., the said plaintiff intermarried with J. N., and took him to husband, and was from thence hitherto, and now is, covert of the said J. N.; which the said defendant doth not deny, but admits the same to be true. Therefore it is considered that the said J. N. and A., his wife, do recover, etc. (judgment in the names of husband and wife). Burr. App. 90, §171; Archb. Pl. 437.

V. Demurrer in Equity for Want of Parties.

This defendant, by protestation, not confessing or acknowledging all or any of the matters and things in said complainant's bill to be true, in such manner and form as the same are therein set forth and alleged, doth demur thereto, and for cause of demurrer sheweth that it appears by the said complainant's said bill that J. M., therein named, is a necessary party to said bill; inasmuch as it is therein stated that E. M., the testator in the said bill named, did in his lifetime, by certain conveyances made to the said J. M., in consideration of the sum of $_____, convey to him, by way of mortgage, certain estates in the said bill particularly mentioned and described, for the purpose of paying the said testator's debts and legacies; but the said complainant hath not made the said J. M. a party to the said bill. Wherefore this defendant demands the judgment of this honorable court whether he shall be compelled to make any further or other answer to the said bill or any of the matters and things therein contained, and prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs in this behalf sustained.

VI. Plea in Equity for Want of Proper Parties.

This defendant (or these defendants respectively), by protestation, not confessing or acknowledging all, or any, of the matters and things in the said complainant's bill of complaint mentioned and contained to be true, in such sort, manner and form as the same are therein set forth and alleged for plea to the whole of the said bill (or to so much and such part of the said bill as prays, etc., or seeks an account from this defendant as executor and heir at law of D. H., deceased, in the said bill named, for what remains due and owing upon the bond in the said bill mentioned, bearing date the _____ day of _____, 1840, and payment by this defendant, as such executor and heir at law of the said H. D., deceased, of what shall be found due on taking such account. This defendant doth plead thereto, and for plea saith that no part of the sum of $2000 for securing the repayment whereof the said bond was executed, was paid to or received by the said H. D., but that the whole was paid unto A. H., in the said bond and in the said bill also named, and received by him for his sole use, and that the said H. D. was only a surety for the said A. H., and that the said complainant afterwards accepted a composition for what he alleged to be due on the said bond, from the said A. H., without the privity of the said H. D. in his lifetime, or of this defendant since the death of the said H. D., which took place on or about the _____ day of _____, as in the said bill mentioned: since which no demand has been made on this defendant for any money alleged to be due on the said bond; and that the said A. H. died several years ago seised and possessed of considerable real and personal estate; and that his heir at law, or the devisee of his real estate, and also the representative of his personal estate, ought to be, but are not, made parties to the said bill. Therefore this defendant doth plead the said (act of the legislature, want of proper parties, or release, etc., in bar) to the said complainant's bill (or to so much of the said bill as is hereinbefore particularly mentioned); and prays the judgment of this honorable court whether he should be compelled to make any further answer to the said bill (or to so much of the said bill as is hereinbefore pleaded to); and prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs and charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained.

VII. Notice of Motion for Leave That Wife Answer Separately.

Please take notice that on the complaint, and the notice of appearance which is hereto annexed (or which has been served upon you), the undersigned will move the court, at a special term to be held at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____ o'clock in the _____—noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, that the defendant W. Z., wife of the defendant Y. Z., may be at liberty to put in her answer to the plaintiff's said complaint, separate from her husband, and for such other or further order as may be just. 2 Abb. Forms 197.

VIII. Order Without Motion To Bring in Necessary Parties.

This cause coming on to be tried, and it appearing to the court that the presence of C. D. is necessary to a complete determination of the controversy:

Ordered that the summons and complaint in this action be amended by the addition of C. D. as a defendant therein: that the plaintiff cause the said C. D. to be duly served with a copy of the said summons and complaint, further amended as he may be advised, within _____ days from the date of this order; that the said C. D. have twenty days to answer the complaint, after such service; and that the trial of this cause be postponed until the action is in readiness to be brought to trial against the said C. D. 2 Abb. I. Declaration for Partition, Tenants in Common.

_____ (to-wit), E. F., of _____, in the county aforesaid, was summoned to answer A. B. and C. D. of a plea, wherefore * whereas the said A. B., C. D. and the said E. F., hold together and undivided the manor of _____, with the appurtenances, etc. (specifying the premises according to the writ), of which the said E. F. denieth partition to be made between them according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and unjustly permitteth not the same to be done, and contrary to the form of the statute. And whereupon the said A. B. and C. D., _____, by their attorney, say that whereas they and the said E. F. hold together and undivided the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, whereof it belongs to the said A. B. and C. D. and their heirs, to have one moiety of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to hold them in severalty, so that the said A. B. and C. D. of the moiety belonging to them of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and the said E. F. of his moiety belonging to him of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, may severally apportion themselves, he the said E. F. denieth partition thereof to be made between them, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and unjustly permitteth not the same to be done, and contrary to the form of the said statute; whereupon they say that they are injured, and have damage to the value of £_____, and thereof they bring suit, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1391.

II. Pleas.

A. Plea Non Tenent Insimul.

And the said C. D., by G. H., his attorney, comes and says that he did not hold the premises in the said petition of the said A. B. set forth, together with the said A. B. at the time of the commencement of the proceedings in this cause, as alleged in the said petition of the said A. B. And of this he the said C. D. puts himself upon the country. And the said A. B. doth the like, etc.

G. H., attorney for deft.

Burr. App. 570, §1111.

B. Plea That Petitioner Was Not in Possession.

And the said C. D., by G. H., his attorney, comes and says that the said A. B., the above named petitioner, at the time of presenting his said petition, was not in the possession of the premises in question, or any part thereof, as alleged in the said petition of the said A. B. And of this he the said C. D. puts himself upon the country. And the said A. B. doth the like, etc. Burr. App. 570, §1110.

C. Plea by Confession in Partition.

(Copy the declaration to the end, and proceed as follows): And the said F. S. and E., his wife, by J. F., their attorney, and the said W. B., B. B., the younger, T. B., A. R. and D., by O. P., who is admitted by the court of our lord the king now here to prosecute and defend for the said W. B., B. B., the younger, T. B., A. R. and D., who are respectively infants within the age of twenty-one years, as the guardian of the said W. B., B. B., the younger, T. B., A. R. and D., come and defend the force and injury when, etc., and say that they cannot deny the aforesaid action of the said B. B., the elder, and S., not but that partition ought to be made between them and the said B. B., the elder, and S., of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances in form aforesaid, and they freely consent that partition thereof may be made between them, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1392.

III. Judgment on Confession in Partition.

Therefore it is considered that partition be thereof made between the said B. B., the elder, and S., and the said W. B., B. B.,* the younger, T. B., T. S. and E., his wife, A. R., and D., of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances; and it is commanded to the sheriff that in his proper person he go to the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and there, in the presence of the parties aforesaid, by him to be forewarned, if they shall be willing to be present, the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, by the oath of good and lawful men of his county, respect being had to the true value of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, he cause to be divided into two equal moieties, and one moiety thereof he cause to be delivered and assigned to the said B. B., the elder, and S., and the other moiety thereof to the said W. B., B. B., the younger, T. B., T. S., and E., his wife, A. R., and D., to be holden in severalty so that neither the said B. B., the elder, and S., nor the said W. B., B. B., the younger, T. B., T. S., and E., his wife, A. R., and D., may have more than respectively belongs to them of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances; and that the said B. B., the elder, and S., of their moiety belonging to them of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and the said W. B., B. B., the younger, T. B., T. S., and E., his wife, A. R. and D., of their moiety belonging to them of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, may severally approve themselves; and that partition by the said sheriff so distinctly and openly made, he have under his seal and the seals of those by whose oath he shall have made the same partition, together with the writ of our said lord the king to him thereupon directed, the same day is given to the parties aforesaid here, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1393.

IV. First Judgment in Partition.

Therefore it is considered that partition be made thereof between them, etc. And it is commanded to the sheriff, that in his proper person he go to the manor and tenements aforesaid, and in the presence of the parties aforesaid, being forewarned if they shall be willing, the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, by the oath of good and lawful men of his county, respect being had to the true value of the manors and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, he cause to be divided into two equal parts (or as the case is), and one part of those parts he cause to be delivered and assigned to the said A. B. and C. D., and the other part thereof to the said E. F., to be holden to them and their heirs in severalty, so that neither the said A. B. and C. D., nor the said E. F., may have more of the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, than it belongeth to them to have; and that the said A. B. and C. D. of their part to them thereof belonging, and the said E. F., of his part to him thereof belonging, may severally apportion themselves; and that that partition, by the said sheriff so distinctly and openly made, he have here from the day of Easter in fifteen days, under his seal, and the seals of those, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1393.

V. Writ de Partitioe Facienda.

William the fourth, by the grace of God, of Great Britain and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth. To the sheriff of _____, greeting: Whereas E. F., late of _____, in your county, esquire, was summoned to be in our court, before our justices at Westminster, to answer A. B. and C. D. of a plea whereof the said A. B. and C. D. and the said E. F. hold together and undivided the manor of _____, with the appurtenances (specify the premises according to the declaration), and the said E. F. denied partition thereof to be made between them, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and unjustly permitted not the same to be done, and contrary to the form of the statute, as they said; and the said E. F. appearing in our said court, freely consented that partition thereof might be made. Whereupon it was considered in our same court, before our justices at Westminster, that partition should be made between them of the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances; therefore we command you, that taking with you twelve free and lawful men of the neighborhood of _____ aforesaid, by whom the truth of the matters may be better known, in your proper person you go to the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and there, in the presence of the parties aforesaid, by you to be forewarned, if they shall be willing to be present, the same manor and tenements with the appurtenances, by the oath of the said twelve free and lawful men, respect being had to the true value of the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, you cause to be divided into two equal parts, and one of those parts to be delivered and assigned to the said A. B. and C. D., and the other part thereof to the said E. F., to be holden to them and to their heirs in severalty, so that neither the said A. B. and C. D., nor the said E. F., may have more of the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, than it belongs to them to have; and that the said A. B. and C. D. of their part to them thereof belonging, and the said E. F. of his part thereof to him belonging, may severally apportion themselves. And that that partition by you so distinctly and openly made, you have here from the day of Easter, in fifteen days, under your seal and the seals of those by whose oath you shall have made that partition; and have you there the names of those by whose oath you shall have made the same partition, and this writ. Witness, Sir N. C. T., knight, at Westminster, the _____ day of _____, in the _____ year of our reign, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 1394.

VI. Return to Writ de Partitioe Facienda.

At which day here come as well the said A. B. and C. D. as the said E. F., by their attorneys aforesaid. And the sheriff, namely, J. T., esquire, now here, returns a certain partition between the parties aforesaid of the tenements aforesaid, by the said sheriff, by virtue of the aforesaid writ, and according to the form thereof, by the oath of twelve free and lawful men of the neighborhood of _____ aforesaid made, which follows in these words, to-wit, _____, to-wit, I, J. T., esquire, sheriff of the county aforesaid, humbly certify and return to his majesty's justices, at the day and place in the writ hereunto annexed mentioned, that by virtue of the said writ to me directed, on the _____ day of _____, in the 1st year of the reign of King William the fourth, of Great Britain and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our Lord _____, having taken with me O. P., Q. R., S. T., etc., twelve free and lawful men of my bailiwick, and of the neighborhood in the said writ mentioned, by whom the truth of the matter may be better known, in my proper person did go to the manor and tenements in the said writ specified, and there, by the oath of the said jurors, in the presence of the parties in the said writ named, by me forewarned according to the command of the said writ, and by their assent, the said manor and tenements, with their appurtenances (respect being had to the true value of the same), I did cause to be divided into two equal parts, and one part thereof, that is to say, all those two messuages, two barns, and the land thereto belonging, called the _____, containing two hundred and twenty acres, two roods, and seven perches, more or less, late in the occupation of W. J., and now of M. D. and his assigns, and all that messuage, etc. (specifying in like manner the whole apportionment allotted to the demandants); and all commons, common of pasture, woods, and underwoods, and trees, ways, waters, easements, and appurtenances to the said several messuages, cottages, farms, lands, woods, grounds, and premises belonging or appertaining, or therewith used and enjoyed; all which said premises are situate, lying and being in _____, in my said county; and did cause the same to be delivered and assigned to the said A. B. and C. D., in the said writ named; and the other part thereof, that is to say, all the manor of _____, in the said county of _____, with the court baron of the same, and all rights, royalties, members, and appurtenances thereof, and all that barn, farm and lands, etc., etc. (specifying the whole apportionment allotted to the defendant); all which said messuages, cottages, farms, barns, lands, woods, grounds, and premises, are situate, lying and being in the parish of _____, in my county, I did cause to be delivered and assigned to the said E. F., esquire, in the said writ named, to be holden to them and their heirs in severalty, as by the said writ I am commanded, so that neither the said A. B. and C. D., nor the said E. F., might have more of the manor and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, than it belonged to them to have, and that the said A. B. and C. D. of their part to them thereof belonging, and the said E. F. of his part to him thereof belonging, may severally apportion themselves. In witness whereof as well I the said sheriff as the jurors aforesaid to this indented partition, have set our seals, the day and year and place above mentioned.

J. T., esquire, sheriff.

VII. Final Judgment in Partition.

Therefore it is considered that the partition aforesaid be held firm and effectual forever. 3 Chit. Pl. 1407.

VIII. Proceeding at Law Under Statutes.

A. Petition for a Partition.

To the (justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York):

The petition of A. B., of _____, respectfully sheweth that your petitioner, together with C. D., of _____, J. K., of _____ (and some person or persons to your petitioner unknown) hold and are in possession of certain lands (or tenements, or hereditaments), to-wit (here describe the premises particularly), as joint tenants (or as tenants in common); that your petitioner has an estate of inheritance (or for his own life, or for the life of one R. S., or for the term of _____ years, as the case may be), in the said premises, being the one equal undivided moiety (or third, or fourth, or other part) thereof (according to the share or interest the petitioner claims); that the said C. D. has an estate of (describing it as above) in the said premises, being the one equal undivided, etc. (specifying the share or interest), that the said J. K. has an estate of (describing it as above), and that some person or persons to your petitioner unknown, have estates or interests, the nature and conditions of which are to your petitioner unknown, in the residue.

And your petitioner being of full age, prays for a division and partition of the said premises, according to the respective rights of the parties interested therein; and for a sale of the said premises, if it shall appear that a partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners; and also that commissioners may be appointed to make partition of the said premises, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. And your petitioner will ever pray, etc. Dated, etc. A. B.

E. F., attorney.

_____ county of _____, ss.: A. B., the above named petitioner, being duly sworn, deposes and says that the matters contained in the above petition are true, to the best of this deponent's knowledge, information and belief. And further says not. Sworn, etc. Burr. App. 553, §1086.

B. Order of the Court To Appear and Plead in Partition.

E. F., attorney.

On reading and filing the petition of A. B., praying for a division and partition of certain premises in the said petition set forth, between the said A. B. and C. D., J. K., and parties interested in the said premises, who are unknown to the said A. B., together with the notice to the said petition annexed, and due proof being made of the service and publication thereof, according to law, it is ordered, on motion of E. F., attorney for the said A. B., that the said C. D. and J. K. (and the persons interested in the said premises who are not known) appear and show title to the proportions which they may claim of the premises set forth in the said petition; and that they answer the said petition in twenty days, or judgment. Burr. App. 581, §1139.

C. Notice of Presenting Petition.

To C. D., J. K. (and all persons unknown, having or claiming any interest in the premises described in the above petition):

Please to take notice that a petition of which the above is a copy, will be presented to the _____ court of _____ of the _____ state of _____, at the _____ in the city of _____, on the (first Monday in January) next, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard; and that an application will be thereupon made to the said court, for the appointment of commissioners, pursuant to the prayer of the said petition. Dated, etc. Burr. App. 540, §1067; 1 Humph. Prec. 69.

D. Order To Amend Petition and To Search for Incumbrances.

F. M., attorney.

On reading and filing affidavits in this cause, and on motion of F. M., attorney for (the party moving), ordered that the plaintiff amend his petition by making (the creditors designated) parties to the proceedings in this cause, and it is further ordered that W. P. H., esquire, one of the clerks of this court, ascertain and report with all convenient speed whether the shares or interests of the said parties in this suit, or any of them, in the premises described in the said petition, are subject to any general lien or incumbrance by judgment or decree. Burr. App. 583, §1142.

E. Petition To Be Admitted a Defendant in Partition.

To the (justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York):

The petition of S. T., of ———, respectfully sheweth that your petitioner has an interest (or a claim by which he may at some future time become interested) in the premises set forth in a certain petition for a division and partition thereof, presented by A. B. to this honorable court, and that the said interest (or claim) of your petitioner in the said premises is (here set forth the interest or claim specifically, according to the facts).

And your petitioner further shows that he is not named as a party in the said petition for a partition; and therefore, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, prays that he may be admitted to appear and answer the said petition for partition as a defendant. And your petitioner will ever pray, etc. Dated, etc. S. T.

F. R., attorney.

(City and) county (of ———), ss.: S. T., the above named petitioner, being duly sworn, deposes and says that the matters set forth in the above petition of this deponent are true. Sworn, etc. S. T.

Burr. App. 553, §1087.

F. Order To Admit Petitioner as Defendant in Partition.

F. R., attorney.

On reading and filing the petition of S. T., stating that he had an interest (or as in the petition, VIII, E) in the premises set forth in the petition for a division and partition thereof, presented in this cause by the above named A. B.; that the interest (or claim) of the said S. T. in the said premises is (as in the petition), and that the said S. T. is not named as a party in the said petition for a partition; and praying to be admitted to appear and answer the said petition for a partition, as a defendant; and on reading and filing the affidavit of the said S. T. of his interest (or claim) as aforesaid, accompanying his said petition: it is ordered, on motion of F. R., attorney for the said S. T., that the said S. T. be, and he is hereby admitted to appear and answer the said petition of the said A. B. as a defendant. Burr. App. 582, §1140.

G. Order for Judgment by Default and Appointment of Commissioners in Partition.

The default of the defendants, for not appearing and showing title to the proportions which they claim of the premises set forth in the petition of the said A. B. in this cause, and for not answering the said petition, having been duly entered; and the said petitioner A. B. having, as required by the court, exhibited proof of his title, and an abstract of the conveyances by which the same is held, and the same being now filed with the clerk of this court; and the court having ascertained from the proofs so taken, declare the rights, title and interest of the said parties to the proceedings in this cause, plaintiff as well as defendant, so far as the same have appeared, to be as follows, to-wit (state the rights and interests of the parties respectively, and the several shares to which they are entitled, according to the facts, and then proceed as follows): And it is determined that the rights of the said parties in the said lands (or tenements, or hereditaments) are as above declared: And it is ordered and adjudged that partition be made between them according to their said rights. And it is further ordered, on motion of F. R., attorney for the petitioner, that O. P., Q. R., and S. T. (three reputable freeholders), he and they are hereby appointed commissioners to make the partition so adjudged, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights and interests of the said parties, as the same are herein ascertained and determined by the court (they leaving and designating the said ——— part of the said premises which shall remain undivided, for the said owners whose interests are unknown and not ascertained. Burr. App. 582, §1141; 1 Humph. Prec. 72.

H. Report of Commissioners for Partition.

We, O. P., Q. R., and S. T., commissioners appointed by the (state the court) to make partition of the lands and premises in question, in the above entitled cause, do certify and return to the said court that after our said appointment we took and subscribed the oath of office required by law, and then went to the lands and premises aforesaid, and in pursuance of the authority to us given for that purpose, made partition between the said parties, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights, titles and interests of the said parties as ascertained, declared and determined by the said court, of all, etc. (describing the whole premises accurately). And we further certify and return that we caused the said premises above described to be divided into ——— equal fourth (or fifth, or sixth, or other, as the case may be) parts, quality and quantity relatively considered; and one equal fourth (or fifth, or sixth, or other) part thereof, to-wit, all that lot, piece or parcel of land, bounded and described as follows, to-wit (here describe the share with the quantity, courses and distances, and a description of the posts, stones, or other monuments thereof), we the said commissioners allotted and assigned to the said A. B., to hold to him, his heirs and assigns in severalty, as and for his right and portion of the said lands and premises aforesaid, as the same is adjudged to him by this court. And one other equal fourth (or fifth, or sixth, or other) part thereof, to-wit: All, etc. (describing the share in like manner as before), we the said commissioners, allotted and assigned to the said C. D., to hold to him, his heirs and assigns in severalty, as and for his right and portion of the lands and premises aforesaid, as the same is adjudged to him by this court. And one other equal fourth (or fifth, or sixth, or other) part thereof, to-wit: All, etc. (describing the share in like manner as before), we the said commissioners, allotted and assigned to the said J. K., to hold to him, his heirs and assigns in severalty, and for his right and portion of the lands and premises aforesaid, as the same is adjudged to him by this court; and the remaining fourth (or fifth, or sixth, or other) part thereof, to-wit: All, etc. (describing the share in like manner as before), we the said commissioners left undivided, and designated as and for the equal share and portion of the said owners who are unknown, as the same is adjudged to them by this court. And we the said commissioners do further return, report and certify to the said court the items of our charges as follows (here insert a regular and particular account of the charges and expenses of making the partition, specifying the items). In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this ——— day of, etc., ———, in the year, etc.

(Signatures and seals.)

Burr. App. 576, §1128; 1 Humph. Prec. 76.

I. Report of Commissioners That Partition Cannot Be Made.

We, O. P., Q. R., and S. T., commissioners appointed by the (name the court), to make partition of the lands and premises in question in the above entitled cause, do certify and return to the said court that after our appointment as such commissioners as aforesaid, we took and subscribed the oath directed by the statute in such case made and provided; and then proceeded to explore and examine the premises in question, for the purpose of making division and partition thereof, agreeably to the rule and order of the said court to that effect made; but having ascertained that (here state the facts and circumstances upon which the opinion of the commissioners is founded), we are of opinion that partition of the said real estate and premises in question in this cause cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners thereof; of which fact we do hereby make a return to the said court in writing under our hands, pursuant to the directions of the statute in such case made and provided. Dated, etc. Burr. App. 577, §1128a.

J. Order for Sale of Premises in Partition.

On reading and filing the report of O. P., Q. R., and S. T., commissioners appointed to make partition of the lands and premises in question in this cause, between the said parties, whereby the said commissioners return that it appears to them that partition of the real estate in question in this cause cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners thereof, and the court being satisfied that such report is just and correct, it is ordered, on motion of E. F., in behalf of the said A. B., that the said commissioners sell the said premises in question at public auction to the highest bidder, after giving notice according to law, of the time and place of such sale. Burr. App. 583, §1143.

K. Report of Commissioners of Sale in Partition.

We, O. P., Q. R., and S. T., commissioners appointed by the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, to make partition of the lands and premises in question, in the above entitled cause, between the parties above named, do certify and return to the said court that in pursuance of the authority and directions to us given in the premises, we did, on, etc., at, etc., expose to sale all, etc. (describe the property sold with the like accuracy that would be required in a deed), and did sell the same premises at such auction for the sum of _____ dollars, being the highest sum bid for the same, to H. I., he being the highest bidder. (If the premises were sold in parcels, state the sale of each parcel separately, the amount bid therefor, and who the purchaser was.) And we do further certify that due notice was previously given according to law, of the time and place of such sale, by, etc. (state the notice). In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands, this _____ day, etc.

Sworn, etc. Burr. App. 578, §1129; 1 Humph. Prec. 75.

L. Order To Confirm Sale.

On reading and filing the report of O. P., Q. R., and S. T., commissioners appointed to make partition between the said parties, of the lands and premises in question, whereby it appears that (here insert the report in substance): It is ordered, on motion of E. F., on behalf of the said A. B., that the said sale be, and the same is hereby approved and confirmed by the court; and that the said commissioners, or any two of them, execute conveyances to the said H. I., for the said premises, pursuant to such sale: And it is further ordered that the costs and expenses of the proceedings in this suit be deducted from the proceeds of the said sale so made by the said commissioners, and be by them paid to the said A. B., or his attorney; and that the said commissioners also pay to the said A. B., or bring into court for his use, one (third) part of the moneys arising from said sale, after deducting therefrom the one (third) part of the said costs and expenses: And that they pay in like manner to the said C. D., or bring into court for his use, one (sixth) part of the moneys arising from the said sale, after deducting therefrom the one (sixth) part of the said costs and expenses; and that the said commissioners pay in like manner to the said J. K., or bring into court for his use, one (fourth) part of the moneys arising from the said sale, after deducting therefrom one (fourth) part of the said costs and expenses: And also that they bring into court, for the use of the said unknown owners, one (seventh) part of the moneys arising from the said sale, after deducting therefrom the one (seventh) part of the said costs and expenses. Burr. App. 583, §1144; 1 Humph. Prec. 75.

M. Judgment Record in Partition by Default.

Placita in the usual form, of the term of interlocutory judgment.)

County, ss.: Be it remembered that in the term of _____ last past, before the justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York, at, etc., on, etc. (in the usual form), came A. B., by E. F., his attorney, and brought into the said court, before the aforesaid justices thereof then there, his certain petition and notice for the partition of certain premises therein described, according to the provisions of the statute "of the partition of lands owned by several persons;" which said petition and notice follow in these words, that is to say:

To the supreme court, etc. (here insert the petition, and the notice subjoined to it, and then proceed as follows):

And the said A. B. prays the court for such order on his said petition as is directed in and by the said statute; and also now here presents to the said court the following affidavits of the service (and publication) thereof, to-wit (here insert them).

And hereupon the said court do order (here insert the rule or order to appear and plead).

And now at this day, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., until which day the said C. D., the said J. K. (and the said owners unknown), defendants in this suit, had leave to imparl to the said petition of the said A. B., and then to answer the same, etc., before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at, etc., on, etc., comes the said A. B., by his attorney aforesaid,* and the said defendants, although solemnly demanded, come not, but make default; whereby the said A. B. remains therein undefended against them: wherefore the said A. B. ought to have partition of the said premises in question in this suit, according to the prayer of his said petition. And thereupon the said A. B., being thereunto required by the court here, exhibits proofs of his title, and an abstract of the conveyances by which the same is held. And now the said court here, according to the directions of the statute in such case made and provided, do ascertain from the said proofs so taken, and do declare their rights, titles and interests of the said parties to the proceedings in this cause, the plaintiff as well as defendants, so far as the same have appeared, to be as follows, to-wit (state the rights and interests of the parties respectively, and the several shares to which they are entitled); and the said court now here do determine the rights of the said parties to be as above declared.*

Therefore it is considered that partition of the said lands and premises in question in this suit be made between the said parties in this suit, according to their said respective rights as aforesaid. Whereupon, and on the prayer of the said A. B., the court now here do appoint O. P., of, etc., Q. R., of, etc., and S. T., of, etc., three reputable freeholders, commissioners to make partition of the said premises between the said parties, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights and interests of the said parties, as the same are herein ascertained and determined by the court here (they leaving the said parcel of the said premises which shall remain undivided for the said owners, whose interests are unknown, and not ascertained). And it is commanded to the said commissioners that they make report of what they shall do in the premises, to the justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at, etc., on, etc. The same day is given to the parties aforesaid, at the same place.

At which day, before the said justices of the supreme court of judicature aforesaid, at, etc., comes the said A. B., by his attorney aforesaid, and the said commissioners, to-wit, O. P., Q. R., and S. T., now here return a certain report in writing, under their hands, as follows, to-wit (here insert the report, and then proceed as follows): which, being seen, and mature deliberation thereupon had, the said return is by the court here confirmed.

Therefore it is considered that the partition aforesaid be firm and effectual forever, etc. And it is further considered that the said A. B. do recover of the said C. D. the sum of _____ dollars for the proportion of the said C. D. of the costs and expenses of the proceedings aforesaid. And also that the said A. B. do recover of the said J. K. (as in the award of costs, etc., against C. D., then add the like award against the owners unknown, and then conclude as follows): according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and that the said A. B. have execution thereof, etc. Burr. App. 530, §1053; 1 Humph. Prec. 77.

N. Judgment Record on Verdict in Partition.

(As in last form to the first *, then enter the plea, and then the order for trial, and postea, the latter being in the usual form, to the words, "say upon their oath," and then, if the issue was on a plea of "not in possession," as follows): that the said petitioner was (or, if for defendant, "was not") at the time of presenting his said petition, in the possession of the aforesaid described premises, and every (or any) part thereof; as the said petitioner hath in his said petition alleged.

(If the issue was on a plea of non tenant insimul, the postea will vary, thus: "that the said defendant did [or did not] hold the premises in the petition aforesaid set forth, together with the said petitioner, at the time of the commencement of the proceedings in this cause as alleged in the said petition.")

(If the verdict was for the plaintiff, the record after the entry of the postea concludes with the judgment, thus):

Therefore it is considered that partition of the said lands and premises in question in this suit be made, etc. (as in last form from the last * to the end).

(If the verdict was for the defendant, the judgment is thus): Therefore it is considered that the said defendants do go thereof without day; and that the said petitioner be in mercy, etc. And it is further considered, etc. (judgment for costs). Burr. App. 531, §1054.

IX. In Equity.

A. Bill for Partition by Coheiresses.

Humbly complaining, show unto your honors your orators and oratrixes, T. K., of, etc., and C., his wife, L. G., of ———, and M., his wife, and J. V., of, etc., widow, that W. S., of, etc., deceased, the late father of your oratrixes, C. K., M. G., and J. V., and also G. E. F., wife of R. F., of, etc., the defendants hereinafter named, was in his lifetime, and at the time of his death, seized in fee simple, or of some other good estate of inheritance to him and his heirs, of and in all that messuage or dwelling house, etc., and also of and in all that other messuage, etc.; all which said messuages, lands and premises are situate, lying and being in, etc., and being so seized, he the said W. S. did many years since depart this life, intestate, leaving M. S., his wife, and your oratrixes and their sister E. F., his four daughters and only children and coheiresses him surviving; and upon his death the said messuages, etc., and premises descended upon and came to your oratrixes and the said E. F., as such coheiresses, subject only to the dower of their said mother M. S. And your orators and oratrixes further show unto your honors that the said M. S., the widow and relief of the said W. S., departed this life some time in or about the month of ———, whereupon your orators and oratrixes T. K. and C., his wife, and L. G., and M.,

his wife, in right of your oratrixes C. and M., and also your oratrix J. V. and the said R. F. and E., his wife, in right of the said E., have ever since been, and now are, severally seized in fee of and in the said messuages, etc., and premises in four equal undivided parts or shares as tenants in coparcenary. And your orators and oratrixes further show that they have frequently applied unto and requested the said R. F. and E., his wife, to join and concur with your orators and oratrixes in making a fair, just and equal partition of the said premises between them, in order that their respective shares and proportions thereof may be allotted, held and enjoyed in severalty. And your orators and oratrixes well hoped that the said R. F. and E., his wife, would have complied with such their reasonable requests, as in justice and equity they ought to have done. But now so it is, etc., etc., they the said defendants absolutely refuse to comply with such your orators' and oratrixes' reasonable requests as aforesaid, pretending that your orators and oratrixes and the said defendants have ever since the death of the said W. S. and M. S. respectively, their said father and mother, deceased, constantly and regularly divided the yearly rents and profits of all the said messuages, etc., and premises equally between them, and that it will not be to the benefit or advantage of either of them to make an actual partition thereof. Whereas your orators and oratrixes charge, and so the truth is, that a fair, just and equal partition of the said premises will tend greatly to the benefit and advantage of your orators and oratrixes and the said defendants, but they the said defendants, under divers frivolous pretenses, absolutely refuse to join or concur with your orators and oratrixes therein. All which actings, etc.

And that a commission of partition may be issued out of and under the seal of this honorable court, and directed to certain commissioners therein named, to divide and allot the said messuages, etc., and premises in equal fourth parts or shares; and that one full and equal fourth part or share may be allotted and conveyed unto your orator and oratrix, T. K. and C., his wife, and the heirs and assigns of your oratrix C. K.; that one other full and equal fourth part or share may be allotted and conveyed unto your orator and oratrix, L. G. and M., his wife, and the heirs and assigns of your oratrix M. G.; and that one other full and equal fourth part or share may be allotted and conveyed unto your oratrix J. V., her heirs and assigns; and that your orators and oratrices T. K. and C., his wife, L. G. and M., his wife, and J. V., may severally hold and enjoy their respective allotments of the said premises according to the natures thereof in severalty; and that all proper and necessary conveyances and assurances may be executed for carrying such partition into effect, etc. May it please, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2059, 2060.

B. Decree for Partition and Commission To Issue.

The court doth order that a commission issue, directed to certain commissioners to be therein named, to divide the estate in question into moieties: And that one moiety thereof be allotted as the share of the plaintiffs, and the other moiety thereof as the share of the defendants; and that the plaintiffs and defendants hold and enjoy their respective moieties in severalty, according to such allotments; and that they execute mutual conveyances to each other of such respective moieties, according to their respective interests therein, such conveyances to be settled by the said master (or the court, or judge). (If no infants or married women interested, add: in case the parties differ about the same); and it is further ordered that all deeds and writings relating to the said estate, in the custody or power of any of the parties, be produced before the commissioners upon oath, as they shall require: And it is further ordered that the commissioners be at liberty to examine witnesses upon oath, and take the depositions in writing, and return the same with the commission. Liberty to plead. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2058.

X. Under Codes.

A. Complaint for Partition, General Form.

I. That the plaintiff, and the defendants Y. and Z., own and possess, as joint tenants (or as tenants in common) the following described premises (particular description of the premises); and that the plaintiff is desirous of a partition of the same.

II. That the plaintiff has an estate of inheritance therein of one undivided fourth interest in the fee thereof (or other estate).

That he subsequently married, and had children, some of whom are now living; but their names and places of residence are wholly unknown to the plaintiff, and, although he has made diligent inquiries for that purpose, he cannot ascertain the same, or either of them. That said W. X. and his said wife are now dead; and that said children and heirs, or the heirs at law of any who may be dead, are collectively entitled to the undivided fourth part of said premises to which said W. X. would be entitled if living.

(Where an infant is a party.) V. That the plaintiff owns no other land in this state in common with the said (cotenants).

(Where the lands are subject to dower.) VI. That the defendant (doweress) is the widow of M. N., the father of the said (cotenants), from whom they inherited said premises; and, as such widow, claims a right of dower which has not been admeasured in (the following described part of) said premises.

(Where they are subject to a judgment.) VII. That the defendant (judgment creditor) holds a judgment recovered by him (or by one M. N., and thereafter duly assigned to him), duly given in the ——— court (or, in an action before O. P., justice of the peace in and for the town of ———), on or about the ——— day of ———, 18—, against (one or more of the cotenants), for the sum of ——— dollars; which judgment was, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, docketed in said county of (the place where the premises are situated), and remains unpaid and unsatisfied of record.

(Where they are subject to a mortgage.) VIII. That the defendant (mortgagee) holds a mortgage upon the said interest of (one of the co-tenants) for _____ dollars, payable on the _____ day of _____, 18—, with interest from the _____ day of _____, 18—.

(Wherefore the plaintiff asks judgment for (an accounting, and) a partition and division of said premises according to the respective rights of said parties; or, if a partition cannot be had without material injury to those rights, then for a sale of said premises, and a division of the proceeds between the parties according to their rights, after payment of the costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 606.

B. Complaint for Partition, Setting Forth Sources of Title.

I. That on or about the _____ day of _____, 18—, C. B., being owner in fee of the real property hereinafter described, died intestate as to the same, which real property is described as follows (description).

II. That the said C. B. left W. B., his widow, one of the defendants, who is entitled to dower in said premises.

III. That subject to said dower the premises descended to the following named persons, the only heirs of the deceased:

1. The plaintiff A. B., who is a son of said C. B., deceased.

2. The defendant E. B., a daughter of the said C. B., deceased, and wife of one L. B., of _____ county, in the state of _____.

3. The defendants F. M. and G. M., minor children of one F. B., a daughter of said C. B., deceased. The said F. B. intermarried with the defendant H. M., and afterwards died intestate, leaving issue of said marriage F. M. and G. M., her only children and heirs, who reside in the county of _____, and for whom their father H. M., who resides in _____ county, has been duly appointed guardian by the probate court of said county. The said H. M. is tenant by the curtesy of the estate of said children.

4. G. B., son and only heir of one H. B., deceased. The said H. B. was a son of said D. B., deceased. The said G. B., after said estate was cast upon him by descent as aforesaid, conveyed his estate in said premises, by deed duly executed, to the defendant X., who resides in _____.

IV. The parties above named have now the following undivided estate in said premises:

1. The plaintiff, one undivided (fourth) in fee.

2. The defendant E. B., one undivided (fourth) in fee.

3. The defendants F. M. and G. M., each one undivided (eighth) in fee, subject to the curtesy of their father H. M.

4. The defendant X., one undivided (fourth) in fee.

(Allege specific incumbrances, and demand relief as in preceding form.) 1 Abb. Forms 608.

C. Affidavit To Move for Judgment, or for Preliminary Reference in Partition.

M. N., plaintiff's attorney herein, being duly sworn, says:

I. That this action is brought for a partition (or for a partition or sale) of real property situate in the town of _____, and county of _____, owned by the plaintiff and the defendants W. X. and Y. Z. as tenants in common, and in which the defendant U. V. has an estate of dower (or otherwise briefly indicate nature of property and ownership).

II. That a notice of the pendency of this action, a copy whereof is hereto annexed, was filed in the office of the clerk of the county of _____, more than twenty days since, and at or after the time of filing the complaint.

III. That all the defendants are of full age (except the defendant W. X.).

IV. That all the defendants have been duly personally served within this state with the summons (and complaint herein), more than twenty days since, as appears by the affidavit of O. P., annexed (except the defendant U. V., who was duly served by publication more than twenty days since, as appears by the affidavits of O. P. and Q. R. annexed).

V. That none of the defendants herein have appeared, except the defendants (naming those to whom notice of the motion has been given); and none of the defendants have answered or demurred, except the defendant W. X., who, by his guardian, has put in the usual general answer, not controverting any material allegation of the complaint.

(Where a sale is deemed necessary, add): VI. That (one of the several parcels) the land mentioned in the complaint, and of which partition is sought herein (to-wit, designating one, and which exceeds in value the share to which either of the parties hereto will be entitled), is so circumstanced that actual partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, as deponent (is advised and) believes, after due regard being had to the power of the court to decree compensation for equality of partition, and to the ability of the parties to pay reasonable compensation to produce such equality.

(Or, where several plaintiffs desire their shares set off in common, it may be alleged here.) 2 Abb. Forms 524.

D. Order That Actual Partition Be Made.

This action having been brought on for hearing upon the pleadings and proceedings and the report of R. F., the referee herein (and on the exceptions taken by W. X., and by S. T., a creditor having a specific lien upon the share of W. X.), by which report, dated the _____ day of _____, it appears (here may briefly recite the findings as to the rights of the parties, and the practicability of actual partition), and on reading and filing proof of due service of notice of this motion on all the defendants who have appeared, now, on motion of M. N. for the plaintiff, after hearing O. P. for the defendant W. X. (or no one appearing) in opposition,

It is ordered and adjudged (that said exceptions be disallowed and overruled, and that said report be, and the same hereby is, in all respects confirmed, and) that the rights and interests of the several parties to this action, in and to the (several parcels of) land described in the complaint in this action, are as stated and set forth in the said referee's report.*

And it is further ordered and adjudged that partition be made of the lands and premises mentioned and set forth in the complaint in this action, and hereinafter described, among the parties to this action, according to their respective rights and interests as the same were reported by the said referee, and have been thus ascertained by this court and established by this judgment.

And it is further ordered that G. H.,

I. J. and K. L., three reputable freeholders of the county of _____, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of making such partition; that the said commissioners, before proceeding to the execution of their duties as such, shall severally be sworn or affirmed before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, honestly and impartially to execute the trust reposed in them, and to make partition as directed by this court; and that such oaths or affirmations be filed with the clerk of this court (in the county of _____), at or before the coming in of the report of the said commissioners, hereinafter directed to be made; and that the said commissioners shall divide the said lands and premises into equal parts, quantity and quality relatively considered, and that they allot to the plaintiff one of the said equal _____ parts of the said premises, and to each of the defendants U. V., W. X. and Y. Z., one of the said equal _____ parts of the said premises; to be held and enjoyed by the said parties in severalty, according to their rights and interests therein so ascertained and determined as aforesaid (where several shares are to be set off in common, say: and that they allot to the plaintiffs A. B. and C. D. two of the said equal _____ parts of said premises, to be held and enjoyed by them as tenants in common without partition or apportionment as between said A. B. and C. D.), and that the said commissioners shall designate the part or portions so allotted to each of the said parties, and the boundaries thereof, by sufficient description and monuments.

And it is further ordered that the said commissioners make a full report to this court of their proceedings, specifying therein the manner in which they shall have obeyed this order, and describing the lands divided, and the parts or shares allotted to each party, with the quantity, courses and distances of each, and a description of the posts, stones or other monuments thereof, and the items of their charges in the premises. That the said commissioners, or such two of them as shall sign the report, do acknowledge the same, or cause it to be proven in the same manner that deeds are required to be acknowledged or proven, to entitle the same to be reported, before some officer authorized to take the proof or acknowledgment of deeds, and that such report be filed in the office of the clerk of this court (in the county of ———). That all the said commissioners do meet together in the performance of any of their duties under this order, but that the acts and decisions of a majority of such commissioners, when so met, shall be valid.

And it is further ordered that the said commissioners be authorized to employ a surveyor and to cause all necessary maps and surveys to be made. And all the parties in this action shall produce to and leave with the said commissioners for such time as the commissioners shall deem reasonable, all deeds, writings, surveys or maps relating to the said premises, or any part thereof.

And it is further ordered and adjudged that in case partition of such premises cannot be made with perfect equality between the said parties, according to their respective rights and interests therein, unless compensation be made by one or more of the said parties to the other of them, for equality of partition, that then and in that case the said commissioners, or such two of them as may make said partition, ascertain and report the proper compensation which ought to be made for equality of partition; and by which of the parties the same should be paid, and to which the same ought to be allowed. But the said commissioners shall not report compensation to be paid by an infant for equality of partition, unless it satisfactorily appears to them that he or they have sufficient personal estate to pay the same, and his or their shares of the costs and expenses of this action, and all other liens on his or their share of the premises, except in cases where, from the situation of the property and interests of the parties, it cannot be charged upon the share of an adult.

And it is further ordered that a commission issue out of this court, and under its seal, directed to said (naming commissioners), authorizing and directing them to make partition of said premises in the manner above directed.

The premises of which partition is hereby ordered are described as follows (description). 2 Abb. Forms 530.

XI. Guardians Ad Litem.

A. Petition for Appointment of Guardian in Partition.

To the (justices of the supreme court of judicature of the people of the state of New York):

A. B., of ———, respectfully represents that he intends to apply to this honorable court for a division and partition of certain premises, to-wit (here describe the premises, and state the rights of parties, etc., as in the petition for partition): according to the respective rights of the said parties interested therein; and for a sale of such premises, if it shall appear that a partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners; that O. P. is a minor, who should be a party to the proceedings on that application, and that at least ten days' notice has been served on the said O. P. (or "on ———, the general guardian of the said O. P.") of an intention to apply to this honorable court for an order therein mentioned, that the said court shall appoint a suitable and disinterested person to be a guardian for the said minor, for the special purpose of taking charge of the interests of the said minor in relation to the proceedings for a partition.

The said A. B. therefore prays that this honorable court may appoint a suitable and disinterested person to be a guardian for the said minor, for the special purpose of taking charge of the interests of the said minor, in relation to the proceedings for a partition of the premises herein above specified.

Dated, etc.

A. B.

E. F., attorney. Burr. App. 552, §1085.

B. Order for Appointment of Guardian in Partition.

In the matter of the application of A. B. for the appointment of a guardian for O. P., a minor, etc.

E. F., attorney.

On reading and filing the representation of the said A. B., showing that he intends to apply to this court for a division and partition of certain premises in the said representation specified; and that the said O. P. is a minor who should be a party to the proceedings thereon, and on filing the affidavit of the said A. B. whereby it is satisfactorily proved that due notice has been served on the said O. P. (or on ———, the general guardian of the said O. P., of an intention to apply in this court for the order therein mentioned. On motion of E. F., on behalf of the said A. B., it is ordered that I. J., a suitable and disinterested person, be, and he is hereby appointed to be guardian for the said O. P. for the special purpose of taking charge of the interests of the said O. P. in relation to the proceedings for a partition of the premises before mentioned; and that he, with _____, of, etc., and _____, of, etc., shall execute a bond in due form of law, in the penalty of _____ dollars, before he shall execute the duties of his said office, and the same shall be filed with the clerk of this court, at, etc. Burr. App. 545, §1077; 1 Humph. Prec. 68.

C. Bond of Guardian in Partition.

Know all men by these presents that we, I. J., of, etc. (names and residences of obligors), are held and firmly bound unto (the people of the state of New York, or as directed by law), in the sum of (such sum as the court may direct) to be paid to the said (people); to which payment well and truly, etc. (penal part in the usual form).

Whereas the above bounden I. J. has been appointed by an order of the supreme court of judicature of the said people), made the _____ day of _____, etc., on the application of A. B., to be guardian for O. P., a minor, for the special purpose of taking charge of the interests of the said O. P., in relation to the proceedings for a partition, in the said order mentioned:

Now therefore the condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden I. J. shall faithfully discharge the trust so committed to him and shall render a just and true account of his guardianship, in all courts and places, when thereunto required, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

(Signatures and seals of obligors.)

Sealed and delivered in presence of (witnesses).

I. Declarations.A. Declaration by Surviving Partner.

For that whereas the said defendant in the lifetime of one E. F. since deceased, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) was indebted to the said plaintiff and the said E. F. in the sum of £—— of lawful money of Great Britain, for the work and labor, care, and diligence, of the said plaintiff and E. F. by the said plaintiff and E. F. before that time done, performed, and bestowed for the said defendant, and at his special instance and request. (Any other debt, "as for goods sold," etc., is to be described in the same manner.) And being so indebted, he the said defendant in consideration thereof, afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F., to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, undertook, etc. (laying the promises to both the partners). The quantum meruit is as follows. "and whereas also afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F. since deceased, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff and E. F. at the like special instance and request of the said defendant, had before that time done, etc. (Here state the subject-matter of the debt, and the promise to have been made to both the partners.) And the said plaintiff avers, that he the said E. F. in his lifetime, therefore reasonably deserved to have, etc., whereof the said defendant afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F., to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, there had notice. (Here insert the account stated, with both the partners, and the promise to them; and if the transaction be for goods sold, etc., or on the money counts, such counts are to be framed as above. State the breach thus.) Nevertheless the said defendant not regarding his said promise and undertaking, but contriving and intending to deceive and defraud the said plaintiff and E. F. in the lifetime of the said E. F. and the said plaintiff, since the death of the said E. F. in this behalf, hath not as yet paid the said several sums of money, or any or either of them, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff and E. F. or either of them (although often requested so to do); but he to do this hath hitherto wholly refused, and still doth refuse to pay the same to the said plaintiff, to the damage of the said plaintiff of £—— and therefore he brings his suit," etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 91.

B. Count on Promise to Surviving Partner.

And whereas also the said defendant afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F. deceased, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiff and E. F. in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for the work, labor, care, and diligence, of the said plaintiff and E. F. by them before that time done, performed, and bestowed for the said defendant, and at his special instance and request; and also in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for divers goods, merchandise and chattels, by the said plaintiff and E. F. before that time sold and delivered to the said defendant, and at his like special instance and request; and also in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for money by the said plaintiff and the said E. F. before that time lent and advanced to, and paid, laid out, and expended for the said defendant, and at his like special instance and request; and also in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money for the money by the said defendant before that time had and re-received to and for the use of the said plaintiff and the said E. F. And the said defendant being so indebted, and the said several sums of money in this count mentioned, being and remaining wholly due, unpaid and unsatisfied, he the said defendant in consideration thereof afterwards, and after the death of the said E. F., to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him the said several sums of money in this count mentioned, when he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. (Add the account stated with the plaintiff of moneys due to him only, and in the breach refer only to the counts in which the promises are stated to have been made to the plaintiff above, and conclude as usual.) To the damage of the plaintiff of £——, and therefore he brings his suit, etc. 2 Chit. Pl. 92.

C. Declaration Against Surviving Partner.

For that whereas the said defendant and one E. F. in his lifetime, now deceased, and whom the said defendant hath survived, on, etc., at, etc., were indebted to the said plaintiff for the work and labor, care, and diligence, of the said plaintiff by the said plaintiff before that time done, performed and bestowed, for the said defendant and E. F. at their special instance and request; and being so indebted, they the said defendant, and E. F. in consideration thereof, afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F., to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid undertook, etc. Quantum meruit as follows: And whereas also afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F., to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the like special instance and request of the said defendant and E. F. had before that time done, performed, and bestowed other his work and labor for the said defendant and E. F. they the said defendant and E. F. undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him so much money as he therefore reasonably deserved to have of the said defendant and E. F.; and the said plaintiff avers, that he therefore reasonably deserved to have of the said defendant and E. F. the further sum of £——, whereof the said defendant and E. F. afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F. on the day, and year aforesaid, there had notice. Nevertheless the said defendant and E. F. in the lifetime of the said E. F. and the defendant, since the death of the said E. F. not regarding the said several promises so by them made as aforesaid, but contriving to deceive and defraud the said plaintiff, have not, nor hath either of them as yet paid the several sums of money, or any or either of them, or any part thereof to the said plaintiff (although often requested so to do). But to pay the same or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, the said defendant and E. F. in the lifetime of the said E. F. wholly refused, and the said defendant hath ever since the death of the said E. F. hitherto wholly refused, and still refuses so to do. 2 Chit. Pl. 93.

D. Count on Promise by Surviving Partner.

And whereas also the said defendant and E. F. afterwards, and in the lifetime of the said E. F. now deceased, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, were indebted to the said plaintiff in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for the work and labor, care, and diligence, of the said plaintiff, by the said plaintiff before that time done, performed, and bestowed, in and about the business of the said defendant and E. F. and for the said defendant and E. F. and at their special instance and request; and also in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for divers goods, wares, and merchandise, by the said plaintiff before that time sold and delivered to the said defendant and E. F. at their like special instance and request; and also in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for money by the said plaintiff before that time lent and advanced to, and paid out, laid out, and expended for the said defendant and E. F. and at their like special instance and request; and also in the further sum of £—— of like lawful money, for other money, by the said defendant and E. F. before that time had and received to and for the use of the said plaintiff, and being so indebted, and the said several sums of money in this count mentioned being and remaining wholly due and owing, unpaid and unsatisfied, he the said defendant in consideration thereof afterwards, and after the death of the said E. F. to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him the said sum of money in this count mentioned when he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. (Add an account stated, and breach.) 2 Chit. Pl. 94.

II. Complaints.

A. Commencement of Complaint by or for Partners.

(Name of court, etc., and title of cause, giving individual, not firm, names of plaintiffs and defendants.)

The plaintiffs A. B. and C. D., partners, doing business under the firm name of A. B. & Co., complain of W. X. and Y. Z., partners, doing business under the firm name of X. and Z., and allege. 1 Abb. Forms 151.

B. Commencement of Complaint by or Against Partners, Alleging Partnership.

The plaintiffs, complaining of the defendants, allege:

I. That at the times hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiffs (or, defendants) A. B. and C. D. were doing business as merchants or traders (or otherwise) at the city of _____, under the firm name of A. B. & Co. 1 Abb. Forms 152.

C. Complaint by Surviving Partner on a Cause of Action Which Accrued to His Firm.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned, this plaintiff and one C. D. were partners doing business under the firm name of A. B. & Co.

II. (Set forth the cause of action.)

III. That thereafter and before this action (or, on the _____ day of _____), said C. D. died, leaving this plaintiff the sole surviving partner of the firm. 1 Abb. Forms 152.

D. Complaint To Dissolve Partnership.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the plaintiff and the defendants (co-partners) formed a partnership for the purpose of (state business), under the following articles of partnership: (set out articles, or annex copy, and say, under articles of co-partnership, of which a copy is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked Exhibit A).

(Or, if the agreement was not in writing, state its effect briefly, e. g., under an agreement that the plaintiff should contribute the use of _____ dollar's capital, and that the plaintiff and the defendants (co-partners) should co-operate in the care and labors of the business, and that the plaintiff should receive one-half of the net profits, and upon a dissolution of the partnership, repayment of his capital, and that the defendants should receive each one-quarter of the net profits.)

II. That the plaintiff and defendants now own a valuable lease of premises No. _____, _____ street, in _____, and a large and valuable stock of goods; that they have also a large amount of debts due to them, and a valuable good will, which are of far greater value when taken together than if separated; and that no equitable divisions of the assets and good will of said partnership can be made without great loss to all parties, except by a sale thereof together, and a division of the proceeds thereof.

(Where the dissolution was by an assignment.) III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant (a partner) without the knowledge or assent of the plaintiff, by writing, assigned and transferred to the defendant (assignee), all his interest in said partnership, and all his right and title to any and all property belonging to said firm; whereby said partnership became dissolved.

(Or, where the dissolution is by exclusion of the plaintiff.) III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant (a partner) took exclusive possession of the partnership books and stock, and then and ever since prevented the plaintiff from having access to the same.

(Or where the dissolution is upon notice given by one of the partners.)

III. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant (or the plaintiff) pursuant to the provision of said agreement, gave to the (defendant or plaintiff) a written notice of his intention to dissolve said agreement, of which a copy is annexed as a part of this complaint, and marked Exhibit B.

(Or where the dissolution is on the ground of the insolvency or arrest of a partner.) III. That the defendant before this action became insolvent, and on or about the _____ day of _____,

18—, was arrested on the day of 18—, at the suit of one M. N., for a debt of — dollars, and in consequence of such arrest, has ever since been a prisoner at —; and that by reason of such insolvency (and arrest) the partnership has been greatly discredited, and has sustained loss by the absence of said defendant therefrom.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment, that the said partnership be adjudged dissolved, that a receiver of the property, rights, and good will of said partnership be appointed, with power to dispose of the same, and to collect all debts for the benefit of all parties entitled thereto, and that the proceeds thereof be divided, after payment of all just debts of said partnership and the costs of this action, between the parties hereto, according to their respective rights 1 Abb. Forms 611.

E. Complaint for Dissolution of Partnership on Account of Defendant's Misappropriation of Funds.

I. (As in preceding form.)

II. That said plaintiff and defendant entered upon, and have ever since continued to carry on the said copartnership business, under and in pursuance of said agreement, no other articles or instrument having ever been executed between them

III. That since the commencement of said partnership, the defendant has, from time to time, applied to his own use, from the receipts and profits of said business, large sums of money, greatly exceeding the proportion thereof to which he was entitled, and, in order to conceal the same, said defendant, who has always had the management of the copartnership books, has never balanced said books.

IV. That on or about the — day of —, 18—, the plaintiff discovered that the defendant was greatly indebted to said copartnership, by reason of his applying the copartnership moneys to his own use, as aforesaid; that the plaintiff then requested the defendant to pay all copartnership moneys that he received into the — bank, in which the copartnership was accustomed to keep its accounts, and to draw therefrom only such sums as such copartnership had occasion for; that said defendant wholly disregarded said request, and continued to apply the copartnership moneys received by him to his own use, without depositing the same in said bank, or any other bank, to the credit of the firm, and has also taken to his own use moneys received by the clerks of said firm, and has by such means greatly increased his debts to the copartnership, without affording to the plaintiff any adequate means of ascertaining the true state of his accounts.

V. That the defendant has received the sum of — dollars over and above his due proportion of the copartnership profits, and that he continues to collect the copartnership debts and appropriate the moneys to his own use.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That the said copartnership may be dissolved, and an account taken of all the said copartnership dealings and transactions from the commencement thereof, and of the moneys received and paid by the plaintiff and defendant respectively in relation thereto.

2. That the property of the firm, real and personal, be sold, and the copartnership debts and liabilities be paid off, and the surplus, if any, divided between the plaintiff and defendant, according to their respective interests.

3. That in the meantime the defendant may be enjoined from collecting or receiving, or in any manner interfering or intermeddling with, or disposing of the partnership debts or moneys, or other property or effects of said partnership.

4. That a receiver of the partnership moneys, property, and effects may be appointed, with the usual powers and duties.

5. And for such other and further relief as may be just, with the costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 613.

F. Complaint To Enjoin Late Partner from Continuing Business After Dissolution.

I. That on the — day of —, 18—, the plaintiff and defendant being (or about to become) partners, carrying on the business of — at —, they both executed under their hands and seals articles of copartnership for the regulation of their said business; by which, in consideration of the premises, and of the mutual agreement thereto, it was among other things provided, that in case of the dissolution of the partnership, neither of them should continue business in the building occupied by the firm, nor within one block thereof, for the space of _____ after such dissolution, without the consent of the other.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, said partnership was dissolved by mutual consent.

III. That the defendant is now, and within _____ after said dissolution, carrying on such business at No. _____, _____ street in said city, being within one block of the same premises occupied by the late firm, and declares his intention to persist in so doing. That he has put placards on the door announcing his establishment in said business there, and has attempted to advertise the same facts in the public papers; and is employing servants on the premises in the said business.

IV. That the plaintiff has not consented to these proceedings by the defendant, but has objected thereto, and requested him to desist therefrom, which he refuses to do.

V. That the plaintiff has not continued in business on the said premises, nor within one block thereof, but is endeavoring to establish himself in said business at No. _____ in _____ street; but is unable to do so by reason of the defendant's acts aforesaid, and the injury to the plaintiff by the acts complained of cannot be fully compensated in damages.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment that the defendant, his agents and servants be restrained by injunction from carrying on, or in any wise engaging in said business in the building known as No. _____ in _____ street, in the said city or within one block thereof, for the term of _____ from the _____ day of _____, 18____; and, also, from advertising or announcing in any manner his location in business there during such term, or putting or keeping up any signs or placards for that purpose; and that the plaintiff have his costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 550.

G. Complaint by Administrator of Deceased Partner Against Survivor.

I. As in II. D. substituting decedent's name for the words "the plaintiff."

II. That the said copartnership business was entered upon pursuant to said agreement, and continued to be carried on under and pursuant to the same up to the time of the death of the said (decedent), which occurred on the _____ day of _____, 18____, said (decedent) having advanced large sums of money towards the capital stock.

III. That at the time of the death of the said (decedent) there was on hand partnership assets to the amount or value of about _____ dollars, as follows: a large amount of personal property, consisting of (naming it), of the estimated value of _____ dollars; real estate, situated (describe it), of the estimated value of _____ dollars; together with book accounts, notes, and other demands of the estimated value of _____ dollars; and the debts and liabilities of said firm amounted to about _____ dollars.

(Allege appointment of executor or administrator.)

IV. That ever since the death of said (decedent), the said defendant has continued, individually, in the possession of the store and all said real and personal property, and to manage and carry on said business, and dispose of said stock, and to collect the debts and things in action, and to pay debts and liabilities of said firm out of the avails thereof; and he has so collected large sums, the amount of which the plaintiff does not know and cannot ascertain.

V. That said defendant has not paid over to said plaintiff, as administrator of the estate of said (decedent), any moneys or other proceeds of said copartnership since the death of said (decedent), (except _____ dollars); nor has he assigned, transferred, or delivered over to said plaintiff any of the assets, securities, or other property of said copartnership (except, etc., describing what has been delivered, if any).

VI. That within a few weeks last past, said defendant has become embarrassed in business, and has stopped payment, and is unable to give any security for the payment to the plaintiff, as the representative of said (decedent), of the value of the inter-out of said (decedent) in said copartnership.

VII. That the plaintiff has requested of said defendant a statement and account of said copartnership transactions, which the defendant refused to give; and that he has offered defendant to settle and wind up the affairs of said late copartnership in the manner specified in said agreement, which he has neglected to do.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands:

1. That an account may be taken of all the said copartnership dealings and transactions, from the time of the commencement thereof to the time of dissolution by the death of said (decedent), and an account of the moneys received and paid by the said partners respectively in regard thereto; that the defendant may account with the plaintiff for all his dealings with, and transactions in regard to the property, assets, and effects of, said firm since its dissolution by the death of said (decedent), and the property sold or disposed of by him, either as surviving partner or otherwise, and of the moneys collected and received and paid out by him on account thereof.

2. That the defendant may be adjudged to pay the plaintiff, as administrator as aforesaid, what, if anything, shall, upon the taking of the said accounts, appear to be due said plaintiff as administrator of said (decedent); the said plaintiff, administrator as aforesaid, being ready and willing, and hereby offering to pay the defendant what, if anything, shall appear to be due him on such accounting.

3. That a receiver be appointed, with the usual powers and duties, and under the usual directions; and that the defendant may be restrained by order of this court from disposing of, or in any manner interfering with, the property and effects of said firm, or from collecting or receiving the copartnership debts or other moneys coming to said firm.

4. For such other or further relief as may be just, with costs of this action. 1 Abb. Forms 614.

III. Answers.

A. Answer, Overdrawing Done by Plaintiff's Assent.

Denies each and every allegation set forth in the (third separate cause of action in) said complaint, relative to the alleged misconduct of defendant, and his alleged acts and doings in the management of the said partnership business, except the allegation of his drawing out from the funds of said copartnership more than his portion of the profits thereof, to-wit, the sum of ——— dollars, and investing the same in, etc., etc.; and as to such allegation, defendant alleges and states that it was done with the full knowledge of said plaintiff, and with his approbation and express assent. 2 Abb. Forms 168.

B. Answer, That Term of Partnership Is Not Expired.

Denies that the partnership between him and the plaintiff set forth in the complaint, was upon the terms, and according to the stipulations, agreements, and covenants alleged by plaintiff in his said complaint; but, on the contrary thereof, defendant alleges and states that said partnership was formed, and entered into, and carried on, under and in pursuance of a written agreement and articles of copartnership between him and said plaintiff; a copy of which is hereto annexed, and forms part of this answer, showing that the time for the continuance of said copartnership is yet unexpired, which agreement has never been altered or varied in writing or by parol; and that the copartnership formed and carried on in pursuance thereof, is the same set forth and alleged in said complaint. 2 Abb. Forms 168.

C. Answer, Denial of Partnership.

That the said (naming them) were not partners, as alleged.

Or, that the said A. B. was not a partner with the said (naming the others) as alleged. 2 Abb. Forms 38.

IV. Bills.

A. Bill for Dissolution and to Restrain Collecting Debts.

To, etc.

Humbly complaining sheweth unto your honors, the plaintiff P. C., of, etc., that in or about the month of ———, the plaintiff entered into an agreement with C. B., of, etc., and C. F., of, etc., the defendants herein-after named, to form a partnership with them in the business of auctioneers and appraisers, which agreement was reduced into writing, and signed by the plaintiff and the said defendants, and was of the following purport and effect, viz.: (stating the same) as in and by the said agreement, reference being thereto had, will appear. And the plaintiff further sheweth that the said copartnership business was entered upon, and hath ever since continued to be carried on by the plaintiff and the said defendants, in pursuance of and under the aforesaid agreement, no articles or other instrument having ever been prepared and executed between them. And the plaintiff further sheweth that having much reason to be dissatisfied with the conduct of the said C. B., and being desirous, therefore, to dissolve the said partnership, the plaintiff, on or about ———, caused a notice in writing, signed by the plaintiff, to be delivered to the said C. B. and C. F., as follows, viz.: "In conformity," etc., etc., as in and by such written notice, now in the custody or power of the said defendants, or one of them, when produced, will appear. And the plaintiff further sheweth that the said C. B. has from time to time, since the commencement of the said partnership, applied to his own use from the receipts and profits of the said business, very large sums of money, greatly exceeding the proportion thereof to which he was entitled, and in order to conceal the same, the said C. B., who has always had the management of the said copartnership books, has never once balanced the said books. And the plaintiff further sheweth that, having in the beginning of the year of ——— discovered that the said C. B. was greatly indebted to the said copartnership, by reason of his application of the partnership moneys to his own use, the plaintiff, in order to form some check upon the conduct of the said C. B., requested that he would pay all copartnership moneys which he received in to his bankers, and would draw for such sums as he had occasion for; but the said C. B. has wholly disregarded such request, and has continued to apply the partnership moneys received by him, to his own use, without paying the same in to the bankers, and has also taken to his own use moneys received by the clerks, and has by such means greatly increased his debt to the partnership, without affording to the plaintiff and the said C. F. any adequate means of ascertaining the true state of his accounts. And the plaintiff further sheweth that he has, by himself and his agents, from time to time applied to the said C. B., and has requested him to come to a full and fair account in respect of the said copartnership transactions, with which just and reasonable requests the plaintiff well hoped that the said defendant would have complied, as in justice and equity he ought to have done.

But now so it is, etc., the said defendant C. B. absolutely refuses so to do, and he at times pretends that he has not received and applied to his own use more than his due proportion of the partnership profits; whereas the plaintiff charges the contrary thereof to be truth, and so it would appear if the said C. B. would set forth a full and true account of all and every his receipts and payments in respect of the said partnership transactions, and of the gains and profits which have been made in each year since the commencement of the said partnership. And the plaintiff charges that the said C. B. has in fact received the sum of $——— and upwards beyond his own proportion of the partnership profits, and that he is nevertheless proceeding to collect in the partnership debts and moneys, whereby the balance due from him will be increased to the great loss and injury of the plaintiff and the said C. F. And the plaintiff charges that the said C. B. ought therefore to be restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from collecting and receiving any of the said partnership debts and moneys. And the plaintiff charges that the said C. F. refuses to join the plaintiff in this suit. All which actings, etc.

And that the said defendants may answer the premises; and that the said copartnership may be declared void, and that an account may be taken of all and every the said partnership's dealings and transactions from the time of the commencement thereof, and also an account of the moneys received and paid by the plaintiff and the said defendants respectively in regard thereto; and that the said defendants may be decreed to pay to the plaintiff what, if anything, shall upon the taking of the said accounts, appear to be due him, the plaintiff being ready and willing, and hereby offering to pay to the defendants or either of them what, if anything, shall upon the taking of the said accounts, appear to be due to known or either of them from the plaintiff, and that in the meantime the said defendant C. B. may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from collecting or receiving the partnership debts or other moneys. (And for further relief, etc.) May it please, etc.

Pray subpoena against C. F. and subpoena and injunction against C. B. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1908.

B. Prayer — Bill After Dissolution, for Accounting, Lien on Stock.

And that an account may be taken of all and every the debts and demands which were due from the plaintiffs and the said P. J. B. in their partnership firm of ———, or in respect thereof at the time of the executing the said indenture of the ——— day of ———, and which have not been paid and satisfied by the said P. J. B. on the said other defendants, and that the said several defendants may be declared answerable for the amount of what shall be found due on such account. And that it may also be declared that the plaintiffs have a lien to the amount of what shall be found due on such account upon the partnership stock, premises, debts, and effects, which were assigned by the plaintiffs to the said P. J. B. in consideration of his engagement to exonerate the plaintiffs from the payment of such debts; and that, if necessary, the said partnership stock, premises, and effects may be sold and applied in satisfaction of such debts under the decree of this honorable court, and that all proper directions may be given in that behalf. And that the defendants may in the meantime be restrained, by the injunction of this honorable court, from selling, assigning, or disposing of the said partnership stock, premises, and effects, and that the said covenant in the said indenture of the ——— day of ———, whereby the plaintiffs are restrained from engaging in or carrying on any part or branch of making or manufacturing iron under any modification whatsoever, or any articles or utensils made of iron, within forty statute miles of ———, may be reformed according to the intent and agreement of the partners respecting the same as aforesaid. (And for further relief, etc.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1970.

C. Prayer in Bill for Accounting, Receiver and Injunction in Partnership.

1. That an account may be taken by and under the decree and direction of this honorable court, of all the said partnership dealings and transactions between the plaintiff and the defendant, and that what shall appear thereon to be due from the defendant may be decreed to be paid by him.

2. That a proper person may be appointed to receive, collect and get in all the outstanding debts and moneys due to or on account of the said partnership business or concern, and also to take possession of all the effects and property of or belonging to the said partnership.

3. That the defendant may be ordered to deliver up to such person all the effects and property of or belonging to the said partnership in his possession or power, and also all books of account, accounts, receipts, vouchers and papers of or belonging to the said partnership; and that the defendant may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from demanding, receiving, or obtaining possession of any debts, moneys, or property due or belonging to the said partnership; and also from in any manner intermeddling with the books, papers, bills or accounts of the said partnership; and that the said effects and property of or belonging to the said partnership may be sold and converted into money by and under the direction of this honorable court.

4. That out of the share of the defendant in the produce thereof, what shall be found due to the plaintiff in respect of the moneys of the partnership so improperly applied by the defendant as aforesaid, may be made good to the plaintiff.

5. That all such further directions as may be necessary may be given. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1970.

V. Decrees.

A. Decree for Account of Dealings and Transactions.

The court doth order and decree that it be referred, etc., to take an account of all partnership dealings and transactions between the plaintiff and the defendant (from the ——— day of ———); and that what, upon taking the said accounts, shall appear to be due from either of the said parties to the other of them, be (within one month from the date of the master's report) paid by the party from whom, to the party to whom, the same shall be certified to be due (or adjourn further consideration, etc.) Liberty to apply. 2 Lindley Partn. (Eng. ed. 1860) 828. See also ib. for the method of taking an account under such decree. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2242.

B. Decree Requiring Surviving Partner, Who Has Retained Capital Stock to Account for the Profits.

It was ordered that it be referred to, etc., to inquire whether the concerns of the firm, as they stood at the death of M., were in any manner and how kept separate and distinct from the concerns of the firm that was carried on after his death, and whether the concerns of the new firm were in any manner, and how and to what extent, aided or supplied from the concerns of the old firm; and it was declared that the shares of profits which, after the death of M., were paid by De T., the defendant, to the junior partners of the concern, were to be considered as in the nature of wages, and to be allowed to De T. in discharge of the account of the profits of the concern; and the master was to inquire what would be a reasonable compensation to De T. for his personal attention and credit, which was also to be allowed to him. Upon appeal this decree was affirmed, with liberty for the defendant De T., in the proceedings before the master, to submit to the judgment of the master any claims as just allowances which he may be advised ought justly to be made to him, by reason or on account of the management, transacting, and carrying on the business or concern, at any period or periods by them the said De T., M. De P., and F. G., or any of them, or by them the said M., De P., and F. G., or either of them, or any other person or persons: "and it is ordered, that the said master do state in his report the facts and reasons upon which he shall have adjudged any allowances to be just allowances, if on the behalf of the plaintiff he shall be requested so to do, and state the facts and reasons upon which he shall have adjudged any allowances prayed not to be just allowances, if he shall be requested on the behalf of the said defendant to make such statements." Affirmed on appeal to the House of Lords. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2246; Brown v. De Tastet, Jacob (Eng.) 284.

C. Decree for Dissolution of Partnership from Time of Notice.

This court doth "declare, that the partnership in the pleadings of their causes mentioned, called the _____ Co., is to be deemed dissolved as from the _____ day of _____, the date of the notice of dissolution given by Messrs. _____, as the solicitors and on behalf of the defendants F. and M., as in the pleadings mentioned (or as from the _____ day of _____, the date of the filing of the plaintiff's bill in this cause; and doth order and decree the same accordingly); and the court doth further declare, that the renewed leases of the freehold mines, lands, and premises, in such leases respectively comprised, granted by, etc., the respective lessors, to the defendants, dated respectively, etc., are, in equity, assets of the said partnership firm; and the court doth order and decree that it be referred, etc., to take and make the following account and inquiry, that is to say: 1. An account of the partnership dealings between, etc., all severally deceased, and the plaintiff and defendants respectively, since the grant by, etc., of the lease, dated, etc., and including in such account or dealings with the partnership assets, property, and estates, since the date of the dissolution; 2. An inquiry, of what the partnership estates, property, and effects now consist, and in what manner, and upon what terms and conditions the same may be sold most beneficially for all parties interested therein; and whether as a going concern, or as one finally wound up; and it is ordered that the said partnership estate, property, and effects be sold with the approbation of the master (or court, or judge) in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions as shall appear to be most beneficial for the parties interested therein." Receiver. Adjourn, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2242; 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 544, 545.

D. Decree, Infants Declared Entitled to Profits Against Survivor of Partnership, Also Executor.

This court doth declare that the plaintiff E. B., and the defendants, the defendants, are entitled to an account of the profits made since the death of the testator in the trade carried on in his lifetime by him and the defendant R. B., as partners, and which, since his death, has been carried on by the said defendant R. B. And the court doth order that it be referred to A. B., one of, etc., to take an account of the profits of such trade, and of the value of the stock and effects therein, and of what such stock and effects consisted; and that the said master do inquire whether it would be more for the benefit of the plaintiff E. B., and the defendant G. B., to take the testator's share of the said stock in trade, or to accept the sum of $—, with interest, as calculated by the report, dated, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2251; 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 556, 557.

E. Decease, House Where Business Was Carried on Declared Partnership Assets.

This court doth declare, that the leasehold house, etc., at, etc., in the plaintiff's bill mentioned, and comprised in the indenture of lease, dated, etc., and in the indenture of assignment, dated, etc., and wherein the partnership between the plaintiff and the defendant has been carried on, are assets of the said partnership; and it is ordered that the said leasehold property, together with the trade-fittings and fixtures thereon, be sold with the approbation of, etc., money to be paid into court; account of partnership dealings and transactions. Adjourn, etc. Liberty to apply in chambers for receiver. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2242; Raiker v. Pike, 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 543.

F. Decease Declaring Partnership Realty To Be Deemed Personalty.

This court doth declare, that the estates appearing by the master's report (or the said certificate) to have been purchased on account of the partnership, and out of the funds and effects thereof, did form, and are to be considered as part of, the capital and effects of the partnership, at the time of the decease of the testator, and that the testator's interest in the said estate, and such other real estates, if any, as formed part of the capital and effects of the partnership, at the time of his decease, are to be considered in equity personal estate of the testator. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2250; Phillips v. Phillips, 1 Myl. & K. (Eng.) 649; 1 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 555.

I. Declaration Against Proprietors of Stage Coach for Injuries from Overturning It.

For that whereas the said defendants, before and at the time of the making of their promise and undertaking hereinafter next mentioned, were the owners and proprietors of a certain stage coach or carriage, going and passing from a certain place, to-wit, from (London), to a certain other place, to-wit, to (Liverpool) for the carriage and conveyance thereby of passengers for certain reasonable hire and reward, to the said defendants in that behalf, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) and thereupon heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the special instance and request of the said defendants, would take and engage a place and seat in the said coach of the said defendants, to be carried and conveyed in and by the said coach from (London) aforesaid, to (Liverpool) aforesaid, at and for certain reasonable hire and reward, to-wit, the sum of £— to be therefore paid by the said plaintiff to the said defendants in that behalf, they the said defendants then and there undertook, and faithfully promised the said plaintiff, to carry and convey the said plaintiff in or by the said coach, from (London) aforesaid to (Liverpool) aforesaid and to use due care, and diligence in and about so carrying and conveying him as aforesaid. And the said plaintiff in fact saith, that he, confiding in the promise and undertaking, of the said defendants, did afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, take and engage a place and seat in the said coach, to be carried and conveyed in and by the said coach from (London) aforesaid; to (Liverpool) aforesaid, and did then and there pay to the said defendants the sum of £——, the same being a reasonable hire or reward to the said defendants for the carriage and conveyance of the said plaintiff, as aforesaid. And although the said plaintiff, confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said defendants, did afterwards, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, become and was such passenger in and by the said coach, to be carried and conveyed in and by the same from (London) aforesaid to (Liverpool) aforesaid, yet the said defendants not regarding their said promise and undertaking, so by them made in manner and form aforesaid, but contriving and fraudulently intending craftily and subtly to deceive, defraud, and injure the said plaintiff in this behalf, did not nor would use due and proper care, skill and diligence, in and about the carrying and conveying the said plaintiff, in and by the said coach from (London) aforesaid to (Liverpool) aforesaid, but then and there wholly neglected and refused so to do; and on the contrary thereof, so carelessly, improperly, negligently, and unskilfully, drove and managed the said coach, that afterwards, and whilst the said coach was proceeding from (London) aforesaid to (Liverpool) aforesaid, to-wit, on the day and year aforesaid, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid, by and through the mere carelessness, negligence, unskilfulness, and misconduct of the said defendants, the said coach was overturned, by means of which said several premises the right arm of the said plaintiff became and was fractured and broken, and he the said plaintiff, was then and there in other respects greatly hurt, bruised and wounded, and was sick, sore, lame, and disordered, and so remained and continued for a long space of time, to-wit, hitherto, during all which time he the said plaintiff suffered and underwent great pain, and was hindered and prevented from performing and transacting his necessary affairs and business, by him during that time to be performed and transacted and also thereby he the said plaintiff was forced and obliged to, and did necessarily pay, lay out, and expend a large sum of money, to-wit, the sum of £—— of lawful money of Great Britain, in and about endeavoring to be cured of the bruises, wounds, sickness, soreness, lameness, and disorder aforesaid, occasioned as aforesaid, to-wit, at (venue) aforesaid. 2 Chit. Pl. 362.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint Against Proprietor of Stage Coach for Loss of Baggage.

I. That on the —— day of ——, 18——, the defendant was a common carrier of passengers and their baggage.

II. That on that day he received into his —— the plaintiff with his baggage, to-wit (two trunks containing his wearing apparel and necessary money for his journey), to be carried from —— to ——, for hire.

III. That the defendant, not regarding his duty, did not use proper care therein, but, by the negligence and improper conduct of him and his servants, said trunks with their contents were wholly lost, to the damage of the plaintiff —— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 415.

B. Injuries.

1. Complaint Against Common Carrier of Passengers, by Steamboat, for Injuries.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned, the defendants (being common carriers of passengers for hire, between the places hereinafter mentioned) were the proprietors of a steamboat, named the ——, employed by them in carrying passengers and merchandise on the —— river, from —— to ——.

II. That on the —— day of ——, 18——, the defendants received the plaintiff and his wife and his minor child into said boat, for the purpose of conveying them therein as passengers from —— to ——, for hire (or, for a reasonable compensation) paid (or, agreed to be paid) to them by the plaintiff.

(Or, II. That on the —— day of ——, 18——, the plaintiff was lawfully, and by permission of the defendants, upon said boat, on the trip from _____ to _____.)

III. That the defendants so negligently and unskillfully conducted themselves in the management of said boat, that through the negligence and unskillfulness of themselves and their servants, the steam escaped from the boiler and engine, and burned and scalded the plaintiff, and his wife and child.

IV. That by reason thereof the plaintiff and his said wife and child became, and for a long time remained, ill; the plaintiff was deprived, and for a long time to come will be deprived, of the assistance and services of his wife and child, and was obliged to, and did expend about the sum of _____ dollars in attempting the cure of himself and his wife and child, and was, for a number of weeks, prevented from pursuing his business, and was otherwise injured, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 412.

2. Complaint Against Railroad for Injuries to Person.

I. That at the time hereinafter mentioned, the defendants, a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of this state, were the owners of a certain railroad, known as the _____ railroad, together with the track, cars, locomotives, and other appurtenances thereto belonging; and were common carriers of passengers thereupon for hire, between the places hereinafter mentioned.

II. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendants received the plaintiff into one of their passenger cars for the purpose of conveying him therein, and upon said railroad, as a passenger from _____ to _____, for the sum of _____ dollars (or, for reward paid, or agreed to be paid) to the defendants by the plaintiff.

(Where the accident was caused by a collision.)

III. That while he was such passenger at _____ (or, near the station at _____, or, between the towns of _____ and _____), a collision occurred on the said railroad, caused by the negligence of the defendants and their servants, by which said car was struck, and the plaintiff was much injured, being bruised and cut upon the head and face, and rendered insensible (or otherwise, according to the fact).

(Where the accident arose from defect in the car or track.)

III. That the car used by the defendants to convey the plaintiff (or, the track of the defendants' road between _____ and _____) was at the time defective and unsound, and unfit to be used for that purpose; which the defendants might and would then and theretofore have known by due care; but not regarding their duty, they negligently suffered it to be used, and while said car was proceeding with the plaintiff therein, from _____ to _____, it was by reason of said defect and unsoundness (and the negligence of the defendants and their servants) thrown from the track, and one of the legs of the plaintiff was fractured, and the plaintiff otherwise bruised and injured.

(Where the plaintiff was obliged to leap off to save himself.)

III. That the defendants and their servants, in managing their cars in which plaintiff was thus a passenger, were so careless and negligent that it was unsafe for him to remain in one of them; and that, in order to free himself from the danger, he was obliged to jump from the car, and in doing so was much injured (etc., as above).

IV. That by reason thereof, the plaintiff became for a long time ill; was obliged to, and actually did, expend about the sum of _____ dollars for surgical and other treatment and attendance in attempting to cure himself; was compelled to have his leg amputated, and has thereby become a cripple; and prevented for life from actively pursuing his business; and was otherwise injured, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 413.

3. Complaint Against Proprietor of Stage Coach for Injuries to Person.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, the defendant was a common carrier of passengers by stage coach from _____ to _____, for hire.

II. That on that day, at _____, he received the plaintiff upon his coach, to be carried thence to _____, for hire.

III. That not regarding his duty, he did not use due care therein, but, by the negligence and improper conduct of the defendant and his servants, the coach was overturned, and the plaintiff was bruised and wounded (or, the plaintiff was thrown off the coach, and thereby bruised and wounded), inasmuch that he became ill and lame, and was prevented for _____ months from attending to his business) and for a long time to come will be so prevented), and necessarily incurred expenses to the amount of _____, in getting to _____, and in endeavoring to be cured, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 414.

C. Complaint, Wrongfully Ejecting Passenger From Train.

“III. That on the afternoon of the 21st day of June, 1896, the plaintiff boarded the defendant's train at Charleston, S. C., for the purpose of taking passage to Columbia, having previously purchased a ticket from Charleston to Columbia, and the defendant having received its usual charge for said ticket and transportation between said places. IV. That when the said train had gotten only a few miles from Charleston, the defendant's agent in charge of the said train demanded of the plaintiff his fare, and refused to accept their aforesaid ticket, which the plaintiff tendered to him, and which he had purchased in good faith; but the plaintiff, well knowing that his ticket was perfectly good, and that defendant had received its usual charge therefor, declined to pay any more, and persisted in riding on his said ticket. V. That thereupon the defendant caused its train to be stopped between stations, and at a place with no shelter or convenience for passengers, and while it was then raining, and with intent to degrade, humiliate, mortify, and wound the plaintiff in his person and feelings, caused him to be forcibly ejected from the said train, violently, wilfully, and unlawfully, and without regard to the rights of the plaintiff, and with a design to injure and oppress him in the exercise of his lawful rights. VI. That after the plaintiff had been so unlawfully and violently ejected from the said train, he again entered it, and, under protest, paid on money the fare demanded of him by the conductor to Branchville. That thereafter, and after proceeding some distance, the defendant's agent, who had ejected him, approached the plaintiff, refunded him the money he had paid him to Branchville, and asked for his ticket, which he had before refused, which said ticket he then punched and returned to the plaintiff, and recognized the said ticket as good and valid for passage from Charleston as far as Branchville. VII. That after leaving Branchville, another conductor in the employment of the defendant, and who then had charge of the said train, or car, on which the plaintiff was traveling from Branchville to Columbia, accepted the aforesaid ticket as passage from Branchville to Columbia, it being the identical ticket that plaintiff had tendered before he was ejected from the train. VIII. That by the aforesaid wrongful and unlawful acts and violence of the defendant, and disregard of the plaintiff's rights, the plaintiff has been injured in his person and feelings to his damage $5,000.” Iseman v. So. Carolina, etc. R. Co., 52 S. C. 566, 30 S. E. 488.

Supplemental Bill, Extension of Patent.

I. Bill To Restrain Infringement of Patent Right.

To the judges of the circuit court of the United States for the district of Massachusetts. In Equity.

E. H., Jr., of B., in the state of New York, and a citizen of the state of New York, brings this bill against C. W., of B., in the state of Massachusetts and a citizen of the state of Massachusetts:

And thereupon your orator complains and says that he, being the original and first inventor of a new and useful improvement in sewing machines, fully described in the letters patent issued to him therefor, as hereinafter stated, and not known or used by others before his invention thereof, and not at the time of his application for letters patent therefor, in public use or on sale with his consent or allowance as the inventor; and being a citizen of the United States and having made due application, and having fully and in all respects complied with all the requisitions of the law in that behalf, did obtain letters patent therefor, issued in due form of law to him in the name of the United States and under the seal of the patent office of the United States, and signed by N. P. T., acting secretary of state, and countersigned by H. H. S., acting commissioner of patents, bearing date the tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty-six, whereby was granted and secured, according to law, to your orator, his heirs, administrators or assigns, for the term of fourteen years from said date, the full and exclusive right and liberty of making, constructing, using, and vending to others to be used, the said improvement in sewing machines therein specified and claimed, as in and by said letters patent, or a certified copy thereof, here in court to be produced, will more fully appear.

And your orator further shows unto your honors, that certain assignments of certain rights in said patent have been made and duly recorded in the patent office of the United States, whereby your orator, prior to the infringements herein complained of, became and now is the sole owner of said patent; as in and by said assignments or certified copies thereof here in court to be produced will more fully appear.

And your orator further shows unto your honors, that the said improvement in sewing machines, patented to him as aforesaid, has hitherto been in the exclusive possession of your orator or his grantees; and has hitherto been and still is of great value and profit to your orator; and that a license fee or patent rent, under his said patent, has hitherto been and still is paid to your orator for the largest portion of all the sewing machines manufactured and sold in the United States; yet the said defendant, well knowing the premises, but contriving how to injure your orator, and without his consent or allowance, and without right, and in violation of said letters patent, and your orator's exclusive rights secured to him aforesaid, has made, used, or vended, and still does make, use, or vend to others to be used in said district and in other parts of the United States, a large number of sewing machines, but how many your orator cannot state, but prays that the defendant may discover and set forth each, embracing substantially the improvement in sewing machines, or a material part thereof, patented to your orator as aforesaid, and thereby the said defendant has infringed, and still does infringe, and cause your orator to fear that in the future he will infringe upon the exclusive rights and privileges intended to be secured to your orator in and by his said letters patent.

And your orator further shows unto your honors, that heretofore the validity of his said patent has been uniformly affirmed after severe and repeated contestation, namely, by a verdict and judgment thereon at law, in 1852, and by six final decrees in equity in the circuit court of the United States for the district of Massachusetts, and by one final decree in equity in the circuit court of the United States for the southern district of New York, all obtained in favor of said patent prior to August, 1854.

And your orator further shows unto your honors, that the sewing machines made and sold by the defendant, as herein complained of, are, in their essential parts and character, substantially like the sewing machines against which injunctions were obtained in the suits aforesaid, by your orator, or by your orator and his co-owner of said patent.

And your orator has requested the said defendants to desist from making, using, or vending to others to be used, the said sewing machines, embracing the said improvement patented to your orator, and to account with and pay over to your orator the profits made by said defendant by reason of the unlawful making, using, or vending of said sewing machines embracing said patented improvement of your orator. But now, so it is, may it please your honors, that said defendant has combined and confederated with other persons, to your orator unknown, but whom, when discovered, your orator prays leave to make defendants hereto to resist and destroy the exclusive rights and privileges secured to your orator as aforesaid, and to make, use, and vend said improvement in sewing machines patented to your orator as aforesaid, without the license of your orator and in violation of his just rights in the premises, all of which is contrary to equity and good conscience. To the end, therefore, that the said defendant may, if he can, show why your orator should not have the relief herein prayed, and may, under oath, and according to his best and utmost knowledge, remembrance, information, or belief, full, true, direct, and perfect answer make to all and singular the premises, and more especially may answer, discover, and set forth, whether during any and what period of time, and where, he has made, used, and vended to others to be used for any and what consideration, any and how many, sewing machines, and whether or not the same embrace the said improvement in sewing machines, or any substantial part thereof, patented to your orator as aforesaid, or how the same differed from your orator's said patent, if at all.

And that the said defendant may answer the premises, and may be decreed to account for and pay over to your orator all gains and profits realized from his unlawful making, using, or vending of sewing machines, embracing said improvement patented to and vested in your orator as aforesaid, and may be restrained by an injunction to be issued out of this honorable court, or by one of your honors, according to law in such case provided from making, using, or vending any sewing machines embracing said improvement, or any substantial part thereof, patented to your orator as aforesaid, and that the infringing machines, now in the possession or under the control of the defendant, may be delivered up to your orator or be destroyed; and for such further and other relief in the premises as the nature of the case may require, and to your honors may seem meet.

May it please your honors to grant unto your orator, not only a writ or writs of injunction, conformable to the prayer of this bill, but also a writ or writs of subpoena to be directed to the said C. W. and confederates, when discovered, commanding him and them, at a certain time, and under a certain penalty, therein to be limited, personally to be and appear before your honors in this honorable court, then and there to answer unto this bill of complaint, and to do and receive what to your honors shall seem meet in the premises.

II. Declaration for Damages for Infringement of Patent.

"John B. Emerson, a citizen of the state of New York, by Peter Clark, his attorney, complains of Peter Hogg and Cornelius Delamater, citizens of the same State, defendants, in custody, etc., of a plea of trespass on the case.

"For that, whereas, the said plaintiff was the original inventor of a certain new and useful improvement, in the letters patent hereinafter mentioned and described, the same being a certain improvement in the steam engine, and in the mode of propelling therewith either vessels on the water or carriages on the land, which was not known or used before his said invention, and which was not, at the time of his application for a patent, as hereinafter mentioned, in public use with his consent or allowance. And the said plaintiff being so as aforesaid the inventor thereof, and being also a citizen of the United States, on the eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, upon due application therefor, did obtain certain letters patent therefor, in due form of law, under the seal of the United States, signed by Andrew Jackson, then President, and countersigned by Louis McLean, then Secretary of State, bearing date the day and year aforesaid, whereby there was secured to him, the said plaintiff, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for the term of fourteen years from and after the date of the said patent, the exclusive right and liberty of making, using, and vending to others to be used, the said improvement, as by the said letters patent in court to be produced will fully appear. And the said plaintiff further says, that the said defendants, well knowing the said several premises, but contriving, and wrongfully and injuriously intending to injure the plaintiff, and deprive him of the profits, benefits, and advantages which he might, and otherwise would, have derived and acquired from the making, using, and vending of the said invention or improvement, after the making and issuing of the said letters patent, and within the term of fourteen years in said letters patent mentioned, to-wit, on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty, and on divers other days and times between that time and the commencement of this suit, at the city of New York and within the southern district of New York, wrongfully and unjustly, without the leave or license, and against the will, of the plaintiff, made and sold divers, to-wit, ten machines for propelling boats, in imitation of the said invention and improvement, or a part of the said invention or improvement, to the benefit, use, and enjoyment whereof the said plaintiff was and is entitled as aforesaid, in violation and infringement of the said letters patent, and of the exclusive right and privilege to which the plaintiff was and is entitled as aforesaid, and contrary to the form of the statutes of the United States in such case made and provided.

"And the said plaintiff further says, that the said defendant, well knowing the said several premises, but further contriving and intending as aforesaid, after the obtaining of the said letters patent by the said plaintiff as aforesaid, and within the said term of fourteen years, to-wit, on the said first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty, and at divers other times between that day and the commencement of this suit, within the southern district of New York aforesaid, wrongfully and unjustly, without the leave or license, and against the will, of the plaintiff, did make and sell divers, to-wit, ten improved machines for propelling boats or vessels upon the water, constructed in a similar form and acting upon the same principle as the said machine or improvement, to the benefit, use, and enjoyment whereof the said plaintiff was and is entitled by his said letters patent, as aforesaid, in violation and infringement of the exclusive right so secured to the said plaintiff by the said letters patent as aforesaid, and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided.

"And the said plaintiff further says, that the said defendant, well knowing the said several premises, but contriving and intending as aforesaid, after the obtaining of the said letters patent by the said plaintiff as aforesaid, and within the said term of fourteen years, to-wit, on the said first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty, and at divers other times between that day and the commencement of this suit, in the southern district of New York aforesaid, wrongfully and unjustly, and without the consent or allowance, and against the will, of the plaintiff, did imitate in part and make a certain addition to the said invention or improvement, to the benefit, use, and enjoyment whereof the plaintiff was and is entitled as aforesaid, in breach of the said letters patent, and in violation and infringement of the exclusive right and privilege so secured to the said plaintiff as aforesaid, and contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided.

"By means of the committing of which said several grievances by the said defendants as aforesaid, the said plaintiff is greatly injured, and has lost and been deprived of divers great gains and profits which he might and otherwise would have derived from the said invention and improvement in the said letters patent described and set forth, and in respect whereof he was and is entitled to such privilege as aforesaid, and was and is otherwise damnnified to the damage of the said plaintiff of ten thousand dollars, and therefore," etc. Hogg v. Emerson, 6 How. (U. S.) 427, 12 L. ed. 505.

III. Order, Motion To Stand Over, With Leave To Bring Action and Direction for Inspection; Defendant Keeping an Account.

Defendants undertaking to keep an account of all mohair cloths, and other textile fabrics, finished by or for them, or any or either of them, in the manner in the plaintiffs' bill complained of, it is ordered that this motion stand over, with liberty to the plaintiffs to bring such action at law, in, etc., against the defendants, as they may be advised; and it is ordered, that the defendants permit and suffer the plaintiffs, with such two viewers as the plaintiff shall think proper, to go over all or any of the manufactories of the said defendants, or of any or either of them, and inspect the machinery set up there for finishing mohair cloth, or other textile fabrics, and to observe the method or methods of finishing such mohair cloth, or other textile fabrics, by the said defendants, or any or either of them, for which purpose the said defendants are to put their machinery to work in the presence of the said plaintiffs and such viewers, and to afford every facility to them to ascertain the process of finishing cloth by means of such machinery and every part thereof, it being the object and intention of this court to enable the plaintiffs to give such evidence to the court and jury, on the trial of such action, as will enable them to make out, if the fact be so, the infringement complained of by their said bill. Liberty to apply. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2317; Beardsell v. Schwann (1857), 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 910.

IV. Decrees.

A. Decree Staying Infringement of Patent, After Verdict Establishing Patent.

The court doth order, that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendants D., etc., their agents, servants, and workmen, during the continuance of the letters-patent in the plaintiffs' bill mentioned, and whilst the same may be in force, from using or employing, without the leave or license of the plaintiffs, in or for the purpose of the folding of the flaps of envelopes in succession one after the other, or for the gumming or cementing together the edges of such flaps and causing such edges to adhere together whilst in course of being folded, any machines similar to the machine which was produced for inspection at their factory on the ——— day of ———, as in the plaintiffs' bill stated, or any machinery, mechanism, or mechanical contrivance made or arranged, according to the plaintiffs' said patent inventions, or differing therefrom only colorably or by the substitution of mere mechanical equivalents for the same, and from folding the flaps of envelopes in succession one after the other, and gumming or cementing the edges of such flaps and causing the same to adhere together whilst such flaps are in course of folding by means of any such machine, machinery, mechanism, or mechanical contrivances, and from selling or offering for sale any envelopes which have been heretofore manufactured by the said defendants, their agents, servants, or workmen, and in the manufacture whereof any such machine, machinery, or mechanical contrivances hath, or have, been used or employed for the purpose of folding the flaps of such envelopes in succession, or for gumming or cementing, or causing the same to adhere together whilst such flaps have been in course of being folded, and generally from making, using, exercising, putting in practice, or vending plaintiffs' patent inventions, or any or either of them, without their license or authority, and from or in any wise counterfeiting, imitating, or resembling the same; until, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2317; De la Rue v. Dickinson (1857), 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 911.

B. Decree Staying Infringement of Patent as to Machinery.

This court doth order, that an injunction be awarded to restrain defendants W.; etc., their servants, agents, and workmen, during the continuance of the letters-patent firstly and secondly in the plaintiff's bill stated and set forth, and whilst the same may be in force, from manufacturing, selling, using, offering or exposing for sale, or making any other profitable use or disposition of any wool-combing machines, or parts of wool-combing machines, made, constructed, contrived or arranged so as to comb wool by machinery, apparatus, arrangements, operations, contrivances, means or appliances, similar to the machinery, apparatus, contrivances, arrangements, means or appliances, the subject of the plaintiff's inventions, or either of them, or differing therefrom colorably, or by mere mechanical equivalents, and generally from counterfeiting, imitating, or resembling plaintiff's inventions, or either of them, or any part thereof, or making any addition thereto or subtraction therefrom, and parting with the custody of any wool-combing machines, or parts of machines, whether finished or in progress, now in their or either of their possession, which have been so made, constructed, contrived, or arranged; until, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2316; Lister v.

Wood, (1868) 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 999.

C. Decree Staying Infringing Patent as to Books.

The court gave order that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendants, H., his agents, servants, and workmen, from making or vending any perforated bricks upon the principle of the inventions in the plaintiff's bill mentioned, belonging to the plaintiffs or either of them, during the remainder of the respective terms of the patents in the plaintiff's bill mentioned, and from counterfeiting, imitating, or assembling the same inventions, or either of them, or making any addition thereto or subtraction therefrom; until, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2316; Beart v. Hewitt, (1853) 2 Seton Dec. (Eng. ed. 1862) 909.

D. Decree, Declaration of Validity of Patent; Infringement Account; Perpetual Injunction.

This cause having been brought to a final hearing upon the pleadings and proofs, and counsel for the respective parties having been heard, and the same having been duly considered by the court; it is found and hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed (declared) that the letters-patent, No. 12,649, granted unto the said R. W., April 3, 1855, is a good and valid patent, being the patent referred to in the plaintiffs' bill, and that the said R. W. was the original and first inventor of the improvement described and claimed in the said patent; and also, that the said defendants have infringed upon the said patent, and upon the exclusive rights of the plaintiffs under the same.

And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the plaintiffs do recover of the defendants the profits, gains, and advantages which the said defendants, or any or either of them, have received or made, or which have arisen or accrued to them, or either of them, from said infringement of the said patents, by the manufacture, use, or sale of the improvements described and secured by the said letters-patent at any and at all times since the 17th day of November, 1856.

And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the said plaintiffs do recover of the defendants their costs and charges and disbursement in this suit, to be taxed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that it be referred to K. G. W., one of the masters of this court, residing in the city of N. Y., to ascertain, take, state, and report to the court, an account of the gains, profits, and advantages which the said defendants, or either of them, have received, or which have arisen or accrued to them, or either of them, from infringing the said exclusive rights of the said plaintiffs by the manufacture, use, and sale of the said improvements patented in said letters-patent, since the said 17th day of November, 1856.

And it is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the plaintiffs, on such accounting, have the right to cause an examination of said defendants, and each of them, ore tenus, or otherwise, and also the production of their books, vouchers, and documents of each of them, and that the said defendants attend for such purpose before said master, from time to time, as said master shall direct.

And it is also further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that a perpetual injunction be issued in this suit against the said defendants, according to the prayer of the bill. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2318.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays, that he may be admitted to prosecute his said suit in forma pauperis, and that Mr. _____ may be assigned his counsel, and Mr. _____ his solicitor.

And, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2157.

VII. Support.A. Declaration Against Town for Board of Pauper.

"And also for that whereas one Albion Dike, to-wit, on the fifth day of October, A. D. 1850, at said Unity, was a poor person, and was unable to support himself, and had no relatives in the line of father or grandfather, mother or grandmother, children or grandchildren, of sufficient ability to relieve him, and was then, and for a long time previous had been, a resident of said Unity; and whereas the said defendants were by law liable to furnish all necessary relief and maintenance to said Dike, and being so liable the said defendants, in consideration that the plaintiff would board and support the said Dike, then and there promised the plaintiff to pay him therefor at the rate of five dollars each week for the first two weeks, four dollars each week for the next two succeeding weeks, and three dollars each week for such remaining time during which he should furnish such board and support of the said Dike, until he, the said plaintiff and the said defendants should make a new bargain.

And the plaintiff avers that he did board and support the said Dike from the said fifth day of October, A. D. 1850, to the day of the date of this writ, being in all twenty-two weeks and four days, which, at the rates aforesaid, amounted in the whole to the further sum of seventy-three dollars and seventy-one cents, to-wit, at Unity aforesaid; which said last mentioned sum the said defendants became liable to pay the plaintiff, according to their said promise last aforesaid, but which they have never paid." Glidden v. Unity, 33 N. H. 571.

B. Complaint Against Town for Medical Services to Pauper.

"Alonzo G. Boynton and Dubois Hawley, partners as Boynton & Hawley, complain of the Board of Commissioners of Bartholomew county and say, the defendant is indebted to plaintiffs in the sum of thirty-eight dollars for medical services rendered to one Samuel P. Taggart, a pauper of Sand Creek township in said county, on the order of John Newson, Trustee of said township, a bill of particulars of which is filed herewith. Plaintiffs aver that during all the time of the rendition of said services said defendant had not contracted with physicians to attend upon the poor generally in said county, and had not contracted with a physician to attend upon the poor of said township. Plaintiffs demand judgment for $38.00." Board of Commissioners v. Boynton, 30 Ind. 359.

A. B., who sues as well for (the people of) the state of New York (or the poor of the [town of C., in the] said county of W.) as for himself in this behalf, plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea that the said defendant reside to the said people (or to the said poor of the [said town and] county aforesaid), and to the said plaintiff, who sues as aforesaid, the sum of _____ dollars of lawful money, etc., which he owes to, and unjustly detains from them: For that, etc. (here set forth the offense, referring to the statute as in I. B., and proceed thus): whereby, and by force of the said statute, the said defendant forfeited and became liable to pay for his said offense the sum of _____ dollars. By reason whereof, and by force of the said statute in such case made and provided, an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff who sues as aforesaid, to demand and have for the said (people) (or poor), and for himself in this behalf, of and from the said defendant, the said sum of _____ dollars, so by him forfeited as aforesaid, parcel of the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded.

And whereas also, etc. (add other counts if necessary).

Nevertheless the said defendant. (although often requested) hath not as yet paid the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said people (or poor), and the said plaintiff who sues as aforesaid, or to either of them; but to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said people (or poor), and the said plaintiff who sues as aforesaid, or to either of them, the said defendant hath hitherto wholly refused and still refuses so to do: To the damage of the said plaintiff, who sues as aforesaid, of _____ dollars, and therefore he brings his suit, etc.

E. F., plaintiff's attorney.

Burr. App. 289, §556c. See 7 Wentworth's Pl. 170 et seq.

B. Declaration by a Common Informer.

A. B., plaintiff in this suit, by E. F., his attorney, complains of C. D., defendant in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea that he render to the said plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars (the total of the sums claimed in the different counts), of lawful money, etc., which he owes to, and unjustly detains from him: For that whereas the said defendant, heretofore, and within _____ months next before the commencement of this suit, and between the _____ day of _____ and the first _____ in _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year last aforesaid, at _____, in the county aforesaid,* killed and destroyed one (heath hen) contrary to the provisions of the _____ section of the _____ title of the _____ chapter of _____, of the revised statutes of this state, entitled "Of the preservation of deer, and certain game and animals," whereby, and by force of the _____ section of the said statute, an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff (being the person who first prosecuted for the said offense), to demand and have of and from the said defendant the sum of _____ dollars, parcel of the said sum of _____ dollars, above demanded.

And whereas also the said defendant heretofore, and within, etc. (as in first count to the *, and then as follows): had in his possession one (heath hen) contrary to the provisions of the _____ section, etc. (as in the first count to the end, inserting the word "other" before "parcel").

And whereas also (third count for exposing to sale, if necessary, being the same as the first count, substituting the words "exposed to sale" instead of "killed and destroyed").

Nevertheless the said defendant (although often requested, etc.), hath not paid the said sum of _____ dollars, or any part thereof, etc. (conclusion in usual form). Burr. App. 289, §556b; Wentworth's Pl. 142.

C. Declaration for Penalty Given by Statute.

For that whereas the said defendant, heretofore, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year, etc., to-wit, in the city of _____, in the county of _____ aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of _____ dollars,* for so much money before that time had and received of the said plaintiff by the said defendant, contrary to the provisions of section _____ of article _____ of title _____ of chapter _____ part _____ of the revised statutes of this state, entitled (whatever the title is), whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiff* to demand and have of and from the said defendant the said sum of money above demanded, according to the provisions of the said statute. Nevertheless the said defendant (although often requested, etc.), has not yet paid the said sum of money above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, but to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiff, the said defendant has hitherto wholly refused, and still does refuse, to the damage of the said plaintiff of _____ dollars, and therefore he brings suit, etc. Burr. App. 288, §556.

D. Declaration in Debt for Violation of Excise Law.

A. B. and I. J., as overseers of the poor of the town of _____, in the county of _____, plaintiffs in this suit, by O. A., their attorney, complain of C. D., defendant in this suit, being in custody, etc., of a plea that the said defendant render unto the said plaintiffs, as such overseers as aforesaid, the sum of (the aggregate of penalties declared for) dollars, which he owes to and unjustly detains from them.

For that whereas the said defendant, heretofore, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand eight hundred and _____, at the _____ of _____, in the county of _____, was indebted to the said plaintiffs as such overseers as aforesaid, at the place aforesaid, in the sum of _____ dollars, parcel of the said sum above demanded; whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiffs as such overseers as aforesaid, at the place aforesaid, to demand and have of and from the said defendant, the said sum of _____ dollars, according to the provisions of the statute (relating to excise and to licensing retailers of intoxicating liquors), passed _____, 18—, and to the _____ section thereof, and to the title, part and chapter of the revised statutes in said section mentioned.

And whereas also the said defendant, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year, and at the place aforesaid, was indebted to the said plaintiffs, as such overseers as aforesaid, other _____ dollars, part and parcel of the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded; whereby an action hath accrued to the said plaintiffs as such overseers as aforesaid, at the place aforesaid, to demand and have of and from the said defendant the said sum of _____ dollars in this count mentioned, according to the provisions of said statutes in the first count mentioned. (Add counts for other penalties if necessary.)

Nevertheless the said defendant, although often requested, etc., has not yet paid the said sum of (the whole debt first mentioned) dollars above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiffs; but to pay the same, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiffs, the said defendant has hitherto refused, and still does refuse: To the damage of the said plaintiffs, as such overseers as aforesaid, of _____ dollars, and therefore they bring suit, etc.

A. Plea of Performance in Covenant.
And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by B. D. S., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, because he says that the said defendant did, etc. (here state the performance in the words of the covenant, if such covenant were in the affirmative, and conclude as follows): according to the form and effect of the said indenture, and of the said covenant of the said defendant by him in that behalf made as aforesaid, to-wit, at, etc. (the venue), aforesaid. And of this the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc.

B. D. S., defts. atty.,

Burr. App. 359, §652; 3 Chit. Pl. 1001.

B. Plea in Excuse for Non-performance in Covenant, Apprentice Left Service.

Because he says that the said T., after the making of the said indenture, and before the expiration of the second year of the said term of three years in the said indenture mentioned, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, wrongfully and without the license or consent of the said defendant, deserted from and left the service of the defendant, and did not at any time afterwards return thereto; and the said defendant further says that the said defendant did continually from and after the making of the said indenture until the said T. so deserted and left the service of the said defendant as aforesaid, find unto the said T. sufficient meat, drink and lodging, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, and did, during that time, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, in lieu of all other necessities, pay unto the said T. £—— for the first year of the said term, and during the residue of the said term was ready and willing to have found, and would have found, him the said T. sufficient meat, drink and lodging, and paid him the other sums of money by the said defendant stipulated to be paid to him, according to the form and effect of the said indenture, and the said covenant of the said defendant in that behalf, if he the said T. had not so deserted from and left, or had returned to the service of the said defendant. And this, etc. (conclude with a verification). 3 Chit. Pl. 1003.

C. Plea of Performance in Debt on Bond.

(Actio non, after craving oyer of the bond and condition, and setting out the latter.) Because he saith that he the said defendant did from time to time, and at all times after the making of the said writing obligatory, and the said condition thereof, well and truly observe, perform, fulfil and keep all and singular the articles, clauses, payments, conditions and agreements in the said condition of the said writing obligatory specified, comprised and mentioned, in all things therein contained on his part and behalf to be observed, performed, fulfilled and kept, according to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the said condition of the said writing obligatory. And this, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 985.

D. Plea in Excuse of Performance in Debt on Bond, Non-performance of Condition Precedent.

(Actio non, after craving oyer of the bond and condition, and setting out the latter, or, if the bond be conditioned for the performance of a covenant in an indenture, and the plaintiff has neglected to perform a condition precedent therein, then set forth the indenture, and the reference thereto, as in the precedent, and then state the plaintiff's non-performance, as follows): And the said defendant as to the said covenant in the said indenture contained, that he the said defendant would, during the continuance of the said demise, repair and keep in repair the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, being allowed timber in the rough, sufficient and proper for such repair, from time to time to be provided and set out by the said plaintiff, his heirs and assigns (this is to be according to the words of the particular covenant qualified by the condition precedent), the said defendant saith that at the time of the making of the said demise, the said premises were ruinous, prostrate and in great decay, for want of needful and necessary reparation and amendment thereof, and that after the making of the said indenture, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid, there was need and occasion for a large quantity, to-wit, _____ loads of timber in the rough, to repair the said demised premises, with the appurtenances; and the said defendant then and there requested the said plaintiff to allow him the said defendant timber in the rough sufficient and proper for the repair of the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and to provide and set out the same accordingly, yet the said plaintiff did not, nor would, when he was so requested, as aforesaid, or at any time before or since, allow to him the said defendant timber in the rough sufficient or proper for the repair of the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, or provide or set out the same, but then and there wholly neglected and refused, and hath thence hitherto wholly neglected and refused so to do, to-wit, at, etc. (venue) aforesaid; and the said defendant further saith that he the said defendant hath always, since the making the writing obligatory, well and truly observed, performed, fulfilled and kept all and singular other the covenants, articles, clauses, provisos, payments, conditions and agreements in the said indenture comprised and mentioned, which on the part and behalf of him the said defendant and his assigns were or ought to be observed, performed, fulfilled or kept according to the true intent and meaning of the said indenture. And this, etc. (conclude with a verification). 3 Chit. Pl. 989.

E. Plea in Excuse of Non-performance, Non-payment of Purchase Price.

(Actio non.) Because he says that the said defendant before the said _____ day of, etc., in the said agreement mentioned, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc. (venue), was ready and willing, and offered to the said plaintiff to produce a clear and perfect title in the law, of and in the said messuages and tenements, and to execute a proper conveyance thereof to the said plaintiff, to hold to him the said plaintiff, his heirs and assigns forever, upon his the said plaintiff's paying to the said defendant the full sum of £_____, as and for the purchase money thereof, whereof the said plaintiff then and there had notice; but that the said plaintiff then and there required the said defendant not ever to produce the same, or to execute the said conveyance to the said plaintiff, and the said plaintiff then and there forbid the said defendant then or ever so to do; and the said plaintiff then and there declared to the said defendant that he would not, nor did he ever, pay to the said defendant the said sum of £_____, etc., as for the said purchase money, and the said plaintiff then and there wholly declined and disavowed, and discharged the said defendant from the carrying of the said agreement in the said declaration mentioned into execution, for which reason and no other the said defendant did not, upon or before the said _____ day of, etc., produce, nor hath he at any time since hitherto produced a clear and perfect, or other, title in the law, of and in the said freehold messuages and tenements, and premises, or any part thereof, to him the said plaintiff, to hold the same to him the said plaintiff, his heirs and assigns forever, according to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the said agreement in that behalf, and this, etc. (conclude with a verification). 3 Chit. Pl. 989.

state the act of performance). 2 Abb. Forms 63.

B. Answer, Denial of Plaintiff's Performance.

That the plaintiff has not performed the conditions of said agreement on his part; but, on the contrary, has wholly omitted (here may state breach as to a complaint against him). 2 Abb. Forms 104.

C. Answer, Traverse of Plaintiff's General Allegation of Performance.

That the plaintiff has not duly performed all the conditions of said contract on his part, but, on the contrary (here may set forth particular breach as in complaints; and if the provision broken does not appear in the complaint, it may be stated thus, although said contract contained a provision, of which the following is a copy: copy of contract), the defendant did not, etc. 2 Abb. Forms 56.

D. Answer, Excuse for Non-performance.

That on the _____ day of _____, 18—, and before the time for the defendant to perform said contract on his part, the plaintiff gave notice in writing to the defendant that he had determined not to take (land); and the plaintiff abandoned the agreement, and ever since wholly failed to perform it. 2 Abb. Forms 107.

E. Answer, That Plaintiff Failed to Perform His Contract, Which Prevented Defendant's Performing.

I. That at the time of making said agreement the plaintiffs agreed, in writing, with this defendant, that in consideration that he would deliver to them, at their warehouse in _____, the said quantity of shelled corn, they the said plaintiffs would pay this defendant twenty cents a bushel therefor, and would furnish to this defendant a thresher to thresh said corn for one cent a bushel.

II. That the said plaintiffs failed and refused to furnish said thresher, though this defendant, on the _____ day of _____, 18—, requested them so to do; whereby this defendant was disabled from performing his said contract. 2 Abb. Forms 104.

I. Indictments.

A. Indictment for Perjury Upon a Trial at the Assizes.

Surrey, to-wit: The jurors for our lady the queen upon their oath present that heretofore, to-wit, at the (assizes holden for the county of Surrey, on the thirteenth day of March, in the eighth year of the reign of our sovereign lady Victoria, at Kingston upon Thames, in the said county, before Sir J. L., knight, one of the justices of our said lady the queen assigned to hold pleas in the court of our lady the queen before the queen herself, and Sir J. B. B., knight, one of the justices of our said lady the queen of the bench at Westminster, justices of our said lady the queen assigned to take the assizes in and for the said county of Surrey), a certain issue between one J. L. and one J. W., in a certain plea of trespass and assault, wherein the said J. L. was plaintiff, and the said J. W. defendant, came on to be tried in due form of law, and was then and there tried by a jury of the country in that behalf duly sworn and taken between the parties aforesaid; upon which said trial J. S., late of the parish of B., in the county of S., laborer, then and there appeared as a witness for and on behalf of the said J. W., the defendant in the plea aforesaid, and was then and there duly sworn and took his corporal oath upon the holy gospel of God, before the said Sir J. L., knight, and the said Sir J. B. B., knight, so being such justices as aforesaid, that the evidence which he the said J. S. should give to the court there, and to the said jury so sworn as aforesaid, touching the matter then in question between the said parties, should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (they the said Sir J. L., knight, and Sir J. B. B., knight, justices as aforesaid, then and there having sufficient and competent authority to administer the said oath to the said J. S. in that behalf). And the jurors first aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that, at and upon the trial of the said issue so joined between the said parties as aforesaid, it then and there became and was a material question whether the said J. W. assaulted and beat the said J. L. And the jurors first aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said J. S., being so sworn as aforesaid, not having the fear of God before his eyes, nor regarding the laws of this realm, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, and contriving and intending to pervert the due course of law and justice, and unjustly to aggrrieve the said J. L., the plaintiff in the said issue, and to deprive him of the benefit of his suit then in question, and to subject him to the payment of sundry heavy costs, charges and expenses, then and there, on the trial of the said issue, upon his oath aforesaid, falsely, corruptly, knowingly, wilfully and maliciously, before the said jurors so sworn as aforesaid, and before the said Sir J. L., knight, and Sir J. B. B., knight, justices as aforesaid, did depose and swear (amongst other things) in substance and to the effect following, that is to say, that (here set out the evidence, namely, the examination or cross-examination [upon whichever you mean to assign the perjury], together with the necessary innuendos). Whereas in truth and in fact (etc., etc., proceeding to assign the perjury; see I, C, and next form). And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, etc., etc.; see I, C, and next form). Archb. Cr. Pl. 573.

B. Indictment for Perjury at State Court.

"At the term of the county court began and held at Newport within and for the county of Orleans aforesaid, on the first Tuesday of February, A. D. 1887, a certain issue was joined in the aforesaid court in a certain action then and there pending in the said county court, which said action the said county court had full jurisdiction to try and determine, and wherein one Isaac Henry Pierson Rowell, in his individual capacity, and the said Isaac Henry Pierson Rowell as surviving partner of the late firm of J. & H. Rowell, which co-partnership consisted of the said Isaac Henry Pierson Rowell and one Joseph

Rowell, now deceased, was plaintiff, and the estate of one Warren Fuller, deceased, was defendant; and that afterwards, to-wit, at the term aforesaid of the county aforesaid, said issue came on to be tried in the due form of law by the jury of the country in that behalf duly impaneled and sworn to try such issue; and upon the trial of aforesaid issue, and, to-wit, on the 4th day of February, A. D. 1887, one John W. Smith, of Berlin, in the county of Washington and state of Vermont, did then and there appear and was produced as a witness, and was received to give evidence on behalf of the said Isaac Henry Pierson Rowell, plaintiff as aforesaid, in said cause; and the said John W. Smith in and before said court was then and there duly sworn by the clerk of the said court, and did then and there take his corporal oath that the evidence he the said John W. Smith would give to the court and jury sworn between the parties aforesaid, touching the matters in question in the said issue, should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, the said court, by the said clerk, then and there having full power and authority by law to administer an oath on such occasion; and then and there upon the trial of such issue it became and was a material question on the said issue whether he, the said Warren Fuller, in his lifetime, on, to-wit, the 5th day of June, A. D. 1884, or on any other day, had signed his the said Warren Fuller's name to and delivered or caused to be delivered unto the said Isaac Henry Pierson Rowell a certain writing or document in the words and figures following, to-wit: 'Montpelier, Vt., June 5th, 1884. I hereby acknowledge that my promissory note for the sum of ninety-seven dollars and seventy-four cents ($97.74), dated November 24, 1857, and payable to J. & H. Rowell or bearer, one day from date, and interest annually, is not paid, and promise to pay the same on demand. And I also acknowledge that the promissory notes taken by me from J. & H. Rowell for collection, and described in my receipt given for the same, and dated July 16th, A. D. 1857, have not been accounted for except as shown by endorsements on the back of said receipt; and promise to pay on demand the amount due from me on account of the said promissory notes, with an-anal interest. Warren Fuller.' And that thereupon the said John W. Smith, having been so sworn as aforesaid, did then and there feloniously, wilfully and corruptly testify and say in substance and effect, that he the said John W. Smith was in the hotel then called and known as the 'American House,' in the village of Montpellier, in the town of Montpellier aforesaid, in the county of Washington, on the day and date of the said writing or document hereinbefore named and described; and that, while he the said John W. Smith was in the said American House as aforesaid, said Warren Fuller came into the same room in said American House in which the said John W. Smith then was as aforesaid, and that, while the said Warren Fuller was in the said room in said American House as aforesaid, he the said John Smith saw said Warren Fuller sign his the said Warren Fuller's name to said writing or document hereinbefore named and described; whereas in truth and in fact the said John W. Smith did not see the said Warren Fuller in said American House on the day of the date of said writing or document hereinbefore named and described; nor did the said Warren Fuller sign his the said Warren Fuller's name to said writing or document hereinbefore named and described in said American House or elsewhere, on the day of the date of said writing or document hereinbefore named and described, or on any other date. And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say that the said John W. Smith, on the trial of the issue aforesaid, on the day and year aforesaid, before the said county court, falsely, maliciously, wilfully, knowingly and wickedly, in manner and form aforesaid, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury, contrary to the form, force and effect of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state." State v. Smith, 14 Cr. L. Mag. 74, 75.

C. Indictment for Perjury in an Affidavit to Hold to Bail.

London, to-wit: The jurors of our lady the queen upon their oath present that J. S., late of London, grocer, wickedly and maliciously contriving and intending unjustly to aggrieve one J. N., and to put him the said J. N. to great expense, and also unjustly and maliciously to cause him the said J. N. to be arrested for the sum of fifty pounds, by virtue of a certain writ of our lady the queen, called a capias, to be sued out and prosecuted at the suit of him the said J. S., on the third day of August, in the ninth year of the reign of our sovereign lady Victoria, at London aforesaid, at the parish of Saint Dunstan in the West, in the ward of Faringdon Without, came in his proper person before Sir J. P., knight, then being one of the justices of the court of our lady the queen before the queen herself, and then and there produced a certain affidavit in writing of him the said J. S., and then and there before the said Sir J. P., knight, in due form of law was sworn, and took his corporal oath upon the holy gospel of God concerning the truth of the matters contained in the said affidavit (he the said Sir J. P., knight, then and there having a lawful and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said J. S. in that behalf); and that the said J. S., being so sworn as aforesaid, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, then and there, upon his oath aforesaid, before the said Sir J. P., knight (the said Sir J. P., knight, then and there having a lawful and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said J. S. in that behalf), falsely, corruptly, knowingly, wilfully and maliciously, in and by his said affidavit in writing, did depose and swear (amongst other things) in substance and to the effect following, that is to say, that J. N. (meaning the said J. N. above mentioned) was then justly and truly indebted unto him the said J. S. in the sum of fifty pounds, for goods sold and delivered by the said J. S. to the said J. N., and at his (meaning the said J. N.'s) request; as in and by the said affidavit of the said J. S. affiled in the said court of our said lady the queen before the queen herself, more fully and at large appears: Whereas in truth and in fact the said J. N., at the time the said J. S. took his said oath and made his affidavit aforesaid, was not indebted to him the said J. S. in the sum of fifty pounds for goods sold and delivered by the said J. S. to the said J. N.; and whereas, in truth and in fact, the said J. N. was not then indebted to the said J. S. in a sum of fifty pounds on any account whatsoever; and whereas, in truth and in fact, the said J. N. was not then indebted to the said J. S. in any sum whatsoever, on any account whatsoever. And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say that the said J. S., on the third day of August, in the year last aforesaid, at London aforesaid, in the parish and ward aforesaid, before the said Sir J. P., knight (he the said Sir J. P., knight, then and there having such power and authority as aforesaid), by his own act and consent, and of his own most wicked and corrupt mind, in manner and form aforesaid, falsely, wickedly, wilfully and corruptly did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; to the great displeasure of Almighty God, in contempt of our lady the queen and her laws, to the evil and pernicious example of all others in the like case offending, and against the peace of our lady the queen, her crown and dignity. Archb. Cr. Pl. 566.

D. Indictment for Perjury in Affidavit for Continuance.

The grand jurors of the county of Knox, upon their oath, do present that one George W. Anderson, on the 20th day of January, 1885, at the county of Knox and state of Indiana, did then and there, for the purpose of obtaining a continuance to another day, of the trial of a certain civil action then and there pending before Edward McCrissoken, a justice of the peace of Vincennes township, Knox county, Indiana, wherein the state of Indiana, on the relation of Ella Walker, was plaintiff, and said George W. Anderson was defendant, did then and there feloniously and wilfully, corruptly and voluntarily, make a certain false affidavit, and did then and there subscribe his name to said affidavit, for the purpose of obtaining said continuance; and then and there feloniously, wilfully, corruptly and voluntarily took upon himself his corporal oath, and was then and there duly sworn that the contents of said affidavit were true in substance and in fact, which said oath was then and there administered to him by said Edward McCrissoken, justice of the peace as aforesaid, and who then and there had competent authority to administer oath in that behalf; that in said affidavit, made as aforesaid, for the purpose aforesaid, he the said George W. Anderson did then and there say, in behalf of himself, who was then and there defendant in said cause, then pending in said court, under oath: "Defendant says he is informed and believes, if he is granted the time under the law so to do, that he can prove by two men, at least, residing in La Porte, in La Porte county, in the state of Indiana, and they will testify that during her (Ella Walker's) stay there, in June and July, 1884, and since that time, they, each of said men, had sexual intercourse with her, and that during said time in La Porte she became pregnant, if at all, with a bastard child, and this defendant is not the father of said bastard child. Defendant says he cannot give the names of said men at this day nor time, because he has not been able to go to La Porte to ascertain their said names for this reason: that on the 8th day of January, 1885, he was arrested in this case, while just going out on his boat on a trip, and he did not return until the 17th day of January, 1885;" which said affidavit was then and there, to-wit, on the 20th day of January, 1885, subscribed by the said George W. Anderson, and sworn to by him before Edward McCrissoken, justice of the peace as aforesaid. (Whereas, etc.). State v. Anderson, 7 Cr. L. Mag. 507.

E. Indictment for Subornation of Perjury.

That heretofore, to-wit, at the session of oyer and terminer of our lord the king, holden at K. in the county of S., on, etc., before Sir R. E., knight, one of the justices of his majesty's court of king's bench, and Sir W. C., knight, then one of, etc., then justices of our said lord the king, assigned, etc. (set out commission of oyer and terminer), by the oath of H. V., esquire, etc. (the names of the grand jury), good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, then and there sworn and charged to inquire for our said lord the king, for the body of the county aforesaid, it was presented in manner and form following, to-wit (here set out the indictment). Wherefore the sheriff of the county aforesaid was commanded not to omit, for any liberty in his bailiwick, but to take the said C. D. to answer the premises, which said indictment the above named justices of our said lord the king, afterwards, to-wit, at the delivery of the gaol of our said lord the king, holden for the said county of _____, on the said, etc., before the aforesaid Sir R. E., knight, Sir W. C., knight, and others, their associates, then justices of our said lord the king assigned to deliver his said gaol of the prisoners therein, etc.; and afterwards at the same delivery of the said gaol of our said lord the king, and for the county aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, in the said county, on the said, etc., before the said justices of our said lord the king, and other their associates aforesaid, came the said C. D. in the custody of T. C., esquire, sheriff of the county aforesaid, in whose custody in the said gaol for the cause aforesaid, he had been before committed, being brought to the bar here in his proper person, who was committed to the said sheriff, and forthwith concerning the premises in the said indictment above specified and charged on him as above, being asked in what manner he would be tried, the said J. G. said he was not guilty thereof, and concerning which, for good and ill, he did put himself upon his country, upon which said issue such proceedings were had, that afterwards, to-wit, on the said delivery of the said gaol of our said lord the king, so held as aforesaid, a certain trial was held by a jury of the said county, taken between our said lord the king, and the said C. D., as by the record thereof doth more fully appear, upon which said trial evidence was given on behalf of our said lord the king, that the felony and robbery in the said indictment above specified was committed by the said C. D. about half an hour after six in the afternoon, on the fourth day of June, in the eighth year, etc. And the jurors, etc., now here sworn and charged to inquire for our said lord the king, for the body of the said county of _____ upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that A. B., late of, etc., being a person of wicked and evil mind and disposition, and devising and intending as much as in him lay to prevent the due course of law and justice, and to cause and procure the said C. D. to be entirely acquitted of the said felony and robbery charged on him, and by the said indictment to escape unpunished for the same, did, before the said trial, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., unlawfully and wickedly solicit, incite and endeavor to persuade one E. F. to appear as a witness on the said trial so as aforesaid had, for and on the behalf of the said C. D., and on the said trial falsely to depose, say and give in evidence upon his oath, to the jury of the county aforesaid, that the said C. D. carried a suit of clothes on the fourth day of June last (meaning the fourth day of June, in the eighth year, etc., the day on which the said felony and robbery in the said indictment above specified were proved as aforesaid to have been committed) to the said C. D. at his lodgings (meaning the lodgings of him the said C. D.), at the Queen's Head in the Ship Yard (meaning Ship Yard, in the county last aforesaid), between four and five (meaning, etc.) in the afternoon of the same day, and that he the said E. F. stayed there an hour, and that the said C. D. was then sick, and did not buy his clothes, whereas in truth and in fact the said E. F. did not go to the said C. D. on the fourth day of June, in the year last above mentioned, at any time in the same day, at the Queen's Head in the S. Yard, aforesaid, or at any other place whatsoever, on any account whatsoever, and whereas in truth and in fact, at the time when the said A. B. did so solicit, incite and endeavor to persuade the said E. F. to give such evidence upon his oath as aforesaid, he the said A. B. well knew that he the said E. F. would not give his evidence according to the truth, and that the same evidence so to be given was false, feigned and altogether fictitious, to the evil example, etc., and against the peace, etc.

2 Chit. Cr. L. 478.

F. Indictment for Attempt to Suborn Perjury.

Shropshire. The jurors for our lord the king upon their oath present that at the assizes, etc. (here state the caption of the assizes holden at Shrewsbury, and that there was an issue between A. B. and C. D.). And the jurors aforesaid, now here sworn, on their oath aforesaid, do further present that before the trial of the said issue, and during the time the same was depending, to-wit, on, etc., A. B., late of, etc., not having, etc., but being moved and seduced, etc., and wickedly contriving and intending, as much as in him lay, to prevent justice and pervert the due course of law, and mind-ing and intending unjustly to aggrieve the said C. D., the defendant above named, and wickedly to cause and procure the said C. D. to be convicted of the premises alleged against him in the said issue, and thereby to subject him to the payment of great sums of money for damages and costs, to be recovered against him in the suit then in question between him and the said A. B. as aforesaid, then and there, to-wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, at, etc., aforesaid, did unlawfully and wickedly solicit, instigate, and as much as in her lay, endeavor to persuade one E. F., spinster, to be and appear as a witness, on the part and behalf of the said A. B., the plaintiff aforesaid, at the trial of the said issue so as aforesaid joined, and upon the same trial, falsely to swear and give in evidence to and before the jurors of the said jury so sworn and taken between the said parties to try the said issue aforesaid, of and concerning the premises alleged by the said A. B. against him the said C. D. in the said issue, in substance and effect following, that is to say, that the face of the said A. B. was blue after the blow (meaning a supposed blow alleged in the declaration of the said A. B.), contained in the said issue to have been given and struck by the said C. D., the defendant aforesaid, in and upon him the said A. B., whereas in truth and in fact the face of the said A. B. was not blue, nor any ways changed in color by reason of any blow he had received from the said C. D., nor did he the said C. D. ever assault the said A. B., or give him the said A. B. any blow so as to cause the face of the said A. B. thereby to become blue or any ways changed in color; but in truth and in fact the said A. B., at the time she solicited, instigated, and endeavored to persuade the said E. F. to swear and give in evidence as aforesaid, had caused the face of him the said A. B. to be stained with ink, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid, and he the said A. B. did thereupon then and there tell the said E. F. that he the said E. F. might safely swear the face of the said A. B. was blue after the blow in contempt, etc., in manifest subversion of justice, to the evil and pernicious example of all others, and against the peace of our said lord the king, his crown and dignity. 2 Chit. Cr. L. 482.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors your orator, A. B., of, etc., that C. D., late of, etc., deceased, before and at the time of making his will hereinafter mentioned, was seized in fee of and in, divers freehold estates, which are hereinafter more fully mentioned and described; and the said C. D. being so seized as aforesaid, and being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, bearing date the _____ day of _____, signed by him, the said C. D., and subscribed and attested according to law; and which said will with the attestation thereof, is in the words and figures following, that is to say (set out the will and the attestation verbatim), as by the said will and the attestation clause thereof, reference being thereto had, will appear.

And your orator further sheweth unto your honors, that the said C. D. departed this life on or about the _____ day of _____, without having revoked or altered his said will, leaving his brother E. D., of, etc., the defendant hereinafter named, his heir at-law; and upon the death of the said testator, your orator, under and by virtue of the said will, entered upon and took possession of all the said freehold estates thereby devised to your orator for life, and your orator is now in possession thereof. And your orator hoped that no disputes would have arisen respecting the devises contained in the said will, or the validity thereof. But now so it is, etc., the said E. D. pretends that the said will is void and ineffectual; and although he will not dispute the validity thereof during the lives of the subscribing witnesses thereto, yet he threatens and intends to do so when they are dead, so that your orator may be deprived of their testimony.

And your orator further sheweth, that all of the said subscribing wit-witnesses are upwards of seventy years of age and in feeble health (or are about to depart from the commonwealth or state), and that your orator fears the testimony of the said witnesses may be lost by their death (or departure from the commonwealth or state) before the cause can be investigated in a court of law.

In consideration whereof, etc., and that your orator may be at liberty to have the several subscribing witnesses to said will examined, and that your orator, if necessary, may have a commission or commissions for the examination of the said subscribing witnesses to the said will, to the end that their testimony may be preserved and perpetuated; and that your orator may be at liberty to read and make use of the same on all future occasions, as he shall be advised. May it please your honors, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2075.

Complaint Against Town for Medical Services to Pauper.

I. Declaration as Surgeon and for Medicines.

The indebitatus count, inserting these words, "for the work and labor, care, diligence, journeys, and attendance of the said plaintiff by the said plaintiff before that time done, performed, and bestowed, as a surgeon and apothecary for the said defendant, and at his special instance and request, in and about the healing and curing of the said defendant and divers other persons of divers diseases, disorders and maladies under which they had before then respectfully labored and languished, in and about the endeavoring to heal and cure the said defendant and divers other persons of divers other diseases, disorders and maladies under which they had before then also respectively labored and languished, and for divers medicines, chattels and other necessary things before that time found and provided, administered, delivered, and applied by the said plaintiff on those occasions, for the said defendant and at his like special instance and request; and being so indebted," etc. The quantum meruit thereon is by inserting as follows, "had before that time done, performed, and bestowed other his work and labor, care, diligence, journeys, and attendance as a surgeon and apothecary, in and about the healing and curing of the said defendant and divers other persons of divers other diseases, disorders and maladies under which they had before then respectively labored and languished, and also in and about the endeavoring to heal and cure the said defendant and divers other persons of divers other diseases and disorders under which they had before then also respectively labored and languished, and had also at the like special instance and request of the said defendant, before that time found and provided, administered, delivered and applied divers other medicines, chattels, and necessary things on those last-mentioned occasions for the said defendant, he the said defendant under took," etc. (Add counts for work and labor, and journeys, for goods sold, money paid, account stated, and breach.) 2 Chit. Pl. 83

II. Complaint Against Surgeon for Maltreatment.

I. That the defendant, being a surgeon, the plaintiff, at ———, in the month of ———, 18 —, employed him as such (to set and heal the leg of the plaintiff, which was broken), and for that purpose he undertook as a surgeon to attend and care for the plaintiff.

II. That the defendant so negligently and unskillfully conducted himself (in setting and attempting to heal the same, as to bring on inflammation, and make it necessary to have the leg of the plaintiff amputated).

III. That by reason of the defendant's said negligence, the plaintiff was made sick, and kept from attending to his business for ——— months, and was put to great expense, and has been, and still is, disabled from attending to his said business, to the damage of the plaintiff ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 362.

III. Complaint, Negligently Performing an Operation.

"The said John O'Hara, plaintiff, complains of the said Osceola O. Wells, defendant, and for cause of action says: That the said plaintiff, before and at the times hereinafter mentioned, had had the bone and ligaments of his left arm broken and fractured and displaced, and that the said defendant was a physician and surgeon, practicing as such in the city of Beatrice, Gage county, Nebraska; that on, to-wit: the 30th day of October, A. D. 1878, the said plaintiff at the special instance and request of the said defendant, retained and employed the said defendant for a reasonable reward to be paid therefor as such physician and surgeon, to set and reduce the said broken and fractured bone and ligaments of his said arm to their proper position and place, and to attend to, cure and heal the same; and the said defendant undertook and entered upon said retainer and employment; yet the said defendant, not regarding his duty in the premises, so carelessly, negligently, and unskillfully set and reduced the said fracture of said arm and the displacements thereof, and so negligently and unskillfully bound up and dressed and bandaged the same, and unskillfully and negligently nursed and attended to the said fracture and injury, that the said plaintiff, by reason of such unskillfulness and negligence, has wholly lost the use of his said arm, and his said arm has become and still is permanently crooked, and the bones, ligaments, and joints thereof permanently displaced and out of their natural state, position and condition, whereby plaintiff has been greatly and permanently injured, rendered unfit and unable to follow his lawful business, and has also been put to great expense, to-wit: the sum of $200, in and about endeavoring to straighten and improve and cure his said arm to the damage of the said plaintiff $10,200; wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment against the said defendant for the said sum of $10,200, his damage so as aforesaid sustained, and his costs of suit." O'Hara v. Wells, 14 Neb. 403, 15 N. W. 722.

IV. Indictment for Practicing Without License.

"And the said Antle did then and there engage in the practice of medicine, without having first furnished to the clerk of the District Court of said Caldwell County his certificate of qualification, said county being then and there the county in which said Antle did then and there reside," etc. Antle v. State, 6 Tex. App. 202.

V. Information, Practicing Without License.

The information accused the defendant of a misdemeanor, "committed as follows, to-wit: The said Arthur O'Leary, on or about the twenty-seventh day of November, 1886, in the county of Yolo, state of California, then and there being, did wilfully and unlawfully practice medicine; that prior to said time said defendant had not procured a certificate to so practice from one of the boards of medical examiners appointed by the Medical Society of the State of California, the Eclectic Medical Society of the State of California, or the California State Homeopathic Medical Society, and prior to said time said defendant had not procured a certificate to practice medicine granted by the board of examiners appointed by the California State Medical Society of Homeopathic Practitioners; and said defendant was not at said time a lawfully commissioned surgeon of the United States army or navy practicing his profession within the limits of the state of California, contrary to the form, force, and effect of the statute," etc. People v. O'Leary, 77 Cal. 30, 18 Pac. 856.

VI. Indictment, Illegal Practice of Medicine, Failure To Record Certificate.

"Did unlawfully practice medicine, without complying with the laws regulating the practice of medicine; without furnishing to the clerk of the District Court of Dallas County, State of Texas, a certificate of qualification, as required by law; and without having been regularly engaged in the practice of medicine, in any of its branches, in this State five consecutive years prior to the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and without then and there being a person authorized by law to practice medicine, and without then and there having and possessing the requisites required by law to practice medicine in the State of Texas, as required by law; contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the state.

"George N. Aldredge, County attorney of Dallas County."
Logan v. State, 5 Tex. App. 306.

PIRACY.

Indictment for Piracy at Common Law.

Yorkshire, to-wit: The jurors for our lady the queen upon their oath present, that J. S., late of Hull, in the county of York, mariner, K. S., late of the same place, mariner, and L. T., late of the same place, mariner, on the third day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, with force and arms, upon the high seas, to-wit, in and on board of a certain ship, called the Windsor Castle, in a certain place upon the high seas, distant about ten leagues from Cutchien in the East Indies, then being, in and upon certain mariners (to the jurors aforesaid unknown), in the peace of God and of our lady the queen then and there being, piratically and feloniously did make an assault, and then the said mariners in bodily fear and danger of their lives, on the high sea aforesaid, then and there piratically and feloniously did put, and the said ship, called the Windsor Castle, and the apparel and tackle of the said ship, of the value of twelve hundred pounds, and seventy chests of opium, of the value of fourteen hundred pounds, in and on board the said ship then being, of the goods and chattels of certain subjects of our said lady the queen, to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and then and there in the custody and possession of the said mariners last aforesaid, with force and arms, from the care, custody, and possession, and against the will of the said mariners last aforesaid, then and there, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, upon the high sea aforesaid, in the place aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction aforesaid, piratically, feloniously, and violently did steal, take, and carry away, against the peace of our lady the queen, her crown and dignity. PARTIES:

Plea in Equity for Want of Proper Parties.

I. Plea in Equity, Title and Commencement of Plea.

The plea of ———, defendant (or of ———, defendants), to the bill of complaint of ——— complainants (or the joint and several plea of A. B. and C. D., defendants, etc.).

This defendant (or these defendants) by protestation, not confessing or acknowledging the matters and things in and by said bill set forth and alleged to be true, in such manner and form as the same are thereby and therein set forth and alleged, for plea to the whole of the said bill, or to so much and such part of the said bill as prays, etc., or seeks a discovery from this defendant (or these defendants), whether, etc., saith (or say) that, etc. 3 Dan. (Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2123.

II. Plea in Equity, Conclusion.

All which matters and things this defendant doth aver (or these defendants do aver) to be true, and he pleads (or they plea) the said (statute or release, etc., as the case may be [in bar]) to the said plaintiff's bill (or if the plea extend to part only, to so much of the said bill as hereinbefore particularly mentioned), and prays (or pray) the judgment of this honorable court, whether he (or they) should be compelled (or ought to be required) to make any other or further answer to the said bill (or to so much of the said bill as is hereinbefore pleaded to), and prays (or pray) to be hence dismissed with his (or their) costs and charges in that behalf, most wrongfully sustained.

(Counsel's signature.)

3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2123.

III. Plea to Part and Answer to Residue.

The plea of ———, defendant (or one of the defendants), to part, and the answer of the same defendant to the residue, of the bill of complaint of ———, plaintiff (or the joint plea and answer, or the joint and several plea and answer, according to circumstances).

This defendant, to all the relief sought by the said bill, and also to all the discovery thereby sought, except the discovery sought by or in respect of (so much of the said bill as prays that this defendant may answer and set forth) whether, etc. (here the language of the interrogatories which it is necessary to answer must be introduced), this defendant does plead in bar, and for plea saith, etc. (here follows the plea).

All which matters and things this defendant does aver to be true, and does plea the same in bar to the whole of the said bill, except such part of the discovery thereby sought as aforesaid; and this defendant humbly prays the judgment of this honorable court, whether he ought to be compelled to make any further or other answer to so much of the said bill as is hereby pleaded to, and he prays to be hence dismissed with his costs.

And for answer to such parts of the said bill as are excepted, this defendant says that, etc. (here the answer follows).

(Counsel's signature.)

3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2123.

IV. In Abatement.

A. Plea in Equity of Infancy of Plaintiff, No Prochein Ami.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That the said plaintiff, before and at the time of filing his said bill in which he appears as the sole plaintiff, was, and now is, an infant under the age of twenty-one years; that is to say, of the age of _____ or thereabouts. Therefore, etc. (conclude as in II.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2125.

B. Plaintiff an Alien Enemy.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That the said plaintiff A. B. is an alien, born of foreign parents, and in foreign parts, that is to say, at Calais, in the kingdom of France, and out of the allegiance of our said lord the king, and under the allegiance of the said king of France, who is an enemy to our said lord the king, and to whom the parents of the said plaintiff adhere; and the said plaintiff also before and at the time of filing his said bill was, and now is, an enemy to our said lord the king, and entered into these dominions without the safe conduct of our said lord the king, and has not been made a subject of our said lord the king by naturalization, denization, or otherwise. Therefore, etc. (conclude as in II.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2125.

C. Plea in Abatement, Coverture of the Plaintiff.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That the said plaintiff A. B., before and at the time of exhibiting her said bill, was, and now is, under coverture of one C. D., her husband, who is still living, and in every respect capable, if necessary, of instituting any suit at law or in equity in this _____ on her behalf. Therefore, etc. (conclude as in II). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2125.

D. Plea in Abatement, Plea of Lunacy.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That the said plaintiff, who by himself alone attempts to sustain an injunction in this suit, before and at the time of filing his said bill, was duly found and declared to be a lunatic, under and by virtue of a commission of lunacy, duly awarded and issued against him, as by the inquisition thereon (a true copy whereof is now in this defendant's possession, and ready to be produced to this honorable court), to which this defendant craves leave to refer, will more fully appear; and which said commission has not hitherto been superseded, and still remains in full force and effect; and the said A. B. therein named, and the said plaintiff is, as this defendant avers, one and the same person, and are not other and different persons. Therefore, etc. (conclude as in II). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2125.

V. Plea, Defendant Never Administrator.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That he is not, nor ever has been, administrator of the goods or estate which were of the said E. F., deceased, in the said bill named, as the said plaintiff in his said bill has untruefully alleged. Therefore, etc. (conclude as in II). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2127.

VI. Plea to Bill by Administrator, Supposed Intestate Living.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That the said A. S., in the said bill named (to whom the said plaintiff alleges that he has obtained letters of administration, and by virtue of which letters of administration, and also under the pretense of his being the heir-at-law of the said A. S., the said plaintiff has commenced and prosecuted this suit), was at the time the said plaintiff filed his said bill, and still is, alive at Paris, in the kingdom of France. Therefore this defendant demands the judgment of this honorable court, whether he shall be compelled to answer the plaintiff's bill; and humbly prays to be dismissed with his reasonable costs on this behalf sustained. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2126.

VII. To Bill of Revivor.A. Plea to Bill of Revivor, Plaintiff Not Administrator.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

That the said plaintiff is not, as stated in the said bill of revivor, the personal representative of A. B., deceased, the testator therein named, and as such entitled to revive the said suit in the said bill of revivor mentioned against this defendant; but the said plaintiff is the administrator only of C. D., late of, etc., deceased, who died intestate on the _____ day of _____ last, and was the sole executor of the said A. B.; and that letters of administration of the goods and estate of the said A. B., unadministered by the said C. D. in his lifetime, have, since the death of the said C. D., been duly granted by the proper court to E. F., of, etc., who thereby became, and now is, the legal personal representative of the said A. B. Wherefore the said defendant demands the judgment of this honorable court, whether he shall be compelled to answer the said plaintiff's bill, and humbly prays to be dismissed with his reasonable costs in this behalf sustained. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2137.

B. Plea to Revivor, Defendant Never Administrator.

(Title and commencement as before.)

That the said W. D. M. H. (the original defendant), at the time of his decease, was a citizen of and resident in the state of C., and that his last will and testament was duly proved and allowed in the county of S. F., in the said state of C.; and that this defendant was named as one of the executors thereof, and duly appointed as such by the said court of probate, and that this defendant has not been appointed an executor of the said will, or an administrator upon the estate of the said W. D. M. H., by any court of probate or other court in the state of M.; that at the time when service of the plaintiff's bill was made upon him, he was, and has since continued to be, a citizen of the said state of C., that he was then casually within said state of M., and for a temporary purpose only, and at that time had no assets of the estate of the said W. D. M. H. in his possession or under his control. All which matters and things this defendant doth aver to be true, and pleads the same to the said bill of revivor, and demands the judgment of this honorable court whether he ought to be compelled to make any answer thereto, and prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs in this behalf sustained.

H. F. T.

(Jurat.)

(Held a good plea in Mellus v. Thompson, 1 Cliff. 125, 16 Fed. Cas. No. 9,405; 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2128.

VIII. Plea to Bill for Rescission, Plaintiff Not Administrator.

(Title, etc., as in I.)

These defendants, by protestation, etc., to the matter in said bill contained, and to so much thereof as sets forth that said E. C. is the administrator of the estate of said S. R. A., and to so much thereof as relates to any contract of purchase between said S. R. A. and these defendants, and seeks to have such contract rescinded, and prays for relief in the premises, and that these defendants may be required to refund to said E. C. all the money paid by S. R. A. upon the said purchase, and that the notes given in payment therefor may be given up to be cancelled, and that the plaintiff may be repaid all damages and expenses which said S. R. A. may have suffered by reason of the premises, do thereunto plead, and for plea say that said E. C. is not administrator as in the bill mentioned, or the legal representative of said S. R. A., duly appointed and qualified to act as therein set forth. All which matters and things these defendants aver to be true, and plead the same to so much of said bill as aforesaid, and pray judgment of this honorable court, whether they ought to be required to make any other or further answer thereunto. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2126.

IX. Plea, Defendant No Interest.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

As to so much of and such parts of the plaintiff's bill as charges that this defendant is interested in the personal estate of A. B., the testator in the said bill named, and seeks an account of the said testator's personal estate; this defendant pleads thereto, and for plea saith that he is merely a subscribing witness to said testator's will, and in no wise interested therein; and this defendant avers that he has not, nor ever had, or pretended to have, nor does he or did he ever claim any right, title or interest whatsoever in the personal estate of the said testator, or any part thereof, and that the said plaintiff has no right to institute this, or any other suit against him in respect thereof. All which said matters and things this defendant doth aver and plead in bar to so much of the said plaintiff's bill as hereinbefore particularly mentioned and pleaded to. And this defendant, not waiving his said plea, but relying thereon, and for better supporting the same, for answer to so much of the said bill as aforesaid, saith he denies that he now is, or ever was, interested in the personal estate of the said testator or any part thereof. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2127.

X. Plea of Decree of Record.

As to so much and such part of the said plaintiff's bill as seeks to compel this defendant either to admit assets of his late father I. M., deceased, came to his hands, sufficient to answer and satisfy the said plaintiff's demand in the said bill mentioned, or to set forth a full and perfect inventory and account of all the personal estate of his this defendant's said father, come to the hands of this defendant, or to the hands of any other person or persons or his use, with the nature, kind and value thereof, and of every part thereof, and of all sums of money come to the hands of this defendant, or any other person or persons for his use, for or on account of the real estates of this defendant's said father, or the rents or profits thereof (charged with the several legacies in the said testator's will, and in the said bill also mentioned to be given and bequeathed to and for the younger children of the said testator in the said will, and in the said bill also respectively named); and also to set forth the annual value of such real estates; or that this defendant may thereout pay to the said plaintiff the sum of $———, in the said plaintiff's bill mentioned, with interest for the same from the time of the said testator's death; this defendant doth plead thereto, and for plea saith that at the term of ———, in the year ———, M. M., since deceased, together with P. M., deceased, and late the wife of the said plaintiff, and S. M. and H. M. respectively, infants, by the said M. M., their sister and next friend (and which said M. M., P. M., the said plaintiff's late wife, S. M. and H. M. were the daughters and younger son of the testator I. M., all since deceased), exhibited their bill of complaint in this honorable court, against E. P., and R. T., esqs. (both since deceased), and this defendant, as eldest son and heir-at-law of the said testator I. M., thereby stating, etc., etc., and praying that the legacies given and bequeathed by the said testator in and by his said will, to the said plaintiff M. M., as one of the younger children, might be paid, and the legacies or shares of the rest of such younger children, all of whom were infants, might be properly secured for their benefit, and a suitable allowance made thereout for their maintenance and education during their respective minorities, to which said bill this defendant, who was then an infant, put in his answer by A. B., his guardian, and the said other defendants respectively also put in their answers thereto, and submitted to this honorable court what right and interest the said plaintiff M. M. was entitled to under her said father's will, and the said cause afterwards and on or about the ——— day of ——— came on to be heard, and a decree was then pronounced therein whereby it was referred to C. D., esq., then one of the masters of this honorable court, to take an account of certain stock, which the said testator by his said will had given and bequeathed among and to his children, and the usual accounts of personal estate, funeral and testamentary expenses and debts of the said testator, and an account of the rents and profits of the said testator's real estates were thereby directed, and which said decree was afterwards, and on or about ———, duly signed and enrolled; and the said master afterwards, in pursuance of the said decree, took the said accounts, and by his report, bearing date the ——— day of ———, which was afterwards confirmed, stated, etc. (all that was done by the master), and the said share so reported due to the said P. M., since deceased, was afterwards, in pursuance of an order of this honorable court, since her marriage with the said plaintiff in the present suit, on or about the ——— day of ———, duly assigned and transferred to, and accepted by him, in full satisfaction and discharge of all the right and interest which he said wily, or the said plaintiff — this suit be for right, or either of them, but, or could have, in or to the personal estate of the said testator, or any part thereof; all of which matters and things this defendant doth aver and plead in bar to so much of the said plaintiff's bill as hereinbefore particularly mentioned; and prays judgment of this honorable court whether he should make any further answer to so much of the said bill as is hereinbefore pleaded to. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2128.

XI. Plea of Former Suit Depending, Witnesses Examined.

(Title and commencement as in I.)
That at a term of the ——— court ———, which was held in the year ———, the said present plaintiff exhibited his bill of complaint in this honorable court against this defendant and one L. Y., for an account of the moneys raised by the sale of the plantations and other estates in the said plaintiff's present bill mentioned, and claiming such shares and proportions thereof, and such rights and interests therein, as he now claims by his present bill; and praying relief against this defendant in the same manner and for the same matters, and to the same effect as the said plaintiff now prays by his said present bill; and this defendant and the said L. Y. appeared and put in their answers to the said former bill, and the said plaintiff replied thereto, and witnesses were examined on both sides, and their depositions duly published, and the said former bill and the several proceedings in the said former cause, as this defendant avers, now remain depending, and as of record in this honorable court, the said cause being yet undetermined and undismissed; all which several matters and things this defendant doth aver, and pleads the said former bill, answer and the several proceedings in the said former suit, in bar to the said plaintiff's present bill; and humbly demands the judgment of this honorable court, whether he shall be put to make any further or other answer thereto; and prays to be hence dismissed with his costs and charges in this behalf sustained. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2120.

XII. Plea of Stated Account.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

As to so much and such parts of the said plaintiff's bill as seeks an account of and concerning the dealings and transactions therein alleged to have taken place between the said plaintiff and this defendant, at any time before the ——— day of ———, in the year ———, this defendant for plea thereto saith, that on the ——— day of ———, which was previously to the said bill of complaint being filed, the said plaintiff and this defendant did make up, state, and settle an account in writing, a counterpart whereof was then delivered to the said plaintiff, of all sums of money which this defendant had before that time, by the order and direction, and for the use of the said plaintiff received, and of all matters and things thereunto relating, or at any time before the said ——— day of ———, being or depending between the said plaintiff and this defendant (and in respect whereof the said plaintiff's bill of complaint has been since filed), and the said plaintiff, after a strict examination of the said account, and every item and particular thereof, which this defendant avers according to his best knowledge and belief to be true and just, did approve and allow the same, and actually received from this defendant the sum of $——, the balance of the said account, which by the said account appeared to be justly due to him from this defendant; and the said plaintiff thereupon, and on the ——— day of ———, gave to this defendant a receipt, or acquittance for the same, under his hand, in full of all demands, and which said receipt or acquittance is in the words and figures following (that is to say), (here state the receipt verbatim) as by the said receipt or acquittance, now in the possession of this defendant, and ready to be produced to this honorable court, will appear. Therefore, etc. (Conclude as above.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2131.

XIII. Conclusion of Plea of Release.

Therefore this defendant pleads the said release in bar to so much of the said plaintiff's bill as is hereinbefore particularly mentioned, and humbly prays the judgment of this honorable court, whether he ought to be compelled to make any further answer to so much of the said bill as is before pleaded unto; and this defendant, not waiving the said plea, but insisting thereon for answer to the residue of the said bill, and in support of his said plea saith, he denies that the said release was unduly obtained by this defendant from the said plaintiff, or that the said plaintiff was ignorant of the nature and effect of such release, or that the consideration paid by this defendant to induce the said plaintiff to execute the same, was at all inadequate to the just claims and demands of the said plaintiff against this defendant, in respect of the several dealings and transactions in the said bill mentioned, or any of them; and this defendant denies, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2131.

XIV. Plea of Will.

(Title and commencement as in I.)

As to so much and such part of the plaintiff's bill as seeks (that a receiver may be forthwith appointed to receive the rents and profits of the real estates, late of John Thompson, deceased, in the said bill named, and now in the possession of this defendant), and that this defendant may account with the said plaintiff for the rents and profits thereof, and that this defendant may be restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court from felling, etc., timber, etc., growing thereon, or which seeks to set aside the will of the said John Thompson, or which seeks any relief relative thereto, this defendant doth plead thereto, and for this plea saith, that the said John Thompson being before, and at the time of making his will, seised to him and his heirs, of and in divers parcels of real estate, in the several counties of ———, of the yearly value of $——, or thereabouts, and being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, bearing date the ——— day of ———, which was duly executed and attested, and thereby gave, etc. (setting forth the will, under which the defendant had an estate for life in the testator's real estate, with remainder, etc., and that the testator appointed the defendant executor of his said will), and the said John Thompson being so seised or entitled as aforesaid, died on the ——— day of ———, without having altered or revoked his said will; and this defendant, soon after the death of the said testator entered on the said real estates devised to him in manner aforesaid, and has ever since been in the enjoyment or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, etc. (Conclude as above.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2132.

XV. Plea of Purchase Without Notice of Fraudulent Conveyance.

This defendant by protestation, etc. (title and commencement as above), as to so much of the said bill as seeks an account of what is due and owing to the said plaintiff, in respect of the annuity of $—— therein mentioned, and stated to be charged upon, and issuing out of the premises therein and hereinafter mentioned, this defendant doth plead thereto, and for plea saith, that A. B., previously to and on the ——— day of ———, 18——, was, or pretended to be, seised in fee-simple, and was in, or pretended to be in, the actual possession of all those parcels of real estate, in the said bill mentioned and described, free from all incumbrances whatsoever; and this defendant, believing that the said A. B. was so seised and entitled, and that the said premises were in fact free from all incumbrances, on the ——— day of ———, agreed with the said A. B. for the absolute purchase of the fee-simple and inheritance thereof; whereupon certain indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively on, etc., between the said A. B. of the one part, and this defendant of the other part, were duly made and executed; and by the said indenture of release the said A. B., in consideration of the sum of $—— paid to him by this defendant, bargained, sold, released, and confirmed unto this defendant, all, etc. (set out the parcels verbatim from the deed), to hold unto, and to the use of this defendant, his heirs and assigns, forever; and in the said indenture of release is contained a covenant from the said A. B. with this defendant, that he, the said A. B., was absolutely seised of the said premises, and that the same and each of them and every part thereof were and was free from all incumbrances; as by the said indentures of lease and release respectively, reference being there to had, will more fully appear; and this defendant doth aver, that the said sum of $——, the consideration money in said indenture of release mentioned, was actually paid by this defendant to the said A. B. at the time the said indenture of release bears date; and this defendant doth also aver, that at or before the respective times of the execution of the said indentures of lease and release, by the said A. B. and this defendant, and of the payment of the said purchase-money, he, this defendant, had no notice whatsoever of the said annuity of $——, now claimed by the said plaintiff, or of any other incumbrance whatsoever, that in any wise affected the said premises, so purchased by this defendant as aforesaid, or any of them, or any part thereof; and this defendant insists that he is a bona fide purchaser of the said premises for a good and valuable consideration, and without notice of the said annuity claimed by the plaintiff; all which matters, and things this defendant doth aver and plead in bar to so much of the said plaintiff's bill as is hereinbefore particularly mentioned; and prays the judgment of this honorable court, whether he should make any further answer to so much of the said bill as is hereinbefore pleaded to; and this defendant not waiving his said plea, but relying thereon, and for better supporting the same, for answer saith, that he had not at any time before, or at the time of purchasing the said premises, or since, until the said plaintiff's bill was filed, any notice whatsoever, either expressed or implied, of the said annuity of $——, claimed by the said plaintiff, or that the same or any other incumbrance whatsoever was charged upon or in any wise affected the said premises so purchased as aforesaid, or any of them, or any part thereof; and this defendant denies, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2133.

XVI. Plea of Want of Proper Parties.

(Title and commencement as in I.)
As to so much of the said plaintiff's bill as seeks an account from this defendant, as executor and heir-at-law of H. E., esq., deceased, in the said bill named, this defendant's late brother, for what remains due and owing upon the bond in the said bill mentioned, bearing date the —— day of ——, in the year ——, and payment by this defendant as such executor and heir-at-law of the said H. E., deceased, as aforesaid, of what shall be found due on taking such account; this defendant doth plead thereto, and for plea saith, that no part of the sum of $—— for securing the repayment whereof the said bond was executed, was paid to or received by the said H. E., but that the whole was paid unto A. W., in the said bond and in the said bill also named, and received by him for his sole use, and that the said H. E. was only surety for the said A. W., and that the said plaintiff afterwards accepted a composition for what he alleged to be due on said bond from the said A. W. without the privity of the said H. E. in his lifetime, or this defendant since the death of the said H. E., which took place on or about the —— day of ——, as in the said bill mentioned, since which no demand has been made on this defendant for any money alleged to be due on the said bond; and that the said A. W. died several years ago, seised of considerable real estates, and also possessed of a large personal estate; and that his heir-at-law, or the devisee of his real estate, and also the representative of his personal estate, ought to be, but are not, made parties to the said bill. Therefore, etc. (Conclude as in II.) 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2135.

XVII. Plea to Supplemental Bill, Matters Well Known at Filing of Original Bill.

(Title and commencement as in I.)
That the said matters and things in the said plaintiff's present bill, stated and set forth by way of supplement, arose, and were well known to the said plaintiff, before and at the time the said plaintiff filed his original bill in this cause, and that such said several matters and things can now be introduced, and ought so to be, if necessary, by amending said original bill. Wherefore, etc. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2137.

XVIII. Plea That Discovery Sought Is Privileged.

(Title and commencement as in I.)
As to so much and such part of the said bill as seeks a discovery from this defendant of the title of W. W. esq., another defendant in the said bill named, to all or any of the messuages, lands, etc., late of C. W., esq., his late grandfather, deceased, in the said bill also named, this defendant doth plead thereto, and for plea saith, that he, this defendant, is duly admitted and sworn an attorney of ———, and also a solicitor of this honorable court, and has for several years past practised and now practises as such; and this defendant was employed by C. W., esq., deceased, the late father of the said other defendant W. W., in the lifetime of the said C. W., and since his decease has also been employed in that capacity by the said other defendant J. W., the mother and guardian of the said W. W. during his minority, and by the said W. W. since he attained his age of twenty-one years; and in that capacity only, or by means of such employment only, has had the inspection and perusal of any of the title deeds of and belonging to the said estate, or any part or parts thereof, for the use and service of his said clients, and therefore ought not, as this defendant is advised, to be compelled to discover the same. Wherefore this defendant doth plead the several matters aforesaid, in bar to such discovery as aforesaid is sought by the said bill, and humbly prays the judgment of this honorable court, whether he is bound to make any further or other answer thereto. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2136.

I. Commencements.A. Commencement of a First Plea When Special.

In the King's Bench (or C. P., or exchequer). ———— term. 1 Will. 4.

C. D. ats. A. B.

And the said defendant, by E. F., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong (or in trespass or ejectment, instead of the word "wrong," say "force") and injury, when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, because he says that, etc. (here state the subject-matter of the defense, after which conclude either to the country or with a verification, as the plea may require as in the following forms). 3 Chit. Pl. 906.

B. Commencement of Plea Where Matter of Defense Arose After Commencement of Action.

In the King's Bench (or C. P., or exchequer). ———— next after, ———— in ———— term, 1 Will. 4. C. D. ats. A. B.

And the said defendant, by E. F., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong (or in trespass or ejectment, instead of the word "wrong," say "force") and injury, when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not further to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said defendant, because he says that, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 906.

C. Commencement of a Second or Subsequent Special Plea.

And for a further plea in this behalf, the said defendant, by leave (or if a third or subsequent plea, say "by like leave") of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 906.

D. Commencement of Plea To Particular Count or Particular Trespasses, Etc.

And for a further plea in this behalf, as to the said first count of the said declaration (or if in covenant, "as to the said supposed breach of covenant first above assigned," or if in trespass, "as to the breaking and entering, etc.," enumerating the particular trespasses mentioned in the declaration, and intended to be justified), the said defendant, by leave of the court here, for this purpose first had and obtained, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that if the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 907.

II. Conclusions.A. Conclusion of Plea to the Country.

(After stating the subject-matter of the plea, if it be a denial of an allegation in the declaration, not being matter of record, the plea should conclude to the country, as follows): And of this the said defendant puts himself upon the country, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 907.

B. Conclusion of Plea With a Verification.

(If the defense consists of an allegation of new matter, it should in general conclude with a verification, thus):

And this the said defendant is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought (or if matter pending the suit be pleaded, say "ought further") to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 907.

C. Conclusion of Plea With a Verification by the Record.

And this the said defendant is ready to verify by the said record, wherefore he prays judgment, if the said defendant ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 907.

III. Plea in Abatement as to Part, and in Bar to the Rest.

And the said defendant in her own person comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and as to the said (first and second) counts of the said declaration, says that she did not undertake or promise in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above complained against her, and of this she puts herself upon the country, etc.

And for a further plea as to the said (first and second) counts of the said declaration, the said defendant, by leave, etc. (as in I, C), because she says that she the said defendant, before and at the time of the making of the said several supposed promises and undertakings in the said (first and second) counts mentioned, and before and at the time the said supposed causes of action therein mentioned did accrue, was and still is the wife of T. J., who is still living, to-wit, at, etc. (venue); and this, etc. (conclude with a verification as in II, B).

And as to so much and such part of the said bill (or if in C. P., or by original, instead of the word "bill," say "writ and declaration") of the said plaintiff, as relates to the said several supposed promises and undertakings in the said third and subsequent counts mentioned; and as to those counts the said defendant prays judgment of that part of the said bill (or if in C. P., or by original, instead of the word "bill," say "writ and declaration") which relates to the said last mentioned supposed promises and undertakings, and of the said third and subsequent counts, and that they may be respectively quashed, because she says that at the time of the exhibiting the said bill (or if in C. P., or by original, say "at the time of the issuing of the said writ") of the said plaintiff in this behalf, and the commencement of this suit, she was and still is married to the said T. J., who is still living, to-wit, at, etc. (venue), aforesaid; and this she is ready to verify, wherefore because the said T. J. is not named in the said bill (or if in C. P., or by original, instead of the word "Bill," say "writ and declaration") in this behalf she prays judgment of so much and such part of the said bill (or if in C. P., or by original, instead of the word "bill," say "writ and declaration") as relates to the said supposed promises and undertakings in the said third and subsequent counts mentioned. And also of the said third and subsequent counts, and that the same may in this behalf be quashed, etc. 3 Chit. Pl. 907; Archb. Pl. 301; Burr. App. 373, §675.

IV. Pleas To a New Assignment, General Issue and Special Plea.

And the said defendant, as to the said several supposed trespasses above newly assigned, says that he is not guilty thereof, or of any part thereof, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him. And of this he puts himself upon the country, etc.

And for a further plea in this behalf, as to the said several supposed trespasses above newly assigned, the said defendant, by leave of the court here for this purpose first had and obtained according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, because he says that, etc. (here state the subject-matter of the plea, the conclusion with a verification is thus): And this he the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him, in respect of the said supposed trespasses above newly assigned, etc.

G. H., defts. atty.

Burr. App. 410, §765; Yates' Forms 738.

V. Common Traverse.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by J. L., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforsaid action against him, the said defendant, because he says that the windows of the said messuage or tenement were set in any part thereof rotten, in decay, or out of repair, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above complained against him, the said defendant. And of this he puts himself upon the country.

J. L., defendant's attorney.

Burr. App. 313, §628; Steph. Pl. (ed. 1844) 71.

VI. Special Traverse (Absque Hoc).

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by R. F., his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, etc., and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him, because he says that the said J. K., deceased, at the time of the making of the said indenture, was seised in his demesne, as of freehold, for the term of his natural life, of and in the said demised premises, with the appurtenances, and continued so seised thereof until, and at the time of his death; and that, after the making of the said indenture, and before the expiration of the said term, to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____, at _____ aforesaid, the said J. K. died; whereupon the term created by the said indenture wholly ceased and determined: Without this, that, after the making of the said indenture, the reversion of the said demised premises belonged to the said J. K., and his heirs, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath, in his said declaration alleged. And this the said defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment, if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him, etc.

R. F., defendant's attorney.

Burr. App. 343, §629; Steph. Pl. (ed. 1844) 190.

VII. Relictas.

A. Relicta in Assumpsit.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, relinquishing his said plea by him above pleaded, says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said plaintiff, nor but that the said defendant did undertake and promise, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him; nor but that the said plaintiff hath sustained damages, by reason of the non-performance of the said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, to _____ dollars and _____ cents; besides his costs to be taxed.

G. H., attorney for defendant.

Burr. App. 431, §832.

B. Relicta in Debt.

And the said C. D., defendant in this suit, by G. H., his attorney, relinquishing his said plea, by him above pleaded, says that he cannot deny the action of the said plaintiff; nor but that the said writing obligatory is the deed of him the said defendant; nor but that he owes to the said plaintiff the said sum of _____ dollars above demanded, in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath above thereof complained against him.

G. H., attorney for defendant.

Burr. App. 431, §833.

VIII. Plea, Comperuit ad Diem.

Supreme court. C. D., I. N., and I. S. ads. A. B., assignee of J. K., sheriff of the county of _____.

And the said C. D., I. N., and I. S., defendants in this suit, by R. B., their attorney, come and defend the wrong and injury when, etc., and say that the said plaintiff ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against them, because they say that the said C. D. did appear in the action commenced by the said writ in the said condition of the said writing obligatory mentioned, according to the form and effect of the said condition, by putting in special bail within twenty days after the return day specified in the writ of capias ad respondendum in the said condition, and in the said declaration of the said plaintiff above set forth (if the bail have been excepted to, and justified and here: "and by perfecting such bail [the same having been excepted to], according to the rules and practice of the said court"), as by the record of the said appearance (and of the justification of the said special bail) remaining in the said court before the justices thereof, to-wit, at the city hall in the city of New York (place where the proceedings are filed), more fully appears. And this they are ready to verify by the said record. Wherefore they pray judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against them, etc.

R. B., attorney for defts.

Burr. App. 372, §672; see Yates' Forms 475.

IX. Notice of Special Matter With General Issue.

(At the foot of the general issue, immediately following the attorney's signature, subjoin the notice in the following form): Sir: Please to take notice that the said defendant, at the trial of the above cause, will insist upon and give in evidence, under the general issue above pleaded, that (here give the substance of the notice, according to the facts; thus, in case of a notice of set-off, proceed as follows): the said plaintiff at the time of the commencement of the action aforesaid against the said defendant was and still is indebted unto him in the sum of (one thousand) dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, for divers goods, wares and merchandises, before that time sold and delivered by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, and at the special instance and request of the said plaintiff. And in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars, of like lawful money, for the work and labor, care and diligence of the said defendant, by the said defendant, and his servants before that time done, performed and bestowed in and about the business of the said plaintiff, and for the said plaintiff, and at his like request. And in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars, of like lawful money, for money before that time lent and advanced by the said defendant to the said plaintiff, and at the like request of the said plaintiff; and for other money by the said defendant, before that time paid, laid out and expended for the said plaintiff, and at the like request of the said plaintiff. And for other money by the said plaintiff, before that time had and received to and for the use of the said defendant. And also that the said plaintiff, before the commencement of this action, accounted together with the said defendant, of and concerning the said demand of the said plaintiff against the said defendant, and also of and concerning divers other sums of money and accounts between the said plaintiff and the said defendant, and upon such accounting the said plaintiff was found to be in arrear and indebted to the said defendant, in the further sum of (one thousand) dollars, of like lawful money, which the said plaintiff undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said defendant, well and truly to pay unto the said defendant, when the said plaintiff should be thereunto afterwards requested. Which said several sums of money, or so much thereof as will be sufficient for that purpose, the said defendant will set-off against the demand of the said plaintiff, to be proved at the trial, and have the balance certified in his favor. Dated the _____ day of _____, 1846.

TROVER AND CONVERSION:

Answer, That Defendant Has Lien on Goods by Pledge.

I. Bill for Redemption of Goods Pledged.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honors your orator, A. S., of, etc., against P. S., of, etc., that your orator having occasion for a sum of money for the purposes of his business, made application to said P. S., the said defendant, to lend him the same, and thereupon the said P. S., on or about _____, advanced and lent to your orator the sum of $_____, and in order to secure the repayment thereof with interest, your orator deposited with the said defendant a box of tanned boot legs and tops, which were of the value of $_____ and upwards, and at the same time executed and delivered to the said defendant a bill of sale of the said goods so deposited with him; but it was not meant and intended thereby, either by your orator or the said defendant, that the said transaction should amount to an absolute sale of the said goods to the said defendant, but it was expressly agreed between your orator and the said defendant, that your orator should nevertheless be at liberty to redeem the same. And your orator further sheweth, that being desirous to redeem the said goods, he has frequently applied to the said P. S., and has offered to repay him the said sum of $———, with lawful interest thereon, on having the said goods redelivered to him, with which just and reasonable requests your orator well hoped that the said P. S. would have complied, as in justice and equity he ought to have done. But now so it is (see Bills and Answers), etc. To the end, etc. (see Bills and Answers). And that the said defendant may answer the premises, and that an account may be taken of what is due to the said defendant for principal and interest in respect of the said loan of $———, and that upon payment thereof by your orator the said defendant may be decreed and deliver over to your orator the said goods so deposited with him as aforesaid (and for further relief, see Bills and Answers). May it please, etc. (See Bills and Answers). 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 1939.

II. Decree for Redemption of Goods Pledged; Inquiry as to Overpayment.

It is ordered and decreed, that it be referred to A. B., esquire, master, etc., to take an account of what remained due on the, etc., the date of the last note exhibited in this cause, for principal and interest of the money advanced and lent by the defendant W. to the said C., the bankrupt, on the pledge of the jewels, plate, and effects mentioned in the original note from the defendant to the said C., dated, etc., and to compute the interest on so much of the principal as then remained due. And it is further ordered, that the said master do likewise take an account of the said jewels, plate, and effects, specified in the last-mentioned note, and see which of them remain in specie in the custody or power of the defendant, and what part thereof hath been sold or disposed of, by the defendant. And as to such part thereof as hath been so sold or disposed of, it is further ordered, that the said master do take an account of the real value thereof; and that the value of such part thereof as hath been so sold or disposed of by the defendant be applied in the first place towards paying the interest, and then towards sinking the principal, of what shall be so found to have been due to the defendant for the money lent or advanced by him as aforesaid. And if upon the balance of the said account, anything shall be found to remain due to the defendant for principal or interest, then on payment thereof by the plaintiff to the said defendant at such time and place as the said master shall appoint, it is further ordered that the defendant do deliver to the plaintiff such part of the said jewels, plate, and effects as shall be found to remain in specie. But in default of such payment by the plaintiff to the defendant as aforesaid, it is further ordered that the said plaintiff's bill do from thenceforth stand dismissed out of this court with costs to be taxed by the said master. And in case it shall appear on the said account that the defendant is overpaid his said principal and interest, then it is further ordered that the said defendant do pay to the plaintiff so much as shall remain due to the plaintiff on the said account, and also to deliver to the plaintiff such part of the said jewels, plate, and effects as shall remain in specie, to be applied as part of the personal estate of the bankrupt, for the benefit of the creditors seeking relief under, etc. And the court doth reserve the consideration of interest of any money that may be found due from the defendant to the plaintiff, in case there shall be any such, and also the consideration of costs, till after the said master shall have made his report. Liberty to apply. 3 Dan. Ch. Pl. & Pr. (Perkins' ed.) 2238.

III. Complaints.

A. Complaint Against Pledgee for Loss of Pledge.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18——, at ———, the plaintiff delivered to the defendant (briefly designate the thing), the property of this plaintiff, of the value of ——— dollars, by way of pledge to the defendant to secure the sum of ——— dollars theretofore loaned by the defendant to the plaintiff (and interest thereon; or other indebtedness), which (pledge) the defendant received for that purpose, and agreed with the plaintiff to take good care of until it should be redeemed by the plaintiff.

II. That the defendant has failed to fulfill said judgment on his part, and on the contrary took so little care of, and so negligently kept said (pledge), that while it was in his possession for the purposes aforesaid, it was through his negligence lost, to the damage of the plaintiff ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 417.

B. Complaint Against Pledgee for Injury to Pledge.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18——, at ———, the plaintiff delivered to the defendant (briefly designate the thing), the property of this plaintiff, of the value of ——— dollars, by way of pledge to the defendant to secure the sum of ——— dollars theretofore loaned by the defendant to the plaintiff (and interest thereon; or other indebtedness), which (pledge) the defendant received for that purpose, and agreed with the plaintiff to take good care of it until it should be redeemed by the plaintiff.

II. That the defendant, not regarding his promise, so negligently conducted in respect to said (pledge), and so carelessly used the same, that it became, by reason of his negligence and carelessness, greatly damaged (state briefly the injury, in its nature and extent, as the case was), to the damage of the plaintiff ——— dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 418.

C. Complaint by Pledgor of Note To Recover Excess.

I. That on the ——— day of ———, 18——, the plaintiff being then indebted to the defendant in the sum of ——— dollars, he delivered (or, indorsed, if the note was transferred by indorsement) to said defendant, as a collateral security for the payment of the same, a promissory note made by one M. N. for ———, bearing date on the ——— day of ———, 18——, and payable at ——— months after its date.

II. That at its maturity the note was collected by the defendant, and by the application of the moneys so received by him, said indebtedness was wholly paid and extinguished.

III. That after payment of said indebtedness there remained in the hands of the defendant a balance of ——— dollars, belonging to this plaintiff; payment of which the plaintiff demanded of the defendant on the ——— day of ———, 18——, but no part thereof of has been paid. 1 Abb. Forms 179.

VI. Indictment for Fraudulent Use of Mail, 989

I. Indictment for Mailing Obscene Matter.

“Did unlawfully, wilfully, and knowingly deposit and cause to be deposited in the postoffice of the city of New York, for mailing and delivery by the postoffice establishment of the United States, a certain obscene, lewd, and lascivious paper, which said paper then and there, on the first page thereof, was entitled ‘Tenderloin Number, Broadway,’ and on the same page were printed the words and figures following,—that is to say: ‘Volume 11, number 27; trade-mark, 1892; by Lew Rosen: New York, Saturday, April 15, 1893; ten cents a copy, $4.00 a year, in advance;’ and thereupon, on the same page, is a picture of a cab, horse, driver, and the figure of a female, together (underneath the said picture) with the word ‘Tenderloineuse,’ and the said paper consists of twelve pages, minute description of which, with the pictures therein and thereon, would be offensive to the court and improper to spread upon the records of the court because of their obscene, lewd, and indecent matters; and the said paper on the said twenty-fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, was enclosed in a wrapper and addressed as follows,—that is to say: ‘Mr. Geo. Edwards, P. O. box 510, Summit, N. J.’—against the peace of the United States and their dignity, and contrary to the statute of the United States in such case made and provided." Price v. United States, 163 U. S. 311, 17 Sup. Ct. 366, 41 L. ed. 727.

II. Indictment for Mailing Obscene Book.

"On the twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, at the Southern District of New York, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did unlawfully and knowingly deposit, and cause to be deposited, in the mail of the United States, then and there, for mailing and delivery, a certain obscene, lewd, and lascivious book, called 'Cupid's Yokes, or The Binding Forces of Conjugal Life,' which said book is so lewd, obscene and lascivious, that the same would be offensive to the Court here, and improper to be placed upon the records thereof; wherefore, the jurors aforesaid do not set forth the same in this indictment; which said book was then and there inclosed in a paper wrapper, which said wrapper was then and there addressed and directed as follows: G. Brackett, Box 202, Granville, N. Y." the second count avers, that the defendant, "on the twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, at the Southern District of New York, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, unlawfully and knowingly did deposit, and cause to be deposited, in the mail of the United States, then and there, for mailing and delivery, a certain publication of an indecent character, called 'Cupid's Yokes, or The Binding Forces of Conjugal Life,' which said publication is so indecent that the same would be offensive to the Court here, and improper to be placed on the records thereof; wherefore, the jurors aforesaid do not set forth the same in this indictment; which said publication was then and there inclosed in a wrapper, which said wrapper was then and there addressed and directed as follows, to-wit: G. Brackett, Box 202, Granville, N. Y." United States v. Bennett, 16 Blatchf. 338, 24 Fed. Cas. No. 14,571.

III. Indictment for Sending Lottery Circular Through Mail.

"Did unlawfully and knowingly deposit in the mail of the United States, and send to be conveyed by the said mail, a certain letter and circular concerning a lottery, which said letter and circular was then and there of the tenor and in the words and figures following, that is to say: (copy of circular).

All prizes payable in full on presentation of ticket.

Official copy of drawings mailed as soon as received, which said letter and circular was then and there enclosed in an envelope and addressed as follows, that is to say: (copy of address).

The second count charged that the defendant "did unlawfully and knowingly deposit in the mail of the United States, and send to be conveyed by the said mail, a certain circular concerning a lottery, which said circular was then and there enclosed in an envelope, which said envelope was addressed as follows: (copy of address), and which said circular purported to be an announcement of the one hundred and fourteenth grand monthly distribution of the Louisiana State Lottery, to take place at New Orleans, Tuesday, November 11, 1879, describing the list of prizes, the plan of the lottery, a list of capital prizes, and a statement of their authority for, and method of, doing business." United States v. Noelke, 17 Blatchf. (U. S.) 554.

IV. Indictment for Robbing Mail.

"Eastern District of Pennsylvania, to-wit:

"The grand inquest of the United States of America inquiring for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, upon their oaths and affirmations, respectfully do present, that James Porter, otherwise called James May, late of the eastern district aforesaid, yeoman, and George Wilson, late of the eastern district aforesaid, yeoman, on the 6th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, at the eastern district aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, with force and arms in and upon one Samuel M'Crea, in the peace of God and of the United States of America then and there being, and then and there being a carrier of the mail of the United States, and then and there intrusted therewith, and then and there proceeding with the said mail from the city of Philadelphia to the borough of Reading, feloniously did make an assault, and him the said Samuel M'Crea in bodily fear and danger then and there feloniously did put, and the said mail of the United States from him the said Samuel M'Crea then and there, feloniously, violently and against his will, did steal, take and carry away, contrary to the form of the act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America.

"And the inquest aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, do further present, that the said James Porter, otherwise called James May, and the said George Wilson, afterwards, to-wit, on the same day and year aforesaid, at the eastern district aforesaid and within the jurisdiction of this court, with force and arms in and upon the said Samuel M'Crea, then and there being a carrier of the mail of the United States, and then and there intrusted therewith, feloniously did make an assault, and him the said carrier of the said mail then and there feloniously, violently, and against his will, did rob, contrary to the form of the act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States of America." United States v. Wilson, 7 Pet. (U. S.) 150, 8 L. ed. 640.

V. Indictment for Assisting in Robbing Mail.

The first count charged that the defendant did, "at Fayetteville, on the 1st of June, 1832, procure, advise, and assist Joseph I. Straughan to secrete, embezzle and destroy a mail of letters, with which the said Joseph I. Straughan was entrusted, and which had come to his possession, and was intended to be conveyed by post from Pittsborough, in the district aforesaid, to Fayetteville, also in said district, containing bank notes; the said Joseph I. Straughan being, at the time of such procuring, advising and assisting, then and there a person employed in one of the departments of the post-office establishment, to-wit, a carrier of the mail of the United States from Pittsborough aforesaid to Fayetteville aforesaid, contrary to the form of the act of Congress," etc.

The second count was in the following words: That the defendant "did procure, advise, and assist Joseph I. Straughan to secrete, embezzle and destroy a letter addressed by Joseph Small to Joseph Baker, with which the said Joseph I. Straughan was intrusted, and which came to his possession, and was intended to be conveyed by post from Pittsborough, in the district aforesaid, to Fayetteville, aforesaid, containing sundry bank notes, amounting, in the whole, to sixty dollars, of a discrimination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of the issue of a bank to the said jurors also unknown; the said Joseph I. Straughan being, at the time of such procuring, advising and assisting, then and there a person employed in one of the departments of the post-office establishment, to-wit, a carrier of the mail of the United States from Pittsborough aforesaid to Fayetteville aforesaid, contrary to the form of the act of Congress," etc. United States v. Mills, 7 Pet. (U. S.) 138, 8 L. ed. 636.

VI. Indictment for Fraudulent Use of Mail.

The first count charges "that Flemming and Loring, pretending to be commission merchants at Chicago, and to be managers of an association or fund by them pretended to exist under the designation of Flemming & Merriam's 'Fund W,' for speculating and trading in grain, provisions, and stock, had devised a scheme and artifice to induce the sending and intrusting of moneys to them by divers other persons, for the investment and employment thereof, for those persons respectively, in such pretended association or fund, and the same moneys fraudulently to convert to the own use of them, the said Flemming and Loring, and thereby to defraud the said persons who should so send and intrust the same to them, which scheme was to be effected by opening correspondence with such persons by means of the post-office establishment of the United States, and by inciting such persons to open communication with them, the said Loring and Flemming, under the firm name of Flemming & Merriam. And that for the purpose of executing such scheme, defendants did place in the post-office at Chicago, ten letters and ten packets directed to divers persons, to the jurors unknown." United States v. Flemming, 18 Fed. 907, 908, 909.

Complaint for Preliminary Examination (b).

Georgia, Houston county:

Before me, Wm. S. Moore, a justice of the peace, personally came Jesse Cooper, of said county, who being duly sworn, saith on oath, that on the fifth day of February, 1853, at Perry in said county of Houston, George W. Ray, Jr., of said county, did make a violent assault upon the person of William F. Taylor, of said county, with a wooden board or piece of plank, which he, the said George W. in his hands then and there, had and held, feloniously, wilfully and maliciously, did strike and inflict divers heavy blows, upon the arm and head of him, the said William F. Taylor, giving to the said William F. then and there, with the board or piece of plank aforesaid, upon his head aforesaid, one or more mortal wounds, of which said striking and blows aforesaid, the said Wm. F. Taylor did soon after die.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, Feb. 8th, 1853.

Warrant for Arrest for Preliminary Examination (b).

Georgia, Houston County: To Wm. H. Talton, deputy sheriff of said county, and to all lawful officers to execute and return:

Whereas Jesse Cooper of said county, hath this day made oath before me, William S. Moore, one of the justices of the peace for said county, that on the fifth day of February, 1853, at Perry in said county of Houston, George W. Ray, Jr., of said county, did make a violent assault upon the person of William F. Taylor, of said county, and with a wooden board or piece of plank, which he the said George W. in his hands then and there had and held, feloniously, wilfully and maliciously, did strike and inflict divers heavy blows upon the arm and head of him, the said William F. Taylor, giving to the said William F. then there with the board or piece of plank aforesaid, upon his head aforesaid, one or more mortal wounds, of which said striking and blows aforesaid, the said William F. Taylor did soon thereafter die.

These are, therefore, to command you, and each of you, forthwith to apprehend him, the said George W. Ray, junior, and to bring him before me or some other justice of the peace of the county aforesaid, to answer to the charge of murder committed by him, upon the person of the said William F. Taylor, on the said fifth day of February instant, and to be further dealt with as the law directs.

Hereof fail not, and have you then and there this warrant.

Given under my hand and seal, this Feb'y. 8th, 1853.

Wm. S. Moore, J. P. (L. S.)

I have executed the within warrant by taking the body of the within named George W. Ray, junior, and have him before William S. Moore and David M. Brown, justices of the peace for the county of Houston.

People v. Nash, 5 Park. Crim. (N. Y.) 473, 470.

VI. Finding of Probable Cause on Preliminary Examination (a).

"The court finds that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant, J. I. Bailey, committed the offense charged; it is therefore ordered by the court that the said defendant, J. I. Bailey, be committed to the jail of Reno county until the next regular term of the district court, to answer said charge." State v. Bailey, 32 Kan. 83, 3 Pac. 769.

Finding of Probable Cause on Preliminary Examination (b).

"It appearing to me that the offense of murder has been committed, and that there is sufficient cause to believe the within named W. A. Sehorn, defendant, guilty thereof, I order that he be held to answer the same, and committed to the sheriff of the county of Glenn." (Signed) "George Jansen, Justice of the Peace."

People v. Sehorn, 116 Cal. 503, 48 Pac. 495.

VII. Warrant of Commitment After Preliminary Examination.

"State of Kansas, Reno county. Before Geo. D. Barclay, J. P., of Reno Township. To the sheriff or any constable of Reno county:

Whereas, one J. I. Bailey was, on the twenty-first day of May, 1883, arrested on a warrant issued by A. W. McKinney, coroner of Reno county, charging the said J. I. Bailey with the killing, feloniously, of one J. P. Bailey, in said Reno county, state of Kansas; and whereas (said J. I. Bailey), after a preliminary examination, held before the undersigned justice of the peace, it is found that said J. P. Bailey has been feloniously killed, and that said J. I. Bailey is probably the guilty party, you are therefore commanded forthwith to take the said J. I. Bailey, and commit him to the jail of Reno county, there to remain until the next term of district court, to be dealt with according to law.

"Witness my hand, at my office in said township, this 24th day of May, 1883.

Geo. D. Barclay, J. P."

I. Declarations.

- A. Declaration Against Shopman for Selling on Credit Contrary to Express Orders.

For that whereas the said plaintiff, before the making of the promises and undertakings of the said defendant in this and the (two) next succeeding counts, was, and from thence hitherto hath been and still is a linen draper, and the trade and business of a linen draper during all that time exercised and carried on, to-wit, at, etc., and thereupon, heretofore, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, in consideration that the said plaintiff, so being such linen draper as aforesaid, at the special instance and request of the said defendant, had then and there retained and hired the said defendant, to serve him, the said plaintiff, as a servant and shopman, in his said trade and business, for certain wages and reward, to be therefor paid by the said plaintiff to the said defendant, and also in consideration that the said plaintiff, at the like request of the said defendant, had then and there agreed to find, and provide board and lodging for him, the said defendant, whilst he, the said defendant should continue to serve him, the said plaintiff as aforesaid; the said defendant then and there undertook, and promised the said plaintiff, that he, the said defendant, would not, whilst he should continue to be the shopman of the said plaintiff as aforesaid, sell or deliver any goods or merchandises of the said plaintiff on credit, or otherwise, than for ready money, to any person or persons, without the consent or approbation of the said plaintiff; and that in case he, the said defendant, should sell and deliver goods or merchandises on credit, or otherwise than for ready money, without the said plaintiff's consent and approbation, and the same should not be duly paid for by the purchasers thereof, he, the said defendant, would pay to him, the said plaintiff, the prices for which he should so sell such goods and merchandises on credit, or otherwise than for ready money; yet the said defendant, not regarding his said promise and undertaking, after the making of the said promise and undertaking, and whilst he continued to be the servant and shopman of the said plaintiff as aforesaid, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, without the consent and approbation of the said plaintiff, sold and delivered certain goods and merchandises, to-wit, etc., the property of the said plaintiff of a large value, to-wit, of the value of ——— dollars, of lawful money of the United States of America, for a certain sum of money, to-wit, the sum of ——— dollars, to certain persons, to the said plaintiff unknown, on the credit of a certain draft on certain persons trading under the style and firm of Messrs. R. & Co., which said draft, the said Messrs. R. & Co., afterwards, to-wit, on, etc., last aforesaid, being the day when the said draft purported to be due and payable, wholly refused to pay, and which said last mentioned sum of money, still remains wholly due and unpaid to the said plaintiff, and the said plaintiff is in great danger of losing the same; nor have the said persons who so purchased the said goods and merchandises, duly paid the said sum of ——— dollars, or any part thereof, for the same, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. And the said plaintiff further says, that the said defendant, further disregarding his said promise, etc., afterwards, and whilst he continued to be the servant and shopman of the said plaintiff, as aforesaid, to-wit, on, etc., at, etc., aforesaid, without the consent and approbation of the said plaintiff, and against his will, sold and delivered certain other goods and merchandises, to-wit, etc., the property of the said plaintiff, of a large value, to-wit, of the value of ——— dollars, of like lawful money on credit, otherwise than for ready money, to one J. K., for a certain other sum of money, to-wit, the sum of ——— dollars, of like lawful money, and which said last mentioned sum of money still remains wholly due and unpaid to the said plaintiff, and the said plaintiff is in great danger of losing the same, to-wit, at, etc., aforesaid. Burr. App. 266, §530; 2 Chit. Pl. 348.

B. Declaration by Agent Against Principal for Commission According to Agreement.

"And the plaintiff says the defendant is a manufacturer of machines for making artificial ice; that on or about November, 1892, it entered into a contract with the plaintiff, whereby it agreed to make the plaintiff its agent to procure purchasers for said machines in and about Boston, and to pay him for his services in procuring such purchasers in said territory, as a commission, a price varying according to the size and capacity of said machines; that the amount which the plaintiff was to receive as said commission was to be determined by fixing a price which the defendant was to receive for each of the sizes sold by it, and the plaintiff was to be allowed to fix a sum in advance as the selling price of said machines, varying according to the sizes and capacity; that the defendant should protect the plaintiff in the matter of prices, and should not sell any machines to the plaintiff's customers at prices less than those named by the plaintiff to said customers, without his consent; that for a thirty-ton machine, said advance was not to exceed $2,500; that the plaintiff, on or about November 12, 1894, procured the Dorchester Hygeia Ice Company, of said Boston, as a purchaser of a thirty-ton machine, and fixed the price to be paid by said purchaser at $2,500, in advance of the price to be received by said defendant for a machine of said size; in accordance with said agreement; that the defendant thereupon, in violation of its said agreement, proceeded to complete said sale at a price less than the price given to said Dorchester Hygeia Ice Company by the plaintiff, and at a price which deprived the plaintiff of a large portion of his commission upon said sale under said agreement, without the consent or knowledge of the plaintiff; that by reason of said breach of said agreement, the defendant became liable to the plaintiff in damages for the loss of his commission upon said sale, which he would have received under said agreement, and for compensation for his services in procuring said purchaser, and for all damages sustained by the plaintiff caused by the breach of said agreement, which, the plaintiff avers, is said sum of $2,500; and that the defendant owes the plaintiff said sum of $2,500, with interest thereon from the time of said sale." Buffum v. York Mfg. Co., 175 Mass. 471, 56 N. E. 599.

II. Complaints.

A. Complaint Against Agent for Selling for Worthless Bill.

I. As in II, E, inserting at the *, for cash, or an approved bill or note at sixty days or less, and not otherwise (or according to the fact).

II. That the defendant did not use due diligence in selling the same, but negligently sold the same for a bad and insufficient bill of exchange, having four months to run, and which is worthless and of no value to the plaintiff (and although the same became payable before this action, is unpaid), to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 397.

B. Complaint Against Agent for Breach of Instructions as to Sale.

I. That on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____, the plaintiff employed the defendant, for a compensation, to sell _____ hogsheads of sugar of the value of _____ dollars, for the plaintiff; and that he received the same from the plaintiff for that purpose.

II. That in consideration of the premises, the defendant then promised the plaintiff to use due diligence to sell, and in selling the same for the plaintiff, and in obeying the reasonable directions of the plaintiff in regard to the sale thereof.

III. That the plaintiff afterwards, on or about the _____ day of _____, 18____, directed the defendant to sell said sugar at the price of _____, and not less, in case the same could be obtained by using reasonable diligence in that behalf.

IV. That said direction was a reasonable one, and the defendant, by using reasonable diligence, might and ought to have obtained that price for the sugar.

V. That the defendant did not use due and reasonable diligence in obeying said direction, and neglected to sell the said sugar according thereto, and by reason thereof, the said sugar being afterwards sold by the defendant for the plaintiff, produced _____ dollars less than it would have produced had the defendant used such due diligence to sell, and in selling the same; and thereby, also, the said sugar became much wasted and deteriorated in value, and the plaintiff incurred _____ dollars expenses in warehousing the same to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 398.

C. Complaint Against Auctioneer, for Selling Below Seller's Limit.

I. That the defendant being engaged at _____, in the business of an auctioneer, in consideration that the plaintiff would deliver to him (very briefly designate the goods), to be sold by him for the plaintiff for a compensation, undertook, on or about the _____ day of _____, 18____, to sell the same, * at and for no less money than the sum of _____ dollars, and not to sell them otherwise.

II. That the plaintiff accordingly delivered said goods to the defendant for that purpose.

III. That the defendant, without the consent of the plaintiff, sold them for less than the aforesaid sum, to-wit, for _____ dollars, to the damage of the plaintiff _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 399.

D. Complaint Against an Auctioneer, for Selling on Credit.

I. and II. As in preceding form, substituting at the * for cash, and not otherwise.

III. That the defendant afterwards sold said goods on credit without the plaintiff's consent, whereby the plaintiff has hitherto lost, and is likely wholly to lose their value, to his damage _____ dollars. 1 Abb. Forms 399.
